FRIENDLESS IN BIG CITY

Brooklyn Police Pick Up Young Woman From Duluth.

Says She Ran Away From Home to Go on Stage.

New York, March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—While walking about the shopping district of Brooklyn, Detective Ellwood noticed a pretty young girl, apparently not over 17 years old, wandering aimlessly about on Fulton street. He was on the lookout for shoplifters. He watched her and she was joined by two negroes and entered a house in the negro district at Hudson avenue. He followed her and found her about to drink liquor with them. He arrested her and the men escaped. She was homeless, destitute and hungry. She said her home was in Duluth, where her father was a contractor on the docks for loading lumber on boats, and said she had run away from her home, first to Chicago and finally here to study music and go on the stage. The police magistrate, finding she was respectable, sent her to a home till the probation officer could investigate her story. The police will not disclose the particulars which she told them as to her relatives' names and addresses till investigated. She gave the name of Mary Schubert.

INSIST TURTLES ARE REPTILES

Cubans Do Not Want Them Classified as Animals.

Washington, March 31.—A weird, but serious complaint has reached the bureau of insular affairs of the war department relating to the classification by the Cuban customs officials of sea turtles. The point at issue is whether these monster turtles should pay duty as "animals not otherwise classified" to come in as "reptiles" free of duty. That a turtle is a reptile is tenaciously held by those interested in the industry which hertofore has flourished on the south side of the island. The turtles are captured in great numbers near Bato Bano and a ready market is found in all parts of Cuba. Under the "animal" classification, the duty collected is regarded as prohibitive, according to the complaint made, and authority is sought to have the turtle once more assigned to the "reptile class." To support the contention, the claim is made that Roman Catholics consider that a turtle is not flesh. It is suggested here that the Cuban customs officials doubtless had before them in making the classification the ruling of the American government in classifying frogs' legs as "dressed poultry."

WILL SET ASIDE; WIFE IS TO SHARE

Brutal Treatment of His Wife and Children Due to Monomania.

Sidney, Iowa, March 31.—On the ground that he was a victim of Olkemania, Judge Thornhill has set aside the will of the late F. A. Doane, a farmer who lived in the eastern part of Fremont county, and has ordered an equitable division of his $225,000 estate among his legal heirs.

By the terms of his will, Doane practically disinherited his children and left his property in the hands of a trustee, to be turned over to his grandchildren when the youngest was 25 years of age. His family contested on the ground that he was insane.

Brutal beyond expression was Doane's treatment of his wife and family, according to the evidence. They were worked like slaves, underfed, ill-clad and cursed and beaten by the unnatural husband and father. One cold winter day a year ago, the wife went to a bank where her husband had thousands of dollars on deposit and asked for $5 the banker could not give it to her nor the merchant trust her, for both knew Doane would not pay.

Ten years ago Doane was set upon by masked robbers, who severely wounded him, and ever since he had been at swords' points with his own family, laboring under the insane delusion that his assailants were his own sons.

Olkemania is a form of monomania which perverts the domestic affections, turning them to suspicion and hatred.

CUBANS MUTINY.

Declare They Were Badly Treated on Trip to Brazil.

Rio Janeiro, March 31.—The 500 Cubans who recently left San Diego on board the steamer Amanda for Brazil, where they were to be put to work on the construction of the new railroad running between Brazil and Bolivia, have mutinied at Para. They declare that they were badly treated on board the vessel and that for this reason they will not continue the trip. Arrangements have been completed for the bringing in of other workmen from Cuba by the Norwegian steamer Boston.

FIRE AT CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 31.—The plant of Western Paper Goods company was destroyed by fire early today. The loss is between $150,000 and $175,000 fully covered by insurance.

PRINCE DE SAGAN,

He Insists on Recognizing Sovereignty of the Chinese.

Refuses to Admit That Russia Has Any Jurisdiction.

St. Petersburg, March 31.—The Russian government is disturbed by the attitude assumed by Fred D. Fisher, the American consul at Harbin, in the matter of recognizing the jurisdiction of Russia in Manchuria. Mr. Fisher insists that Chinese sovereignty in Manchuria is supreme, and furthermore, he has supported the protests of China against the establishment by Russia of municipalities in the railroad zone, at Harbin and Chailar, independent of the Chinese government, and his attitude in this Russo-Chinese difficulty has prompted Russia to seek an explanation of his course, both at the American embassy here and in Washington.

Mr. Fisher is accredited to China, and since his arrival in Harbin, in January, 1907, he has consistently refused to recognize or admit that he should have anything to do with the Russian administration of the territory. He has

CONTEST ON IN INDIANA

Four Candidates Desire the Gubernatorial Nomination

At the Republican State Convention to be Held on Wednesday.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—Delegates to the Indiana Republican state convention, which will begin a two-days' session here tomorrow, began arriving in numbers today. Both of the United States senators and all the Republican representatives, except Mr. Holliday of the Fifth district, are here. The convention will adopt a platform, nominate a state ticket and elect four delegates-at-large to the national convention at Chicago. The delegates will be instructed to vote for Vice President Charles Warren Fairbanks for the presidency. The twenty-six district delegates to the national convention were chosen by district meetings, and have all been instructed for Mr. Fairbanks.

The gubernatorial contest between Representative James E. Watson, Charles Miller, former attorney general; W. S. Taylor, also former attorney general, and Lieutenant Governor Hugh T. Miller, is occupying the greatest amount of attention. There are two candidates for lieutenant governor. Sever of the nominations will be by acclamation, as the present Republican incumbents are to be given a second nomination, without opposition.

At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon Representative Overstreet, as temporary chairman, will deliver the convention address, and will be followed by Senators Beveridge and Hemenway and Governor Hanly. It is expected a letter from Vice President Fairbanks will be read.

The nominations will be made Thursday. One candidate for governor has ordered 10,000 American beauty roses to be distributed among his friends and followers.

The four delegates at large to the national convention will be United States Senators Beveridge and Hemenway, Governor Hanly and James P. Goodrich of Winchester, chairman of the state Republican committee.

The two subjects that are occupying the attention of the platform makers are the tariff and liquor legislation in the form of local option, whether with county or ward and township as the unit. There is sentiment in favor of a tariff commission, but the stronger feeling seems to be in favor of an immediate revision of the tariff by the extra session of congress to be called immediately after the fall elections.

TWO OF EELLS' VICTIMS DEAD

Second Woman Shot by Philadelphia Policeman Expires.

Philadelphia, March 31.—The second of the three women whom George Eells, a policeman, shot on Sunday while in a jealous rage died today. Mrs. Ella Paschall, for whom Eells deserted his wife and children fifteen years ago, and who was endeavoring to dissolve their relationship, was the second victim to die. Mrs. Albert Andress, with whom Mrs. Paschall had taken up her residence, was shot and instantly killed, and Miss Mary Jewell, a sister of the man whom Eells accused of supplanting him in the affections of Mrs. Paschall, is in a hospital with a bullet wound in the neck. Eells is in prison charged with the murder of Mrs. Andress, and he will be arraigned again charged with the killing of Mrs. Paschall.

LEGISLATOR IS PLACED ON TRIAL

CHARLES E. WARD,
Speaker Pro-tem of the Michigan Legislature, Placed on Trial for Manslaughter.

REPRESENTATIVE PLACED ON TRIAL

Charles E. Ward of Michigan Charged With Death of Girl.

Detroit, Mich., March 31.—Representative Charles E. Ward of Bancroft, Mich., speaker pro-tem of the legislature, was today placed on trial, here, before Judge Connelly, on the charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Edith Presley, from the effects of an illegal operation. Miss Presley was the proof reader in the state senate, and evidence was introduced at the inquest into her death to indicate that she and Representative Ward were close friends. Representative Ward was accompanied to court today by his wife and two other women. It is expected there will be difficulty in securing a jury.

GOVERNOR GUILD IMPROVES.

Boston, March 31.—Governor Guild's condition according to the morning bulletin today showed a moderate but continued improvement.

POLICE TO GUARD TAFT

Chicago, March 31.—The Daily News today says: Unusual precautions will be taken by the police department to protect Secretary Taft from possible mishap during his visit to Chicago this week. The name of the railroad over which he is to arrive is to be kept secret and while he is in Chicago police will guard him constantly. During his stay, Secretary Taft will appear only once before the general public, that will be on Saturday afternoon at the Hamilton club, when there will be a public reception in his honor. To this reception all people in Chicago have been invited by the club.

MAN MUST SERVE 27 YEARS FOR BURGLARY

New York, March 31.—Judge William P. Platt yesterday at White Plains sentenced James Harlan, one of the burglars who masqueraded as a yachtsman in evening clothes, and who committed thirteen robberies in New Rochelle, Mount Vernon and Yonkers, to twenty-seven years in Sing Sing prison. This is the heaviest sentence ever imposed on a burglar in Westchester county.

He Got Half Way Through and Was Held Fast.

Remained Captive for Two Hours Between Iron Edges.

New York, March 31.—Giuseppe Capello, a youthful stowaway on the Italian line steamer Brasilio, which arrived here today, took a desperate chance in a futile attempt to escape from the steamer soon after she reached her dock. He managed to free himself of the manacles which restrained him and after evading his guards started to force his body through one of the narrow portholes. The dock was only a few feet below the outer edge of the porthole and liberty seemed almost within his grasp. As he learned in a moment, however, his efforts had resulted only in making his imprisonment more stringent than ever. Working himself carefully forward his hips found an obstruction in either side of the porthole and try as he would he could not draw them through. The hole was too small. Then he attempted to wiggle back into the ship to try another exit, but his arms and shoulders, which went through so readily a few moments before, proved too great a bulk for the narrow space. At last he was forced to call for help. Several ship officers worked for some time attempting to remove the stowaway from his prison, but were obliged to call for assistance from the police. Then the clothing on the upper part of the man's body was cut away, but still for two hours he was held fast between the iron edges of the porthole. When finally he was extricated from his awkward position, he was taken to the emigrant station at Ellis Island under a special guard, and probably will be deported.

TO INVESTIGATE THE CAUSE OF EXPLOSION.

Hanna, Wyo., March 31.—Under orders from Governor H. G. Brooks, State Mine Inspector Noah Young has begun an investigation of the cause of the two explosions here last Saturday night, in which at least fifty-nine lives were lost. The cororer is delaying the inquest until it shall be determined whether the bodies still in the mine can be recovered. No further effort to open the mine will be made until the fire is smothered. It is hoped to resume the search for bodies next Thursday.

GOVERNOR AND PARTY

Will Participate in Dedication of Monument at Shiloh.

Several People From Duluth and Vicinity Will Go.

St. Paul, March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Governor Johnson and party will leave April 7 for Shiloh, where they will take part in the dedication of the monument erected to the memory of the Minnesota veterans, who participated at the battle at that place. Governor Johnson will deliver the principal address at the unveiling ceremony.

It is planned to have about fifty in the party and two special cars have been engaged by Adjt. Gen. F. B. Wood, who will be in charge. The dedication ceremonies will be held April 10. Part of the trip will be made by boat on the 10th.

A day will be spent at Mammoth cave, one at Louisville and one in Chicago. The following will compose the party: Governor and Mrs. Johnson, Gen. and Mrs. Wood, Gen. and Mrs. E. L. Welch and daughters, St. Paul; Maj. Charles W. Fisher, St. Paul; Gen. John Dwan, Two Harbors; Gen. and Mrs. F. W. Johnson, New Ulm; Gen. and Mrs. M. M. Gasser, Duluth; Col. and Mrs. Daniel Aberle, St. Paul; Gen. and Mrs. A. J. Stone, St. Paul; Maj. and Mrs. E. H. Whitcomb and daughter, St. Paul; Col. and Mrs. John C. Hardy, St. Paul; Col. Charles L. West, Austin; Col. John R. Conway, Detroit; Col. and Mrs. E. W. Murphy, Minneapolis; Col. Thomas F. McGilvray, Duluth; Col. Cleve Van Dyke, Bisbee, Nev.; Col. David F. Jones, Minneapolis; Col. and Mrs. David Wallblom, St. Paul; Col. R. J. Schiffman, St. Paul; Col. and Mrs. S. A. Davis, St. Paul; Col. and Mrs. Paul Doty, St. Paul; Maj. and Mrs. George S. Koffend, Minneapolis; Maj. and Mrs. J. Uno Sebenius, Duluth; Maj. and Mrs. W. R. Wyllee, Minneapolis; Capt. W. H. Hatcher, Minneapolis.

It is also possible that the party will be increased by the addition of Col. and Mrs. E. H. Hobe, St. Paul; Col. and Mrs. A. H. Poehler, Minneapolis; Col. and Mrs. John E. Burchard, St. Paul.

New York, March 31.—Madame Anna Gould, who recently secured a divorce from the Count de Castellane, is ill with bronchitis and stomach trouble in the apartment of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morse in the Hotel St. Regis. Madame Gould was said today also to be in a very nervous condition. She went to the St. Regis yesterday afternoon after a conference with her brothers and sister at the home of Miss Helen Gould, where Madame Gould had been staying since her arrival from France. It is said that Madame Gould went to the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Morse expecting to pay them a visit for several days, and that her illness developed unexpectedly.

Since arriving in New York Madame Gould has met the Prince de Sagan several times in company with Mr. and Mrs. Morse, and there has been much discussion of the possibility of an announcement that she is engaged to marry the prince. Some of the members of the Gould family are reported to be opposed to such an engagement.

WOULD-BE SUICIDE BETTER.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 31.—At the Sisters' hospital today it was said that the condition of Melvin A. Root, the aged man from Bay City, Mich., who shot himself three times in the head on the steps of a crematory yesterday, showed signs of improvement. Two of the bullets were extracted last night. The third will be removed today.

ATTENDING TO BUSINESS

Nothing on Shore to Tempt Either Officers or Men.

Magdalena Bay, March 21, via San Diego, March 31.—(Special Correspondence.)—This is the first port touched by the Atlantic fleet since leaving Hampton Roads, where social duties did not weigh upon the officers. Everything of the sort is eliminated here, and the next three weeks will be nothing but unremitting attention to duty. On shore there is nothing to tempt either the officers or men, and there are few landing parties. Occasionally Lieut. D. A. Weaver, fleet athletic officer, takes parties ashore for practice in baseball and field events. Lieut. Weaver has decided to put on, at Los Angeles, the finals in the championship boxing events of the fleet. There will be one contest for each day of the program there, each deciding a class championship of the fleet. The lightweights will fight the first day, the welterweights the second day, the middleweights the third and the heavy-

INVITED, BUT NOT TO SPEAK

New York, March 31.—While William J. Bryan has been invited to attend the dinner of the National Democratic club in honor of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson on April 13, he has not been asked to speak. The committee announces that it desires to make the dinner purely one in honor of Jefferson's memory and to remove from it all semblance of politics. The speakers will be President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton university; Senator Robert L. Taylor of Tennessee; Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma; Senator F. M. Simmons of North Carolina, and Edward N. Shepard of New York. The committee announces that the list of speakers will not be enlarged.

Kansas City, March 31.—Before leaving here today for Lincoln, Neb., W. J. Bryan said he would attend and address the National Democratic club of New York city at the Thomas Jefferson birthday dinner on April 13.

A FAMOUS OLD VETERAN DEAD

Col. Rockwood, Who Captured Mosby Three Times, is Dead.

New York, March 31.—Col. Elihu R. Rockwood, for forty years a well known New York photographer, dropped dead yesterday in his studio, of heart disease, due to rheumatism resulting from exposure in the Civil war.

Col. Rockwood had the distinction of having three times captured the famous Confederate guerrilla, Col. John S. Mosby. Both were Masons and three times Mosby was set free after playing poker all night with his captor.

Col. Rockwood was a good story teller and loved to tell how once after he had captured Mosby he won $1,000 from him. The next morning Mosby got the wink and slipped away. Once Mosby captured Col. Rockwood also, and there was another poker game and daylight Rockwood was back inside the federal lines. Col. Rockwood ws past commander of Farragut post, G. A. R., this city, and his burial will be under the rites of the Grand Army of the Republic.

SHOOTS AND CUTS SELF, YET LIVES

Charles Anderson Makes Desperate Double Attempt on His Life.

International Falls, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles Anderson, a Black river homesteader, who had made a desperate yet unsuccessful double attempt to end his career by shooting and cutting himself, was adjudged insane last week and taken to the asylum at Fergus Falls.

His reason has been unballanced for some time, but he was harmless up to last Wednesday, when he attempted to kill himself. He had just returned from International Falls and stepped at the homestead of a neighbor, Nels Alstermark, when, during the latter's absence from the house, he shot himself in the head, directly in front of the right ear, with a 44-caliber revolver. Following this he slashed his wrists with a razor. Mr. Alstermark called some of his neighbors and took the insane man's weapons away from him and brought him to town. Dr. Withrow thought it unadvisable to probe for the bullet, and as long as the man's condition is almost normal in a physical way, he has required but little medical care.

Anderson is a Swede, 40 years of age, and has been in this country but a year. It is considered as marvelous that the fellow is not dead instead of able to walk around as if nothing had happened.

THE GRIST IN POLICE COURT

John Riley was arrested a few days ago for fighting on the street, and he put up a strong plea. He claimed that a burly prize fighter had set upon and beaten him, and when the officer appeared, had run away, leaving him to the mercy of the law. Riley was let go and he set out on a hunt for his assailant. He thinks he has him in Seiger Thompson, who was arrested on Riley's complaint, and appeared in court this morning. He pleaded not guilty and his case was set for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

NEW DULUTH BANK TO CLOSE

In compliance with the new state banking law, which goes into effect April 1, U. C. Tower of New Duluth is closing out his banking business there. The law states that no bank of less capitalization than $25,000 can lawfully exist in a city of Duluth's size, and New Duluth, coming within the corporate limits of Duluth, also comes under this law.

Mr. Tower is the postmaster and general store owner at New Duluth, and in connection with his store business, he ran a small private bank. New Duluth is too small a place to support a state bank of not less capitalization than $25,000, so Mr. Tower is closing out his private banking business.

For a time he thought of getting some financial assistance from some parties in the West, and reorganizing as a state bank under the requirements of the law, trusting in the development of New Duluth after the steel plant has been completde, to make it possible for a state bank to exist there.

Mr. Tower says he has not fully decided whether or not he will try to incorporate under the state law and start a state bank in New Duluth when the steel plant has been built.

REFUSES AN INTERVIEW.

Madame Sembrich is Unwilling to Talk for Publication.

Even when importuned by her manager, who knew the value of newspaper advertising, Madame Sembrich declined to be interviewed this morning when she arrived in Duluth.

Madame Sembrich was tired after the concert in St. Paul last evening, and the trip had not improved matters. She therefore excused herself and refused to give her impressions of Duluth, or music or any other topic.

The advance seat sale for the concert makes it a certainty that the affair will be one of the most brilliant musical events in recent years, and the big auditorium of the First Methodist church will doubtless be filled. There were still a few choice seats left this afternoon, however.

Women's Clothes With That Element of Style Which Presents Bold Argument for Gidding Garments. They Are Moderately Priced.....

Our $25.00

Dresses

In Lingerie and Silk.

At the above mentioned price we have "quite a number" of very "Fetching" Styles, such as all-over embroidery Princesses, with Val. laces inserted at every seam. Then there are those of fine lingerie cloth, in white and delicate colors that are much trimmed with lace inserted at the seams or applied here and there in dainty frills. Some have sleeves wholly of numerous rows of lace or with deep embroidery flounces around the bottom. And still we have not mentioned the handsome silks, in spots, stripes and plain colors. Many in guimpe style, showing sleeves and yokes of lace. Among the dresses spoken of above, there are very many for less than $25, for we have them at $15.00, $17.50, $21.50, $22.00 and $23.00.

Suits

In Many Cloths and Colors.

We have taken particular pains to gather an attractive and diversified collection of suits, in plain materials, shadow stripes, dainty mixtures and pretty checks and stripes. The weaves alone bespeak variety, for there are serges and worsteds, homespuns, and novelty weaves. The cut of each is "New." The shape is "worked in by hand" not "pressed on," with an iron—a big distinction and a vital difference—as can be shown after six months' wear. For instance, take one of the pretty jackets, wrap it up into a ball, if you please, let it loose, give it a little shake, and it is as pretty as ever. But just try that with a poorly-made garment, and see how the hard stiffenings show every break.

INSPECTORS ACTIVE AGAIN

The school board's own committee of investigation is on the job again today.

Directors Barnes and Stevens, Supt. Denfeld and Chief Engineer Larson are inspecting the schools at New Duluth and Fond du Lac today. What they will find there will develop at the meeting of the board of education Friday evening.

The committee will report to the board Friday on the conditions they have found in the schools the members have visited. It was the committee's original purpose to visit all of the schools in the city before the meeting of the board, but the members have found it impossible to do so.

During last week, the committee did nothing at all, not wishing to visit any schools when the classes were not in session as the fire drills the committee have been supervising have been an important part of the body's work.

At the meeting Friday, the board will probably confirm the appointment as truant officer of George B. Fifer. He has been recommended by the committee on schools and teachers, which was instructed to look out for a good man.

ARRESTED IN DETROIT.

John W. Wilson has been arrested in Detroit at the request of the Duluth police. He is charged with working a smooth game on Thomas P. Bradley of this city.

According to the complaint lodged with the police, Wilson showed Mr. Bradley a telegram, purporting to be from his employer, Axel Anderson, in which Mr. Anderson ordered Wilson to go to Winnipeg at once.

Wilson represented that he needed $50 for expense money at once, and Mr. Bradley gave him the money, it is claimed. Wilson is then claimed to have left for the East, and he was apprehended in Detroit.

Wilson is Better.

A rumor was circulated this afternoon that Henry Wilson, who killed his wife in West Duluth last Friday and attempted to take his own life, died this afternoon at the St. Luke's hospital.

The rumor was unfounded, and Wilson is reported to be much better, with the chances for his recovery good.

TO BEGIN SOON ON NEW PLANT

Permit Issued for $40,000 Building for Cold Storage Company.

A building permit was issued by Building Inspector Kielley this morning for the new cold storage plant of the Northern Cold Storage & Warehouse company. The building is to be of brick construction, 115x86 feet in size, seven stories in height, and will cost $40,000. It is to be located at No. 6 slip between Seventh and Eighth avenues west, convenient to both the railroad tracks and the boat lines.

The building is to be erected by McLeod & Smith, and the plans were prepared by Westerlin & Campbell of Chicago. Every convenience known to modern cold storage plants will be installed. The refrigerating system will be complete and modern, and when completed, the plant will be one of the finest in the Northwest.

The Northern Cold Storage & Warehouse company is a new concern, composed of Duluth men. It has good financial backing and experience in the personnel of the firm. The plant will be in the hands of competent managers and will be an important addition to Duluth's wholesale district.

Work will be begun immediately, and McLeod & Smith will keep a large force at work until it is completed.

CAMPS BURNED.

The National Employment company yesterday received an order for seventeen men for summer logging in Northern Wisconsin, together with information that fifty more would be needed a little later on. Just as the last man of the seventeen was hired, there came a telegram telling of the destruction by fire of the camps in question, and cancelling the order. The men had to be hunted up and their money paid as a fee returned.

Orders for men are somewhat more plentiful now than they were a week ago, but the supply of labor far exceeds the demand. From now on orders will be coming in for men for railroad work, but for a time the orders will be small ones. General contract work is also about to start up, and this will relieve the situation somewhat. Today's trains continue to bring in hundreds of lumberjacks from the camps that have broken up.

SENSATIONAL SUIT SELLING

There is not the slightest excuse for any man in Duluth not having a new Easter suit. The Oak Hall Clothing company, in today's Herald, announces a sale of suits for men and young men that is truly on the sensational order. Whole suits going for less than the cost of making the vest is an unusual offering. The Oak Hall confesses that the sale is for advertising purposes, but that 300 suits, divided into two prices, will go. The firm has prepared for the event by adding an extra force of salespeople, that all may be waited on properly. ***

HILL NOMINATED.

Will Succeed Charlemagne Tower as Ambassador at Berlin.

Washington, March 31.—President Roosevelt sent to the senate today the nomination of Dr. David Jayne Hill to be American ambassador at Berlin, Germany. The resignation of Charlemange Tower, now at the post, has been accepted to take effect June 1. At that time Dr. Hill will assume his new duties. This statement, made at the White House today, is said to be taken as a happy ending of the Hill incident.

A PROBABLE CANDIDATE

Practically Assured That C. B. Miller Will Run for Congress.

G. W. Rodenberg Mentioned as Candidate for House Speakership.

While Clarence B. Miller has not committed himself in regard to the matter, it is generally believed that he will be a candidate for congress on the Republican ticket, in opposition to J. Adam Bede. Talk concerning his probable candidacy is becoming quite general, and his numerous friends are strongly urging him to get into the race. No other candidate has appeared up to the present time, and it is considered likely that Bede and Miller will be the only men in the field.

It is conceded that Mr. Miller would be able to put up a very strong fight for the place, and the campaign should be an interesting one. The Duluth man is now pretty well known all through the district, and is frequently called upon to speak at banquets, conventions and other meetings, all of which is supposed to add to a man's political strength. The story that Judge Page Morris may decide to become a candidate for congress seems to be entirely without foundation. It is given no credence in Duluth.

Representative George W. Rodenberg of St. Paul, who was very prominent in legislative matters during the last session of the legislature, is in the city. Mr. Rodenberg has been mentioned as a candidate for the speakership of the house, and his friends are trying to prevail upon him to make an effort to land the honor. He has the matter under consideration, and it is believed he will decide to announce himself a candidate.

Mr. Rodenberg made quite a record in life insurance legislation, and took active part in committee work in framing up a bill that, while entirely just and fair, was anything but pleasing to the insurance companies. It so happened that while the St. Paul man was framing up this adverse legislation, he held a good position with one of the large insurance companies of the country, which, after the bill became a law, ceased doing business in the state of Minnesota, thus throwing Mr. Rodenberg out of a job as a result of his own efforts. His experience and abilities, however, fitted him for even a better position with another company, and this position he still holds.

WILL START BOAT SOON.

Booth Company Begins Fitting Up the Steamer Moore.

The Booth company will begin tomorrow to fit up the steamer Moore for the first north shore trip of the season. The date that the steamer will leave the harbor cannot be definitely stated, the officers of the company say, but it is presumed that an attempt will be made to get away from the harbor some time this week, providing the ice field moves, or shows signs of weakness that will warrant the company in the attempt to force a way through. The Moore has been steamed up nearly all winter and the work of fitting the vessel out will not require much time.

It is necessary that the boat make the north shore points as soon as possible, as the supplies are running low at many places, especially where winter camps are in operation. It is stated that twenty horses have been sent in from a camp at Chicago bay for fear that there would not be enough hay and grain to carry the animals through until the boat can get there with additional supplies.

A large quantity of sugar, flour and butter has been in waiting at the Booth warehouse to be sent out on the first trip up the north shore this spring.

OFFICIALS IN DEADLOCK

The conference between the members of the board of public works and the council committee on streets, alleys and sidewalks and Managar Warren of the Duluth Street Railway company, resulted in a deadlock between the members of the board and the aldermen, with Manager Warren willing to abide by the decision of the city officials.

The difference of opinion is over the place for securing the rock to be transported to St. Croix avenue for the filling in of the embankment and the protection of the water and gas pipes, which supply Park Point. The board of public works proposed to start at the east side of the big point of rocks between Thirteenth and Fourteenth avenues west and thus secure a start for the ultimate remoal of the entire bluff. The council committee holds that the rock should be taken from the face of the cliff, thus removing the dangerous portion of the point first.

There may be a hitch yet over the right of the street railway company to transport freight. The council has the option of amending the ordinance granting the franchise, so as to give the company the right to carry freight for all time, or may give the company permission to haul freight for the city, with the agreement that the city is to assume all liability for damages to property or person of others through the operation of cars for that purpose.

This is Worth Remembering.

LOCAL WOODMEN CHARTER TRAIN

Local members of the Modern Woodmen of America have completed arrangements for a special train to take them to Hibbing tomorrow evening to attend the county camp of the fraternal organization. The train has been chartered over the Missabe road and will leave the union depot tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 o'clock and, returning, will reach Duluth early on Thursday morning. It is expected that there will be a large representation of Duluth Woodmen to go to Hibbing. Imperial camp of this city will take its mandolin quartet to furnish music for the occasion.

At the county camp tomorrow evening, delegates will be elected to the state camp, which will be held in Duluth early in May. The state camp will bring to the city from 150 to 200 delegates from every part of the state, many of whom will bring their families.

DIES AT THE AGE OF 104

Rochester, Minn., Mrch 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Lydia Vine died Saturday night at the home of her son, William Vine of Viola, at the age of 104 years, 6 months and 13 days. She was born in New York state on Sept. 16, 1803. At the age of 18 years she was married to Henry H. Vine and settled in Minnesota in 1864. The union was blessed with ten children, five of whom are now living. Besides these there are thirteen grandchildren, twenty-five great grandchildren and eight great-great grandchildren.

Mrs. Vine possessed a remarkable memory and up to a short time ago could recall the events of the war of 1812 with great clearness. Her health was nearly perfect up to the century mark, but gradually her faculties and strength declined.

BLOEDEL IS THE WINNER

Judge Cant Decides He is Entitled to the Seat.

Finds That He Had One Vote More Than Cromwell.

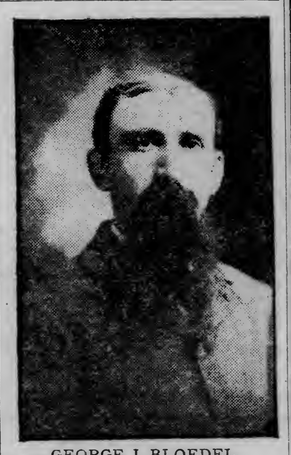

George J. Bloedel, Democratic candidate for alderman in the Second ward, has been declared by Judge Cant of the district court to be entitled to the seat now held in the council by James L. Cromwell, the Republican candidate for the same position.

Judge Cant's decision, which has been expected for some days past, was filed late yesterday afternoon and its contents were pretty well known about the city before the council met last evening.

The court finds that Mr. Bloedel was entitled to 721 legal ballots at the last city election and that Mr. Cromwell was entitled to 720 ballots. A five days' stay of execution of judgment has been granted to give Mr. Cromwell an opportunity to take an appeal if he so desires. Mr. Cromwell will determine his course of action after conferring with his attorney C. E. Adams.

If Mr. Cromwell does not appeal, Mr. Bloedel will take his seat in the council at the next regular meeting, but if an appeal is taken Mr. Cromwell will continue to occupy the aldermanic chair until the supreme court decides who is entitled to the place.

Judge Cant holds that Mr. Bloedel is,

and has been, the regularly alderman from the Second ward, and has been entitled to the seat ever since the election. Mr. Cromwell is held liable for the costs and disbursements. The case was argued before Judge Cant March 10.

When the special canvass of the votes for the aldermanic candidates was made in February, it was found that there were 718 undisputed ballots for Mr. Cromwell and 721 for Mr. Bloedel. Judge Cant found that the vote of Carl Claus was an illegal one, that it had been cast for Mr. Bloedel. This ballot was thrown out by the court. Of the other five disputed ballots, Judge Cant decided Mr. Cromwell entitled to two, Mr. Bloedel entitled to one and the remaining two ballots were not counted for either candidate. This count gave Mr. Bloedel a margin of one vote, and the court declares him elected.

Mr. Bloedel was represented in the contest by Joseph Reynolds and M. H. McMahon.

WANT CROMWELL TO VACATE SEAT

Mayor Haven's appointments of E. K. Coe, city engineer, and Dr. F. J. Patton, health commissioner, went over for another week last night. The Republicans tried out their strength and that of the Democrats, by opposing the motion to lay over, but they saw that they could not be successful in the move, with all the Democrats voting against them. Alderman Trevillion, next to last on the list, voted with the Democrats, and made the postponement certain.

Though it was known to the aldermen that the decision of Judge Cant in the Bloedel-Cromwell contest, in the Second ward, had been filed, and Bloedel declared the winner, the Democrats did not take the expected action and confirm the mayor's appointments. Mr. Cromwell still occupied the seat, and that is probably the reason. When the mayor's appointments came up, under unfinished business, Alderman Tessman moved that they be laid over for another week. Alderman McKnight asked for a vote on the question, and on the roll call, the Democrats voted solidly in favor of laying over. Alderman Trevillion voted with the Democrats, and the motion carried.

JURY ACQUITS JOHN NIEMI

Defendant Was Alleged to Have Forged a Check.

John Neimi was acquitted yesterday afternoon of the charge of forgery in the second degree. The verdict giving him his freedom was returned after his second trial. The jury in the first trial was unable to reach an agreement as to his guilt or innocence.

Neimi was accused of passing a forged check for $64 in a saloon at Virginia. Neimi claimed that he was intoxicated and that he did not remember signing the name of another man to the check. Expert testimony was introduced by the defense tending to show that the signature on the check could not have been written by Neimi.

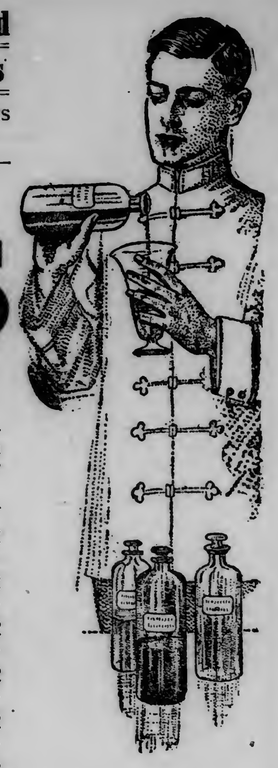

Neimi was defended by W. E. Greene.

EXTEND TIME THREE MONTHS

Fourth Street Assessment Not Due for Ninety Days.

Though Alderman Tessman attempted to get the extension period cut to two months, the city council last evening extended the time for paying the advance assessment on the improvement of Fourth street three months, with the provision also that the city engineer should submit a new estimate, based on present conditions.

The committee on streets, alleys and sidewalks, consisting of Aldermen Moore, Filiatrault and Cromwell, reported that at the public hearing held last Wednesday, the sentiment was largely in favor of postponement for a year. The committee, however, held that the city should not lose the results of expenditures already made for preliminary work, nor would the urgency of the need of the improvement permit the long postponement, so a delay of three months was recommended.

The committee also reported that, in its opinion, the estimate of the city engineer is too high, that point also being raised by the protesting parties. As the advance assessment is made on the estimate, the property holders believe that a new estimate will show a saving of fully 25 per cent at this time. The committee requested that a new estimate be secured, which, with the delay of three months, may result in a change of opinion on the part of some of the Fourth street property owners and the completion of the improvement during the current year.

Alderman Tessman said he didn't want to oppose the report of the committee, nor would he be put in the light of voting against it, but he asked that the postponement be made for sixty days instead of ninety. He said that would give ample time for the securing of the new estimate and also for the people who require it to prepare themselves better to meet the assessment.

The Fourth street property owners spoke, claiming that people on Fourth street have been forced to pay several assessments in recent years and some of the property of the poorer people is now under mortgage as a result. Another assessment at this time, they said, might result in the loss of valuable property through mortgages.

Alderman Cromwell said that in his ward the people between Fourth and Sixth avenues east were very anxious to have the improvement go through, although they did not care to put a hardship on the other property owners. He suggested that no more delay be had than was absolutely necessary.

The committee members said the cutting of the time of extension to sixty days would be a breach of faith on their part to a certain extent, and they could not countenance it. In view of their attitude, the opposition was withdrawn, and the committee's resolution adopted.

BREAD LINERS ARRESTED.

Eleven bread liners spent the night in the city jail instead of the Bethel last evening, because they insisted on sleeping in the basement of the Bethel after being ordered out.

The men appeared at the building after 12 o'clock at night, and were refused tickets entitling them to permission to sleep there. They insisted on remaining, however, and officers were called to eject them. They were placed under arrest on a trespass charge and arraigned in court this morning. They pleaded guilty and were released under suspended sentences.

TO VACATE STREETS.

Council Takes Steps to Provide Site for Courthouse.

Another step was taken in the preliminaries for the grouping plan of public buildings in the vicinity of Fifth avenue west and Second street last night, when the council took action looking toward the vacation of certain portions of Second street and Fifth avenue west.

Petitions were received from the property holders in the affected district, representing the vacation by the city of Second street for a distance of 150 feet from the center line of Fifth avenue west, measured both ways, and of Fifth avenue west from the northerly line of Second alley to the southerly line of Third alley, a distance of 300 feet.

The customary resolution, calling for a hearing and other preliminary steps for vacation, was introduced and adopted.

ALDERMEN STAND BEHIND WALSH

Defend Him in Attack Made by Employment Agents.

The city council, at its meeting last night, rushed to the defense of James Walsh, manager of the state free employment bureau. Mr. Walsh's appearance before the council as a member of a committee from the Question club, and the statements made by him before the city body, aroused the ire of different employment agents, who are now said to be working to oust him from office. The agents are said to have taken the matter up with the governor and the state labor commissioner, claiming that Mr. Walsh's charges, carrying the idea that they were against all employment offices, were unfounded and uncalled for, coming from him.

Alderman Shartel introduced the resolution in Mr. Walsh's defense, and it was passed by the council unanimously. It follows:

"Whereas, since the investigation conducted by the committee of this council on the questionable practices by employment agents upon charges presented to this council by a committee of citizens, a number of licensed employment offices have protested to the governor of the state against the action of one of the committee which presented said charges, viz., James Walsh, in charge of the state employment office in this city, in which protest the following paragraph appears, viz.:

"'He has gone before the city council and made the most vicious charges, but at all times refrained from stating the names of agents he has in mind, but carrying the idea that all employment agents are dishonest,' and

"Whereas, this council heard such charges, and did not understand that the charges made by Mr. Walsh were made against all employment agents, but against the practice of a portion of such offices; therefore,

"Resolved, that, in the opinion of this council, the charges made by Mr. Walsh were well founded, and that the result of the investigation had by this council, based upon the charges preferred by the committee, of which Mr. Walsh was a member, has been to modify to a large extent the methods pursued by employment offices of the city in the conduct of their business, to the benefit of the people patronizing the same; and we regret the disposition shown by proprietors of employment offices in resenting an investigation of methods of doing business, and express it as our opinion that the methods heretofore employed by some of the offices have merited a most searching investigation, and have caused the officers of the city incessant trouble; and we express to the aforesaid committee our appreciation for their efforts in behalf of the welfare of the people who find it necessary to patronize such offices.

"Resolved further, that the city clerk is hereby directed to certify a copy of this resolution to His Excellency John A. Johnson, governor of the state of Minnesota, and to W. H. Williams, labor commissioner of the state of Minnesota."

The Water Meters.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I have read about all the criticisms that have been published of the action of the water board in ordering the installation of water meters throughout the city, and it might be that my experiment with both systems might be of interest. I started the Acme Laundry in 1891 and was given a flat rate of less than $100 per year. That rate was increased a time or two and was finally made $229 per year, where it remained until a meter was put in about six years ago. Since the meter was put in I do not recall but one month when the bill was as low as $40, and now it is running $50 to $60 per month.

I was the only laundryman in Duluth having a flat rate for years and by comparing notes with my competitors I knew I had no kick coming. When I received a notice, ordered sent by the board, that a meter would be put in the laundry I went over and talked with Mr. Case in opposition to it. His statement of the board's reason for the action deprived me of any argument whatever. He said the board wanted me to pay for exactly what I got, no more, no less. I do not see how any reasonable man can argue against that statement. I would prefer the old order of things under the old rate, but if the board would oblige all who feel that way, and conduct the city's business along that line, they would have a good healthy deficit to show up in their annual report, then your paper would, or could, be filled with criticisms that would come fast and plenty.

Can any of those who are kicking against the meter system get a grocer to furnish them with groceries at a fixed sum per month? Do you know of a coal dealer who will agree to keep your house warm at a fixed sum per month that you would consider a reasonable one? I note in the Sunday paper a criticism from John Panton. In it he speaks of the reduction in the established meter rate from 17½ cents to 10 cents as being a reduction of 75 per cent. He may be right according to the system of reducing prices in the Glass Block store, but I don't believe that sort of arithmetic is used in the accounting department. The meter system is the only system that can be used with fairness to all; in other words, it is the much talked of "Square deal." Let us have it all around. Yours,

Neuralgia In the Face

Headache and Neuralgia.

And in vain.

Because they are missed by going after medicines which only relieve.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are not a relief for headaches and neuralgia, but they are a thorough cure in the only way these troubles can ever be really cured—by restoring the nervous system.

Read this letter:

Mrs. E. Brigden, 312 East Adams St., Syracuse, N. Y., states: "Until I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I was never free from attacks of distressing neuralgia in cold months and suffered from a draft even in summer time. Other remedies relieved only, but these Nerve Pills stopped the attacks, due I believe to their building up power."

Neuralgia and nervous headaches are always an indication of exhausted nerves. Make the cure thorough by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, 50 cents, at all dealers, or Dr. A. W. REV. CLEMANS IS SURPRISED Presiding Elder Remembered by Friends on Wedding Anniversary.

Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Clemans were happily surprised at their home, 4801 Grand avenue, last night by practically all the Methodist clergymen of the city. The occasion was the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the couple. All the ministers in this district, of which Rev. Clemans is presiding elder, were interested in the surprise party, and matters were so arranged that the minister would have nothing to do last evening but to remain at home.

A beautiful solid silver service, numbering forty pieces, was presented Rev. and Mrs. Clemans, Rev. John W. Powell of the Endion Methodist church making the presentation speech. Refreshments were served, and an informal evening was enjoyed. Those present were:

Rev. M. S. Rice of the First M. E. church; Rev. John W. Powell of the Endion M. E. church; Rev. and Mrs. James Geer of the Lester Park M. E. church; Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Grice of the Asbury M. E. church; Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts of the Garfield Avenue Mission; Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Ramshaw of Proctor; Rev. A. L. Richardson of Carlton; Rev. Norman Badors of Wright; Rev. H. H. Osterhout of Aitkin; Mrs. Mary J. Kriedler, district deaconess; Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Scott of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. E. R. Boomer.

WILL INSPECT THE BRIDGES

Several Structures in the City Believed to be Unsafe.

The first of Mayor Haven's recommendations, made in his message submitted a few weeks ago, made its appearance in the council proceedings last night, when a resolution was adopted calling upon the city engineer to make a critical and thorough investigation of the condition of the city bridges and that he make a report to the council, showing in detail just what is needed.

The engineer's report will be comprehensive. It must set forth the nature of repairs to be made, with estimates of the cost. In cases, where replacement is thought necessary, he is requested to make recommendations as to the material to be used in such replacements, with estimates of the cost also.

The city's engineer department is now conducting an inspection of the city's bridges and already some recommendations have been made to the board of public works and the council. Last night, a communication was received from the engineer, reporting that the bridge over Tischer creek is in an unsafe condition for the passage of street cars at the rate of speed at present maintained, and recommending that the council require that street cars pass the bridge at a rate of speed not to exceed eight miles an hour. The speed limit in that part of the city is now twenty miles an hour.

Berlin, March 31.—The advices received at the foreign office from Washington indicate that in the American capital as well as in Berlin the Hill episode is regarded as having been happily adjusted. The best diplomatic opinion is that if Mr. Hill chooses to come to Berlin he will find his position not only agreeable but more important than would have been the case if the incident had not happened. Charlemagne Tower, the retiring American ambassador, in fulfillment of his letter to President Roosevelt last September, in which he said that he would ask leave to resign early next summer, has now fixed the date at June 1, and has so informed the president. Mr. Tower gave legal notice last October to the owner of his residence here that he would give up his house the first of May, and it has been advertised for rent. The occupancy of this building is now under discussion as suitable for the Japanese embassy, and if found to be desirable, it will be purchased by Japan.

STRANGE BUT TRUE FACTS

People Taking Less Patent Medicine Since Learning to Treat Themselves.

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and supressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white, fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer should mix it at home: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this imple prescription.

IMPROVEMENT IS ABANDONED

London Road Will Not be Paved This Season.

The proposed improvement of London road by paving has evidently been dropped this year. There was a petition out for a time, but strong protest against it, and the circulators found rather hard sledding. They have evidently given up the idea, but are still interested in improving the street to some extent. Last night, the council called on the engineer to estimate the extent to which London road could be resurfaced from its intersection with Superior street at an expenditure of $4,000, the resurfacing to be similar to that of London road in Lester Park.

The beautifying of Greysolon road is contemplated in a petition presented last night by the Greysolon Road company, and other property holders, requesting the council to instruct the board of public works to plant and maintain a line of trees on both sides of the thoroughfare, between the curb and the sidewalk, from the beginning to the end of the road, the cost to be assessed against the abutting property.

The plan has been followed in other parts of the city, with good results. Greysolon road was paved with asphalt last year, and is now one of the best driveways in the city. With shade trees on either side, concrete walks and aphalt pavement, it would be a beautiful boulevard for carriages and automobiles, and the residents take pride in keeping up its appearance.

THE ST. REGIS, NEW YORK

ATTENTION TO LITTLE DETAILS

The sum of human happiness is made up of little things. Particularly is this true in regard to life in a great modern hotel. Marble halls and elegant upholsteries, costly statuary and artistic decorations are all very well in their way, but such commonplace things as good food, pure air, cleanliness and courteous, attentive service add far more to one's comfort and contentment.

In Hotel St. Regis, New York, the luxurious and the commonplace are happily combined, and solicitious attention to minute details and thoughtfulness in matters of seemingly small moment is a distinguishing characteristic. Nowhere else is put forth such an elaborate and sustained effort to please.

The St. Regis is not only the focus of the social and fashionable life of the metropolis, and the rendezvous of men and women prominent in state and national affairs, but it is also the favorite stopping place with a large class of business men who regularly visit New York as well as of thousands of pleasure seekers who go there occasionally to catch step with the times. For a restful and thoroughly enjoyable transient home the St. Regis has become the first choice of discriminating people, because it offers comforts and conveniences unattainable elsewhere amid the most refined surroundings.

Another feature which is now becoming understood by the public is that moderate restaurant and room charges prevail there. A large, beautifully-furnished room may be had for $4 a day, the same with bath for $5 ($6 for two people), or a parlor, bedroom and bath for $12.

THE COUNCIL MEETING

City Employe Refuses to Accept Raise in Pay.

THE COUNCIL IN BRIEF.

Extended time for payment of advance assessment for the improvement of Fourth street three months, from April 18.

Postponed action on Mayor Haven's appointment of city engineer and health commissioner for one more week.

Adopted resolution defending James Walsh, manager of state employment bureau, against attacks made to oust him from office as result of charges made by him against other employment offices to the council.

Put ordinance raising fee of employment offices from $100 to $500, on first reading.

Received communication planning improvement of Greysolon road by planting of trees on both sides of roadway, and instructed city engineer to prepare estimates for resurfacing London road.

Revived agitation for transfers between Park Point and the city, appointing committee to act with mayor and city attorney in conferring with street railway company officials.

Instructed city engineer to make critical inspection of bridges a..d report on needed repairs and replacements, with estimates.

Put ordinance requiring drawing of screens, so as to give clear view of interior of saloons from the street during certain hours.

Received report of city attorney to the effect that an amendment to the charter establishing a board of assessors to replace the single assessor, system would be unconstitutional.

The city council last night had the unique experience of having a city employe refuse a raise in salary. Last week, a resolution was adopted increasing the pay of the special policeman at New Duluth from $25 to $50. A communcation was received last night from J. E. Bartz, who holds the position, setting forth that the duties of the office would be no more onerous this year than before and he did not see any necessity for the incerase. The council reconsidered its action of last week and tabled the resolution granting an increase.

A protest was received last night against the construction of a sanitary sewer in Garfield avenue, between Ash and Oie avenues, a distance of about three-fourths of a mile. The protesting property owners claim they cannot meet the expense of the improvement this year.

* * *

Col. F. E. Resche last night called the attention of the council to the unsafe condition of the Armory entrance and requested that a committee of aldermen be appointed to make an examination with a view to remedying the condition.

* * *

The board of water and light commissioners reported that a committee, appointed by the commissioners, had decided that the old reservoir, on West First street, between Tenth and Eleventh avenues west, was of no use to the city, and might be sold. Bids were advertised for, and but one received, that from Harry Wing, offering $600. The council adopted a resolution, authorizing the board to dispose of the reservoir at that price.

* * *

The claim of P. McDonnell for about $200 interest, as a result of the delay in paying the final estimate on the pavement of Ramsey and Oneota streets, was again up last night. The city also has a small claim against Mr. McDonnell, and the whole matter was referred to the city attorney for settlement.

* * *

Thomas Burke's job as harbormaster is probably safe for another year. The council has taken up the election every meeting since the annual meeting, with the aldermen hopelessly divided. Last night, Alderman Shartel moved that the question be tabled, and it will probably not be revived.

* * *

On motion of Alderman Hogan, the city engineer was instructed to report to the council an estimate of the cost of establishing public toilet rooms at the corner of Sixth avenue west and Michigan street, on a portion of the street not occupied by the viaduct.

* * *

The contracts awarded by the board of public works to Hugh Steele for the construction of a sanitary sewer in Elinor street, Grand avenue and Forty-ninth avenue west, between Central avenue and the bay shore, at a cost of about $13,000, and to B. Clough for the construction of a concrete culvert on Grand avenue at the intersection of Forty-ninth avenue west, at a cost of $450 were confirmed.

* * *

An ordinance was introduced last night requiring the placing of all wires underground on Second street between Seventh and Thirteenth avenues east. The ordinance is an amendment to the ordinance requiring the placing of wires underground between Sixth avenue west and Seventh avenue east.

* * *

An ordinance was introduced by Alderman Getchell last night, establishing a cement sidewalk district in West Duluth on certain portions of Central avenue, Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh avenues west and Eighth street.

AN HONEST PLATFORM

Scores Taft for His Evasiveness and Praises La Follette.

Kansas City, March 31.—Democrats from all parts of Missouri to the number of 2,000 attended a banquet in Convention hall in this city last night under the auspices of the Young Men's Democratic club of Missouri at which William J. Bryan and Judson Harmon were the guests of honor and principal speakers and the recipients of repeated ovations from the 15,000 persons who thronged the hall.

Mr. Bryan's opening statement that "we have met to begin the campaign of 1908 and to present those principles and policies which ought to appeal to progressive Republicans as well as to traditional Democrats," was the keynote of his speech and showed the important significance he and his followers attached to the meeting.

More Trusts Today.

"If," said Mr. Bryan, "in the coming campaign the Republicans have an ambiguous platform, filled with glittering generalities, and fragrant with bouquets thrown at the Republican party, a Republican president, elected upon it, would be as powerless as the present president has been. I say powerless—for what has the president succeeded in doing? There are more trusts today than there were when he entered the office and he has never succeeded in getting a law enacted to strengthen the present law. He has not succeeded in putting a trust magnate in the penitentiary, and the only large fine that has been imposed has aroused more criticism than commemorations among Republican leaders. He has not secured any tariff reform, and yet he has been in office for over seven years. He has not secured the enactment of the necessary labor legislation. He has not secured an income tax, and the Republican senators forced him into a compromise on the railroad question.

La Follette Praised.

"But even a good platform would be worthless without a candidate who embodied the spirit of the platform. And what candidate have they? If the president had picked out Senator La Follette, a real reformer, if the Republican party had rallied to Senator La Follette's support it could have compelled the confidence of reform Republicans. Senator La Follette has a record as a reformer; he has fought corporation domination in his own state for a decade.

"The president has picked out Secretary Taft and given him the support of the administration. Without the support of the administration the secretary would scarcely have a state in the convention, and with the president's support he is having an uphill fight. He has no record as a reformer, and his speeches do not indicate a definite purpose or a courageous program. He may be the best man the president could find among his cabinet officers, but Secretary Taft's superiority over his colleagues is due not to his positive virtues but to the fact that none of the rest of them have any reform tendencies whatever. In fact the widespread reform sentiment among the Republican masses is not reflected to any considerable extent among Republican leaders.

Where Does Taft Stand?

"What does Secretary Taft stand for? What does he denounce as wrong? What does he propose as a remedy?

"What would he do with the trusts? He tells us that he would not exterminate them, but simply regulate them.

"What does he propose on the tariff question? Revision—but not until after the election.

"What reform does Secretary Taft propose for the benefit of labor? The laboring men insist that they are entitled to trial by jury; but Secretary Taft went all the way to Oklahoma to find fault with a provision in the Oklahoma constitution securing this protection to the laboring man.

"What relief does Secretary Taft propose to give us from the burdens which imperialism has imposed upon the country? The appropriation for the army and navy has increased more than $100,000,000 a year since we entered upon our colonial experiment. Our army is more than twice as large as it was in 1896, and we are still denying the Philippine islands the doctrine set forth in the Declaration of Independence, that government derive their just powers from the consent of the governed.

Taft and the Railroads.

"What is Secretary Taft going to do on the railroad question? In one speech he took occasion to explain that the president was not responsible for rate reductions; this would indicate that Secretary Taft does not favor rate reduction. Is he in favor of authorizing the interstate commerce commission to ascertain the present value of the railroads? Is he willing to prevent the future issue of watered stock? Does he urge reduction in freight and passenger rates, wherever and whenever such reductions can be made without injustice to honest investments? He has given no assurance on these questions, and we must judge what he would do by what he now says or fails to say. If, when he is trying to secure the support of reform Republicans, he is so evasive on the subject, what could we expect of him if he were elected?

"Does Secretary Taft favor the national incorporation of railroads, as suggested by the president? Would he favor a law withdrawing from the states their control over railways and vesting exclusive control in the federal government? And, if he favors national incorporation, would he be in favor of giving the railroads a perpetual franchise and a perpetual guarantee of income? If not, will he explain why he will be more unjust to the Filipinos than to the people of his own country?

The Masses Favor Reform.

"What chance of reform is there at the hands of the Republican leaders, who take the side of the corporations against the people and act upon the theory that inducements must be held out to capital, no matter how great the burdens imposed upon the producers of wealth? There is no doubt that the masses of the people, Republican and Democratic, are in favor of reform. If we can only convince the voters that the Democratic party will be true to reform, victory is assured, and the only way in which we can convince the public that we honestly desire to administer the government in behalf of the people, is to give them an honest platform, employ honest arguments and conduct a campaign by honest methods and through an honest organization."

BOY TORTURED BY AWFUL HUMOR

PERFECT RECOVERY IS DUE TO CUTICURA

"With the exception of his hands and feet, my son Clyde (thirteen years old) was almost completely covered with eczema. Physicians treated him for nearly a year without helping him any. While they were very kind and did all in their power, yet nothing seemed to relieve him. And I had tried many remedies sent to me by kind friends but they all failed. His head, face, and neck were covered with large scabs which he would rub until they fell off. Then blood and matter would run out and that would be worse. Many a time he looked as if his ears would drop off. Friends coming to see him said that if he got well he would be disfigured for life.

"When it seemed as if he could possibly stand it no longer, I decided to try Cuticura. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent. I used them in the evening and that was the first night for nearly a year that he slept. This may sound exaggerated to you, but in the morning there was a great change for the better. In about six weeks you could not have told that he had ever had anything wrong with him. I treated him twice a day for six months and at present he has a fine complexion and not a scar on his body. This story may seem overdrawn, but neither words nor pen can describe Clyde's suffering and how he looked. Our leading physician, Dr. ——, recommends the Cuticura Remedies for eczema. Mrs. Algy Cockburn, Shiloh, O., June 11, 1907."

Frequent shampoos with Cuticura Soap and weekly dressings with Cuticura stop falling hair, remove crusts, scales, and dandruff, destroy hair parasites, soothe irritated, itching surfaces, stimulate the hair follicles, supply the roots with nourishment, loosen the scalp skin, and make the hair grow upon a sweet, wholesome, healthy scalp, when all other remedies fail.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children, and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

ELECTIONS ARE HELD IN CITIES OF IOWA.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 31. — Des Moines held its first municipal election yesterday under the new commission form of government, and elected A. G. Lathis as mayor and John McVicar, J. L. Hamey and Charles L. Chram as councilmen. The result is an overwhelming defeat of the candidates who had been nominated in the primaries by the friends of the new commission form of governments and its instigators. A. J. Mathis, former police judge, was one of the most vigorous opponents of the new form. The union labor vote was a large factor in the opposition victory.

In Cedar Rapids, where the election was also under the new commission plan of government, John T. Carmody was elected mayor and C. D. Huston, H. S. Keefer, E. A. Sherman and Matt Heldon, councilmen.

In Clinton, H. U. Crockett, Republican, was elected mayor.

ELECTION AT COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, March 31—Thomas Maloney, Democrat, was elected mayor in the city election yesterday over Robert B. Wallace, Republican, by 1,500 majority. The council will be Democratic. Wallace made his campaign chiefly on his advocacy of municipal ownership of waterworks. C. F. Kimball, the solicitor; F. T. Hue, treasurer, and J. F. McAnoney, auditor, all Republicans, are elected.

CONTROVERSY OVER LANDS

Washington, March 31.—The right of the United States government to secure lands for the construction of a new lock and canal at the falls of St. Mary's river, Mich., was the subject of a hearing today before the house committee on rivers and harbors. The river and harbor bill of last year appropriated $6,200,000 for this new lock, but work has not yet been begun on it on account of the claims of two water companies—to lands desired by the government. The Michigan Lake Superior company claims that if the lock is built on the site selected it will destroy the value of its plant, valued at $107,000,000. The Sandler company is willing to compromise with the government if allowed to go ahead with its business. If this is granted, the company will cede to the United States land on which to build this lock and another one. The Chandler company has gone into court for the protection of its rights and has been victorious in the lower courts. The matter is now pending in the supreme court of the United States.

The question is further complicated by the inability of the two water companies to reach an agreement as to concessions they are willing to take. At the meeting yesterday Chairman Burton made it clear that it is the intention of the committee to take some action in the matter. He stated that the needs of commerce demanded this improvement, as the capacity of the Sault Ste. Marie canal has been reached. "I have never known of an instance where a public work is being delayed in such an exasperated manner as this," he said. "I wish to impress upon all present that we propose to do something."

The Lake Carriers' association was also represented at the hearing. This association is not taking sides in the dispute between the two companies, but is demanding that work on the new lock start at the earliest possible day.

An intimation having reached the committee that the charge was being made that the department of justice was not prosecuting the case against the Chandler company with the necessary vigor, Chairman Burton stated that he could not allow such a statement to go unchallenged. The department of justice, he said, was acting with proper dispatch in the matter.

OTHER DATES INTERFERE

With Governor Johnson Speaking at University Commencement.

St. Paul, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Because of a prior engagement, Governor Johnson will be unable to deliver the commencement address at the University of Minnesota this year.

To his regret, he was obliged to decline the invitation, as he had already made an engagement for the day, June 10, when he will deliver the commencement address at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan.

He has agreed to deliver the address for the Armour Institute of Technology in Chicago, June 4. He will also speak at the University of Alabama commencement.

April 7, the governor and his staff will start for Tennessee to take part in the dedication of the Minnesota monument at Shiloh.

On their return from this event the party will be in Louisville April 13.

CRUISER STILL FAST.

Philadelphia, March 31.—The United States cruiser Prairie, which grounded in the Delaware river at the League Island navy yard Saturday while outward bound for Guantanamo, Cuba, is still fast today despite the efforts of several tugs to pull the vessel into deep water. Part of the supply of coal will be removed today to lighten the cruiser.

Baby Mine

Every mother feels a great dread of the pain and danger attendant upon the most critical period of her life. Becoming a mother should be a source of joy to all, but the suffering and danger incident to the ordeal makes its anticipation one of misery. Mother's Friend is the only remedy which relieves women of the great pain and danger of maternity; this hour, which is dreaded as woman's severest trial, is not only made painless, but all the danger is avoided by its use. Those who use this remedy are no longer despondent or gloomy; nervousness, nausea and other distressing conditions are overcome, the system is made ready for the coming event, and the serious accidents so common to the critical hour are obviated by the use of Mother's Friend. "It is worth its weight in gold," say many who have used it. $1.00 per bottle at drug stores. Book containing valuable information of interest to all women, will be sent to any address free upon application to BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Mother's Friend

CONCERNING WOMAN.

The most discouraged committee of the Women's Council is that organized some years ago, the avowed purpose of which was to save the rocky bluffs of Duluth from the desecrating painted advertisements.

Like the child training problem and the servant problem, the question of legitimate advertising is a matter of educating the public mind, and as in the servant problem and the matter of child training, it is long and arduous. One portion of the community is but educated, when another breaks out virulemly.

When this committee was first organized, a circular letter was sent to many of the advertisers whose names appeared in painted signs on the rocks throughout the city, requesting them to desist from this method, and to aid in achieving a more beautiful Duluth. A most courteous response was generally returned, and many of the thoughtless offenders provided the chemicals for the removal of such signs as had been placed on the rocks in their efforts at publicity. The Council appropriated a small sum of money and some signs were removed and vines planted as an object lesson in what might be accomplished if the proper care was taken of the natural beauty of the city. But, obviously, the money to be used in this way is necessarily limited, the members of the council not considering the money at their disposal being intended for use to any great extent for the removal of signs which may be renewed at any time. The rocks have been comparatively free from the painted advertisements for some time, but within the last week a jewelry firm of the city has emblazoned on the bluffs, on the upper side of First street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues east, a brilliantly green ad that is especially disagreeable.

If the advertisers in many cases could hear the adverse comment which such advertising brings, the matter would probably die as a business policy. "A firm which will do a thing of that kind should be boycotted," said one man as he blinked at the dazzling greenness of the offending advertisement, and 'Nothing could induce me to patronize a firm which employs such ill-considered methods of attracting attention," said another prominent business man.

It is in such comments that the committee finds a small sense of relief.

ELECT OFFICERS.

Twentieth Century Club Chooses Officers for Year.

The officers who will serve the Twentieth Century club during the ensuing year will be:

President, Mrs. F. L. Barrows.

First ice president, Mrs. S. R. Holden.

Second vice president, Mrs. F. E. Berry.

Third vice president, Miss Ruth Ely.

Recording secretary, Mrs. S. E. Matter.

Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Marvin McLaren.

Treasurer, Mrs. George F. Stevens.

Historia, Mrs. Z. D. Scott.

Honorary vice presidents, Miss Statham, Mrs. J. P. Warren, Mrs. C. H. Merritt, Mrs. H. H. Phelps and Mrs. L. A. Larson.

At the tenth annual meeting, which was held yesterday afternoon at the library, the above named officers were elected. The club decided upon a change in the bylaws providing for a nominating committee, which shall be appointed by the executive board at the meeting preceding the annual meeting of the club. The committee will present a list of candidates for the offices of the club, the honorary vice presidents and the members of the membership committee.

The question of incorporating the club for the protection of the property which it now owns, was referred for action to the executive board.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Charles H. Merritt, the retiring recording secretary, who has filled the office most capably for five years.

ARBOR DAY

To Be Observed by Duluth School Children.

The educational committee of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs has made arrangements for the time limit at which the nurserymen will receive orders for apple trees from the school children of the state to be extended to April 5. The committee has made it possible for the school children of Minnnesota to purchase young apple trees for 9 cents each, including the freight charges and directions for the planting and care of the tree. It is hoped that the children throughout the state will plant apple trees upon Arbor day, and it is expected that this method of general observation of the day may become established, and in a few years Minnesota will be blossoming as one large beautiful orchard.

The matter is being presented to the Duluth school children this week, and by Friday the orders will be in the hands of the principals to be forwarded to the committee at St. Paul, who will send the orders to the nurserymen. It is expected that a large order will be sent from Duluth, and that Arbor day will receive a more general active observation than ever before.

REGISTER TOMORROW

Duluth Art School to Organize Classes at Once.

The first day classes of the Duluth Art school will be organized tomorrow morning at the rooms of the school, which are located in the third floor of the Washington school building. Mrs. Julius Barnes and Mrs. J. D. Titcomb of the board of managers and Miss Mabel Smith, custodian of the school, will be there to receive the pupils who will register, and the classes be organized for work at once. During the afternoon the rooms will be in charge of Miss Jessie Thomson and Miss Jessica Hopkins. It is hoped that the classes may be permanently organized by the last of the week, when the director, C. C. Rosencranz, is expected in the city, and work will be begun at once.

The first evening class will be held tomorrow evening, in the drawing room of the Duluth high school. Miss Mary Naughton of the board of directors, who is also president of the Duluth Art club, will meet with the members tomorrow evening. Those who have sent in their applications, and those who are anticipating entering the classes of the school, are urged to register tomorrow.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Merry Widows Classes Are Formed—Extension Meetings.

Happily wedded wives or persistently single maidens may be found industriously and solemnly stitching away on Merry Widow sailors at almost any hour at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association.

Merry Widows are the style! A feminine society discovered many years ago that a merry widow would almost invariably become the style wherever she might find herself, but in this spring of 1908 the chipper maiden of 16 will adorn her youthful loveliness with a Merry Widow, and the sad faced person who may think that the condition of the real merry widow may not all be one of sorrow, will also place on her sad colored locks a dashing and airy trifle of taut pulled maline and bows of gauze.

They are making Merry Widows at the Y. W. C. A. rooms. The classes are held Tuesday and Friday afternoons and Tuesday evenings. The course will continue for six weeks, each class meeting once a week. There are nine members enrolled in one class, eight in another and six in a third. The teacher is a capable milliner, and if there is a large enough demand more classes will be organized.

* * *

At the meeting held yesterday at noon at the factory rooms of the F. A. Patrick company under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A., the speaker was Miss Kathleen Watterworth. The employes were delightfully entertained with several well selected readings.

Social Evening.

A social will be held tomorrow evening at Hope church at the corner of Sixth avenue east and Fifth street. A literary program will occupy the first part of the evening and an informal social will follow in the parlors of the church.

Council Meeting.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Women's Council will be held Friday morning of this week at the club rooms of the library. The meeting will be an important one as the working plans for the summer for many of the Council enterprises will be decided upon. A domestic science school and a school of manual training, will be maintained during the summer by the Council. The reports from the Duluth Art school will be heard and from the various other committees of the organization.

Whist Club.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clifford entertained the Neighbors' Whist club last evening at their home, 1917 East First street. The favors were won by Mrs. J. T. Stack and A. D. McIntyre. Sixteen guests were present.

Bridge Party.

Mrs. B. F. Myer will entertain at bridge Friday afternoon of this week at her home on London road.

Church Meetings.

Circle 2 of Endion Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. J. K. Richter of 319 South Nineteenth avenue east.

* * *

The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Hall of 2223 West Third street.

* * *

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Brinkman of 101 Eighth avenue west.

* * *

The Missionary societies of the First Methodist church will hold their regular monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon at the church parlors, beginning with the Home Missionary meeting at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Kathleen Watterworth will talk on "The Child Labor Problem." The subject to be discussed before the Foreign society will be "Cuba," with Mrs. John Macleod as speaker.

* * *

The meetings of the Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Lester Park Methodist church will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Neimeyer of Lester Park. "Philanthropic Missions," with Mrs. Frank Hall as speaker and "The Mormon Quetsion," with Mrs. Hanford as speaker will be the questions discussed.

* * *

Circle 3 of the Endion Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. D. A. Willard of 1931 East Third street.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. A. W. Hartman and son, Master Telford Gamble, have gone to the Virginia Hot Springs for a month.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. A. Crosby and little daughter, have returned from a several weeks' visit in Florida.

* * *

Miss Mary Reymour, who was the guest of Miss Cleo Benton of 1221 East Third street for two weeks, has returned to Chisholm. Miss Benton now has as her guest, Miss Cathryne Brayton of Rice Lake, Wis.

There Are Good Seats Yet to Be Obtained.

Seats will be on sale at 7:30, in Lecture Room of Church.

Store Observations.

Hat pins of cart wheel size, metaphorically speaking, of course, seem to be fashion's whim. Also some of baseball size are not to be passed by. The latter are all that one can conveniently clasp in one's hand, and surely that painful sight of a woman helplessly searching among the intricacies of her hat for small and completely lost head of a hat pin, would be obviated if she would purchase the baseball size. They range in price from 50 cents to two or three dollars. A milliner who designed a hat without taking into consideration the ornaments which may be added later might have good reason to object.

* * *

"Chamois gloves. They wash," is the alluring sign which, like the song of the Lorelie pulls one, unresisting, to the counter.

* * *

Colored linen collars with white shirt waists, are to be stylish. The collars come in pink and white striped linen or blue and white, or a white foundation, with much colored embroidery. They cost 25 cents each.

* * *

A pretty finishing braid, with little figures of color through the pattern, costs 32 cents apiece and is most attractive for the top finish of a gingham petticoat ruffle.

* * *

* * *

Block pins, in almost gold, are 75 cents each. They are severe and trim-looking and fit in perfectly with the severe style of neckear, which is popular.

* * *

DIRECTORY OF AMUSEMENTS

WHERE TO GO TONIGHT.

LYCEUM—Viola Allen in "Irene Wycherley."
FIRST METHODIST CHURCH—Madame Sembrich.
METROPOLITAN—Burlesque.

TWO BIG ATTRACTIONS.

Madame Sembrich and Viola Allen in One Evening.

It is seldom that Duluth has two such attractions in one evening as Madame Sembrich and Viola Allen. Miss Allen will appear at the Lyceum this evening in her new play "Irene Wycherley," and Madame Sembrich will be heard in concert at the First Methodist church, under the auspices of the Duluth Oratorio society.

A CLEVER SKETCH.

One Act Playlet is Making Hit at Bijou This Week.

A one-act sketch of New England life, introducing Mrs. James B. Macks, in the part she created, Lilly Hart, a very clever dancer, as well as Peter La Marr, a lyric tenor, carries first honors among the Bijou offerings for the current week. The little playlet has never been seen in Duluth, and the audience last night received the sketch with generous applause, and the actors were given three enthusiastic curtain calls.

The seven Semois, "rapid-fire acrobats," have a novel act, and their efforts were well received. Georgie Ramey pleases in a singing and dancing act. Isadore Silver sings a new song hit, "The Summer Time," which is proving one of the most popular songs introduced this season. Walter Rivers and Nina Rochester have some pleasing vocal numbers, and Prof. Armand gives an electric scenic reproduction of the San Francisco earthquake.

The illustrated pictures are very good and the bill is one of the most satisfactory in every way that has been offered to Bijou patrons.

THE BURLESQUERS.

Miner's Bohemians Have Many Good Features to Their Show.

The show at the Metropolitan this week is bound to do the business, if there is any to be had in the city. The attraction is none other than Miner's Bohemians, who have been great local favorites since Duluth became an Empire circuit town.

Tom Miner believes in high-class acts and equipment, and his burlesque shows give evidence of his good taste and good judgment. This season the Bohemians are offering as the burlesque part of their entertainment, in a skit in two acts called "The Summer Time," and prepared for them by Dave Marion and Barney Gerard.

In many ways, it is like the skits the Bohemians have used in the past, for the reason that it offers Andy Gardner, Billy Spencer, Ida Nicholai, Carew and Hayes, Joe Barton and his brother, George Davis, Charley Mackie, Revere and York, Viola Allen, not the Liebler star, but another queen of burlesque, all the opportunities for fun making, clever dancing and sweet singing, that they desire.

Revere and York open the olio with a good sister act and Carew and Hayes, assisted by Charles H. Mackie and many other Bohemians give their new sketch, "The Mad Stampede." George Barton and his brother do some clever trick bicycle riding, and George T. Davis, "the boy singist," closes the olio.

CROOKSTON TO BENEFIT

From Sale of Biscuit Factory Which Will Soon Resume.

Crookston, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The factory and equipment of the American Biscuit company of this city, was yesterday bid in by A. D. Stephens of the Merchants National bank of this city, and will be renovated from top to bottom and operated as soon as the necessary work can be completed. The factory employs about fifty people and its resumption will mean considerable to the city. When operated before it was never run to its full capacity because of lack of capital, but with Senator Stephens, Tom Shevlin and others it will have prestige not before enjoyed.

FIND RIFLED LETTERS.

Marine Mills, Minn., March 31.—A large bunch of rifled letters were discovered in Bruette's hay shed, about a half a mile from the village. They were letters stolen from the Marine postoffice last fall. Search was made for other clues whereby the thieves could be identified, but nothing could be found.

Prof. H. A. Howell, of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold, the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now, three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by all druggists.

SENSATION SOON OVER.

Alienation of Affections Case Comes to Speedy End.

Grand Forks, N. D., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The $20,000 suit of Nels Nelson, an employe of the Great Northern railroad at Larimore, N. D., against Axel Roise, a well known business man of Minot, for the alleged alienation of the affections of the plaintiff's wife, came to a sudden termination in the district court here yesterday afternoon. Counsel for the defense had moved for an instruction for the defense on the ground no case had been made out. The plaintiff's counsel after conferring evidently came to the same conclusion for they asked leave to withdraw the suit and the expected sensation failed to materialize. Where there was a settlement out of court of any description is pure speculation.

It was claimed by the plaintiff that he had lived happily with his wife up to April 18, 1906, at which time Axel Roise stepped in and took his wife with him to Sioux City, S. D. Mrs. Nelson sued for a divorce and the plaintiff also claimed that this action was caused because of Roise. Nelson also claimed that he had been unable to attend to duties and asked damages to the amount of $20,000.

CORRESPONDENTS "STRUNG."

Story of Couple Getting Big Inheritance, Pure Fiction.

Marquette, Mich., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The story sent from here about Edgar Dunham, messenger in a local drug store and his young sister, the children of a poor widow, getting a fortune through the death of a grandfather in Ludington, Mich., proves upon investigation to have been a canard throughout. Inquiry made at Ludington shows that the correspondents were "strung" by some modern Joe Mulhatton, who had palmed off a brand that would do credit to Baron Munchausen.

JUDGE LOCHREN'S SUCCESSOR

Is Expected to be Announced by President Wednesday.

St. Paul, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Willifam Lochren yesterday mailed to President Theodore Roosevelt his resignation as United States judge of the district of Minnesota. As announced by Judge Lochren March 15, his resignation will become effective today, although Judge Lochren is willing to serve until his successor is appointed.

Judge Lochren has served for twelve years on the federal bench, and under section 714 of the revised statutes of the United States he will retire on full pay. He could have retired two years ago, after he had served ten years on the bench, but he preferred to remain in active work.

President Roosevelt will receive the letter of resignation Wednesday, and it is expected that he will immediately send to the senate the name of the man whom he has chosen as Judge Lochren's successor.

GOOD LUMBER SEASON

Cloquet, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—This week will probably see the end of the logging operations along the Duluth & Northeastern railroad and on the reservation. This season's cut has been large, despite the fact that unfavorable weather has prevailed at times and there was curtailment at all the camps. The output of ties and pulp wood was especially large, owing to the number cut by homsteaders on the reservation.

The closing of the camps puts a great number of men out of employment, who will have nothing to do until the mills start, which will probably not be until the first of May. Labor conditions in Cloquet will not be as bad as many people seem to anticipate, for the construction of the city's waterworks will employ a large number of men.

LID ON AT SOUTH BEND.

South Bend, Ind., March 31.—For the first time in two years South Bend is a "closed" city. Mayor Fogarty has put a lid on the town so tight that every liquor, gambling and vice law is being enforced to the letter.

THE COUNTRY IS SOUND.

Even the most timid and those who were the most frightened last fall are plucking up their courage once more, and permitting themselves to realize that the temporary flurry was created by a few amateur bankers in New York who toppled over Wall street's house of cards by trying to turn banks into gambling tools, and that underlying conditions throughout the nation were then and are now as sound as a dollar. The scare having come, no matter what its source or its occasion, readjustment was bound to follow, but that is a blessing, not an evil, and it will make prosperity in its new advent sounder and stronger and more long-lived than it would have been otherwise.

Talking to a trade association at a banquet in New York the other day Richard Young, a prominent merchant of the metropolis, pointed out a few very patent facts which prove conclusively that it cannot be "much of a shower after all," and that the country has been only pausing for breath before resuming industrial activity at greater speed than ever.

"The country is sound and prosperous," said he, "and it can't be otherwise with a population of eighty millions, increasing a million a year; eighty millions of people with double the earning and spending power of any on earth, with never-ending but always-increasing wants. We must remember that the gold, silver, coal, iron and copper are all in the earth just as they were six months ago. We should not forget that our farmers are rich, their mortgages are paid and the soil is just as good as last year, when it yielded $7,000,000,000. We can also look with pride and confidence to our growing foreign commerce, which last year showed a balance in our favor of $500,000,000. Gentlemen, with a people having the energy, ingenuity and intelligence of our population, stagnation or long retrogression are impossible. When the people of New York can put their hands in their pockets and take out hard cash enough to over-subscribe six times an offering of $50,000,000 in 4½ per cent bonds at 104 1-3, they have enough to finance anything. We may not do so much business in 1908 as we did last year; we will not make so much money as we have in some other years, but the trade will be safer."

These are cheering words, but they are true, and they do not state all the truth. Overproduction is the chief danger in this country, and we have none. The "panic" caught us with empty warehouses and with manufacturers far behind on their orders. These eighty millions will still eat and wear and use things that must be raised and manufactured, and while we are slowly getting our breath our capital is increasing rapidly, because it is not being wasted in luxuries, and presently there will be so much of it that in obedience to the law of its being it will seek an outlet, bringing the full vigor of renewed life as it courses through the veins of commerce.

THE TARIFF IN 1908.

Recently The Herald said something about the new doctrine of protection that has been promulgated by Republican state conventions, which involves the idea that the tariff shall cover the difference between the cost of production here and abroad, and also provide "a reasonable profit."

The Herald inquired, in a spirit of awe not unmingled with fear, what kind of tariff robbery we should get under this "reasonable profit" theory if we got the kind we have now without it.

The American Economist, a standpat journal of the most emphatic kind, points out that these "tariff revision" pronouncements do not necessarily mean tariff reduction, but that they also include tariff increases. That is exactly what The Herald feared, and it is not reassured to find this standpat newspaper rather joyfully acclaiming the fact.

Says the Economist: "The tariff that shall 'equal the difference between the cost of production, together with a reasonable profit,' will take into account not only the higher wage scale of the United States, but also the fact that a consignment of goods from Hamburg to Des Moines bears a lower freight charge than from New York to Des Moines. Therefore, to insure a reasonable profit, our tariff rate should be higher in order to offset the lower freight rate granted on exports destined for the United States. We don't suppose the Ohio Republicans knew it when they adopted their platform, but as a matter of fact they declare for tariff revision upward as well as downward."

If the mass of delegates in these conventions did not know what this phrase "reasonable profit" implied, there was somebody closely associated with the writing of the platforms that did know just what it meant. It shows that in spite of the obvious sentiment for a tariff revision that means tariff reduction, the Republican platforms are being written by men who hope that tariff revision means revision upward.

This is a very important matter. The Republican leaders are promising tariff revision some time in the future. The people want tariff revision as soon as they can get it. If they believed that the Republicans are in good faith, no doubt they would be, in the main, willing to let the Republicans revise the tariff. But in view of the past records of these leaders, in view of the dubious nature of this new doctrine of protection, and in view of what the party has done to the people through its alliance with the big interests which have purchased tariff favors with lavish campaign funds, the issue of good faith is a more vital one than Republican leaders are willing to admit.

In the talk of other things there is grave danger that the importance of tariff revision will be overlooked. Governor Johnson of Minnesota has said that it should be made the chief though not the only issue in this campaign. This one stand causes him to rise superior to any other candidate for the presidency. Roosevelt postpones, Taft speaks softly and cautiously, Bryan subordinates the tariff to other issues, while Johnson of Minnesota comes out squarely and firmly for tariff revision as the greatest immediate need of the American people.

THE PARCELS POST AGAIN.

The Merchants' Association of New York, which has been one of the organizations that opposed most strongly the proposal for a parcels post, is out with a circular, a copy of which is at hand, favoring the rural delivery parcels post upon the terms of the bill introduced in the senate by Senator Burnham.

This provides for a special parcels post system on rural delivery routes for packages originating on a rural route or at the distributing postoffice. In other words, it provides special facilities and rates for parcels sent out from any rural delivery postoffice along the rural routes radiating from that office. The charge is to be 5 cents for the first pound and 2 cents for each additional pound up to the maximum of eleven pounds. Two ounces or less will go for 1 cent, two to four ounces for 2 cents, four to eight ounces for 3 cents, eight to twelve ounces for 4 cents, and twelve to sixteen ounces for 5 cents.

This is precisely the proposal that was involved in the parcels post plans of Postmaster General Meyer, except that the Meyer plan also included a reduction of the general parcels post rate from 16 to 12 cents per pound, and an increase in the maximum weight of packages from four to eleven pounds. The general parcels post improvement having been opposed on the ground that it would harm country merchants by giving mail order houses an advantage, the rural parcels post feature was added to eliminate that opposition.

The fact that interests other than those friendly to the country merchant were back of the opposition to the Meyer bill is made plainly evident by the fact that the rural parcels post plan, which would have prevented any harm coming to the country merchant, was also in that measure. Under the Meyer bill a country merchant could ship eleven pounds of merchandise to a rural route patron for 25 cents, while it would cost a city mail order house, even at the reduced general rate, $1.32 for the same privilege. Yet in the face of this wholly adequate protection for the country merchant, a bitter fight upon the proposal has been made in the name of the country merchant. It has been significantly evident, however, that 90 per cent of this agitation against the bill came from the cities and not from the villages. The only country merchants who have been active were those who were led to believe from the amount of noise that was made that somewhere in that bill there was a vague something that was going to do them harm. It wasn't there, and the bill was deliberately framed to keep it out.

Having gone thus far, the Merchants' Association of New York should go the rest of the way and approve an improvement in the parcels post that will put a man in Duluth who wishes to send a birthday present to his sister in Two Harbors or Cloquet upon the same basis as a man in Duluth who wants to send a present to his cousin in Europe. That is all the general parcels post proposal involves.

PROTECTION FOR SEAMEN.

A Washington dispatch says that two measures of great importance to shipping are being prepared in the department of commerce and labor, both of which are of interest upon the Great Lakes.

One will require that all sea-going vessels shall be equipped with a self-anchoring line carrying a projectile, and the means of projecting it.

The other measure requires all vessels, on lakes and seas, to be provided with a "load line" that will indicate the maximum carrying capacity consistent with safety.

Both of these laws are needed on the lakes quite as much as on the ocean. The case of the steamer Mataafa, still fresh in the minds of Duluth people though it happened more than two years ago, is in point. The loss of life on the Mataafa, happening pathetically close to warmth, comfort and safety, would have been averted had the steamer been equipped with a line that could have been projected to shore. Had there been such equipment, it would have been possible to rescue every man aboard the ill-fated vessel. As there was none, and as it was found to be impossible to send a line from the shore to the ship in the teeth of the northeast gale that was blowing, nine men perished miserably.

Following this tragedy there was talk of compelling vessel-owners to provide their ships with this contrivance, but nothing came of it. It was provided that there should be a line running from stem to stern of all vessels, and this would probably have saved the lives that were lost on the Mataafa. This provision did not go far enough, however; it should have included equipment for sending a line ashore.

The proposed measure covering this protection does not, apparently, apply to the Great Lakes. It should be made to apply here, for it is needed in lake navigation quite as much as in ocean navigation.

The "load line" provision is also needed, and this measure applies to the lakes as well as to the oceans. It requires all vessel-owners to place a mark on the sides of their vessels amidships indicating the maximum line to which the vessels can be safely loaded. When a vessel has taken on enough cargo to bring this line to the water's edge, loading should be stopped; and that is the intent of the law.

It is notorious that chances are taken on the lakes. There have been several cases where, after vessels had foundered in storms on the lakes, there have been ugly rumors that they went out loaded too deeply for safety. Without a load line provision, there is strong temptation to do this. The more cargo the owners can crowd into a boat, the greater her earnings. At certain seasons of the year this practice is deemed comparatively safe, but it is not justified at any season. A vessel loaded too deeply is a perilous craft for men to go to sea in, at any time of the year; and the only way to make sure that vessels will not be loaded too deeply is to compel them to have load lines and to stop loading when these marks reach the water.

South Dakota has another interesting fight between "progressive" and reactionary Republicans, and the progressives are going to win.

The Crookston Times has issued a handsome and complete review of the greatness of the Red river valley, whose rich fertility and abounding prosperity have given it world wide fame.

Governor Hughes will be credited with another piece of good judgment in his refusal to interfere with the proper punishment of Chester Gillette, the brutal murderer of "Billy" Brown.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

Once upon a time, according to Roy Beacham, at the Lenox, there lived a rheumatic old skate of a horse which did a little running on the county fair tracks of old Arkansas. This old horse sometimes won, but as a rule, when the nags flashed by the stand where the country rubes were looking wise and picking the winners, "The Fiddler" was painfully pulling up in the rush, hopelessly out of the money. He was a steady and consistent loser.

One day the Cromwell boys of Pine Bluff, Ark., got hold of a colt that proved to be a wonder. It could make the other gallopers owned by the brothers look as slow as a committee of aldermen instigating a needed reform. It had everything in Arkansas lashed to the starting post, so the Cromwell boys began to look for other fields to conquer.

One day one of the Cromwell boys happened to see the poor old "Fiddler." Instantly he was struck with an idea. "The Fiddler" and the new speed merchant owned by the Cromwell boys looked enough alike to have been full brothers. The Cromwells bought "The Fiddled" for an up-to-date comic opera song, put him in a stable where no one would see him, and started for Memphis, Tenn., with their wizard ticketed under the name of "The Fiddler." You see, they were ringing the new phenom for the old carcass that used to be the joke of the county circuits.

Every conductor on the old Cotton belt railroad was given the tip to plunge on "The Fiddler." They in turn gave the handsome hunch to some of their friends. It wasn't very long before quite a few of the home boys had the "know" to lay a bunch of collateral down on "The Fiddler."

The race where some of the Memphis bookmakers were due to be sent to the remorse house was scduled for a Thursday. But when the bugle called the bangtails to the post it was seen that "The Fiddler" had been scratched. Wait, simply wait, was the tip that went out to the wise boys.

It is a matter of history that there are a large number of people playing the nags who have about as much real enduring dope on the horse as a Sunday school superintendent would be expected to have on the thrill possibility of the Merry Widow waltz. It also happened that fate dealt a lot of people a mean trick by ordaining that the "Flute" should be the cognomen of the bridle-wearer that was to start in the fourth race upon the following Saturday. The "Flute" and the "Fiddler" being both melodious in suggestion, a lot of wise ones fell over themselves to place their nest eggs on the possibilities of the "Flute." They confused him with the "Fiddler."

The "Flute" couldn't have been very well tuned, for Mr. Beacham avers that he is running yet. A moving rythm of gutteral rage went up that for unanimity of sentiment had a revival meeting outclassed. The Arkansas buckshot players were yelling because they had dropped their money. Some threatened to shoot the Cromwell boys, while others just turned and swore for five minutes without registering a repetition.

The explosion of currency on the "Flute" started a little talk. The Cromwell boys decided to start the "Fiddler" the following day. They were afraid to wait longer, believing that someone would suspect a trick. They sent out the tip to as many friends as they could reach. Most of the home boys were walking home by that time. Some of the friends got in on it, however. The "Fiddler" made the field look like a carnival politician at a charity ball. He won all the way, pulled up at the finish. He was played at 20 to 1, and immediately the swift scent of investigation began.

Witnesses from back in Pine Bluff were sent for. Those two horses looked so much alike—the real "Fiddler" and the new horse who was filling the place of the old plug in such a praiseworthy manner—that witnesses couldn't tell whether the winner of the stake race was the old "Fiddler" they had known or not. In the meantime the Cromwell boys had hurriedly dispatched a messenger to shoot the poor unoffending regular "Fiddler," and also to bury his remains beyond the search of any investigating committee.

They didn't have enough evidence to convict the Cromwell boys of playing a ringer. Most of the bookies went that playing $20 to every $1 placed on the "Fiddler." The Cromwell boys cleaned up enough comfort assurance to stock several tidy homes, but the boys who had thought the "Flute" was the "Fiddler" still have a rankling resentment when music is mentioned. It was simply fate that struck the boys from around Pine Bluff, but they have always laid it to the door of the Cromwell boys. That's one of the reasons none of the boys could ever represent his constituents in any public office.

J. H. Dean, a former city official of Toledo, who is at the Lenox, says William Howard Taft has everything coming to him in groups down in the Ohio ballsteck. He can see nothing but the corpulent figure of William H. looming large on the presidential horizon. "And if Willie is elected," he says, "it wouldn't be surprising if things would break rather hard for Mr. Foraker."

THE WEATHER.

Though the temperature has not fallen much, last night's lowest being 32 degs., this morning it was raw and cloudy, and a few flakes of snow fell. The weather man says more will fall tonight and probably tomorrow as well, and that it will be colder. Yesterday the thermometer got up to 55 degs., which made it almost summerlike.

A year ago today, Easter Sunday, it was cool and clear.

The sun rose this morning at 5:49 and sets tonight at 6:35, making 12 hours and 47 minutes of sunlight.

Says Mr. Richardson of conditions: "The Montana-Alberta low pressure has shifted its center to Colorado. This disturbance, in connection with another central over Michigan, caused rain or snow in the extreme Northwest, the lake region and Central valleys during Monday or last night, and higher temperatures in the lake region, Eastern and Southern states. A strong high pressure area has developed over Alberta which is causing somewhat colder temperatures throughout the entire Northwest. Snow flurries and freezing temperatures are indicated for this locality tonight and Wednesday."

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

The river and harbor bill contains an appropriation of $80,000 for Duluth, which is larger than any ever made before for this city, but smaller than recommended by Capt. Quinn, whose figures were $229,852.

Busines men on First avenue east and the lower side of Superior street, between Lake and First avenue, have suffered an aggregate loss by flood of between $8,000 and $4,000. William Gomberg places his loss at $1,500; John R. Meining, $500; Rainey & French, between $500 and $1,000; J. J. Costello, $100; Chinese laundry, $50. It was the result of a break in the water mains, presumably on Second street.

C. Broseau to L. Beaurivage, lot 290, block 71, Second division, $800.

C. H. Clague to C. S. Pierce, east half lot 314, block 36, Second division, $4,500.

C. Chauncey to W. W. Henry, Jr., lot 9, Minnesota avenue, Lower Duluth, $300.

J. L. Watrous of Cairo, Ill., who has been considering the idea of locating here for the manufacture of tubs and pails, has finally decided to do so. He will locate his factory at West Duluth.

W. N. Pollock appeared on the streets this morning with the finest turnout in the city. His fine pair of iron grays, attached to a handsome new wagon, attracted much attention.

Assurances have been received by the West Duluth Land company that the Eastern parties, who were expected to put up a large sash, door, blind and interior hardwood finishing factory in Duluth, have decided to do so, and will soon be on the ground.

James Pryor, formerly of Stannard Rock lighthouse, takes the place of E. R. Jefferson at the lighthouse in this harbor.

Victor Bergren, George Benz's right hand man in Duluth, will leave soon for the Pacific coast for a month's rest. Herman Benz will be here during Mr. Bergren's absence.

Mrs. Simcoe Chapman, sister of Henry C. Crawford, who has been visiting here for a week, left yesterday for Chicago, to join her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman have spent the winter in the South, and expect to return to Duluth shortly.

Svea hall was crowded last night at an entertainment by the young people of Grace M. E. church. Misses Nettie Bronson, Gertie Kennebrook, Helen and Abbey White, Jennie Hubbler and Hettie Bennison and Alfred Owen took part in the program. There was also a broom drill by young ladies, under command of Capt. Grace E. Davis.

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

Grand Rapids Independent: Young, Jacobson, Heatwole, Sommerville, Savage, Dunn, Stephens, Lord, Hanson—take your choice, gentlemen, and the politicians who control the state political machine will nominate the man they want.

Aitkin Republican: Frank W. Hunt of Mankato is a candidate for delegate at large to the national Republican convention at Chicago, and is receiving cordial support in his ambition from all over the state. Mr. Hunt is a big man, mentally as well as physically, has never asked anything at the hands of the Republican party of the state, and as he has helped fight the battles of the party for many years, his friends feel justified in asking that he be commissioned to help carry out the will of the Republicans of the state at the Chicago convention. Mr. Hunt is a friend of Northern Minnesota, and the Republican is pleased to express the hope that he may be chosen as one of the big four.

Walker Pilot: It's about as hard finding a railroad advertisement in a country weekly these days, as it is to find a country editor indulging in unnecessary riding on the cars. Here's a sample of reciprocity for you, knocked skyward by drastic legislation.

Pine City Tribune: If it is unconstitutional to try to bust a trust or regulate the money power, the power of Socialism and Anarchism is more than doubled.

Monticello Times: H stands for Harmony. H also stands for Hell, and there is as much harmony in hell as there is in either of the two great political parties of the North Star state. Brethren, let us have peace.

Montevideo Leader: It is said that Ex-State Oil Inspector McDermott has covered back into the state treasury the entire amount of fees collected and retained by him as "perquisites of the office." Now let the officials get busy and collect from his Republican predecessors the "perquisites" retained by them during their incumbency of the office.

Moose Lake Star-Gazette: We are beginning to realize more and more each day that Carlton county has a great future before it. What we need more than anything else is men to develop the resources that nature has placed before us. To get these men we must make our resources known. Are you doing anything in the way of "boosting?" If not, get busy.

Ortonville Herald Star: To call an extra session of the legislature now would be premature. Only nine months intervene before the regular session and it will require at least that long to properly digest and assimilate the federal supreme court decision nullifying what the last legislature did. When it becomes definitely settled just what the powers of the legislature are then it will be time enough to exercise them.

Madison Independent Press: Well, suppose a certain oil inspector did go wrong, what has that to do with Governor Johnson's administration? True, the governor did appoint him, but so long as the governor had no part in the crookedness and no knowledge of it, criticism of his administration on that account is unfair and unjust, to say the least.

Governor Johnson's Statement.

New York World: In his leter to Swan J. Turnblad, Governor Johnson of Minnesota takes a straightforward, dignified position in regard to the Democratic nomination. He will set up no organization. He will conduct no campaign. He will pull no wires. He is not seeking to undermine any other candidate.

But if the Denver convention should call on him to lead the party, he says frankly that he will accept the nomination. If it should nominate Mr. Bryan or any one else, he pledges his unqualified support to the Democratic candidate.

Will Mr. Bryan meet Governor Johnson in the same spirit of loyalty? If he fails in his personal ambition to be nominated, will he support Governor Johnson or whoever may be nominated? Or will his future actions be governed by how he fares personally at Denver?

What other candidate can the Democrats name who can poll as large a vote as Governor Johnson? What other candidate can they name who stands an equal chance with Governor Johnson of recovering the ground lost under Mr. Bryan's leadership? Governor Johnson can carry every state that Mr. Bryan can carry. He offers the Democratic party reasonable hopes of carrying states where Mr. Bryan has not the ghost of a chance.

Duluth a Great Ski Town.

Ishpeming Iron Ore: After many trials Duluth finally gathered in the American record last Sunday. Its best work for the winter had been 117 feet, made under good conditions, with freezing weather, hard and fast snow at the hill at its prettiest. A week ago last Sunday 110 feet was the best that could be secured. Last Sunday, however, was a pleasant day. The mercury stood at 46 above zero. The water ran down the hill cheerfully, gurgling and speaking Norse poems, the robins sang, and the trout fishermen got out their tackle. It was a day of days. The ski riders simply floated down hill on the stream. All American records were broken. They might just as well have taken all the world's marks at the same time. It was a matter of stepping out of the water upon the bank. Even the children beat the record of 122 feet made at the Ishpeming hill. The measuring chains were no good. They were too heavy, sinking out of sight, so rake handles were employed and even these proved inadequate to measure the performances. Mr. Evenson still holds the record, which was eminently proper. The Duluth exhibition ends the work of the ski riders for the season. It has been a great year for the sport. The flying machine will have to take a place in the rear of the procession as Duluth will distance any record it can make if Duluth can have the last trial on a warm day. We take our straw hat off to Duluth.

DULUTH AND THE HERALD.

North Branch Review: Duluth and St. Louis county are beginning an active advertising campaign in the hopes of getting settlers up in the North country. The plan includes an extensive exhibit at the Minnesota state fair and the spreading of various booklets and other advertising literature. It will help the whole state to get St. Louis and other northern counties settled up and we are glad to see this move on the part of the enterprising business men up there.

Park Rapids Enterprise: Compare The Duluth Evening Herald and the Duluth News Tribune with the Twin City dailies, and it will not take you long to decide what you want in the news line. The Duluth papers have a spice and attractiveness that looks good.

Montevideo Leader: We heard a wayup newspaper man say the other day, and he lives in one of the Twin Cities too, that The Duluth Herald is the ablest and best edited daily newspaper in the great state of Minnesota. Good indorsement that.

Brainerd Dispatch: Duluth is undergoing a wave of reform not known to the residents of that place since its incorporation as a city. The lid is on and the council is preparing to discontinue the policy of issuing licenses to breweries. The old time lumberjacks, who knew the town in an early day, do not recognize the city.

Virginia Enterprise: Minnesota needs more Joseph B. Cottons. Men of his push and untiring energy, of his farsightedness and enthusiastic public spirit, are factors in the welfare of a community, and a greater number of men of the same stamp would extend the scope of their uplifting influence.

Hibbing Missaba Ore: Sensible move. The faculty of the Duluth public schools has decided to cut out the expensive graduating dress and the profusion of flowers at commencement. This is done to bring all of the members of the graduating class, rich and poor, to the same level, and it is a display of rare good judgment. In Hibbing, where all are so well-to-do, such an order is not necessary.

Walker Pilot: If it were not for the fact that Duluth had such a powerful lot of out doors all around it, some of those long distance ski jumpers, who are risking their necks for new records, wouldn't be able to make those 138-foot leaps without bumping up against something.

Grand Rapids Herald-Review: Duluth got 1,538 new members for their Y. M. C. A. in ten days. And yet some people say Duluth is all to the bad.

Hibbing Missaba Ore: Duluth has suddenly awakened to the duty it owes the boys and girls of that town, and it is to be hoped it will not end in talk.

Virginia Enterprise: The Duluth employment agents who ship men to range points after getting their dollar and fare should be run to earth—and lifted a few feet above terra firma after being run down. The close of the season every year brings the same complaint from the honest toiler of giving up his good coin to be put wise to a phony job.

Democracy's Opportunity.

Editorial in World's Work: Governor Johnson has in an unusual measure that sturdy, intellectual character which Mr. Bryan lacks. He stands firmly on a few great principles, and he will stand there tomorrow. He has fixed qualities.

These are in fact the very qualities in the man that the party now needs in a leader—a sturdy honesty and trustworthiness of mind as well as of intention, the homely virtues of large common sense and a broad sympathy and courage to stand square whatever come. He is a plain, strong, brave, sensible man, who believes in the old doctrines and the philosophy of his party. Yet he would have the confidence of all classes of men if he were president. Those that have would not fear that he would encourage confiscatory or destructive measures, and those that are struggling would find him an honest man of their own class. He is a safe man to have great power and responsibility.

If the Democratic managers could recover from the extraordinary hallucination that possesses them and really cared to lift their party again to a vigorous level and to a winning level at an early time, if not now, they would nominate Governor Johnson. In fact there is a possibility that he might defeat this year any Republican candidate except Mr. Taft.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

GAVE NOTE TO JUROR

Did Unknown Man, Presumed to be Interested in Case.

Court is Given Letter and Affair Will be Probed.

Bemidji, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—There was an incident out of the ordinary enacted in the district court room Sunday when the jury in the case of the state against Telfof Peterson and Mike Shea, charged with grand larceny, returned its verdict of guilty. Judge Spooner asked a juoror, by the name of Phelps, if he had not been approached improperly during the trial. Phelps replied in the affirmative, stating that during dinner at a local hotel Saturday a man had handed him a note, which he put in his pocket supposing it came from his family. Later when he discovered the contrary he decided to turn it over to the court. Suiting the action to the word, the juror handed the note to Judge Spooner, who ordered it placed in the custody of the clerk of court for safe keeping. The judge then told Mr. Phelps to keep a sharp lookout for the man who gave him the note. Mr. Phelps stated that he could not be positive as to the identity of the latter, but that he would be on the lookout.

Peterson and Shea were arrested on the charge of having stolen a sum of money from R. C. Bryant, at the Lakeshore hotel, while the latter was rooming at that place.

Bryant testified that he had been knocked through the window of his room in the second story of the hotel, to the pavement below, being stunned by the fall. Although considerably shaken up, Bryant, according to his own statement, re-entered the hotel and gave Peterson and his associate Shea, a sound licking, the latter being later arrested, and after a hearing, held to the grand jury, which body returned an indictment against both men.

Retiring Judge Busy.

The work of disposing of the cases before the court is being pushed to the limit by Judge Spooner, who desires to conclude the cases in which he is directly connected by tomorrow evening, when he will step down from the bench and will be succeeded by the newly appointed Judge, C. W. Stanton of International Falls.

Judge Spooner has been holding night sessions and has convened court as early as 8:30 o'clock in the morning in order to get through as much as possible each day.

The case of the state of Minnesota vs. Witals Sjogren, indicted as William Sjogren for the crime of assault in the third degree, was called Monday. Sjogren withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty. Judge Spooner sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 and costs. Sjogren's offense is alleged to have been assaulting his wife at their home, twenty miles north of Blackduck.

The case of the state of Minnesota vs. Michael Cochran, indicted as Jake Cochran, charged with grand larceny in the first degree, was then taken up. Cochran is accused of having stolen some pork from the warehouse of Pierce & Co.

Judge Spooner also considered the case of Jennie Specht vs. Charles Specht for a divorce on the grounds of desertion. Judge Spooner found for the plaintiff and a divorce was granted Mrs. Specht.

ARTHUR MORRISEY KILLED.

Crookston Boy Loses His Life in Arkansas.

Crookston, Minn., March 31.—Special to The Herald.)—A telegram was received here yesterday afternoon announcing the fact that Arthur Morrisey, the 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Morrisey of this city, was killed at McGeehee, Ark. No particulars were received further than the fact that he had been killed, and it is supposed death was accidental. The shock has placed the mother in a critical condition. Arthur had been at New Orleans and was en route north, expecting to visit here this spring. He was an expert concrete worker.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED

In Connection With Blowing Up of Nevving Dam.

Bagley, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sheriff Holst has arrived here with five parties who are supposed to be connected with the blowing of the Nevving dam last Thursday night. The dynamite used was traced from Bagley to Nevving postoffice, and all parties who were in any way connected with it from the time it got there last Tuesday until it disappeared are in charge of the sheriff.

Rumor has it that one of the parties has given enough information to the county attorney to warrant the holding of at least two, if not three, until the grand jury meets. All the logs belonging to the S. P. K. Lumber, Cedar & Tie company are reported safe, but at last accounts considerable anxiety was felt for the state bridge, which it is feared will go out unless the weather remains favorable for the next ten days.

The dam has been plugged, but the volume of water that went out the first day, raised the river to within one foot of the state bridge, and it is feared that when the ice goes out the bridge will go with it. Two other bridges on the river will be washed out should we have continued warm weather.

HE DEVELOPS SMALLPOX.

Young Man Who Worked in Woods North of Duluth.

Houghton, Mich., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—County Physician Jackson has discovered a smallpox case in Laird township. The case is a peculiar one. The patient is a young man who has been working in the woods north of Duluth during the winter. He left the camp, where he had been employed, in good health and did not notice any symptoms of the disease till he reached his home on a farm in Laird township. He says there were no evidences of the disease in the camp and he made no stops on the way home.

Dr. Jackson was convinced that the patient's home had not been visited by any one since his return and he isolated him there because of the danger to him which would result from transporting him to the detention hospital in the winter.

FINDS FORTUNE ON DEAD.

Minneapolis Undertaker Comes Across Rolls of Bills in Clothing.

Stillwater, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of Miss Eleanor O'Brien, who died in Minneapolis Saturday, was held here yesterday from St. Michael's church. She was 71, a native of Bangor, Me., and came West early with her family.

It developed after her death that she carried a large sum of money, reported to be about $3,000, upon her person when she died. At the time of Miss O'Brien's death, in Minneapolis, it was thought that she left no estate and the burial was to have been arranged by E. M. Mortimer, a relative of the deceased, Mrs. Mortimer being a niece of Miss O'Brien.

An attendant from B. M. Gleason's undertaking rooms was called to embalm the body and prepare it for burial. Miss O'Brien died at the home of Mrs. George Stintzi, 2336 Fourth avenue south, and it was not known that the old lady had any large sum of money. The undertaker found the purse containing the savings and it has been turned over to relatives.

BROTHER ASSAULTS SISTER.

Pays Fine, But Has Licking Coming From Indignant Brother.

Eau Claire, Wis., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Myrtle Shafer, 17 years of age, residing a mile north of Lake Hallie in Chippewa county, while waiting for the interurban car at Chippewa Junction to go to Chippewa Falls, was attacked and terribly beaten by her brother, Samuel. The brutal treatment of the brother can only be accounted for through the fact that he has for some time held a grudge against the girl.

Soon after, Samuel was placed under arrest, taken to Chippewa Falls and arraigned before Judge Jenkins. The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and was fined $10 and costs by the court.

Samuel Shafer is a strapping big farmer, 28 years old and married, living with his father on his farm near Lake Hallie. A brother, Levi Shafer, lives in Eau Claire, who upon hearing of the shameful manner in which his younger sister had been treated, left immediately for Lake Hallie, swearing that he would "take it out of Samuel's hide." So there may be another chapter to add to the story later, when Levi returns to the city.

DIETZ'S PARTNER APPEALS

From Verdict of Guilty of Assault With Intent to Murder.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., March 31.—Judge W. H. Stafford has filed the papers for the appeal of the case of the state vs. Valentine Welsenbach to the supreme court. Welsenbach was sentenced by Judge Vinje at the May, 1906, term of the circuit court to twelve years in the state penitentiary for assault with intent to murder, it having been shown that he and John F. Dietz had fired from ambuscade upon Sheriff Peterson and deputies in April, 1904. Welsenbach denied that he was at the place where the firing on the sheriff's posse is said to have taken place.

ANOTHER TELEPHONE LINE

To be in Moorhead Territory, Connected With Fargo System.

Moorhead, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—A new telephone company has been organized in territory immediately adjacent to Moorhead, and which will be connected up with the local exchange in this city and Fargo. The new company is organized by a number of the prominent and progressive farmers of Oakport and Kragnes, and will be known as the Oakport & Kragnes Telephone company. The officers of the company are as follows: President, A. G. Kassenborg; vice president, Martin W. Gee; general manager, Eric Grover; treasurer, John Oberg; secretary, W. A. Brendemuhl. The five named as officers will constitute the board of directors.

ECZEMA ONLY SKIN DEEP.

Local Cure of Diseased Surface Now Recognized as Proper Treatment.

In gathering data for an address before the Pathological club, Dr. D. D. Dennis, the skin specialist of Chicago, prepared a table of results on microscopical blood examinations of 468 sufferers from skin disease.

These tests were from the blood of persons who had called at his office within a period of two years. Less than 10 per cent of all these cases showed any thing at all the matter with the blood, and in not a single instance could the physicians present trace the slightest connection between the skin affection and the blood humor.

This personal experience furnished the Chicago physician with the basis for a brilliant exposition of his contention that Eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, barber's itch and other skin diseases are first and last diseases of the skin and have nothing at all to do with the blood. At the conclusion of his paper, Dr. Dennis was congratulated on his demonstration by the prominent medical men present.

For several years Dr. Dennis has allowed a private company to manufacture and sell his celebrated compound of thymol glycerine and oil of wintergreen known as D. D. D. Prescription, and it was particularly gratifying to him that other first-class physicians, free from prejudice and jealousy, should recommend the D. D. D. Prescription to all skin sufferers.

It is simply wonderful—the instant relief—the complete taking away of the itch the very moment this oil of wintergreen compound is applied to the skin. We know, we vouch for it! Lyceum Pharmacy Duluth Minn. Just try it. We recommend D. D. D. Prescription especially when used with D. D. D. Soap. Call at our store and we will tell you more about this scientific cure.

WHY OUR ADVERTISED PRICE REDUCTIONS ARE THE BEST VALUES ANYWHERE OBTAINABLE

The bargains found here are best, because our advertisements are always statements of actual facts and are never made deceptive or misleading. There is a good reason for every reduction, not solely to catch the customer's eye. Frequently the article advertised is an odd sample, often we have too many patterns in one line, and sometimes we need more space on our sales floors, and for that reason we sacrifice profit to effect a clearance. At this store you are always certain when answering one of our advertisements, that each article is at a special reduction from our already low regular prices, and that this store always sells it for less.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

St. Paul—The parsonage of St. Louis Catholic church, 494 Cedar street, was ransacked and looted Friday night by burglars who got away with $350 in cash and a number of valuables.

Minneapolis—The safe in the Wonderland meat market, 2913 East Lake street, containing nearly $500, was primed for blowing by burglars, who broke into the shop Saturday night. They were evidently frightened away before lighting the fuse, however, but carried off a large quantity of canned meats as booty.

Crookston — Nels Peterson's Hunter street home was completely gutted by fire at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The loss is $5,000; insured for $3,000. A defective flue was the cause of the fire.

Fergus Falls—O. B. Gunderson, a well known farmer residing in Holland township, across the Clay county line, was committed to the insane hospital here. Mr. Gunderson's mania is suicidal, and he attempted to take his life a few days ago by pounding his head with a hammer.

Aitkin—A. C. Hammond has resigned his position as foreman in the Age office, and accepted that of gardener at the summer home of M. W. Savage, the owner of Dan Patch, which is a located on the Minnesota river, a few miles from St. Paul.

Onamia—The Onamia town board will meet at the Warren hotel next Saturday to consider the opening of a road along the town line between Onamia and South Harbor townships running east to intersect the state road running from Milaca to Cove.

St. Cloud—At the annual city Democratic convention Saturday afternoon Louis Brown was nominated for mayor by a unanimous vote. Other nominations: City justice, J. I. Donahue and William H. Alden; city treasurer, L. J. Rocholl; alderman, Second ward, Oscar Zimmerman; Second, George Deering; Third, Peter Spanlol; Fourth, Paul Beaudreau.

Brainerd—W. H. Rosenkranz of Nokay Lake has rented the Farmers' Home hotel and barn of Con O'Brien and will take possession the first of April.

Roseau—Arthur and Archie Alley are making preparations to erect a building on their lot adjoining the F. & M. bank this spring. They have most of the material on the ground and have purchased concrete blocks for the foundation.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Milwaukee—The sum of $4,599 was allowed Herman Halwas by a jury in Judge Tarrant's court for in juries sustained while driving letters in the pedestals of the Kosciusko monument. A pile of stone fell upon Mr. Halwas, paralyzing his right arm and breaking several ribs. He sued the Milwaukee Monument company for damages.

Appleton—Dr. Byron Douglas, first practicing dentist of Appleton, and one of the pioneers of his profession in Northern Wisconsin, died at his home here Sunday at the age of 83 years. Dr. Douglas was a member of the assembly in 1892.

Chippewa Falls—As the result of a warfare among the saloonkeepers of Bruce, one faction has been circulating petitions to have license proposition voted on at the election April 7.

Marinette—Navigation is scheduled to open locally about April 1, when the first Ann Arbor car ferry will steam through the honey-combed ice of Green bay to the local docks. The advent of the Ann Arbor will be followed closely by the breaking up of the Green bay ice fields, and it is thought that the first passenger boat will be able to make the local harbor about April 10.

Green Bay—The many fishermen, who make their homes in this city and along the bay shore, are engaged in preparing for the season's operations, which will not open until May 25 for game fish. Most of the fishermen in this section have taken in nets used during the winter and are repairing them for the open water fishing.

Eau Claire—The Daniel Shaw Lumber company has sold to Madison parties a tract of land comprising over 6,000 acres in the western portion of Taylor county and the eastern portion of Chippewa county for $72,000. There is considerable small timber on this land, but the big timber has been practically all cleared off.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Bismarck, N. D.—The engine of the Linton accommodation train suddenly broke down Saturday afternoon just as the train was about to leave the city. This necessitated the engine's being hauled over to Mandan, where it underwent repairs for half an hour, and then was able to proceed on its journey.

Minot, N. D.—The biggest crowd that ever witnessed a basketball game in Minot saw the Minot championship team defeat the men's team from Berthold by the score of 23 to 24. The game was hotly contested from the very start and was in doubt until the closing bell.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

For proof of this statement read the following letters.

Mrs. Barbara Base, of Kingman, Kansas, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For eight years I suffered from the most severe form of female troubles and was told that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham for advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has saved my life and made me a well woman."

Mrs. Arthur R. House, of Church Road, Moorestown. N. J., writes:

"I feel it is my duty to let people know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female troubles, and last March my physician decided that an operation was necessary. My husband objected, and urged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to-day I am well and strong."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, and backache.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

SINGLE FARE FOR PARK POINT

Committee Appointed by Council to Work With Mayor.

The Park Poin transfer agitation on the part of the Fourth ward aldermen was revived last night, when, on a resolution by the council, President Getchell appointed Aldermen Shartel, Trevillion and Tessman a committee of three to act with the mayor and city attorney in an effort to secure universal transfers between Park Point and the city through agreement between the Duluth Street Railway company and the Interstate Traction company, which operates the line on Park Point.

The city officials and representatives of the street railway companies held several conferences early in the winter and the companies were unable to agree upon the basis of division of the funds. An agreement was finally reached, whereby a fare of seven cents would be charged, on a ticket system, but that is not satisfactory to the Park Point people. They want a fare of 5 cents, with transfers, and another effort will be made to secure it.

BISMARCK ARMORY ASSURED.

Money Raised to Build One of Finest in State.

Bismarck, N. D., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the encouragement and backing of the business men of the city, through the influence of the Commercial club, the members of Company A, N. D. N. G., have succeeded in raising the money necessary to build one of the finest armories in the state, and it is little wonder that this organization is full of rejoicing.

Architect VanHorn is busily engaged upon the final plans of the building, and it is confidently hoped the contract will be let and the building under way within a few weeks.

MANY SETTLERS ATTRACTED

By Opening of Lands in Belle Fourche District.

Belle Fourche, S. D., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Theo pening of 12,000 acres of land, near here, in what is known as the government irrigation district, it attracting hundreds of settlers into this section of the country. Water in the government irrigation ditches will be turned on within a very short time, and the ground will then be in readiness for cultivation.

The total number of acres that will be irrigated as soon as the government works now in progress are completed will be between 90,000 and 100,000, and it is believed that the greater part of this land will be settled upon within a very brief period.

TOWNE AND DELMAS

News has been received from New York of the forming of a law partnership between Charles A. Towne, formerly congressman from this district, now a resident of New York and an influential Tammany hall worker, and Delphine M. Delmas, the California criminal lawyer, who defended Harry K. Thaw in his first trial for the slaying of Stanford White.

The partnership has been in operation for one month, but has not been generally known. Mr. Towne will devote his time to general practice, while Mr. Delmas will maintain his criminal practice.

ON THE IRON RANGES

ELECTION FRAUD CASE IS FIZZLE

State Unable to Prove Louis Roth Bribed Legal Voter.

Chisholm, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The case against Louis Roth, alleged to have bribed a voter at the recent village election, developed flash-in-the-pan qualities before Judge Freeman, and after hearing the evidence yesterday afternoon, the court discharged the accused.

The state made out a weak case, being unable to prove that the voter alleged to have been purchased was a legal voter. It is not expected there will be any further prosecutions in the matter.

Attorney John A. Keyes of Duluth, assisted County Attorney Poirier in the prosecution, while the defendant was represented by Joseph Austin of Chisholm, and Martin Hughes of Hibbing.

VALEDICTORY OF THE VOLUNTEERS

Virginia, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the volunteer fire department, who in times past "have run with the old machine," bade farewell to former fire fighting days about the banquet board in the new fire hall, last night, at a notable event, held in celebration of the passing of the old and the beginning of the new, for Virginia has now a paid department. Thirty-six had been invited to the banquet and all were present. There was a tinge of feeling about the affair, as the boys realized a breaking of old and pleasant associations, but above all was a spirit for a greater and a better Virginia.

Ex-Mayor Eaton proved the right man for toastmaster, and he kept everybody in good humor as he facetiously introduced the different speakers. City Clerk Bickford spoke entertainingly on the history of the department, while Chief Thayer had words of encouragement and good cheer for its coming duties. Mayor Hawkinson, J. A. Kennedy, ex-Alderman Kimball and others also spoke. The new fire hall was recently completed, at a cost of $16,000, and the department, which now consists of seven paid men and three volunteers, is equipped with the latest and most up-to-date fire fighting apparatus.

HIBBING MASONIC TEMPLE

Will be Dedicated Friday With Fitting Ceremony.

Hibbing, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The dedication of the new Masonic temple here Friday evening promises to bring together a notable gathering of men high in matters Masonic. It is expected that nearly all of the grand lodge officers of the state will be present. The grand lodge has designated Hon. Clarence B. Miller of Duluth grand orator of the grand lodge for the occasion, and he will deliver the principal address.

Among grand lodge officers expected to be present are: Messrs. Swan, Patton, Kling, Fishel, Morris, Countryman, Supt. Denfeld of Duluth, W. A. McGonagle and others. The work of the first degree will be exemplified by Worshipful Master J. A. Robinson and the members of the Hibbing lodge. The temple will be dedicated by the grand lodge officers, and a banuet will follow at Closes' hall.

NEW ITALIAN CHURCH

Promised Eveleth, With Priest From Sunny Italy.

Eveleth, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—A deal is in progress that will insure for the Italians in town a church better than the one they are occupying. Just where it is to be located is not known, though the officers of the church feel sure that the new location will be one worthy of the new building.

The officials have also been informed that the new church will have an Italian priest, which will be greatly appreciated.

HIS MOTHER BURNED.

Two Harbors, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—L. Y. Koneczny has returned from Silver Lake, Minn., where he was called by a serious accident that befell his aged mother. She was badly burned by her clothing catching fire from live coals she was carrying, and it is feared she cannot survive.

EVELETH IN BRIEF.

Eveleth, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of Carl Rik was attended by a large concourse of Italians yesterday afternoon. The services were held at the Italian church. Mr. Rik died of pneumonia after being sick for three weeks.

Fred Boorman's successor as foreman of the Eveleth News office is Lawrence Lodal of St. Paul, an old-time printer. A new city editor has been chosen by the paper in W. T. Harris, formerly of Kenmare, N. D.

Nelle Karon, recently a teacher in and librarian of the Eveleth schools, is in town on a visit.

Hoping that the coming election, April 7, in Gilbert, will favor the place's incorporation, the saloon interests are hard at work getting the options on new buildings that are being erected, leasing many for long terms.

INCREASES ITS FORCE.

Eveleth, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Iron Range road is showing an increase in business on the range, as it has ordered the increase of its local force at the station after the first of the coming month. The messengers and baggagemen who were taken off as a part of the retrenchment policy are be put to work again.

EVELETH MILITIA PLAN PROGRESSING FAVORABLY.

Eveleth, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The militia company affairs are rapidly taking form. Officers are to be chosen, and the general sentiment of the men who have signed the enlistment papers favors R. M. Cornwell, cashier of the First National bank, as captain; F. R. Ellsworth, first lieutenant, and Alderman E. H. Hatch, second lieutenant.

The enlistment papers have been made out in full, the requisite number of men having been examined by Dr. E. M. Gans, who is to be a member of the company.

JUDGE PRINCE TO APPEAL.

Eveleth, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Prince has decided to take advantage of the stay of forty days that has been allowed him and Miss Sadie Murphy, the court clerk, in the case that has been waged against him by the Federation of Miners regarding the $425 that they claim is due them as bail money. The judge is to carry the case to the supreme court.

WATSON MOORE AMONG SPEAKERS

At Brainerd M. E. Conference in Session at Little Falls.

Little Falls, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Brainerd district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church is in session here. The Rev. E. K. Copper, presiding elder, presided over the business session, which met in the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. E. K. Copper gave his report of work on the district, which showed some gains in membership. Rev. Charles Fox Davis is secretary and Rev. J. T. Brabner Smith treasurer.

The principal addresses will be given by Alderman Watson S. Moore of Duluth and Rev. Dr. S. P. Long of Minneapolis. This is a change in the program, owing to the inability of Dr. Robert Forbes of Philadelphia to be present.

The program committee consists of Revs. C. F. Davis, J. T. B. Smith, I. N. Godell, W. H. Farrell and Dr. Copper.

An address of welcome by Rev. Clinton A. Billig, Congregationalist, was enjoyed, and Miss Lora Magee spoke for the local church.

Clergymen are here from Wadena, Bemidji, Park Rapids, Akeley, Princeton, Long Prairie, Melrose, Staples, Brainerd and other points.

WEATHER COLD DURING APRIL

The average temperature during the month of April is 39 degs. above zero, according to records for the past thirty-seven years that have been kept in the local weather bureau. The month may be much warmer than this, however. The warmest April on record was in 1900, with an average of 45 degs. The coldest April was in 1907, with an average of 31 degs.

An extreme of temperature was registered on April 29, 1891, when the mercury in the official thermometer went to 81 degs. above. In 1881, on April Fool's day, the weather man played a joke on the public by allowing the temperature to drop to 3 above zero.

The average precipitation for the month has been 2.07 inches, with an average of nine days when .01 inch or more of rain fell. The greatest monthly precipitation was 5.85 inches, in 1894, and the least was .30 inches, in 1873.

The average number of clear days has been 9, partly cloudy 11 and cloudy 10.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

The Utah Construction company has been instructed by the Harriman officials to resume grading a line from Huntington to Homestead, Baker county, Or. This work was halted last fall at the beginning of the financial flurry.

George Conrad, a farmer of Wayne, W. Va., Monday killed his 6-year-old daughter by beating her with a poker and fatally injured his wife with the same weapon. Jealousy is assigned as the cause. Conrad, who escaped, is still eluding the authorities.

The suit of M. P. Reporn, state auditor's agent, against the Burley Tobacco society for back taxes on 1,000,000,000 pounds of tobacco, valued at $100,000,000, was tried before Judge Evans at Winchester, Ky., Monday and was dismissed. The judge decided that Reporn had failed to make out a case.

Edward F. Randall, an expert accountant, shot and it is believed, fatally wounded his wife and then killed himself Monday night at his home in Brooklyn.

Gen. Richard C. Horne, who was acquitted last week of the charge of murdering H. J. Groves, managing editor of the Kansas City Post, was taken to St. Joseph and will be placed in the state asylum for the insane. Horne was acquitted of the murder of Groves on the plea that he was insane at the time of the shooting.

BLINDS MUST BE LEFT UP

Ordinance Would Make Enforcement of the Lid Easy.

The indifference shown by some of the saloonkeepers of the city to the regulations of the mayor and chief of police relative to the pulling of blinds that there may be a clear view of bars from the street during closing hours, was responsible for an ordinance introduced by Alderman Moore last night providing for such pulling of blinds.

The ordinance prohibits the use of any screen, blind, shutter, curtain, partition or painted or stained glass window or any other construction, which may interfere with or prevent a clear view of the interior of any premises used for the sale of intoxicating liquors, from the outside during certain hours. The hours are fixed as those between 11 p. m. and 5 a. m., all day on any general, special or primary election day and all day Sunday. The penalty for violation is fixed at a fine not to exceed $100, or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed sixty days.

ALDERMEN CLASH.

Tessman and Cromwell Come Together on Paving Resolution.

Aldermen Tessman and Cromwell clashed last evening in the council, when Alderman Tessman introduced a resolution calling on the city engineer to prepare an estimate showing the cost of paving Second alley from Lake avenue to Fourth avenue west, and also instructing the board of public works to circulate a petition among the property-owners to be affected by the work.

Alderman Cromwell decried the practice of the board of public works circulating petitions for improvements, when such petitions should come from the property owners themselves. He remarked that contractors sometimes inspire such action, whereas if the people want the improvements they are given the power to ask for them.

Alderman Tessman was nettled. He replied to Alderman Cromwell, saying that a number of people, who would be benefitted by the paving of the alley and who reside on it and use it as a street, have called on him and requested that the petition be circulated, as they have not the time to do it themselves. Alderman Cromwell's intimation of contractors' inspiration nettled him and his reply was not without warmth.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Duluth Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Duluth testimony:

Edward J. Hopp, a mineralogist, living at 422 First street west, Duluth, Minn., says: "The best proof of the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills that I can give is, that since using this remedy for a bad attack of kidney trouble, some six years ago, I have not found it necessary to use any medicine at all for my kidneys. At the time when I began using them I suffered from sharp aching pains in the back and loins. The kidney secretions were discolored and the trouble told on my general health. Doan's Kidney Pills brought prompt relief and a final cure, and the permanence of the results thoroughly proved that this remedy can be depended upon in such cases."

PLAN NOT FEASIBLE.

Board of Assessors Not Legal, Says City Attorney.

The substitution of a board of assessors for the assessor system at present in force in Duluth would not be constitutional, according to a report submitted to the council last night by City Attorney Wilson. The report was in reply to a request made by the council last week for an opinion on the feasibility of the plan.

Under the enabling act for the city charter, the attorney said, any plan of government is made possible and an amendment to the charter providing for a board of assessors would not be in conflict with the act. But the act also provides that the city charter shall not conflict with the constitution of the state of Minnesota, and in the opinion of the attorney, an amendment such as that proposed amendment would not be in harmony with the state constitution.

The amendment, he said, might result in serious conflict between the city officials and the state taxing officials and the courts would probably hold it unconstitutional.

MOURNERS ALL ARMED,

But Officers Did Not Interfere at Funeral of Outlaw.

Muskogee, Okla., March 31.—The funeral of Charles Wycklife, the notorious Indian outlaw long sought by the authorities and who was shot and killed by his brother, Thomas, in a family quarrel, was held at the Wycliffe home, twenty miles east of Pryor Creek, late yesterday. Thomas and John Wyckliffe, brothers, attended the funeral, as did many friends of the family.

The three outlaws have been sought for three years by the Oklahoma officers for murder and other crimes, and their whereabouts was only learned when the murder of Charles became known. The mourners yesterday were all heavily armed, but the officers made no attempt to interfere.

RAISE LICENSE FEE.

Employment Agents May be Forced to Pay $500 a Year.

An ordinance was also introduced last night and placed on first reading, calling for the increasing of the license fee of employment offices from $100 to $500. Mr. Foubister's action is evidently inspired by the belief that none but the reputable agents will care to put up such a fee and take chances on a revocation of their licenses on account of questionable practices. Mr. Foubister was a member of the committee, which investigated employment offices, and the resolution is in line with other reforms instituted by the committee.

ACTION OF AMERICAN CONSUL IN MANCHURIA

been firm in his assumption that he was accredited solely to China, and he has declined to act on the suggestion conveyed to him by an official of the Russian railroad administration, that he should secure the permission of Gen. Horvath, the Russian governor of Harbin, before opening his consulate, or raising the American flag over the building.

Under the treaty of 1896 Russia claims exclusive control over the railroad zone in Manchuria, as well as the right to organize independent, self-governing municipalities. The taotai of Harbin protested against this to the Russian governor and to the consuls of the United States and Japan. The Japanese, who are now co-operating in the friendliest manner with the Russians in Manchuria, rejected this protest, but Mr. Fisher supported it.

The foreign office here expresses the belief that it would be decidedly to the interest of the United States to recognize the Russian administration of Manchuria, inasmuch as foreign residents share in the privileges of this administration.

weights the last day. Tremendous interest attaches among the men of the fleet in these contests. Los Angeles' entertainment committee has proffered a prize of $50 each for the winner of each of the events.

Jeffries to Be Referee.

The announcement that the big pugilistic events will be refereed by Champion James J. Jeffries has aroused the keenest interest among the sailors. The heavyweight champion of the fleet now is Altieri, who won the belt last year, and has successfully defended it half a dozen times. However, there are at least two aspirants for the honors, who are likely to prove his master. Semi-finals will be finished between now and the time of arrival at Los Angeles' ports, so that all will be in readiness for the big events. A boxing carnival was held aboard the flagship a couple of nights ago, the first stirring athletic event since the ships arrived here.

A big sailing regatta is in preparation, in which boats from nearly all the ships will participate. This will be pulled off within a few days. Other sports, such as baseball, football, foot racing, broad and high jumps, are encouraged among the men by the commanding officers, and there are many adepts in each class.

Fishing parties are greatly in fashion. The waters of the bay are filled with various species of fish and the catches have been very large. Trolling for yellow tail has proved the greatest attraction. The fish average from five to thirty-five pounds each. Two or three men are required some times to haul in a fish. Seining goes on every night, and many hauls of tons or more of mackerel, flounder and other similar varieties have been taken. The result has been the addition of plenty of fresh fish to the regular bill of rations.

The four enterprising business firms which set up their little stands along the shore in front of the town are meeting with a depressing lull in trade with the fleet. The sailors are not allowed ashore except now and then a squad in charge of an officer for some particular purpose, so that the much-expected flow of trade is languishing. The hot sands along the beach are denuded of prospective customers, and the impromptu merchants are not all sanguine of the financial feature of their ventures. Their little shacks, set along near the pier, were constructed of pieces of canvass or rudely arranged boards. The weather is warm, day and night, and little shelter is required. Large stores of tobacco, fruits, stationery supplies and liquors are stacked within.

DIES AT MAGDALENA.

Eau Claire Boy, With Fleet, Dies From Tuberculosis.

Eau Claire, Wis., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—A message from Washington announces the death of Charles F. Dowling of this city at Magdalena on March 25. Young Dowling was with the battleship fleet, being assigned to the Missouri. He was taken ill with pulmonary tuberculosis about two weeks ago. The body was buried on land and will probably later be brought to Eau Claire.

EAST GRAND FORKS

Again Votes in Favor of Owning Water Plant.

East Grand Forks, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—For the third time in the last four years this city voted Monday on the subject of the establishment of a city waterworks plant. Like in the first two elections, the result of yesterday's voting was all one way, being favorable to the proposition. The vote was 359 for, 73 against.

The waterworks issue has been a live one in East Grand Forks for several years. The city is without a plant, receiving all of its water from Grand Forks. This condition was not satisfactory to the citizens, and an election was called to authorize the issuing of bonds. The result was favorable, but when it came to the disposal of the bonds, bidders were absent. There had been a flaw in the proceedings. The second election resulted the same, all for waterworks, but again there was a flaw in the election, and the bonds could not be sold. The election proceedings this year have been watched very closely, and it is believed that the bonds will be taken up.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON ON ARBOR DAY

"Arbor day was born of purpose, not of fatigue, and should prove itself worthy of its parentage. It is not in the strictly modern sense of the word a holiday, and, with no wish to belittle its celebration by exercises and song, I would point to the urgent necessity for more telling action in the observance of it.

"It has been the fate of heroes and thinkers to become to us a more substantial, vital reality when they have passed out from among us than we regard them while they performed in their flesh the mighty deeds, and thought the mighty thoughts, we now extol in song. Let not this be the portion of man's friend, the trees—to be neglected or laid low in our service, then accorded a tardy and ineffectual worship when it has surrendered for us its all, and lies prone and passive beyond our voices.

Now, however beautiful, however desirable, however necessary may be the individual tree, it is not enough that we plant, as a school, or even as a community, one tree or a dozen trees, with all the ceremonial attended upon cornerstone laying, to stand up here and there, sporadic instances of well-identified but futile recognition of their esthetic value.

"If we must atone for the past, we make permanent provision for the future. The school and the community must, both of them, separately or together, have a landscape scheme as definite, as complete, and as clear as the plans and specifications of architecture.

"As no rational home builder would dream of permitting that one man design the foundation, another the superstructure, neither should one individual—on this day set aside for the general weal—make his solitary contribution to shade and beauty by planting a few cedars in his particular earth plot, at the same time that his neighbor sets up an elm to guard his gate, while it may be that the real need of the town, of which both men are a part, is a grove of maple that a little forethought, a community conference, and a day's well-directed, concerted effort would make a budding actuality, not an ideal of the far-off sometime.

"To this plea for a larger place for arborial life in our thoughts and in the objective world about us, there seems little call to plead for the feathered folk of the woods. Take care of of the trees, and the trees will take care of the birds, whose twittering cheerfulness and irrepressible outburst hymn the Eternal Goodness in happier voice than their own 'pathetic minor.'"

RUFFIAN TRIED TO GRAB PURSE

Attacked Young Woman Near the New Y. M. C. A. Building.

Miss Ethel Wood was attacked by a ruffian at 8 o'clock last evening in front of the new Y. M. C. A. building at Third avenue west and Second street.

Miss Wood was on her way home and was suddenly seized by a shabbily dressed man, who attempted to wrest her purse from her arm, where she carried it.

Surprised by the fellow's movements, Miss Wood spoke sharply to him. She declares that she was not greatly frightened, but more indignant than anything else. "What are you doing?" she said to the man.

Her assailant did not utter a word during the whole proceeding. He evidently thought it would be an easy matter to wrest Miss Wood's pocketbook from her grasp, but he was disappointed, as she is in the habit of carrying it with a loop around her arm. The fellow tugged at it for a minute and when Miss Wood recovered from her astonishment and spoke to him, he started to run down the hill.

Miss Wood did not scream or make any attempt to give chase. She has not even reported the matter to the police.

She describes the would-be thief as a shabby, fairly stout man, with course features. She did not gain a very clear impression of him, however.

ROCK LED TWO LIVES

That her husband for two years led a double life, and passed as the husband of another woman within five blocks of his own home, is the charge made by Mrs. William Rock who last evening caused the arrest of her husband and Minnie Henricks on a statutory charge.

According to the statement of Mrs. Rock to a Herald reporter this morning, her husband has been living with Miss Henricks at 23 Second avenue west, as Mr. and Mrs. William Harris. The arrest was made on information furnished by the 15-year-old son of Rock. The boy saw Rock and the Henricks woman attend the Bijou theater one evening, together, and he immediately went home and told his mother.

"Until he met that woman," said Mrs. Rock, "he was a model man in his home. Now he hasn't a home, or a friend or a dollar. She has pulled him down until he is a wreck in every way."

Rock is the man who last year brought suit against Alex J. Gurtin, automobile agent and mining man, charging Gurtin with having wronged Tillie Henricks, sister of the woman under arrest. Rock claimed to be the girl's guardian. Later the suit against Gurtin was dismissed.

Mrs. Rock alleges that the two lived together from November, 1905, until April, 1907. Detectives Walsh and Terry made the arrest. Rock is 42 years old and the Henricks woman is 19.

They were arraigned in the municipal court this morning, pleaded not guilty and their hearing was set for tomorrow at 2 p. m.

Rock has retained H. B. Fryberger to defend him.

REVISION OF ORDINANCE

The building ordinance of the city of Duluth is getting to be a regular joke. It was practically branded as such by the board of fire underwriters, who investigated conditions in Duluth last fall, but after the report had been referred to the building inspector for recommendations, nothing more was done, and the ordinance still lives, to be picked to pieces whenever anybody cares to do so.

Since the ordinance was originally drafted and adopted, it has probably undergone more amendments than any other ordinance of the city. If the commission which drafted it were to go over it now they would hardly recognize their own work. Whenever anybobdy erecting a big building is unable to agree with the building inspector on details, he goes to the aldermen, has the ordinance amended and goes ahead with his work.

One of the aldermen aptly voiced the apparent sentiment of the council last night when, in discussing an ordinance, amending the building ordinance, he said: "We may as well amend the ordinance to conform with the plans."

Some features of Duluth's ordinance are admirable. Probably no city in the country has better provisions for the protection of theater patrons in case of fire. In other respects it is well drafted, but constant changes have thrown the building inspector into a maze and he hardly knows which way to turn.

The growing sentiment is for a general revision of the ordinance, in conformity with the recommendation of the committee of the board of fire underwriters. Some move will probably be made in the council soon to secure it, or there will only be an infinitesimal part of the old ordinance supporting a bewildering array of amendments, good, bad and indifferent.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? Sold by all druggists.

PETITIONS COURT FOR REMOVAL

H. L. Hartenstein, manager of the American Carbolite company, who has been sued by C. A. Duncan on a promissory note for money loaned, has filed with the clerk of the district court a petition and bond for the removal of the case to the United States circuit court. The petition is based on the claim of diversity of citizenship. R. R. Briggs, attorney for Hartenstein, filed the papers.

It has been rumored that Hartenstein is not sick in Chicago, as reported a few days ago, but that he has been staying in Superior and making night visits to this city. Mr. Briggs, his attorney, denounces the rumors as false. He claims that Hartenstein is in Chicago.

TEAM GOES INTO BAY

Householder Has Harrowing Experience While Moving Furniture.

Oscar H. Wetterlund had his troubles last night while moving his household goods from Twenty-fourth street, Park Point, to his future home in West Duluth.

Early in the evening he loaded his furniture and other belongings on a sleigh and attempted to drive across the bay on the ice. He had not driven the load far before the team plunged through a rotten place in the ice, which he had not seen in the darkness. The team dragged the load in after them. The unfortunate mover shouted for help, and it was only after much difficulty that he and those that came to his assistance managed to save the team. The remainder of the night was spent in fishing out his water-soaked household effects.

SON DISAPPEARS.

Daughter Returns to Nurse Mother, and Her Brother Flees.

The daughter of Mrs. Charles Brager, 217 South Fifty-ninth avenue west, after nearly a year's absence, her whereabouts unknown, returned Monday to her home to nurse her mother during her last days of illness. Mrs. Brager is dying of an incurable cancer. Search had been made for the missing girl ever since she left West Duluth.

The family had been reunited, but one day, when Mrs. Brager's son, who has been with his mother all the time since the daughter left them, quarreled with his sister and this morning disappeared from home himself, taking his sister's suit case with him.

The police, this afternoon, said they had been unable to find any trace of him in the city.

SUPERIOR NEWS

May Agree on Verdict.

It is expected that the proceedings on the part of the city of Superior to open Third street, across the railroad yards, will result in some agreement between the city and the railroad companies for the building of a new viaduct over the tracks. The railroad companies have asked for a continuance of the hearing for the opening of the street. If the street is opened the companies can be forced to build a viaduct, but legal obstructions could be interposed to delay the work for some time.

Argue Over Railroad Crossing.

Arguments will be made before the Wisconsin state railroad commission today in the matter of the application of the Soo road for crossings over the Northern and the Omaha tracks, on Connor's Point. The Great Northern and the Northern Pacific companies are fighting the crossing proposition. Some other privileges that the Soo company asks will also be considered.

Brother Dies Suddenly.

Dr. S. G. Pake left last evening for Missoula, Mont., in response to a telegram announcing the sudden death of his brother, James Pake, aged 33 years. The decedent was employed in the engineering corps of the Milwaukee road, which is building a line to the coast. He was recently transferred to Missoula from Seattle. For some years prior to his going West, the decedent was employed in one of the West Duluth sawmills. The burial will take place in Duluth.

Mrs. Jorgenson Passes Away.

Mrs. Emma J. Jorgenson, wife of Henry Jorgenson, died yesterday after a lingering illness from lung trouble. For some time previous to the death of Mrs. Jorgenson, the family resided at 42 West Sixth street. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Our American Pride.

Every true American must thrill with pride as he reads of the splendid showing made by our navy when sixteen of its best vessels started on their long cruise recently. Those ships are products of American skill and manned by American sailors and gunners. Every true American should also take great pride in pointing to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as the leading remedy for curing ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is the product of American skill, and for 54 years has been proving its ability to cure and prevent poor appetite, dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, kidney ills, costiveness, colds, grippe and malaria. It is also an excellent Spring medicine and blood purifier, and is able to strengthen and build up the entire system. We urge you to try a bottle without delay.

VERITABLE STAMPEDE
At the Columbia Clothing Company's Tie Sale This Morning.

Two hundred and nine dozen neckties sold in two hours was the phenomenal record made at the Columbia this morning. The advertisement appeared exclusively in last evening's Herald, and the crowd was waiting this morning. The entire sales force was centered at the furnishing department and they were kept on the jump every minute. The event was unprecedented in the history of the Columbia, which has had many record-breaking sales. ***

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

Butte-Ballaklava Copper Company Holds Its Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Butte-Ballaklava Copper company was held yesterday afternoon at the concern's offices in the Providence building, when the following directors were elected for a year: R. B. Dear, P. H. Nelson, Mille Bunnell, John Panton, I. Freimuth, Gust Carlson and John A. Percival.

After the stockholders' meeting, the directors held a meeting and re-elected the following officers: President, R. B. Dear; vice president, P. H. Nelson; treasurer, Mille Bunnell; secretary, John A. Percival.

The secretary suggested that a majority of the stock, 150,000 shares, be pooled for a period of three years, and this was done. Trustees of the pooled stock are J. T. Wyman and W. D. Winston of Minneapolis and Judge Morgan of Bismarck, N. D.

TOWNE FOR SECOND.

Favored by New York for Vice Presidential Candidate.

Washington, March 31.—Matters are framing up in Democratic political circles for Charles A. Towne of New York, for second place on the national ticket to be named at Denver next July.

According to Minnesota men who have been in New York, Towne will have the delegation from the Empire state to use at Denver. He stands in with all the factions of the party except the Hearst element, and that is not considered as a Democratic organization. One of the strong friends of Governor Johnson, who returned from New York yesterday, says that in his opinion the state delegation will be for Johnson and Towne.

N. Y. GRAND JURY CALLS ATTENTION

New York, March 31.—The March grand jury filed yesterday with Judge Foster, in the court of general sessions the following papers:

"Testimony has been given before the grand jury affecting the integrity of the attorney general of the state and an offer has been extended to the attorney general to appear before the grand jury and give his testimony in respect thereto.

"The attorney general has appeared and testified before the grand jury and there appears a conflict of the testimony in respect to the matters brought before us. The office of attorney general is one of such transcendent importance in the administration of the business of the state and the confidence of the people of the state in the integrity of the attorney general is so essential to the public welfare that we deem it our duty to respectfully call the attention of your honor to it and request the clerk of the court to transmit this presentment and a copy of the testimony of the proceeding to the governor of the state of New York, the president of the senate of the state of New York and the speaker of the assembly of the state of New York for action."

After receiving the document, Judge Foster said that he had received a communication from Attorney General Jackson that in the event of any paper being filed with him, he wanted an opportunity to ask "that it be exposed on the record before being made public, as entirely illegal and scandalous."

After instructing the secretary to read the paper, Judge Foster said he would place it on file and determine later what course he would take with regard to it. Attorney General Jackson appeared before the grand jury three times.

CITY OF WINNIPEG

Will Buy the Mackenzie-Mann Properties Within Its Limits.

Winnipeg, Man., March 31.—The city of Winnipeg has decided to buy the Mackenzie-Mann properties, within the limits of the corporation. These consist of thirty miles of electric street railway, an electric light plant and an electric power plant at Lac Du Monnet, forty-five miles from the city, which supplies power to factories, business buildings and other large institutions of the city. The offer came from the Mackenzie-Mann company, and the sale, based on quotation of stock in Toronto, will involve twelve to fourteen million dollars. The city is developing a magnificent power plant on the Winnipeg river, at a cost of $5,000,000, and this may have hastened the negotiations. The city council, last evening, appointed a committee to complete the negotiations. The franchise of the street railway company has nineteen years to run.

SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

TWO RIVAL FACTIONS IN THE DULUTH SKI CLUB

Annual Meeting Proves to be a Very Stormy Affair.

Club Members Own Improvements, But Have No Lease.

Two Duluth ski clubs, two rival sets of directors, and two irate factions are now contesting for the control of the club"s policies, as a result of the very stormy session held last evening in the Builders' exhange.

The conditions in brief are as follows: There are two factions in the club. One faction, it is claimed, is trying to have the grounds run on a free and easy system, allowing beer to be taken to the club rooms. The other faction claims that this would ruin the sport for all time, and would make a disorderly resort of the hill, so that members and citizens would not feel that women and children could go there without danger. The former faction also claims that it is being "frozen out."

The grounds are owned by a company known as the Ski Hill company. This company is formed of a few such men as G. G. Hartley, J. B. Cotton, John Jenswold, Jr., and others, who want to see the sport flourish for sport's sake alone. The improvements to the grounds, consisting of the bleachers club house and other buildings, are, of course, the property of the old Duluth Ski club. The ski club, however, has no lease to the land, and the members are therefore trespassers on it. The eighteen directors of the ski club, just before the national tournament, incorporated as the Duluth Ski club. A majority of these directors were of the so-called "temperance faction." They went ahead and transacted the business of the club, and there has been no criticism of the management of the affairs. It was felt, however, that at the annual meeting of the "anti-lid" faction might prove to be in the majority and the men who had financed the hill, and built up the sport were determined that it should not be allowed to degenerate. The directors, therefore, incorporated, and they can perpetuate themselves in office. They, of course, do not own the improvements, and have no claim to the $100 remaining in the treasury aside from their individual shares in it, but the ski hill company is formed practically of the same men, and the ski hill company will give a lease on the grounds to nobody but the present board of directors. These directors can make no profit from the hill under their articles of incorporation.

The meeting last evening was naturally quite a stormy one, as few understood the situation, and probably many of them do not understand it yet. The directors held a meeting of the corporation and re-elected themselves, barring the members of the ski club from voting. The latter were highly indignant and protested in no mild manner but to no avail. After the election the protesting members remained and held a meeting of their own, electing their own set of officers.

There are, therefore two sets of officers. The Duluth Ski club can continue to exist as long as it chooses, but it has no jump, and its only recourse is to carry away the lumber from the present hill piece by piece. The corporation can get a lease to the grounds, but it has no improvements on them and if the protesting members desire to do so they can take the present improvements away. The matter may be carried into the courts and settled there.

The directors elected by the corporation were: C. E. Evans, H. B. Knudsen, H. Wannebo, P. C. Wright, H. Hovde, J. B. Cotton, G. G. Hartley, John Wold and H. H. Borgen.

The officers elected at the second meeting were: President, George M. Jensen; first vice president, C. J. McBride; second vice president, H. M. Carr; recording secretary, E. J. Wenzel; financial secretary P. C. Wright; treasurer, John Wold. Directors: G. G. Hartley, E. J. Wenzel, E. F. Chalk, John Wold, P. C. Wright, C. J. McBride, L. Jensen, C. O. Christianson, J. Solvik and H. M. Carr.

That Eddie McGoorty-Tom McCune bout, which will be pulled off on the range next month will be just a little better than anything in the fistic line Northern Minnesota fans have had dished up to them since Mike Schreck, fat and flabby, attempted to dispose of Ben Tremble at Hibbing about a year ago.

Eddie McGoorty is the pride of Oshkosh. The people of the Wisconsin burg expect the young fighter to spread the name of the town even more than the "Oshkosh by Gosh" stuff, the standby of the slapstick workers. Eddie has been doing fancy boxing for a couple of years now and, though he's met nobody of note, Oshkosh people think he's just about one class higher than anything wearing a glove. He's a son of old Jack McGoorty, known as a wielder of the pillows in his day, and that's a recommendation.

Tom McCune has friends in Duluth, though. When he trained Ben Tremble here, the fight fans got well acquainted with his style and they like it. He put Otto Sieloff well away in two rounds here last spring and neither one of them was in the best of condition. When Tom met McGoorty a few weeks ago, he was in no shape to go in the ring and McGoorty was at his best.

The bout is a good proposition to figure on. McGoorty is a fancy boxer, without a knock-out to his credit. McCune has a wallop with dreams in stock, providing he gets it over. If McGoorty can stand McCune off for fifteen rounds, he may get the decision on points, but the odds favor Tom slipping the sleep-pill in.

In young Nelson, who is to throw them over for Brandon this year, followers of semi-professional ball believe Artie O'Dea has picked up a prize package with bells ringing all the way. The boy worked for Leeds, S. D., last year and the word goes out that the jays dislocated their jaws gasping at his speed. He comes from the St. Paul stump patches and the Saintly city has given some pretty good men to professional ball. Artie swells up and says nothing. He knows a ball player and he's banking on the Nelson boy. Phenoms have been known to blow up in dust, but the Nelson youth is slated for all the medals and some of the coin.

Nick Constantine of Eveleth believes in the lilting song of the coin. When "Scraps" Costello began to say things about Nicholas' fighting ability, the Eveleth youth hied himself to the Miners' National bank of Eveleth, deposited $25 therein and wrote a scorching letter to the sporting editor of The Herald. Bat Nelson—yes, Tommy Burns, himself—couldn't do better.

"Scraps Costello can have all of my game he's looking for," writes the Eveleth pugnacist. "I will be more than pleased to meet him before the club offering the biggest purse, split the money, 75 and 25, or any way Costello may see fit."

There's only one thing wrong with Constantine's acceptance. The fighter of championship caliber insists upon sticking on the weight question on any and all occasions. Not so the Eveleth youth. He fought Kid Davis at 121 pounds ringside and he'll fight Costello at 124 ringside or 122 at 8 o'clock. There's something for Scraps to think about.

Mauritz Harris and Charles Sutter may now prepare to wrestle. The money's up and all's fixed, but there's bound to be a hitch yet. Those two have done more talking and taken up more newspaper space on their dinky wrestling match than any other local sporting event in months. Each thinks he can whale the everlasting incandescents out of the other and yet they quarrel and quibble over a little thing like money. There's a championship title at stake, too. Perhaps Mr. Harris and Mr. Sutter will consent to retire into a far recess and nave it out on a billiard table. Or they might meet each other on the street and mix it on the pavement. At least, let them do something. The continual talk gets on the nerves of even a sporting editor, who are supposed to be hardened to the nonsensical chinning of all sorts of people.

• • •

Jimmy Potts, who discovered in the East that he was without honor outside of his own dear Minneapolis, has written to a Fargo paper a broad challenge to the fighters of the Northwest. Curley Ulrich, Jack Bennett, Hitt and others are named. If Jimmy hooks up with the pride of Superior, he must indeed make it a point to send Ben Tremble into Curley's corner. The "Oil of Mustard Kid" needs the corpulent Benjamin's ministrations that he may make proper explanations after it's all over and the stars have sunk on the horizon.

CUP RESTS ON PROTEST

Deighton Leads in Basketball League, But May be Displaced.

Decision of Committee on Forfeited Game is Vital.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Deighton's	9	6	.600
Horak's	8	6	.571
Noon class	7	7	.500
Night class	4	9	.308

With only one more decisive game to be played and a protest against the team to be decided by the basketball committee, Deighton's 5:15 class team in the Y. M. C. A. Basketball league is now in the lead, having displaced Horak's five of the same class by a beautiful spurt extending over several weeks.

The protest has been filed by Horak and is the result of a forfeited game last Friday night, when Deighton and Horak were to have met. Some of Horak's men were not able to appear and he notified Deighton of the fact, but Deighton's five appeared on the floor and, under the spalding league rules, which were adopted by the league, the game was forfeited, throwing the two teams into a tie. Horak promptly filed a protest and it will be heard by the basketball committee.

Deighton took the lead by defeating the noon class last night by a score of 14 to 10, throwing the noon class entirely out of the race. The game was a whirlwind affair, both teams playing desperately, but Deighton's men were flushed with the possibilities of leadership and won out neatly.

Tonight, the decisive game will be played between Horak's five and the noon class. Should Horak win, he will be tied with Deighton and the decision of the committee on the protest will award the cup. Should the noon class be victorious, Horak will be out of it and Deighton will carry off the prize.

The league season will end Friday night, when the noon and night class teams will meet. Both are out of the running and the night class is in a hopeless last place.

Interest in tonight's game is great in Y. M. C. A. circles, and it will probably be witnessed by one of the largest crowds of the season. The last few weeks of the league season have been full of interest and the rivalry between all teams is keen, resulting in a big boom for basketball.

Kelleys Win Again.

The Kelley Hardware company roller polo team, a recently organized aggregation, went to Superior last night and defeated the Pease team by a score of 3 to 1 in a good game. The Duluth boys scored the only goal of the first half, Winters netting it. In the second half, Winters and Cummings scored, while the Pease managed to register once. Tomorrow night, the Kelleys will play the Treadwell team of Superior at the Temple rink in Duluth.

Baseball Scores.

Lincoln, Neb., March 31.—The second division of the Chicago American league team yesterday defeated Lincoln by a score of 4 to 1. Score:

Breaks World Record.

Montreal, March 31.—A world's record was broken at the Montreal Amateur Athletic association's indoor races last night, when Alex L. Lukeman of the M. A. A. A. won the 60-yard dash in 6 1-5 seconds. The previous record was 6 2-5 seconds.

BIG DULUTHS IN HARD LUCK

Columbias Win Two Games Against Rivals With Two Dummies.

The Big Duluths played in hard luck last night in the City Bowling league match, only three men showing up for the game. Two dummies were used in the first two games, the Columbias taking both of them by big margins. For the last game, Zimmerman appeared, and the Big Duluths won easily, althouga they still had one dummy score.

Fred Stiegler of the Big Duluths rolled the high score of 225 from scratch and also secured the high average of 206.

Hoppe Has Lead.

Philadelphia, March 31.—Willie Hoppe got a lead of more than 300 over Jacob Schaefer in two games of 400 points each, played here yesterday in a 2,400-point match of 18.2 balk-line billiards. In the afternoon game Hoppe made 400 points to Schaefer's 240, and last night he ran out his string of 400 when the champion had 250. Hoppe's high run was 73 and Schaefer's 47. The latter is in poor condition.

Scanlon Has Team.

Cloquet, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Scanlon baseball team has been organized for the coming season with C. H. Proes as manager. Last year Scanlon put out a very strong aggregation, which won from almost every team of its class in this vicinity. Great things are expected from the team this summer.

TROUT SEASON WILL SOON OPEN

Believed Conditions Will be Unusually Good for Sport.

Duluth anglers are getting ready for the opening of the trout season, which occurs on Wednesday, April 15, two weeks from tomorrow. It is expected conditions will be right for brook trout fishing earlier than usual this year, owing to the fact that there is not so much snow in the woods now as is usually the case at this time of the year.

It is seldom that any success can be met with in the north shore trout streams until along toward the end of the month, because of the height of water in the streams, caused by melting snow, so ordinarily the first few days of the fishing season do not count for much with the Duluth angler. This spring, unless there is more snow or an unusual amount of rain, enthusiasts should be able to get out with rod and line the opening day, with good chances of getting a string of trout.

The open season for black, gray or Oswego bass does not begin until May 29. Pike, muskellunge, croppies perch, sunfish, catfish, sturgeon, etc., may be caught from May 1 to Feb. 1, and pickerel may be taken the year round.

REPLY TO DAY BY BENNETT

Drags Harvey Grimmer and George Loftus Into the Dispute.

St. Paul, March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—James R. Bennett, Jr., of St. Cloud, one of the Bryan leaders in the Sixth district, is after Frank A. Day.

The governor's private secretary late yesterday afternoon received a decidedly warm letter from the Sixth district man, and hostilities may be commenced at any time.

A week ago Mr. Bennett was quoted as saying that he had been told that a Johnson officeholder, in speaking of the Johnson presidential boom, had said that Governor Johnson did not have any chance and that the main purpose was the defeat of Mr. Bryan for the nomination. He was quoted as saying that the statement was authoritative and that he had the name of the officeholder who made it.

In an interview, Secretary Day characterized the whole thing as a lie and dared Mr. Bennett to mention the name of the officeholder credited with making the statement. Mr. Bennett has made a reply, and here is his answer:

"I am reluctant to involve the parties to the conversation referred to, so far as to involve their names in defense of the personal attack on me, but I am also opposed to permitting you to allow the contest in this state for Mr. Bryan and his principles to sink into personalities.

"It is solely a battle for principle and should be conducted on a high plane, and in a dignified manner and free from deception. I am authorized to write you that the conversation I referred to occurred in St. Paul precisely as I stated.

"Harvey W. Grimmer, Republican executive clerk to the governor, who has twice voted against Mr. Bryan, is the appointee and George Loftus is the prominent Republican to whom Mr. Grimmer made the statement.

"I hope in the future in your desire to avoid a discussion of the principles involved in the campaign, you will be less reckless in branding fellow Democrats as liars."

INCIDENT ENDED.

Will be No Opposition in Berlin to Dr. Hill.

Washington, March 31.—With a view to bringing to a close the gossip connected with the reported disapproval in Berlin of the appointment of Dr. David Jayne Hill as ambassador, and terminating the incident, Baron Von Sternburg, the German ambassador, called at the White House, last night, by appointment, to see President Roosevelt and Secretary Root. Assistant Secretary Bacon was also present. At the conclusion of the conference, the following statement was given out:

"In addition to the communication already made public from the German foreign office, the German ambassador has also conveyed to the American government the assurance of the emperor that there has never been any change in his attitude toward Mr. Hill and his willingness to welcome Mr. Hill to Berlin. The emperor's favorable opinion of Mr. Hill was communicated to the Washington administration, last November, and his attitude has never changed since. Apparently some remarks, in a casual conversation, have been distorted by gossip and exaggerated by rumor, so as to give a totally erroneous impression of the whole matter. The two governments have never shared this misunderstanding.

YOU WILL REALIZE THAT "THEY LIVE WELL WHO LIVE CLEANLY," IF YOU USE SAPOLIO

Your Way

Your beans are baked in a home oven.

That is far from sufficient to break down the fibre of beans. To separate the atoms so the digestive juices can get to them.

The result is a heavy food, hard to digest.

You bake in dry heat. The result is, the top beans are crisped. The others are not even half baked.

You burst the skins, so the beans are not nutty. They are mushy, not mealy. Every bean should be whole.

Then you add the tomato sauce afterwards.

You spend hours in the process, but the dish that results is neither good nor good for you.

Yet it isn't your fault. You simply lack the facilities.

Our Way

Our ovens are heated to 245 degrees, and we bake the beans 90 minutes. The result is, our beans are digestible.

We bake in live steam, so all beans are baked alike. None are browned, none are broken. The beans are baked until they are mealy; yet they are nutty, because they are whole.

Then we bake the beans, the tomato sauce and the pork all together. Thus we get our delicious blend.

Our beans come to you ready to serve. No work and no waiting. Simply heat the can in hot water—then open. The beans are as fresh and as savory as when they came out of our ovens.

That is why we say, let us cook for you.

All people like Van Camp's better than home-baked beans. They are far better for you. And Van Camp's are always ready.

Van Camp's BAKED WITH TOMATO SAUCE PORK AND BEANS

Beans are Nature's choicest food. They are 23 per cent nitrogenous—84 per cent nutriment. Even more nutritious than wheat.

Beans and meat have about the same food value, about the same heartiness. One easily takes the place of the other. But note what a difference there is in the cost.

Think what you would save on your meat bills if you served beans once a day. And think of the saving in labor.

Your people will want Van Camp's every day when they know them. Try a few cans and see.

10, 15 and 20¢ per can.

CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST PINCHOT.

Washington March 31.—Charges of a serious nature against Gifford Pinchott, chief of the forestry department, were made in the house yesterday by Messrs. Smith, Alabama, and Mondell, Wyoming, during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill. Mr. Smith accused him of entering into a secret understanding with the city of Los Angeles with the view to securing to the city valuable rights in the Owens River valley, as against the interests of private parties having prior claims. Mr. Mondell denounced him for illegally paying the expenses of forest officials in attending conentions in the West in which the government had no part and also of spending government money to boost his bureau in the newspapers. Mr. Pinchott was defended by Mr. Pollard of Nebraska, and Mr. Scott of Kansas.

REMEMBERED AFTER YEARS.

Warroad, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Capt. Frank Truax of the government steam dredge, here, has been notified that he has been left $1,500 from the estate of a Mrs. Stratt, whom he saved from death years ago. The woman was about to be run down by a runaway team, when Capt. Truax rushed into the street and saved her from injury. He had forgotten the incident, and never supposed the woman even knew his name, until he received word of the bequest.

JOHNSON AS FIT MAN FOR HIGHEST OFFICE

Wellman Sees Personality Able to Deal With Great Problems.

Finds Him More Like Taft Than Roosevelt or Bryan.

Chicago, March 31.—In a St. Paul Special to the Record-Herald, Walter Wellman says: Is John Albert Johnson, governor of Minnesota, a fit man to be promoted to the presidency of the United States? Now that Johnson has come out as a rival of Bryan for the Democratic nomination, now that the impression is gaining ground that he may possibly win, now that another impression gathers headway to the effect that if nominated he might possibly be elected, the question which I have asked comes naturally and inevitably to the minds of many men. Every man upon whom the shadow of presidential possibility falls immediately becomes of interest to all of his fellow citizens. They want to know something about him, what he has done and is capable of doing, what manner of president he would be likely to make. Would he be a failure or a success in that most difficult of all posts, "the hardest jobs in the world," as Mr. Roosevelt calls it?

If I were called upon to answer the query whether or not Johnson is fit to be president, I should unhesitatingly answer it in the affirmative. He is. But this answer, I must confess in advance, is only an impressionist reply, not a deeply analytical one. I have not known him as I have known other public men, presidents and would-be presidents; have had but little opportunity to study him; have talked with him some hours, rapidly noted a few of his characteristics, know a little of the processes of his mind and his working habits. That is all. It gives one an impression, no more; but the impression is a mighty good one.

There is no reason to believe that Governor Johnson is a great man. He is nothing wonderful or phenomenal. He doesn't himself think he is great, which is a good sign to start with. He is not a great philosopher. The analytical mind he does not lack, but it is not in his nature to sit down and try to reason out the abstract why and wherefore and whenceness of everything in the universe. He is less of the moralist and preacher and pedagogue than Roosevelt or Bryan. He has not yet fallen into the habit which I have found so strong among successful and really able public men of our day—that of unconsciously thinking they have nothing to learn and everything to impart. He is more like Taft than he is like the present leaders of the two great parties. Taft and he resemble one another in their fondness for listening, getting the other fellow's store of information and ideas. A talk with them is a real talk. There are two of you. Both, again, are like McKinley; and he was famous for his penchant for drawing out of other men all there was in them before venturing to make up his own mind or to express it. That was not modesty alone in McKinley's case. There were many times when he needed this blazing of the trail if he had had to make it. For his intellectual processes were slow and correct and imitative rather than creative. Taft and Johnson, and of course Roosevelt and Bryan, all excel McKinley in originality and boldness, while in the absorbent quality McKinley was head and shoulders above them all.

* * *

Governor Johnson does not like to think as much of the abstract as Bryan does, adorning the expressions of his conclusions with metaphore, adage and fine phrase. His mind is not dashing, and incisive, and full of twang and positivism and clever epigram or nickname or characterization hit hot off the anvil of his earnestness, like Roosevelt. He is not as judicial, as ripe in experience, as accustomed to getting straight to the kernel of a thing and stating the true inwardness with wonderful precision and fairness, as Taft is. But he is more like Taft, who is pretty sure to be his rival before the people in case the democracy does the unexpected and drops Bryan than he is like either of the others.

Johnson is not strong in giving reasons for the existence of all the things that are, but he has a keen insight into a pretty thorough and practical understanding of the things themselves. If we were to say his is a practical mind, capable of producing great practicable work, propably we should hit it very accurately. There are times when his quiet insistence upon sticking to the point, to the thing in hand, to the common sense and result-getting point of view, rather than to the preaching or moralizing view, reminded me strongly of Grover Cleveland when he was in the White House. Johnson has Cleveland's absolute lack of affectation. He couldn't pose if it were to make him president or save his life. In which respect he is different from many other eminent men I know. It is impossible for a man to be more natural than he is. When I called upon him he was in a state of more or less indecision as to what he should do about entering the presidential race. Most men new to public life are a little awed and overcome and strained when they fall within the great shadow, when any considerable number of persons honor them with suggestion of the highest office in the land. They are afraid to talk of it, as if it were one of the practical affairs of life. They want to whisper, to pose, to act mysteriously, to live all the way up to the part that very minute in dignity, reticence, grandeur of mien. It was not so at all will Johnson. Plenty of dignity, yes; but not too much. We talked the whole subject over with as much frankness and ease as if we had been discussing automobiles, or the panic, or baseball, or what we should order for dinner.

* * *

Considering that I was a stranger, it was a somewhat remarkable exhibition of perfect poise, confidence in himself, confidence in another, manly frankness, the very essence of common sense without frills. Governor Johnson had nothing to conceal, nothing to speak distantly about, nothing to leave to guesswork. He came right out and said what he thought every time without any circumlocution or indirectness. He spoke of his boyhood, of his struggles, of his efforts in public life, of the complexities surrounding his present position. The conversation by chance touched such delicate topics as his relations or lack of relations with Mr. Bryan, his private finances and the story that has been so much whispered that instead of being a "true friend of the people" the Minnesota governor has fallen under the spell of the system as represented by one patriachal and useful citizen of this republic, James J. Hill. It was delightful to hear the governor speak of all these things without heat, without indirection, without any false modesty, without any virtuous pretense that he had been insulted and that it was time for him to get on his horse and ride high and hot to show what a good man he was.

The whole thing gave the impression of a man who has himself always well in hand, who is afraid of nothing in himself or about himself or his past or his life, who has an unconscious love for truth and simplicity and straightforwardness, and who is a good and clever politician just because he is these things, and for no other reason. His modesty through it all without his knowing it was modesty, constituted not the smallest charm of it. He was a little surprised that anyone should talk of him for president, and yet evinced not the slightest fear he could not give a good account of himself were he to be chosen to that office. Particularly good was his, "If there are 8,000 people in the United States who think I ought to be president, am worthy to be, that is one of the greatest honors that could be paid to a man like myself, the son of two poor Swedish immigrants. I so esteem it."

* * *

Everything he says, and everything he has done as governor, the latter being most important, speaks of his character as a public servant, and his public character is that of a doer and reformer, without much outcry and with a great deal of care to act fairly and justly by all interests involved. When he starts in to get more taxes out of corporations, and to so enact that the people shall not pay quite so much to corporations in freights, fares and charges; to so order it that insurance and other companies shall stop some of their bad practices, he doesn't get excited about it. It is simply a piece of work to be done. There are two sides to the case, and both sides must be heard and have a fair show. It is easy to understand what his point of view is.

When he thinks of these things, of the duty of the government toward the governed, it is always just as if he were still that poor boy, a part of the struggling people. He is always looking up to see what those high in power or wealth or authority are doing to make the struggle harder for those down where he is and where he came from. His is really and truly and naturally and instinctively the viewpoint of the masses. With Roosevelt, a born aristocrat, that is a viewpoint acquired through sympathetic observation. With Bryan, it is fairly natural, too, but rather more as the clever, eloquent, rhetorical lawyer sees it, and works it and does his best to win a big suit for his client. Taft really hasn't it at all, as the others have, his understanding of the point of view down there in the dirt coming from his broad understanding of life, through his intellect rather than through his feelings. This sort of feeling comes from the cradle, from the place you worked and played and wondered and thought or tried to think as a boy. It can't come in any other way.

* * *

Johnson has the real feeling, tempered by so much good sense, by so much fairness, by so much practicality and patience and intuitive desire to be just, that it might be said with broad truth he has tempered himself down to about the place Taft has warmed himself up to. And what would Johnson do if fate were to put him in the White House? Just about what Roosevelt has been doing and trying to do, with a little less assertibility, a little less noise, a little less of the big word, but quite as much of the big stick. And if that isn't just about what Taft would do, then I have watched the men of the day to little purpose. We might say of Roosevelt, Bryan, Taft, Johnson, all are progressive. Each would go in the same direction. Roosevelt is the pioneer. He has blazed the trail. He has the honor of discovery. The path is named after him, and will so go down in history. Bryan is so original and fertile, he might, if in the White House, make Roosevelt look like an old-foxy conservative. Johnson wouldn't. He would get a lot of much-needed things done, rather quietly, in a practical, talk-it-over way. Between him and Taft there isn't so much difference that anyone need get much excited about it, though, of course, Taft is the more cultured, more experienced, better trained.

* * *

Johnson, it seems to me, would make the Democrats a pretty good candidate, and if he should be elected, would make a good president. He has the viewpoint which the country demands of its presidents, and he is a worker, a student, an investigator, a thinker, a digger, a delver. What he doesn't know, and it is much, and he knows enough to know it is much, he tries to learn. He goes at it in the right way. He has the consultative faculty. If such we may call it. He likes men and likes to work with them and get out of them the best they can give. How well he does this is shown by the large number of laws he has induced the overwhelmingly Republican legislature of Minnesota to enact, in the friendly, co-operative way he gets along with all the Republican state officials. Taft has this same quality markedly. Roosevelt to a considerable degree. Bryan and Hughes very little. Bryan has something of the fanatical preacher's belief that whatever he believes is necessarily right, and that there is little need of asking the advice of other men. Hughes is rather narrow, self-reliant because he doesn't like to work with other men or be under obligations to them. It takes a big man, with a lot of big men helping him, to make a good president.

UNDERGROUND MAP OF THE CITY

Wires and Pipes Have Been Placed on Record.

Good progress has been made during the past winter on the underground survey of the city, which was begun last year, though very little was done until the beginning of the winter just closing. Field men have been at work for two or three months getting data on the underground system of the city and the platting of sewer, water and gas pipes and electric conduits will be done at odd times during the summer.

The work during the past winter was started in the Central district and now the necessary data for platting has been secured fully three-fourths of the entire territory between Twelfth avenue east and Twelfth avenue west, where the underground work is the most intricate.

The platting of the underground system of the city is a gigantic task, on account of the presence of so many pipes and connections, laid years ago, and of which no record was kept. These are all being located and will be shown in the plat. It is believed that another year will see the completion of the work and by this time next spring, the plat will be in such shape that only additions to the city's underground system will be put on. The object of securing the plat is to give contractors and citizens information on just what obstacles they must overcome in installing pipes and conduits and it will be an invaluable work, when completed.

The plat will be kept in the engineer's office, where every addition will be put on just as soon as it is completed. The work is long and tedious, but the results will overcome much confusion, which comes about at present through lack of knowledge of just what is underground.

I Cured My Rupture

I Will Show You How To Cure Yours FREE!

I was practically helpless and bed-ridden for many years from a double rupture. I wore innumerable different kinds of trusses and appliances. Some of them were tortures, some positively dangerous, and none would hold the rupture in its proper place. The doctors told me I could not expect to have it entirely healed unless I would consent to a surgical operation. I fooled them all, however, and cured myself completely and permanently by a simple method which I discovered. Anyone can use it, and I will gladly send the cure free by mail to anyone who writes for it. Fill out the coupon below and mail it to me today. I will send the cure by return mail, postpaid.

Lighthouse on Duluth Canal May be in Commission Wednesday.

Much Depends on Movement of Ice Field and Weather.

The lighthouse at the outer end of the Duluth ship canal will probable be the first institution of the kind on Lake Superior to open for business this season.

Capt. Alexander Shaw who will have charge of the lighthouse this season, stated yesterday that h would probably begin his duties April 1, at which time it is expected that the Booth company will send out its first boat of the season on the north shore route.

Capt. Shaw admits that much depends on the movement of the ice field between now and Wednesday whether the lighthouse is put into regular commission, but in anticipation that the conditions will be such as to permit the boat to get out of the harbor he has notified his assistants to be on hand April 1 for work.

Capt. Shaw's assistants will be Thomas White, who has served in that capacity for some time past, and Emil Jemine of Apena, Mich. Jemine is a new man to the Duluth job, but he has had experience on the lower lakes.

The sun and warm winds off the shore have been reducing the ice pretty fast, particularly yesterday, when the signs of the ice breaking away from the shore were unmistakable. Sunday an iceboat or two ventured out on the lake ice, but yesterday the ice was covered with sheets of water in spots, while the open water seemed but a little way out. The average thickness of the lake yesterday is said to have been about twenty-two inches, but toward the outer field the ice is supposed to much thinner. The "ancient mariners" about the harbor claim that the ice is fast being "honeycombed' and that it is "rotten."

SINGLE TAXERS FAVOR JOHNSON

Philadelphia, Pa. March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Pennsylvania State Single Tax league has unanimously adopted the following resolutions indorsing Governor Johnson of Minnesota for the Democratic nomination for president:

"Whereas we single taxers and qualified electors of the state of Penssylvania believe that the stupendous fortunes that threaten the life of democratic institutions are derived only from the monopoly of valuable land and that this monopoly can most easily be destroyed by taxation of land values; and further believe that the rate of wages tends in spite of the enormous saving of labor-saving discoveries and inventions to a bare living only because of the ever-increasing amount taken from production as rent of land used therein and that wages can be increased and rent lowered only by taxation that will force all unused land into the market; and further believe that recurring financial and industrial depressions follow and are caused by speculation in land values and that such depressions can be prevented only by the prevention of speculation in land values by the levying of a tax upon the value of land; and

Whereas, the Hon. John A. Johnson, now governor of the state of Minnesota, has declared that it may be that some of the principles of the single tax on land values could be adopted to work out a satisfactory system of taxation; and

"Whereas, the Hon. William H. Berry, late treasurer of the state of Pennsylvania, has frequently stated that the land question is a fundamental question, and that the single tax is an equitable and practicable solution of the question; and

"Therefore, we, the Pennsylvania State Single Tax league, declare the said Hon. John A. Johnson of Minnesota, and the Hon. William H. Berry, of Pennsylvania, are our choice as Democratic nominees for the presidency and vice-presidency of the United States, and we recommend the said Hon. John A. Johnson and Hon. William H. Berry, if nominated, to the suffrages of the quarter million (as estimated by the secretary of the American Single Tax league) single taxers of the United States."

HOUSE OF COMMONS

Passes Resolution in Favor of Home Rule for Ireland.

London, March 31.—The house of commons, last night, after a lengthy debate on the question of home rule for Ireland, adopted by a vote of 313 to 17, a resolution moved by John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, that "in the opinon of this house, a solution of this problem can only be attained by giving the Irish legislative and executive control of all purely Irish affairs," after the resolution had been amended by adding the words "all subject to the supreme authority of the imperial parliament."

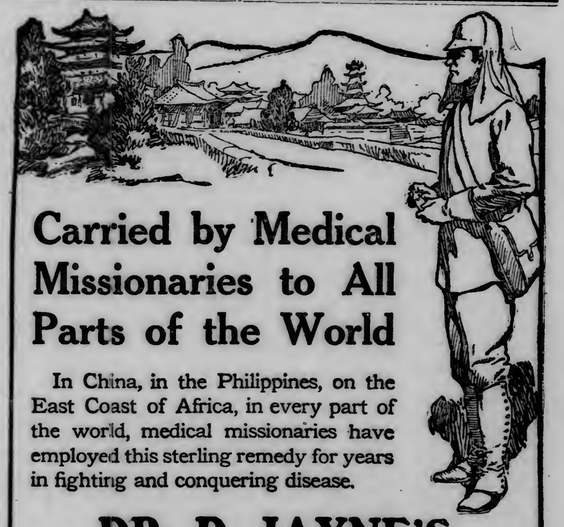

It was known beforehand that the debate could have but an academic interest, because the government had already pledged that there would be no deal in the matter of home rule until it had been given to the general election.

WHEAT HAS A DECLINE

American Markets Have a Soft Tone During the Session.

Flax Takes a Slump in the Duluth Wheat Market.

Duluth Board of Trade, March 31.—Wheat was weak during all of the session in the American markets today. Private cables at the opening were weak and coupled with more news of rains in the Southwest, caused a general selling movement, which sent prices down steadily. There was a slight recovery at the close, due to covering by shorts. It was not effective enough, however, to bring the closing prices up to yesterday's low level and the entire list closed soft.

Bradstreet's reported a decrease of 1,821,000 bus in the world's visible supply of wheat. In the United States and Canada there was a decrease of 1,721,000 bus, and in Europe and afloat a decrease of 200,000 bus.

Liverpool closed ¼d lower, Berlin ⅝c higher and Budapest 2¼c lower.

The May option closed 1½c lower in Duluth, 1⅝c lower in Chicago, ⅞@1c lower in Minneapolis, ¾c lower in New York and ¾c lower in Winnipeg. The July option closed 1⅝c lower in Duluth, 1½@1⅝c lower in Chicago, ⅝c lower in Minneapolis, 1¢ lower in New York and ¼c lower in Winnipeg.

May corn closed ½c lower in Chicago and ½d higher in Liverpool. May oats closed ⅜c lower in Chicago.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool:

"As a result of the late steadiness in America yesterday, the market here opened quiet and unchanged with trading dull. Later, however, pressure developed and prices easily sold off ¾d with offerings larger and support lacking. Weakness resulted from the pressure to sell La Plata cargoes at a decline and the reported failures at both New Castle and Leith. At midday, the market was easy and ¾@¾d lower than Monday.

"Corn was steady and half higher in sympathy with the firmness in America yesterday. During the morning, the trading was extremely dull, the market being neglected."

Car receipts at Duluth were 160 against 206 last year, and at Minneapolis 110 against 334 last year, making a total for the Northwest of 270 against 539 last year. Chicago received 50.

Primary receipts of wheat were 378,000 bus, last year, holiday. Shipments 311,000 bus. Clearances of wheat and flour aggregated 186,000 bus.

Primary receipts of corn were 772,000 bus. Shipments 647,000 bus.

Wheat was rather quiet during the session in the Duluth market. May wheat opened unchanged at $1.01¾, advanced to $1.03⅜, declined to 99¾c and closed at $1, a loss of 1½c from yesterday. July wheat opened late at $1.02⅜, declined to $1.00⅝ and closed at $1.01, a loss of 1⅜c from yesterday.

During wheat closed 1c lower and cash spring wheat was selling on a basis of 2c over May for No. 1 northern.

Flax was easier during a quiet session here. May flax opened 1¢c lower at $1.15¾, declined to $1.14¾ and closed at that price, a loss of 1¢ from yesterday. July flax opened ½c lower at $1.11½, advanced to $1.13⅝, declined to $1.17 and closed at that price, a loss of 1c from yesterday.

Following were the closing prices:

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Only a Moderate Trade in Wheat, With Prices Steady.

Chicago, March 31.—There was only a moderate trade in wheat early today and the market was steady. Additional rains were reported in the Southwest, but this influence was offset by small receipts in the Northwest. Commission houses were the principal buyers. May opened unchanged to ⅛c lower at 93⅝c to 93¾c, sold at 93¾c but receded later to 93¼c. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 240 cars, against 315 last week and 528 cars this year ago.

The market became very weak in the last half of the session, but the volume of trading continued small. The low point for May was 92c. The close was weak, with May off 2¼c at 92¾c.

Corn was dull and easy. Local receipts were more liberal than have been of late and overran yesterday's estimate. May opened unchanged to ⅛c lower, at 65½c to 65⅝c and sold off to 65¼c. Local receipts were 325 cars with 94 of contract grade.

The corn market weakened along with the slump in wheat prices, May selling off to 65⅛c. The close was weak with May ½c lower at 65¼c.

Oats were dull and the market was easy. May opened unchanged at 53⅝c and sold off to 53½c. Local receipts were 361 cars.

A 15c to 25c advance on live hogs gave strength to provisions and the market was active. May pork opened at 21½@25c to 5@7½c higher at $13.80 to $13.82½ and advanced to $14.05. Lard was 2½c to 5c higher, at $8.02½ to $8.05. Ribs were 5c to 10c higher at $6.43½ to $6.47½.

Close: Wheat—May, 92¼c; July, 87⅝@88c; September, 85⅝@85¾c. Corn—May, 66¼c; July, 64c; September, 63½c. Oats—May old, 53½c; May, 51¾@51⅝c; July old, 46½@46¾c; July, 44⅞c; September, 38 @ 38¾c. Pork—May, $13.67½; July, $14.05; September, $14.40. Lard—May, $8.50; July, $8.76@8.77½; September, 8.90. Ribs—May, $7.30@7.32½; July, $7.85. Rye—Cash, 74@75c. Barley—Cash, 70@84c. Timothy—March, $4.65. Clover—March $24. Cash wheat: No. 2 red, 94¼@96¾c; No. 3 red, 92¼@95c; No. 2 hard, 94½@$1.01½; No. 3 hard, 90@91; No. 3 spring, 94¾c@$1.05. Corn—No. 3, 64@63c.

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, March 31.—Closing: Wheat, spot, quiet; No. 2 red Western winter, 7s 1d; futures, barely steady; May, 6s 11d; July, 7s ½d. Corn, spot, steady; prime mixed American, new, 6s 4½d; prime mixed American, old, 6s 7d; futures, steady; May, 6s 6d.

THE MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Wheat Opens Firm and Advances, But Soon Drops Back.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 31.—Wheat opened firm and advanced a cent from yesterday's low point, but failed to hold it, turned weak again and sold down quickly to new low points all around. The fact that receipts here were only 110 cars against 334 and in Duluth only 160 against 205 had early effect, but the rains in winter wheat states and the weakness of other markets soon wore away the local strength. Bullish statistics, such as the decrease of 2,000,000 bushels, in the world's visible supply had no effect. The rains in the Southwest were the important influence. Minneapolis elevator stocks have increased 100,000 bushels for three days. Heavy selling broke May later, but it was checked just above $1.02. May opened at $1.03⅜; high, $1.03⅞; low, $1.02@1.02⅛; close, $1.02⅜@1.02½; July closed at $1.03⅜; September closed at 89⅝c. Cash demand was better for the choice No. 1 northern and the No. 2, but the lower grade stuff was dull and draggy. Millers bought little and elevators took nearly everything from No. 1 down to No. 3. There were 32 cars of winter wheat received. Close: No. 1 northern, $1.03¼; spot to arrive. No. 2 northern, $1.01¾ spot or to arrive; No. 3 wheat, 94¼@96¾c.

Barley was quiet with a fair business at about yesterday's prices. Close, 60c to 77c.

Crushers bought flaxseed more freely, at Duluth May price for No. 1, and there was a better market. Close, $1.14½.

Bran in bulk, $21.25@21.50.

Flour—The smallest figures for months appeared in the daily shipments. Millers say that demand is moderate, and that buyers with orders on the books do not seem anxious to take delivery. There is some foreign inquiry, but sales to go abroad are light. Shipments, 24,548 barrels. First patents, $5.35@5.40; second patents, $5.15@5.30; first clears, $4.15@4.25; second clears, $3.20@3.30.

DECLINES IN STOCKS

Growing Uneasiness Over Erie's Finances Caused Heavy Selling.

New York, March 31.—The active trading stocks opened today at sharp declines, carrying with them the majority of the list, and there was only a sprinkling of gains. Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie fell 1¾, Union Pacific, Amalgamated Copper, American Smelting and Anaconda 1 and Erie, Pacific Mail, People's Gas and Tennessee Copper large fractions. Baltimore & Ohio and American Smelting preferred rose ¾.

A renewal of yesterday's liquidation in the Morgan stocks, especially the Erie group, gave an impetus to the downward movement else and opening losses were extended. The decline was checked temporarily and then resumed. Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha and Anaconda declined 1½. St. Paul, Duluth South Shore & Atlantic preferred and others 1 to 1⅜. Colorado Fuel and Central Leather preferred made an early rise of a point.

The decline was extended but was followed by slight recoveries. Sales of various Erie bonds at wide declines had a depressing effect, the Erie, Pennsylvania Coallaterals receding 3 and the Erie first preferred extended four's 6½. Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha lost 3, New York, Chicago & St. Louis second preferred 2½, Union Pacific 1⅜, Canadian Pacific, Wabash & Texas and Pacific 1½ and the Hill stocks, Missouri Pacific, Chesapeake & Ohio, Southern Railway preferred, Erie second preferred, Denver & Rio Grande preferred and International Pump preferred 1. Prices receded again before noon. American Smelting preferred rose 1¼. Bonds were irregular.

There were no indications of consequence during the noon hour among the well known stocks but the tendency was mainly upward and the general tone firmer. Consolidated Gas, Mackey Companies preferred, International Paper preferred and Utah Copper fell 1 to 1 .

A slight yield to prices was followed by a renewed hardening. Business decreased steadily and there was no interest in the market. National Lead yielded a point.

The market closed active and weak and at the lowest. Stocks were unloaded heavily in all parts of the list owing to growing uneasiness over the condition of the Erie's finances. In the active list losses of a point or more were quite general. American Smelting broke 3⅜; Union Pacific and Southern Railway 3@3⅜, Erie first preferred 3, the second preferred 4⅝, Pressed Steel Car preferred 3¾, Reading 2⅝, Northwestern, 2⅝, St. Paul and International Paper preferred 2¼, Amalgamated Copper 2¾ and the Hill stocks, Missouri Pacific and Anaconda 1½@1¾. There was a momentary check to the decline on the announcement of the regular Anaconda dividend, but the slight rally was not held.

The Cotton Market.

New York, March 31.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 16@4 points in response to steady cables. There was a scattering demand during the early session, but there was no aggressive bull support and the market soon eased off under liquidation and bear pressure, which was promoted by continued favorable weather in the South and reports of increased acreage in the Southwest. Trading was very quiet during the middle of the morning with prices about unchanged to 2 points higher.

The market continued quiet late in the forenoon but ruled steadier on covering and in the absence of important offerings sold about 7@9 points net higher at midday with July leading the advance.

Spot, closed quiet, 10 points higher; middling uplands, 10.50; middling gulf, 10.75; sales, 300 bales. Futures, closed steady. Closing bids: April, 9.35; May, 9.65; June, 9.66; July, 9.67; August, 9.69; October, 9.52; December, 9.33; January, 9.55.

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, March 31.—Cattle — Receipts 3,500; market steady. Beeves, $4.70@7.50; cows and heifers, $2@6.15; Texans, $4.80@5.50; calves, $4.50@6.50; westerners, $4.50@5.40; stockers and feeders, $3.25@5.20. Hogs—Receipts about 14,000; market 10c to 15c higher. Native, (4.75@7; western, $5@7; yearlings, $6.25@7.70; lambs, $6@8.25; western, $6.50@8.25.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., March 31.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: This was a big day on the horse market. Buyers from all over the Northwest were looking over the stalls, and numerous sales were reported. The large receipts of good horses out of the woods attracted dealers and farmers alike. Good farm mares met with urgent inquiry, and the supply was cut down considerably. Over 200 horses arrived during the day for tomorrow's big sale, and the indications are that every head will be sold, as they are all good stuff, worth more than the present going values.

Copper Gossip.

Hayden, Stone & Co., Boston, to Walter W. Carr: Almost all the coppers opened fractionally lower, and the tone of the market has been weak. There has been a decided falling off in the trading, only activity of note being in Boston Consolidated. This stock comes on the market, selling this morning by New York and floor traders, put the price down to 11¾. The selling at times appears to be better than the buying. The statement made yesterday by Mr. Newhouse has failed to prevent the reassuring effect that was generally expected that it might have. On the whole, we consider the market is holding very well, there being but very little pressure to sell. Metal prices are ⅛ lower in bid prices.

AGED WOMAN

Denver, March 31.—Just at the hour yesterday, when she knew that her husband was being lowered into the grave in Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Elizabeth Enz, aged 78 years, shot herself through the head, having grown weary of waiting for death. The suicide occurred at the home of her son, William C. Enz, 1470 Elizabeth street, in this city.

A telegram telling of the death of her husband, Lawrence Enz, last Friday in Chicago, lay on the bed beside the body.

HEARING EVIDENCE.

Soo's Application for Entry Into Superior Before Commission.

The Wisconsin state railroad commission is today hearing arguments on the application of the Soo railroad for approval of its plans to get into the city of Superior and across the city to the interstate bridge, at the point where the line will cross into Duluth.

The hearing is in Madison, Wis., and attorneys for various railroad interests are on hand. The plans of the Soo provide for crossing the other roads in the city at grade, and all the roads crossed with the exception of the South Shore oppose the application. The Great Northern and Northern Pacific ask for underground crossings. There is also a question as to crossings at the Omaha and Terminal Railway company's tracks. The Soo people say they would have to go to too great an expense to comply with the wishes of the other lines.

Reduce Assessments.

Stipulations and orders for judgments have been filed in the district court in the matter of appeal of J. D. Ensign and others from the assessment for constructing a sanitary sewer in the right of way between London road and South street, between Nineteenth and Twenty-second avenues east. Amounts were reduced and confirmed on the appeal from the assessment as follows: J. D. Ensign, one lot, $113.63; the other lot, $78.06; Venecedor Investment company, one lot, $113.63; other lot $78.06; Charles H. Graves, one lot, $78.06. Judge Dibell signed the order of judgment.

LOWRY WITHDRAWS

St. Paul, March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Thomas Lowry withdraws in favor of Walter W. Heffelfinger as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the national Republican convention.

This sudden solution of a problem that has been embarrassing some of the party leaders, who have detected war clouds on the horizon was brought about within two hours of Mr. Lowry's return home from a sojourn of several months in the South. He was told that Heffelfinger and his friends had made the proposition in the interest of harmony that they should both withdraw in favor of a third candidate upon whom both factions could unite. It is understood that Karl Delattre is the man who had been selected.

AGREE ON HALE TO SUCCEED LOCHREN.

Washington, March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Senators Nelson and Clapp today agreed to indorse W. E. Hale of Minneapolis to succeed Judge Lochren. They will present Hale's name to the president tomorrow morning.

THE FINNISH SENATE DECIDES TO RESIGN.

Helsingfore, March 31.—In consequence of the vote of lack of confidence on it, carried on March 28, the Finnish senate has decided to resign. This vote passed the diet by 76 to 47, and was the work of the Socialists. They formally censured the Finnish administration for the delivery of Russian terrorists and political agitators to the Russian authorities, and for lack of firmness in resisting Russian encroachments upon the rights of Finland, and then demanded the retirement of the senate, as incapable of defending the autonomy and liberty of Finland against the present reactionary campaign in Russia.

RUN BY GOVERNMENT.

Canada Will Acquire All the Railroads in Nova Scotia.

Halifax, N. S., March 31.—A resolution calling on the Dominion government to acquire all the railroad lines in Nova Scotia and add the mto the inter-colonial system as branches has been unanimously passed by the Provincial legislature. The resolution suggests that the purchase of the roads be on a basis of their original cost and present earning capacity.

NO STRIKE IN INDIANA.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 31.—It was agreed today by the joint conference of Indiana miners and operators that present wages shall continue after today, pending a settlement of a scale. This means there will be on suspension in this state tomorrow.

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS.

New York—Arrived: Steamer Duca Degli Abruzzi from Naples.

Glasgow—Arrived: Steamer Furnessia from New York.

London—Arrived: Steamer Minnehaha from New York.

ALL MINES TO CLOSE.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 31.—At a meeting of the miners and operators this afternoon it was decided that all mines in the Pittsburg district would suspend operations at midnight tonight until a wage scale agreement has been reached.

RAILROADS WIN AGAIN.

Kansas City, March 31.—Judge Smith McPherson, in the federal court here, today decided that he has full jurisdiction over both the maximum freight rate and 2-cent passenger fare cases in Missouri. In other words, he holds in favor of the railroads and against the state on the question of jurisdiction.

CANNON INDORSED.

Chicago, March 31.—Joseph G. Cannon was indorsed for the Republican nomination for president at the Seventh congressional district Republican convention in Chicago today. Postmaster Daniel A. Campbell and A. A. Strom were chosen delegates to the national convention, and William Busse, president of the Cook county board of commissioners, and Jetlow Nordham were named as alternates.

DRIVES LAST STAGE.

Brainerd, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—N. D. Seavey, a well known stage driver, who has resided in this section for years, is dead from an attack of illness that overcame him in Anderson's restaurant Friday. He was 60 year of age, unmarried, a native of New York, and served in Company C, Twelfth New York Volunteers in the Civil war.

FAMILIES DRIVEN FROM HOME.

Chicago, March 31.—Members of sixty families were driven into the street today by a fire which destroyed a four-story brick apartment building at North Clark street and Albine avenue. Nearly a score of women were rescued by the firemen. The property loss is in the neighborhood of $50,000.

RECOVERY IN BUSINESS

Will be Gradual, According to Views of J. J. Hill.

New York, March 31.—Discussing business conditions, James J. Hill, just arrived in this city from Washington, expresses himself as unable to predict an early revival of business. "While I cannot permit myself to be too optimistic," he said, "I am trying not to be pessimistic. The general recovery in business which has been predicted has not yet manifested itself to any remarkable degree, and it is not to be expected that it should. The prevailing conditions were not brought about overnight; they are the results of events of many months, and a revival will no doubt be correspondingly graduated."

READING LAYS OFF 600 MORE EMPLOYES.

Reading, Pa., March 31.—At the close of work in the Reading Railway company's car and locomotive shops, last night, 600 employes were laid off. This is in addition to 350 who were indefinitely suspended last week. The force had been previously reduced, so that less than two-thirds of the men are now at work. Foremen have been placed in the ranks and the plants are working four days of eight hours each. Similar suspensions took place at Palo Alto and Schuylkill Haven shops. The revival in the coal trade has apparently not stimulated work at the shops, as was expected.

J. H. ROBBERS,
Copper Stocks and Bonds
Curb Stocks a Specialty. Listed Securities.
MARCH 31, 1908.

Butte & Ballaklava is the only copper stock listed on the curb that is now selling for more than it did in July, 1907, and would, under normal conditions, sell for $25 to $35 on the present showing. The company has their property paid for in full and the new electrical machinery, hoist, pumps, and air compressors installed and paid for, and has $80,000 cash in the treasury. The purely development work will not cost over $7,000 per month, so that the amount in the treasury would carry on development work for twelve months. After the 700-foot level is cross-cutted, shipments will be made from the five, six and seven hundred-foot levels and the proceeds from the sale of the ore is immediately available for dividends, as none of the earnings of the mine need be used for development purposes, there being ample cash in the treasury for that purpose. The way this property has been financed and managed leaves no doubt in any one's mind as to its future. It will be just as spectacular a success as Calumet & Arizona and North Butte have been, and should pay back every year in dividends as much at least as the original price of the stock.

The Star Mining District of Utah is attracting a great deal of attention among the mining investors of Duluth. Today a company known as the Mowitza Mining Co. was put on the market and 50,000 shares sold before noon, the issue being heavily over-subscribed. This stock sold at 50 cents per share. This stock was sold for development purposes. The Mowitza Mining Co. takes over the Anvil, Old Crow and Anvil Fraction. These claims are in the immediate vicinity of the Red Warrior and Moscow mines.

Buy Copper Gulf for big returns in the very near future. Bids as high as $2 for $1 paid stock failed to locate any. Five dollars will look cheap for the stock within the next two weeks.

Tuolumne Mining Co. stock was also in great demand today. I have sold 3,500 shares of the stock. St. Paul and Minneapolis were heavy buyers. Received

STREET CARS.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

This company operates a street railway line in the city of Duluth between Third avenue east and the end of Rice's Point, and another street railway line in the city of Superior between Twenty-first street and the end of Connor's Point. These lines are separated by the waters of St. Louis bay, and are operated as two distinct and separate lines.

The public is hereby notified that this company does not, by undertaking to carry any passenger, or by accepting fare for such carriage, assume any responsibility beyond that of carrying such passenger safely between points on the above mentioned lines.

This company is not responsible for close connections, nor safe transportation, between the above mentioned lines by any ferryboat or other means of transportation. While the employes of this company have been instructed to keep themselves posted and give upon request all the information they can as to the probability of connections being made with other transportation lines, the company has no better means of foreseeing unexpected interruptions in the service of such lines, nor of telling how long such interruptions will continue, than the public has, and, therefore, cannot be responsible for notice of such interruptions.

ORDER FOR HEARING PROOF OF WILL.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis. —ss.

In Probate Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of Susan E. Benesch, Deceased.

WHEREAS, An instrument in writing, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Susan E. Benesch, deceased, late of said County, has been delivered to this Court;

AND WHEREAS, John Benesch has filed therewith his petition, representing, among other things, that said Susan E. Benesch died in said County on the 9th day of November, 1907, testate, and that said petitioner is the executor named in said Last Will and Testament, and praying that the said instrument may be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary be issued thereon to John Benesch.

IT IS ORDERED, That the proofs of said instrument, and the said petition, be heard before this Court, at the Probate Office in the City of Duluth in said County, on Monday, the 13th day of April, A. D. 1908, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, when all persons interested may appear for or contest the probate of said instrument.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That notice of the time and place of said hearing be given to all persons interested, by publishing this order once in each week for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing, in the Duluth Evening Herald, a daily newspaper printed and published at Duluth in said County, and that a copy of this order be served upon the County Treasurer of St. Louis County not less than ten days prior to said day of hearing.

By the Court,
J. B. MIDDLECOFF,

TAX MONEY IS DIVIDED

Tax receipts in the amount of $454,323.78 will be divided between the state, St. Louis county and the various cities, villages, towns and school districts in the county, under the March apportionment which has just been completed by County Auditor Halden.

Of the total apportionment the state will receive $57,426.33; St. Louis county, $36,958.62; city of Duluth, $140,978.94, and the Independent school district of Duluth, $128,677.64. The cities and villages in the county will receive $180,235.71; the towns, $8,568.92 and the school districts, $171,134.20.

The county's apportionment will be divided among the following funds:

Revenue	$15,043.44
Poor commission	2,622.39
Roads	8,531.33
Schools	2,086.37
Courthouse sinking	5,433.12
Bond interest and sinking	3,241.97

The largest apportionments among the cities outside of Duluth are as follows: Ely, $6,169.39; Eveleth, $8,524.76, and Virginia, $4,293.98.

Of the villages, Chisholm will receive $3,065.27 and Hibbing $2,139.93. The other villages will receive smaller amounts.

Four towns will receive amounts in the excess of $400. These are Missabe Mountain, $1,039; Morse, $1,042; Stuntz, $505.67, and White, $467.21.

Only four school districts outside of the independent district of Duluth will receive any considerable amounts in this apportionment. These are No. 9, at Tower, $2,744.22; No. 12, at Ely, $10,738.57; No. 22, at Virginia, $4,724.27; No. 29, at Eveleth, $4,614.46, and No. 40, at Chisholm, $2,323.22.

WEST END

WILL PROBE PHARMACIES

Union Temperance Society Would Curtail Their Liquor Business.

Want Practice of Selling Whisky Indiscriminately, Stopped.

War is to be waged on the drug stores which permit customers to go behind the prescription counters, and for 15 cents per, to quaff glasses of booze.

The Duluth Union Temeperance society decided at its last meeting, held in the West end, that there was altogether too much of this going on in all the drug stores of the city.

This society has forits territory the entire city, but most of the officers and members are residents of the West end and there will begin the campaign against certain drug stores, which are said to be indiscriminate in their sale of spirituous liquors.

For some time past, members of the society have been prying into the reputed practice of the druggists of handing out whisky to many who were not entitled to it, because of a lack of the prescriptions, supposed to be necessary to obtain whisky in pharmacies, and the question was the principal topic of discussion.

Members say that they have their eyes on several West end druggists who have been running their places of business on pretty loose lines.

As a matter of investigation, one member of the society visited several West end drug stores prior to the meeting and stated then that he had no difficulty in obtaining all the liquor he wanted in the places where he was known.

ARE FIGHTING DISEASE.

Authorities Trying to Stamp Out Smallpox in West End.

The health authorities and those West end physicians who have cases there are working hard to stamp out smallpox in the neighborhood of the Horace Mann school, Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street.

There are no school sessions there this week on account of the epidemic. The health department deemed it unwise to reopen the school after the spring vacation until the situation was under better control.

Most of the cases of smallpox in the district are those of school children and the disease has spread through the class rooms. Children suffering from the ailment have attended school and given it to their playmates, until now there are a host of youngsters who have the pox.

SWEDISH REPUBLICANS

Form an Organization in West End ---Will Elect Next Week.

The organization of the Svea Republican club was perfected at a meeting held last evening in Sloan's hall, Twentieth avenue west and Superior street.

The first meeting was held a week or so ago and arrangements for the compilation of a constitution and other necessities were made. A committee comprising John Sundeen, Gust Bergquist, Andrew Horngreen, P. J. Borgstrom and O. J. Larson reported last night and the constitution drawn by them was adopted.

The election of officers will be held at the next meeting April 9. Otto Gafvert is temporary chairman and W. A. Anderson temporary secretary of the organization.

West End Shortrails.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Swedish Baptist church will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Oscar Lingwall of 2002 West Second street.

The Swedish Christian Sick Benefit society will hold its regular meeting Friday evening in Sloan's hall.

Rev. J. A. Anderson, pastor of the First Swedish M. E. church, has gone to Menominee, Mich., where he will conduct revival services for several days.

Paul Anderson has gone to Two Harbors, where he will remain until the opening of the season of navigation. He is going to do some work on the Duluth & Iron Range company's tugs there.

The contractors doing the construction work for the Wisconsin Central road have been busy in the West end during the past few days, removing several shacks along the right of way from Nineteenth to Twenty-fourth avenues west. These structures have been allowed to stand, for one reason and another, up to the present time.

The Ladies' Aid society of Bethany Swedish Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Bloomquist, 1921 West Third street.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Central Baptist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. O. Milne, 1927 West Second street.

The Epworth League of the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church will hold a literary session at the church this evening. An elaborate program has been arranged.

Rev. P. G. Nilson, state evangelist appointed at the Swedish Baptist conference held in Duluth last summer, is conducting revival services at the First Swedish Baptist church, Nineteenth avenue west and First street. Prior to his appointment, Rev. M. Nilson was pastor of the Swedish Baptist church at Brainerd. He will hold services in the West end every evening except Saturday. Last night he preached at the branch Bethel and Sunday afternoon he addressed the Young People's society.

The funeral of Gust Swanfelt of 2220 West Third street is being held this afternoon at Forward's undertaking rooms. The services are in charge of Rev. Carl G. Olson, pastor of Bethany Lutheran church, and the interment will take place at the Lutheran cemetery.

Miss Esther Carlson, 321 Twenty-sixth avenue west, will entertain the Tabitha society of Bethany Swedish Lutheran church Thursday evening.

M. Ericson and Miss Esther Ericson have returned from Two Harbors, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Haugen for several days.

"Lion Cough Cure" stops that cough. Sold at "Lion drug store."

The funeral of Thomas E. Halford, the well known West end resident and business man, who died Sunday afternoon from heart trouble, is being held this afternoon at St. Luke's Episcopal church, Nineteenth avenue west and First street. The services are in charge of the rector, Rev. R. J. Mooney, and the interment takes place at Forest Hill cemetery. Mr. Halford was a member of the uniform rank, Knights of Pythias, and member of that order attended the funeral in a body.

The Bema club, which has held weekly sessions in Dr. Oredson's office during the winter, conducted the last session of the season last night, when the members gave short talks on many topics.

MADAME GOULD SEVERS RELATIONS WITH FAMILY TO WED PRINCE DE SAGAN

To Follow the Prince to Europe in a Short Time.

New York, April 1.—That Prince Helie de Sagan is a suitor for the hand of Mme. Anna Gould is announced by the prince himself, in which he says that Mme. Gould will sail for France very soon after his departure, which is set for April 9. The prince's announcement was made coincident with the circulation of reports that Mme. Gould has quarreled with her family, because of her determination to marry de Sagan. Mme. Gould is quoted as saying that she shall not "longer be oppressed and ruled by her family;" that at last "she has asserted herself and shall abide by her own decision." Madame Gould has left the home of her sister, Miss Helen Gould, with whom she has been staying since her arrival from France, more than a week ago, and is living with friends at the Hotel St. Regis.

Not only is sentiment, but money as well, involved in the break between Mme. Gould and the members of her family. The will by which Jay Gould disposed of his fortune contained a codicil which may have a prominent part in the developments should there follow a prolongation of the family trouble. This codicil provided that any of his children who should marry without first gaining the consent of the other sons and daughters, should forfeit one-half of his or her interest in the estate. In Mme. Gould's case, the one-half interest is variously estimated at between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000.

Provision Abrogated.

It is said to be the intention of Mme. Gould, however, that this provision of the will was abrogated as far as she is concerned when the consent of her brothers and sisters was given to her marriage with Count Boni de Castellane. Having taken this position, she is said to have retained a prominent firm of attorneys with large interests both in New York and Paris, and to have informed her relatives at the last family conference that she is prepared to fight, if necessary, for what she regards as her right to her entire share of the fortune left by her father.

Mme. Gould is ill in her apartments at the St. Regis and the date of her departure for Europe is believed to be largely dependent upon the rapidity with which she recovers. No definite date for her sailing has yet been set, so far as can be learned, but it is not believed that it will be delayed longer than ten days or two weeks.

A SWINDLER IS CAPTURED

Postoffice Inspector Nabs Earl Accola at Frisco.

San Francisco, April 1.—In the arrest of Earl Accola, which was effected Monday by United States Postoffice Inspector O'Connell here, the federal authorities believe that they have captured one of the two men who defrauded several large business houses in different sections of the United States during the last year. Accola, together with Fred Wolff, was indicted by the Chicago grand jury on March 6 on several counts, charging him with having used the mails to carry on frauds.

According to the federal officers, Accola and Wolff did business under the firm name of George E. Anders & Co. There is a reputable mail order house in Chicago which has a name similar to the one used by Accola and Wolff. Among the concerns which were victimized were Max Platt & Co., 113 Division street, New York; the Winona Furniture & Stove company of Winona, Minn., and the Northern Furniture & Manufacturing company of Minneapolis.

Accola appeared before United States Commissioner Heacock yesterday afternoon and was ordered held in $3,000 bonds, pending a preliminary examination this afternoon. Wolff has been captured by the federal officers in Chicago.

SUICIDE VERDICT IN THE CLIVE CASE.

San Diego, Cal., April 1.—The inquest held on the body of Guy Clive, who was found dead yesterday on the sea wall at Coronado, brought out the fact that his death was the result of a pistol bullet through the heart. The revolver from which the fatal shot was fired was found in a crevice of the rocks of the sea wall. Testimony was given to the effect that the deceased had resorted largely to narcotics and that his mind was probably unbalanced. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of 'death from a gunshot wound, self-inflicted.'

LAND FRAUD CASE BEGINS

Suit Staved Off for Four Years Comes to Trial.

It Involves Conspiracy Charges Against Several Prominent Men.

Washington, April 1.—The trial of the land fraud case against Frederick A. Hyde, John A. Benson, Henry P. Dumond and Joost H. Schneider, involving an alleged conspiracy to defraud the United States out of valuable lands in several Western states, was begun here today, before Justice Stafford, in criminal court No. 1. Upwards of 200 witnesses from fourteen states in the West, where the alleged fraudulent acquirement of lands was affected, are here for the trial.

This case has been on the dockets of the courts here and in California for the past four years, the trial having been postponed from time to time. One of the delays was caused because of lack of funds to pay witness fees and other expenses. An appropriation of $60,000 was made by congress at its present session to cover the cost of the trial. It is believed that the trial will continue for at least three months.

The indictments against the four men charged a conspiracy hatched in this city in 1901 to defraud the United States out of many thousands of acres of public lands in the West. It is alleged that these men, operating

CLAD ONLY IN NIGHT CLOTHES

Guests of Hotel in Minneapolis Rush Into the Street.

Minneapolis, April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Clad only in their night clothes, the guests of the National hotel rushed out into the street at 8:30 this morning because of a fire panic.

The fire was discovered by William Jossey, a theatrical man. He at once turned in the alarm.

The clanging of bells aroused the other guests, most of whom were theatrical people, and all made a mad rush for the door. No one was injured in the panic. The fire was extinguished with little trouble.

EXPLOSION OF BOMB

New York, April 1.—Following the sending of letters demanding money, a bomb was thrown today at the home of Joseph Schullitto, in Beaver street, Brooklyn. The explosion broke all the windows in the house, blew down the front door and wrecked the vestibule, but the occupants escaped uninjured. The Schullitto home is within a block of that of Selig Silverstein, the man who threw the bomb in Union Square Saturday.

CONDUCTOR IS CONVICTED.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 1.—Charles E. Gee, formerly a dining car conductor on the Soo road, was convicted of grand larceny in the second degree by a jury before Judge Andrew Holt. He stole $210 from the Soo while he was employed by the company. The jury recommended clemency. Gee is a man of large family.

THE AMERICAN WARSHIPS ARE PREPARING TO LAND MEN AT PORT AU PRINCE

CHANCELLOR DAY Of Syracuse, Who Is Exonerated of the Charges Preferred Against Him for Criticising the President.

Paris, April 1.—A special dispatch received here today from Port Au Prince, Haiti, states that the situation there is extremely grave, and that complete anarchy prevails. A dispute is said to have arisen between Gen. Jules Coicou, chief of the military district of Port Au Prince, and Camaille Gabriel, nephew of President Nord, as to their respective powers in coping with the situation.

The dispatch further declares that American warships are preparing to land troops.

SOOTHING SYRUP KILLS CHILDREN

St. Paul, April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Twin babies, a boy and a girl, children of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ackernecht, 421 West Central avenue, died early today, victims of soothing syrup poisoning. The babies, 3 months old, were restless last night and both were given a dose of soothing syrup and at once went to sleep. Early this morning both were breathing naturally, but shortly afterward one of them died. A physician was summoned, but before he arrived the second child died. The parents told the physician they had given the babies not more than five drops of the medicine. The coroner is making an investigation.

CHANCELLOR EXONERATED

Methodist Conference Dismisses the Charges Against Dr. Day.

New York, April 1.—The charges preferred against Chancellor Day of Syracuse university by the Rev. George A. Cooke of Brandon, Vt., were ruled out of court by Bishop David H. Moore at the opening of the 108th session of the New York Methodist Episcopal conference today. Bishop Moore in dismissing the charges, said he regarded the complaint against Chancellor Day as a direct attack upon free speech and free press. The decision was greeted with cheers and long continued applause.

The charges against Chancellor Day contained five counts, and were to the effect that he had defamed President Roosevelt in some of his public utterances. Mr. Day made no effort to answer the charges.

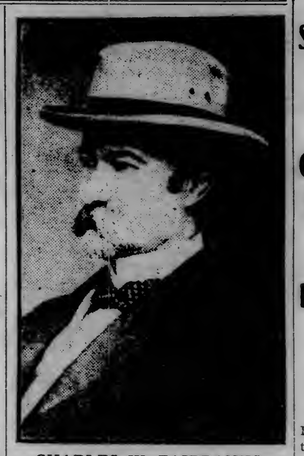

In his address announcing the decision to throw out the charges of Mr. Cooke, Bishop Moore said the same charges might just as well be brought against some member of the United States senate as against Mr. Day.

REPUBLICANS OF INDIANA TO INDORSE FAVORITE SON

State Convention, to Last Two Days, Opens at Indianapolis.

Local Option Will Probably be Favored in the Platform.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—Indiana Republicans went into state convention today to adopt a platform, formally present to the country Charles Warren Fairbanks, vice president of the United States as their choice for the presidency, instruct the thirty Indiana delegates to the national convention to vote and persistently work for his nomination, and to name a state ticket.

For two days the hotel accommodations of the city have been strained to their utmost. The 1,470 delegates in themselves make a goodly crowd, which has been doubled by as many alternates and multiplied twenty times by federal, state, county and municipal officeholders, friends and supporters of contesting candidates and the rank and file of the party from every corner of the state.

Meet by Districts.

Prior to the opening session of the convention, which is scheduled to last two days, the delegates met by districts to name members of the convention committees, which met immediately to complete their reports, which, according to the harmonious agreement of the party leaders, selected Representative Overstreet of Indianapolis, for temporary chairman, Representative J. C. Chaney of Sullivan, for permanent chairman, and for delegates-at-large to the national convention, United State Senators Albert J. Beveridge, James E. Hemenway, Governor J. Frank Hanly and James P. Goodrich, chairman of the state committee.

It was agreed by a large majority of the party leaders that the most prominent planks in the platform in addition to the strong resolution instructing for Vice Presidet Fairbanks, should be one favoring local option with the county as a unit and the other would follow the advice of Vice President Fairbanks and urge a revision of the tariff by a special session

AT POINT OF A REVOLVER

Hopkins, Minn., Woman Drives Burglar From Home.

Several Other Houses in Town Entered by the Robber.

St. Paul, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—With two small children sleeping peacefully nearby, Mrs. Magnus Young boldly faced a masked burglar, who, with a dark lantern in hand, crept into her home at midnight, while her husband was away, and at the point of a revolver sent him scurrying from the house. The Young residence is at Hopkins, a suburb of Minneapolis.

The woman was awaiting the return of Mr. Young, when she heard suspicious noises on the first floor. She knew that some one was below and that it was not her husband. Presently the stair door opened and the creaking which followed warned the frightened but determined woman that the intruder would soon reach her room.

Going to the dresser she took out a 32-caliber revolver and waited. The burglar crept into the room and flashed his lantern about. The flood of light illuminated the faces of the dreaming children. He took a step toward the bed, and then stopped with a jerk.

The burglar was so taken by surprise that he could not move.

This brought the intruder to his senses and he tumbled down the stairs in haste. Mrs. Young then sounded the alarm.

Hopkins, as a matter of fact, was awake most of the night. Reports of burglaries began coming in shortly after midnight and continued for several hours. In all six residences were entered. The loot amounted to less than $40 in cash.

ALBERTA BUYS LINES OF TELEPHONE COMPANY.

Montreal, April 1.—W. H. Cushing, minister of public works for the province of Alberta, yesterday completed arrangements with the Bell Telephone company of Canada for the purchase of the lines of the company located in the province of Alberta for the sum of $675,000. The Bell company a short time ago sold out its lines in the province of Manitoba to the Manitoba government, and the only lines it now has west of the Great Lakes are those in the province of Saskatchewan and in the cities of Port Arthur and Fort William. It is expected that the company will dispose of these and confine its attentions to the East. The Alberta government is to take possession of its purchase at midnight tonight.

THOUSANDS OF MINERS

Agreements Are Expected Soon in Many Localities.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—Two hundred and fifty thousand bituminous coal miners are idle today on account of the failure of the United Mine Workers of America and the coal operators to agree upon a wage scale to go into effect today.

District meetings are being held in an effort to reach an agreement in the different states, and it is believed the strike will be of short duration.

Central Pennsylvania and Indiana mines are in operation, as an agreement has been reached in the former district and in this state miners and operators have agreed to continue work pending a settlement, which is being negotiated by joint meetings at Terra Haute.

Iowa Mines Closed.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 1.—Every coal mine in Iowa is closed today. Fifteen thousand men are idle. Miners today are celebrating the tenth anniversary of the eight hour law.

Many Idle in Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, April 1.—According to accurate reports received here early today from all over the Ohio mining district 40,000 workmen of all kinds in the mines, are idle today as the result of the decision of the mine officials in the central competitive district to stop work because they say the operators decline to make any wage agreement. The estimate of the men out by counties follows: Columbiana county, 2,000; Vinton county, 800; Hocking, 4,000; Jackson and vicinity, 6,000; Coshocton, 1,000; Muskingum, 400; Perry, 5,000; Stark, 2,500; Athens, 5,000; Belmont, 9,000; Jefferson, 6,000; Meigs, 800.

Miners Would Return.

Kansas City, April 1.—It was believed here this morning that the 35,000 coal miners in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, who are enjoying a holiday today, would return to work tomorrow pending a settlement of the difficulties with the officials of the Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' association.

"There has been no strike in the Southwest yet," said George Colville, president of the Missouri Miners' association, here today. "It is up to the operators to say whether there will be a strike, but the situation looks bright."

The operators' and miners' conventions met separately today, each to take steps looking to an early conference.

ARRAIGNMENT OF MRS. McKEE

Continued by Maitre Labori in the Famous Divorce Suit.

Paris, April 1.—Maitre Labori today concluded his argument in the hearing of the suit for divorce brought in this city by Mrs. A. Hart McKee, formerly Mrs. Hugh Tevis, and a daughter of Col. George W. Baxter of Tennessee, against her husband, with a severe arraignment of Mrs. McKee. Instead of marrying his wife for the purpose of robbing his stepson and stepdaughter, as the plaintiff alleged, and trying to induce Col. Baxter to renounce the rights upon her fortune of $800,000, which was held in trust, Mr. Labori declared it was Mr. McKee who arranged the trust in order to prevent the dissipation of the fortune. He described the wife as constantly quarreling with members of her family and deceiving everybody. M. Labori argued that the testimony given by the servants of Mrs. McKee against her husband was not worthy of consideration and concluded his argument with the statement that Mr. McKee made no charges against his wife's honor.

Armand Dorville, assistant to Maitre Barboux, coursel for Mrs. McKee, in rebuttal denied emphatically that Mrs. McKee had acted in an improper manner before her marriage to the defendant.

DISCOVERS NEW SPOTS ON THE SUN

Milwaukee, Wis., April 1.—Rev. Father McGeary, S. J., professor of astronomy at Marquette university, this city, today reported having recently observed three new sun spots through a new telescope at the university.

While gazing at the heavens through the instrument Father McGeary noticed an unusual appearance of the sun. Upon closer examination he found three immense sun spots, two of them 8,000 miles across, or large enough to drop the earth into.

"The spots were new and appeared to be immense cavities in the sun's surface," Father McGeary said. "They were surrounded by yellow rings that had the appearance of nebulous halos and probably were caused by the transition of sight from the extreme glare of the sun's brightness to the comparative blackness of the cavities.

"No news of this discovery by other astronomers has reached me," he continued, "although I probably shall read of it in scientific journals, which are printed after the spots appeared."

MINERS OF ANTHRACITE

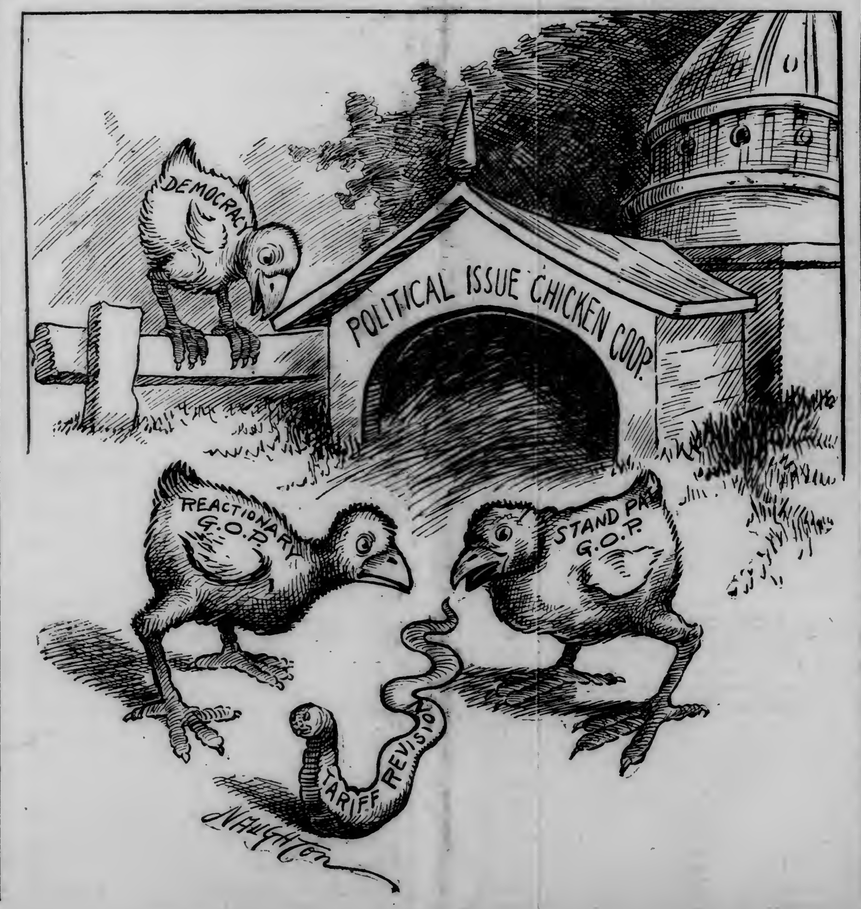

Have Plenty of Employment Free From Labor Troubles.

Philadelphia, April 1.—Unlike the situation in the soft coal fields where thousands of men are idle because of wage disagreements, conditions in the anthracite field of Eastern Pennsylvania so far as employment is concerned are growing better and the prospects for steady work are brighter than they have been in six months. There is a general suspension of mining throughout the hard coal regions today because the mine workers are observing the anniversary of the eight hour day, but beginning tomorrow there will be a general resumption. It is expected that the mines throughout these regions will work full blast all summer. The winter's stock of coal has been exhausted and there is practically no coal on hand at any of the storage points. The anthracite regions are at present free from labor troubles, the three years' wage agreement having one more year to run.

LAUGHTER CAUSES DEATH.

New York, April 1.—Overcome by laughter at a joke told by a member of the company at a party she was attending, Mrs. Anna Ferrer, a widow, 42 years of age, was unable to stop the laughing paroxysm and died before a physician could be summoned.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—Indiana Republicans went into state convention today to adopt a platform, formally present to the country Charles Warren Fairbanks, vice president of the United States as their choice for the presidency, instruct the thirty Indiana delegates to the national convention to vote and persistently work for his nomination, and to name a state ticket.

For two days the hotel accommodations of the city have been strained to their utmost. The 1,470 delegates in themselves make a goodly crowd, which has been doubled by as many alternates and multiplied twenty times by federal, state, county and municipal officeholders, friends and supporters of contesting candidates and the rank and file of the party from every corner of the state.

Prior to the opening session of the convention, which is scheduled to last two days, the delegates met by districts to name members of the convention committees, which met immediately to complete their reports, which, according to the harmonious agreement of the party leaders, selected Representative Overstreet of Indianapolis, for temporary chairman, Representative J. C. Chaney of Sullivan, for permanent chairman, and for delegates-at-large to the national convention, United State Senators Albert J. Beveridge, James E. Hemenway, Governor J. Frank Hanly and James P. Goodrich, chairman of the state committee.

It was agreed by a large majority of the party leaders that the most prominent planks in the platform in addition to the strong resolution instructing for Vice Presidet Fairbanks, should be one favoring local option with the county as a unit and the other would follow the advice of Vice President Fairbanks and urge a revision of the tariff by a special session

Agreements Are Expected Soon in Many Localities.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—Two hundred and fifty thousand bituminous coal miners are idle today on account of the failure of the United Mine Workers of America and the coal operators to agree upon a wage scale to go into effect today.

District meetings are being held in an effort to reach an agreement in the different states, and it is believed the strike will be of short duration.

Central Pennsylvania and Indiana mines are in operation, as an agreement has been reached in the former district and in this state miners and operators have agreed to continue work pending a settlement, which is being negotiated by joint meetings at Terra Haute.

Iowa Mines Closed.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 1.—Every coal mine in Iowa is closed today. Fifteen thousand men are idle. Miners today are celebrating the tenth anniversary of the eight hour law.

Many Idle in Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, April 1.—According to accurate reports received here early today from all over the Ohio mining district 40,000 workmen of all kinds in the mines, are idle today as the result of the decision of the mine officials in the central competitive district to stop work because they say the operators decline to make any wage agreement. The estimate of the men out by counties follows: Columbiana county, 2,000; Vinton county, 800; Hocking, 4,000; Jackson and vicinity, 6,000; Coshocton, 1,000; Muskingum, 400; Perry, 5,000; Stark, 2,500; Athens, 5,000; Belmont, 9,000; Jefferson, 6,000; Meigs, 800.

Miners Would Return.

Kansas City, April 1.—It was believed here this morning that the 35,000 coal miners in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, who are enjoying a holiday today, would return to work tomorrow pending a settlement of the difficulties with the officials of the Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' association.

"There has been no strike in the Southwest yet," said George Colville, president of the Missouri Miners' association, here today. "It is up to the operators to say whether there will be a strike, but the situation looks bright."

The operators and miners' conventions met separately today, each to take steps looking to an early conference.

Continued by Maitre Labori in the Famous Divorce Suit.

Paris, April 1.—Maitre Labori today concluded his argument in the hearing of the suit for divorce brought in this city by Mrs. A. Hart McKee, formerly Mrs. Hugh Tevis, and a daughter of Col. George W. Baxter of Tennessee, against her husband, with a severe arraignment of Mrs. McKee. Instead of marrying his wife for the purpose of robbing his stepson and stepdaughter, as the plaintiff alleged, and trying to induce Col. Baxter to renounce the rights upon her fortune of $500,000, which was held in trust, Mr. Laberi declared it was Mr. McKee who arranged the trust in order to prevent the dissipation of the fortune. He described the wife as constantly quarreling with members of her family and deceiving everybody. M. Laberi argued that the testimony given by the servants of Mrs. McKee against her husband was not worthy of consideration and concluded his argument with the statement that Mr. McKee made no charges against his wife's honor.

Armand Dorville, assistant to Maitre Barboux, counsel for Mrs. McKee, in rebuttal denied emphatically that Mrs. McKee had acted in an improper manner before her marriage to the defendant.

DISCOVERS NEW SPOTS ON THE SUN

Milwaukee, Wis., April 1.—Rev. Father McGeary, S. J., professor of astronomy at Marquette university, this city, today reported having recently observed three new sun spots through a new telescope at the university.

While gazing at the heavens through the instrument Father McGeary noticed an unusual appearance of the sun. Upon closer examination he found three immense sun spots, two of them 8,000 miles across, or large enough to drop the earth into.

"The spots were new and appeared to be immense cavities in the sun's surface," Father McGeary said. "They were surrounded by yellow rings that had the appearance of nebulous halos and probably were caused by the transition of sight from the extreme glare of the sun's brightness to the comparative blackness of the cavities.

"No news of this discovery by other astronomers has reached me," he continued, "although I probably shall read of it in scientific journals, which are printed after the spots appeared."

MINERS OF ANTHRACITE

Have Plenty of Employment Free From Labor Troubles.

Philadelphia, April 1.—Unlike the situation in the soft coal fields where thousands of men are idle because of wage disagreements, conditions in the anthracite field of Eastern Pennsylvania so far as employment is concerned are growing better and the prospects for steady work are brighter than they have been in six months. There is a general suspension of mining throughout the hard coal regions today because the mine workers are observing the anniversary of the eight hour day, but beginning tomorrow there will be a general resumption. It is expected that the mines throughout these regions will work full blast all summer. The winter's stock of coal has been exhausted and there is practically no coal on hand at any of the storage points. The anthracite regions are at present free from labor troubles, the three years' wage agreement having one more year to run.

New York, April 1.—Overcome by laughter at a joke told by a member of the company at a party she was attending, Mrs. Anna Ferrer, a widow, 42 years of age, was unable to stop the laughing paroxysm and died before a physician could be summoned.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Much colder tonight with possibly snow flurries; lowest temperatures slightly above zero; fair Thursday.

The other clothing stores thought it was an April first joke when we announced we would sell suits of clothes for less than a day's pay, but the crowds who came to buy found it a joyful reality.

We were swamped this morning so great was the response to our ad. in yesterday's Herald, and no doubt many were not waited on in the way customary to this store—for this we apologize. We used every clerk we could get, as well as pressing into service several of our friends, and then had to call on Chief Troyer for officers to prevent the locked doors being pushed in. So you can readily see we did the best we could under the circumstances.

We Are Going to Continue the Sale Tomorrow, But Only From 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

(Not one sold before this hour, or one after.) One and a half hours of bargain giving never before equalled in the West. We want the people to come tomorrow morning that could not get waited on today. We are going to add new suits to the lot from our regular stocks, to even up the sizes.

Men's Business Suits, sizes 34 to 37, all wool, perfectly made. Men's business suits that sold earlier for $25, $20, $18 and $15—Your choice tomorrow from 9 a. m. to 10:30 a. m. $2.45

HE TALKED TO LILLEY

Brass Manufacturer a Witness Before Special Committee.

Washington, April 1.—Franklin A. Taylor of Waterbury, Conn., vice president of the Randolph Clows company, manufacturers of brass and opper, was the first witness called today by the special committee of the house that is investigating the charges against the Electric Boat company. He said he had told Representative Lilley to vote for submarine boats, as there was a possibility of his company getting some business if the boats were ordered.

"What was Mr. Lilley's reply?"

"He would not commit himself one way or the other."

The last conversation the witness had with Mr. Lilley was a week ago Saturday in Waterbury. During that conversation Mr. Lilley, according to the witness, said that he proposed to see that the Lake people had a fair chance.

He was present in the Waterbury club a week ago Saturday, he said, while Mr. Lilley was talking to a number of gentlemen about the present investigation. According to Mr. Taylor, Mr. Lilley said it was quite likely that he would get an adverse decision. In that event, he said he would go on the floor of the house and tell all he knew about the whole matter of submarine boats.

Mr. Taylor said that he never lost an opportunity to impress upon Mr. Lilley that he ought to vote for submarines and that he had shaken his fist at Mr. Lilley several times, but always in a jocular manner. He did not intimate to him that he had gone to him at the instigation of the Electric Boat company.

Never Promised Contract.

The Electric Boat company, he said, had never promised him a contract if the desired legislation was secured.

Mr. Taylor said he had stated to an Associated Press representative in Waterbury that he thought he had influenced Mr. Lilley to vote for submarine boats. He assumed this; he said, because when Mr. Lilley came to Waterbury he said:

"I voted yes, Franklin, with your face before me when I voted."

The witness said he did not consider that he had done anything improper in asking Mr. Lilley to vote for submarines.

Mr. Taylor said that he had been requested by John P. Kellogg, one of the attorneys for the Electric Boat company, in January, 1908, "to get busy with Mr. Lilley and again tell him about the possibilities of submarines."

Elihu B. Frost, vice president of the Electric Boat company, followed Mr. Taylor. He said he had the general management of the business. John P. Kellogg, he said, was employed for the purpose of counteracting in Connecticut alleged misrepresentations that were being made in that state about the Electric Boat company.

"Sort of Ananias antidotes," suggested Mr. Howard.

"Yes," replied the witness.

DEFENDANTS

In Land Fraud Cases Arraigned and Plead Not Gilty.

Washington, April 1.—Promptly at the opening of the trial in the land fraud cases, three of the defendants, Hyde, Dimond and Schneider pleaded not guilty, and a plea in bar was entered for Benson. The attorneys for the defendants first offered a plea in abatement and District Attorney Baker, representing the government, filed a demurrer to the plea, which was sustained by Justice Stafford. Hyde, Dimond and Schneider were then arraigned and counsel for Benson entered the plea in bar. The jurors were dismissed until 1:30 while argument was heard on the plea in bar. It is expected that a new panel will have to obe called from which to select the jury.

CHICAGO SOMNAMBULIST ACQUITTED OF BURGLARY.

Chicago, April 1.—Ross Freeman, 20 years old, a victim of somnabulism and epilepsy, was, on account of his affliction, acquitted in Judge Brentano's court here today, of a charge of burglary. Freeman was accused of beraking into the home of Fred Folger, 4001 Armour avenue, a saloonkeeper, and of attacking Folger, when the latter surprised the intruder in his kitchen. The defense placed on the stand alienists who testified it was their beliefe that Freeman was asleep when he etnered Folger's home.

ODD THINGS WORTH FORTUNE

Enormous Sums That People Have Paid for Small Articles.

Philadelphia Press: Economic annals tell us that in the last of the thirteenth century a pig could be bought in Venice for 50 cents, and that hens were sold in the Paris markets at 2 cents each.

How times have changed in 600 odd years! Only last July F. W. Martin, of Beloit, Wis., paid Farmer Querrolo of Independence, Mo., $3,000 for a blooded pig, and in the closing month of 1907 A. J. Cheek of Henderson, N. C., paid $400 for a four-pound buff Orpington hen, raised by G. G. Shoemaker of York, Penn.

And these things have been quite characteristic of recent financial history—panics and currency stringencies to the contrary notwithstanding. "Dollar wheat" has become an oft-told tale; whisky has soared to $1.34 a gallon (this to balance the growth of prohibition news), and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt set a new high-water mark for tea when she calmly paid 1,000 francs ($200) for a cup at a French charity fair.

Furniture and "knick-knacks" have done nicely, too. A seat on the New York Stock Exchange has changed owners for $53,000, and the unpronounceable monarch of far-away Siam, during his Berlin visit last August, gave up a little matter of $75,000 for a gold and gem-studded thimble.

If benevolence or eccentricity prompts such purchases as these, one may not trace to such causes the record prices paid of late for those rarities of art and literature which have become the recognized prizes of wealthy collectors. The auction rooms of the year have been especially rich in famous painting sold at famous figures, the present-day world wonders less at the prices paid than that buyers should seem so easy to find under such conditions.

Popular subscription raised $200,000 for the Velasquez "Venus and the Mirror," now to be seen in London's National Gallery. In August the Duveens bought in the Kann pictures at $5,000,000.

One of London's recent sales of engravings produced five instances of remarkable increases in market values. In the collection of Wildred Lawson fourp ortraits that had originally been issued at $4.25 each, "fetched" (as the British papers put it), respectively $4,100, $3,350, $2,050 and $1,000. Mr. Lawson had bought these for a total of $2,218.75. Green's engravings of Reynold's "Mrs. Sarah Campbell," issued at less than $2, and bought by Lawson for $10, was knocked down for $1,050.

Which is almost as good money making as the late Minister Conger could tell of. During the Boxer days in China he bought a rug for $90 which he sold in Chicago for $47,000!

The bargain of years, however, promises to have just come to light. The dispatch telling the story, dated from Brussels on Dec. 20, reads:

"What is declared to be an authentic Van Dyck has been found in a bundle of miscellaneous articles, lately sold at auction at the old convent of Wesmunster, at Bruges. It is a portrait of the artist's sister, who was a nun at Waesmunster. The buyer paid a franc for the lot. The portrait is in excellent condition."

Twenty cents for a genuine Van Dyck! And then a London second-hand book dealer bought at waste paper value a copy of Gabriel Thomas's "History of Pennsylvania and West New Jersey," which went at Sotheby's for $800.

Small wonder that a certain Chinese merchant has offered his government $4,500 a year for the monopoly of collecting all the waste paper in the Kwang Chow and Shiu King prefectures! "Me make flierclackers," is his excuse, but it is obvious he dreams of colonial pamphlets and old masters.

The event of the past few months in those usually dingy rooms where the great book prizes of the literary world pass from owner to owner was unquestionably the sale of the internationally famous "Rowfant-Locker-Lampson" copy of the first folio of Shakespeare. It went for $18,000. Well below this in value, yet its peer in interest, was the discovery and sale in June of a first edition of "Yorke and Lancaster," a venerable drama, said to have been the inspiration for "The Immortal Will's" "Henry IV." It brought a tidy $9,550—the only other copies known being in the Bodleian at Oxford and the British Museum.

Half a dozen manuscripts of peculiar interest and value have figured in the auction room contests of late. The highest price of any fell to a mediaeval account of old St. Cuthbert of Lindsfarne, its forty-five beautiful illuminations bringing at the close of a spirited financial debate $7,500. Second place came to King William II's brutal order for the extermination of the MacDonalds, "The Massacre of Glencoe," which cost its purchaser just $7,000 for its 258 wicked words.

The past year's big prices have reached even to teeth and hair. In such cases everything depends on the answer to a laconic "Who's?"—for it was a molar of Sir Isaac Newton's which brought $3,400; a similar relic of Bonaparte had to go at $37.50 for want of greater financial appreciation. The hair was Charles Dickens', a lock of it changing hands for $40. In which connection it suggests itself that many a man, less celebrated, would gladly pay at that rate for his own, if it could be put back.

The purely "personal" value attaches to many of the items recently disposed of. Thus, in a New York auction room $1,000 was obtained for a bonnet fashioned for the imperial and aged head of China's clever dowager, and a broken-and-mended teapot, once used by the eloquent Burke, was considered cheap at $21, though a better one for mere tea-making was to be had anywhere for as many pennies.

Similarly an agate match box, less than three inches long, was sold in Berlin last May for $10,750, that total being reached not because of its gold setting, or even for its tiny rose diamonds, but purely because it had once inspired that famous German tract, "Morbus Satanicus," by a mediaeval prototype of London's present-day Father Vaughan.

The highest price ever paid for a single coin was recorded in the sales of last June, when, in Philadelphia, a 1787 Doubloon went for $6,200. The same month, across in the English capital, the first "Rose Crown' ever offered at public auction brought $1,110; the piece was coined in 1526, by special order of Henry VIII, and was seen through the royal mint by Wolsey himself.

If all this sounds of the collector class—of mere academic appreciation, backed by endless dollars—there is yet another side to the tale. For L. B. Coxe of Franklin, Ind., has sold a single ear of corn for $250, which figures down to exactly 20 cents a kernel, and Oscar Vanderbilt disposed of the entire apple crop of his farm, near Portland, Or., for a price which reckons out at a shade more than 11 cents an apple.

To advertise your real estate twice as much as another man advertises his does not indicate that you are twice as anxious to sell as he is—but that you know twice as much as he does about how to sell.

NO POLITICAL SECRETS.

Howard Grose, in The World Today: One of the hardest shocks Governor Charles Evans Hughes gave to the old-timers was when he abolished the secret chamber and took his place at the big desk in the large executive room where everybody comes in. In other days this was the reception room, while the governor occupied the inner of two smaller rooms, the first containing his private secretary. This made the secret conclave possible. But such an arrangement did not accord with Governor Hughes' ideas of democratic accessibility and honest consultation.

A country leader had come into have a consultation.

"I want to see you in private about a matter up our way," and the boss directed an inquiring glance toward the inside room.

"Sit down," invited the governor, indicating a chair two feet from his own and seating himself before his caller could recover himself. The latter sank into the chair uneasily. The governor with an encouraging smile waited for him to begin.

"Why, er—er, Governor, there are some matters about politics and legislation I want to talk to you about in private."

"Oh, well, go ahead," said the Governor, looking directly at his caller. "No one will interrupt us here. But I think you have come to the wrong place about ligislation. I am not a member of the legislature."

"Oh, well, you know. I understand that, you know—know," and the boss was evidently disconcerted. He looked around the room, noted the proximity of half a dozen men who had come in and began to talk with obvious embarrassment. He didn't say one-half he intended, nor in the way he meant.

The governor listened attentively, nodded only to indicate that he understood, but did not make any direct statement or comment. And the political boss awkwardly shook hands with him and faded through the door, looking sheepishly at the other men waiting for an audience.

No one is apt to think more highly of a store than its owner does—hence his advertising should be so big that it will reflect his belief in his store's importance—and so continuous that it will have the force of iteration.

Suits of Art and Quality

Low Prices Do Not Bar That Claim.

$16.50, $21.50, $27.50 and $29.50.

These suits are irreproachable in cut and finish; the materials are serviceable and pretty; in fact, they are near copies of much higher-priced garments—while the Gidding Label in them bears the same assurance of fine taste that it always represents.

For instance, take a light checked panama, in semi-fitted, four-button coat, cut sharply away from the waist line in front. double vent back, side and breast pockets and neat mannish collar and cuffs. The full, nine-gored skirt in plaited style, with a five-inch bias fold around the bottom, is very jaunty. The coat is lined with satin, and the whole garment finished in a workmanship-like manner. The price is but $16.50. The blue, brown and black serges come in other styles, equally attractive, at from $21.50 up.

$6.75 QUALITY.

MASSACHUSETTS TO SEND TAFT DELEGATES.

Boston, April 1.—Returns of yesterday's state Republican primaries today show that of the 1,550 delegates to the state convention, 901 are either pledged or favorable to Taft, and 649 are unpledged. The delegates-at-large probably will be Senators Lodge and Crane, ex-Governor J. L. Bates and Col. Sidney O. Bigney.

NEEDS MORE MONEY.

Berlin, April 1.—An authentic report is in circulation here that a bill soon will be introduced in the Prussian diet raising the civil list of the emperor. This list now amounts to $3,930,000 a year, which sum is paid the emperor as king of Prussia, and not as German emperor, a position which carried no salary. The explanation offered for raising the list is the increased cost of living, which bears particularly heavy on the royal house because a large number of children and other persons are dependent upon the purse of the monarch.

In this connection it was learned today that the reports that the emperor lived beyond his income and often called upon rich friends for temporary loans are incorrect. On the contrary, his majesty, up to several years ago, saved each year a considerable sum from his income and invested it for his children.

HAD TO CLOSE DOORS.

Oak Hall Clothing Company Filled to Overflowing With Eager Buyers

The Oak Hall Clothing company found it necessary to close its doors this morning when the store was besieged by an immense crowd bent on getting a good suit for $2.45 or $1.45. The suits went like the proverbial hot cakes, keeping literally on the jump the entire Oak Hall force, aided by everyone else who could be pressed into service. Mr. Abraham has always been a firm believer in advertising, and the flattering response to last evening's announcement strengthens it. To give those who could not be properly waited on today an opportunity, the firm will place a limited number of additional suits from the regular stock, on sale tomorrow morning from 9:30 to 10:30—just one hour.

To the Scandinavian People Of Duluth:

I wish to call your attention to the pleasing dramatic production of "Thelma" to be given at the Lyceum, Thursday, Friday and Saturday matinee and night, of this week.

Without question, I believe this to be the most wonderful and interesting story of "The Northland" ever presented.

The atmosphere and inspiration is a breath blown to us from the beautiful mountains, rivers and fjords of the "Land of the Midnight Sun."

SUNDAY CLOSING

La Crosse, Wis., April 1.—For the first time in eleven years the lid was put on tight in La Crosse today. Every gambling house was closed, under orders of Mayor Anderson. The houses of ill-renute were given two weeks to move, and it was announced that none would be permitted in La Crosse after April 15. It is expected that the next step will be the closing of saloons on Sunday. La Crosse has had the reputation of being one of the most wide-open cities in the country, but a change is promised under the present regime.

THE DOCTOR says "drink beer" to the weak and the convalescent. To those who need strength—need a food and a tonic. If it is good for them, isn't it good for you?

The virtue of beer does not lie in the alcohol. There is only 3½ per cent. of that.

It lies in the malted barley—a digested food. And in the hops—a tonic and an aid to sleep.

It lies, too, in the fact that the drinking of beer flushes the system of waste. So would water, of course, if one drank enough of it. But you don't drink water like beer.

When beer is pure there is nothing more healthful. And Schlitz beer is pure. It brings no after-effects, no biliousness.

But better go without beer than to drink the wrong beer. That is why the Doctor generally says "Drink Schlitz."

Ask for the Brewery Bottling.
Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz.
To avoid being imposed upon, see that the cork or crown is branded Schlitz.

SMALLPOX FROM CAMPS

Health Department on Alert and No Epidemic is Expected.

The annual influx of lumberjacks is on, and the officials of the health department are jumping sideways to keep up with them. Last year the woodsmen brought an epidemic of diphtheria to Duluth, from which the city hasn't recovered yet.

It isn't diphtheria this year, however. It's smallpox. Already several cases of the disease have been discovered among incoming woodsmen, and the detention hospital is getting quite well populated. The unfortunate who comes to the city from the camp, with his winters' wages in his pocket and a glorious drunk in sight, is pounced upon by a health department official, hustled to the hospital and given a touch of the scratching needle and a dose of vaccine virus.

Smallpox wasn't especially prevalent in the camps during the past winter. There always is some of it, however, and it is necessary for the health department to be on the alert, when the woodsmen begin to come to the city. There is certain to be same cases among them, and if they are discovered in time and the patients cared for, there is no danger of an epidemic.

The diphtheria situation is improving right along. Few cases are being added, and those already on are convalescing. Diphtheria is at the lowest point now it has been for a year, and providing the woodsman and his smallpox germ does not get loose, Duluth should be comparatively free from contagious diseases soon.

CONCATENATION TO BE HELD HERE

Order of Hoo-Hoos Will Have a Branch in Duluth.

A concatenation of the order of Hoo-Hoo, will be held in Duluth some time before the 10th of the present month, the date to be announced as soon as a sufficient number of applications for membership have been received to make up a class to make it worth while to confer the "biographical degree," or "degree of the playful kitten." The ceremonies will be followed by a good time "on the roof." G. A. Sherwood, general agent in Duluth for the Wisconsin Central, is receiving applications for membership.

The Hoo-Hoos are quite famous as an organization all through the Middle West. It is the purpose of the order to gather together in fraternal relations people gathered in the lumber trade, newspaper business and railroad business. Only white men over 21 years of age are eligible to membership.

COMMISSION IN TWENTY-FIFTH

Lieut. Dockery Will be Captain in Famous Colored Regiment.

Lieut. O. H. Dockery yesterday received a captain's commission in the famous Twenty-fifth infantry, colored, the regiment that had a battalion mustered out for the shooting up of Brownsville, Tex., while the colored troops were quartered there against the wishes of the citizens of that village.

The commission of promotion is dated March 15 of the present year, but it is probable that Lieut. Dockery will remain in charge of the Duluth recruiting station for at least six months. The Twenty-fifth, or "the nubian foot soldiers," as they are called by the West Pointers, are at the present time in the Philippines, and Lieut. Dockery will join his regiment there when called from duty here.

The controversy that resulted in the mustering out of service part of the Twenty-fifth involved both Republican and Democratic members of congress in a heated debate.

The regiment was placed in service in 1866. The organizing of colored regiments was part of a plan to punish the Southerners for the part they played in the Rebellion. Most of the colored regiments were assigned to duty in the South. Since the Brownsville incident, the Twenty-fifth has become famous. It was rapidly filled, and at the present time it is doing service in the Philippines, with a full complement.

Although a Southerner, Lieut. Dockery anticipates with pleasure the joining of his new regiment. It is a peculiar fact that officers are loath to leave a colored regiment. Lieut. Dockery won his promotion by passing examinations, recently held at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. He has brought the Duluth recruiting office up to a high standard of efficiency. At the present time it ranks with the best offices in the country.

WOMAN SHOOTS ANOTHER THROUGH JEALOUSY.

Los Angeles, April 1.—Mrs. Helen Griffin, 28 years of age, was shot and instantly killed yesterday by Mrs. U. Z. de Arman, wife of U. Z. de Arman, who has been racing horses at Santa Anita during the past season. Mrs. de Arman fired five shots, one of which took effect under her victim's left ear, killing her almost instantly. The motive for the shooting is admitted by De Arman to have been jealousy of him by his wife. The shooting occurred in the postoffice at Monrovia, where Mrs. De Arman waited for her victim for nearly an hour.

SEARCHED FOR RED KEROSENE

Hotel Porter Has Weary Chase for Strange Mixture.

A poor, unsophisticated porter of the Lenox hotel was sent chasing over the weary length and breadth of the city this morning in search of some red kerosene. He was in pitiful ignorance of the significance of April 1. After vainly inquiring in grocery stores, hardware stores, harness shops and drug stores for the oil of cardinal color, he returned to the hotel with rueful countenance and informed the person who sent him on his mission, that not a store in Duluth was supplied with the carmine tinted Standard oil asset.

An equally unsophisticated little Jap, down at the St. Louis hotel, was robbed of more than half of his breakfast, by being told he had committed a very serious breach of hotel etiquette. Trembling he went down stairs to meet the imagined wrath of the clerk. Tears almost welled to his eyes. He waited half an hour to see the clerk. Then he was told that that worthy was in complete ignorance of any infraction of the rules committed by the little brown man.

He ate the cold remnants of his meal in wise reflection. He missed the pleasure of eating his early morning meal steaming hot, but he learned another of the national customs.

Another member of the unsophisticater trio was sent to the roof of the McKay hotel to polish the bell. He was furnished with all sorts of ingredients warranted to shine. Laboriously he made his way to the roof, faced the cold rigors of April first, and searched faithfully for the bell. He, too, was obliged to report failure, for they haven't installed any bell on the roof as yet. Sherlock Holmes couldn't find one.

PETER WAS A WISE BOY

Settles Petty Larceny Case Before It Comes Before Court.

"My name may be 'Foolish' sometimes, but I'm a wise boy just the same," said Peter Wise with a wise smile, as he left the municipal court room this morning with Maggie Lien, after having squared himself on a petit larceny charge.

Wise caused considerable merriment in the court room. The charge was that he picked up $10 off the table in the woman's house and had spent it. Wise claimed he had spent part of the money with the woman and she had recovered $5 of it. He claimed he only owed her about $2.50 out of the whole amount.

Judge Windom said he would take the case under advisement for thirty days and give Wise a chance to settle. Wise balked. He didn't want a charge hanging over him for thirty days, he said. He and the complaining witness were steered into the court officer's room and they had it out. Returning in a few minutes, Peter reported to the court that everything was settled, and he was dismissed. They left the court and walked down the street together.

SCARCITY OF APRIL 1 JOKES

Only the Time Worn Gags Put in an Appearance.

There seemed to be a great scarcity of original April fool jokes today. None but time worn gags came to light. Even at the board of trade, where usually something new is sprung, they appeared to have forgotten that it is All Fools' day, and everything moved along as usual.

At the city hall Tom Brian, the custodian, again sprung his joke of the missing finger and the wienerwurst. "Hello," said Tom, "Tie up my finger?" and he stuck out a hand wrapped in a long strip of cotton. "Pull her tight," said Tom. The victim of the joke gave a yank and off came the finger, or at least what appeared to be a finger. In reality it was half a wienerwurst. Tom has sprung this every year since 1899, and every newcomer at the city hall has "bitten."

"I'm Only Fooling."

So says the weather man, and hands us a blizzard and a northeaster for breakfast on April first. If he'll warm up for Easter, we'll forgive him the joke.

No matter how April weather is going to be, here's the stuff you will want.

STOPOVER PRIVILEGES

Benefits Being Felt From the Ticket Scalper Laws.

New Advantages Are Now Being Offered Traveling Public.

One benefit that has come to the traveling public through the practical extermination of ticket scalpers in all parts of the country is that the railways are now inclined to allow more stop-over privileges on tourist tickets than formerly.

Before railroads of the state and country entered into a crusade against scalpers and asked the assistance of the public, the promise was made that should the brokers be put out of business, travelers would be accommodated with stop-overs in many more cases than had been the custom. Different railroads are beginning to keep this promise, as is shown by the action taken by the transcontinental lines with regard to California rates put in force on account of the celebration in San Francisco upon the arrival of the fleet of battleships.

On these tickets the stop-over privileges are made as elastic as possible, and allow the traveler to stop over at practically any station either going or returning, with few time restrictions. This action on the part of the roads indicates a feeling that scalpers have been pretty well cleaned out in all the leading Western cities.

Also the new issues of tickets are not characterized by the complicated and inconvenient arrangements planned to frustrate ticket scalping. The recent decision of the United States supreme court ruled that the bartering in signature form tickets is contrary to public policy and illegal.

While Duluth has been free from scalpers for more than a year, the presence of scalpers in other cities has prevented the roads from making general arrangements for stop-overs. The Illinois Central gives an example of the prevailing tendency among Western roads by announcing that for the first time in its history it will allow a thirty days' stop-over in Chicago on all reduced rate summer resort tickets. This concession is a result of the fact that scalpers have been driven out of business.

TRAIN SERVICE.

Milwaukee Road Ready to Put First Train in Washington.

Spokane, Wash., April 1.—Within two weeks the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad will put its first train in service in Eastern Washington, running between Othello and Lind, where the Northern Pacific is crossed. The distance is about thirty-five miles, and a combination freight and passenger service will be operated daily.

Othello is to be the division point on the Milwaukee road, and the company is planning to commence work on a large number of buildings. A tracklaying gang of 300 men are now employed, and within thirty days the tracks will be within a few miles of the Columbia river.

Excursion Rate.

Chicago, April 1.—Vice President McCullough of the Chicago & Northwestern railway announced today that low excursion rates would be granted from all points on that line to Chicago for the Republican national convention, to be held here in June. The basis of the rates, Mr. McCullough said, would be practically the same as that recently announced by Western roads for the Democratic convention in Denver.

MOST POPULAR NAME FOR BRIDES.

Philadelphia Bulletin: Ann was the most popular name for brides in 1907. The Maggies, the Marys, the Kates and the Rosies, all of whom have in past years carried off the honor, must bow to Ann.

Thomas C. Smith, the application clerk of the marriage license bureau, has for years kept a record of the most popular names of brides, and his records for 1907 show that there have been more brides with Ann as a handle to their names and surnames than any other.

Katie carries off second honors, and Mary, once so popular, drifted away back to the seventh place. In 1906 Maggie won first place, but now she takes third place.

Mr. Smith places the ten most popular brides of 1907 in their respective standing as follows: Ann, Kate, Maggie, Elizabeth, Sarah, Carrie, Mary, Rose, Emma and Clara.

FIFTY YEARS OF STEEL MAKING.

American Industries: In 1877 the United States made 1,000,000 tons of pig iron. This year's output will be about 25,000,000 tons. Fifty years ago the largest cargo of iron ore taken down the great lakes was 340 tons, and pig iron, foundry No. 2, sold at $31. Better iron is sold today at $16.

This season the Steel corporation's ships brought down cargoes of from 12,000 to 13,000 tons each and discharged them at lower costs and in one-sixteenth the time required to unload the lake vessels of fifty years ago.

Fifty years ago the learned Sir Lowthian Bell, one of the great ironmasters of Great Britain, gave it for his opinion that the Lake Superior iron ore deposits would not be a factor of importance in less than a century. This season's downtake or iron ores from Great Lake ports will aggregate 40,000,000 tons, which is within 8,000,000 tons of the total export and import tonnage of the ports of London and Liverpool.

TESTING SEEDS.

The other day a rascal was found to have made a small fortune by chopping up palmleaf fans and selling the stuff at a dollar a packet, containing a pinch or two of the precious dust—which was said to be the seed of a rare exotic flower. So writes W. G. Fitz-Gerald in the Technical World Magazine for March.

He advertised widely, and numbered professional florists among his victims. True, he disclaimed responsibility for the germinating power of his "seed," but this is a common warning even on the wares of reputable seedsmen, so that the buyers planted, watched, and watered with pathetic zeal until at length an angry lady laid the swindler by the heels.

Now, farm and flower seed of the highest quality is costly stuff. So minutely is that of the calce olaria, that the actual cost of producing the finest strain exceeds ten times the weight of the seed in purest gold. Mignonette seed, too, is by no means cheap, yet that of the begonia is at least sixty times dearer; and a liberal allowance for a two dollar packet is measured in a tiny spoon with an outside diameter of three-sixteenths of an inch. And yet in that small spoonful there will be enough seed to produce more than a hundred stately begonia plants!

STRUCK BY THE LIMITED

Mangled Body of Unknown Man Found on Track.

Was Probably Run Down by the Twilight Limited.

The horribly mangled form of an unknown man was found this morning by Antone Johnson, superintendent of the workhouse at Rockmount, on the Omaha tracks near Rockmount.

Johnson was walking the track a short distance from the workhouse this morning at about 10 o'clock, when he came upon the arm of a man covered with blood and severed from the body, above the elbow, and not far away he found the body, covered with blood and mutilated beyond identification. All along the track for some distance were pieces of clothing and pools of blood. It is thought it is the body of some lumberman who, while walking the track to Superior, was run down by the Twilight Limited coming north last night.

The body will be taken to Superior this afternoon.

St. John-Abraham.

News has been received of the wedding of Miss Maragret St. Jorn of Minneapolis, and Sigmund R. Abraham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Abraham of Superior. They were married in Chicago by the Rev. Wilson White of St Mark's church, Thirty-seventh street and Cottage Grove avenue.

Konkel Opens His Campaign.

"Silver Joe" Konkel, Democratic candidate for mayor, opened his campaign with a speech at Billings Park, last evening, before a large crowd. The meeting was presided over by D. C. Dixon, a resident of the Ninth ward. Mr. Konkel expressed assurance that he will be the next mayor of Superior, and outlined his policies as to the conduct of city affairs.

Foresters Will Celebrate.

Superior courts of the Catholic Order of Foresters will hold a celebration of their own May 24, in commemoration of the founding of the order, twenty-five years ago, instead of going to Ashland to join in the North Wisconsin C. O. F. reunion. A committee composed of members from Allouez and Nemadji courts is making the arrangements for the celebration.

Severson Goes to Rock Pile.

Martin Severson, a former poundmaster at the East end, was sentenced to a 30-day term on the rockpile by Judge Parker, yesterday, for larceny. He attempted to pass a bogus check for $5 on a lower Tower avenue clothing merchant. Severson said he told the merchant that the check was probably a bogus one, but the merchant denies any statement of that sort being made by Severson. The charge was changed to larceny, when Severson said he would plead guilty.

The case of the state against John Sant, who is charged with voting illegally at the recent primary election, has been continued until April 3. A new bond in the sum of $500 was furnished by Peter Jacobinas. Assistant District Attorney McKay asked for the continuance, in order that he may investigate some matters connected with the case.

AMERICANS IN WESTERN CANADA

Are Turning Alberta Into a Typical American State.

E. J. Martin of Calgary, Alberta, is at the McKay today to establish an agency here for the Canadian Pacific land, that is being settled by Americans.

The irrigation block, which lies about six miles from the Canadian Rocky foothills, comprises 3,000,000 acres, which is irrigated by ditches that lead from the Bow river. This is the largest irrigation block in the world. Seven hundred men were employed on the ditches at one time, and the company expects to employ an additional number of men this year. Of the present settlers 91 per cent are American farmers. They came from Iowa, Minnesota, California, Colorado, and the Middle Western states. The officials of the company are after more Minnesota farmers, for they like the progress they have achieved on the irrigated land.

Mr. Martin says land is selling at from $18 to $25 an acre. Alfalfa, sugar beets and winter wheat are the three principal crops. Seeding is already under way up there, for the chinook winds, that are wafted westward from the westward from the gulf stream, have taken the touch of winter from the air.

Special trains are run every two weeks from San Francisco and Denver to Calgary, carrying prospective settlers to the irrigation block. It is planned to take a number of Minnesota farmers up into the Alberta country on an investigating junket. Western farmers are given the preference, for they have proven to be the most thrifty settlers.

A number of Hollanders and some Scotch settlers have been brought from across the water. Aside from these, most of the settlers are Americans. The poorer and less thrifty class of foreign immigrants are not encouraged by the company.

Mr. Martin says the Americans gave one of the biggest and most imposing banquets in the history of Alberta upon the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday. Over 250 Americans were present. The enthusiasm was typically American. The Fourth of July celebration was also one of the big events of the province. In fact, Mr. Martin says Western Canada is rapidly becoming almost as much American as it is Canadian.

REPUBLICANS OF INDIANA

Following the adoption of committee reports, Mr. Overstreet delivered the keynote address, followed by speeches by United States Senators Beveridge and Hemenway.

Hemenway for Revision.

Senator Hemenway said in part: "Republican conventions always can be trusted to select good men. Lincoln, Harrison, McKinley and Roosevelt were selected by Republican conventions, and I believe the next Republican convention will turn to Indiana and select as its candidate the Hon. Charles Warren Fairbanks. He has the qualities combined to make a great president, and Indiana will present his name to the national convention with a proud and patriotic hope that he will be nominated. He stands for the wise policies of Theodore Roosevelt; as president he will maintain them.

"There is no question that the people are overwhelmingly in favor of tariff revision. In my judgment the tariff schedules must be revised. We know that today we have a majority in the house of representatives; we know that the senate of the United States is composed of a membership two-thirds of which is Republican, and we know that we have a great Republican president. We know also that we shall have complete control of legislation from the day after election in November until March 4, 1909—four months. This is ample time to revise the tariff, while we know that we have absolute control, and I will earnestly urge that an extra session of congress be called immediately after the election, for the purpose of revising the tariff."

Beveridge Speaks.

Senator Beveridge said, in part: "We must revise the Sherman law. It is nearly twenty years old in fact and a century old in spirit. It penalizes dishonest combination, and that is right; but also it manacles honest business, and that is wrong. Business is the name for the trade activities of the people. Free its hands, unshackle its feet. Only upon the dishonest let the ball and chain be locked. Strike only that business which pilfers from the people; but help all business that serves the people. Our watchword is justice. For the pirates of business the yardarm or the plank; but for honest business the open seas and welcoming ports.

"The tariff must be revised immediately after the presidential election. To revise it now would lock up business for months of disaster and doubt. Two years ago some of us began this fight. We were met with arrogance from those who think that the world does not move; from interests whom the tariff properly protected when it was made, but whom changed conditions now enable to act like highwaymen to other honest interests; from a purchased press owned by gluttonous corporations and by men whose wealth flowed from obsolete schedules. But success is now in sight, and, as Indiana led the first charge in this battle, so let Indiana lead the last charge that crowns it with victory.

"And let that revision be honest and businesslike. Let experts at once begin the work of finding out the facts and making classifications. The man who does not want experts to find out the facts does not want the facts found out. Our classifications are a generation old. They are so out of date that three hundred thousand contests have been decided to find out in what class articles really belonged. Let us go to the people not only promising revision, but saying to them that we are already at work gathering all the data upon which congress can act with knowledge and wisdom and without delay."

DIDN'T STEAL THE KIMONA

Sam Brooks Says He Acted as Agent for Dealer.

Sam Brooks, alias Albert "Tug" Wilson, proved to the satisfaction of Judge Cutting, in municipal court, yesterday afternoon, that he hadn't stolen a kimona from A. Kallaian, a West First street fancy goods dealer, March 19. After being discharged on the charge, Brooks was rearrested on another charge of petit larceny. He was arraigned and pleaded not guilty, his hearing being set for tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

It was charged that Brooks had gone to Kallaian's store and asked to see some kimonas. He picked out one worth $10, but said he hadn't the money with which to pay for it. Kallaian says he sent a man with Brooks to get the money, giving him five kimonas, but when the men returned, there were only four. It was charged Brooks had stolen one of the articles and sold it for $2.

Brooks put up the plea that he acted as the agent for Kallaian in disposing of the goods. His story was supported by the man who had accompanied him and he was discharged. He failed to account for the $2 he received for the charge of appropriating that to his own use. It is said that he will now disclaim having been Kallaian's agent and collected the money as such.

Brooks left the city after the affair and was arrested in Minneapolis. He is well known to the police, and is said to have been picked up on different occasions on suspicion.

SOME TRUTH IN CHARGES

Every Effort is Made to Distinguish Between Them.

While the Bethel authorities admit that there may be some truth in the charges that there are many tramps and professional beggars in the "bread line," they claim that the fact that there are some undesirable characters in the line should not prevent the deserving cases being cared for.

While it is true that the line has been steadily growing, it is also claimed that this is not due to the fact that the professional tramps are flocking to the city, but because of the breaking up of the lumber camps, and the influx of hundreds of men to the city. Woodsmen have been flocking in by the hundreds during the last two or three weeks. Many of them have but little money left, owing to the low wages paid during the winter, and the uncertainty of the work. Their money is gone in a few days, and they are unable to ship out again.

Miss Fraser of the Bethel was this morning questioned regarding the statements made by Chief Troyer and Mayor Haven, as quoted in the morning paper.

"We frequently remain here until 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning making sandwiches for these men," said Miss Fraser. 'You don't suppose we would do that if we thought they were a lot of tramps. I have no doubt there are many tramps among them, but that shouldn't keep us from giving food to those who are hungry and deserving. We endeavor to find out those who are unwilling to work, and no man of this class would be fed here if we knew it.

"All they get here is two cups of coffee and two sandwiches made of a bun and a piece of ham or an egg. It is enough to keep them from starving, and that is about all. It is difficult sometimes to know who are the deserving men and who are not, but we try to distinguish between them."

Since the bread line was first organized there have been many who claimed that it was unnecessary and that it was calculated to encourage idleness. There were many others who claimed that many of the men were actually in want and were unable to get work. It is a difficult and almost impossible matter to determine exactly how many of the men are entitled to assistance, but the stand the Bethel authorities take is that they would rather be imposed upon by some tramps than to risk turning away some deserving men.

The employment agents of the city have contended all along that the bread line did more harm than good, although they have readily admitted that a certain number of the men thus fed on charity were deserving. It is a fact that many of the agencies hired, or tried to hire, men from the line, and they claim that in almost every instance their efforts in this direction resulted in disappointment.

They charge that in most cases the men refused to work at all unless offered more than the average wage now being paid for common labor, and that where the positions were accepted under conditions offered, the men were so unsatisfactory as to make their discharge necessary. There were, perhaps, a few exceptions, but employment agents state that as a rule men secured from the bread line were too lazy to give adequate services for the wages paid.

PAPER MADE FROM PEAT.

J. Cooke Mills in the World Today: Peat, that black, spongy, fibrous material from the bogs, which has proved since the early ages one of the world's principal fuel agencies, and which scientists say is but coal in the making, has at last been turned into other channels of successful manufacture. The peat bog furnishes the latest substitute for wood in the making of wrapping paper and box board, and in Michigan the first peat paper mill in all the world is producing a superior quality of those grades on a commercial scale. It has been demonstrated that a ton of paper, worth from $25 to $30, can be made from peat at a total cost of a little more than $8, while the usual grade of strawboard costs nearly $20 to produce. This low cost is due, of course, in a large measure to the cheapness of the raw material and the ease with which it is obtained, but it is also due to the simple and quick process by which it is turned into marketable board. The entire operations, from the peat in the bog to finished product, cut, wrapped in bundles and loaded in cars, are all accomplished in two hours.

The finished product is superior to the cardboard made from straw or wood pulp in several ways. The passing of the peat-pulp over the hot rolls in the process of manufacture brings to the surface of the paper the natural oil of the peat, and makes the surface of the finished product waterproof and antiseptic. Beside this advantage, it is lacking in the odor which strawboard or wood-pulp paper possesses, and is extremely tough. The product is used principally for cartons by makers of breakfast foods, and for this purpose it is unexcelled. It is also valuable for making boxes and bags for storing furs and woolen articles, as it is never attacked by moths.

On account of the increasing cost of print paper, this quality will doubtless soon be made from peat. All that is required beyond the present process is a bleaching to reduce the brown paper to the desired whiteness.

A TWO-DOLLAR-A-DAY MAN.

A writer in the American Magazine says:

"One of your contributors wonders what in the world a $2-a-day man and his wife have to eat. I am the wife of a $2 man, and I guess the secret of our being able to have decent food is the fact that we don't have to be stylish. Our 'fine laundry' is done at home. I do my own sewing, and I can dress decently on $30 a year, maybe less. Our recreations and amusements are Sunday evening church, a good weekly paper, one of the magazines, and in summer an inexpensive day in the country now and then.

"Now as to food. We feel the pinch of these high prices. We don't use butter and eggs as we used to, and it is a great day when we have a good steak or a chicken. Soups and stews with home-made bread and rolls (I can make good bread, both brown and white), are our mainstay, and I vary the chief meal of the day with some kind of vegetable, salad or fruit, and our fruit in winter means dried peaches, prunes and apples. These when cooked as they ought to be are very excellent. My mother was a good cook, and she brought me up to cook well and to make the best of things. In these hard times I can make very good cake and cookies without eggs (gingerbread is always best without them.) And a pumpkin pie or custard made with one egg and two teaspoonfuls of cornstarch are good enough even for a bank teller. Good clear brown sugar melted to syrup and flavored with a little ginger is almost as good as honey on pancakes and biscuits, and saves butter. Add the juice of half a lemon, and it makes a good sauce for a cottage pudding which costs about 5 or 6 cents if made with a half cup of currants or raisins. Beans, rice, canned tomatoes and corn, salt fish, freshened and broiled, potatoes in various ways, and occasional bits of beef or mutton—all these are within our means.

"We are an elderly couple with only one child, a son living in Dakota. He has his own family, and can send us only a little remembrance at Christmas. If we had three or four children to feed and clothe, I suppose the soup would be thinner and the bits of meat smaller, but what we had would be clean and well cooked, and I would do plain sewing or washing to help out."

THE COST OF IMPURE WATER.

J. C. William Greth, in The Engineering Magazine: A steam plant owner will install boilers of the most improved design with mechanical stokers, damper, and feed water regulators, install feed water heaters and economizers and the most economical engine obtainable; but the purity of the water—the most essential factor which enters into the cost of producing power—is often totally neglected, and as a result of using an impure feed water, only a partial economy can be effected in the operation of the entire plant. The steam boiler is the heart of the steam plant; from it extend the arteries conducting the vital fluid which sustains the activities of the whole plant, and upon its successful operation depends to a great extent the economy of the entire mechanical system. The limit of possible economy is much more distant in boiler than in engine practice, and the engineers of the future are likely to be employed more with the problem of conveying a larger number of heat units from the fuel to the water than with the problem of making a pound of steam develop more foot pounds of work. The first essential in economy of boiler operation is that the water, the medium for transforming the energy of the fuel into power, should be of such a quality that it will not interfere with utilizing the greatest number of heat units in every pound of fuel, at a minimum cost of boiler maintenance.

COFFEE FOR ASTHMA.

Family Doctor: Coffee is a very excellent remedy for asthma. Those who do not know how to cut short their attacks and have not tried coffee should do so by all means. It often succeeds admirably when almost everything else has failed. There are one or two little points to be attended to in taking coffee for asthma.

In the first place, it should be very strong—in fact, perfectly black. Weak coffee does more harm than good. If made very strong much of it need not be taken; a large quantity is a positive disadvantage, for it is less rapidly absorbed and only distends the stomach. Then it should be given without sugar or milk, pure "cafe noir." It should be given on an empty stomach, for when taken on a full stomach it often does harm by putting a stop to the process of digestion.

Spring Humors

Impure or effete matters accumulated in the blood during the winter cause in the spring such disfiguring and painful troubles as boils, pimples, and other eruptions, also weakness, loss of appetite, that tired feeling.

The best medicine to take is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which thoroughly cleanses the blood, and effects permanent cures by giving healthy functional activity to the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and skin.

Sarsatabs are Hood's Sarsaparilla in chocolated tablet form. They have identically the same curative properties as the liquid form, besides accuracy of dose, convenience, economy, no loss by evaporation, breakage, or leakage. 50, of druggists or promptly of us by mail.

C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. L. Bickford, Gossville, N. H., says: "Every spring I was completely prostrated, run down, from dyspepsia and that tired feeling. But I have found Hood's Sarsaparilla helps me from the first dose, completely restores good health and strength."

BARBERS STAND PAT

Ignore Order to Report for Work at 7 A. M.

Will Continue to Report at 7:30 Until Discharged.

Every barber shop in the city is open for business today, and, so far as can be learned, full crews are employed, except in one instance. Danger of a strike is thought to have been averted.

Employers in all the leading shops of the city notified their men yesterday that they would be expected to report for duty at 7 o'clock this morning instead of at 7:30 o'clock, the usual hour. It is understood that the Spalding was the only shop which told its men to come at 7 o'clock or not to come at all. The only one of the Spalding men on duty today is the foreman and part owner.

Men employed in the other shops of the city smiled when they heard the order to report for duty at 7 o'clock, and this morning reported at the old hour of 7:30. They were not denied admittance to the shops, and went to work as usual. They say they will continue to go to work at 7:30, despite orders to the contrary, until they are discharged. They assert that nothing but an increase in wages will induce them to report at 7 o'clock. They have to work until 7 o'clock in the evening, and until 11 o'clock Saturday nights, and consider that long enough.

It is believed the boss barbers will not insist upon their men coming to work at the earlier hour, in the face of opposition that has arisen, although there is a report around to the effect that some of them intend getting busy immediately hiring barbers in other cities, intending to bring them to Duluth and discharge help now employed upon their arrival. The bosses have nothing to say for publication, further than that their shops will remain open for business, and that there will be no trouble.

WARNER'S BOOKS SHOW SHORTAGE

Former Oil Inspector Called in by Governor to Explain.

St. Paul, Minn., April 1.—Fenton G. Warner of St. Paul, state oil inspector during 1903 and 1904, was called to the office of the state public examiner yesterday to explain a shortage in the department for those years.

The examiners have found that Warner's receipts from inspection fees did not tally with the amounts paid in each month to the state treasurer. The ground has not all been covered and the exact amount of the shortage is not known, but it will be several thousand dollars. It may show up a larger amount for Warner's two years than has been found against McDermott for nearly three years of collections.

It was supposed that Warner's records had been destroyed, but the examiner secured all the records that were essential, the books showing receipts of the Minneapolis department, which included both Hennepin and Ramsay counties. Here is where all the trouble was located, and affairs were found badly mixed.

These original enteries do not agree with Warner's reports to the state treasurer, and he was "on the carpet" yesterday to explain the discrepancies.

Enough has been secured from the Standard Oil records, it is claimed, to corroborate the other facts and make the case strong.

Over $5,000, Says Schaefer.

"The report is not completed yet" said Public Examiner Schaefer, after a conference with Governor Johnson. "I am expecting Mr. Warner for a conference, and he will have an opportunity to explain some things. The amount of the discrepancy is not possile to give exactly, but it appears that it will be at least $5,000."

W. C. Heilbron, the examiner, who has been doing the work, said:

"I have not covered all the ground yet, and cannot say what my final report will be. I cannot make it today. The best I could do would be to make a partial report."

If a case is found against Warner, he will have to refund or stand a civil suit for the amount against himself and his bondsmen. As far as criminal prosecution is concerned, however, he is saved by the statute of limitations.

Further inquiry into both the Warner and McDermott administrations will be taken up by George W. Peterson, assistant attorney general, as soon as the pending report on Warner is turned in.

THEY GROW

Good Humor and Cheerfulness From Right Food.

Cheerfulness is like sunlight. It dispels the clouds from the mind as sunlight chases away the shadows of night.

Anything that interferes with good health is apt to keep cheerfulness and good humor in the background. A Washington lady found that letting coffee alone made things bright for her. She writes:

"Four years ago I was practically given up by my doctor and was not expected to live long. My nervous system was in a bad condition.

"But I was young and did not want to die so I began to look about for the cause of my chronic trouble. I used to have nervous spells which would exhaust me and after each spell it would take me days before I could sit up in a chair.

"I became convinced my trouble was caused by coffee. I decided to stop it and bought some Postum.

"The first cup, which I made according to directions, had a soothing effect on my nerves and I liked the taste. For a time I nearly lived on Postum and ate little food besides. I am today a healthy woman.

"My family and relatives wonder if I am the same person I was four years ago, when I could do no work on account of nervousness. Now I am doing my own housework, take care of two babies—one twenty, the other two months old. I am so busy that I hardly get time to write a letter, yet I do it all with the cheerfulness and good humor that comes from enjoying good health.

"I tell my friends it is to Postum I owe my life today."

WOMAN REVIVES

When About to be Buried and Will Live.

Lake City, Iowa, April 1.—Mrs. W. R. Sherwood, aged 25, of Auburn, Iowa, came back to life hours after being laid out for burial and just before her body was to have been embalmed. At 3 a. m. watchers heard sounds in the room and rushed in just in time to see her arise with a shriek. She will recover.

BEMIDJI IS GOING AFTER NEW U. S. FISH HATCHERY.

Bemidji, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bemidji will make a determined effort to have the government fish culture station, provided for in a bill recently introduced in congress by Senator Nelson located in this, or immediate vicinity.

According to the provisions of Senator Nelson's bill, there will be appropriated by the federal government the sum of $25,000 for the erection of a fish culture station in Minnesota, the precise location of which will be determined by the United States fish commissioner.

Bemidji cannot be excelled as an advantageous location for the proposed fish culture station. There are all of the natural environments for the raising and propogation of fish of every variety. There is both spring and other waters here, and for that matter there is no better water conditions to be found anywhere in the entire state than abound all around us.

Being close to Red lake, the largest body of fresh water in the state which is fed by all streams in this locality running in a northerly direction, the propogation of fish would be an easy matter. Most excellent grounds could be secured and there is no doubt but that this city can put forth inducements worthy of the affirmative consideration of the federal fish commission.

SENATOR ARRESTED.

Jefferson Davis Involved in Row With Attorney at Little Rock.

Little Rock, Ark., April 1.—United States Senator Jefferson Davis and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Thomas Helm became involved in an altercation on the street here yesterday. Helm, it is said, struck Davis and the latter went into his office. Davis soon reappeared and bystanders claim that he was looking for Helm. Helm says that Davis made an insulting remark to him which he resented with several blows. Davis was arrested for carrying concealed weapons.

Later Senator Davis made the following statement: "Helm attacked me from the rear as I was going to my office, using a loaded bat, which was attached to his wrist by thongs of leather. This is an attack such as I have warned the people of Arkansas would be made by political rings of Little Rock to further their desires. Helm simply acted under instructions of his superior."

Senator Davis, it is alleged, charged in the recent campaign that Helm received $1,000 when Charles Hartley of Albany, Ind., was robbed here last year of $6,000.

MISTAKE IN VERBIAGE FAVORS MILLING COMPANY.

Thief River Falls, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The case of the city of Thief River Falls against the Red Lake Falls Milling company was decided by Judge Watts in the district court of Red Lake county in favor of the Milling company. This means that the elevator that was moved into the city fire limits last November must be allowed to remain where it now stands, at least, until Judge Watts' decision is overruled by the supreme court. The judge based his opinion on the failure of the city ordinance to prohibit the removal into the fire limits of a building constructed outside the same, holding that the word "erect" did not cover such removal. It was considered that had the ordinance purposed prohibiting such action that the word "removal" would have been inserted in the law.

TAKES FIVE MINUTES TO CURE YOUR INDIGESTION

Read Why Nothing Will Upset Your Stomach or Remain Undigested if You Eat Diapepsin Afterwards.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will take one 22-grain Triangule of Diapepsin after eating.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or Stomach gas, which causes Belching, Dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea, Indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Biliousness, Heartburn, Water brash, Pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective Diapepsin is used. No matter what you think your trouble—call it by any name you choose—it is certain that the real cause is fermentation of the food you eat. All else are merely symptoms or the result of this cause. For all these things you will find a sure cure in Diapepsin, and one 22-grain Triangule, taken after your next meal, will prove this. Diapepsin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. Each triangule will digest 3,000 grains of food and leave nothing to ferment or sour. Any good pharmacy here can supply these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, which have the complete formula printed thereon to show just what you are taking, and that it is no more harmful than candy.

Start taking Diapepsin today, and by tomorrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong Stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and Gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or other assistance.

WE REPEAT

That if a poor watch is a poor investment, a good watch is a good investment. We have never sold the cheap "bargain counter" watches, not because of any "foolish" reason, but for the very good reason that we know there is no money in them. We have a reputation to sustain, and every one we would sell would be the making one certain enemy, and that would make many more. The result would do us more harm than ten times the profit in the watch. We make a reasonable profit in good, standard watches, and every purchaser is a life-long advertisement. Don't you think we have it figured out about right?

LONG TIME COMING.

Young Girl Eighteen Months Making Journey Here.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 1.—Madeline Schowe, aged 18 years, has arrived in Grand Forks, after being a year and seven months in making a trip from Russia to Grand Forks. She was detained in Germany for a time on account of an ailment of the eyes, but finally reached Baltimore. There she was kept in a hospital and her father was obliged to pay $30 a month for her treatment, or she would have been deported. Her eyes passed examination just in time, for Schowe's funds were exhausted. Friends raised money to pay her last month's hospital expenses and fare to Grand Forks and she is now with relatives.

BODY CUT TO PIECES.

Delano, Minn., April 1.—The third fatal accident in a few weeks on the Great Northern tracks in this place occurred Monday night, when Robert Kittock, a young man living here, was cut to pieces by a fast extra train. It is supposed that Kittock was asleep between the rails. The top of his head was cut off by the wheels and both legs were severed. The mutilated body was carried several rods along the track.

FARMER BREAKS NECK FALLS OFF LOAD OF HAY.

Bagley, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. S. Fletcher, a prominent farmer and socialist, living in the town of Nora, Clearwater county, fell from a load of hay at his home Monday forenoon, and was instantly killed, his neck being broken by the fall. Fletcher was 60 years of age.

COMPANY PAYS SHARE.

Fargo, N. D., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—City Treasurer Mitchell received a big check Monday from the Northern Pacific Railroad company. The amount was $47,102.79, and was in payment of the company's share of the new Front street paving, completed last fall.

JUDGE SANBORN RETURNS.

St. Paul, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Sanborn of the United States circuit court returned to the city yesterday after an absence of several months in St. Louis, where he has been sitting as one of the judges in the December term of court for that district.

MME. SEMBRICH IN CONCERT

Brilliant Audience Hears Noted Singer at Methodist Church.

Mme. Marcella Sembrich was presented at the First Methodist church, last evening in concert under the auspices of the Duluth Oratorio society, and a large audience was present to greet the great soprano. The assisting artists were Ellison Van Hoose, tenor, and M. de Zadora, pianist.

The evening was, of course, dominated by Mme. Sembrich, and throughout the program, from her first aria, "Ah! fors' e lui," from "Traviata," to the concluding passages of the Strauss song, "Voce di primavera," the wonderful execution, the consummate ease and brilliance and finish of the singer were most satisfying. Mme. Sembrich also sang a group of five songs, including "Farelle," by Schubert, and the Schumann "Widmung," that were exquisitely rendered. She responded to an enthusiastic encore, singing, "Hark! Hark! the Lark." In the duo from "La Boheme," Mme. Sembrich and Mr. Van Hoose shared in one of the most enthusiastic ovations of the evening. At the conclusion of her last number, Mme. Sembrich was repeatedly recalled, and she sang again, choosing "The Last Rose of Summer" as her farewell word to the audience.

Mr. Van Hoose was heard in the romance, "Plus Balanche," from "The Hugenots," and a group of songs as well as the duo with Mme. Sembrich, and his interpretations were artistic and thoroughly pleasing. His voice throughout its ranges is smooth and the tone pure and well controlled.

M. Zadora, who played the accompaniments in a satisfying and thoroughly adequate manner, also played two solo numbers, Chopin Ballade and an etude by Liapounow, opening the program, and a Liszt Valse Caprice on motives from "Lucia." M. Zadora responded to an encore with a Moscowski number.

The audience gathered was a large and appreciative one; the concert is another brilliant musical event added to the list afforded Duluth music lovers through the efforts of the Oratorio society.

WHERE TO GO TONIGHT.

LYCEUM—Viola Allen in "Irene Wycherley."
METROPOLITAN—Burlesque.

"IRENE WYCHERLEY."

Viola Allen and Notable Cast in an Absorbing Drama.

THE CAST.

Sir Peter Wycherley.....Grant Stewart
Philip Wycherley.....Edwin Arden
Harry Chesterton.....Paul McAllister
Charles Summers.....John Glendinning
Harris.....Hodgson Taylor
Lady Wycherley.....Nellie Thorne
Lily Summers.....Mrs. San Sothern
Linda Hetheridge.....Evelyn Loomis
Hilda Preston.....Norah Lamison
Carrie Hardinge.....Mrs. Ben Webster
Maid.....D. Tim Watson
Irene Wycherley.....Miss Allen

Whatever else may be said of "Irene Wycherley," Anthony P. Wharton's drama, in which Viola Allen appeared at the Lyceum last evening, nobody will claim that it is not interesting—intensely, compellingly so. There is nothing startlingly new in the material used for the plot, but the realistic manner in which the plot is developed makes it a tense, absorbing drama.

Unlike the usual so-called "problem" play, the curtain leaves the central figures of the plot with some other alternative than suicide or the madhouse. In fact everything was finally made easy for them by the author, assisted by a gentleman hailing from Australia, created for the purpose.

Such a cast as Miss Allen has to support her could make a dramatization of the dictionary appear interesting. Such names as those of Marie Wainwright, Mrs. Sam Southern, Grant Stewart and Edwin Arden are not often seen in one cast.

Of Miss Allen's work it is difficult to see where there could be any criticism. It is a different Viola Allen from the one American audiences have come to know during the last few years.

Instead of the Viola of "Twelfth Night," the spectators see an exquisitely gowned, magnetic, charming woman of today. She is an artist to her finger tips, and every note of her rich voice and every expression of her mobile face is a delight.

Edwin Arden, known for his work in "Told in the Hills," does some splendid work in the role of her husband, Philip Wycherley. His picture of the dissolute, degraded brute of a man, who finds himself cut off from his old life by the gunshot which blinded him, is almost too vivid to be pleasant. The disgust aroused by Mr. Arden's portrayal is a tribute to his art at least.

Marie Wainwright, a former Shakespearian favorite, was given an enthusiastic reception and evidently had many old friends among the spectators. Nellie Thorne, who was the last seen in Duluth in "Man and Superman" had a clever bit as the rather "horsey" Muriel, and Mrs. Sam Sothern has a rather trying role as Lily Summers, the woman whose easy morals were the cause of most of the unpleasant situations in the plot.

The author seems to have sacrificed his hero for the benefit of the heroine, and the role of Harry Chesterton is a rather colorless one. The young man is a kind of passive spectator in most of the strong scenes of the play, and spends most of his time dealing out silent sympathy to the object of his devotion. Paul McAllister makes the most of this part, however. John Glendenning is very satisfying as Charles Summers, the man from Australia, "where life is cheap."

It is seldom that Duluth theater-goers have the opportunity of seeing such an all-star cast, and it is one that should not be missed. The play will be repeated tonight.

Thelma.

The Mack-Leone players are making preparations for the production of "Thelma," which will be presented for three nights and a matinee at the Lyceum, beginning tomorrow evening. The production, it is claimed, will be one of the heaviest yet attempted by the company.

The Burlesquers.

Members of Miner's Bohemians company at the Metropolitan this week are making great preparations for the chorus girls' contest, which will be held tomorrow evening in addition to the regular performance. Manager Longstreet has offered good prizes and nearly every girl in the company has signified a desire to enter the tournament. Some interesting stunts are projected. Jean McNabb, fresh from the heather, will give an imitation of Harry Lander, the famous Scotch monologist, and Viola Allen, not Leibler's star but another Viola, will imitate George M. Cohan and Anna Held. Three girls have been rehearsing imitations of Eddie Foy all the week. Friday night will be amateurs' night at the "Met."

AN UNKNOWN REPUBLIC.

John Randolph in The World Today: Andorra is a republic under the joint suzerainty of France and Spain. The patriarchs or heads of families elect representatives who go down to the capitol building in the village of Andorra and make the laws. This capitol building, dating from 1580 and of solid granite, embodies something of the idea of our department stores in the United States. It is several different things all in one. The basement contains the prison, the only one in the country, and when I was there it showed no signs of having been inhabited for a long time. The basement also contains stabling room for the steeds of the lawmakers. I use the term "steeds" because I do not know whether they ride in on horses, mules or donkeys. I should not be surprised if often all three classes of animals were represented.

The second floor contains the village school, a small chapel and the council chamber, which is the headquarters of all branches of the government, legislative, executive and judicial. Locked up in an old cupboard in this room are the library and archives of the nation. The only door entering the government building is secured by an immense lock, to turn which they use a key at least a foot in length. The archive cupboard is secured by six locks. Andorra is subdivided into six communes or parishes, and each commune has a lock and key of its own on the national archives. There is thus no chance of getting at the archives until all six sections of the country are represented in the council chamber. The Andorrans are proud of the contents of this cupboard, and well they may be. Among other treasures, it contains their first charter of independence granted their forefathers over 1,200 years ago by that great emperor and general, Charlemagne.

JEFFREY BROS.

AN UNPLEASANT MOTHER.

Hissing like a sullen geyser, the great puma mother crouched with flaming eyes. Ridge of her tawny back brushed up in rage, tail a-switch, steel sinews rigid beneath soft skin, she glared at her four pups in the cage corner.

A fluffy ball of spotted fur sprawled on unsteady legs across toward her, says a writer in the Travel Magazine. Out shot a mighty forearm; the baby was hurled suddenly back among his cowering brothers and sisters.

"Nasty temper," I remarked to the keeper. "Has she been long like that?"

"Started this forenoon," he shook his head in anxiety. "I don't like it. I'll have to separate them, I fear."

The unnatural mother commenced pacing her prison, sparring viciously at her offspring in passing. Three huddled together in a pitiful heap, but one stood up and defied her.

A jungle terror in miniature, his tiny rage was magnificent. Tensely alert before his trembling mates, he shifted warily to meet each blow, dodging, spitting, striking out an awkward paw at the great brusts.

"They don't turn on their pups often. Only knew it once before. You notice, mein Herr, her claws are not out when she strikes. That may come—then we will lose some promising babies here." The young German keeper was greatly distressed.

I returned in the morning to see how the affair had progressed. Entering the Frankfurt Hhiergarten, I found the lion house. My friend stood in the empty corridor looking into the cage. sleek forms shifted restlessly on every side, a pale light came from above, the place was closed with a heavy odor.

He greeted me mournfully.

"The little beggar was too spirited. She got him last night. Just a second in her jaws and the taxidermist won't attempt to stuff the skin."

The remaining puppies peered wonderingly at us from an adjoining cage, the murderess paced in silence, but her eyes were alive with a strange, fascinating light.

FASHIONABLE JEWELERS

DIAMOND BUYING LOGIC.

Prices of Diamonds are regulated by the law of supply and demand. A purchaser of diamonds in large quantities receives more favorable prices than does the small buyer.

Because we are the largest dealers in Diamonds in Duluth the importers, recognizing the great value of our purchases, give us the lowest possible prices.

In turn, our prices are lower than those of jewelers so situated that they use but a few stones. We have anticipated the demand for diamonds and have a matchless array of stones at all weights.

A ONE MAN SOCIETY.

James R. Bradwell, who recently died in Chicago, was an ardent Abolitionist at the time of the war. His most extraordinary exploit, as described in the Record-Herald, was the launching of an organization which he called the Home Defense association, which, as a matter of fact, was composed of Mr. Bradwell and no one else.

He used the name of the association for the purpose of forcing lukewarm supporters of the Union cause into open adherence. Whenever he heard of a Copperhead, the judge would write him in the association's name, signing himself secrtary, and command the man to come in and take the oath of allegiance. The person receiving the letter would not know that the association was a mere figment of Judge Bradwell's imagination and would respond.

In instances in which the Copperhead displayed signs of stubbornness Judge Bradwell would communicate with him again telling him that dire penalties would be the result of failure to take the oath of allegiance.

On one occasion a prominent merchant got a letter of warning from the association and immediately came to see Judge Bradwell. He begged the jurist to state what would be the nature of the penalty for failure to comply with the demands of the letter.

"I have no idea what this powerful association will do with you," answered Judge Bradwell with much solemnity. "They may tar and feather you; they may burn your home or destroy your business. In any event your life and liberty are in peril if you refuse to take the oath."

"But, judge," said the frightened merchant, "it will be a serious reflection on my character were it known that I was forced to come here and take the oath. Let me see some of the other officers and persuade them to make me an exception."

"None of the officers," replied the judge, with much dignity, "except the secretary, is ever known to the world, unless it becomes necessary for the association to enforce its decree. There is no choice but for you to take the oath or suffer the consequences."

Whereupon the merchant, convinced that he was in dire peril from this mysterious organization, held up his hand and took the oath.

NOT A SOLOIST.

Success Magazine: The late Theodore Thomas was rehearsing the Chicago orchestra on the stage of the Auditorium theater. He was disturbed by the whistling of Albert Burridge, the well known scene painter, who was at work in the loft above the stage. A few minutes later Mr. Thomas' librarian appeared on the "bridge" where Mr. Burridge, merrilly whistling, was at work.

"Mr. Thomas' compliments," said the librarian, "and he requests me to state that if Mr. Burridge wishes to whistle, he will be glad to discontinue his rehearsal."

To which Mr. Burridge replied suavely: "Mr. Burridge's compliments to Mr. Thomas; and please inform Mr. Thomas that if Mr. Burridge can not whistle with the orchestra, he won't whistle at all."

Court Directs a Verdict.

A directed verdict in favor of Rode Stokich, the defendant in a suit started by Simon & Forncrook, was ordered yesterday afternoon by Judge Dibell. The plaintiffs sued Stokich for $157, alleged to be due them on orders for meat. The case was first tried in the municipal court at Eveleth, and was brought to the district court on an appeal.

Shepeck Placed on Trial.

Jack Shepeck of Virginia was placed on trial in Judge Dibell's room yesterday afternoon, charged with running a blind pig. It is claimed that he sold ten 1-quart bottles of beer to a certain person Dec. 17 last at 10 cents per bottle.

O'Donnell Wins Insurance Case.

A jury in Judge Cant' room yesterday afternoon decided that John O'Donnell need not pay W. J. Power a $54 premium for some fire insurance. Mr. Power claimed that after Mr. O'Donnell had taken out the policy, he refused to accept it. Mr. O'Donnell claimed that he ordered the policy cancelled before it was delivered to him.

Claims Wife in Fault.

George E. Kelly, who has filed in the district court an answer to the complaint in the divorce proceedings instituted by Katherine A. Kelly, claims that he did not desert his family, but that his wife drove him out of the house and has ever since refused to take him back. Kelly claims that he and Mrs. Kelly had trouble over their daughter, resulting in the separation. He claims that he has ordered a grocer to supply the family with any goods they need at his expense, and has often asked for permission to go home. Kelly claims that he is not permitted to see his children except as he may meet them on the street. He wishes the application for a divorce denied.

Slapped His Landlady.

Louis Bokerich was fined $20 and costs in municipal court yesterday afternoon, with the option of thirty days in jail, for striking Mary Barkovich, his boarding mistress. Bokerich and the landlady had a few words at the breakfast table a few days ago and Bokerich slapped her.

Mrs. Garland Dies.

Mrs. William Garland, 35 years of age, died at St. Luke's hospital today. Her husband survives her. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p. m., from 422 East First street. Rev. Dr. Rice will officiate.

Fell From Street Car.

John Keenan, 1030 West First street, fell while alighting from a car at the corner of Fourth avenue west and Superior street last night. He fell on the right side of his head and was rendered unconscious. He was taken to St. Luke's hospital, but his injuries are not serious.

Lincoln Parks Win.

The Lincoln Park roller polo team defeated the Pease team of Superior at the Lincoln Park rink last night by a score of 8 to 3. The Lincoln Park boys had it all over their opponents from across the bay.

Wanted Cheap Ticket.

Siever Olson, a woodsman, tried to beat down the ticket sellers at the union depot this afternoon. He insisted that he should be able to purchase a ticket for Minneapolis for $1.05. He tendered that amount and demanded a ticket three times within an hour, and the special officer was finally summoned to eject him.

"Pigger" Convicted.

After deliberating but a few moments, the jury in the district court this afternoon returned a verdict of guilty against Jack Shepeck, charged with blind pigging.

Land Office Report.

Inspector in Charge William H. Dean of the local United States immigration office today examined Joseph Desmond, an insane Austrian confined in the county jail, on a warrant of arrest issued with a view to the man's deportation. Desmond landed at New York less than two years ago. The order of deportation will probably come along within a period of two weeks.

May Be Deported.

The total receipts of the Duluth United States land office during the month ending yesterday were $32,410.38, according to the report of Receiver Morrison. Of this amount, $32,009.42 came from the sale of public lands, and $400.96 from Indian land sales.

Wants an Accounting.

The case of Harry Luery against Jacob Soblotsky was begun before Judge Dibell this afternoon in the district court. Luery asks for an accounting of the partnership he claims existed between himself and Soblotsky in the clothing business. Soblotsky claims that no partnership existed, and that Luery was simply employed as a clerk.

Rock Trial Postponed.

William Rock, when brought up for his hearing this afternoon, asked for a jury trial and the case was set for Tuesday, April 7. Rock was arrested with Minnie Hendricks, with whom his wife claims he was living only a few blocks from his own home.

Juniors Elect Captains.

The junior class at the high school held a meeting this afternoon and elected George Ostergren captain of the baseball team and David Duncan captain of the track team.

Rosendahl Relinquishes Release.

Martin Rosendahl, the local stock broker, who recently secured a long term lease on the Dodge block, between Third avenue west, between First alley and the Kitchi Gammi building, and has linquished the same to N. J. Upham & Co., a real estate firm that is now occupying one of the offices in the building. The building will be remodelled.

Says Husband Scratched Her.

Charging her husband with habitual drunkenness and cruel and inhuman treatment, Maria Christina Gustafson has begun divorce proceedings in the district court against Adolph Wilhelm Gustafson. Mrs. Gustafson is 46 years old and her husband is 49 years old. They were married in Sweden in January, 1890, and have no children. Mrs. Gustafson claims that her husband showed her a revolver and threatened to kill her, that he pinched her until her arms were blue and swollen, and on certain occasions scratched her. John Jenswold, Jr., is her attorney.

Case Settled and Dismissed.

The personal injury case of Charles Abrahamson against the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Railway company, was dismissed from the district court this morning by stipulation of the parties, a settlement having been reached.

Will Appeal Case.

Messner Brothers, against whom a verdict was returned in favor of Vito Barberi, have filed a notice of an appeal to the supreme court from the district court order, denying the firm's motion for a new trial.

Cold Weather Predicted.

Forecaster Richardson says the weather will be much colder tonight. He looks to see the thermometer register as low as 5 or 10 degrees above zero. It will begin to warm up Thursday afternoon.

Cerutti Found Insane.

Toni Cerutti, aged 24 years, who was brought down from the range a few days ago, was found to be insane, after an examination in the probate court yesterday afternoon. Cerutti is said to have attempted suicide by taking poison. He will be committed to the state hospital.

The World's Best Spring Tonic and Stimulant

Doctors of All Schools Agree That the Best Tonic-Stimulant to Build Up the System, Run Down and Enfeebled by the Long Strain of Winter, and to Drive Out Spring Fever and Malaria is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

We take the liberty of publishing a few of the thousands of letters received from leading doctors throughout America extolling the merits of this great Spring tonic and invigorator.

Effective Stimulant

In a recent letter A. J. Park, A. M., M. D., of 530 E. 50th St., Chicago, Ill., wrote: "I am too busy to write my opinion, experience and results of the ministration of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey to weak, feeble and debilitated patients, but I will repeat emphatically and pointedly, my confidence in the purity and remedial excellency of your Malt Whiskey. It is a first-class and most effective stimulant, and meets every indication where is a stimulant is needed.

"I will always greet Mr. Duffy with a smile and a cordial reception from a grateful recognition of his transcendent merits."

Wholesome Tonic Stimulant

C. A. Sheridan, M. D., Oswego, N. Y., recently wrote: "I take pleasure in recommending Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey to the medical profession as it fills a long felt want in the treating of our patients.

"There is a demand for a pure and wholesome tonic stimulant. Such we have in this whiskey. I have prescribed Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for years and always found it uniform as well as satisfactory."

Has No Equal

Recently O. L. Woomsey, M. D., of 29 Austin St., Worcester, Mass., wrote: "A stimulant is frequently required in the practice of every physician, in the treatment of patients with weakened constitutions, nervous troubles, during convalescence, etc.

In Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, I am of the opinion that you have an absolutely pure article that for uniformity and effectiveness has no equal. I believe it is used more generally by physicians than any other similar preparation."

Prescribes It

K. M. Teigan, Ph. D., M. D., of 1120 26th Ave. N., Minneapolis, Minn., wrote in a recent letter: "During the last nineteen years I have frequently, when alcoholic stimulants have been indicated, prescribed Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for my patients because it agrees with them better than any other. Without any solicitation from you, or any of your representatives, permit me to say that I consider Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey the purest and very best synthetic product on the market."

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as the world's leading medicine everywhere.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write Dr. R. Curran, Consulting Physician, for an illustrated medical booklet and free advice. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

THE BREAD LINE.

The police are much perturbed over the growth of the Bethel bread line, where for a number of weeks a scanty morning meal has been given out to the moneyless, jobless laborers who came for it.

Starting in with less than a hundred, the line now averages around 300 daily. The police say that many of these men are vagrants, that they will not work, that they have money which they spend on drink while depending upon the Bethel for food, and that the appeals for aid for the bread line have advertised it far and wide, bringing in hungry men from every direction.

But the police do not deny that there are many men in the line that are without work and without money, and who would starve were it not for the bread line and the generosity of those whose contributions have made its continuance possible.

It is probably true that this generosity is being abused in a few cases. It is probably true that the knowledge of it has brought in outsiders. But it is unquestionably true that the police are exaggerating the evil in the practice, that the work is justified and noble, and that it is not the less so because a few beneficiaries are not entitled to the aid thus extended.

The growth of the bread line may be accounted for quite as easily by saying that this is the time when, winter work in the woods being ended, men gather in Duluth every year to seek jobs in other lines. This is a great labor market, and for many years this season has witnessed a great gathering of laborers here to await the opening of spring work. Just now there is no work for them, or very little. Most of those who have money left after their winter's work are taking care of themselves. The Bowery restaurants and lodging houses are well patronized. But for those who have had no steady work, and who are therefore out of money, these places are not open, and if it were not for the Bethel, which permits these men to sleep on the floor and gives them a cup or two of coffee and a couple of sandwiches in the morning, their fate would be pitiful indeed.

Those who have given in support of this charity need not fear that their generosity has been misplaced. They have done well with their money, and the bread line should be continued until there is work for these men to do.

As to advertising the bread line, it can easily be imagined that men who come many miles to get a cup of coffee and a sandwich once a day must certainly be needy.

The Herald has, throughout, urged that what these men should have is not charity, but work. It is said that some of the men in the bread line will not take work when it is offered to them. The way to test this is to try them. Most assuredly, when the Bethel authorities are if told about the men who refuse to accept work, they will see to it that such men are no longer provided for.

But most of these men want work, and until they can get work they must have this morning coffee and sandwich, and the night's lodging on a bare floor that is provided for them. To stop this charity because the police believe some of its beneficiaries are undeserving would be a great wrong.

THE PRESIDENT'S OMISSION.

President Roosevelt omitted one very important proposal from his recent recommendations to congress.

He forgot to urge the passage of an act prohibiting campaign contributions by corporations, and requiring full publicity of all campaign expenditures.

John Sharp Williams, leader of the minority in the lower branch of congress, noticed the omission. He noticed it because a few days before the message came he had announced that the minority intended to press for the passage of several important measures, including this one.

The president certainly should have included this measure among those which he countenanced and urged. It is quite as important as any of the rest. In fact, if it could be adopted and rigidly enforced for a few years, there would be quite a different atmosphere about the congressional halls, and the other measures would be put through with much greater ease because the obstruction would be much less powerful.

It is needless to go into the history of the association of the large interests with the financing of the two great parties. Both have been guilty, and everybody knows it. If the Republican party has been more guilty because it got more money—which does not constitute greater guilt, however, but rather proves greater opportunity to be guilty—it is because it has been in power more and has therefore had more favors to bestow in return for campaign contributions. Since the Democratic party has had little chance to help the large interests, it has naturally had less money from them. But it has had some, and its skirts are not clear.

But it is time the practice ceased. There has been quite enough of it. The corporations have put their good money into campaign coffers, and they have taken out rich returns upon the investment. It is not to be wondered at, in view of this condition, that legislation and judicial interpretation have been entirely too much with a view to the prosperity of the generous corporations, and entirely too little in the interests of the people.

But now that we all know what it means and what it has meant, there is no excuse for our permitting it to continue. If we do, it is our own fault, and we deserve all we get. We know that there is no patriotism or partisanship about a corporation; that when it puts out money it is a coldblooded investment, not a gift, and that it expects handsome profits on it. We know that when the party that takes such money and wins with it comes to make its return to the corporation that gave it, its only way of getting the money is to take it out of the people. Every penny that corporations have gained through investments in politics has been taken from the people, and not a penny of it has been taken fairly.

Therefore the president should have recommended, and congress should pass, laws that will prohibit corporation contributions, and that will throw open to public inspection all campaign expenses, so that it can be made clear whether or not the law is being obeyed.

CLEAN UP THE CITY.

When the last traces of the winter's snows have gone, and the first spring rain does its part in cleaning up the city, it will be up to the citizens to do the rest, and it will be the duty of the authorities to see that they do it.

In short, spring cleaning time is at hand, and the quicker the unsightly heaps of tin cans and still more unpicturesque rubbish that the melting of the snow has uncovered are cleared away the more pleasant to look at and pleasant to live in Duluth will be.

The city has already taken up its part of the work. The cleaning of streets and alleys has been started, and it will be pushed, weather permitting, until it is finished. This will not only go a long way toward making the city healthier and more beautiful, but it will give temporary employment to some of the idle laborers in the community.

But the city can't do it all.

The citizens must do the greater part of it. It is no part of the city's work to enter your back yard and make it clean, wholesome and sightly, though it is part of the city's work to see that you do it.

However, you will feel much better about it if you do it yourself without waiting to have the health authorities make you do it.

It is amazing how much unpleasant debris accumulates in the average back yard and vacant lot during the winter. Things are thrown out and because the snow covers them up quickly they are out of sight and therefore out of mind. But the spring thaws bring them to light again, dismal and dirty and disgusting. You wonder where all the rubbish could have come from.

It makes no difference where it came from, however; the thing for you to do is to clean it up. You owe it to yourself and your family, as well as to the city, to do this. It cannot be comfortable for you and your family to live in an unsightly lot, and it is certainly not pleasant or comfortable for your neighbors, and that means all the people of the city.

We all do a good deal of talking about the "city beautiful," but there can be no beautiful city without first having a clean city. It wouldn't even do to train vines over your rubbish heap, hoping that the summer's foliage will conceal the unpleasantness. Before making your home surroundings beautiful, they must first be made clean.

There are comparatively few, fortunately, who need to be cautioned about such things. The average citizen, no matter how humble his home may be, is deeply interested in having its surroundings clean and wholesome. Therefore he takes the first opportunity after the winter's snowbanks have vanished to make his yard clean and sweet, ready for the grass and flowers that are due shortly.

For the sake of having a city that is clean, healthy and beautiful, let every man see to it that his immediate surroundings are that way.

PICKING A LEGISLATURE.

Lest we forget—

It is the duty of every public spirited citizen, in every legislative district in this state, to see to it that so far as his influence goes that district is properly represented in the legislature that will sit in St. Paul next winter.

If every such citizen did his full duty in this respect, Minnesota would have a house of representatives of which it could be proud, and out of which some real, progressive legislation would come.

There is nothing to be done about the senate, because the senators hold over for two years more. But it should be stated that the present senate is above the average, and that at the last session it was far in advance of the house in statesmanship, integrity and public spirit. In previous sessions the corporations let the house do its will, and depended upon the senate for protection. In the last session the situation was reversed: the dirty work was done in the house instead of in the senate.

That ought to be changed next time. It will be changed if the people exercise proper care in selecting their representatives.

Efforts to bring about the best results should go further than this, however, especially in Northern Minnesota, where numerical weakness of representation is coupled with peculiarly poignant needs. Northern Minnesota is not fairly represented in the legislature, thanks to an outgrown legislative apportionment, and it must make up for its numerical weakness by increasing the individual strength of its representatives.

But if the right kind of men don't enter the field, under the primary election law there is nothing for the voter to do but to choose the lesser of alternative evils; to pick the least undesirable candidate. Therefore there should be some positive attempt to induce the right kind of men to run. Who is to do this? That is not easily answered, but somebody ought to do it. While commercial clubs do not meddle with politics, this is one case where they might, with perfect propriety. If the commercial bodies of Northern Minnesota would see to it that the right kind of men enter the legislative lists, the people could be depended upon to do the rest.

The kind of man who ought to be in the legislature from Northern Minnesota usually shrinks from the unpleasantness of politics and from the expense. That feeling should be overcome by the instinct of public duty. Considering all of the vital needs of Northern Minnesota which proper legislative action could satisfy, it is plain that there is a chance for the right kind of men to do a great service to their state and their districts.

To obviate the difficulty of expense, it should be stated that the legislative pay has been raised from about $530 for the session to $500 a year, or $1,000 for the two-year term. This will reassure the capable, but it should be remembered that it will also attract the mediocre who are often more dangerous than the vicious.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

"Few persons appreciate the awe that the name of Jesse James or Cole Younger could bring to the minds of some who had read with bated breaths of the daring exploits of the two train robbers," said T. W. Callahan at the St. Louis yesterday.

"Of course, Cole Younger at the present day is a very quiet and harmless citizen. His long sojourn in the Minnesota bastile has robbed him of many of the traits that made him one of the most feared men in the United States. However, the mere mention of his name will sometimes conjure up the most appalling fear in the hearts of some people.

"Not so very long ago I was sitting in a smear game in a Kansas hotel. There were five or six in the game, one of the players being from the East. We had been playing for about an hour, when in walked an elderly man and stood watching our play. Suddenly he asked whether there would be any objection to his entering the game. We assured him that nothing would give us more pleasure.

"One of the man's hands was injured. I believe it was his right. Anyway, he asked me to deal for him, as he sat next to me. He was affable, courteous and proved a good story-teller. He told several stories of the desperadoes of the early Western holdup days, giving a wealth of detail and color to the stories that led us to imagine that he must have read many books upon the history of the early West. He mentioned many interesting details, naming men and peculiar events that would have made very entertaining reading matter. We were truly sorry to part company with such a genial and entertaining player.

"Not very long after the withdrawing of the stranger the proprietor of the hotel entered the room. He asked us if we were aware of the identity of the man who had just left the room. We told him we were not, and he then informed us that we were entertaining a celebrity unawares. Cole Younger was the man who had regaled us with stories of holdups, train robberies and exciting details of famous Western bad men. His wealth of detail had not, as we imagined, been culled from histories or stories of the early West; it had been burned into the flesh, so to speak, for Cole Younger was quite a leading member of the gentlemen roamers of those days.

"Now, the funny thing about the whole occurrence was that when the host mentioned the name of the famous ex-bandit, the man from the effete East turned as pale as the wronged woman in the melodrama. He trembled, actually trembled, and gave a first-class imitation of the poet's description of the rustling pines. The thing had got on his nerves. 'If I had known that he was Cole Younger,' he spluttered, 'I would never have stayed in the game.'

"Cole was touring in the Wild West show, that caused the Minnesota author Hies to say some unkind things about the long-residence citizen of Stillwater, but I honestly believe that the Eastern man thought he was on murder bent, or engaged in robbing the town. So much there is in a name."

"Mary Vance, died 1854. I await you." Beneath is carved:

"Harold Vance, died 1889. Here I am."

Right in the midst of bustling, busy little New York, is a street that partakes of the mediaeval dreaminess of an ancient street in Rome or Milan, says James Hunter, at the Lenox. This street is between Forty-first and Forty-second streets and was known at one time as Tillar's alley. In Tillar's time it was given over to the habitation of the Irish. At the present time, however, the Italians have taken possession of this short stretch of old-world atmosphere, and to walk along it is to feel the lazy Latin influence that creeps into one's being.

You hear strains of grand opera; you see dusky mothers croning their babies to sleep on the doorstep; you hear the soft music of sunny Italy; the appetizing odor of spaghetti is wafted to your nostrills. Outside, in the bounding streets, the busy traffic and ceaseless rumble of commerce are destructive to delusions of day-dreaming. But here, in this isolated section of little Italy, interrupted only occasionally by the echoes of the buzz of the daily battle for the dollar you fall into the mystic charm of the street where the spirit of past ages seems reincarnated.

THE WEATHER.

March came in like a lion, and last night, to dispose of that absurd superstition that thirty days can change a lion to lamb, it went out—still a lion. This morning a young blizzard was in progress with a northeast wind behind it. The weather man says it will be much colder tonight, with a possible continuance of the snow flurries, and that the thermometer tonight will not be much above zero. Tomorrow it will be fair and warmer again. Last night's lowest temperature was 21 degs. and yesterday's highest was 32 degs.

A year ago today it was cool and brilliant.

The sun rose this morning at 5:47 and sets tonight at 6:37, making 12 hours and 50 minutes of sunlight.

Says Mr. Richardson of conditions: "The center of the Colorado storm has advanced to Eastern Missouri. During the past twenty-four hours it caused quite general rain or snow throughout northern districts, and warmer weather in the region immediately south of the Ohio valley. Colder temperatures prevail this morning in Northern and Western states due to prevalent high pressures in these sections. The barometer is highest over Montana and is attended by zero weather in the northern portion of that state and in Eastern Alberta and Saskatchewan. Indications favor low temperatures in this locality tonight."

Following were last night's lowest temperatures:

Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Duluth, April 1.—Local forecast for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Thursday: Duluth, Superior and vicinity, including the Mesaba and Vermilion iron ranges—Much colder tonight with possibly snow flurries; lowest temperatures slightly above zero; Thursday fair with rising temperature; brisk to high northwest winds.

H. W. RICHARDSON,
Local Forecaster.

Chicago, April 1.—Forecasts until 7 p. m. Thursday: Upper Michigan—Threatening with snow tonight and near Lake Superior Thursday; colder Thursday and in west portion tonight.

Wisconsin—Rain turning to snow this afternoon; partly cloudy and much colder tonight; cold wave in west portion; Thursday fair.

Minnesota—Partly cloudy and much colder tonight; cold wave in southeast portion; Thursday fair with rising temperature.

North Dakota—Fair tonight and Thursday; rising temperature Thursday and in northwest portion tonight.

PASSING PLEASANTRIES.

Baltimore American: Absentminded Wall Street Operator (at social function)—Excuse me, madam, but your face seems rather familiar. Haven't I met you before?

Society Leader—Oh, yes; I remember you very well. We met in the church the day we were married.

Chicago Tribune: "Pardon me," the photographer said, "but I think your smile is unnecessarily broad. It will show all your teeth."

"Those teeth cost me $90," growled the sitter. "I want 'em to show."

Philadelphia Ledger: China has detected the Japanese smuggling arms into its territory and arrested the offenders.

"You saucy thing," said Japan. "Apologize at once for catching us."

Washington Star: "So you don't expect congress to do much?"

"No. You see every member feels that it is more his duty to prevent other members from doing something he doesn't approve of than to do anything himself."

Philadelphia Press: "So the plaintiff's counsel tried to pump you today, eh?" said Lawyer Dubley.

"Yes, it was Lawyer Sharpe; but I told him you were looking after my interests," said the defendant.

"What did he say then?"

"Asked me why I didn't engage a lawyer."

Baltimore American: Prudent Swain—If I were to steal a kiss would it scare you so that you would scream?

Timid Maiden—I couldn't. Fright always makes me dumb.

Houston Post: "Do you believe," asked the pretty little widow, "that every man and every woman in the world has an affinity?"

"Sure," replied the man who had recently been married the third time, "dozens of 'em, but circumstances often make it hard to get in communication with 'em."

Chicago Tribune: Lawyer—Here are your divorce papers, madam. I advise you to take good care of them.

Charming Soubrette—Why, certainly, Mr. Leesem. I shall put them in my safety deposit box, where all the others are.

A Spring Idyl.

The birds will please sing in the trees—
Spring.
Ho, brother, shut your eyes and sneeze—
Spring.
The flowers will now begin to bud,
The lovers chant a roundelay,
The hurdy-gurdies come and play,
And everything is slush and mud—
Spring.

One day the southern zephyrs blow,
Spring,
The next it's ten degrees below,
Spring.
Today the children skip the rope,
Tomorrow morning it will snow.
The tailors' windows make a show—
The old maid begins to hope—
Spring.

Remember that the year is leap—
Spring,
Beware or you'll be let in deep—
Spring.
In vain your wit and specious art,
If someone sets you with her eyes,
And looks and sighs—be wise, be wise
Secure a swift and running start—
Spring.

New Orleans Times-Democrat: It is truly unfortunate that geographical conditions prevent the annexation of those night-riding Kentucky counties to Hayti.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

A real estate man last night received a letter inquiring as to the value of lots in Lake View addition. Evidently it came from some one who is an innocent purchaser in this fake addition, which is located nine and a half miles from the center of the city, and seven and a half miles from the nearest point of the corporate limits of Duluth. Many have confounded it with Lake View division, a very valuable plat of land inside the city limits.

Albert Schaffer is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Minnesota. He has been indorsed by the executive committee of the Farmers' Alliance, and has swallowed its platform.

R. C. Mitchell of the Tribune and W. H. Burke of the News are engaged in a fierce personal war in the editorial columns of their papers. And now the News announces that it will publish a Sunday morning edition instead of a Monday paper.

Rev. C. C. Salter goes East tomorrow in the interest of the Bethel fund, which now amounts to about $16,000.

E. A. Merrill, president of the Minnesota Loan & Trust company of Minneapolis, has been here visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. M. Prindle, for several days.

John Campbell, the North Shore lumberman, boasts of the biggest load of timber hauled by a single team this season. Ten logs, scaling 6,582 feet, were drawn two miles by James O'Brien's team.

The Standard Oil company is negotiating with Capt. McDougall for the building of several iron tank vessels for the transportation of oil in bulk, from Pennsylvania to Duluth.

Capt. Jack Whitney will leave next week for New York to settle up the estate of his father-in-law. Jack will receive about $10,000.

C. W. Rossiter and wife, and Mrs. E. C. McCormick, former residents of Livingstone, Mont., are stopping at the Clarendon. They will take up their residence in Duluth.

The Gogebic Steam Boiler works has begun work on the first locomotive ever repaired in a Duluth machine shop. It is a seven-ton engine of the St. Paul & Duluth short line.

Rev. E. M. Noyes is on his way to Birmingham, Ala., where he will remain two weeks.

"JOHNSON OF MINNESOTA."

Detroit Free Press: Bryan can sure beat Johnson on adjectives but when it comes to talking straight horse sense the man from Minnesota has no need to shy at the Nebraskan.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Republican papers derive much satisfaction from the reflection that the Johnson boom "started too late." Well they may.

Grand Rapids Independent: Governor Johnson is to be congratulated on his choice of enemies. If Bryan's "friends" in other parts of the country are the same stripe as some of his Itasca county supporters, why he is to be pitied.

Buffalo Journal: The Bryan Democrats in Minnesota who are fighting the Johnson boom ought to be ashamed of themselves. There would come pretty near being no Democratic party in this state now if Johnson had not been so situated as to be the Moses to lead them out of the land of bondage. But you can bank on this, that for the most part they are men who wanted jobs when Johnson was elected, but there were not enough to go around. They are now claiming Johnson cannot get the Minnesota delegation, which is all moonshine. The few who are opposing him are making all the noise, but when the delegates are selected the opposition will vanish into thin air.

Appleton Press: O time! O change! Last Thursday we attended a big Democratic pow-wow and love feast at Fort Wayne, Ind. In this region where twelve years ago men swore by Bryan, and prayed in his name, the great commoner is looked upon as an Old Man of the Sea. There is certainly a strong Johnson sentiment in Hoosierdom, and if they only dared the party would throw Bryan overboard in a jiffy.

Anoka Free Press: The admirable record of Governor Johnson for nearly four years as governor is too much in evidence to be overcome by insinuations that there is not a particle of truth to back up. Governor Johnson has been absolutely fair to the railroads but has forced them, through the railroad commission, to reduce unreasonable rates.

Madison Independent Press: It begins to look as though Governor Johnson is going to be a factor in the coming Democratic convention, a factor which may be strong enough to prevent Bryan getting the two-thirds necessary for a nomination. Should the convention nominate Johnson Minnesota's electoral vote would go to him at the polls in November.

Wilmar Journal: Johnson stock is booming. Bryan stock is slumping. Uninstructed delegations are being chosen to the Democratic national convention at Denver from a great many of the Eastern and Southern states, New York leading the van—and Bryan is getting scared. He will go into York state on a speaking tour soon and try to stem the tide.

Would Make Fine Souvenirs.

CONCERNING WOMAN.

"Oh, well," said the man, in that tone of enforced gallantry, "there's no use in arguing with a woman."

The man looked annoyed and he set his lips in a firm and decided line, which said that it didn't make any difference what she said after that, that he at least had said the last word.

"No, of course, there isn't," said the woman.

"If she doesn't meet all your arguments with a 'because' she raises her voice and continues to cry out the one or two little thoughts which she has been—

"I don't think she does," said the woman.

"Yes, she does," insists the man.

"I don't think—"

"She may have a voice that is decently pleasant the most of the time, but just let her get a little bit excited over an argument and her face gets pink and her voice gets shrill and she—"

"I don't think she does," said the woman.

"And she gets hold of one idea and she says it over and over again, and do what you will you can't get a word in. She won't listen to you. She keeps repeating—"

"And there's a law against it, too, isn't there?" asked the woman.

"Why, repeating," said the woman. "I thought that they wouldn't let you repeat—"

"There you go," said the man. "You can't even stick to a subject, but go maundering off on some perfectly immaterial and irrelevant subject—"

"Why don't you object?" asked the woman.

"Object to what?" asked the man in an irritated voice.

"Why, to the irrelevant and immaterial—" said the woman.

"What's the use?' asked the man.

"Well, I don't know, but whenever you see 'irrelevant and immaterial there is always somebody objecting," said the woman.

"Well, I am objecting," said the man. "You can't argue with any degree of comfort with a woman. She keeps saying the same things over and over, and—"

"You said that before," said the woman.

"Well, what if I did?" inquired the man hotly.

"Nothing," said the woman, softly, "only—"

"And they keep interrupting,' said the man, the "mad" blazing forth. They won't let you finish what you're saying. They won't even let you begin what you're saying. If she should say what she thinks, and then let somebody else speak, there might be some hope of at some time arriving at a conclusion, but you never change her mind. She gets one idea, and she sticks to it like a pup to a—"

"I like your similes, anyhow," said the woman.

"Similes have nothing to do with it," said the man. "Maybe you recognize some truth in what I'm saying, but I never expect you to admit it. As I said in the beginning, it was, is and ever shall be that there's no use in arguing with a woman."

"And as I said in the beginning," said the woman, "of course there isn't, and I'd like to know what you are arguing about and getting hot and excited and looking like a mad—"

"I'm not hot and I'm not excited," said the man—"

"When we are perfectly agreed on the fact—"

"Oh, hang facts," said the man, turning petulantly aside.

"That there is no comfort in arguing with a man."

The man maintained a large and pompous silence for fifteen minutes.

ASSISTING ARTISTS

Have Been Engaged For Second May Festival.

The soloists for the second grand May festival of music by the Duluth Oratorio society, to be held May 18 and 19, have been engaged. The out-of-town soloists who will assist the local society will be Sybil Sammis, soprano; Mme. Ragna Linne, mezzo-soprano; E. C. Towne, tenor, and Dr. Hugh Schussler, baritone. The assisting orchestra will be as in firmer years, the Minneapolis Symphony organization. The first evening the cantata to be sung by the society will be "The Golden Legend," by Sir Arthur Sullivan, being an adaptation from the poem by Longfellow. Tuesday evening the cantata sung by the society will be "The Wreck of the Hesperus," by Hamish MacCunn, and "Scenes From Olaf Trygvasson," by Greig. At the matinee performance a special feature will be the cantata for children's voices, "Into the World," by Peter Benoit, in which 200 of the boys and girls from the Duluth schools will appear.

Cecilian Society.

The members of the Cecilian society will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. St. Clair of 1125 East Superior street. The program has been arranged by Mrs. John F. Segog, and the afternoon will be devoted to the study of Wagner.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union, which was to have been held tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. H. H. Phelps of West Duluth, has been postponed until Friday evening of this week when the session will be held in the assembly room of the Irving school. The speaker will be Judge J. D. Ensign, who will talk on "The Juvenile Court." Any one interested is invited to attend the meeting.

AFTERNOON MEETING

Of Club Women Will Be Addressed by Field Secretary.

Lee F. Hanmer of Northfield, secretary of the National Playground association, will be in the city April 20 to 22, and arrangements are being made for an afternoon meeting April 21. The meeting will be held at the club room of the library and the women's clubs of the city will be invited to be the guests of the members of the Twentieth Century club, under whose auspices Mr. Hanmer will appear in Duluth. There will be two evening lectures, the place still to be decided upon. The committee in charge of the affair desires to so arrange the meetings that the largest possible number of Duluth citizens may hear the speaker and become interested in the possibilities for good to the youth of the city that are to be found in the playgrounds. Those most interested in the matter are hoping that Mr. Hanmer's coming may be the starting point of a definite effort toward such places of instruction and amusement for Duluth children.

UNTIL APRIL 10

Contributions Will Be Received for Annual State Exhibit.

Contributions will be received by the directors of the Minnesota State Art society from the artists of the state at any time up to April 10, when the lists will be closed. As the exhibition will be shown in Duluth after the Minneapolis season, it is hoped that there will be many Duluth contributors. The various lines of artistic endeavor will be represented, and there are many Duluth workers in the various crafts who might well show their work. Cards of application may be secured at the library.

Informal Afterncon.

Mrs. H. A. Dancer entertained at an informal afternoon today at her home, 1007 East Second street, in compliment to Miss Jessie LaSalle. The decorations were Japanese throughout and twelve guests were entertained.

The Library Fund.

The children of the Sabbath school of Temple Emanuel will entertain at an amateur enertainment tomorrow evening at Flaaten's hall. The children who will take part have been coached by Mrs. Mary Nelson, and the entertainment will be followed by a dancing party. The proceeds will go toward providing a Sabbath school library for the temple.

Study Art History.

An art history class will be a part of the study work of the Twentieth Century club next year. An informal meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the library, and it was decided to make the study of art history a part of next year's course, the outline to be arranged during the summer and the leader of the class decided upon.

Simple Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Flora LaFrance and Leo Costello, both of this city, took place yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the German Methodist church. The service was read by Rev. C. Schoenheider, Jr., before a few of the intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Costello will be at home in this city.

FOOT OF SNOW FALLS

In the Red River Valley and Railroads Are Suffering.

Crookston, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The entire Red River valley is in the grasp of the worst blizzard of the winter. The Great Northern and Northern Pacific railrads had both taken down their snow fences and all trains are late as a result of the drifting snow. The storm has been raging since last night. A foot of snow has fallen.

What Retail Markets Offer.

Eggs," 18 cents a dozen.
Bacon, 30 cents a lb.
Bananas, 25 cents a dozen.
Tulips, 75 cents a dozen.

"Eggs are so fresh and so cheap," said she who presides over the coffee cups, "that I thought we would have lots of eggs during Lent, and we have begun this morning."

"How long have these eggs been cooked," asked the critical member of the family.

"Three minutes," said the house mother, nervously.

"Oh, mercy!" ejaculated the critical member. "I can't eat eggs that are boiled longer than two minutes and a half."

"Jane, will you take one of those eggs back to the kitchen and boil it two minutes and a half," directed the housekeeper.

"But that would be five minutes and a half all together," said the critical member, expostulation in her voice.

"Oh, yes! So it would," acknowledged the miserable one, who had decided upon eggs for breakfast.

"I want mine hard boiled. Hard boiled, you understand. I want them boiled for half an hour before I'm called, and then all the time I'm dressing," said the youth, who goes to high school. "Hard boiled!" he added, just for emphasis.

The lady who thought eggs nice for breakfast looked distressed.

"I prefer mine scrambled," said he who sits at the head of the table. "If we must have eggs I prefer—"

"I want mine poached on toast," interrupted the little boy who goes to the grade school.

"I don't want no eggs," said the youngest member of the family.

"The thing we are going to have for breakfast this morning," said the lady who does the ordering, 'is eggs boiled in their shells, soft, for three minutes. That's the kind your are all going to have. Pass the toast, please," she said.

The toast was passed and nothing was heard but the gentle and tender tapping which the shell of a soft boiled egg receives. The sound was heard all around the table.

"Such unusual April weather, isn't it," inquired the lady at the foot of the table, with the gentle brilliance which becomes the keeper of the household peace.

BOLOT TRIAL POSTPONED

Murder Case Will be Heard in May Term of Court.

West Duluth People Visit Court Room to Hear Evidence.

The trial of Henry Bolot, on the charge of murdering M. Charbonneau at West Duluth last month, will not take place until the May term of the district court, according to a statement by County Attorney Norton this morning.

It had been expected that the case would be called for trial this morning, and quite a crowd of people from West Duluth, including several women, visited the courthouse and remained in Judge Dibell's room until noon, although told by the court officer that the case would not come up today anyway.

Mr. Norton was busy this morning in the trial of a blind pig case from Virginia, the case going to the jury this noon. He did not say which criminal case would be taken up next.

Work on Furnace.

The work of repairing the blast furnace at the Zenith company's plant in West Duluth is progressing rapidly. Work on the new furnace lining will probably be started before the middle of this month and be finished and the furnace ready to be blown in by the middle of May.

Fred Harris, superintendent of the furnace, said this afternoon that all that remained before the new lining is started is the removing of the old crucible and that he thought that they would be ready to start on relining in less than two weeks.

COMPANY IS ORGANIZED

Company "F" of Eveleth Will be Mustered In Thursday.

Virginia is Taking Steps to Organize Another Company.

Col. F. E. Resche will go to Eveleth tomorrow evening to muster in Company F, the new militia organization that has been formed in the range town, to affiliate or become a part of the state militia. The requisite number of names has been secured of young men residing in or near Eveleth and it is expected that the company will have a total of sixty men within a short time. The move to organize a militia company has been carried forward with a great deal of interest and enthusiasm and the city is assured of an organization made up of its best young men.

The city of Virginia is also taking active steps for the organization of another militia company, with every prospect that it will be an assured thing. Steps are being taken to secure a building that can be remodeled and refitted into an armory.

The Eveleth company will be the first company mustered into the service in the northern section of the state. With two companies of state militia on the Range and three companies in Duluth this portion of the state will be pretty well protected in case the emergency ever arises when it will be necessary to call out troops.

KENYON, MINN., IS SCORCHED BY FIRE.

Kenyon, Minn., April 1.—(Special to he Herald.)—Fire of unknown origin at 3 a. m. today destroyed nine buildings, mostly of frame, on the north side of Main street. The losses will run close to $50,000 with insurance of about one-half. Incendiarism is suspected. No one was injured. A rain which started at 4 o'clock helped the firemen to keep the flames from the residence section.

MISSOURIANS GO TO PRISON

Seven Taken to Leavenworth to Serve Terms for Peonage.

St. Louis, Mo., April 1.—Seven men from Southeast Missouri who had been convicted in the federal court on the charge of peonage, surrendered to United States Marshal Morsey and were taken by him today to the United States prison at Leavenworth, Kan., to serve their terms.

The men, the amount of their fines and the length of their terms if imprisonment are as follows: Charles M. Smith, $5,000, three and one-half years; Charles M. Smith, Jr., $5,000, two and one-half years; William Wood, $100, two and one-half years; Floyd Wood, $100, two years; W. Lee Rodgers, $100, two years; Ben Field,, $100, one and one-half years; Ben Stone, $100, one and one-half years.

There were more convicted in the United States district court at Cape Girardeau of having kept negroes in bondage.

No More Stout Corsets.

"I had to wear a 28 corset three and a half months ago," remarked a well-known South-side club woman at the Biennial last night. "Yesterday I bought a 24, and I have it on now." She turned a smiling, beautifully colored countenance on the group of wondering women. "No?" she answered, in reply to the query, "I didn't have to exercise or diet. I got ½ ounce Marmola, ½ ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 3½ ounces Syrup Simplex at the druggists, mixed them myself at home, and took a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime." It made me lose 12 to 16 ounces of fat a day—just where I needed it the most. There isn't a sign of a wrinkle either. It takes off the fat where you want it off without forming bags of flabby flesh."

BUREAU OF FORESTRY

Washington, April 1.—After having undergone many changes, the paragraph of the agricultural appropriation bill relating to the buerau of forestry, was finally passed by the house. Messrs. Mondell of Wyoming and Smith of California, continued their attacks on the bureau, and in this they were supported by Mr. Bonynge of Colorado and Cushman of Washington. These embraced charges that the bureau had created timber monopolies in favor of large corporations, illegally assumed jurisdiction over water rights belonging to the Western states, and juggled with figures in order to obtain large appropriations from congress. The work of the bureau was vigorously defended by Messrs. Hepburn of Iowa and Scott of Kansas.

Considerable time was devoted to a proposition by Mr. Humphreys of Michigan to increase the appropriation for the investigation of solls, which was carried.

A little less than one-half of the bill had been completed when the house, at :06 p. m., adjourned.

STEEL INTERESTS

Organize an Institute as Means of Communication.

Albany, N. Y., April 1.—A certificate of incorporation of the American Iron & Steel Institute, principal office in New York city, was filed with the secretary of state yesterday. The object of the institute, is stated to be to afford a means of communication between members of the iron and steel trades upon matters bearing on their business interests. The directors are:

Elbert H. Gary, William E. Corey, Charles M. Schwab, E. A. Stark, W. J. Filbert, John A. Topping, all of New York; F. C. Felton and Powell Stackhouse of Philadelphia; Willis L. King of Pittsburg, Edward Bailey of Harrisburg, J. C. Maben of Birmingham, Ala.; W. A. Rogers of Buffalo; J. W. Welburn of Denver, T. J. Drummond of Montreal, and Samuel Mather of Cleveland.

SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

LINING UP GOOD TEAM

Coleraine Will be Well Represented on Baseball Diamond.

Wegman, the Duluth Catcher, Has Already Been Secured.

Coleraine will be on the baseball map this year, according to S. G. Plummer, manager of the club, who was in Duluth this week. He is now busy lining up players for a semi-professional nine, and when they get on the diamond, some dirt will fly.

"We don't intend to go in as heavy as Hibbing and Virginia, because we don't believe in throwing money away, and we can't support out-and-out professional baseball," said Mr. Plummer. "With the resources at hand, however, we are gathering a strong team together, and the other semi-professional and independent clubs must look to their laurels.

"I have already secured Wegman, the Duluth catcher, whom I consider the best man in the semi-professional ranks in this district. He is assisting me in getting the remainder of the team. We have two men from Superior and three or four boys at Coleraine will have no trouble making places. Several college players from the East have signified their intention of coming to Coleraine for the summer, and we will get them into our uniforms. By the time we get swinging well, we will have a team which may be able to cope with the big range clubs, even though they are professionals."

Mr. Plummer looks favorably on the Northern Minnesota Semi-Professional league scheme. He will be in Duluth again next Sunday for the meeting of managers, and if the league is organized, Coleraine will be in. Mr. Plummer says they will be content with two or three games with each of the big range clubs for the summer and would be glad of the chance to arrange all of their other dates in advance through the league system.

Coleraine was a live one in baseball last year. For one game with Hibbing, Essick and Sugden, the St. Paul battery, was secured, and they made things interesting for the range champs. All during the year Coleraine took on the strong teams of Northern Minnesota and held its own, and with the squad Mr. Plummer is now lining up, it will cut a big swath again this season.

WILL REVIVE OLD CIRCUIT

Meeting of Interested Parties Will be Held at Ashland.

Ashland, Wis., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Delegates from Hibbing, Duluth, Ironwood, Rhinelander, Antigo and Ashland will meet here this afternoon to reorganize the old Tri-State Racing & County Fair association. C. E. Houk of Ironwood, who has been promoting the enterprise, has been traveling over the proposed circuit for some weeks, interesting horse owners and others, and he has stirred up such enthusiasm that all of the towns, which he planned to work into the association, will have delegates here.

The association plans to hold county fairs and race meets in all of the cities each fall. A start will probably be made at Antigo or Rhinelander and the horses will swing about the circuit ending at Hibbing after a campaign of six weeks. The first meet will probably be held late in August, thus swinging the race meets and agricultural fairs in well together.

The race meets will be by no means the principal features of the fairs. Each local association will take it upon itself to interest the farmers and produce growers of its respective district to send exhibits of produce and live stock, and the results are expected to be very satisfactory. The proposed circuit is in a fine agricultural district and every fair will be made a big success both from an agricultural and horse race standpoint. The lists of races and purses will probably be prepared today and officers elected today.

De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are prompt and thorough, and will in a short time strengthen weakened kidneys and allay troubles arising from inflammation of the bladder. All druggists.

Abe Attell and Battling Nelson slashed each other into ribbons last night and were both dissatisfied with the draw decision. Their dissatisfaction is to be expected. Both are about as chesty as any two prize fighters in the ring today. Neither has ever failed to register a kick against a draw or adverse decision. The sporting world will probably be afflicted now with frantic smtements claiming superiority and there will probably be another meeting.

The result of the battle only serves to confirm the opinion that there was nothing to be gained by either man in the way of reputation, although they did pull down some coin. Nelson failed to beat a man weighing nearly ten pounds less than he and that doesn't get him anything. A battle with Packey McFarland was contingent on his beating Attell and he failed to do it. Harry Gilmore may give him the fight, but he will go into the ring with one more mark of omission and that placed by a featherweight.

As for Attell, he losses prestige. In his belief that there was nothing in the featherweight class able to cope with him, he has been working for a match with a lightweight for a long time. He went so far as to have Joe Gans accept a challenge and it's very fortunate for Abe that the arrangements fell through. If Attell couldn't get anything better than a draw with Nelson, with all his cleverness, he would be doomed to a clean, decisive beating at the hands of "The Old Master." Gans is so far ahead of Nelson in boxing ability that there is no comparison, and, if Attell's cleverness couldn't overcome Nelson's rushing tactics, it certainly couldn't get past Gans' science for a decision.

The men, who are putting their money on Frank Gotch for a victory over George Hackenschmidt Friday night, are basing their claims on Hack's unfamiliarity with the catch-as-catch-can style. They point out the fact that the Russian's many victories have been gained in the Graeco-Roman style, his principal assets is brute strength and that knowledge of the Graeco-Roman game and brute strength count for nothing in catch-as-catch-can style, unless there is knowledge of that mode of wrestling to make them effective.

Hackenschimdt is a marvel of phsique and strength. In comparison with other American wrestlers, Gotch is also a wonder. But Gotch has never met anybody of Hack's type. There is nobody in the United States who can compete on anything like equal grounds with the Iowan. In taking hold of Hackenschmidt, he will get somebody new and strange. He will have to work differently than over the ordinary weaklings with whom he has wrestled in the past. Fred Beell is the only man who can give him a good workout, and Beell is a scientific wrestler, not a giant.

Hack must have some knowledge of the catch-as-catch-can game. He beat Tom Jenkins several years ago and he showed prowess then. Jenkins was in his decline, of course, but even considering that, no novice at his own sport could beat him. Whether Hackenschmidt, with what he knew about the game then, and what he has learned since, can bring his strength into full play is the question. If he does, Gotch will have little show. If the superior science of the Iowan can offset Hackenschmidt's assets the American will be returned a winner. There is a good chance to place some money on either man. Everybody has a right to his own opinions, but there may be some shattering of ideals.

New York, April 1.—Eustace H. Miles, the English aspirant for the court tennis championship, the contest for which will begin on Monday at the Racquet & Tennis club, was in the court yesterday for practice, having Walter Kinsley, one of the markers, as an opponent.

The match of the day, however, was between Jay Gould, for two years the American champion, and also the British champion, and John White, the club's professional. White is one of the best court tennis players of the day. Yet Gould was always the superior, and he won by three sets to love, eighteen games to ten. The entries for the tournament close today, but will not be given out until after the draw is made.

FOOTBALL RESTORED.

Macalester Faculty Places Restriction on the Game.

St. Paul, April 1.—The faculty of Macalester college yesterday voted to restore football, provided certain conditions governing the game are complied with by the students. Football was suspended at Macalester two years ago.

GORY DRAW IN FRISCO

Battling Nelson and Abe Attell Put Up Great Battle.

Featherweight's Clever Ring Tactics Save Him From Defeat.

San Francisco, April 1.—With a disadvantage of at least eight pounds against him, Abe Attell, champion featherweight of America, fought Battling Nelson, last night, to a 15-round draw. At the end of the contest, both men were fairly deluged with blood, Nelson's face in particular presenting the worst sight.

Attell had the advantage of all the earlier rounds. He matched his superior skill against the rugged and sturdier man, and by out generaling his opponent in this manner, bade fair to earn a clear cut decision. Nelson however, forced the pace throughout, all the while seeking to force Attell into close quarters. Attell, however, was as elusive as an eel. He was everywhere, all the time shooting lightning left and right jolts to Nelson's disfigured face.

The turning point came, however, in the ninth round. Nelson, who had been taking his punishment without a whimper, finally succeeded in getting past Attell's defense, and once having paved the way, he worried his man. The battler landed some powerful body punches in the succeeding rounds, and, changing his tactics, played for Attell's face, until he had the blood spouting in streams from his opponent's nostrils.

The men then battled at a furious pace, each landing punches, Nelson having the greater power behind his blows. In the fourteenth round it looked as if Nelson would score a knockout, as Attell was apparently in distress. But the wonderful cleverness and knowledge of ring trickery stood Attell well in stead, and he stalled and smothered the round out.

He came up fresh and determined in the last round, and then followed a battle royal. The men flayed each other with might and main, Attell landing four blows to Nelson's one. Both of the men were dissatisfied with the decision. Nelson was down to 131 and Attell weighed about 124 pounds.

Betting on the result favored Nelson, odds of 10 to 7 having been offered at the ringside.

WAGNER IS GREATEST.

Harry Pulliam Pays Tribute to the Pittsburg Player.

New York, April 1.—"I consider Hans Wagner the greatest baseball player yet produced in the professional leagues, and I wish to perpetuate his name in the form of a cup," says H. C. Pulliam, president of the National league, in presenting a trophy to be competed for by the Interborough Baseball league, a local organization. President Pulliam gives the trophy, known as the "Hans Wagner cup," to be won three seasons in succession before it becomes the property of any individual team.

George Proff, the West end man who does a somersault act over a gap on roller skates, has returned to Duluth after a trip through the Central states. He is figuring on a plan for making his act even more spectacular, and will start out again soon to appear at the big rinks throughout the country.

Proff is a member of the Duluth Y. M. C. A., and he is now figuring on giving his exhibition at the Lyceum on the occasion of the big athletic and gymnastic exhibition there the night of April 14. He will look over the Lyceum stage this week, and if he finds it large enough to accommodate his apparatus, will pull off the act on the night of the exhibition.

Ski Rider to Wrestle.

Elling Deisen, the Colfax, Wis., ski rider, will appear in another athletic role tonight at the Metropolitan opera house, when he will meet Andrew Danielson, the West end heavyweight. Deisen says ski riding isn't his only game. He has been wrestling at odd times for several years, and knows a good deal of the catch-as-catch-can game. He has beaten some of the best men in Northern Wisconsin, and tonight's match is his first entry into other fields. Danielson expects to dispose of the Wisconsin heavyweight.

"Half Hose" Defeated.

Lincoln, Neb., April 1.—The Lincoln Western league team yesterday defeated the Chicago Americans, second division team, by a score of 2 to 1.

DENIES EVERYTHING.

Washington, April 1.—Isaac Rice, the president of the Electric Boat company, yesterday made a sweeping denial of the charges concerning submarine boat affairs, preferred by Representative George L. Lilley of Connecticut, before the special committee of the house that is investigating those charges. He denounced several of the statements as malicious lies and said that others were too absurd to answer.

TAFT SCORES.

Boston, April 1.—The supporters of the presidential candidacy of Secretary of War William H. Taft, scored for him, in the primaries held throughout the state last night, at least fifteen of the thirty-two members of the Massachusetts delegation to Chicago Of the seventeen other delegates, eleven will go to the convention unpledged for any candidate, while the caucuses did not determine who the other six delegates will be.

JAMESTOWN ELKS MEET.

Jamestown, N. D., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Jamestown Lodge of Elks No. 995 has elected the following officers who will be installed this week: Exalted ruler, Charles D. Shurlock; Esteemed leading knight, Charles Rathman; esteemed loyal knight, Malcolm Sinclair; secretary, R. E. Wallace; treasurer, M. Murphy; tyler, John Severn.

OBSCENE CARD MEN ARRESTED

C. G. Smith and Homer Chapman Apprehended at Aitkin.

C. G. Smith and Homer Chapman have been arrested at Aitkin, Minn., charged with having been responsible for the circulation of certain obscene cards advertising different saloons. A good many of the cards have been circulated in Duluth, and efforts have been made for some time past to apprehend the offenders.

C. W. Arnold of Minneapolis is responsible for the arrest of the men. Mr. Arnold, who makes it his special business to see that the circulation of such cards as these is stopped wherever possible, was in Duluth recently, and did a lot of good work in the cause while here. He will appear as a witness against Smith and Chapman when they are taken before the Aitkin authorities April 6. The cards in question contain suggestive poetry that is considered offensive to the minds of decent people.

WEATHER MAN SPRINGS JOKE

Snow Storm Greets Eyes of an Unsuspecting Public.

The weather man played an April fool day joke in the shape of a snow storm upon an unsuspecting and trusting public this morning. Thoughts of spring, such as should go with the first day of April, filled the minds of Duluthians when they got out of bed, but one glance out of the window quickly dispelled them. A coating of white covered the ground, and large flakes of snow continued to fall steadily and persistently.

GIRL INDICTED.

Grand Jury Returns Bill Against Flora Whiston for Perjury.

New York, April 1.—Flora Whiston, one of the girls who testified in the recent case against Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, was indicted by a grand jury yesterday on a charge of perjury, alleged to have been committed in her testimony in the Hitchcock cases.

The Whiston girl's admission that she had sworn falsely resulted in the acquittal of Hitchcock on the first of the charges made against him by young girls. He will soon be brought to trial again on the indictment charging him with abducting Helen von Hagen and Elsie Voeks.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

A four-story building at 299 Canal street, Chicago, occupied by H. Schomer & Co., manufacturers of wire mattresses, was destroyed by fire Tuesday entailing a loss estimated at $50,000.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice O'Hern of Claire, Iowa, is now ten days old and weighs only two and three-quarters pounds with two yards of flannel about it. It seems to be healthy and is perfectly formed in every way.

The body of Chester Gillette, who was electrocuted in Auburn prison Monday for the murder of Grace Brown, was interred Tuesday afternoon in Sole cemetery, two miles from Auburn. Only members of the family were present. The members of the Gillette family sang three hymns, "Abide With Me," Joy Cometh in the Morning" and "Until He Comes."

The receivership for the Westinghouse Machine company, created last October at the beginning of the financial depression, was vacted last Tuesday by Judge S. Young of the United States circuit court on petition of the company and the receivers.

Herbert Parsons of New York, chairman of the Republican county committee Tuesday night won a victory in the primaries, candidates favorable to his leadership winning in every district in which there has been a contest, except two being elected.

James H. Mahon was shot and seriously wounded Tuesday night in Baltimore by William H. Harig. Mahon is a brother of John H. Mahon, who is prominent in newspaper circles in Baltimore. The shooting occurred near one of the popular theaters and caused a great deal of excitement. Harig claims he shot in self defense.

The senate Tuesday confirmed the nomination of Grant Victor to be United States marshal for the eastern district of Oklahoma, over whose nomination there has been considerable controversy because of Mr. Victor's support of Secretary Taft for the presidency.

WILL NOT ARBITRATE.

United States Can Obtain No Satisfaction From Venezuela.

Washington, April 1.—The long expected correspondence between America and Venezuela respecting pending American claims against the latter country was submitted to the senate yesterday and is almost certain to create a profound impression.

It will be difficult to digest the vast mass of material which Secretary Root has placed before congress, but even a cursory inspection of the document makes it evident that negotiations have reached a critical phase.

The president's realization of that fact is shown by his transmission of the matter to the senate without any comment regarding the correspondence and especially Secretary Root's strong presentation of the American case, is sufficient to enlist the attention of congress.

Venezuela's latest reply, made through Minister Russell, is a flat declination to arbitrate any of the questions at issue and consequently the point has been reached when diplomacy can be of no further avail.

EAST OPTIMISTIC.

J. Uno Sebenius Says Indications Are for Improved Conditions.

The East is optomistic over the outlook for business, according to Maj. J. Uno Sebenius, general mining engineer for the Oliver company, who has just returned, in company with Guy E. Diehl, his assistant, from an Eastern trip.

"Everybody expects improved business conditions from this time on," said Mr. Sebenius, "but a complete return of good times is hardly anticipated before the presidential election is a thing of the past. The feeling is that prices of reliable stocks will gradually work higher, with the usual occasional recessions characteristic of the stock market."

S.S.S. OLDEST AND BEST BLOOD PURIFIER

The best recommendation of S. S. S. as a blood purifier, is its long continued popularity with the people. For more than forty years it has been upon the market, and each succeeding year the demand for it has grown larger, until its merits as a medicine have been tested and proven throughout the length and breadth of the land. S. S. S. is not a "cure all" nor in any sense a "miraculous" remedy; it is simply a blood purifier of the highest order, and one whose long successful record fully warrants the confidence in which it is universally held.

Bad blood is responsible for most of the ailments of mankind. The circulation being the medium through which every portion of the body must receive the nourishment and strength necessary to preserve health, it can very readily be seen that when this vital fluid becomes contaminated or diseased, some physical disorder is sure to follow.

Humors in the circulation produce skin diseases and eruptions of different kinds, an excess of uric acid is responsible for Rheumatism, morbid impurities are the foundation of old sores, while various other physical derangements follow the polluting of the blood.

Spring is the season at which a blood purifier is usually most needed. Impurities and humors which corrupt the circulation have been left in the system because of the inactive Winter life. The members whose duty it is to carry off the refuse and useless matter from the body, do not perform their work as well in cold weather, because they do not receive as much stimulation from bodily exercise. So this impure, fermenting matter is left to sour and form humors and acids, which are soon absorbed into the blood.

In my estimation there is no blood medicine equal to S. S. S. I have used quite a good deal of it recently and found it to be all you claim for it. The medicine thoroughly cleansed and renovated the blood, and restored it to its normal, healthy condition; at least that has been my experience with it. I notice also that it builds up the general health while purifying the blood. My appetite improved under its use, and I felt better in every way. Before taking your medicine I had an itching, burning eruption and other evidences of bad blood, but S. S. S. has done away with this, and I am in good health.

R. T. KELLY.

609 Harris Street, Harrisburg, Penn.

With the return of warmer weather the blood is aroused from its sluggish, congested condition, and begins to throw off these impurities, and its fiery, acrid nature irritates and diseases the pores and glands of the skin, and produces Eczema, Acne, Tetter, pimples, rashes, eruptions, boils, etc. These impurities also destroy the nutritive qualities of the blood, and it becomes a weak, watery stream, unable to nourish and strengthen the body, and the system grows debilitated and weak, the appetite and digestion are deranged, and a general run-down condition of health results.

Nothing equals S. S. S. when the blood needs help. It is nature's blood purifier, made from roots and herbs, and in addition is the finest of tonics. It goes down into the circulation, and removes all humors, acids and impurities, and makes the blood pure and rich. It tones up the stomach and digestion, strengthens and builds up the system, prepares it for the long, hot months of Summer, and in every way shows its beneficial effects as a blood purifier and tonic.

S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, as well as Eczema, Acne, Tetter, and skin diseases and eruptions of every kind. It removes every taint from the blood, and promotes bodily vigor and health. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired will be sent free to all who write. S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

The Great Restorative

Non-Alcoholic Tonic

of the day, made entirely of native medicinal roots and without a drop of alcohol in its composition.

There are no secrets---all its ingredients being printed on the bottle-wrappers.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only builds up the strength of the feeble, debilitated, languid, nervous and easily fatigued, whether young or aged, but it enriches and purifies the blood, thus making the improvement lasting.

It corrects and overcomes indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, torpid liver, chronic diarrhea and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

In Chronic Nasal Catarrh, it is well to cleanse the nasal passages out freely with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" as a constitutional treatment. Old obstinate cases of catarrh yield to this thorough course of treatment.

Through enriching and purifying the blood, the "Discovery" cures scrofulous affections, also blotches, pimples, eruptions, and other ugly affections of the skin. Old, open, running sores, or ulcers, are healed by taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" internally and applying Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve as a local dressing. The Salve can be had of druggists, or will be sent by return mail on receipt of 50 cents in stamps. Address Doctor Pierce as below for it.

In short "Golden Medical Discovery" regulates, purifies and invigorates the whole system and thus cures a very large range of diseases. The reason Why it cures such a varied list of diseases is made clear in a little booklet of extracts from the leading medical authorities, compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and which he will be pleased to send post-paid and entirely free to any who send him their names and addresses.

You can't afford to accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps (to cover cost of mailing) for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

KNIFE SEWED IN PATIENT.

Physician's Instrument Found in Body of a Dead Laborer.

Vancouver, B. C., March 31.—The body of William A. Campbell, a laborer who died at the city hospital recently under suspicious circumstances, was given a thorough examination by the city surgeon after his death. Imbedded between the tissues of the man's abdomen was found a surgeon's knife. Then it developed that three months before Campbell had been operated upon for appendicitis and the surgeon mislaid his knife and sewed it up inside his patient.

ONAMIA'S NEW SAWMILL IS RUNNING FULL BLAST.

Onamia, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The new sawmill of the Onamia Lumber company, which was started last week, is now running full blast, and the opening up of this industry is looked upon as a great boon to the community. The company has about 4,000 logs in the yard, out of which will be cut a fine lot of good lumber, as most of the logs are good quality.

The company has quite a supply of dry lumber on hand that will be run through the planer as soon as possible. It proposes to establish and maintain a first-class lumber yard.

KRUPPS ARE NOT BUYING

Berlin Man Says Steel Importations Have Decreased.

Says Count Flirted With Opera Singer on Wedding Trip.

Otto Kaufman of Berlin, Germany, an official of the Krupp steel works, is at the Lenox today. Mr. Kaufman says that the buying of steel by the Krupps and other German importers, who import certain grades of American steel for sale in Germany, has greatly decreased since the tightening of money in the United States. This is noticed in the German exportations to this country also.

The Krupps and the United States Steel company have an agreement, according to Mr. Kaufman, covering the sale of certain kinds of steel in this country by the German steel house. This agreement is reciprocal, in that the United States Steel company competes only on certain lines. They give the Krupps certain grades of steel for European sale, and the Krupps in turn agree only to sell certain kind of steel in the territory dominated by the American corporation.

Mr. Kaufman says the money situation has affected the steel business heavily. His business has been curtailed, simply because the American manufacturers and wholesalers are not taking the amount of raw or manufactured goods that was needed a year ago. This is also true of German exportations in general. Raw hides and furs, which are exported from Leipsic are not finding a ready market, while the German trades people are feeling the effects of the lessened demand for many of the manufactured goods.

It may seem peculiar, but Mr. Kaufman says they are watching the result of the approaching presidential election as closely in Europe as they are in this country. Roosevelt is the man they want to see elected. Mr. Kaufman says they think he is the greatest man of the whole world. They know all about him, over in Germany, and they think he is just as important a personage as the kaiser, which is going some for a German. They have many pictures of Roosevelt in cafes, hotels and other places; for the strenuous one, according to Mr. Kaufman, has escaped the fate of many American presidents, whose fame was provincial.

On his last trip to Germany Mr. Kaufman crossed on the same boat with Count Laszlo Szechenyi and his bride, who was Miss Gladys Vanderbilt. Mr. Kaufman gives them two years to live together. He even says that the count flirted with an opera singer on the way across. He doesn't predict a happy union between the Vanderbilt millions and the royal blood of Count Szechenyi.

Mr. Kaufman says that Bertha Krupp, the daughter of the late German steel king, is the head of the Krupp interests. This young woman was trained by the late head of the vast steel interests, and has absorbed the ideas and business acumen that made her father one of the richest men in the world. The business seems to have suffered no loss of prestige since this mere girl took her place at the head of the company.

Mr. Kaufman has crossed thirty-one times and says that never in his experience has he seen the big liners so poorly patronized. Going to Europe the steerage is filled with returning immigrants. But neither going nor coming are the big liners enjoying a heavy first or second class list. There were only eighty-five steerage passenger on the boat Mr. Kaufman came over on. Until the money situation improves, Mr. Kaufman believes that certain parts of Europe will send but few people to America.

INDEPENDENT TELEPHONE

Association Opens Headquarters at Chicago With Salaried Officers.

Chicago, March 31.—Permanent headquarters of the International Independent Telephone association were opened today in Chicago with the purpose of inaugurating a policy of aggressiveness, that the organization expects will put a new complexion on the telephone situation in America. For the first time in the history of the independent telephone movement and the organization of the association there is a salaried president, A. C. Lindemuth of Richmond, Ind., and a salaried secretary, J. B. Ware of Detroit, Mich., both of whom with a corps of assistants will devote their entire time to organization and field work and stimulating and promoting the co-operative objects of the association. Mr. Lindemuth has twice been president of the Indiana Telephone association and has served as member of the executive committee and advisory board of the organization of which he is now president. He said today:

"There are at present no less than ten thousand independent telephone companies operating approximately 20,000 independent telephone exchanges in the United States and Canada, with tens of thousands of miles of toll lines, occupying in all or in part all the states and territories of the union and all the provinces of Canada, having over four million of independent telephones installed and being supplied by upward of 1,000 factories and supply houses, and altogether representing an investment of $550,000,000.

"The cry of duplication and economic waste is a familiar one in all branches and industries, but recent utterances of the candidates for the highest office in the land on commercial and industrial liberty and competition as against monopoly, provide all the defense the independent telephone industry may need. The integrity of the independent telephone system and it's universal extension implies the continuing of the present independent telephone system as a separate and distinct industry and system, extended into all undeveloped territory, whether in city or country, reorganized and strengthened into a complete and effective whole. We are proceeding along most legitimate and purpose lines, developing and promoting an industry which is bound to operate for the good of the entire people and we have selected Chicago as a central point from which to direct such operations.

ADMIRAL BARS "JACKIE."

Declares Term as Applied to Present-Day Sailor is Insult.

Bremerton, Wash., March 31.—Rear Admiral W. T. Burwell of the Puget Sound navy yard has put the stamp of disapproval upon the term "Jackie," as applied to the enlisted men of the navy. He says: "The word 'Jackie' was a nickname given the old seamen of the sailing men-of-war in the early days of this country, but it is out of place now when the navy is filled with bright young men, little more than boys. To call the present-day sailor a 'jackie' is little less than an insult."

How to Decorate Your Home Artistically

The latest effects in interior decoration are confined almost entirely to the soft, dainty tints that are restful to the eye and which afford the most pleasing background for pictures, furniture and furnishings.

The lighter shades make each room bright and cheery, and gives the entire home an air of daintiness that cannot be obtained with strong colors or vivid patterns.

Alabastine

The Sanitary Wall Coating

comes in sixteen shades and white, and these can be combined into an endless variety of soft, velvety tints, which permit of the most artistic color schemes known to the decorative art.

Alabastine is more artistic, more durable, more economical and more sanitary than either wall-paper or kalsomine. Anyone can apply it. It hardens and becomes part of the wall itself, and is therefore absolutely sanitary. It neither fades, rubs off nor scales. It is the one perfect decorating material.

Complete Color Plans Free, on Request

To anyone intending to decorate, we will send complete color plans, in genuine Alabastine tints, upon receipt of size and description of rooms. Sample tint cards free at dealers.

Sold by Paint, Drug, Hardware and General Stores in carefully sealed and properly labeled packages, at 50c the package for white and 55c the package for tints. See that the name "Alabastine" is on each package before it is opened either by yourself or the workmen.

ERROR IS POSSIBLE

Says Mr. Cromwell Has a Remedy in Supreme Court.

James L. Cromwell, Republican candidate for alderman in the Second ward will probably appeal to the supreme court from the decision of Judge W. A. Cant, declaring George J. Bloedel the Democratic candidate to have been legally elected to the position.

The ground for the appeal is likely to be the question as to the intention of John Erickson, who wrote his name across one of the ballots that the court threw out and which Mr. Cromwell claimed was a vote for him. Erickson's name was written under Mr. Cromwell's name and ran through the square intended for the "X" mark. Judge Cant, in his decision, held that the name was written for the purpose of identification in so far as he could interpret the law in the matter, although the court expressed a belief that Mr. Erickson probably intended to indicate his choice of candidates by writing his name. Judge Cant, in his memorandum, states there may be reason to believe there is an error in his ruling, in which event Mr. Cromwell has a remedy by carrying the case to the supreme court.

If the supreme court holds that the Erickson ballot was intended as a vote for Mr. Cromwell the result of the election will be a tie vote, each candidatee having 721 votes. It is claimed that Mr. Cromwell, in that event, would continue to hold the position of alderman under the agreement entered into to cast lots for the job.

LAND FOR SETTLERS

Soon to be Opened by Government on Irrigation Project.

St. Paul, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word has been received at the offices of the Great Northern from the interior department at Washington that the Fort Shaw unit of the Sun River irrigation project will be opened for settlement May 7. The land is situated about twenty-five miles southwest of Great Falls, Mont., and is said to be suitable for the growing of fruits, vegetables and alfalfa. The climate is comparatively mild, as it is in the district where the warm chinook winds modify the temperature.

There will be room for about 200 families on the tract to be opened. The land is subject to homestead entry, but a water charge of $30 per acre is made. This can be paid in not less than five and not more than ten annual installments, the first payment being due at the time of filing. Those desiring full information regarding the land can obtain it from the United States land office at Great Falls.

NEW PRISON WORK WILL SOON BE LET.

St. Paul, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bids for the first buildings to be erected on the new state prison site at Stillwater will be opened at the office of the state board of control, on April 18. It is expected that it will be possible to have a great deal of the work done this season.

The board of control now has available about $260,000, and the remainder of the appropriation for the new prison will be placed at the disposal of the board in sums of $100,000 each year.

The bids to be opened April 18 will be for a factory, three warehouses and a temporary power plant.

The factory will be a three-story structure, of steel and concrete, with brick facing. No stone will be used for the reason that it would make the building too expensive.

GIRL SPELLER A MARVEL.

Inter-County Honors in Iowa Go to 10-Year-Old.

Waterloo, Iowa, March 31.—Lucy Robinson, 10 years old, carried off championship honors in the inter-county spelling contest at Manchester. Teams of ten each represented Black Hawk and Delaware counties, Delaware winning both team and individual honors. Lucy Robinson, who is a phenomenal speller, is a three-times champion, having won her first medal when 7 years old. Educators look upon the child as a marvel. She has always been able to spell correctly, but no one pretends to explain. She spells with a sort of intuitive knowledge of words, and when in a contest she attacks every puzzler with a certainty and precision that is amazing.

COPPER DEPOSIT

Stillwater, Minn., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Mulvey, an old-time logger of this city, purchased years ago near Mora, Kanabec county, 400 acres of land covered with pine trees. He has since cut the timber and then offered the real estate for sale at any old price without being able to find purchasers. Now it has been learned that there is a rich deposit of copper on a portion of the tract and the owner has been offered $40 an acre for a portion thereof with the right to reserve a half interest in the ore deposit.

This is the Way to Keep Well without Cascarets

Live outdoors, and let your work be exercise. Else walk ten miles a day.

Eat little meat, no white bread, no rich pastries. Eat many green vegetables, plenty of fruit, and bread made of whole wheat.

Do that, and you'll have little need of a laxative while you keep young.

But when you grow old, and the bowels become less active, you will need this help anyway.

Cascarets are for those who live indoors, who eat rich foods, who eat and drink too much.

It causes no irritation, as pill cathartics, salts and castor oil do. Its action is just as natural—just as gentle—as the action of laxative foods.

So choose your own way.

Give Nature the aid of proper food and exercise, else the help of Cascarets.

One way serves as well as the other. But some way is essential. For one cannot keep well unless the bowels move freely once every day.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The box is marked like this:

Cascarets

THEY WORK WHILE YOU REST

The vest-pocket box is 10 cents. The month-treatment box 50 cents. 12,000,000 boxes sold annually.

Weak Heart Action

There are certain nerves that control the action of the heart. When they become weak, the heart action is impaired. Short breath, pain around heart, choking sensation, palpitation, fluttering, feeble or rapid pulse, and other distressing symptoms follow. Dr. Miles Heart Cure is a medicine especially adapted to the needs of these nerves and the muscular structure of the heart itself. It is a strengthening tonic that brings speedy relief. Try it.

"For years I suffered with what I thought was stomach trouble, when the doctors told me I had heart trouble. I had tried many remedies, when the Dr. Miles' almanac came into my hands, and I concluded to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I have taken three bottles, and now I am not suffering at all. I am cured and this medicine did it. I write this in the hope that it will attract the attention of others who suffer as I did."

SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF COUPLE'S WEDDING.

Mankato, Minn., April 1.—Monday afternoon a most unusual social event occurred when Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wilson gave a reception from 2 to 5 o'clock in honor of the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding. A hundred or more friends and relatives gathered and a sumptuous repast was served.

The host is 90 years old and the hostess eight years his junior, yet both are well and sprightly, and do their accustomed work the same as twenty years ago.

ROBBED WHILE ASLEEP.

Mankato, Minn., April 1.—James A. Watson, a school teacher of Castlewood, S. D., was robbed while sleeping at the union depot between trains, being wearied from long traveling. His watch and $20 in money were taken from his pockets by some unknown thief.

NOTED JAP SURGEON VISITS ROCHESTER CLINIC.

Rochester, Minn., April 1.—Kinji Takaki, son of Baron Takaki, the noted surgeon general of the Japanese army, has arrived in Rochester from Japan to attend clinics at St. Mary's hospital. The doctor has a younger brother who is studying medicine at the University of Pennsylvania. The doctor's father, Baron Takaki, visited Rochester a year ago last June.

NO MUNICIPAL COURT.

Bemidji, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Bemidji will not have a municipal court for the present. Such was the determination reached by the city council Monday evening, when a resolution was presented authorizing the establishing of the court, commencing July 1, and fixing the salary of the judge at $1,200 per year, and the salary of the clerk at $600. To pass required a four-fifths majority, or eight votes of the council. The resolution was lost by a vote of 6 to 2.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Houghton, Mich., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles Makki, alias Charles Hill, a woodsman who has been employed in a camp near Ontonagon, was arraigned in Justice Casper Brandt's court Monday to answer a charge of assault with intent to kill, preferred by his alleged victim, Andrew Hermes of Mohawk. Makki waived examination and in default of $1,000 was remanded to the county jail, to await trial at the May term of circuit court.

FARMER IS KILLED.

Sleepy Eye, Minn., April 1.—George Martl, aged 40 years, a well known farmer, met with a fatal accident yesterday afternoon. His team, hitched to a heavy pulverizer, ran away. Mr. Martl fell under the machine. The main artery of a leg was severed. He leaves a wife and five children.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MANY COME AFTER LAND

Outsiders Arriving in Northern Minnesota Looking for Homes.

Tenstrike, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—R. C. Haynes, agent here of the Minnesota Hardwood Land & Development company, reports the sale of a considerable amount of land during the past two weeks bought by actual settlers and sundry Eastern farmers.

A party of five men from Belvidere, Ill., last week, bought 135 acres, near Rebedew lake, at $12.50 per acre. These men have formed a company and will erect a sawmill the coming summer. They will invest in more land later on.

Messrs. Brood and Larson, from Rockford, Ill., purchased a tract of 220 acres, between Rebedew and Blackduck, at $12.50 per acre, and will settle on the land in the near future.

A forty-acre tract was disposed of by Mr. Hayner to Gust Johnson of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at $10 an acre, the land being located southeast of Rebedew lake.

Another forty was sold to Christ Peterson at $10 per acre.

The land tributary to Tenstrike is the best of agricultural land, and yet contains much valuable timber. Arrangements are already under way to erect several sawmills, with a view of working up the timber and getting the land ready for actual farming.

Since Nov. 18 last Mr. Hayner has located forty-one people on land tributary to Tenstrike. Most of these are from Illinois and Iowa and a few from Wisconsin, and are married men with families—just the kind for this country, and have come here to stay.

BRINGS BACK HIS MAN.

Beltrami County Sheriff Returns With Alleged Embezzler.

Bemidji, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sheriff Thomas Bailey has returned from Los Angeles, Cal., bringing Rowland Patterson, formerly of Spooner, wanted for embezzlement.

Patterson was lodged in the Beltrami county jail, and will be given a hearing soon.

Patterson was formerly a resident of Spooner, and while in the employ of the Shevlin-Mathieu Lumber company at that place, is said to have embezzled a large sum, in conjunction with a bookkeeper, by having "straw men" on the time books.

Patterson left Spooner and the embezzlement is claimed to have been discovered after his departure. Later Patterson was located in Los Angeles, and Sheriff Bailey went after him.

Negaunee, Mich., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—There are several Negaunee and Ishpeming people who would welcome the return of Floyd D. Archer, late manager of the Bijou moving picture theater here, and the Grand theater at Ishpeming provided he would square up the unpaid accounts he left behind him. Mr. Archer sold his house in Negaunee for $600 and the one at Ishpeming for $375. There was a mortgage on the Ishpeming house and two on the Bijou.

When Archer left Negaunee he said he had $70 of the $600 he received for the Negaunee house, but it is believed he took the $375 he received at Ishpeming with him. Archer was not a successful manager, and it is not surprising that he did not make the houses pay. The Negaunee house, which was purchased by a Sault Ste. Marie woman, is being managed temporarily by W. J. Harris, who was in Archer's employ.

LID IS OFF AGAIN.

East Grand Forks Headgear is Fitting Rather Loosely.

East Grand Forks, N. D., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The lid has been taken off again, and saloons are open at all hours. Mayor Hugh Dunlevy took off the lid as far as it relates to 11 o'clock closing, but will insist on the saloons being closed Sundays, it is stated. Several saloon men, would not have again applied for licenses had it appeared that the lid is to be kept on permanently.

MURDERED, THEN HID IN CELLAR

Fate of Gus Johnson, Farmer Living Near Kenmare N. D.

Minot, N. D., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—In order to escape possible lynching at the hands of frenzied farmers living south of Kenmare over the atrocious murder of Gus Johnson, a prosperous farmer, who was killed and his body hid in the cellar of his own house, R. S. Noah and Patsy Coyle, an ex-convict, suspected of the crime, have been brought here to the county jail. Nearly a month ago Johnson hired Noah to work for him and a few days ago the latter coming to Kenmare said that Johnson had been called unexpectedly to Sweden by the death of his mother and had turned property over to Noah with authority to dispose of it. Noah also said he had hired Coyle, recently released from the Bismarck penitentiary, for a robbery at Newport, to work for him in winding up Johnson's affairs.

A neighbor of Gus Johnson, also named Johnson, but no relation, became suspicious when Noah and Coyle disposed of some of the wheat and had them arrested for its theft, meanwhile setting on foot an investigation of the Johnson place.

Postmaster Dobbs of Kennaston made a thorough investigation of the house and on a floor found a piece of new linoleum which aroused his suspicion. This was torn up and beneath it was found blood stains over a trap door leading into the cellar. In the cellar was found the body of Johnson showing unmistakable marks of violence.

The two men were immediately placed under heavy guards at the Commercial hotel at Kenmare. Special police were sworn in and guarded the hotel entrance. When the news of the murder was spread abroad there was talk of lynching, and it was rumored that a crowd of farmer neighbors of the dead man were on their way to the hotel. The sheriff was summoned from Minot and arrived there on the night train with his deputies, and the men are now lodged in the county jail.

ENGINEER YAEGER BACK

From California to Resume His Duties in Duluth.

Brainerd, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yeager of Minneapolis arrived Saturday from California and spent Sunday at the home of her prents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Whiteley. Mr. Yeager left yesterday for Duluth, to take up his work as civil engineer in charge of the construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad company's bridge between Duluth and Superior.

GEESE GOING NORTHWARD.

Sure Signs of Spring Are Seen Around Crookston.

Crookston, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—A lone farmer reported to Charles Longley a few days ago that ducks and geese had passed in sloughs and ponds nearby on his farm. Yesterday morning a number of the birds of passage sailed high over this city, going from south in a northeasterly direction. This movement is the sure sign of approaching spring. James E. Morrisey and J. M. Stephens both saw flocks of geese yesterday and today.

SPENDTHRIFT WHITECAPPED.

Failed to Support His Family and Neighbors Act.

Escanaba, Mich., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Because it was claimed that he did not properly support his family, and was an undesirable citizen, masked vigilantes, Sunday night, took James Richle from his home at the village of Ford River, near here, and after severely horsewhipping him, ordered him to leave the district.

Bearing marks of the beating he had received, Richle arrived in Escanaba and swore out warrants for the arrest of six members of the vigilance committee, whom he says he recognized.

LLOYD WILL RESIST BEING BROUGHT BACK.

Rochester, Minn., April 1.—County Attorney Richardson received a telegram from Sheriff E. H. Vine, who is now at Birmingham, Ala., to secure the person of Francis Addison Lloyd, stating that the requisition papers had been honored, but there is a possibility he will be unable to secure his prisoners.

Lloyd does not care to return to Rochester unless the laws make it absolutely necessary, and as a result has started habeas corpus proceedings to resist extradition. The county attorney does not know upon just what grounds Lloyd is fighting the case, and it is quite possible that Mr. Richardson will be called to Alabama to represent the county in the case.

WANTED IN ST. PAUL, CHECK ARTIST CAUGHT.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Maurice Frank, who is reputed to be one of the cleverest check forgers known to the police, who make a specialty of hotel work, was arrested at the Plankinton house yesterday by Detectives John Normington and Leonard Schweitzer. Frank is being held at the central police station until an officer from St. Paul arrives to get him. He is wanted at St. Paul on the charge of passing a forged check for $75 at the Hotel Ryan of that city, where he was recently a guest.

Calumet—Mrs. Valera Girouard, aged 76 years, died Sunday night at her home in Lake Linden, being taken away very suddenly. She had attended church, returning at 9 o'clock and two hours later she was dead. She was born in Canada, but had long been a resident of Lake Linden.

Houghton—James C. Thompson, former local agent of the Anchor line, has been transferred to Milwaukee and will represent the boat line in an office at that city.

Marquette—Edward Grondin, who has been lumbering near Seney, will spend the summer in Marquette. It is stated that during the season he has sold 30,000 ties to the South Shore, and besides has put in 125 carloads of pulpwood and 40,000 posts and poles. Mr. Grondin spent the summer here last year.

Negaunee—P. C. Peterson and Louis Johnson, who left Negaunee a few weeks ago on a visit to Oregon, California, Nevada and other Western cities, have returned. While in Oregon they called on Robert Ewing, formerly a farmer here.

Ishpeming—At a largely attended and enthusiastic convention of the Ishpeming Republicans, held at the Nelson house Monday evening, the following city ticket was placed in nomination: Mayor, Frank E. Keese; recorder, John J. Giles; treasurer, Andrew Nelson; school inspector, T. W. Durham.

Negaunee—For the first time in several years there will be a real live election in Richmond township. Two complete tickets were nominated Saturday night. The first one named will be known as the "Caucus ticket," the other as the "People's ticket."

Ishpeming—J. H. McLean, an official of the United States Steel corporation, and wife were here Sunday in his private car to attend the funeral of the late George R. Persons. Mr. McLean and Mrs. Persons are first cousins.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

St. Paul—E. K. Slater, state dairy and food commissioner, and E. W. Randall, dean of the state agricultural school, will speak at Lanesboro April 15, at the annual meeting of the Fillmore County Business Men's association.

Owatonna—Joseph Sigried, the young man accused of having forged certain checks and of passing one of these on G. P. Ryffel, a local merchant, appeared Tuesday morning and pleaded guilty. On account of his youth he was given a chance to reform by being given an indeterminate sentence in the state reformatory.

Minneapolis—William Watson, employed as a plasterer on a house at Seventh and Oak Lake avenues north, dropped dead yesterday afternoon while at work. He was 50 years of age, and had no relatives in this city, so far as known.

Crookston—Della Claus, the young girl arrested in East Grand Forks recently for incorrigibility, has been sentenced to the training school at Red Wing and was taken there Tuesday evening.

Moorhead—This season's shipments of potatoes in Clay county are estimated at 1,500 cars, and at the average price obtained by farmers this would represent an income to Clay county of at least $375,000 for potatoes alone.

Ranier—The Fitger Brewing company is rushing the work on its buildings as fast as possible. The icehouse is completed and filled. Work has been started on the two store buildings and the storage house has been completed and the ice chambers filled.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Minot, N. D.—Sheriff Lee has purchased two bloodhounds, which will be used to help Ward county officials in enforcing the laws. Minot will be the second place in North Dakota where bloodhounds are in use. The authorities at the state prison have several bloodhounds.

Fargo, N. D.—The funeral of the late Peter Donahue of Fingal, N. D., occurred Monday with solemn high mass at St. Mary's cathedral and interment in the family plot in the cemetery of this parish.

Grand Forks, N. D.—J. B. Stewart has sold to C. Button, lot 1, block 5, McCormick's addition, for a consideration of $900. The deal was made through W. H. Kelsey.

Pierre, S. D.—The Indemnity Fire company of New York has announced its withdrawal from business in this state, and has reinsured all its business with the Norwich Union company.

Devils Lake, N. D.—In the justice court B. B. Regan waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court on a charge assault to kill, his wife being the complaining witness. His bonds were fixed at $5,000, which he was unable to furnish.

Grand Forks, N. D.—In district court Tuesday a verdict was returned for the plaintiff in the case of the Northwestern Detective agency against S. A. Martin. The amount was $58.75. The case involved the payment of fees for detective services rendered.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Waukesha—What seems to have been the act of a firebug caused a fire loss aggregating $15,000 at the Edward Foster and John Price farms, at the southeastern limits of the city, early Monday evening. Two large barns were consumed. The loss is only partially covered by insurance.

Chippewa Falls—Mrs. Jane Johnson had a narrow escape of being run over by an Omaha passenger train. She was lying asleep only three inches from the track when the train passed. She stated that she had been exhausted in walking from Milwaukee to Superior and lay down to rest, not knowing that the train was due.

Ashland—John Ringwood, cashier of the John Schroeder Lumber company, fired twice at a burglar who entered his home recently, and is thought to have wounded him, although the man has not been caught.

Plainfield—Debs, the 11-year-old son of E. T. Bentley of this city, is dead from lockjaw. The boy accidentally shot himself in the hand while playing with a revolver.

Oshkosh—Announcement is made from the government engineering office in this city, that navigation on the Fox river and connecting lakes will formally open Monday, April 6. This is the same date as the opening last year. The usual time is between April 15 and 20.

Milwaukee—Henry Cheney, a resident of Milwaukee since 1858, and for sixteen years employed as a machinist in the shops of the E. P. Allis company, died Monday at his home, 362 Superior street, aged 79 years. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence.

The Merits of the Twin City & Lake Superior Railway Co., Which It is Our Pleasure to Represent—With a View of Securing the Opportunity to Submit to You Indisputable Facts and Figures—Not Those Prepared by Us But by People Who Have Audited Our Books and Have Made a Critical Examination.

Are We Unreasonable to Expect Your Attention for a Few Moments?

To give us the opportunity to present just a few statements and opinions from prominent publications. We Take Pleasure in Reproducing Here the Editorial from the Minneapolis Journal of March 12th, 1908:

THE DULUTH ARROW LINE.

For a year the backers of the Twin City & Lake Superior Electric line project have been using the advertising columns of The Journal in soliciting the investing public's support. The publicity given to the enterprise has naturally given rise to the questions: Is it a feasible project on a bona fide basis, and are all reasonable safeguards given to investors? To answer these questions, Fred H. Wendell of Wendell & Green, the Minneapolis public accountants, has just completed a thorough examination of the books of the company. It was in the belief that a new short line to the Head of the Lakes, operated by electricity, would, if realized, be a good thing, and that the public was entitled to an impartial and expert examination of the enterprise in question, The Journal commissioned Mr. Wendell to undertake the task. He was selected because of his well-known qualifications for the work and because his standing in the community insured his reporting the facts exactly as he found them.

Mr. Wendell has completed his examination and made his report to The Journal. He finds substantially that the project is wisely conceived and logically laid out; that the company's affairs have been economically administered in the interests of the individual investors; that every facility was afforded him for a thorough examination, and that there is not and has not been any opportunity or disposition for stock-jobbing on the part of the officers. After this thorough examination, Mr. Wendell declares that he would not have the slightest hesitation in investing his own money in the project.—Editorial Minneapolis Journal, March 12th.

A NEW ERA OF DEVELOPMENT.

In this respect she is far behind her sister state of Wisconsin even, and immeasurably distanced by Ohio, Indiana and others of the central west and eastern states, which have electric lines covering them like network, providing quick, clean and cheap passenger and freight transportation in all directions.

Minnesota's development in this direction has been neglected. While the coast country and the east is the scene of much successful electric railroad building, our capitalists have so far confined their energies to making money along the more old-fashioned lines of steam railroading, lumbering, milling and mining.

While Minneapolis has been making good within its corporate limits with the finest street railway system in the world, other cities, like Indianapolis, have gone a step further and developed all its surrounding territory, making it directly tributary through scores of electrically-operated, cheap and convenient interurban lines.

Apparently, however, capital so long indifferent to these opportunities, has at last become interested. What should be a vastly important enterprise, the Twin City & Lake Superior Railway Company, now asks the support and the moral encouragement of the public.

That there is room for this railroad; that if built in an economical manner and operated capably and honestly, it will be of immense benefit to Minneapolis and the whole northwest; that the state is ripe for development of this kind—all this is admitted.

This company already has 32 miles of grade between Minneapolis and the Head of the Lakes completed and ready for steel and ties, with the right of way surveyed clear through and title secured or in process of legal condemnation.

Upon the evidence, prima facie, it would seem that the day of the interurban in Minnesota had arrived.—Editorial Minneapolis News, March 26th.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE OF FEBRUARY 9 HAS A WELL-PREPARED ARTICLE ON NEW RAILROADS; IT SAYS IN PART:

"While electric railway building at the present time is unprecedented throughout the country and almost every state in the Union has numerous interurban lines under construction or projected for the near future, the chief piece of electric railway construction is the TWIN CITY & LAKE SUPERIOR RAILWAY, a 129-mile third-rail electric line from Minneapolis to Duluth. Surveys have been completed for the entire line, and since Jan. 1, 1907, thirty-eight miles of grading has been done, and work upon the remainder of the distance will be started early this spring. The road will have a double track."

"After having further investigated the affairs of the TWIN CITY & LAKE SUPERIOR RAILWAY COMPANY, we feel that we are now justified by the facts, as we found them, in adding the following paragraph to the article we printed editorially in our issue of last week:

"The purchase of TWIN CITY & LAKE SUPERIOR RAILWAY COMPANY stock is, in our judgment, a good investment, as we firmly believe the company to be thoroughly reliable in every way and fully capable of carrying their project to a successful conclusion."

ARROW LINE SOUND PROJECT.
Merits Support of Solid Men—Minneapolis Business Men Commit Themselves to Project Without Qualification.

The importance of the project to Duluth is gradually attracting attention. At first, little stress was laid upon it, but now it is perceived that it may have more to do for Duluth than other railroad lines that are coming.

Between here and the Twin Cities it is the shortest route and the intervening country will be almost immediately reached over this route.

GRADING AND CONSTRUCTION WORK.

Over 36 miles of grading is now finished and work will commence at the Duluth end early this spring. It will be a pleasure for us to submit you facts and figures regarding the details of this project. Write for this information and should you not be fully satisfied on any point, we will have a representative call upon you. Stock can be secured on the easy payment plan of $44.00, but will soon advance to $50.00.

HOW YOU CAN BUY STOCK NOW.

We are offering the full-paid, non-assessable $100 par value stock of the Twin City & Lake Superior Railway Company on the following easy terms:

$44.00 buys	1 share, pay down	$4.40 and	$4.40 per month for 9 months.
220.00 buys	5 shares, pay down	22.00 and	22.00 per month for 9 months.
440.00 buys	10 shares, pay down	44.00 and	44.00 per month for 9 months.
1100.00 buys	25 shares, pay down	110.00 and	110.00 per month for 9 months.
2200.00 buys	50 shares, pay down	220.00 and	220.00 per month for 9 months.

If all cash is paid with the application, a discount of 2 per cent will be allowed to the purchaser. You can contract for any number of shares, paying for them in the same proportion. You can pay more down and more per month, if you desire, or you can pay in the entire balance due at any time, when a certificate will be issued.

THE WESTERN SURETY & ADJUSTMENT CO,
621 LYCEUM BUILDING, DULUTH, MINN.

WILL MEET NEXT JUNE

Methodist District Conference Will be Held Unusually Late.

A Big Banquet and Meeting Called for April 22.

All the Methodist churches of the city, will get together on the evening of April 22 at the First M. E. church and hold a banquet, to be followed by a mass meeting. The affair will be attended by the Norwegian Danish Methodists, the Swedish Methodists, the German Methodists, the English Methodists, and all others belonging to this church.

The purpose of the banquet and meeting will be the promotion of the fraternal spirit and good fellowship. It is expected the attendance will be quite large. There will be several speakers, and while the program is not completely arranged, it is understood that one of the speakers will be a prominent man from the East.

The annual spring conference of the Methodist ministers of this district will be held somewhat later than usual this year. It will occur in June. The conference is attended by ministers from all parts of the district, and is generally productive of very good results. Speakers of note from the outside will be on hand to deliver addresses, and several members of the ministry from this district will be down for talks. There will be a report of officers, and reports showing the progress of church work in this district during the past year. It is understood that the latter report will be very satisfactory to everybody concerned, for excellent progress has been made with the Methodist church in this particular district, and the affairs of the whole district are said to be in very good shape.

HALFORD LAID TO REST.

Funeral of West End Business Man is Largely Attended.

The funeral of Thomas E. Halford, the well-known business man, who died suddenly Sunday from heart trouble, was held yesterday afternoon at St. Luke's Episcopal church. It was one of the most largely attended ever held in the West end.

Mr. Halford was a prominent member of the Knights of Pythias and that order was well represented at the funeral. The pallbearers were chosen from the organization and were John Murphy, Fred Amo, Frank Ayers, J. H. Brown, William McKennett and Fred McCormick.

The services were in charge of Rev. Roderick J. Mooney, rector of the church, and the Adams quartet gave several local selections.

MAN ARRESTED

On Suspicion of Being the Murderer of Express Messenger Bailey.

Newton, Kan., April 1.—William T. Carr was arrested here last night, charged with the murder of Oscar A. Bailey, the express messenger, who was killed in his car between Florence and Newton last Sunday morning, and the robbery of the express car. A pair of blood-bespattered trousers which Carr left at a local cleaner's led to his arrest. Following the arrest, a search was made of the billiard hall in which Carr was employed. An overcoat spattered with blood was found and in the pockets of this garment were many pieces of valuable jewelry. Representatives of the express company have identified this jewelry as being contained in the express car.

Carr was employed by the express company for three years and was a fellow employe of Bailey, the murdered man.

COAL PRICES ARE REDUCED

The Usual Spring Cut of 50 Cents a Ton is Made.

Following out their usual custom, dealers today reduced the price of egg, stove and nut coal 50 cents a ton. During the winter the price has been $7.75, and beginning today it will be $7.25. Cargo pea is reduced from $6.75 to $6.25 a ton.

The price will be increased at the rate of 10 cents the first of each month until September, beginning with May 1. There is no change in the price of bituminous coal. It was reduced Jan. 1, and no further reductions are looked for. The docks and railroads in Duluth and Superior are well supplied with bituminous coal, and with most grades of anthracite, so there is little worry locally over prospective trouble with labor in the soft coal regions.

Many ills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver and purifies the blood.

LARGEST WOMAN

In the World, Who Has Just Died, Weighed 569 Pounds.

Bloomington, Ill., March 31.—Miss Eva May Allen, 33 years old, who died last week at her home in Menard county, was said to the largest woman in the world.

She was of normal size until the age of 12, when she began to increase rapidly and at 30 weighed 600 pounds. She was exhibited all over the country.

Her weight at death was 569 pounds. The casket was so large it could not be placed in a hearse and had to be taken to the cemetery in a dray.

NEW ORGANIZATION

Will Emerge From the Gathering of Populists on Thursday.

St. Louis, April 1.—If the present plans of its sponsors prevail, out of the convention which is to be called here on Thursday in the name of the People's party will come an organization which its originators declared must be sharply reckoned with in the coming presidential campaign. It will stand for all that was represented by the Populist party and will probably bear the name of that organization. It will, however, receive an infusion of new blood and gain strength from the affiliation of the Federation People's party clubs, the American Monetary league, The National Provisional Committee, and other reform organizations.

Unless present plans miscarry, Thomas Watson of Georgia, the standard bearer of the Populist party in 1904, will be nominated for president. While the Nebraska delegation is instructed for William J. Bryan and the Alabama delegation favors Former Congressman M. W. Howard of that state, yet Watson is apparently far in the lead for the nomination. So far two names are mentioned for vice president. These are: Judge Samuel W. Williams of Vincennes, Ind., and Frank E. Richey of St. Louis.

SPIRITWOOD ELEVATOR DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Jamestown, N. D., March 31.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Oriental elevator at Spiritwood, near here, was destroyed by fire Sunday involving a loss of about $10,000. There were 12,000 bushels of wheat, 1,400 bushels of oats, 800 bushels of barley and 4,000 bushels of flax in the elevator at the time and all were burned with the exception of the wheat. The fire originated in an elevator booth and soon spread through the building despite the utmost efforts of the bucket brigade, which worked heroically to subdue the flames.

EVANS COMING NORTH.

Washington, April 1.—The navy department yesterday received a wireless dispatch from Admiral Evans stating that the battleship Connecticut left Magdalena bay Monday and is due to arrive at San Diego tonight. Admiral Evans is coming North, as previously announced, to receive treatment at the mineral hot springs near San Louis Obispo.

GLANDERS IN OTTER TAIL.

Fergus Falls, Minn., March 31.—Quite an epidmic of glanders is reported among the horses in the southwestern part of Otter Tail county and portions of Wilkin county. The state veterinary condemned nine animals to be shot Wednesday, and has since placed quite a number under quarantine.

CONFERENCE IS BUSY.

Gathering of Methodists at Little Falls Well Attended.

Little Falls, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The opening business session of the Brainerd district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday was well attended by the visiting clergy and some church members. Rev. E. K. Copper, presiding elder, presided, and Rev. C. F. Davis of Brainerd was elected secretary; J. H. Dennistoun, treasurer.

The following committees were appointed: On local preachers and recommendations for orders, Rev. J. T. B. Smith, chairman, L. S. Koch and John Blackhurst; on resolutions, Rev. C. M. Lawson, chairman, W. H. Robinson. A motion to pro rata the expenses of the delegates was lost. There was a large public gathering in the evening.

There is great interest manifested in the address of Alderman Watson S. Moore of Duluth. He will speak on "Christian Citizenship," and is expected to give some of his own personal experiences. The preachers are looking forward to his address, and the public have been given a hearty invitation to be present. The Rev. Dr. Long of Minneapolis will speak on Methodist Responsibility to the Twentieth Century." Dr. Long has a remarkable address on this subject.

Kelleys vs. Treadwells.

The new Kelley roller polo team will play its third game tonight, when the Treadwells of Superior will be taken on at the Temple roller rink. The Kelleys have already beaten the Fedji's of Duluth and the Pease team of Superior, and are going well for the polo championship of the Head of the Lakes. After a few games with the less formidable fives, the Lincoln Parks will be taken on in a series of games for championship honors.

TO IMPROVE EAGLES' PARK.

Lake Linden, Mich., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the Lake Linden aerie of Eagles will meet Thursday evening for the purpose of making plans for the improvement of their park. The park was opened last year. The Eagles plan on making it a popular resort the coming summer. As soon as the snow is gone a fence will be built. A large area will be enclosed. A dancing pavilion will be erected and the park will be lighted with electric lights. Grass seed will be sown.

SAWMILLS STARTING UP.

Hudson, Wis., April 1.—Sawmills among the St. Croix are beginning operations this week. The Central Timber company's plant in this city will begin the season's cut tomorrow mornings with a day crew. The night crew will be put on Monday. Ice on the St. Croix has ceased to be.

TWO NEW COMPANIES.

St. Paul, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Virginia Ore Mining company of Duluth, has filed articles of incorporation with the state. The capital stock is $25,000. William Elder, Arthur Howell and M. E. Riley are the incorporators.

Articles were also filed by the National Propeller company of Minneapolis, with a capital stock of $50,000. F. O. King, A. L. Russell and D. A. Soderberg are the incorporators.

AGED WOMAN DROWNS.

Hastings, Minn., April 1.—Miss Renghelt Johnson, who has been living with her brother, John C. Johnson of Greenvale, in this vicinity, started to go to a neighbor's Monday afternoon, and darkness overtaking her before she reached there, evidently retraced her steps homeward and accidently fell into a brook, drowning in a foot of water. She was 88 years old and was a native of Norway.

A Good Medicine.

Laughter not only gains friends, but it's a good medicine—keeps the eyes bright, the heart light and increases the number of red corpuscles. So does golden grain belt beer, which is rich in food value and an aid to digestion. Better than tea or coffee for table use. LAND FRAUD CASE BEGINS through the names of fictitious persons, acquired school lands in Oregon and California, by false entries and forged signatures, the entries later being transferred with the help of information from subsidized clerks in the general land office.

Resisted Extradition.

Benson, who is a San Francisco millionaire, resisted extradition from California, as did his co-defendants, who are alleged to have done the actual work in the field, and later carried the case to the United States supreme court, where a decision unfavorable to them was handed down.

Binger Hermann, commissioner of the general land office at that time, and later a representative in congress from Oregon, sent special agents, Holsinger and Magee, out West to investigate. The report was submitted to Hermann, who, it is alleged, held it up. Finally it was brought to the attention of Former Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock. The former detailed secret service officers and attorneys of the department of justice on the case. Their findings led to the indictment of the defendants.

The government in the case is represented by District Attorney Baker, special assistants in the department of justice, Arthur B. Pugh and Francis J. Heney. The four defendants are represented by A. S. Worthington, R. Golden Donaldson and A. A. Birney of the Washington bar, and Joseph C. Campbell of San Francisco and W. J. Van Devere of New York.

SPRING WHEAT SEEDING HAS BEGUN IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

Mitchell, S. D., April 1.—In all parts of this section of the state the seeding of spring wheat began today. Some wheat was sown last week, but the work became general today. The ground is in fine condition, there being sufficient moisture to give the grain a good start. In this county the wheat acreage will not be any larger, while more ground will be planted to corn and oats. On newer ground more flax will be sown this year.

N. D. PIONEER DEAD.

Jamestown, N. D., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Daniel E. Hughes, a pioneer of North Dakota and at one time a well known citizen of Fargo and an ex-grand master workman of the grand lodge Ancient Order of United Workmen, is dead here.

The deceased was born in Pennsylvania, Nov. 30, 1854. Mr. Hughes came to Dakota in the early '80s, settling in Jamestown in 1881, where he owned and conducted a wagon and blacksmith business for many years.

FIRST BOAT THIS YEAR.

Winona, Minn., April 1.—The first steamer from below has passed upriver here, it being the Lydia Van Sant, which was on its way to Wabasha, where it will be put on the ways and overhauled. In previous seasons the Lydia Van Sant has been the bowboat of the J. W. Van Sant, but the latter was destroyed in the fire at Wabasha last winter. The first boat up this year is a full two weeks ahead of the first boat last year, when the North Star went up on April 13.

Drinking Men Not Wanted

The above sign is now seen in many shops and offices in this city, because drinking men are unreliable.

Competition is too keen and life is too strenuous for an employer to keep men on his payroll whose nerves are unsteady and whose brains are not clear.

Every line of business is beginning to close its doors to drinking men.

Drunkenness is a disease, and, like most diseases, has its remedy. Orrine is the reliable treatment, and is sold upon a positive guarantee to effect a cure or your money will be refunded. Orrine is in two forms: No. 1, which can be used without the patient's knowledge in tea, coffee or food, and No. 2, for those who wish to be cured.

The guarantee applies to both forms. Mailed in plain sealed package on receipt of $1.00. Write for free booklet, mailed in plain sealed envelope. The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C., or

COUNCIL ORDERS STONE CRUSHER

Also Road Roller in Virginia—Militia to Use Hail.

Virginia, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The council last evening reached the conclusion to purchase a stone crusher and steam road roller, and the committee was instructed to have the city attorney prepare a resolution calling for bids for presentation at the next meeting.

The resolution granting the proposed militia company use of the old fire department headquarters in the city hall for armory purposes was passed by a vote of 4 to 2. Aldermen Baylan and Mattson voting no.

The Virginia Light & Water company was instructed to lay a water main on Pine street from Mesaba avenue to Railroad avenue. As there is already a hydrant on each of these corners, there was some question whether a water main could be ordered laid without ordering in another hydrant, but it was decided to try without mentioning a hydrant. The people living along the street are sorely in need of water, as their wells have all gone dry.

The old wooden bridge across the narrows between the two lakes was sold to C. Christopherson for the sum of $5 on condition that he would remove it at once.

The matter of a sidewalk to the cemetery was again discussed and the committee on streets and alleys promised to have a resolution ready for the next meeting.

INCREASE IN PUPILS

In Aurora Schools Necessitates Furnishing More Rooms.

Aurora, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a special meeting of the school board, Supt. Young was instructed to buy furniture for two more rooms in the Aurora schools, owing to the increase in the number of pupils. There are over 200 pupils enrolled at present.

The board also made a final settlement with Contractor Pearson of Duluth for $1,875 for work done on the school building, and $95.12 to the Burgess Electrical company for wiring the Aurora and Stephens school buildings.

Supt. Young was ordered to have bids for fire escapes published, and tenders will be opened April 18.

JUDGE PRINCE BUSY.

Several Fines Imposed by Eveleth Dispenser of Justice.

Eveleth, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Yesterday was quite a busy day in Judge Prince's court room, most of the cases being drunks and minor offenses. Tony Polcar, who was found drunk, was given a fine of $2, as was Jean Kluh for the same offense. Tony Jury, who was up on the charge of carrying concealed weapons, was fined $25. Parlanta Nazarima was fined $25 for indecent exposure. Albert La Brosse and Charles Samson, plain drunks, were fined each $5. Isaac Smith, who was also among the drunks, was allowed one hour in which to leave town. John Lee was fined $25 for petit larceny, while Tony Zaler was fined $5 for violating a city ordinance.

McNEIL HOTEL SOLD.

Eveleth Hostelry Purchased by Former Tower Boniface.

Eveleth, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—On account of the health of his wife demanding that she live in a milder climate, necessitating their leaving this section, Proprietor McNeil of the McNeil hotel, one of the well-known hostelries on the range, and Mrs. McNeil will depart in a few days for the Pacific coast. Mr. McNeil is closing a deal with John Glode, formerly proprietor of the Exchange hotel at Tower, whereby Mr. Glode will acquire the entire property and run the establishment.

PUBLIC BUILDING MAY BE LUCK OF VIRGINIA.

Virginia, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Among matters of importance to be considered tonight at the meeting of the Commercial club will be a letter Secretary Bickford has received from Representative J. Adam Bede, asking for prices on a block, or a part of a block here, to be used as a site for a public building, as the congressman writes he will make his effort to include in the public building bill an appropriation for a building here. The report of the committee on the home rule charter will also be considered.

HIBBING ELKS ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR.

Hibbing, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hibbing lodge, No. 1022, B. P. O. E., has elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

Exalted ruler, Thomas J. Godfrey; esteemed leading knight, Maitland Tripp; esteemed loyal knight, Herman Geisler; esteemed lecturing knight, O. A. Groff; secretary, George O'Sullivan; treasurer, Archie McFadyen; trustees, three years, E. La Chance; two years, Thomas F. Brady; delegate to the national convention at Dallas, Tex., Thomas E. Brady.

ARRANGE BALL GAMES.

Hibbing, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Despite the lingering of winter in this section, Thomas F. Brady, manager of the Hibbing Baseball club, has arranged for games with the Fitzwells of Duluth, May 17, and the Kelleys of Duluth, May 23 and 24.

BOX CAR FIRED.

Chisholm, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. J. Abbey and A. J. Jordan, employes of the Great Northern, discovered a fire in a boxcar on the Great Northern tracks, here, Tuesday, and by the aid of chemicals managed to extinguish the flames before much damage was done. The fire was evidently of incendiary origin.

INITIATE LARGE CLASS.

Eveleth, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The campaign that has been waged for members in the local lodge of the Knights of Pythias has resulted in about forty-five applications being received. Seven new members were given the first degree, last night, as follows: Jacob Palki, John Harvey, Arthur Juntilla, Andrew Olson, John Turiff, Sid Sicotte and William Pope.

OUTLOOK CLUB BANQUET.

Fourth Annual Affair Given at Two Harbors, Very Successful.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Most successful in every respect was the fourth annual banquet of the Two Harbors Outlook club, given in the assembly room of the high school last evening.

A reception committee, consisting of Dennis Dwan, M. M. Hanna and W. B. Woodward, received the guests, and at 8:45 the program began with an invocation by Rev. J. A. McGaughey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. R. B. Elliott, president of the club, acted as toastmaster. The following toasts were responded to: "Our Guests, the Ladies," Rev. J. A. McGaughey; "Our Hosts," Miss Marshall; "Life Work and Love," W. L. Fowler; "What a University Has Done for American Literature," W. C. Lord. "The Outlook of the Outlook Club," B. F. Fowler.

CHISHOLM EVENTS.

Chisholm, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. E. Strom and Miss Ella Herrick were married by Rev. Johnson Saturday night at Karon hall. There were 100 invited guests present, who partook of a sumptuous supper. There were several musical selections. The new couple will make their home in Chisholm and will reside at 109 Central avenue.

A roller race between Harry Schultz of Hibbing and Joe Ledoux of Chisholm took place Saturday night at the local rink. Schultz won the race by a lap. He clearly outclassed the local boy in making the corners. The course was one mile.

EVELETH DRUIDS LODGE ORGANIZED ON SUNDAY.

Eveleth, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Instead of April 2, as first announced, the local Druid lodge will be organized Sunday afternoon and night, April 5. Many outside Druids will attend, and after the initiations, a fine spread is to be given the new members, who already number over fifty. The organizing will be under the supervision of a grand lodge officer.

LEG IS FRACTURED.

Eveleth, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—A Russian, named Andrew Yok, fractured his leg yesterday afternoon at the Payal pit, and is now in the Fabiola hospital on the location. He is unable to speak any English. He is expected to be laid up for at least four or five weeks.

MADE POLICE SERGEANT.

Eveleth, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Isedooaanid.ation will: r sh ei sh sh Herald.)—For some time Chief of Police Kent has been urging placing one of the policemen in charge during the night. Peter Uordl, a policeman, has, accordingly, been promoted to the rank of sergeant and will be in charge during the evening.

NEW DULUTH BRIEFS.

New Duluth, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. J. Palmer has opened his drug store in the Provinske building. Mr. Palmer has been busy for the past two weeks getting his show case in and his supplies listed. Later in the season a soda fountain will be put in.

T. C. Tower is closing out his banking business, and hereafter New Duluth will have no bank, unless a state bank is put in. Mr. Tower expects to have all bank business over by April 1. He has been very busy paying off depositors for the last week.

You will have satisfactory results with Hunt's Perfect Baking Powder and Extracts, not once, but always. They are pure, uniform and reliable.

TO ARRANGE ASSESSMENT.

Thief River Falls, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—County Auditor J. B. O'Brien of Red Lake county has been notified by Frank L. McVey, chairman of the Minnesota tax commission, that a member of the commission will meet with the assessors of the cities, villages and townships of this county at the auditor's office on Tuesday afternoon, May 5, at 1 o'clock. This meeting is in accordance with the revised laws of 1905, and is held for the purpose of arranging the next personal and real estate assessments.

WOULD HONOR TOLSTOI.

Single Tax Enthusiasts Planning a Celebration for Next August.

Plans are on foot among the believers of single tax in America to hold a big demonstration next August, which month contains the birthday anniversaries of Count Leo Tolstoi and Henry George.

Samuel Nixon is at the head of the movement in Duluth, and a celebration will probably be arranged for here. Aug. 28 marks the eightieth anniversary of the birth of Count Tolstoi, and Aug. 2 was the birthday of Henry George. It is proposed to hold the demonstration planned as a tribute to Tolstoi and the American for their efforts in behalf of the single tax theory, sometime between the dates mentioned.

It has been suggested that an appriate message to Tolstoi be repared under the direction of the Single Tax league, and that it be signed by all those who care to have their signatures attached. In addition celebraations will be held all over the country, with speeches by the leaders in the single tax movement.

CLOSE THE STATIONS

Railroads Show Still Further Evidence of Strict Economy.

Railroad and Commercial Telegraph Business Shows Failing Off.

Both the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads are closing a large number of the smaller telegraph stations on their lines. The entire systems from here to the Pacific coast are affected, but the branch lines more particularly than the main lines.

During the past month several stations have been closed, and it is understood that numerous others are to close tomorrow, April 1. Officials of the roads say the move is in line with the general policy of economy which all large systems are adopting. They deny that the stations are being closed on account of the enforcement of the new federal nine-hour law, which requires the employment of additional operators at most stations. They assert that the action is being taken on account of light business. The result, however, will be to materially reduce the number of telegraph operators in the employment of the roads, a considerable number being thrown out of work.

As the matter of opening and closing the stations is left in the hands of division superintendents along the line, the number which will be closed tomorrow cannot be ascertained as yet, but it is said the reduction will run about 25 per cent, or possibly something more than that.

Telegraph messages will not be accepted to stations which are closed, and passengers wishing to board trains at these stations will have to flag them. Baggage will be thrown aboard and checked all afterwards.

Not only has a slackening of business made the work of telegraphing lighter with the railroads, but commercial telegraph business has fallen off at a remarkable rate. This is noticeable in Duluth, but no more so than in other sections of the country. Neither the Western Union or North American companies are employing as many men in Duluth at present as they were at the same time last year, and this reduced force is not kept so busy as were the larger crews a year ago. The decline in stock speculation is said to have something to do with the falling off in the amount of commercial telegraphing.

Land to be Opened.

The Great Northern has received word from the interior department at Washington that the Fort Shaw unit of the Sun River irrigation project will be opened for settlement May 7. The land is situated about twenty-five miles southwest of Great Falls, Mont., and is said to be suitable for the growing of fruits, vegetables and alfalfa. There will be room for about 200 families on the tract to be opened.

A Twenty-Year Sentence.

"I have just completed a twenty-year health-sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just twenty years ago," writes O. S. Woolever of Le Raysville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c at all drug stores.

WILL OPEN HOTEL ON FIRST STREET

Walter Butchart Will Remodel the Mason Flat Building.

Walter Butchart, who has been the county jailer for the past several years, expects soon to change his title to that of "Mine Host."

Mr. Butchart has leased the Mason flat building on the upper side of First street, between Third and Fourth avenues west, and will open a sixty-room hotel about June 1, the building to be remodeled for that purpose. Mr. Butchart expected to leave today for Chicago to purchase the fixtures and furnishings for the new hotel.

The Mason flat building, which is owned by local parties, has been for several years a popular rental property of its class. The first floor is store rooms and the second and third stories are given up to flats. It is a brick structure and can be easily remodeled into a hotel.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c.

BOOSTING McCUMBER'S BILL.

Officer of Society of Equity Will Join Lobby.

Fargo, N. D., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles U. Pierson, official organizer for the North Dakota branch of the American Society of Equity, has hurried to Washington to join the other North Dakotans working in the interest of the McCumber national grain inspection bill. Mr. Pierson is the official representative of the society, which has about 10,000 members in the state. The society had a committee there some time ago and several individuals have also been endeavoring to assist in working up sentiment for the McCumber bill.

OLD HOTEL MAN QUITS.

Fargo, N. D., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—After many years of hotel work, Sam Mathews today retired from active management of the Waldorf hotel of this city. He is the oldest of the North Dakota bonifaces and has been in the state nearly thirty years, coming here an experienced man. He was formerly at Jamestown and afterwards opened the Columbia, the Metropole and the Waldorf hotels in this city.

FOR TAFT AND WARNER.

Negaunee, Mich., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Putting a municipal ticket in the field for the spring election, the Republicans of Besscmer, the Gogebic county seat, have adopted resolutions endorsing that policies of the national and state administrations and declaring for the nomination of William H. Taft for president and the re-election of Governor Fred M. Warner. A. D. Johnstone is the nominee for mayor.

SAVES HIS LIFE WITH TWENTY DOLLAR BILL.

Lake City, Iowa, April 1.—Stewart Dunbar, an insurance broker of Des Moines, while on his way to meet a party of friends last night, fell on the cattle guard of the railroad tracks of the Chicago & Northwestern, and caught his foot in such a manner that he would have been crushed to death beneath the wheels of an approaching handcar, had it not been for his presence of mind and igniting a $20-bill and holding it over his head as a signal of danger, and attracting the attention of the occupants of the handcar.

CHRISTIAN MENTAL HEALING.

Bishop Fallows of St. Paul's church (Reformed Episcopal), Chicago, thus writes in The World Today of the new movement for the healing of nervous disorders:

Waiving all the theological and doctrinal differences which separate Christian Science so widely from the churches of Christendom, we believe in the power of faith in the historic Christ, and in personal and intercessory prayer to an ever-living and ever-loving personal God. We believe in using the best scientific medical knowledge and skill of the day, which we feel is as much God-given as any psychical or spiritual method of relieving disease. Since we do not claim in any way the omniscience and omnipotence of the great Physician, Jesus Christ, we ask our patients to come with a diagnosis as accurate as the skill of the physician can make it.

The aim of religious therapeutics is to bring health and happiness to the afflicted, and mere efficiency to those who are well. It strives to drive out fears, various forms of depression, worry, want of confidence and the like from the mind and heart. It magnifies the love and tenderness and sympathy of God. It carries forward the benign work of the neurologist along the lines of re-education and right living, according to the individual needs of each patient.

With a diagnosis from one of our neurologists, a young man came to me at St. Paul's church, who was on the verge of insanity, because he believed that on account of very early indiscretions, God would not forgive him. That fixed idea was in a short time driven from his mind by the repeated assurances of God's unfailing love to him through Jesus Christ. That divine suggestion became his autosuggestion and saved him. Another came who had been strongly tempted to commit suicide because he believed there was no salvation for him. Persuasion, human and divine suggestion, sent him away joyously with a determination to live.

Boston, Mass., April 1.—Governor Guild suffered a setback during last night and today was not in as good condition as yesterday.

WILL KEEP UP LITIGATION

United Mexican Stockholders Believe Their Chances Are Good.

Stockholders of the United Mexican Mining company have decided to go ahead with their action to recover their share of the stock in the company, which was reorganized, and which was said to have been taken from them by reason of the failure of F. W. Page, superintendent of the mines, to live up to his agreement.

A meeting was held last evening in Flaaten's auditorium and those present were unanimously in favor of carrying the action farther, so it was decided to start a campaign fund, every stockholder giving on a basis of 1 cent per share of stock held.

The Duluth stockholders in the company feel that Page has "frozen" them out and they propose to take the necessary legal steps to regain their rights. Attorneys are working on the case, and it is said to look very favorable for the stockholders. Mexican attorneys will now be employed to probe the situation in that country, where the mines are located.

The committee here, appointed by the stockholders to direct the litigation, comprises Dr. H. E. Webster, chairman, W. B. Logan, S. P. Wires, Charles W. Ericson and O. A. Nafe. The committee reported the progress that had been made last night.

FORAKER TO PERSIST

Washington, April 1.—In reporting adversely from the committee on military affairs two bills for the reinstatement of negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth United States infantry, Senator Foraker said today that he would not move an indefinite postponement as is usual in such cases, but would ask that they go on the calendar.

"At the earliest opportunity," said Mr. Foraker, "I will call up the bill introduced by me for consideration and will ask the senate to disagree to the report and pass the measure."

Senator Warren inquired whether the report submitted was a long one.

"No," replied Mr. Foraker, amid laughter of senators, "I do not feel like dwelling on the subject."

Mr. Warren explained how it had happened that eight members of the committee favoring reinstatement of the colored soldiers had not been able to join in a favorable report saying that the five Democrats on the committee did not favor either bill.

Senator Scott added that he was ready to vote for either of the bills reported but preferred the Foraker bill.

QUEEN OF ITALY RECEIVES MORGAN.

Rome, April 1.—Queen Helena today received J. P. Morgan and his daughter, Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, of New York. The queen entertained them graciously during a long audience and manifested much interest in the maternity hospital which Mr. Morgan has endowed in New York, expressing the hope that a similar institution might be established in Rome for outside work, supplementing that of the hospitals.

RELEASED FROM PRISON AND THEN REARRESTED.

Columbus, Ohio, April 1.—"I guess this is an April fool day, for sure," said an officer to William Riley, alias Edward Rogers, who was released from the penitentiary today, upon the expiration of a four years' term for larceny. The officer was from Milwaukee and he immediately had Riley arrested, saying they escaped Nov. 3, 1904, from the house of correction at Milwaukee, where he was serving under the name of Harry Nichols.

SENATOR DAVIS FINED FOR DISTURBING PEACE.

Little Rock, Ark., April 1.—United States Senator Jefferson Davis was fined $25 in police court today for disturbing the peace. The fine was administered for the senator's action in getting a pistol and appearing on the street yesterday afternoon, where he had been attacked and beaten a few minutes before by Thomas Helm, deputy prosecuting attorney. It is alleged Davis flourished the revolver and made threats of taking a shot at his antagonist, who had vanished. Helm was fined $10 and costs.

RUINS OF EASTERN MEXICO

Large Cities, in Which Before Columbus and Cortes Arrived, Lived Peoples of Advanced Civilization --Now Amid Dense Forests.

Although in the eastern part of Mexico lie ruins of massive structures representing an advanced civilization at a time before Columbus, in recent years the region has seldom been visited by investigators and comparatively little is now known of the culture of the prehistoric races that inhabited it. Several years ago, under the auspices of the Smithsonian Institution, Dr. A. Walter Fewkes of the bureau of American ethnology was sent into this field to engage in some comparative studies in these early peoples. He was to determine if possible whether or not they bore any relationship to the ancient tribes whose monuments are in some cases still standing north of the Rio Grande and within the area of the United States. Although the investigations were not extensive enough to warrant a definite conclusion, Dr. Fewkes has embodied in a preliminary report just published in connection with a report of the Bureau to the Smithsonian Institution, many interesting and some original observations on what these advanced aborigines knew and did. A half a dozen ruins were visited and a large number of archeological objects studied.

In regard to the early history of the region Dr. Fewkes says:

"When Hernando Cortes disembarked his little army of invasion in what is now the State of Vera Cruz he found it inhabited by aborigines of comparatively high culture. The inhabitants called themselves Totonac, and their territory was known as Totonocapan. The conqueror was not long in discovering that the Totanac were subjects of Moctezuma, a great ruler in the mountains to whom they unwillingly paid tribute, and that they chafed under his yoke. Shortly after landing Cortes visited their settlements at Quiauistlan and Cempoalan, near the former of which he laid the foundation of a city that he called Villa Rica de la Vera Cruz, the Rich Town of the True Cross. He was well received by the inhabitants of these cities, making friends with those above mentioned and thirty other independent pueblos, whose aid greatly facilitated his march to the interior of Mexico. But this friendship of the natives of Cempoalan and their settlements for Cortes was not shared by all the Indians of the Mexican gulf coast. In the valleys of the Panuco and Tamesi rivers, that is, in what is now Northern Vera Cruz and Southern Tamaulipas, dwelt the so-called Huaxtec people. They had populous towns, having reached a high degree of culture, and they had never been conquered by the Aztec. At first, they resisted the Spaniards, but subsequently were subdued by Cortes and their main city called Chila, situated on the Panuco river about 15 miles from its mouth, and certain other settlements on lagoons of the Tamesi near the present pueblo Altamira, were destroyed. The survivors of these villages who escaped slavery or massacre fled to the mountains, where their descendants, bereft of ancestral arts, lost much of their culture and settled in new localities."

One of the most important of these forgotten cities was Cempoalan. At the time of the Spanish conquest early in the 16th century it was so striking a metropolis that it excited the admiration of the Europeans, and from its many temples and large buildings was called Sevilla. Its streets and plazas were said to have swarmed with people, one student estimating its population at 30,000. After the conquest it declined rapidly and the number of its inhabitants so dwindled that in 1580 an authority says there were only thirty houses in which people lived, and in 1690 only one or two still remained on the old site, most of the survivors having been distributed into new congregations by the all-powerful viceroy. The adjacent forests and exuberant tropical vegetation rapidly grew over the deserted buildings of the once populous city, so that in a few generations it had become a place of the past.

Thus it remained until not a generation ago a Mexican lady, a collector of land shells, called attention to these ruins of a past civilization hidden in the forests. An investigator was sent out, and in 1891 the Mexican government had a survey made of the vast buildings and models constructed for exhibition, which are now in the National museum in Mexico City. Since then, however, they have again been practically neglected so that Dr. Fewkes' party, in order to make a study of the ancient abandoned city, was forced to cut its way through the forests with machetes.

They found guarded by underbrush the fallen remains of a metropolis over a mile square, but the main buildings and those best preserved were crowded into a limited area. On every side in this neighborhood, if vegetation permitted, were encountered evidences of former human occupation. Not only did mounds and pyramids rise on all sides, but plastered walls and fragments of concreted roadbeds lined with rows of stones set in cement, not unlike curbs, were seen.

Dr. Fewkes says:

"So far as can be determined, the four buildings of old Cempoalan, now standing, are pyramids, the bases of former temples. They are constructed of a concrete core made of water-worn stones laid in lines above another and faced with concrete. Wherever this superficial covering has fallen, especially on the stairways, rows of stones are clearly seen. The surfaces of these buildings were originally highly polished, so smoothly that it was supposed by one of the soldiers of Cortes that the walls were covered with plates of silver. These walls were decorated with yellow and red paintings, traces of which are still visible, especially in places not exposed to the weather. Two typical forms of buildings are represented in Cempoalan, one circular, the other rectangular. Both types have stairways with massive balustrades on one side."

On one of the largest of these massive foundations rose the Temple of the Air supposed to have been dedicated to the Plumed Servant, or God of the Air. Around it are crowded many smaller mounds, indicating houses once possibly inhabited by priests. A quarter of a mile distant among closely built walls now in ruins, probably near the center of the city, stand two massive pyramids, one known as the Temple of the Fountain or as "Chimneys," and the other nameless. Not far away down a ruined avenue is one of the best preserved buildings, called Las Caritas, or "Small Heads," from the many small pottery heads found at its base, apparently having fallen out of the walls. Another pyramid called the House of Moctezuma, and a group of structures around a plaza, together with these, are practically all that stands of the former city.

Usually associated with Cempoalan was a city called Quiauistlan, and in connection with its people, who moved to another site, was founded a town called Vera Cruz, where now "the remains of crumbling walls and the little church mark the oldest settlement of Europeans on the continent of America."

A set of ruins called Xicochimalco, not far from the present town of Jalapa, on the route of Cortes' march inland, was visited by Dr. Fewkes. In this region were found a series of large angular mounds of earth enclosing a courtyard now planted with bananas and coffee. They are different from the neighboring ruins, and many stone objects found near them are not like the Aztec relics of the locality, so that there remains the possibility of their having been the homes of some peoples prior to the Aztecs and of a higher standard of culture.

Not many miles away lay what was left of still another ancient town, with pyramids and fallen walls of buildings studding the slope of a hill and stretching out over a plain below. A large stone idol was still in place in front of a temple.

Other pueblos and pyramids, both ancient and modern, in the eastern part of Mexico were examined, notably the pyramid called the Lightning, near Papantla. In this connection it is stated:

"The modern pueblo Papantla, situated in the midst of the vanilla zone of Vera Cruz, is a community of Totonac Indians, among whom survive many ancient customs. One of the most interesting of these is the game of the flyers, which was once widely distributed in Mexico. In this play men disguised as birds mount to the tops of upright poles and, attaching themselves to ropes, jump into space, seeming to fly through the air. It would appear that this game has preserved in Papantla some of its ancient vigor, and that the performance here retains much that is more or less ceremonial. An old woman, the so-called witch, makes offerings of copal, aguadiente and a fowl, which are placed in the hole when the pole is put in position, and various minor rites are performed during the several days the ceremony continues."

Many curious idols, stone yokes, sling stones, paddle-shaped stones, bowls and clay images were examined in connection with the habits and customs of these forgotten early peoples to determine, if possible, just what they were like.

In drawing conclusions, until the region has been more carefully studied, little can be said with authority, but the archaeologist points out that the manner of structure of some of the pyramid temples resembles that of others farther south, and that the nearest northern analogues must be looked for in the Mississippi Valley. He says:

"The Northern Indian of certain parts of the Mississippi Valley bore somewhat the same relation to those who built some of the mounds as the surviving Totonac and Huaxtec do to their own ancestors who erected the temple mounds of Vera Cruz and Tamaulipas. The present culture of the survivors of the mound builders of the Mississippi valley, however, and of those of the Tamaulipas region is very different from that of their ancestors."

In what is now Indian territory, before the Europeans came, the tribes that built mounds had changed their mode of life to a roving one, and therefore it is hard to tell whether they were related to the peoples of Mexico.

HARD LUCK.

Chicago News: "Hard luck!" ejaculated the lugubrious-looking man. "I should say I had. It's been so hard you couldn't dent it with a cold chisel."

"I have been through the mill myself," said the person with the double chin. "I know what it is. You can't tell me anything about hard luck."

"I guess you haven't been knocked down and jumped on the way I have," said the lugubrious man. "I bought some land. I was wise and I wasn't going to trust my good money to the banks. Land wouldn't run off to Tangier and leave me sorrowing, and it wouldn't get excited if there was a run on it. It would be right where I left it any time I wanted it, and I bought it at a figure that made it a sure thing that it wouldn't depdeciate in value. I put blame near every cent I had in the world into it. Well, the land's there all right now. I tried to sell it when I found it had got to be worth six times what I paid for it, but it seemed there was a flaw in the title, and it busted all up when it was put to the strain of a lawsuit. The fellow that sold it to me had spent the money I gave him, so I had no come-back."

"I bought a mine and got left the same way once," said the person with the double chin. "I not only put what money I had in it, but I borrowed enough to keep me paying notes and renewing 'em for ten years. I felt pretty much discouraged over it at the time, I recollect."

"I got a pretty good job after that," pursued the lugubrious-looking man. "I humped myself at it and I was doing fine when another concern offered me half as much again as I was getting. I put it up to my people whether they wanted to meet the bid and they said they thought they might inside of the year, but a twenty-five boost was the best they could do just then. I told 'em it wasn't good enough and I quit and went to the other folks and four days after that they had a fuss in the firm and reorganized and didn't make any provision for me in the reorganization. It took nearly a month and the soles off two pairs of shoes before I got another job, and then I did twice the work for half the pay I was getting from the first outfit."

"You were in luck to get that," observed the person with the double chin. "I quit for higher wages once and didn't even get it for four days. They told me there had been a misunderstanding and when I went around, looking for something else, I found I was blacklisted. I had to beat my way out of that town on a freight car."

"Then I got word that my uncle had died," the lugubrious-looking man went on.

"Say," said the person with the double chin, "do you know that right at this day I haven't got one single living relative? That's right. I was an orphan before I was 10 years old, and a year or two after that I was the only one of my family that was left. Not so much as a forty-second cousin, so far as I know."

"I didn't care so much about the uncle, but he was rich and was going to leave me money—and he didn't," said the lugubrious-looking man. "A cousin of mine got the whole thing."

"My guardian was going to leave me all his money," said the person with the double chin. "He put on a heavy style while he was alive and everybody thought he had money to burn. When they came to settle the estate they found that he owed everybody who had ever trusted him and had used what he held in trust for me. What have you been doing lately?"

"I'd hate to tell you," said the lugubrious-looking man. "I'd get you started on a new set of misfortunes and I'd like to enjoy the recollection of my own for a while without having them discounted."

"Cheer up," advised the person with the double chin. "Forget it; that's my advice. I've been through the mill and look at me."

GOLD FROM OCEAN SANDS.

From Shasta to San Diego, all the way along the shores of the Pacific ocean, there is gold in the black sand, which, for the greater part of the length of the state, underlies the gray and yellow sand of the beach. This has been known to mining men for a score of years or more, but ever since they found it out they have been completely baffled in all efforts at getting it. So writes Harry H. Dunn, in the Technical World Magazine for March.

The values in the sand are low, not more than twenty-five cents per ton, and the sea washes heavily over all manner of structures which are set up on the beach to separate the sand from its gold. These were the two principal obstacles to be overcome: To find a machine which would withstand the storms of winter and the tides of summer, and, at the same time, be delicate enough to draw the gold from the black mass of the beach.

At last, however, the riddle has been solved, despite the wrecking of one of the plants with which the work was commenced, and a recent cleanup of one day's run of 1,000 tons of black sand paid $500 over and above all expenses. The full value of the gold in the sand, could it have been entirely removed, would have been $250, the actual amount taken out being about $225 worth, making the cost of hauling that 1,000 tons of sand, a trifle more than 3 cents a ton, the cheapest mining yet known to man.

WHEAT HAS GOOD TONE

Market Gathers Strength During the Session in America.

Duluth Board of Trade, April 1.—News from the Southwest was not as favorable today and the tone of the wheat was higher. The active options were in good demand during the day and the closing prices showed gains over yesterday in all the American markets.

Cables were firm. Liverpool closed unchanged to ½d higher, Berlin unchanged and Budapest 1¾c higher.

The May option closed ¾c higher in Duluth, ⅝c higher in Chicago, ¼c higher in Minneapolis and ½c higher in New York and Winnipeg. The July option closed 1c higher in Duluth and Minneapolis, ⅜c higher in Chicago and Winnipeg and ¼c higher in New York.

May corn closed ⅛c higher in Chicago and ¼d lower in Liverpool. May oatts closed ¼c higher in Chicago.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool:

"As a result of the easier American cables yesterday and the continued pressure to sell nearby La Plata cargoes, the wheat market opened ½d to ¾d lower, and further declined ¼d to ⅜d during the early trading. Offerings were larger and support feeble. Towards mid-day, however, the market became steadier and recovered part of decline as shorts covered some, due to predictions of shipments from Argentina this week. At midday the market was steady, ⅛d to ¼d lower than Tuesday.

"Corn was quiet at the start and ¼d lower, and further declined ¼d during the morning. The market was extremely dull, pressure resulting from the lower American markets yesterday."

Primary receipts of wheat were 429,000 bushels; last year, 1,300,000 bushels. Shipments, 260,000 bushels; last year, 405,000 bushels. Clearances of wheat and flour aggregated 152,000 bushels.

Primary receipts of corn were 584,000 bushels; last year, 1,465,000 bushels. Shipments, 417,000 bushels; last year, 1,069,000 bushels. Clearances of corn were 3,595 bushels.

Wheat was rather quiet during the session in Duluth. May wheat opened ¾c higher at $1.06¾, advanced to $1.09¾, declined to $1.06, rallied to $1.01 and closed at $1.00¾, a gain of ¾c over yesterday. July wheat opened ⅝c higher at $1.01⅝, advanced to $1.02⅝ and closed at $1.02, a gain of 1c over yesterday.

Durum wheat closed ½c higher and cash spring wheat was selling on a basis of 7c over May for No. 1 northern.

Flax was quiet but the tone was stronger. May flax opened ¾c higher at $1.15, advanced to $1.15¼ and closed at that price, a gain of ½c over yesterday. July flax opened ½c higher at $1.17½, declined to $1.11½ and closed at $1.17⅜, a gain of ⅝c over yesterday.

Following were the closing prices:

Wheat—No. 1 hard on track, $1.03¾. To arrive: No. 1 northern, $1.02¾. On track: No. 1 northern, $1.02¾; May, $1.00⅝; July, $1.02. Durum on track, No. 1, 85¼c; No. 2, 82¼c; May durum, 84¼c; July durum, 86¾c. Flax to arrive, $1.15¼, flax on track, $1.15¼; May, $1.15¼; July, $1.17⅜; Oats to arrive, 42½c; oats on track, 42½c; rye, 68-72c; barley, 69-80c.

Cars inspected: Wheat, 41, last year 115; oats, 11; corn 1; barley, 6; flax, 30, last year, 36.

Receipts: Wheat, 15,366; oats, 24,784; barley, 4,769; rye, 281; flax, 32,132.

Shipments: Flax, 5,019.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Steady Cables and Small Receipts Give Wheat Firm Tone.

Chicago, April 1.—Steady cables and small receipts in the Northwest gave a firm tone to the early wheat market. The trading was of small volume. May opened unchanged at ⅝c to ½c higher at 92⅜c to 92½@92⅝c and held within that range. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 253 cars against 225 cars last week and 417 cars a year ago.

The market became quite weak about the middle of the day on selling brought out by favorable crop reports from the Southwest. May declined to 91⅜@91⅝c. In the last half hour a rally occurred due to covering with May up ⅝c at 92¾c.

Corn was very quiet. The market was inclined to be firm on wet weather in the corn belt. Bull leaders gave the market support. May opened unchanged to ⅛c lower, at 66@66⅛c and sold up to 66¼c. Local receipts were 141 cars, with 37 of contract grade.

Corn prices slumped with the break in wheat, May wheat going down to 62⅝@62¾c. The market rallied late in the session, the May delivery selling up to 66⅜@66⅝c. The close was firm, with May up ⅜c at 66¾c.

Oats were quiet and the market was steady. May opened ⅜c lower at 53⅜c, sold at 53c and then advanced to 53¾c. Local receipts were 133 cars.

General profit-taking caused weakness in provisions. The market was active. May pork opened 7½@17½c lower, at $13.50@13.60, and sold off to $13.60. Lard was 5@12½c lower, at $8.37½@8.45. Ribs were 10@12½c to 12½@15c lower, at $7.17½ to $7.20.

Close: Wheat—May, 92¾c; July, 88¼@⅜c; September, 86¼c. Corn—May, 66¼c; July, 63¾c; September, 62½c. Oats—May, old, 53¾c; May, 52¾c; July, old, 47½c; July, 45c; September, 38⅝c. Pork—May, $13.57½; July, $11.12½. Lard—May, $8.47½@8.50; July, $8.72½. Ribs—May, $7.32½@7.35; July, $7.55. Rye—Cash, 74@75c. Barley—Cash, 70@83c. Timothy—April, $4.65. Clover—Cash, $24.00. Cash wheat—No. 2 red, 94@96¾c; No. 3 red, 93¾@95¼c; No. 2 hard, 93¾@$1.00; No. 3 hard, 89½@90c; No. 3 spring, 93@$1.05. Others nothing doing. Corn—No. 2, nothing doing; No. 3, 61½@62c.

THE MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Wheat Opens Higher, But May Sells Down Later.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 1. — Wheat opened firmer and higher. May started at $1.03¼ and July at $1.01. May immediately sold down but July held firm and the price difference between May and July narrowed to 1½c. Good winter wheat crop reports made the market weak and later in the day when May had dipped under $1.02 the shorts began to cover and there was reaction in price. North Dakota had two inches of snow in some places, and it was cold generally Northwest with early spring farm work checked. Minneapolis elevator stocks showed an increase of 100,000 bushels in four days. Minneapolis got 203 cars against 278 and 35 cars of today's receipts were winter wheat. Duluth got 41 against 115. May opened at $1.03¼; high, $1.03¾; low, $1.01⅞@$1.02; close, $1.02⅝@⅞. July closed at $1.01¾; September closed at 90c.

Betere demand ruled in the cash markets, millers taking more. No. 1 northern brought 1½c over May; No. 2 selling at ½@1c under. Close: No. 1 northern, $1.03½@1.04, spot; $1.04 to arrive; No. 2 northern, $1.01½@1.02 spot, $1.02 to arrive; No. 3 wheat, 94¼@98¾c.

No. 3 yellow corn, 61¼c; No. 3 white oats, 49¾@⅞c; No. 2 rye, 70@72¾c.

Barley was firm for maltingg with a sale at 80c, but very weak for feeding grades and sales as low as 59c 58c and 57c. Close: 57@80c.

Flax in demand by crushers who paid Duluth May price for No. 1 see. Close: $1.15.

Bran in bulk quotable $21.25@21.50.

Flour—Lack of shipping instructions makes the loading light and the outward flour movement small. Prices are unchanged and demand moderate. Shipments, 36,271 barrels. First patents, $.35@5.40; second patents, $5.15@5.20; first clears $4.15@4.25; second clears, $3.20@3.50.

REMARKS.

Rain or snow fell over practically all districts in the grain region, the rainfall being heavy over Kentucky. Low temperatures prevail this morning in all districts north from and including Kansas and Iowa.

H. W. RICHARDSON,
Local Forecaster.

T indicates inappreciable rainfall.
* For yesterday.  For twenty-four hours ending at 8 a. m., 75th meridian time.

NOTE—The average maximum and minimum temperatures and the average rainfall are made up at each center from the actual number of reports received. The state of weather is that prevailing at time of observation.

THE PRODUCE MARKETS.

Meat prices are still up. There have been no changes in prices here since Monday, but the stiff tone is being felt. There is no indication of a lower market for some time.

Copper Gossip.

Hayden, Stone & Co., Boston, to Walter W. Carr: Coppers were slightly higher, in sympathy with the better tone of the New York market, and the recent pressure on Boston Consolidated, Nevada Consolidated and Cumberland-Ely has been relieved. Foreign metal quotations were slightly lower, but it is reported that copper exports for March show a material increase over the corresponding month of last year as well as from the first of this year, there is aso a reported decrease in the foreign visible supply of metal, which after recent imports, seems to indicate that foreign consumption is on a broader scale. Recent declines have discounted unfavorable news and it would seem that any change should be for the better.

A PUGILIST'S GENEROSITY.

Outing Magazine: One time, after he had lost the championship as well as most of the coin he had gathered, John L. Sullivan opened a cafe in Forty-second street, New York. It was the occasion of a great celebration among the men who had followed him from victory to victory during many years. Sullivan still had friends by the thousand. On the opening day his place was crowded to the outer doors. Champagne flowed in rivers, and few were allowed to buy while John was near.

During the afternoon two women dressed in Salvation army uniform walked into the bar, proffering the War Cry for sale and soliciting contributions to a charity fund. The men in the place were not charitably inclined that afternoon, except in the matter of purchasing refreshments. Some turned their backs; some laughed. Sullivan was just returning from a trip to the room in the rear as the women turned to go out. His ears caught the laugh, and his eyes took in the situation at a glance. Stepping quickly forward, he called the women back.

"Here's a hundred for you," he said, passing over a bill.

The women, thanking him, had not reached the door before he called them back again.

"Here's a hundred more," he said, diving into als pocket. Don't thank me. It's all right. Just trot along now."

"Boys," said Sullivan, "more than one of us may be glad to have some one give us a lift before we die. Give when you've got it. You may be glad to have some other fellow do as much for you."

STOCKS ARE IRREGULAR

Business Was Light Most of Day, and Close Dull.

The Reduction in the Atchison Dividend Had No Effect.

New York, April 1.—Opening prices of stocks robounded sharply from the closing depression of yesterday. The Erie issues were favorably affected on the announcement of the proposed note issue and the sympathetic effect on the whole list was marked. Erie common was run up 1⅜, the first preferred 4, the second preferred 6⅝ and the convertible "B" bonds ex-int. 4. Union Pacific rose 1⅜, Reading 1⅛, Colorado Fuel 1 and the majority of the other issues quoted a large fraction. The dealings showed considerable animation.

The improvement in the market was checked by a drive against the copper stocks. Traders realized freely in the railroad list, wiping out the advance in Reading and causing reactions of 2 points in the Erie preferred stocks. Before the decline had become important Northern Pacific and St. Paul were lifted a point, Brooklyn Transit 1⅜, Southern Railway preferred 2¼ and Erie convertible "A" 4½. Amalgamated Copper gave way 1 and American Smelting 1¼, but these losses were restored when the market became strong again at 11 o'clock.

Union Pacific was heavily bought up to 1¾ over last night and Atchison rose 2⅛. Prices elsewhere advanced in sympathy but fell again toward noon, Atchison reacting 1¼. Westinghouse Electric gained 4½, American Car preferred 2, Colorado Fuel 1¾. Sloss Sheffield Steel 1½, Canadian Pacific 1¼ and Southern Railway, Toledo, St. Louis & Western preferred, United States Steel, Republic Steel, Consolidated Gas and Central Leather 1. Erie one year notes falling due on April 3 sold in the outside market at 91 compared with 92 yesterday. Pullman declined 1½. Bonds were firm.

The reduction in the Atchison dividend to a 5 per cent rate proved to have been discounted, and had no effect on the stock or the general market. Business was almost nominal and the undertone steady. Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha lost 1½.

The market closed dull and irregular. American Smelting was bid up 1⅞ and Anaconda 1¾ over last night. The general list also rose to the previous high level, but yielded when American Smelting fell back 1⅜. International Paper preferred gained 1¾ and Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie 1. St. Paul was carried up 1⅜ in the final dealings.

Sheep—Receipts about 15,000; market weak to 10c lower. Native, $4.75@6.50; western, $5@6.50; yearlings, $6.25@7.60; lambs, $6@8.10; western, $6.50@8.15.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., April 1.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: Trade was active. Both commercial and industrial interests were well represented at today's sale, and all the seasonable offerings met with ready buyers. The consignments, which numbered over 250 head, were all sold, and while some of the shippers report that their loads failed to pay out, the buyers were more than satisfied with their purchases. The Western Horse company reports a good call for Western horses. William Reibolt's receipts of mares and general unrpose horses were in active demand. All dealers report a most satisfactory trade, with market firmer in tone, with values steady, as follows:

NEW FLAG FLYING.

Immigration Service Emblem is Raised at Federal Building.

For the first time in the history of Duluth, the flag of the United States immigration service is today floating from the top of the federal building. It will be a permanent ornament there from now on,

The flag was secured from the department of commerce and labor through Inspector in Charge William H. Dean of the local immigration office. There are three flag poles on top of the building, and up to the present time one of them has not been in use. The central pole bears the American flag, the one to the east bears the customs flag, and the pole on the west side of the building now has the immigration flag.

The latter is attractive in design. It is pennant shaped, with blue stripes bordering a field of white, upon which "U. S. I. S." is printed in red, standing for United States immigration service. The emblem of the department of commerce and labor and a ship and an anvil is also on the white field.

Again Arrested.

William Todd refused to "be good" the police claim, after he was released last Saturday. Todd was arrested on a forgery charge, but he was evidently so ignorant of the serious nature of his offense, that he was let go with a light fine for vagrancy. Last night, however, it is claimed he attempted to "frisk" a woodsman, and he was arrested again. The old charge of forgery was revived against him, and he will be tried for it.

JOE HOWARD DEAD.

New York, April 1.—After an illness of almost a year, Joseph Howard, Jr., one of the most prominent newspaper men in the country, died last night. He was 74 years old. Howard had been in the newspaper business all his life and "Howard's column" was long a well known newspaper feature. For five terms Mr. Howard was president of the New York Press club. He was president of the International League of Press clubs in 1897.

FREAKS OF ELECTRIC SHOCKS

Effects of Handling Wires Which Carry a High Voltage Current.

Cassier's Magazine: The fact that one has received a shock from a 500-volt circuit that did not prove painful is not a sign that the next one will be equally harmless. The following experiments have been made, involuntarily, by a great number of people.

Touch one side of the circuit lightly with the finger while making contact with the other side, either through a ground or by actually touching it; the sensation is similar to receiving a violent blow in the chest; a small burn that is deep, but not painful, will be found on the finger where contact was made.

Make a better contact, as by touching the circuit with a piece of metal held firmly in the hand, and the blow will be strong enough to knock the experimenter down. It is probable that no burn will result, as the current has a large surface through which to enter the hand; in rare cases the person may become unconscious for a short time.

Grasp the wire firmly in the hand, and for a time at least it will be impossible to release it. Serious burns are made where the wire touches the hand, and unless the victim succeeds in wrenching himself free, or help is quickly rendered, the result is likely to prove fatal.

The last case is of a very rare occurrence; it is pretty sure to obtain considerable space in the daily papers when it actually does occur, while in many of the reports seen the victim may exclaim, with Mark Twain, "Accounts of my death greatly exaggerated." On the other hand, people are knocked down by the current every day. It is rather peculiar that the 500-volt shock will, in the majority of cases, kill a horse.

The trolley current is a 500-volt circuit, with the exception of perhaps half a dozen lines recently installed, which go to 1,000 or over. It is well to remember, in case of a falling trolley wire, that standing upon a dry board will give full protection; that while sitting in a car there is no danger of shock from a broken wire or other cause if one does not touch metal or wet wood; raising the feet from the floor that may be wet or dirty will do as an additional precaution.

If one wishes to remove a wire to avoid shock, or for other reasons, it may be done with safety while standing upon a dry, clean board, with a piece of dry board not large enough to stand on, or with several thicknesses of dry paper (a newspaper), or in case of an emergency a bundle of dry clothing. As it is difficult to get the latter perfectly dry, a shock may be received when this is attempted, but the resistance will be so high that the shock will not be very severe.

The deadly third rail also operates at 500 volts, and is no more deadly than has been already shown, except for the probability of a person who is thrown down by the shock of falling across the rail and becoming unconscious. This, of course, is as serious a case even as that of the man who is unable to let go of the wire.

Wires used for street lighting may always be regarded with suspicion; they are exceedingly likely to carry a current of 2,000 volts or more. This will, in most cases, give a fatal current, and the pressure is so great that the precautions previously described are not to be depended upon. One would be reasonably safe, however, if standing upon a chair or stool with perfectly dry wooden legs.

As wires of 2,000 volts or more are quite common in the streets, there are many chances for other wires to come in contact with them and so recieve a dangerous current. It is, therefore, unwise for an inexperienced person to touch any outdoor wire, however harmless it may appear.

Lines for transmitting power across country operate on voltages all the way up to 60,000. Precautions are taken with such wires and special warnings are printed on the poles. Lines of 10,000 volts or over may be recognized by the fact that large clay or porcelain insulators are used in place of the glass ones generally seen.

Persons rendered unconscious by a shock may frequently be revived by inducing artificial respiration, in the manner used for reviving persons apparently drowned; but, of course, without the attempt to expel water from the lungs.

BUILDING WORK QUIET

Permits for March Fall Far Below Last Year.

Few Permits for Work Estimated to Cost Over $5,000.

The effects of the controversy between the contractors and union men, together with the financial flurry of last fall, are still evident in the figures of the building inspector's office. During the month of March eighty-five permits were issued, the cost of the work covered being estimated at $135,563. In March, 1907, there were ninety-two permits covering work estimated to cost $359,790, a falling off this year of about $123,000.

Small jobs were the rule during March. The union men, out of employment with the big contractors, have taken up small jobs of their own and most of the permits were under the $500-mark. There were quite a number of permits for work costing between $1,000 and $2,000 and several residences are to be constructed at a cost of $3,500. Over that, however, there were few big permits secured.

The largest contract for which a permit was issued last month is that for the cold storage plant of the Northern Cold Storage & Warehouse company, to be erected on the bay shore between Seventh and Eighth avenue west. It is to cost $40,000, and only for that the March figures would have fallen far behind those of that month in other years.

Landmark & Franson, proprietors of a store at the corner of Tenth avenue west and Second street, took out a permit for another story on their present building and an addition to the east, the estimate being $15,000. J. C. & R. M. Hunter are to erect a one-story building at the corner of Third avenue east and Superior street, to accommodate four stores, at a cost of $8,000. Aside from those, there were none but ordinary dwelling house permits.

WILL REOPEN SCHOOL MONDAY

Only One New Smallpox Case in Horace Mann District.

Only one more case of smallpox has been discovered in the vicinity of the Horace Mann school, Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street, this week, and it is probable the suspension of sessions at the school, which was ordered by Health Commissioner Murray, will be in force no longer than this week.

The school did not reopen Monday morning on orders from the health commissioner, as it was feared the gathering of children would spread smallpox, which has been prevalent in the district for some weeks. Several cases were discovered of children having attended the school, while there was smallpox at their home. The school was thoroughly fumigated, but the further precaution of closing it during the danger period was adopted. It is believed that all danger of an epidemic has passed and it will be possible to reopen the school next Monday morning.

Teachers throughout the city are keeping close watch on their pupils, and every suspicious case, showing symptoms of smallpox or diptheria, is promptly reported to the health department. The inspectors are kept busy investigating cases of sore throat, which might be diphtheria, every child being held out of school until a thorough examination is held.

ALL IS READY FOR BANQUET

Yacht Club Has Fine Program for Thursday Night.

Everything is in readiness for the banquet and annual meeting of the Duluth Yacht club, to be held at the St. Louis hotel tomorrow evening. The banquet is called for 6 o'clock. About 300 plates will be laid, and it is said to be doubtful if this number will be sufficient to accommodate all those who desire to attend.

A very attractive program of toasts and musical numberes has been prepared. Dr. D. H. Day will respond to "The American Flag." Hon Clarence B. Miller has consented to speak on "Vikings and Other Sea Heroes." George H. Atkin, vice commodore of the Chicago Yacht club, will take "The Sir John Nutting Cup Races" as a subject for his talk. Warren E. Greene will tell about "Land Lubbers and Other Things." "A Model City" is the subject assigned Mayor Roland D. Haven, while ex-Mayor Cullum will speak on "The City Beautiful." The musical program will be taken part in by the high school choir, under direction of Prof. A. F. M. Custance; Miss Maude Matteson, Milton C. Spencer, Miss Florence Hyland and Charles O. Applehagen.

CURES RHEUMATISM.

TESTIMONIAL FROM A DULUTH CITIZEN.

A. J. Henrickson,, with Henrickson Jewelry Co., writes: "Was sick in bed with Rheumatism in August, 1907, and kept getting worse and worse, although I tried doctors and various remedies with no results. A friend induced me to try LAMBERT'S RHEUMATIC POWDERS. These brought me immediate relief, and after using them a short time, was able to go to work again. Am today completely cured, and highly recommend your powders to anyone suffering with Rheumatism. For sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box. If your druggist does not handle it, will send post-paid upon receipt of price. E. Lambert, Sole Mfr., 630 Hennepin Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

MUST CLOSE ON SUNDAY

Lid Will be Placed on the Small Clothing Stores.

Chief Troyer Issues Order That Law Must be Observed.

The "lid" goes on the clothing stores next Sunday. Chief Troyer issued an order today and it will be served on every store in the city, which has made it a practice of opening its doors on Sunday. It is expected that all of the notices will be served tomorrow, so that the proprietors will have plenty of time to prepare to respect it.

Last Sunday, a committee from the clerks' union, with inspiration from the proprietors of the larger stores, it is said, made a tour of investigation, securing evidence against about seventeen clothing stores, which were doing business. The complaints were laid before the city attorney and chief of police. It is doubtful if prosecutions will be made on those complaints, but should the order of the chief be disrespected, some of the dealers will be taken into court to answer to charges of violating the law.

The small dealers, who have made a practice of catering to Sunday trade, have been a thorn in the side of the reputable merchants. Numerous attempts to close them up have failed, but now the clerks have taken the matter in hand to push it to a finish and they have the backing of the police department and the courts.

Only the main portion of the city is being considered at present, but the movement will spread to West end and West Duluth. In the latter place, only one or two dealers on Central avenue, respect the Sabbath by closing their stores and efforts to whip the others in line have always failed. Now, however, every store will be closed and those who fail will surely be prosecuted.

Milk Dealer Arrested on Complaint of State Inspector.

Thomas Hanley, state milk inspector, made complaint in municipal court today against John Wallin, a milk dealer, charging him with having in his possession adulterated milk. Hanley charges that Wallin had a five-gallon can of milk in his stable, within a few feet of the cattle. Though the milk was adulterated by the air of the stables, it is claimed, Wallin had it with the intention of selling it. He will be brought into court today.

SLASHED WITH KNIFE.

Police Looking for Man Who Cut Louis Parent.

During an altercation with his brother-in-law at the Alger Smith mill last night, Louis Parent was slashed three times across the face with a knife. The police are looking for the brother-in-law, who made a getaway.

CURIOUS TRIBAL CUSTOMS.

Melbourne correspondence London Chronicle: A Methodist missionary in British New Guinea—now known as the Papua—the Rev. W. E. Brownlow, has added to the world's knowledge of the curious and little known races of the great North Pacific island by the discovery and partial taming of a new tribe.

The race in question consists of about 20,000 blacks, living at a place called Dobu. The customs of the race are most curious. The immigration policy is more drastic than that of "White Australia," for all strangers have either to become full members of the tribe or be eaten. When dealing with Mr. Brownlow, however, the difficulty was got over by making him a father of the tribe.

In an interview in Sydney Mr. Brownlow gave some interesting particulars of the Dobuans' standard of civilization. The Dobuan land laws, he said, were an example to modern countries. Each tribe and each family had their own land and no portion was allowed to go out of their possession except as a loan for a season's crop. The men married out of their own tribe and on their death their land becems the property of their sisters' children, and so it was handed down from generation to generation within the tribe.

Women have great influence in the affairs of the tribe and their duties are quite distinct from those of the men. The men clear the brush and dig the ground, then the women prepare it and plant yams, the crop being theirs. If a man wanted any yams he had to ask for them. The banana patch, however, was his own property. Wives were obtained by purchase. If a man paid well for his wife he could thrash her occasionally, but she could leave him if she did not like it and go back to her own village, where she still has a home.

In the religion of the people, continued Mr. Brownlow, there was something of ancestral worship. A deceased relative was regarded as sacred and his name must not be mentioned on pain of death. An exception was made in the case of any one being ill and given up by the medicine man. The latter might then call upon the name of an ancestor, invoking him to bring back the spirit of the dying man. Their heaven was a place where the healthy, strong and good looking went. All the others went to hell. They believe in a being who created them, but left them alone afterward.

WOMEN DEFIED CHURCH RULE.

Seattle Times: Six splendidly clad young women, not the least of their grandeur being represented by the latest examples of millinery art, swept into the First Presbyterian church and seated themselves in the most advantageous seats of this, the most select house of worship in the city. The six did not resemble conspirators bent on revolutionary and rebellious tactics, but they were and they won their point.

"Ladies will please remove their hats," commanded the Rev. Dr. Matthews, when his calm glance over his congregation revealed the fact that one of the standing rules of the church was being violated right under the ministerial nose.

There was no responsive action on the part of the six. The request was repeated in a still firmer tone, but the rebels sat firm, and after a pause of a minute's duration the divine began his sermon while the six sat straight with their plumes flaunting a paean of victory.

THE POPULISTS DECLINE TO ADJOURN CONVENTION AT REQUEST OF BRYANITES

Jacob Coxey of Ohio Named as Temporary Chairman.

St. Louis, April 2.—The Populist national convention, which was called for 10 o'clock today was somewhat behind that hour in beginning proceedings. The chief cause of this was the renewed efforts of the supporters of William J. Bryan to secure an agreement for an adjournment until after the Republican and Democratic conventions. They made strong arguments before the members of the national committee and also before the committee on credentials, but with no apparent effect, save to delay the proceedings. They backed up their demands for an adjournment by the claim that some of the delegates present had been improperly chosen and that the entire call for the convention was illegal.

They cited the case of Pennsylvania, which has seventy-nine votes in the convention, while Thomas E. Watson in 1904 had not received a single vote in the state. Other alleged inequalities in the system of representation were mentioned, but the Watson adherents stood firm and refused to listen to any proposition for an adjournment.

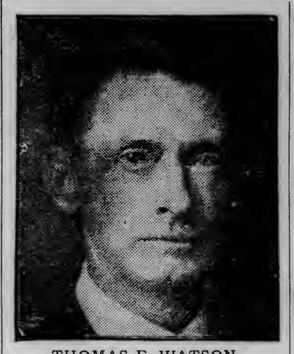

The determination of Nebraska, Minnesota and Michigan to bolt the convention if the program of making nominations is carried out was unaltered today. E. A. Walrath, secretary of the Nebraska state central committee, said today:

"We do not propose to be trampled on and we are going to fight for our rights. We claim to represent more simon pure Populists than any other state. We will not be a party to any nomination and if they are made, and if an adjournment is not taken we will leave the convention."

Convention Called to Order.

The convention came to order shortly before 11 o'clock, about 300 delegates being present. After an invocation by Rev. Thomas Wadsworth of Indiana, the formal proceedings were begun by James H. Ferris of Joliet, the chairman of the national committee.

Following the address of Mr. Ferris, Jacob S. Coxey of Ohio was named as temporary chairman of the convention. After taking the chair he made an address covering the leading economical questions of the day, paying particular attention to the national currency.

BULLET IN HER BREAST

Chisholm, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—While toying with an automatic 38-caliber revolver in a room connected with the saloon of Frank Senrich, adjacent to the Star theater, where she was employed, Lucile Blake fired a bullet into her right breast about 3 a. m. today, dying in twenty minutes. That is the version of the affair given by two or three eye witnesses, whose names are not made public, but who are expected to corroborate this story at the inquest to be held this afternoon.

The woman is said to have been drinking and was more or less under the influence of liquor. A man with her had displayed his pistol and was extolling its qualities when the woman said, "Oh, I can show you a better gun than that old thing," and called to the bartender to bring a weapon from behind the bar. The bartender is said to have brought the 38-caliber revolver. The cartridges were all supposed to have been removed, and the Blake woman began to snap the pistol in a careless manner. There was a shot and she collapsed, saying she had hit herself. A doctor was summoned, but the bullet had penetrated a vital part and nothing could be done.

Little can be learned about the woman more than that she was about 24 years of age and had been working in various variety and vaudeville houses in this section for some time. Police Chief Madden says that the affair will be probed to the bottom at the inquest and if anything different from this story develops, arrests will be made.

A MINER GETS "EASY MONEY"

Employe of Coal Company Paid for Filing Claim.

Salt Lake City, Utah, April 2.—In his testimony at the hearing of the cases against the Utah & Pleasant Valley Coal companies, before Master in Chancery Lewis, yesterday, John Schinness, an employe of the Pleasant Valley company, at Scofield, admitted that he had received a compensation of $250 from the company, through an attorney named Burr, for filing on certain lands and signing certain affidavits. Schinness said he knew that others were getting "easy money," and thought he might as well have some of it. This is the most important testimony so far elicited by the government in its criminal action against the coal companies for obtaining land by fraud.

WISCONSIN MAN SHOOTS HIS SON

Black River Falls, Wis., April 2.—When Ellsworth Dunnigan, the 16-year-old son of Thomas Dunnigan, a farmer living seven miles out of this city, stepped in to defend his stepmother from a brutal attack by her husband at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the father seized a rifle and shot the boy in the hip. Ellsworth, with his brother and sister, at once ran from the house to a neighbor's home, and the neighbor notified the sheriff. Dunnigan was arrested and brought to this city, where he is now in jail awaiting examination as to his sanity. It is said that another woman is concerned in the case.

Mrs. Dunnigan was formerly Miss Jennie Marsh, and her father, T. P. Marsh, was for fifteen years superintendent of the schools of Jackson county. About five years ago Miss Marsh married Dunnigan, who is ten years her senior. He has three children by his first wife and all three witnessed the attack on their stepmother.

THREE DIE IN N. Y. FIRE

A Five-Story Tenement House Burns Early In Morning.

Fifteen Injured, Some of Them Quite Seriously.

New York, April 2.—Three persons were killed, fifteen were injured, some of them seriously, and the lives of nearly a hundred persons were endangered by fire in a five-story tenement house, No. 44 Hester street, early today.

They were suffocated and burned in their apartments on the fifth floor. That more lives were not lost was largely due to the prompt action of three policemen, who, seeing the flames in the hall, rushed through the building and aroused the members of sixteen families. By that time, the stairways were a mass of flames and the only means of exit was by the fire escapes. In their mad attempt to escape, scores of scantily clad men, women and children crowded the narrow iron platforms and ladders until they became wedged in solid masses on the fire escapes, unable to extricate themselves and blocking the way of those who had not

ARRESTED JUST BEFORE WEDDING

St. Paul, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Guy H. Morris of Austin, Minn., is in the hands of the police here, having been arrested at Austin yesterday a short time before his marriage to a young woman telephone operator of Austin. The arrest was made by Chester Edwards, an officer of Spokane, Wash., and a former Minnesota boy, on the charge of stealing $1,500 worth of diamonds from Jennie Smith of Spokane. Jennie Smith claims that Morris enticed her into a room in a hotel and that he choked her into unconsciousness, chloroformed and robbed her of her diamonds. Morris, whose father is a business man of Austin, is about 20 years of age, and was a railroad brakeman. Since his return from the West he purchased a livery stable at Austin. The police here say he pawned jewelry to the value of $500 in a local pawn shop, and that he has promised to return to Spokane without requisition papers. In Morris's grip the police found billies, masks and a number of newspaper clippings relating how several people had been held up and robbed by a lone highwayman in different towns.

KOREANS ARE INDIGNANT

At French Consul Who Slurs Memory of Stevens.

Tokio, April 2.—Advices from Seoul are to the effect that intense indignation has been aroused among both natives and foreigners in Seoul on account of the action of the French consul general who posted a notice on the board of the club opposing the message of condolence sent to the family of D. W. Stevens. The club passed a resolution to cable a message. The French consul was the sole objector. Later he posted a notice on the board of the club saying:

"I cannot express any sympathy for Stevens even in his tomb."

The members of the club are very indignant. The British consul general addressed the committee demanding the removal of the notice, because, he said, it was a disgrace for the club to use the board for such a method of expressing private malevolence. The committee unanimously decided to remove the notice.

The feeling of the French against Stevens was aroused three years ago when Stevens was appointed as arbitrator in the dispute between the French Catholics and American missionaries concerning a small piece of land in Ping Yang. Stevens decided in favor of the Americans. The decision was generally approved at the time, no persons except the French Catholic residents in Seoul and the French consul objecting.

ESCAPE BEING KILLED.

Crookston, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The watchfulness of Engineer Auringer and Fireman Arnold of the eastbound Great Northern passenger prevented the engine striking and killing two lumberjacks lying in a drunken stupor on the tracks near Lengby. The train was stopped just in time to prevent their being ground to pieces. They were dragged from the track by the train crew and allowed to sleep off their potations.

CARRIED OVER DAM

Have Fall of Twelve Feet, But No One is Drowned.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—An Evening Wisconsin special from Appleton, Wis., says: While crossing the Fox river, in a rowboat at Kimberly last evening Ferryman George Eggleston accidentally lost an oar. Being unable to manage his craft with only one oar in the storm and swift current, the boat, containing Eleanor Johnson, aged 14 years, Harry Teendt, aged 12 years and the ferryman was carried over the twelve-foot dam. The boat, after landing in the swift waters of the dam capsized and the trio, clinging to the upturned craft struggled for ten minutes and managed to keep themselves above the water, until the current carried them to the Kimberly floating bridge three rods below the dam.

The girl and boy were almost exhausted and would have been drowned had it not been for the heroic work of Ferryman Eggleston who is today in a precarious condition.

The water above the dam is unusually high at present and it is considered little less than a miracle that the trio escaped with their lives.

MRS. ALFRED G. VANDERBILT. ALFRED G. VANDERBILT.

In Plank of Platform Written by Vice President Fairbanks.

Corporation Contributions to Campaign Funds Opposed.

Delegates Elected and State Officers Are Nominated.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 2.—With its organization completed at its first session yesterday afternoon the Indiana Republican state convention today adopted its platform, elected four delegates at large to the national convention and two national electors at large, instructed thirty Indiana delegates to the national convention to vote and work persistently for the nomination of Vice President Charles Warren Fairbanks for the presidency of the United States and nominated a state ticket.

The platform adopted in addition to instructing for Vice President Fairbanks indorses President Roosevelt's administration, opposes corporation contributions to campaign funds, favors economy in public expenditures, favors a modification of the financial system without mentioning any particular measure, urges a progressive program of labor legislation, pledges a complete regulation of capitalistic combination in the interest of trade, commerce and the general welfare of the people, and urges a revision of the tariff by a special session of congress to be called early in November with the recommendation that congress take immediate steps to secure the proper data by experts. Extension of foreign mail service on the seas is favored as is the extension of foreign trade, especially with South America. A bureau of mines and mining is urged and waterways improvement is recommended. The abolishment of child labor is demanded. Among the important state issues is a plank favoring a local option law with the county as a unit, the law to be in addition to and supplemental of the present laws regulating the liquor traffic. The tariff plank was written by Vice President Fairbanks. The planks condemning child labor and indorsing President Roosevelt were written by Senator Beveridge.

The delegates were late in coming to order on account of the great crowd. The four candidates for governor were cheered as they took seats on the stage, as were Governor Hanly and the two United States senators. The report of the resolutions committee was read by President Elmer B. Bryan of Franklin college, chairman of the committee. The names of President Roosevelt, Vice President Fairbanks, Senators Beveridge and Hemenway and Governor Hanly were greeted with rounds of applause. The platform was read and adopted. It includes the following planks:

Roosevelt Praised.

"We unreservedly and enthusiastically indorse the administration of Theodore Roosevelt. Upon his initiative and and under his guidance, the Panama canal has been begun and is rapidly being driven to completion. Upon his recommendation, congress has passed many laws which secure greater rights for the people and insure that honesty in business upon which alone permanent prosperity is built. President Roosevelt's fearless and impartial enforcement of law, regardless of the wealth and power of the lawbreaker, has secured not only greater observance of and respect for law than ever before, but also has quickened the moral sense of the nation.

"The Republicans of Indiana, voicing the opinion of the great majority of the people and all parties, congratulate President Roosevelt on his administration of the country's affairs and pledge our continued support of his policies.

"The Republican party notes with pleasure the growing determination to eradicate political corruption from whatever source the same originates, and to that end the party may respond to that senti-

MRS. ALFRED G. VANDERBILT ASKS ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

New York, April 2.—There was little surprise expressed in any quarter today over the announcement that formal action in a suit for absolute divorce had been taken by Mrs. Ellen French Vanderbilt against Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. Even rumors of impending action, which have been in free circulation since March 26, when Mrs. Vanderbilt hurriedly left the Vanderbilt farm at Portsmouth, R. I., are said to have caused surprise only outside the social set in which the couple have been leaders. Within that circle it had been known for a year or more, it is said, that there was a lack of mutual good feeling between the young people. While the parties to the trouble, and all their intimates as well, have maintained the utmost reserve since the reports of family infelicities became public a week ago, still many circumstantial stories have found their way into print. As many of these had been generally accepted as true, there seemed little doubt that some definite action would be taken at an early date.

Mr. Vanderbilt has uniformly declined to comment upon any of the stories. When questioned about the departure of his wife from the Rhode Island farm to her bother's home at Tuxedo park, and asked if he had been consulted before the move was made, he replied that Mrs. Vanderbilt was free to visit her brother at any time without his consent.

Refuse to Discuss Matters.

He and Mrs. Vanderbilt flatly refused to discuss the relations existing between them on the ground that it was a personal affair, in which the public had no concern. Mr. Vanderbilt's departure for Europe had been planned for early in the week, but delayed until yesterday at the last moment. This delay, it is now said, was brought about through the service upon him of the papers in his wife's suit for divorce.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt inherited a fortune of $60,000,000 at the death of his father, the late Cornelius Vanderbilt. At the same time, although a younger son, he became the head of that branch of the Vanderbilt family, his older brother, Cornelius, having become estranged from his father through his marriage with Miss Grace Wilson.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt married Ellen French, the daughter of the late Francis O. French, a New York banker, on Jan. 14, 1901. At the time of his marriage, Mr. Vanderbilt was 23 years of age, and his bride 21. They have one child, a boy, who is with his mother at the home of Mrs. Vanderbilt's brother, in Tuxedo.

CONTROL OF COMMERCE

Within State Must be Left to State, Asserts Young.

Attorney General Says Federal Control Overrides Constitution.

St. Paul, April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Attorney General Young, in a letter to a prominent Minnesota business man, commenting upon the recent commodity rate decision, says that while federal control in all things, as advocated by some persons, may be the best for the country, it cannot be exercised at present without overriding the Constitution. While the recent decision of the United States supreme court may settle some things, it by no means wipes out the sovereignty of the states, and in his mind this sovereignty will remain until set aside by an amendment to the Constitution. With him it is a question of law and not of policy. While the states have this power, he says, they must be permitted to exercise it. Speaking of President Roosevelt and his centralization policy regarding transportation, Mr. Young says in part:

"If the people want complete federal

TWO-CENT RATE TO BE ATTACKED

The Railroads Will File Suits Probably Next Week.

Chicago, April 2.—A combined attack on the 2-cent passenger rate is promised by the railroads that operate in Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri. It is probable that the suits will be filed next week.

The call for a conference tomorrow, in Chicago, of officials of the Illinois roads, will be sent out today, and plans for the fight will then be laid.

The first step will be the application, in the federal court in Chicago, for an injunction to restrain the state from maintaining in force the 2-cent statute and its penalties.

That the rate laws of Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri will be attacked simultaneously is a conclusion from the close touch which has been maintained by railroad officials of the three states in all their conferences.

Chicago railroad men declared yesterday that Illinois roads have prepared statistics as to earnings and expenditures under the 2-cent fare law, tending to show that the rate is unremunerative, and hence confiscatory. The statistics are now ready to be presented as a basis for a petition for an injunction.

Convention Called to Order.

The convention came to order shortly before 11 o'clock, about 300 delegates being present. After an invocation by Rev. Thomas Wadsworth of Indiana, the formal proceedings were begun by James H. Ferris of Joliet, the chairman of the national committee.

Following the address of Mr. Ferris, Jacob S. Coxey of Ohio was named as temporary chairman of the convention. After taking the chair he made an address covering the leading economical questions of the day, paying particular attention to the national currency.

BULLET IN HER BREAST

Chisholm, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—While toying with an automatic 38-caliber revolver in a room connected with the saloon of Frank Senrich, adjacent to the Star theater, where she was employed, Lucile Blake fired a bullet into her right breast about 3 a. m. today, dying in twenty minutes. That is the version of the affair given by two or three eye witnesses, whose names are not made public, but who are expected to corroborate this story at the inquest to be held this afternoon.

The woman is said to have been drinking and was more or less under the influence of liquor. A man with her had displayed his pistol and was extolling its qualities when the woman said, "Oh, I can show you a better gun than that old thing," and called to the bartender to bring a weapon from behind the bar. The bartender is said to have brought the 38-caliber revolver. The cartridges were all supposed to have been removed, and the Blake woman began to snap the pistol in a careless manner. There was a shot and she collapsed, saying she had hit herself. A doctor was summoned, but the bullet had penetrated a vital part and nothing could be done.

Little can be learned about the woman more than that she was about 24 years of age and had been working in various variety and vaudeville houses in this section for some time. Police Chief Madden says that the affair will be probed to the bottom at the inquest and if anything different from this story develops, arrests will be made.

A MINER GETS "EASY MONEY"

Employe of Coal Company Paid for Filing Claim.

Salt Lake City, Utah, April 2.—In his testimony at the hearing of the cases against the Utah & Pleasant Valley Coal companies, before Master in Chancery Lewis, yesterday, John Schinness, an employe of the Pleasant Valley company, at Scofield, admitted that he had received a compensation of $250 from the company, through an attorney named Burt, for filing on certain lands and signing certain affidavits. Schinness said he knew that others were getting "easy money," and thought he might as well have some of it. This is the most important testimony so far elicited by the government in its criminal action against the coal companies for obtaining land by fraud.

WISCONSIN MAN SHOOTS HIS SON

Black River Falls, Wis., April 2.—When Ellsworth Dunnigan, the 16-year-old son of Thomas Dunnigan, a farmer living seven miles out of this city, stepped in to defend his stepmother from a brutal attack by her husband at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the father seized a rifle and shot the boy in the hip. Ellsworth, with his brother and sister, at once ran from the house to a neighbor's home, and the neighbor notified the sheriff. Dunnigan was arrested and brought to this city, where he is now in jail awaiting examination as to his sanity. It is said that another woman is concerned in the case.

Mrs. Dunnigan was formerly Miss Jennie Marsh, and her father, T. P. Marsh, was for fifteen years superintendent of the schools of Jackson county. About five years ago Miss Marsh married Dunnigan, who is ten years her senior. He has three children by his first wife and all three witnessed the attack on their stepmother.

THREE DIE IN N. Y. FIRE

A Five-Story Tenement House Burns Early In Morning.

Fifteen Injured, Some of Them Quite Seriously.

New York, April 2.—Three persons were killed, fifteen were injured, some of them seriously, and the lives of nearly a hundred persons were endangered by fire in a five-story tenement house, No. 44 Hester street, early today.

They were suffocated and burned in their apartments on the fifth floor. That more lives were not lost was largely due to the prompt action of three policemen, who, seeing the flames in the hall, rushed through the building and aroused the members of sixteen families. By that time, the stairways were a mass of flames and the only means of exit was by the fire escapes. In their mad attempt to escape, scores of scantily clad men, women and children crowded the narrow iron platforms and ladders until they became wedged in solid masses on the fire escapes, unable to extricate themselves and blocking the way of those who had not

ARRESTED JUST BEFORE WEDDING

St. Paul, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Guy H. Morris of Austin, Minn., is in the hands of the police here, having been arrested at Austin yesterday a short time before his marriage to a young woman telephone operator of Austin. The arrest was made by Chester Edwards, an officer of Spokane, Wash., and a former Minnesota boy, on the charge of stealing $1,500 worth of diamonds from Jennie Smith of Spokane. Jennie Smith claims that Morris enticed her into a room in a hotel and that he choked her into unconsciousness, chloroformed and robbed her of her diamonds. Morris, whose father is a business man of Austin, is about 21 years of age, and was a railroad brakeman. Since his return from the West he purchased a livery stable at Austin. The police here say he pawned jewelry to the value of $500 in a local pawn shop, and that he has promised to return to Spokane without requisition papers. In Morris's grip the police found billies, masks and a number of newspaper clippings relating how several people had been held up and robbed by a lone highwayman in different towns.

CARRIED OVER DAM

Have Fall of Twelve Feet, But No One is Drowned.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—An Evening Wisconsin special from Appleton, Wis., says: While crossing the Fox river, in a rowboat at Kimberly last evening Ferryman George Eggleston accidentally lost an oar. Being unable to manage his craft with only one oar in the storm and swift current, the boat, containing Eleanor Johnson, aged 14 years, Harry Teendt, aged 12 years and the ferryman was carried over the twelve-foot dam. The boat, after landing in the swift waters of the dam capsized and the trio, clinging to the upturned craft struggled for ten minutes and managed to keep themselves above the water, until the current carried them to the Kimberly floating bridge three rods below the dam.

The girl and boy were almost exhausted and would have been drowned had it not been for the heroic work of Ferryman Eggleston who is today in a precarious condition.

The water above the dam is unusually high at present and it is considered little less than a miracle that the trio escaped with their lives.

MRS. ALFRED G. VANDERBILT. ALFRED G. VANDERBILT.

In Plank of Platform Written by Vice President Fairbanks.

Delegates Elected and State Officers Are Nominated.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 2.—With its organization completed at its first session yesterday afternoon the Indiana Republican state convention today adopted its platform, elected four delegates at large to the national convention and two national electors at large, instructed thirty Indiana delegates to the national convention to vote and work persistently for the nomination of Vice President Charles Warren Fairbanks for the presidency of the United States and nominated a state ticket.

The platform adopted in addition to instructing for Vice President Fairbanks indorses President Roosevelt's administration, opposes corporation contributions to campaign funds, favors economy in public expenditures, favors a modification of the financial system without mentioning any particular measure, urges a progressive program of labor legislation, pledges a complete regulation of capitalistic combination in the interest of trade, commerce and the general welfare of the people, and urges a revision of the tariff by a special session of congress to be called early in November with the recommendation that congress take immediate steps to secure the proper data by experts. Extension of foreign mail service on the seas is favored as is the extension of foreign trade, especially with South America. A bureau of mines and mining is urged and waterways improvement is recommended. The abolishment of child labor is demanded. Among the important state issues is a plank favoring a local option law with the county as a unit, the law to be in addition to and supplemental of the present laws regulating the liquor traffic. The tariff plank was written by Vice President Fairbanks. The planks condemning child labor and indorsing President Roosevelt were written by Senator Beveridge.

The delegates were late in coming to order on account of the great crowd. The four candidates for governor were cheered as they took seats on the stage, as were Governor Hanly and the two United States senators. The report of the resolutions committee was read by President Elmer B. Bryan of Franklin college, chairman of the committee. The names of President Roosevelt, Vice President Fairbanks, Senators Beveridge and Hemenway and Governor Hanly were greeted with rounds of applause. The platform was read and adopted. It includes the following planks:

Roosevelt Praised.

"We unreservedly and enthusiastically indorse the administration of Theodore Roosevelt. Upon his initiative and and under his guidance, the Panama canal has been begun and is rapidly being driven to completion. Upon his recommendation, congress has passed many laws which secure greater rights for the people and insure that honesty in business upon which alone permanent prosperity is built. President Roosevelt's fearless and impartial enforcement of law, regardless of the wealth and power of the lawbreaker, has secured not only greater observance of and respect for law than ever before, but also has quickened the moral sense of the nation.

"The Republicans of Indiana, voicing the opinion of the great majority of the people and all parties, congratulate President Roosevelt on his administration of the country's affairs and pledge our continued support of his policies.

"The Republican party notes with pleasure the growing determination to eradicate political corruption from whatever source the same originates, and to that end the party may respond to that senti-

MRS. ALFRED G. VANDERBILT ASKS ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

New York, April 2.—There was little surprise expressed in any quarter today over the announcement that formal action in a suit for absolute divorce had been taken by Mrs. Ellen French Vanderbilt against Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. Even rumors of impending action, which have been in free circulation since March 26, when Mrs. Vanderbilt hurriedly left the Vanderbilt farm at Portsmouth, R. I., are said to have caused surprise only outside the social set in which the couple have been leaders. Within that circle it had been known for a year or more, it is said, that there was a lack of mutual good feeling between the young people. While the parties to the trouble, and all their intimates as well, have maintained the utmost reserve since the reports of family infelicities became public a week ago, still many circumstantial stories have found their way into print. As many of these had been generally accepted as true, there seemed little doubt that some definite action would be taken at an early date.

Mr. Vanderbilt has uniformly declined to comment upon any of the stories. When questioned about the departure of his wife from the Rhode Island farm to her bother's home at Tuxedo park, and asked if he had been consulted before the move was made, he replied that Mrs. Vanderbilt was free to visit her brother at any time without his consent.

Refuse to Discuss Matters.

He and Mrs. Vanderbilt flatly refused to discuss the relations existing between them on the ground that it was a personal affair, in which the public had no concern. Mr. Vanderbilt's departure for Europe had been planned for early in the week, but delayed until yesterday at the last moment. This delay, it is now said, was brought about through the service upon him of the papers in his wife's suit for divorce.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt inherited a fortune of $60,000,000 at the death of his father, the late Cornelius Vanderbilt. At the same time, although a younger son, he became the head of that branch of the Vanderbilt family, his older brother, Cornelius, having become estranged from his father through his marriage with Miss Grace Wilson.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt married Ellen French, the daughter of the late Francis O. French, a New York banker, on Jan. 14, 1901. At the time of his marriage, Mr. Vanderbilt was 23 years of age, and his bride 21. They have one child, a boy, who is with his mother at the home of Mrs. Vanderbilt's brother, in Tuxedo.

CONTROL OF COMMERCE

Within State Must be Left to State, Asserts Young.

Attorney General Says Federal Control Overrides Constitution.

St. Paul, April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Attorney General Young, in a letter to a prominent Minnesota business man, commenting upon the recent commodity rate decision, says that while federal control in all things, as advocated by some persons, may be the best for the country, it cannot be exercised at present without overriding the Constitution. While the recent decision of the United States supreme court may settle some things, it by no means wipes out the sovereignty of the states, and in his mind this sovereignty will remain until set aside by an amendment to the Constitution. With him it is a question of law and not of policy. While the states have this power, he says, they must be permitted to exercise it. Speaking of President Roosevelt and his centralization policy regarding transportation, Mr. Young says in part:

TWO-CENT RATE TO BE ATTACKED

The Railroads Will File Suits Probably Next Week.

Chicago, April 2.—A combined attack on the 2-cent passenger rate is promised by the railroads that operate in Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri. It is probable that the suits will be filed next week.

The call for a conference tomorrow, in Chicago, of officials of the Illinois roads, will be sent out today, and plans for the fight will then be laid.

The first step will be the application, in the federal court in Chicago, for an injunction to restrain the state from maintaining in force the 2-cent statute and its penalties.

That the rate laws of Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri will be attacked simultaneously is a conclusion from the close touch which has been maintained by railroad officials of the three states in all their conferences.

Chicago railroad men declared yesterday that Illinois roads have prepared statistics as to earnings and expenditures under the 2-cent fare law, tending to show that the rate is unremunerative, and hence confiscatory. The statistics are now ready to be presented as a basis for a petition for an injunction.

KOREANS ARE INDIGNANT

Tokio, April 2.—Advices from Seoul are to the effect that intense indignation has been aroused among both natives and foreigners in Seoul on account of the action of the French consul general who posted a notice on the board of the club opposing the message of condolence sent to the family of D. W. Stevens. The club passed a resolution to cable a message. The French consul was the sole objector. Later he posted a notice on the board of the club saying:

The members of the club are very indignant. The British consul general addressed the committee demanding the removal of the notice, because, he said, it was a disgrace for the club to use the board for such a method of expressing private malevolence. The committee unanimously decided to remove the notice.

The feeling of the French against Stevens was aroused three years ago when Stevens was appointed as arbitrator in the dispute between the French Catholics and American missionaries concerning a small piece of land in Ping Yang. Stevens decided in favor of the Americans. The decision was generally approved at the time, no persons except the French Catholic residents in Seoul and the French consul objecting.

ESCAPE BEING KILLED.

Crookston, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The watchfulness of Engineer Auringer and Fireman Arnold of the eastbound Great Northern passenger prevented the engine striking and killing two lumberjacks lying in a drunken stupor on the tracks near Lengby. The train was stopped just in time to prevent their being ground to pieces. They were dragged from the track by the train crew and allowed to sleep off their potations.

PAPER TRUST CAN BE DISSOLVED

If the Publishers' Claim is Correct, Says Speaker Cannon.

Washington, April 2.—Speaker Cannon today introduced resolutions directing the attorney general and the secretary of commerce and labor to inform the house what steps have been taken by those departments to investigate the action of the International Paper Company of New York and other corporations supposed to be engaged in an effort to create a monopoly in print paper.

In reply to a question as to the purpose of the resolution, Speaker Cannon said:

"The duty on print paper is 15 per cent ad valorem, and has been the same since 1890 under the McKinley law, the Wilson law and the Dingley law, covering a period of eighteen years. It is claimed that the price has been advanced within the last few months largely more than equal to the duty.

"The publishers of the United States, represented by Herman Ridder, claim that the manufacturers of wood pulp and print paper have, by agreement and combination, even covering arrangements with Canadian manufacturers, arbitrarily limited the production and advanced the price of print paper. If the claim of the publishers is correct, the manufacturers of print paper are subject to penalty, and the trust can be dissolved and enjoined by proceedings in equity in any of the United States courts where they or any of them can be found; and if the claim of the publishers is correct, the advance in the price is not due to the duty, but results from the illegal trust and combination. If the small duty were repealed, it would not interfere with the illegal trust agreement."

GOVERNOR JOHNSON IS STRONG IN CROOKSTON.

Crookston, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—It was Governor John A. Johnson from start to finish at the rousing Democratic rally held in Crookston College hall Monday evening, dispite contrary reports designed to mislead the public. The Johnson men certainly made good the claim this city as well as the Red River valley is strong for the present governor and will stand for him to the last.

Last week's meeting called by the few anti-Johnson men in this locality may have led some to believe the governor did not stand high in this section as a presidential candidate, but all such doubts were certainly swept aside by Monday's splendid meeting, when the name and praise of the governor called forth the most enthusiastic applause.

When Chairman Frank Hammel called the meeting to order every chair was taken and few left until the last word had been said.

Among the prominent Democrats present were Mayor P. A. McClellan of Stephen, chairman of the Marshall county Democratic committee; County Superintendent of Schools, Milton of Warren; Charles J. Esthund, editor of a paper at Kennedy; Martin O'Brien, member of the state central committee and others. Mr. O'Brien after reviewing national issues took up the record of Governor Johnson and the speaker pointed out how the nomination of the governor would give satisfaction in all quarters, and would give the voters of the country a candidate free from the objections raised against some others.

From beginning to end the meeting was certainly a Johnson affair, free from any discord.

CONFINED TO THREE SHOPS

Union Cards Will Not be Withdrawn From Others.

The McKay, Spalding and Palladio barber shops will be the only ones in the city to be run on the open shop plan, according to an agreement signed this morning by all the other shops in the city employing union men.

H. E. McCollum and James Plant, proprietors of the McKay and Spalding shops, are willing to display the union card in their places of business provided the men come to work at 7 o'clock in the morning. G. J. Schieven, half owner and manager of the Palladio shop, says he will not recognize the union until there is a change made in the officers. Mr. McCollum also owns a half interest in the Palladio shop.

Mr. Schieven claims the union card was withdrawn from the Palladio building without justification, for he had an understanding with his men whereby they were not to come to work until 7:30 a. m., although he himself would open the place for business at 7 o'clock. He says the union card was withdrawn because of a personal grievance against Mr. McCollum, who had nothing to do with the shop, other than to act in the capacity of silent partner. Because he thinks the act very unfair, he refuses to recognize the union until the man responsible for it is displaced by some one else.

The union shop cards were withdrawn from the shops named upon order of executive officers of the union, and were not taken down by the proprietors.

VENEZUELA REPLIES TO AMERICAN NOTE.

Caracas, March 19.—President Castro's official organ, El Constitucional, publishes a part of Venezuela's answer to Secretary Root's last note, reiterating the secretary's previous demands for the arbitration of the five American claims.

The paper alleges that almost five years after the claims in question had been arbitrated, the American government comes to demand, through its minister in Caracas, that two of these claims shall be newly submitted to arbitration.

NO WORK, NO BREAKFAST

Bread Liners Must Saw Wood Before They Can Eat.

Effort Made to Weed Out the Worthless Tramps.

As a result of the criticisms that have been made about the way the "bread line" was being conducted, the officers of the Bethel have come to the conclusion that a new plan must be inaugurated, and accordingly, tomorrow those unemployed persons who have been fed once a day at the Bethel must work before they eat.

The Bethel officers have made arrangements with the proprietor of a wood yard to give the bread line men exercise with the buck and saw. The Bethel will give the men a ticket for breakfast after they have accomplished a reasonable amount of work at the yard, and the fuel merchant will receive his labor for nothing.

The Bethel officers are anxious to make arrangements with other business men to secure work for the bread liners.

"We feel that this new plan that is to be inaugurated tomorrow will correct the faults that have been noticeable in the conducting of the free breakfast," said W. D. Edson, an officer of the Bethel society, today.

"Many people have a wrong impression of the 'bread line.' All the men there are not loafers, attracted to the city by the news of the free breakfasts. Many of them are honest men, anxious to get work.

"Some people have criticized the Bethel all along for keeping up the free breakfasts and think it is a piece of foolish extravagance, but that is not so. It costs less than 5 cents per man to feed the bread liners."

Mr. Edson spoke to the men in the line this morning. He told of the charges made in certain quarters that the bread line was harboring a lot of loafers. Then he asked them how many present would take work if they could get it, and every hand in the room went up.

Sending Out Letters.

Letters are being sent out by the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium committee calling attention to the gymnastic exhibition which is to be held under the auspices of the association in the Lyceum theater Tuesday evening, April 14. Through the entertainment it is hoped to make $700 to build a running track in the new Y. M. C. A. building. A number of prominent Duluthians are planning to entertain at theater parties that night.

Rumor of Merger.

In Montreal it is rumored that the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic road and the Soo line are to be merged with the Canadian Pacific system and operated under the Canadian Pacific's name. The Star of that city prints the rumor. The Canadian Pacic has always been heavily interested in both lines. Stories of proposed mergers have been heard before from time to time.

Dredge Rebuilt.

The Northern Dredge & Dock company's dredge Duluth, which has been rebuilt at Grignon's shipyard, will be ready for launching next week.

Ex-Mayor Cullom Will Speak.

Ex-Mayor M. B. Cullum will lecture on "Protection or Free Trade" at the meeting of the Question club next Sunday afternoon at the library.

Brooks Dismissed.

Samuel Brooks, arrested on the charge of petty larceny, was dismissed in municipal court this afternoon.

Farmers Interested.

A. B. Hostetter, who has been doing considerable work here in connection with the Commercial club's campaign for settlers in St. Louis county, will deliver addresses this week to the farmers in the neighborhood of Biwabik, and will probably organize a farmers' club there. One was formed at Embarrass after a meeting which Mr. Hostetter and L. B. Arnold, land commissioner of the Duluth & Iron Range road addressed Saturday. They say the farmers are taking a keen interest in the plan to have a big St. Louis county exhibit at the state fair.

Grand Council Meeting.

Modern Samaritans are making preparations for the third annual meeting of the grand council of the order, which will be held in Duluth June 2. The gathering will be more elaborate than sessions of the grand lodge in the past, as it has been decided to increase the number of representatives from each council from three to six. This move is subject to the approval of the imperial council.

Hearing on Sewer.

The board of public works will, tomorrow, have the first hearing on the advance assessment for the trunk outlet sewer at Fifty-eighth avenue west. The cost is not great, but almost 1,000 lots are affected by the improvement. The council ordered the sewer constructed, without petition, and it is expected there will be some protests against going on with the work this year.

Todd Is Arraigned.

Walter Todd was arraigned in the municipal court this morning on a charge of forgery. He pleaded not guilty and his examination was set for Saturday, April 11 at 10 a. m. Todd is charged with attempting to pass a check for $6 on Max Soshovsky, a Superior street clothing merchant. The check is drawn on the Cottonwood County bank, and is believed to be bogus.

Assault Is Charged.

William J. Pierce pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault in municipal court this morning and his trial was set for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. He is charged with striking F. G. Falkbrenner while they were in a saloon together on Fourth street last Monday.

Temple Services.

Regular Sabbath services will be held at Temple Emanuel Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The subject of the sermon by Rabbi Lefkowits will be "Balaam's Vision."

Warren Man Will Preach.

Canadian Storm Signals.

The Canadian government has notified the local hydrographic office of the following storm signals to be maintained on the Great Lakes during the coming season of navigation: At Sault Ste. Marie, signal mast on the government wharf, with electric light; at Port Arthur, signal on the inner end of the government wharf, with electric light; at Fort William, signal mast on the northern bank of the river near its mouth.

Chimney Starts Fire.

An overheated chimney started a blaze between the floors of a two-story dwelling house at 215 East Third street about 7 o'clock this morning, and the fire department was called. The flames were extinguished with only about $100 damage. The house is owned by Mrs. George Huse and occupied by A. A. Douglas.

COPPER STOCKS HAVE A RALLY

Market Becomes a Little Stronger at the Close.

The copper stock market had a better tone at the close today. During the early part of the session there was an easier feeling in some of the leading issues, but toward the close the entire list strengthened.

North Butte opened at $53.25 bid and $54 asked, declined to $53.50, rallied to $54 and closed at $54 bid and $54.25 asked. Amalgamated opened at $58.87½, declined to $58.62½, rallied to $59.75, and closed at $58.87½ bid.

Greene-Cananea opened at $9, declined to $8.75 and closed at $8.75 bid and $9 asked. Butte Coalition opened at $21, declined to $20.87½ and closed at $20.25½ bid and $21 asked. Calumet & Arizona opened at $100 and closed at $100 bid and $101 asked. Anaconda opened at $38, declined to $37.50, rallied to $38.50 and closed at $38.50 bid.

Superior & Pittsburg sold at $12.50 and closed at $12.50 bid and $12.62½ asked; Dem-Arizona at $3.37½ and closed at $3.25 bid and $3.37½ asked; Globe at $8.75, declined to $8 and closed at $8 bid; Calumet & Sonora at $6.50 and closed at $6.37½ bid and $6.50 asked.

Butte & Superior closed at $1.12½ asked and Copper Queen of Idaho at $1.12½ bid and $1.25 asked.

Black Mountain sold at $4 and closed at $3.87½ bid and $4 asked.

SUPERIOR NEWS

Coal Docks Reduce Wages.

A cut in wages from $2.50 to $2.25 per day became effective on the Superior coal docks yesterday. The wages are now the same as they were two years ago, before the Coal Dockworkers' union was organized. The men were at work yesterday and there was no indication that they will quit work because of the reduced wages. It is said that the men anticipated a cut of 50 cents instead of 25 cents.

Claim Boys Had a "Plant."

Harry Thompson and Carl Carlson, two boys who were released from arrest for stealing seventy-five pounds of brass from the Great Northern road, about a week ago, were arrested a second time yesterday on a warrant served by Detective Bushey of the railroad company. It is claimed that the railroad people have found a "plant" of about 150 pounds of brass, which they claim belongs to the company.

Mrs. Kane Relented.

Mrs. Dan Kane, who had her husband arrested on the charge of threatening her life, relented after thinking the matter over, and finally refused to go on with the prosecution. Kane, who had been locked up at the police station over night, was brought into court, where he had a conversation with his wife, signed a bond to keep the peace, and the couple left the court room together.

Case is Settled.

The personal injury case of Matt Silvo against Smith Brothers & Hill was today settled in Superior. Silva fell from a scaffolding on the coal docks, last spring, and sued Smith Brothers & Hill for whom he was working for $20,000 damages. The jury awarded him $1,200. H. T. Abbott of Duluth was the attorney for Smith Brothers & Hill.

RANCHMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Paxton, Neb., April 2.—A prairie fire has been raging in the sand hills for two days. James Kane is known to have been burned to death, many houses were destroyed, hundreds of head of livestock were lost and thousands of acres of the prairie burned over.

MAY BUILD A NEW DAM

Power Company Makes Survey at the Cloquet River Dam.

Concrete Structure 45 Feet High Said to be Contemplated.

The Great Northern Power company has had a surveying party working nearly all winter in the vicinity of Cloquet dam, on the Cloquet river, in section 15, 52-14, and it is understood that plans have been made for the construction of a forty-five foot concrete dam across the river, replacing the old structure, which is only fifteen feet high.

The new dam, it is said, will cross the river between the points of the two hills now joined by the old wooden dam built many years ago by the lumber companies operating on the river.

The concrete dam will, it is said, cause an overflow of Boulder lake and other smaller lakes along the river above the site of the dam. The increased height of the dam will give the power company an immense reservoir comprising the upper part of the river, with its lakes and that there will be a great many acres of low lands along the river that will be submerged. It is believed that the dam will raise the water for a foot to a foot and one-half over the Rice Lake road, where it crosses the river.

The Cloquet river dam is quite a popular fishing and hunting resort for Duluth people. The present dam was constructed many years ago and the site is still occupied by the several big logging camps erected by the lumber companies to house the crews that formerly worked along the river. The logging companies have always maintained a caretaker at the dam to look after their property and to raise and lower the gates as the occasion demanded, while logs were being floated down the river.

The increased depth of water that will be given the river with a forty-five foot dam will permit of a tug in the stream above the dam.

SLOW PROGRESS IN RECOVERY

Cleveland, April 2.—The Iron Trade Review says: The first quarter of the year has shown slow progress in recovering from the deep depression of December. Progress during the past month has been confined almost entirely to finished products, for which there is increased demand during the spring. If the increased activity in these lines should not continue during the present month, a considerable increase in the production of other material will be necessary in order to maintain the present percentage of active capacity of iron and steel manufacturing concerns.

In the pig iron market the central west has developed little business and considerable cutting of prices. The Cleveland agreement on delivery prices in central western territory is now observed by so few producers that little is heard of it, and orders are freely taken at $15.50 valley for No. 2, while other furnaces are quoting as low as $15.25, and in one case an Ohio interest sold a fair tonnage for delivery in eastern Pennsylvania at $14.75 furnace. The principal sales are of malleable at Philadelphia, aggregating about 2,000 tons. An inquiry from St. Louis for 5,000 tons of basic, which had been pending about a month resulted in an order for 1,000 tons being taken. We note the sale of 2,000 tons of Ferro-Manganese at $42, the lowest price in three years.

Railroads are showing more disposition than for some time to make repairs and some orders, including 500 cars by the Lehigh & New England, 2,500 tons of axles and 7,000 kegs of bolts by the St. Paul railroad, are reported, but there is still much uncertainty as to the ability to meet obligations and arrange for new expenditures. It is clear, however, that the present supply of equipment fit for service is inadequate and that at a near date considerable expenditures will be necessary.

The contract for building the walls of the lock for the ship canal near Buffalo has been awarded to MacArthur Bros. company of New York city, which has not yet awarded the contract for the 7,000 tons of steel piling required.

Orders for tin plate and wire goods are coming in in satisfactory volume and the business in sheets, especially in blue annealed, is good. There is also a fair demand for tubular goods. The demand for plate is light.

The coke market continues dull. The strike of coal miners, if long continued, may have an important effect on the coke situation.

The scenes of activity usually noticeable along the lakes about April 1 are almost entirely lacking. Although some passenger boats are now running it is not expected that any considerable number of freight vessels will be placed in commission before June 1.

REVIVED

Old-Time Health. Eating Grape-Nuts.

"I had been sick for 10 years with dyspepsia and a lot of complications," wrote an Ark. woman.

"An operation was advised, change of climate was suggested, but no one seemed to know just what was the matter. I was in bed three days in the week and got so thin I weighed only 88 lbs. No food seemed to agree with me.

"I told my husband I was going to try some kind of predigested food to see if I could keep from this feeling of continued hunger.

"Grape-Nuts and cream was the food I got and nothing has seemed to satisfy me like it. I never feel hungry, but have a natural appetite. Have had no nervous spells since I began this food, and have taken no medicine.

"I have gained so much strength that I now do all my housework and feel well and strong. My weight has increased 8 lbs. in 8 weeks and I shall always eat Grape-Nuts as it is far pleasanter than taking medicines." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

Mr. Thos. Stenton, postmaster of Pontypool, Ont., writes: "For the past eight years I suffered from rheumatic pains, and during that time I used many different liniments and remedies for the cure of rheumatism. Last summer I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and got more relief from it than anything I have ever used, and cheerfully recommend this liniment to all sufferers from rheumatic pains." BONAPARTE ATTACKED.

Representative Clark Says He is Unfit to be Attorney General.

Washington, April 2.—Debate on the agricultural appropriation bill in the house yesterday was devoid of the charges and imputations which marked its consideration on Monday and Tuesday. Yesterday's discussion dwelt on a proposition for an increased appropriation for the farmers' bulletins, which, however, was refused, and the subject of inquiries into road building, etc., by the department, the trend of opinion being that such work should be encouraged.

The session was opened with a bitter attack on Attorney General Bonaparte by Mr. Clark of Florida, who denounced him as being no lawyer and unfit to hold his office. The occasion for the utterance was the reporting out of a committee of a resolution by Mr. Clark, calling for a statement of the expense connected with peonage investigations and prosecutions. That the resolution was simply a further and unnecessary attack upon the attorney general by Mr. Clark, was the declaration of Mr. Caulfield of Missouri, who led the opposition. The resolution was tabled.

FARMERS NEED LID.

A. J. McGuire Says Liquor Traffic is Harmful to Rural Communities.

A. J. McGuire, superintendent of the Grand Rapids sub-experiment station, and known as one of the most earnest workers in behalf of the farmer and dairy interests of Northern Minnesota, stated, at the St. Louis hotel, last evening, that the liquor problem enters largely into the success or failure of the farmer.

Mr. McGuire stated that several meetings he had addressed had been seriously disturbed by farmers under the influence of liquor. Moreover, he stated that the saloon was a detriment to every farming community. Saloons lead to demoralization, he stated, and every farming community was rendered just so much less progressive by their presence.

'Liquor blights the farm just as much as it does the home," declared Mr. McGuire.

Mr. McGuire will address a meeting at the Biwabik Commercial club tonight, and next Saturday will attend a meeting of farmers at Meadowlands.

PEOPLE OF MINNESOTA WHO KNOW ABOUT PE-RU-NA.

THE STATE THAT PRODUCES FINE WHEAT AND GOOD CITIZENS.

Mrs. Gongoll, Mayer, Minn.

Mrs. Maria Gongoll, Mayer, Minn., writes the following: "I must inform you that I recovered my health after using your valuable medicine, Peruna. I had suffered with catarrh of the kidneys and bowels, but now I am much better and feel real strong.

"I can only praise your medicine, and extend my hearty thanks to you herewith."

Mr. Koelln, St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. William Koelln, 731 Fuller St., St. Paul, Minn., clerks for Neff & Rosenquist, Druggists, at Seventh and Jackson streets. He is a popular young man and a great admirer of Peruna.

He says that his attention was directed and his belief in its good qualities compelled by the numberless people who spoke so highly of it in dealing at Neff & Rosenquist's drug store.

Until recently he had never felt the need of any patent medicine, but when a neglected cold turned into a severe case of catarrh, all that he had heard about Peruna as a remedy for ills of this nature led him to try a bottle of that remedy.

He says: "My first experience with patent medicine, as a consumor of same, was with Peruna, and it has made me an ardent advocate of its merits. It did the work for me. It did it quickly and did it thoroughly, and any person coming to our drug store, troubled with the same complaint that I had, is not left in the dark very long as to what I believo to be the proper means to secure a speedy cure. I recommend Peruna first, last and all the time.

"I owe my own quick restoration to good health to the use of Peruna, and that justifies the faith that is within me. I cannot say too much in praise of Peruna.'

Miss Barbaras, Hastings, Minn.

Miss Julia Barbaras, Box 212, Hastings, Minn., writes: "I must tell you that Peruna is my best friend, and one that stands by me in all trials and weather, and will cure catarrh in any form and check a cold if taken when the cold first begins. I take it off and on all winter, and am free from colds, although I am out in all kinds fo Minnesota weather. I will never be without it."

Mrs. Fleissner, Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Emma Fleissner, 242 Humbolt avenue, N., Minneapolis, Minn., member of Lutheran church and Worthy Treasurer Sons of Temperance, writes:

"I suffered for over two years with internal troubles. My health was in a very precarious condition, and I was very anxious to find something to restore my health and strength.

"I was very glad to try Peruna and delighted to find that it was doing me good. I continued to use it for a little over three months, and then found my troubles removed.

Mrs. McRoberts, Waverly, Minn.

Mrs. William McRoberts, Waverly, Minn., writes: "I am perfectly well of the catarrh. I took Peruna and Manalin.

"I recommend your medicine to every one and cannot praise it enough. It is a fine medicine to take any season of the year. Taken in the spring, it tones up the system and acts as a gentle stimulant."

Mrs. Hausen, Duluth, Minn.

Mrs. Pauline Winters Hausen, 221 29th Ave., West, Duluth, Minn., writes:

"I want to say a good word for Peruna, as it has cured me of two troublesome diseases.

"I was troubled for five years with eczema on the hands, and a severe internal trouble combined with nervousness. For two years I used remedies without lasting benefit.

"Four bottles of Peruna cured both my troubles entirely, so that no trace of them is left. I feel better than I ever did before, which I owe to Dr. Hartman and Peruna.

"I shall be glad to answer any inquiries that come to me in regard to this letter. Peruna is unsurpassed by any medicine for these troubles. We are heartily glad that we learned about the Peruna. Dr. Hartman has answered every letter that I sent him free, and does for every one who applies to him."

Mr. Steffe, Luverne, Minn.

Mr. J. G. Steffe, Luverne, Minn., writes: "For four years I had been a continual sufferer from that dreadful disease, chronic catarrh. I tried all kinds of so-called catarrh remedies and found no relief.

"I was advised by a friend to write you about my case, which I did, and you kindly advised me to use a course of Peruna and Lacupla, which I commenced at once and was surprised how it relieved me. I am happy to say that I am a well man today.

"I take pleasure in recommending your great remedy to all who are afflicted with catarrh."

Mrs. Wilkowsky, Perham, Minn.

Mrs. Catharina Wilkowsky, Box 566, Perham, Minn., writes: "I must tell you how Peruna cured me.

"It was three years ago last winter that I contracted a severe cold which resulted in kidney trouble. At times I was very weak and had severe pains in my back. I thought I could not live much longer.

"Then one of your almanacs came into my possession and my husband bought a bottle of Peruna for me at once.

"The second day after taking it I noticed an improvement, and before the bottle was entirely empty I felt strong and well.

"On another occasion I had a cold in my throat and Peruna benefited me in the same manner.

"Whenever my nine-year-old child has a cold or a cough, I give him Peruna and it always helps and he is soon cured My husband took Peruna also, and he feels well now."

Mr. Buck, Horton, Minn.

Mr. Delton Buck, Horton, Minn., writes: "I had been troubled for years with chronic catarrh, and had tried several remedies with no relief.

"Finally the disease began to affect my eyesight and hearing, and becoming alarmed, I wrote to Dr. Hartman. He advised the use of Peruna and salt water eye baths, which advice I followed.

"I continued the above treatment several months, until I was entirely cured, and now, after nearly three years, have had no return of the disease. I consider myself permanently cured, and cheerfully recommend Peruna to all those suffering as I did."

Miss Lemm, Kimbal, Minn.

Miss Elizabeth Lemm, Kimbal, Minn., writes: "I can never recommend Peruna high enough for all the good it has done me.

"I have had catarrh of the lungs in the worst way, and went to different doctors, but without success. They all claimed I had consumption, which I really thought myself, for I was all run down and had no appetite whatever. I could not sleep, was always weak and tired, and at times pains in my lungs, especially on the left side. I gave Peruna a trial, and am entirely cured."

PRIMARIES THIS WEEK

Activity in Republican Ranks All Over the State.

Primaries in St. Louis County Will be Held April 9.

The opening primaries for 1908 will be held in several Minnesota counties Saturday, April 4, but in St. Louis county they will not be held until next Thursday, April 9. The Republican county convention in St. Louis county is called for April 14, while in nearly all other counties of the state the convention will be held April 9.

The county convention will be for the purpose of naming delegates to the Republican state convention at Minneapolis on April 16, also to select thirty-nine delegates to the Republican district convention for the Eighth district, which will be held at Pine City on April 15. St. Louis county will have thirty-eight delegates at the state gathering.

Hennepin county will hold its district convention April 9, but all the other district conventions of the state will be held April 15.

The First district meets at Austin, the Second at Mankato, the Third at Shakopee, the Fourth at St. Paul, the Sixth at Elk River, the Seventh at Willmar, the Eighth at Pine City and the Ninth at Crookston. Of the four delegates-at-large to the national Republican convention, it is regarded as a practically certainty that E. B. Hawkins of Duluth will represent the Northern districts, while F. B. Kellogg will act in the same capacity from St. Paul and W. W. Hoffelinger from Minneapolis.

In most districts of the state there are contests for district delegates to the national convention, but the probable selections are thought to be as follows:

First—Senator A. S. Campbell, Austin, and Dr. J. H. Adair, Owatonna.

Second—T. C. Collins, Windom, and either George W. Somerville, Sleepy Eye, or F. W. Betz, Fairmont.

Third—C. M. Buck, Faribault, and George J. Bradley, Norwood.

Fourth—W. B. Webster, St. Paul, and Senator George H. Sullivan, Stillwater.

Sixth—Senator C. J. Gunderson, Alexandria, and either Senator S. F. Alderman, Brainerd, or E. E. Greeno, Staples.

Seventh—Andrew Peterson, Wheaton, and F. E. Bentley, Montevideo.

Eight—Senator C. J. Swanson, Fridley, and J. B. Cotton, Duluth.

Ninth—Al Kaiser, Bagley, and either Senator F. H. Peterson, Moorhead, or E. E. Corliss, Fergus Falls.

The St. Louis county Democratic committee will meet Saturday evening at the St. Louis hotel for the purpose of arranging preliminaries for the county convention to be held at the city hall May 9. The Democratic primaries will be held throughout the city and county May 6.

TRY TO CHECK FAMILY BREACH

New York, April 2.—Evidence was forthcoming last night that efforts were being made to check a family breach occasioned by Mme. Anna Gould's reported determination to accept the hand of the Prince Helie de Sagan.

Last night, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould visited Mme. Gould at the Hotel St. Regis, where she still is in bed, suffering from bronchitis. Other relatives, including Helen M. Gould and George J. Gould evinced their concern by repeated telephone inquiries, which were promptly answered. Mrs. Tyler Morse, at whose apartments the prince and Mme. Gould met in New York, caused the issuance, in the evening, of a formal statement, denying an interview attributed to her yesterday. To this statement Mme. Gould gave her sanction. It is issued through Edwin A. Jones, attorney, as follows:

"Mrs. Morse has read the interview attributed to her that there was a disagreement in the Gould family concerning the Prince de Sagan, and that Mme. Gould came to the Hotel St. Regis because thereof. Mrs. Morse gave no such interview and made no such statement. From her own information, such printed statements are wholly false. Mme. Gould was taken ill while calling on Mrs. Morse, and has since been unable to leave her rooms. Mrs. Morse knows of no existing engagement between Mme. Gould and the Prince de Sagan, and would not be the person to announce it if it were true."

Mr. Jones further stated that he was authorized by Mme. Gould to say that she had had no disagreement with her family, and concurs in this statement made in behalf of Mrs. Morse.

The prince talked frankly of his affairs at the Waldorf Astoria last night.

"I suppose I am to be driven out of this city by all this publicity to my affairs," said he. "For that reason I may alter my plans of leaving on April 9, and depart next Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse."

"It is planned then that Mme. Gould will return on the Provence on April 9?" was asked.

"That is not for me to say," was the reply.

"One thing is certain, however, Mme. Gould and I soon will be back in France, where we can be free. There I can meet her as a friend. Our motives will not be misunderstood. I notice that Mrs. Morse has been quoted as saying that the engagement of Mme. Gould and myself will be announced upon our return to France. That is for time to tell."

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

Girls Who Want Work.

Reading The Herald every night, I have seen many letters about the men out of employment, but not once have I seen anything about the girls who are out of work. I, and many others, had been working steadily for several months when the "money question" came up last fall, on which account we were laid off, and we have not been able to secure positions since, the simple reason being that we are not experienced. Now, if you have learned something and are experienced along that line, it means that if you do not find something along that particular line, you remain out of work for a long time, until you do, and many of us cannot afford it.

It is pretty hard when, morning after morning, you apply to some one in answer to some "ad" you see in the daily papers and all you hear is the same old story, "We want someone experienced." Now, if they don't give you a chance to learn, you cannot become experienced. We are mostly all willing to learn and are not afraid to work if given an opportunity show what we can do. Respectfully yours.

DISCORD IN THE WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Members Fail to Agree on Several Matters.

Discord is said to reign in the ranks of the Women's Label league. This discord has been manifest for some little time past, but it reached a critical stage last night, when two or three warm arguments were indulged in at the regular meeting of the league at Axa hall. One dispute arose over whether the organization should be called the Women's Union Label league or the Ladies' Union Label league. There was quite a discussion on this point, but finally the matter was dropped, and no change will be made in the "Women" part of the title.

An irate member charged Mrs. W. A. Warnecka, president, with trying to have the organization affiliated with the Women's International Union Label league, so that she can get a salary of $300 a year. This was energetically denied, and two factions lined up in a warm debate, one favoring the president and the other opposing her. The neutral ones declared themselves disgusted with the whole affair, and told the other women what they thought of them for their behavior. The matter of affiliating with the international union was put over until the next meeting.

HIS CHILDREN CUT OFF

Because They Did Not Marry Before Age of 30.

St. Louis, Mo., April 2.—William Helwig, a lumber dealer, with an income from Germany, who died in the Soldiers' Home at Danville, Ill., Feb. 15, was married at 19 and favored early marriages. In his will, filed Monday, he cuts off his six children, all women and unmarried, excepting Mrs. Edward Neubert, a saloonkeeper's wife, and bequeaths everything to his fourteen grandchildren, five of which are girls, provided they marry before they are 30 years old. His oldest grandchild is 19, and all are unmarried.

The estate must be kept intact until his first grandchild gets married. The legacy of any one who fails to meet this requirement reverts ti those who marry.

MILLER IS CANDIDATE

Will Run for Congress on the Republican Ticket.

Concludes to Enter Race in Opposition to J. Adam Bede.

The expected announcement of Representative Clarence B. Miller that he would be a candidate on the Republican ticket for congress from the Eighth district, in opposition to J. Adam Bede, was made by Mr. Miller last night. He has had the matter under consideration for some time, and it has been confidently expected all along that he would decide to enter the race.

"I have arrived at this decision after mature reflection and careful consideration," said Mr. Miller. "For several months past I have been strongly and continuously urged to become a candidate, these requests coming from nearly every portion of every county, in the district. In all parts of the district I have been promised good support.

"I shall conduct a clean, vigorous campaign, and expect to win. I do not care to announce any platform at present. The duties of this office are extremely important and this particular district, by reason of its being largely in the development stage, with great possibilities, and with immediate and in some respects difficult problems, demand the best abilities and utmost energies of the incumbent of the office. If elected I shall give my entire time and closest attention to the interests of the district, and it shall be my aim to represent all the people, and not a few of the people."

Mr. Miller is 36 years of age, and was born on a farm in Goodhue county, this state, in 1889. He taught school one year in the same county, and was graduated from the Minnesota academy after a year's attendance. He graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1895, and became superintendent of schools in Rush City, Fillmore county, a position which he held for three years. He studied law in the meantime, and was graduated in 1900 from the law department of the state university, coming to Duluth shortly afterwards. He has practiced law here since then. Two years ago he was elected state representative from the Fifty-first district.

Our American Pride.

Every true American must thrill with pride as he reads of the splendid showing made by our navy when sixteen of its best vessels started on their long cruise recently. Those ships are products of American skill and manned by American sailors and gunners. Every true American should also take great pride in pointing to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as the leading remedy for curing ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is the product of American skill, and for 54 yaers has been proving its ability to cure and prevent poor appetite, dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, kidney ills, costiveness, colds, grippe and malaria. It is also an excellent Spring medicine and blood purifier, and is able to strengthen and build up the entire system. We urge you to try a bottle without delay.

HALE TO BE NEW FEDERAL JUDGE

President Agrees to Appoint Him as Lochren's Successor.

The president tried to bring M. D. Purdy forward as a possibility, but Senator Nelson adhered to his purpose of pressing Hale, and finally the president yielded. On leaving the White House, the senator said: "The president has agreed to appoint Mr. Hale to the federal bench. Just when the appointment will go to the senate I do not know, as this detail was not considered. I have long regarded Mr. Hale as a leader of the Hennepin county bar, and one of the ablest lawyers in the Northwest, and I believe his appointment will be entirely satisfactory to all our people."

William E. Hale is 63 years old. He was born at Wheeling, W. Va., and received a common school education. In 1855 he came to Minnesota on a prospecting tour with his father and a few months later his father moved the family to Wisconsin. In 1859 Mr. Hale settled in Plainview, Minn., and in 1861, at the age of 16, he enlisted in the Third Minnesota Infantry. He served three years and was honorably discharged. On his way home from the south he stopped at Red Wing, Minn., and finally decided to enter Hamline university, which was then at that place. He stayed in Hamline three years and then entered the law office of Judge Wilder at Red Wing. Mr. Hale was admitted to the bar in 1869 and began the practice of his profession in Buffalo, Wright county. He was county attorney of Wright county for two terms. In 1872 Mr. Hale moved to Minneapolis, where he has since resided. He was elected county attorney of Hennepin county in 1878 and served two terms. He has been associated at different times in the practice of the law with Charles M. Pond, Judge Seagrave Smith and Charles B. Peck.

He is now a member of the law firm of Hale & Montgomery. Mr. Hale is married and has three children.

RED HOT LETTER BY ARTHUR HILL

Detroit, Mich., April 2.—Conspirator! Ingrate! Grafter!

These are some of the terms which, in a most remarkable open letter Arthur Hill of Saginaw, applies to Governor Fred M. Warner.

The occasion of the attack is the interview which Governor Warner recently gave out in Washington, commenting on Mr. Hill's testimony before the grand jury in Ingham county, but in his statement, the Saginaw man replies to the several attacks made upon him by the governor, since the opening of the latter's second term, when the senatorial fight was on. He rakes Warner over the coals for having attacked his candidacy for the United States senate and spread false rumors about him to shatter his reputation; intimates that had not the governor pretended to be ill, he would have challenged him to fight a duel; charges him directly with having entered into a conspiracy to secure his own election as a United States senator; says in substance that the grand jury which sat at Mason should have indicted him and deliberately calls him a political grafter.

Through this letter, which is addressed to the governor, Mr. Hill justifies himself with regard to the charges made before the grand jury of Ingham county, by Governor Warner; frankly admitting, however, that he, like many rich Republicans in Michigan, contributed money used by members of the state legislature in procuring their election; and points to the large and palpable motes in the eye of the executive of Michigan.

Governor Warner laughed about it and remarked there was nothing especially new in the letter to demand a reply.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble, as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. All druggists.

UNION CARDS ARE WITHDRAWN

Fight for Open Shop by One Boss Barber.

The withdrawal of the union cards in the McKay, Palladio and Spalding barber shops yesterday afternoon resulted in all the barbers employed in those places, with the exception of the foremen at the Spalding and Palladio, going on a strike. The trouble ostensibly is over the fact that the proprietor of the shops insists upon the men coming to work at 7 o'clock in the morning, and working through until 7 o'clock at night, which the men refuse to do. All three shops are owned by H. E. McCollum.

It is understood that in the other shops of the city no effort will be made to enforce the 7 o'clock rule. Most of the boss barbers declare themselves opposed to the plan, and say it would be unreasonable to ask their men to work twelve hours a day, without a substantial increase in pay.

DENFELD FOR WEST POINT.

Nephew of Superintendent of Schools Appointed by Bede.

Louis E. Denfeld, nephew of the superintendent of schools, has been appointed by Congressman J. Adam Bede to the government military academy at West Point, and he will leave at once for that place. Roger Spencer of this city is understood to have been the first alternate.

Young Denfeld is 16 years of age and has been attending the Duluth public schools. He has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Denfeld.

Poison-laden Blood

As a result spring finds the blood laden with poisons and there are headaches, pains in the limbs and tired, wornout feelings.

The liver and kidneys become sluggish and clogged and quite fail in their mission of filtering and purifying the blood.

It is because of their direct and specific action on these organs that Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills are so wonderfully effective as purifiers of the blood—for it is by means of the liver and kidneys alone that the blood can be purified.

This medicine ensures regular and healthful action of the bowels, cleanses and invigorates the whole digestive and excretory systems and thereby removes the cause of pains and aches, of tired, languid feelings, billiousness, backache and constipation.

Purify the blood this spring by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, and you will not know what it is to feel depressed and to suffer the effects of sluggish, torpid liver, kidneys and bowels, one pill a dose, 25 cts. a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? Sold by all druggists.

GETS "BLACK HAND" LETTER

Unknown Writer Threatens Dire Vengeance on Chief Troyer.

Chief Troyer got a "black hand" letter this morning. The conventional black hand symbol was missing, but the hand that wrote it was evidently badly soiled, and at least approaching black in color.

The letter threatened dire things if the chief disturbed the members of the bread line. The writer threatened to blow the chief and all the officers to that place that is designated by the letter "h" and a dash, if he arrested any of the members of the bread line.

PINCHOT DENIES THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM.

Washington, April 2.—In view of the allegation against him on the floor of the house by Messrs. Mondell of Wyoming, Smith, California, and others, Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry bureau has addressed a letter to Mr. Pollard of Nebraska, a member of the committee on agriculture in defense of himself.

Mr. Pinchott denies that either the forest service or himself ever paid a cent to any newspaper or magazine to advertise the bureau's work, and that he never instigated or procured attacks on public men, and denies the misuse of public funds.

Mr. Pinchot closes his letter by defending his policy of sending forest officials to meetings of forestry bodies, in order to hear complaints, if any, against the service or to give suggestions.

BARELY EXCEEDS CONTRACT.

Rockland, Me., April 2.—Facing adverse conditions yesterday in the way of high winds and heavy seas, the armored cruiser Montana exceeded her contract requirements by a slender margin on the Rockland trial course. Her fastest mile, which was made with the tide in her favor, was at the rate of 22.86 knots per hour, but the average of her five runs at top speed was 22.035.

HIGH WATER CAUSES DEATH OF FIVE PEOPLE.

Huntington, W. Va., April 2.—The continual downpour of rain for three days throughout West Virginia has paralyzed traffic on all railroads and caused the loss of five lives and damage to property exceeding $500,000. Reports along the Elkhorn and Tug rivers are to the effect that hundreds of families are homeless, having been driven from their homes by the high water. Traffic of every nature along the Norfolk & Western railroad has been suspended since yesterday and through service may not be re-established for twenty-four hours. At Keystone three lives were lost and two persons are reported drowned near North Fork.

SWANBY KILLED HIMSELF.

Coroner's Jury Decides Washburn Banker Took Poison.

Washburn, Wis., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—All doubts about the cause of the sudden and unexpected death of Ole P. Swanby, cashier of the Northern State bank of this city several weeks ago, have been cleared by the finding of the coroner's jury that death resulted from poison self-administered. The jury partially looked into the case the day following Mr. Swanby's death and postponed its findings until the stomach of the deceased could be analyzed by the state chemist. The latter reported finding quantities of strychnine and morphine which combined with testimony given by the physicians at the former hearing resulted in the verdict of suicide.

An investigation of the affairs of the bank has developed that Mr. Swanby was short in his accounts but not a sum sufficiently large to impair the reserve of the bank which is considered in good shape. His private affairs were also found in a tangled condition, another circumstance that probably led to the unbalancing of his mind and suicide.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law.

RAILROAD NEWS

BACK FROM SOUTH.

J. J. Fischer Says Climate is Somewhat Different Here.

J. J. Fischer, assistant ticket agent for the Northern Pacific, has returned from a trip South, in company with Mrs. Fischer. They visited New Orleans, Houston, Galveston, Pensacola, Vicksburg and other points of interest.

"The sudden change in climate is enough to shock a person's nervous system," said Mr. Fischer this morning. "From beautiful, summerlike weather, we were transported in thirty-six hours to the disagreeable cold of a winter's day. Of course, everything looks like summer in the South. Fruit and flowers are growing on every hand, and the trees are leaved out.

"Houston, Texas, is one of the liveliest towns we saw. They are all hustle and bustle there. The big sea wall of Galveston is an impressive sight. All the Southern towns have a number of beautiful residences. There are flowers everywhere."

MUST FURNISH BOND.

New Rule for Railroad Passenger and Freight Conductors.

Passenger and freight conductors in the employ of the Northern Pacific have been notified that, beginning yesterday, they must be bonded in an Eastern surety bonding company. The cost of the bonds will be deducted from their salaries in four equal payments.

The bond required of a passenger conductor is $1,000, and of a freight conductor, $500. The auditors are compelled to put up a bond similar to that of the passenger conductors. This bonding system has been in force on the Great Northern system for some time. The Northern Pacific and the Great Northern are exercising unusual care to see that their employes keep no money that does not belong to them, and also to see that all operating rules are lived up to in every particular.

CUTS EXPENSES.

Omaha Road Discharges 100 Men in Hudson Machine Shops.

St. Paul, April 2.—Following the general policy of cutting down expenses, which has been adopted by all the railroads in the country during the past few months, the Omaha road today discharged 100 men who had been working in its machine shops in Hudson, Wis. This reduces the working force there to fifty. Last summer there were between 300 and 400 men employed at the shops, but since the financial stringency last fall the road has been gradually reducing its force. The largest reduction at any one time was, however, made today.

MITCHELL TO EDIT PAPER.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 2.—John Mitchell, retired president of the United Mine Workers of America announced yesterday that in the future he will devote his attention to a labor paper which will establish in Indianapolis. The object of the paper is the securing of financial peace between the miners and operators.

TO TAKE EFFECT IMMEDIATELY.

Albany, N. Y., April 2.—The senate at 10:45 o'clock last night, by a vote of 26 to 32 in committee of the whole, voted to strike from the first of the anti-race track gambling bills the amendment deferring its taking effect on Sept. 1. This restores the bill to the form desired by Governor Hughes and its introducers; that is, it now reads so as to "take effect immediately."

TARGET PRACTICE OVER.

San Francisco, April 2.—A wireless dispatch was received here, early today, from the fleet at Magdalena Bay, as follows: "Record target practice is practically completed. Vermont finished with big guns yesterday. Navajo has arrived with mail. Fleet sails for the North today. Ajax sails for the North tomorrow."

BABY CHICKENS UNDER BAN.

New York, April 2.—Baby chickens as Easter gifts are placed under the ban of the New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The society has announced that it considers the taking of baby chickens from their mothers as cruel and inhuman, and says that it will make an effort to stop the practice. Anyone found selling fledgling chickens will be prosecuted.

LOSES HIS LIFE IN LAURA MINE

Shift Boss Nick Radich Fatally Injured in Cavein.

Hibbing, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Shift Boss Nick Radich of the Laura mine was instantly killed by a cavein in a drift yesterday, which he had entered to learn how work was progressing. Two miners, who were working in the place at the time were also caught under the mass of ore, but were soon rescued before being smothered. They escaped with a few bruises. Mr. Radich was smothered and crushed, the full weight of the propping ground striking him. The dead man was about 32 years and married. Capt. William Weirac of the Laura mine was on hand soon after the accident and took personal supervision of the efforts to rescue the imprisoned men.

SOME OLD PAPERS ARE MADE PUBLIC

Property of Virginia Man and Possess Unique Interest.

Virginia, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. S. Sutherland, proprietor of the Central hotel of this city, is the possessor of some very old private papers, formerly the property of his father, the late John Sutherland of Glasgow, Scotland. Among them is his marriage certificate, his discharge from his majesty's Rossshire militia after five years' service, and several recommends from employers. The paper on which they are written and printed is all in an excellent state of preservation and the writing clear and legible.

The regimental discharge is dated at Castle Fraser, Aberdeen, the 24th day of November, 1806, and is signed by Charles Fraser, colonel of the regiment. It relates that John Sutherland completed his term of five years in Capt. H. S. Clark's company. The son states that his father was on the way to the field of Waterloo, but was recalled, as the great battle had been fought and the war ended, before his regiment reached the scene.

The marriage certificate was dated at Glasgow on Nov. 5, 1832, and states that "John Sutherland, dyer, and Christian Sutherland, both residing in Barony, parish of Glasgow, have been three several Sabbaths lawfully proclaimed in the Barony church, in order to marriage, and no objection is offered, is attested by David MacIlrayne, Sess. clerk. The above parties were married by me, at Glasgow this 10th day of November, 1832. John W. Laurie, minister."

Evidently the elder Sutherland wanted to borrow some money several years before he was married, for he bore the following recommend "to the cashier for the Royal bank, Glasgo:"

"Sir: The bearer, John Sutherland, has been employed here for several years and I consider him an honest and trustworthy person. I am, sir, your mo. obedt. servt., George Rodgers, Barronfield, 17th Novemr, 1828."

The recommends all speak highly of his honesty, industry and ability, but here is one that reveals the spirit of Canny Scot to perfection:

"Springfield Dye Works, 1st July, 1842.

"The bearer, John Sutherland, has wrought in our employment for fourteen months past and was steady and honest so far as known to us.

"FOR WILLIAM MIL——R & SON.
"W. PICKIN."

Another peculiarly worded one that reveals the Scotch character of positiveness is dated Barronfield, Feb. 2, 1841. It reads:

"The bearer hereof, John Sutherland, has wrought under me for about two years. I know him to be a very regular, sober, able and willing workman, so much so that I have offered to engage him, but he declined, his wife not approving of his doing so. I positively did not engage him, but I did make him an offer, which he at that time declined. A. M. Bean."

DULUTH TO GET NEXT MEETING

Hibbing, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The next convention of the Modern Woodmen of America of St. Louis county will be held in Duluth when delegates from all over the county will meet with Duluth Camp No. 2341. This was decided here at the county convention last evening at which the various camps in the county were represented and the following delegates were elected to the state convention in St. Paul next month: Albert Meldahl of West Duluth camp No. 153; George Miller and L. A. Larsen of Duluth camp No. 2341; W. C. Wells of Imperial camp of Duluth; A. J. Abbey of Chisholm and E. Hurley of Virginia.

C. E. Dice of Duluth was elected chairman and M. L. Fraser of Duluth, secretary. Among Duluth woodmen present were: Mayor Haven, County Attorney Norton, Capt. Stevens, Theodore Hollister and A. M. Jensen.

HIS PETITION DENIED BY HIBBING COUNCIL.

Hibbing, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The village council last night denied the petition of W. J. Ryder who desired to erect a frame building within the fire limits of the city, which is against the ordinance. Little else of note was done at the meeting which was short because of the absence of Mayor Weirick, who was called East by the serious illness of his father in Pittsburg.

FALLING TIMBER KILLS HIBBING YOUNG MAN.

Hibbing, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Walter Mitchell, son of Capt. Leo Mitchell of the Pillsbury mine, was instantly killed Wednesday by being struck on the head by a piece of falling timber. He operated the motor on the bottom level of the Pillsbury and had received the signal to start his car, when, without warning, a piece of timber, that in some way had become loosened in the upper part of the shaft, came crashing down, striking young Mitchell in the back of the neck.

Walter Mitchell was only 22, having graduated last June from the Hibbing high school and was one of the most popular and respected young men of the entire community. He was married only last January to Miss LaVictor of this city. Pentecost Mitchell, general manager of the Oliver Mining company, is an uncle of the deceased.

TO WORK FOR CHARTER.

Virginia Commercial Club Has Advisory Committee Named.

Virginia, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Although the attendance was not large, owing to the bad weather, the Commercial club transacted a large amount of business last evening.

The banquet committee made its final report, which wa saccepted, and the bills were ordered paid.

Committees were appointed for the following purposes:

To confer with the council regarding the improvement of the library grounds, and with the Virginia Lumber company regarding a small plat of ground near the new steel bridge desirable for park purposes.

To look up suitable sites for a proposed federal building, secure prices, etc., and report to the club. This action was taken as the result of a letter from Congressman Bede toFormer Secretary Bickford, asking for this information that he might get an appropriation in the omnibus bill for the purchase of a site.

To look up the feasibility of starting a county division campaign and report at the next meeting.

To look up the advisability of a proposed change in the Virginia & International county road leading northward from the city.

The president, who was instructed to appoint an advisory committee of ten, including himself, on home rule charter, announced as such committee Lafayette Bliss, R. C. Pickering, P. R. Vail, Frank E. McGray, A. C. Osborn, R. J. McGhee, Louis M. Osborne, Mitchell Stewart and D. W. Stebbins. This committee will be called toegther shortly to begin the work of circulating a petition to the council and circuit court for the appointment of a charter commission.

The Biwabik Commercial club extended an invitation to the members of the Virginia club to attend the banquet to be held this evening ,and enclosed complimentary tickets to the president and secretary.

NEW MILITIA COMPANY

Of Eveleth Will be Mustered in Thursday Evening.

Eveleth, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Tonight the newly organized militia company will be mustered in by Lieut. Col. F. E. Resche of the Third regiment at Duluth, at the Vail opera house. The necessary papers, with physician's statements, have already been forwarded. After the regular mustering in, the commissioned officers of the company will be elected by ballot.

A number of business men in and around Eveleth are planning to organize a company to explore for iron ore and to work and operate iron mines. The men are well known all over the range, and they already have an option on an 80-acre tract, which is near the Mountain Iron and Iroquois mines, and on which ore has been struck in a few places. Those interested in the company are L. and S. Rothenstein, A. E. Mehmis, D. M. Mouser of Sparta, John Harrington and Charles Oakman of Mount Iron and Solomon Sax of Eveleth.

MR. SIMON'S BABY

Wins Lot Offered for First Child Born in Gilbert.

Eveleth, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The prize for the first baby born in Gilbert has been captured by the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Simon, who was born Monday morning. The prize is a lot that was offered by Mr. Moore, the owner of the townsite. The deed to the lot will be turned over to the parents in a few days.

A Presbyterian church will soon be erected at Gilbert. Rev. Rankin of this city and Rev. Neff of Virginia have been out there looking the ground over for a suitable site. They are receiving estimates for construction, and work will soon be commenced, as a church is needed.

There is considerable activity in building circles in Gilbert, as many local merchants are intending opening up there. Contractor Anderson is very busy out there, but has not enough men for the necessary work. His own building is almost finished, while the Noble building and Martillo's saloon are being completed with all possible haste.

Nick Furjanic, who was formerly in the employ of Charles Gustafson, has leased the building occupied by Sims & Redanja at Sparta, and will start a meat market there. The business will be opened some time next week.

NINETY DAYS IN JAIL

Is Punishment of Thompson for Promiscuous Shooting.

Biwabik, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Thompson has been sentenced to ninety days in the county jail for firing a pistol too promiscuously around an Austrian camp boarding house recently. His case was not determined until his wife, who had been ill, had recovered, then the court took the matter up and imposed a fine of $50. Being unable to pay, Thompson was sent to the county jail.

O'HARA RE-ELECTED

Marshal of Biwabik and Other Officers Are Chosen.

Biwabik, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The new Biwabik village council has held its first meeting and elected the officers for the various appointive jobs.

William O'Hara was re-elected village marshal; Herman Jones, night officer; Kirk S. Johnson, superintendent of the electric light and water plant; Don C. Anderson, village attorney; Dr. C. W. Bray, health officer, and the Biwabik Times was chosen the official paper for the ensuing year.

All of the newly elected village officials were present at the meeting, except Recorder Hopkins, who was in Duluth as a witness in a lawsuit. Frank Lundeen, the retiring member of the council, who is succeeded by Capt. Frank Thomas, expressed his pleasure at being relieved of further duties. T. E. Grae, county humane officer, asked for an appropriation to aid in carrying on the work. Trustee Thomas urged action to get rid of the worthless dogs, while Frank Gross protested against the present location of the houses of ill repute. No definite action was taken on any of these matters. An ordinance requiring plumbers to take out a $1,000 license was passed. The salary of the recorder was placed at $30 per month, while the bonds of the treasurer were fixed at $10,000.

REVISION OF TARIFF.

ment we oppose the contribution to political parties for campaign purposes by corporations of the state or nation, or by officers or persons in the behalf of such corporations, and we hereby commend the Indiana Republican state central committee for its refusal to accept contributions from corporations within or without the state.

Favor Financial Reform.

"We favor such modifications of our financial system as will supply the growing needs of industry and commerce with a sufficient currency to minimize periodic money stringencies, but such currency must always be so safeguarded that there shall be no doubt of its prompt redemption in gold, and we congratulate the country on the fact that the congress of the United States is now engaged in the solution of this great problem. We also favor such regulations respecting banking as will secure and maintain confidence in the integrity of our banking institution.

"We approve the laws enacted for the proper regulation of the railroad corporations and other combinations of capital, and we pledge the party to all additional safeguards necessary to a complete regulation of these combinations in the interest of trade or commerce, and in the interest of the general welfare of the people.

Revision of Tariff.

"The last convention of the Republican party in the state of Indiana declared in favor of revision of the tariff whenever such revision would do more good than harm. Protection was never a matter of schedules, and while reaffirming the time-honored doctrine that there shall always be discrimination in duties that will fully protect the wage-earner in the United States, we have never desired a higher rate than would accomplish that purpose, and always contemplated revision from time to time as the ever-changing condition might make wise. We believe that revision would be now beneficial, and to minimize the harmful disturbance that tariff changes necessarily produce, we insist that revision be speedily done. We therefore favor the calling of an extra session early in November, 1908, to make such revision, and recommend that congress take immediate steps to secure the proper data by experts for intelligent revision, as advocated by our senators and representatives from this state; but we also insist that in such revision the protective principles shall be maintained, and that maximum and minimum rates be imposed, so that our export trade can amply be protected and foreign discrimination against us be prevented.

Favor Limited Ship Subsidy.

"We favor the extension of the United States mail service upon the surrounding seas, in the interest of the public business and the establishment and extension of foreign trade, and especially with South America; but we would limit the appropriation therefor to legitimate service performed in carrying the mails on the ocean in the same manner as for carrying the mails on land.

"We solicit the Indiana delegation in congress to support the pending proposition for the establishment of a bureau of mines and mining in the interest of preservation of human life.

"We favor the settlement of all international differences by arbitration, and also favor arbitration in the settlement of disputes between capital and labor.

"We favor a systematic, progressive and liberal improvement of our canals, rivers and harbors, and an adequate annual appropriation therefor is hereby recommended. We favor the continuance and extension of the reclamation service by which the arid lands of the United States are made productive. We also favor the preservation and conservation and to maintain the timber supply of the country.

"In great sections of the country a system of actual slavery of children exists, revolting to the human mind. Every power of the nation should be exercised to end it everywhere in the Republic. The children of the country are its chief wealth and its hope, and we demand that congress use all its powers to end child labor throughout the entire nation.

Fairbanks Presented.

"The Republicans of Indiana present to the Republicans of the nation and to the Republican national convention Charles Warren Fairbanks as a candidate for president.

"We know him. Distinguished place and high commission have revealed his worth. His character, public service and ability are such as to deserve the thoughtful consideration of the convention.

"He believes in the principles of the party, its present purposes. He has long been identified with its work, and has for years borne a distinguished part in its campaigns. He is wise in council. His judgment is deliberate and sound. He possesses a steadfast purpose, and conservative courage. His heart is kind. His sympathies sincere and wise; his dignity modest, but real; his sense of justice exact, equal and abiding. His private life is pure; his home life ideal; his public life unblemished.

"For these reasons we instruct the delegates at large elected by this convention, and the district delegates heretofore elected, to present his name to the national convention and spare no effort to secure his nomination as the Republican choice for the next presidency."

On state issues the platform indorses Governor Hanly, Chairman Harry S. New of the Republican national committee; United States Senators Beveridge and Hemenway and Chairman Goodrich of the state committee. The liquor plank is a strong demand for local option in addition to present laws with the county as a unit. It also recommends that the next legislature pass a practical primary election law.

One of the most enthusiastic demonstrations of the day greeted the indorsement of Harry S. New, chairman of the Republican national committee, who occupied a seat as a delegate from Marion county.

State Officers Nominated.

Nominations for state officers were then called for. Six candidates had no opposition for a second nomination, being present state officers, and they were nominated by acclamation. They were:

For secretary of state—Fred A. Sims, Frankfort.

For auditor of state—John C. Billhelmer, Washington.

For treasurer of state—Oscar Hadley, Plainfield.

For attorney general—James Bingham, Muncie.

For judge of appellate court—David Myers, Greensburg.

The twenty-six district national delegates selected Feb. 4 at district meetings were elected and United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge and James F. Hemenway, Governor Hanly and Chairman James P. Goodrich of the state committee were elected national delegates at large.

Electors at large—W. T. Durbin, Anderson and Fred Gardner, Indianapolis.

Contingent electors—Frank G. Jones, South Bend, and John Dyer, Hammond.

The names of James E. Watson of Rushville, Charles W. Miller of Goshen, William L. Taylor of Indianapolis and Hugh T. Miller of Columbus were presented to the convention for the nomination for governor. The name of W. L. Taylor was presented by Harry S. New, chairman of the national committee.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Ten men were more or less seriously injured by the explosion of an ammonia gas tank at the plant of the Cudahy Packing company at Omaha, Wednesday afternoon. Only one man, Peter Wolf, was fatally hurt however, and eight were taken to a hospital.

George H. Dubois, a well known miner, who discovered the lost buillon mine near Silver City, N. M., was shot and instantly killed Wednesday at Ballard, a milling camp near Boulder, Colo., by John Bird, a hotel keeper. The men had been quarreling.

The passenger season on Lake Erie for 1908 was formally opened Wednesday when the Detroit and Cleveland steamer "City of Detroit" arrived at Cleveland.

THREE DIE IN NEW YORK FIRE

yet succeeded in getting out of the building. This was the situation when the firemen arrived and began to run up ladders to take the panic-stricken fugitives from their perilous position. In some instances, the combined efforts of half a dozen firemen was required to drag a woman or child from the tightly packed platforms.

Many Jump From Windows.

While firemen on ladders and others on the ground were calling out to them that there was no danger, and that help soon would reach them, they began, one by one, to jump from the windows. David Miller sprang from a fourth-story window and sustained injuries which probably will cause his death. Rosie Gallmann, Fannie Berzon and Byman Mettlemann, who jumped from windows on the second and third floors, have broken limbs and were taken to hospitals.

Weinstein and his wife and baby were found lying dead in their rooms on the top floor of the burning building after the flames had been extinguished. Apparently they had been overcome by smoke while trying to reach the blazing stairway. The building was damaged to the extent of about $2,000.

control they should have it. On the contrary, if they do not want it, they should not be prevented from controlling intra-state commerce through the governments of the states.

"We want efficient and reasonable control, either by one sovereignty or the other. As the matter now stands, neither congress nor the state legislatures can control commerce within a state. This condition calls for immediate and careful attention. Instead of letting matters drift into a state of confusion worse confounded, let us take some action looking to a solution of the problem. These problems will not solve themselves. The people must prescribe the form of government they want. All officers, courts included, are the servants of the people, commissioned to execute the will of the people. They have no other power.

"If the states should be prevented from exercising their powers, it would result in anarchy, because the federal government has absolutely no jurisdiction over most of the questions affecting the life, liberty and property of the citizen. This is not a question of partisan politics, but one of constitutional law."

REVISION AFTER ELECTION.

The interesting suggestion comes from a trilogy of Indiana statesmen that tariff revision be taken up at a special session immediately after the November election, and before the regular session in December, instead of in March, immediately after the regular session.

This would mean that the work would be done by the present congress instead of by the next one.

The plan is ingenious, and it is backed by ingenious reasoning. The next house may be Democratic, but the senate is certain to be Republican. With a struggle in progress between a Republican senate and a Democratic house, tariff revision might, assert Vice President Fairbanks and Senators Hemenway and Beveridge, become a prolonged and disturbing and probably fruitless tug of war.

If it is done by the present congress, which is Republican in both branches, the theory is that it will be done more smoothly and more effectively, without disturbing business.

Now in the first place, the people want revision as soon as they can get it. The quicker the better; therefore the proposal to advance action five months sounds good. They care more about getting it than about who gives it; therefore the Republican party may provide it if it will.

Yet there are two looming doubts: First, is it possible for the Republican party, with its entangling alliances of long standing, to produce a real tariff revision? Second, if the Republican party can do this, would it be allowed to do it under the present organization of the house, with Standpatter Cannon in complete control and with the most obstinate champions of unlimited "protection" as his chief satraps?

What sort of tariff revision is likely from a ways and means committee with Payne of New York and Dalzell of Pennsylvania in control? What sort of action can be expected upon a fair-tariff bill when a rules committee owned by Cannon and Dalzell controls the legislative machinery?

On the other hand, may not justice be more nearly served by a compromise between a too radical Democratic house and a too conservative Republican senate? With the house to pull ahead and the senate to dig in its heels and hold back, there are two assuring factors: there will be a positive forward movement, and there will be no peril of dangerously radical action.

However, The Herald is not going to argue for postponing tariff revision. It hopes the Indiana plan will be adopted. It will hope for the best results if it is adopted. It will hope to see Cannon, Payne and Dalzell working for a just tariff measure, though in all its experience it has never yet seen a leopard change its spots.

Besides, if the tariff revision that results from the Indiana plan is not what the people want, the next congress will have a chance to make it right.

But the real danger with the Indiana plan is precisely the real danger in the Aldrich currency measure: it will substitute a palliative and inadequate reform for the real reform that is needed and that the people demand.

EXPIRING SENATORIAL TERMS.

The legislatures of about thirty states will have an opportunity, at their sessions next winter, to vote upon United States senators. One-third of the senate changes every two years, and March 4, 1909, the terms of the following senators will expire: Allison of Iowa, Ankeny of Washington, Brandegee of Connecticut, Clarke of Arkansas, Clay of Georgia, Dillingham of Vermont, Stewart of Vermont, Foraker of Ohio, Fulton of Oregon, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Gore of Oklahoma, Hansborough of North Dakota, Hemenway of Indiana, Heyburn of Idaho, Hopkins of Illinois, Johnston of Alabama, Kittredge of South Dakota, McEnery of Louisiana, Long of Kansas, Newlands of Nevada, Overman of North Carolina, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Perkins of California, Platt of New York, Smoot of Utah, Stephenson of Wisconsin, Stone of Missouri, Teller of Colorado.

Some of the legislatures that will pass on these senatorships have a chance to deserve well of their country by making a change. For instance, the country would profit by the retirement of such senators as Foraker of Ohio, Hopkins of Illinois, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Platt of New York and Stone of Missouri.

In other states the legislatures might do worse than to keep what they have. For instance, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Newlands of Nevada, Stephenson of Wisconsin, Gore of Oklahoma and Johnston of Alabama could be retained without harm. Other cases may group themselves into either of the two above classifications, or into a third composed of senatorial nonentities who could be changed to advantage or kept without serious disadvantage.

A number of these senators are upon the anxious seat. Allison of Iowa has been endorsed by a state convention of his party, but Governor Cummins seems inclined to insist upon challenging his seat. Kittredge of South Dakota has been defeated in the primaries by Governor Coe I. Crawford, who will probably replace him; and this will be an excellent change, for Crawford is progressive and Kittredge is not. Hansborough of North Dakota is also threatened with trouble which is keeping him pretty closely in touch with home conditions. Long of Kansas is opposed by Joseph L. Bristow, lately a stern investigating assistant postmaster general. Teller is probably out of it, because he left the Republican party more than a dozen years ago, and he has not affiliated with the Democrats. Smoot of Utah will have a fight, and Fulton of Oregon has one that bodes him no good. Platt of New York has the brass to wish another term, but there is small likelihood of his success. Foraker of Ohio is supposed to be out of it because of Taft's victory, but he has risen from the political grave before.

Only nine of these senators are Democrats, and the prospects of Democratic gains are not rosy. It will be practically impossible for the Democrats to gain the senate as a result of the November elections. However, it is clear that there is a chance to improve the senate average very materially, and it is certainly to be hoped that next winter's legislatures will take advantage of it.

THE UNEMPLOYED.

The men who have been thrown out of work by the depression following the panic deserve better treatment than they are getting.

In New York, when they wish to impress conditions upon society's mind by a public gathering to demand that they be cared for, they are ridden down and clubbed out of the parks by the police. When a great-hearted, public-spirited humanitarian like Robert Hunter dares to protest against this treatment, a martinet police commissioner named Bingham brusquely says that Mr. Hunter had better look out or he will be "run in."

In Duluth, because it has become evident that the scanty charity of one slender meal a day and a lodging upon a bare floor is being abused by a few dishonest loafers, there are criticisms of the charity that enables men to keep body and soul together while waiting for a chance to earn an honest day's pay.

It should be remembered that in a great, rich country like this every man who wants to work has a right to employment; not fitfully and at intervals, but all the time. Society needs their labor, and they have a right that it should be used and well paid for. Society is managing very badly indeed when periods of "labor famine," when there is more work than there are men, are so quickly succeeded by periods of labor starvation, when husky, productive laborers are forced to exist on charity.

There are prospects for better things in the Northwest soon. There is much work to be done upon the railroads, and now is the time when the railroads can do it to the best advantage. It will be done much more cheaply this spring than it was last spring, because there is plenty of labor, and men will stick more closely to business than they do when jobs are too plentiful.

The farms will soon begin to absorb some of the surplus labor. It is true that the farms do not provide a great amount of employment until harvest time, but they furnish some, and the call for men from the grain fields will soon begin.

There should be, this year, an immense amount of work for common labor. The railroads have enormous improvements that are vitally needed. They are delaying these because they say they cannot borrow the money needed to finance them. This is partly due to the fact that railroad managers have howled calamity until they have made many investors take their complaints at face value; it is more largely due to the fact that recent disclosures have made investors skittish about railroad securities.

There is plenty of money in the country. There is now very little of it in hiding, most of that hoarded during the panic of last fall having been returned to the banks. Just as soon as railroad magnates realize that their railroad properties are of more importance than their Wall street games, this money will flow freely through the channels of business, and there will be plenty for all needed improvements, and that means ample employment for labor.

A BUSY DEPARTMENT.

The Minnesota state board of immigration has just issued another book designed to forward the campaign for the settlement of the vacant lands of the state. It is compiled by George Welsh, the commissioner of immigration, and is intended to provide full information for the homeseeker that will guide him in selecting a location in Minnesota suitable to his desires.

The book is entitled "Minnesota's Fiftieth Anniversary," this being the fiftieth anniversary of Minnesota's admission to statehood. It is a complete, accurate and convenient volume of nearly 200 pages, covering every part of the state in an attractive and thorough manner.

After a general introduction, with special articles covering Northern Minnesota, each county is treated separately, with a brief but complete abstract of descriptive and statistical material from the best sources. The author of the book aimed to give a fair and impartial description of each county, and this end seems to have been attained.

Speaking of Northeastern Minnesota the introduction says that its land, "being located in the northern climate with an abundance of rainfall, is capable of being brought to a high productive value, particularly in the production of root crops and grasses." Land in this district may be had from $5 per acre upward, and Commissioner Welsh states that it "is undeniably the cheapest land in America, considering its productive value." Continuing, he says: "This region is destined to lead all others in stock raising and dairy products because of its grasses. Timothy and clover grow wild in such abundance that it is claimed by experts that one acre of grass in Northern Minnesota will pasture from one and a half to two head during the season." It may be easily seen that this section has a great future when it is remembered that it takes two acres of land to pasture a single head of cattle in the old prairie sections where land values range from $100 to $200 per acre.

"The reader cannot do better than take a trip into Northern Minnesota and investigate for himself," says Mr. Welsh, "for there will be found the greatest possibilities known to the world. If the reader has travelled through Southern Michigan and Northern Indiana when that district was in its virgin state, he will have seen a duplicate of what Northern Minnesota is today, and by comparison form a perfect conception of what it is destined to become."

For years The Herald advocated the creation of a state board of immigration, and it is a pleasure to find, now that one has been established by the legislature, that it is making good. As it was in the nature of an experiment, the financial provisions with which it started in are not large, but beyond any question, in view of the excellent work already accomplished, and the tangible results that are apparent, the next legislature will deal more generously with this valuable and necessary adjunct of the state government.

The tariff is a tax upon all for the benefit of a few.

Because there are a few frauds in the bread line is a mighty poor reason for charging that every man without a job is necessarily a crook and a loafer.

A man in Illinois the other day drew $5,000 out of a bank and hid it. Thieves found it. Don't wish anybody any hard luck, but that man got just what was coming to him.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

Baltimore is boosting for a population of 700,000. The citizens of the oyster town have suddenly become imbued with the importance of their city and are firmly convinced that within a few passing years Baltimore will have passed, in the matter of population, some of its sisters, which today have the advantage of the Maryland city.

Dudley Webster, who hails from the city in question, is at the Lenox, and says each patriotic citizen has made himself into a committee of one for the purpose of boosting for the greater population. The fire, from which Baltimore recovered with such splendid energy and courage, has shown other cities the resources of the city is capable of displaying. It takes any city a very long time to recover from such a catastrophe as prostrated the commercial institutions of Baltimore, but Mr. Webster says that the city has not only fully recovered from the effects of the fire, but has already surpassed the old city in every way.

Finer buildings have been erected, he says, and in every way the beauty and practical advantages of the city have been improved. Now the citizens of Baltimore are boosting with an increased population to go fittingly with the greater and grander Baltimore. Every man that leaves the city to commune with other spirits, goes forth as a traveling delegate advocating the attractions of the city. People are shown the attractions of the town and advised to take up their personal belongings and hike Baltimorewards. In every way the citizens of the Maryland city are exerting every energy to increase the number of citizens.

Some one got the wrong hunch on a name at the Lenox yesterday. It is said that George Elliott's name was continually getting that famous author in strange situations. Miss D. Tim Watson, who plays the part of the maid in Miss Viola Allen's company, has probably encountered a confusing of the gender ere this.

Yesterday some one at the hotel, seeing the name on the register, believed he recognized an old acquaintance. Without inquiring at the desk, he immediately started up to renew acquaintance with his supposed friend. "Hello Tim," he bawled through the door; "how are ye, anyway."

Imagine the surprise of the matter-of-fact one, when the door was thrown open and a dainty little woman stepped forth. Like the worthy who had been reading George Elliott's works religiously, because he was of the opinion that George Elliott was a member of his state's legislature, he was quite taken back at the denouement.

It is said that Emil Tessman fell a victim to some April foolery, which was staged at the Lenox yesterday. Further particulars may be obtained from the lady at the cigar counter.

Guests of the Spalding hotel had some trouble in getting their faces manicured yesterday. One man did duty at the hotel barber shop. He was the foreman and part owner. The clerks were kept busy in directing the patrons of the hotel to the barber shops. At the McKay hotel several prospective "nests" were sitting awaiting their turn, with collars and coats peeled, when some worthy entered and informed the busy barbers that the union card had been taken from the shop. The barbers were so eager to quit work that they almost refused to finish the near-shaved customers. The ones who were not under operation at the time the notice of the removal of the card was given, were obliged to readjust collars and put on their coats and go forth in the April unmirthful cold in search of another shop where the barbers were not forced to quit.

It is the consensus of opinion among mining men, who have been at the St. Louis for the past two weeks, that very little ore will be taken from the mines at an early period this spring. Especially is this true, they say of the independent mines. There is little demand for ore at the present time, and until trade shows a more eager desire for iron and steel, there will be no heavy working at the mines.

THE WEATHER.

The calendar said it was the second of April this morning, but the weather said with equal positiveness that it must be the thirteenth of January. A shrill, biting northwest wind accented the chilliness, but at that it was unseasonably cold, the thermometer getting down to 10 degs. last night against yesterday's highest of 28 degs. The weather man promises better things. He says it will be fair tonight and partly cloudy tomorrow, and that it will be milder. The wind will be westerly to southerly, which promises better conditions than the alternation of northeast to northwest winds that have prevailed for the past few days.

A year ago today it was clear, bright and cool.

The sun rose this morning at 5:45 and sets tonight at 6:38, making 12 hours and 53 minutes of sunlight.

Says Mr. Richardson of conditions: "Rain or snow fell throughout the lake region, North Atlantic states, the Ohio and Mississippi valleys during the past twenty-four hours attending a barometric disturbance, which had moved its center from Missouri to Vermont in the meantime. Much colder weather prevails in the southwestern lake region, the Ohio, Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys and Southern Saskatchewan as a result of rising pressures, the center of the high barometer being over Wyoming. Zero temperatures occurred this morning in North Dakota and Saskatchewan. Temperatures are rising in the extreme northwest due to falling pressures in Alberta. Generally fair weather and rising temperatures are indicated for this locality tonight and Friday."

Following were last night's lowest temperatures:

Philadelphia Press: "Ah!" he cried, "now that we're engaged, let me press you to my heart in—"

"Don't lose yourself," said the frivolous girl, pushing him away, "this is no pressing engagement."

Philadelphia Ledger: "Why do you wear that ridiculous hat?" he growled.

"Do you really think it ridiculous?" she replied graciously. "How lovely of you. I was afraid it wasn't quite the style."

Cleveland Plain Dealer: "May I ask your business, sir?"

"I'm a bridge builder."

"Railroad or dental?"

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Taken From the Columns of The Herald of This Date, 1888.

In congress today the Mills tariff bill was reported by the committee. McKinley of Ohio submitted a minority report. The discussion of the bill will start two weeks from tomorrow.

The name of A. J. Whiteman has been suggested as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the Democratic national convention at St. Louis. Mr. Whiteman is a young man of unusual ability and strict integrity, and the splendid majority he received when elected to the state senate proves his popularity—or that he has unusual powers of organization.

W. F. Parsons to M. S. Colson, lot 11, block 91, Endion, $1,600.

F. E. Kennedy to G. H. Partridge, undivided half interest in Triggs & Kennedy's division, $20,000.

W. E. Lucas to H. H. Grace, lot 139, block 5, Third division, $7,000.

Maj. C. M. Wilson, an old time Duluthian, who was very prominent as Charlie Gilman's campaign manager two years ago, is now secretary of the chamber of commerce at Sault Ste. Marie.

Frank Bement has purchased the interest of John Frazer in the Frazer-Bement Coffee company's business and will hereafter conduct it alone.

Isaac Winterfield, formerly of this city, now representing the wholesale liquor establishment of D. Sacks & Sons, Louisville, Ky., is in the city.

Yesterday was indeed an All Fool's day. In stead of a bright, warm day, such as everyone was led to expect, there was a very disagreeable blizzard on at the break of day, and not until evening was the weather endurable.

Ticket Agent Robinson turned over last night to his former assistant, Achilles Nelson, the ticket business of the St. Paul & Duluth road.

Frank Bentonh as returned to Duluth and is again with the North American Telegraph company.

Fred Tredwell, a fireman on the St. Paul & Duluth road, was thrown to the ground while trying to board the moving Dakota train last night. His head struck a rail and his skull was fractured, and it is feared his injuries are fatal.

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

Glenwood Herald: It appears that the sober, sensible and thinking Democrats of the country are turning their backs to W. J. Bryan and his aspirations to again become the burnt-offering at the Democratic quadrennial sacrifice. It is evident that these Democrats feel more interested in the probable success of their party than they do in catering to the whims of their whilom and twice defeated leader.

St. Hilaire Spectator: Congressman J. Adam Bede of Duluth says that the present congress is a very industrious one. J. Adam is a noted humorist.

International Falls Echo: Congressman Bede will doubtless find that he will have to take a vacation in the story-telling business next fall, if he wants to serve another term as the Eighth district's jester in the house. The indications are that Hon. Clarence B. Miller, the able lawyer and gifted orator of Duluth, will be a rival candidate, and his record in the last session of the legislature indicates that he is possessed of a goodly stock of both common sense and political acumen.

Little Falls Herald: There is talk of sending Editor Hamilton of Aitkin to the legislature. That would be the most sensible thing ever done by the Republicans of that district.

Brickenridge Gazette: We have arrived at the conclusion that the men who stick to party through good and evil repute and never try to reform it by making it let go of the pap when it gets too bad, are divided into two classes, fools and knaves. And if all this be treason—get the ax.

Montevideo Leader: The man who owns property in the cities is reminded of that fact very frequently. What with taxes and assessments for sewers, sidewalks, parks and boulevards, he has to go some if he keeps up with the procession, and if he is a non-resident, they sock it to him all the harder. Better own a farm that brings in something, than a dozen or a score of vacant lots in the best city on earth.

Kelliher Journal: Up in this neck of the woods neither the candidacy of Jacobson nor Young for the Republican nomination for governor seems to have created any great amount of enthusiasm.

Eveleth Star: The blacklist and the boycott must both go, says President Roosevelt, but the right of labor to strike must be maintained. Here is a wisdom almost supernatural and a daring that few would venture.

Carlton Vidette: A. L. Hamilton of the Aitkin Republican is being favorably mentioned as a possible candidate for the legislative candidate. "Representative" Hamilton. Sound all right. Here's one vote for the Republican editor.

Cass Lake Times: The colored vote, heretofore the property of the Republican party, has become an uncertain quantity—the quality remaining unchanged.

St. Cloud Journal-Press: The decision of the supreme court in the Minnesota rate case may result in arriving at a solution of the problem of railroad regulation. There is certainly a deal of misfit patchwork in the attempts of the several states to fix rates. There is no sense in a two-cent rate in Minnesota, two and a half in Wisconsin and three in New York and Pennsylvania. National regulation would wipe out the discrepancies—but up to date there has been mighty little rate regulation by the national authorities.

Governor Johnson's Candidacy.

Boston Globe (Dem.): Governor Johnson of Minnesota, expresses very frankly and ingeniously his attitude toward the Democratic nomination this year for the presidency. He has done nothing and will do nothing in the way of organization to obtain the nomination, but he will accept it, if it comes to him, with a full sense of the great honor. Even if his own state should be the only one to declare for his nomination, that would be a distinction in his opinion of the very highest character.

This very simple, honest expression will not decrease the number of Governor Johnson's admirers. Governor Johnson is even more direct and open, however, as when he says he wishes it understood that in no sense is he to be a candidate for the purpose of defeating Mr. Bryan or any other man, and adds that he would certainly support the choice of the Democratic convention, if it should fall upon any other than himself, significantly concluding with the statement that he should expect like support in case of his own nomination.

Mayor Haven for Miller.

Minneapolis Journal: Clarence B. Miller of Duluth is expected to announce his candidacy for congress in a few days. Mr. Miller, who made such an enviable record as a worker and floor orator in the last house, has been looking over the situation and has covered it in nearly every county in the district. There has always been a large element of opposition to Bede in the district, and it has brought Miller into the race with all sorts of assurances. He also has considerable personal strength. He is popular in Duluth and St. Louis county, and has many friends over the district in former University of Minnesota students. Mr. Miller was graduated from the university fourteen years ago.

The organization in Duluth and St. Louis county is going to be for Miller practically solid, it is claimed. Mayor R. D. Haven managed Bede's campaign two years ago, but will be for Miller this year.

LYCEUM — Mack-Leone players in "Thelma."

METROPOLITAN—Burlesque.

Green Room Gossip.

The Mack-Leone players will open an engagement of three nights and a matinee in "Thelma," this evening. The play is a dramatization of Marie Corelli's famous novel, and the productions will be one of the most pretentious attempted by the company since it opened its engagement in Duluth.

Among the good attractions coming to the Lyceum are: "Comin' Through the Rye," Blanche Walsh, "Buster Brown," and Paul Gilmore.

Imitations of George M. Cohan, Fay Templeton, Anna Held, Eddie Foy, Harry Lauder, the Cherry Sisters, the "Merry Widow," and many others are to be a part of the program the chorus girls of the Bohemians' company will give in addition to the regular performance this evening. It is to be a "chorus girls' contest," and the girl winning the most applause will get the prize. The contest held last Thursday night made a big hit.

Tomorrow night will be amateurs' night.

LIFE'S JOURNEY

Is Burdensome to Many in Duluth.

Life's journey is a heavy burden
With a constantly aching back,
With urinary disorders, diabetes,
With any kidney ill.
Doan's Kidney Pills relieve and cure.
Here is Duluth proof that this is so:

Mrs. Agnes McKay, formerly of 125 Nineteenth avenue, Duluth, Minn., says: "Though it is fully six years since I first recommended Doan's Kidney Pills in a testimonial, I have just as much faith in that remedy today as ever. I do not like to be published in the paper, as a rule, but Doan's Kidney Pills are such a reliable remedy that I would like every sufferer from kidney complaint to know it. The symptoms of this trouble are many and varied. In many cases the headaches and bearing down pains in the small of the back were quickly banished, and my system was invigorated and toned up. I have not had the slightest return of my old trouble since."

CONCERNING WOMAN.

Easter church sales are imminent!

The sales at which you may secure home cooking of the kind that mother produces when company is expected to tea, at prices a little in excess of the regular prices at the store—where you may secure kimonas of standard size for a pleasant price—where you may get "fancy articles" for—well, heaven only knows what they are for. Easter sales are an invention for taking up time. You first devote many weeks of time to devising the articles, and the two immediate days preceding the sale in cooking delicacies which your husband carries in tempting looking picnic baskets on an early morning car to the place of sale. You yourself rise bright and early on the fateful morning and busy yourself in sending your contributions to the sale, and then you take your pocketbook and sally forth to buy them back.

Easter sales are money-making devices—with a good purpose, therefore no money is set aside or appropriated for advertising.

Whether the advertising shall be paid for, or just accredited to good works, is a matter of endless discussion. "I have never paid for it before," says the lady delegated to care for that part of the sale.

And she purses her determined lips, and the sentiment that her entire personality breathes forth is that she never will.

"We would like to make an exception in this case," she is told, "but you see yourself how it is. Everybody has sales, the Methodists and the Presbyterians and the Episcopalians and the—"

"Yes, I know," she says, "but we need the money."

"We all do and, of course, if the notice goes in it will have to be paid for."

"I never paid before," says the lady.

"You see yourself how it is, if the sale is advertised and the people go—"

"But will they go?" demands the lady, with an unexpected shrewdness.

"If they know about it they will."

"Well, that's just it, how do I know how many people will read the ad."

"The ad will be read by the thousands of readers of The Herald. It will be read by father and mother and—"

"Yes, that's it. That's what we want," says the lady, eagerly.

"And compared with broad publicity, which your church sale will receive, the paltry sum—"

"Well, I never paid before," she says, as she reluctantly makes the arrangement for the "ad" and sighs as she thinks of the bill.

QUILTING DAY.

April 15 Chosen by Women of Pilgrim Church.

Wednesday, April 15, has been set aside as quilting day by the women of Pilgrim Congregational church, and all that day a quilting bee in the church parlors will occupy the attention of the members of Aid and Missionary societies. The comforters, which will be tied into tufted masses of downy softness, will go to the new Y. M. C. A. building. The women of this church will make sixteen of the comforters for the association. Four are already finished and the other twelve will be tied up the day set apart for the purpose.

The association has material for 150 comforters and a few of the women's societies of the various churches have volunteered their assistance in getting the silkoline and cotton and yarn combined into the home-like comforts for the rooms of the young men.

PRE NUPTIAL AFFAIRS

In Honor of Miss La Salle and Ernest Rackle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McManus were hosts at a theater party last evening at the Lyceum, at which the guests of honor were Miss Jessie LaSalle and Ernest Rackle of Cleveland, whose wedding will take place Saturday afternoon of this week. The guests were the members of the bridal party.

Capt. and Mrs. A. B. Wolvin will be hosts at dinner this evening at their home in compliment to Miss LaSalle and Mr. Rackle, and tomorrow afternoon Mrs. A. E. McManus and Mrs. William Burgess will entertain at luncheon and bridge, in compliment to Miss LaSalle.

The out of town guests at the wedding will be Miss Lucia Sanderson of Cleveland, and Miss Charlotte Partridge of Chicago, and George Rackle of Cleveland.

Events of Interest.

Mrs. W. A. Kaake entertained at luncheon yesterday at her home, 2 Munger Terrace. The table decorations were in yellow, and covers were laid for eight.

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Women's council will be held tomorrow at 10 o'clock at the club room of the library.

DRESS INDIVIDUALITY

Is Urged on Women By Parisian Dressmakers.

"How can any self-respecting woman clothe herself in a last year's gown?" asks Worth of Paris in a recent issue of Harper's Bazaar. "Oh, mesdames, that bete noir of fashion! Avoid it; turn away from it, and in time you will wonder how it could ever have terrified you! My contention as to the canonization of simplicity is my argument of defense; for if each frock, instead of being an epitome of every fugitive craze of the hour, be in detail beautiful and becoming, and of good and beautiful material, there will be no reason why, possibly with a little alteration, but probably without any at all, the gown aged two, three, or even four years may not be worn and look admirable!

"I have said elsewhere that vogues and crazes are very fine for the dressmaker. When crinolines were worn years ago, quite a simple frock would take thirty yards of stuff, or sixty of thin material. Before me hangs a water-color of a dead queen in a fantastic gown made to simulate a huge bunch of violets. It was composed of over a hundred yards of silk taffeta, dyed in three shades of purple!

"Never order fashions that date a dress, is my advice to the thrifty. When everybody is wearing balloon sleeves, restrain your own. When skirts are so attenuated that walking is a difficulty, say to your dressmaker that you must have extra breadth in yours. And as a consolation for the 'deprivation,' hug to yourself the truth that moderation is the watchword of the really good dressmaker and exaggeration his detestation.

"One of the first tasks my father, the founder of the house of Worth, set himself to accomplish was the demolition of the crinoline—a fashion that made women not only mountebanks, but a public nuisance. He quietly dispatched it into the limbo of things discarded; and despite the proverb that the whirligig of time brings back to vogue the modes of seven years before, it has never returned and never will.

"Is it not true that most men, when they make any comment at all in detail concerning a woman's dress, lift up their voice to deplore some attribute of it that they do not like? A color that is too blatant, a feather that is absurd in its size, or some other detail that is equally grotesque, forces a word of remonstrance from a man's lips. On the other hand, should he be satisfied with the general appearance of a gown, he will make no remark save, perhaps, 'How pretty you are looking!' Not, be it noticed, 'What a nice new frock you have on!'

"Many a man almost offends his wife by taking no heed of entirely new dresses, and praising, as if he saw it for the first time, some resuscitated toilette.

"Lessons in deportment and physical exercises are not to be despised; they will all help in the right direction. But the grace that comes from a mind trained to admire and reverence real beauty and perfection, be it simply that of a ribbon that is lovely in coloring, or a truly exquisite silk—this is what you should strive to secure.

"Be always very sure that danger lies for every one, whether blonde or brunette, tall or short, thin or the reverse, in such vagaries of the mode as the balloon sleeve, the eel-tight skirt, the dress-improver, the long train. For in all exaggeration there is danger; while modest restraint and swift intuition as to individual suitability mean a victory in subtle charm to which the vulgar can never attain."

Surprise Party.

Mrs. E. J. Coughlin was pleasantly surprised at her home on Piedmont avenue on Wednesday afternoon at a farewell party given by some of her many friends. She is about to make Minneapolis her future home.

The afternoon was spent at cards, the favors being won by Mrs. George Hopkins of Superior and Mrs. Fred W. Hilger of Duluth. Covers were laid for twenty.

Those who had charge of the party were Mrs. Fred V. Milan, Mrs. William Bendix, Mrs. P. H. Coughlin and Mrs. Robert Firth.

Church Affairs.

The members of the Christian Endeavor society of Pilgrim Congregational church will entertain at a roller skating party tomorrow evening at the Lincoln park pavilion.

Mrs. J. W. Delaney of the Masonic Temple has gone to Detroit for a visit with friends.

Store Observations.

Pongee hats are one of the new notions for spring. Under the brims there is often a facing of straw in a harmonizing or contrasting shade. The hats are mostly in large sailor effects with some sort of high trimming toward the side.

* * *

Pongee or rajah or tusah silks are among the most popular weaves of cloth for spring and summer gowns. The prevailing price is $1 a yard, and the rainbow shades that are shown afford an almost endless choice.

* * *

The newest veils are called umbrella veils and should keep the oculists busy and happy. The dots radiate from a central point like the ribs of an umbrella or are arranged in graduated circles.

* * *

Embossed elastic belts have patterns thereon like hand tooled leather effects. The belts are mounted with elaborate gilt buckles.

* * *

Gold mesh purses promise to be as much in favor as the last few seasons, but the thoroughly popular bag will be the severely tailored looking one, into the handle of which is introduced a set of bracelets to slip over the hand.

* * *

Sixteen-button silk gloves in all the delicate colors which the summer will demand, are in the shops.

* * *

Cross bar linen handkerchiefs with a colored embroidered corner wreath or spots of color throughout are new and pretty.

CARBOLITE LOST MONEY

Troubles of West Duluth Concern Were Very Numerous.

Had Heavy Liabilities and Its Patents Were Attacked.

"With carbolite costing about $73 and the selling price $57 per ton; with about $150,000 in pressing liabilities; with a suit threatened by the Constantino Hydraulic company; with its right to manufacture carbolite seriously threatened, on account of the company's inability to pay attorney's fees, etc.; with the failure of the president (Hartenstein) of the company to make good, and his attempt to shift the entire responsibility on to the shoulders of men who never claimed to have any knowledge in regard to the technical matters connected with the manufacture of carbolite, the results which were inevitable have followed."

The foregoing paragraph from the answer filed by the American Carbolite company in the action brought by H. L. Hartenstein, its president, to prevent an assignment of the company, expresses the situation as regards the local plant from the standpoint of the directors.

The answer, which is voluminous and which goes into details as regards Hartenstein's dealings with the carbolite company, was filed late yesterday afternoon in the district court, by Washburn, Mitchell & Bailey, attorneys representing the directors.

In view of the charges made by H. L. Hartenstein that the directors were attempting to freeze him out and turn the plant over to the carbolite trust, the answer contains many points of interest from the directors' side of the case.

Investors Let Down.

Admission is freely made on the part of the directors that they attempted to sell the plant to the Union Carbolite company, but did not do so until they knew beyond any doubt that Hartenstein had failed to make good and the local investors had been "let down." The deal with the carbolite trust is claimed to have turned out unsuccessfully as the Union Carbolite people did not even submit an offer.

The directors admit a move on the part of the company to make an assignment to W. M. Millan of this city for the benefit of the creditors, as the company is bankrupt and unable to pay its debts, and it is this assignment that Hartenstein is fighting in the courts.

The defendants admit there is a large demand for the product manufactured by the company, and that it manufactures carbolite under certain patents owned by it and certain other patents which it has the right to use. Such patents and patent rights are alleged to be a valuable asset of the company, although the defendants allege they have no definite information as to the actual value. They deny, however, that the patents are worth as much as Hartenstein alleges in his complaint.

The directors make an emphatic denial of Hartenstein's allegation that it has been the policy of the company, or its manager, of maintaining secrecy as to the physical condition of the plant, but claim, on the contrary, that it has always been represented to them by Hartenstein that all of its plants and processes were fully protected by patents and that there was no necessity of any concealment or secrecy as to its physical properties; that large numbers of people have been taken through the plant by Hartenstein and other officers and representatives of the Carbolite company, with the manager's knowledge and consent.

The directors admit that the company started a factory at Constantine, Mich., and afterward made a power contract with the Great Northern Power company to furnish power for a plant in this city.

It is admitted that $1,650,000 of the common stock has been issued, and that preferred stock to the amount of $100,000 has been issued as fully paid.

Hartenstein Leaves City.

The directors admit being ready for business prior to the time the power company could furnish power, and allege that Hartenstein left the city early in January, 1908, and has not since that time given any time and attention to the affairs of the company, although he is a member of the executive committee, and has been repeatedly requested to do so.

The directors deny, specifically, that the Carbolite company's plant is worth $500,000, or that the patents the company controls are worth $1,000,000.

Admission is made that that the plant is unencumbered, except by a mortgage in the sum of $22,000, and interest and unpaid taxes; also that the other indebtedness of the company does not exceed about $150,000.

The directors claim that Hartenstein never attempted to induce them to bond the plant, and claim that in their judgment the idea is not practicable or feasible.

Process Not Secret.

The directors admit that they have permitted visitors to go through the plant, including representatives of the Union Carbide company, a competitor, but allege that Hartenstein has always declared it perfectly safe to permit visitors to inspect the plant as there are no secrets to be kept from anybody. It is alleged that Hartenstein told the directors that the patents were in no manner an infringement on those of any other concern, especially the Union Carbide company. The directors say it is their understanding that the matters involved in the suit now pending between the Union Carbide company and the Nichols Gas company do not involve any of the processes of manufacture, but do involve the validity of the patent which the Union company claims gives it the exclusive right to manufacture the product in any manner.

The directors of the Union Carbide company were shown through the local plant in the hope and expectation of obtaining an offer for the purchase of the plant and property, but claim this was not done until Hartenstein had failed in practically all his promises to these defendants and their associates as to what he would do and could do with the plant, and not until after, in the judgment of the directors, it was imperatively necessary in the interests of the stockholders and creditors of the company that some disposition be made of the company's assets to stop the loss at which the business was being ruined.

The directors thought that a better price could be obtained from the Union Carbide company if negotiations were entered into before any publicity was given through the directors and stockholders of the financial condition of the company.

Chemist Discharged.

The directors admit discharging certain men in the company's employ, but claim it was for the interest and benefit of the company. The chemist employed by Hartenstein was discharged because he absented himself from his work for ten days without notice or permission from persons in charge of the plant.

It is alleged that Hartenstein represented to the directors that at the Constantine, Mich., plant, carbide could be sold for about $65 per ton that cost $35 to manufacture, and that the cost could be materially reduced by manufacture in Duluth. It is said that Hartenstein represented that there was no question of the right to manufacture under his patents but that he did not say anything about a royalty to be paid on the carbolite to be made.

Relying on Hartenstein's representations the directors, it is alleged, purchased large amounts of stock from Hartenstein, paying him approximately 60 per cent of the par value of the same. The purchases were made with the understanding that Hartenstein was to use the money to erect and equip a plant in Duluth. It is alleged that Hartenstein said the plant would not be an experiment but would show a profit from the beginning of operations.

The directors claim that Hartenstein's representations to induce them to buy stock were untrue and they doubt whether he was able to manufacture good carbolite at the Constantine plant at anywhere near the prices he represented.

It is claimed that when the Duluth plant started with fourteen furnaces, Hartenstein was away so much that the directors prevailed on him to select a superintendent in the person of C. J. Brown.

After Mr. Brown took charge of the plant, Hartenstein is claimed to have remained away from the plant almost all the time; that he kept promising what he would do in thirty days' time if the plant kept up operations.

It is claimed that several of the directors loaned the company $37,000 on its notes, without security; that Hartenstein did nothing that he agreed to do, but after remaining in the city a few days he left and did not return until March 8.

Plant Ran at Loss.

In the meantime the plant, it is said, continued to run at a loss, and it was made one of the defendants in an action started by the Carbide trust for alleged infringement on patents.

About $7,000 is said to be owing in connection with the suit at the present time.

The liabilities of the company are said to total about $150,000 on March 1, and a claim of $36,800 has since been filed against it by the Constantine Hydraulic company of Constantine.

It is claimed that the $37,000 was raised by the directors to pay the expenses of litigation in the suit started by the Carbide trust, but that Hartenstein failed to pay a dollar of the expenses so provided for.

It is alleged that at a meeting of the directors, held March 14, a resolution was passed admitting the company's inability to pay its debts and expressing its willingness to be adjudged bankrupt, and authorizing an assignment for the benefit of the creditors.

The result of the visit of the Union Carbide people, with a view of purchase of the local plant is said to have been a disappointment. They made no offer.

Hartenstein is said to have failed in completing the plant as promised.

Personal Loans.

The directors are said to have made him personal loans in the sums of $21,500 and $20,000, neither of which have been repaid.

The directors voted to make an assignment to William W. McMillan.

Admissions are made that three directors, F. A. Brewer, A. M. Marshall and T. F. Cole resigned.

The directors ask that Hartenstein take nothing by his action and that they have costs and disbursements.

This woman says that sick women should not fail to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she did.

Mrs. A. Gregory, of 2355 Lawrence St., Denver, Col., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was practically an invalid for six years, on account of female troubles. I underwent an operation by the doctor's advice, but in a few months I was worse than before. A friend advised Lydia E. WANTED TO BE BANKER

Three circumstances, the removal of any one of which would have meant a grand larceny charge, saved Richard Watson from a term in Stillwater for stealing $25 from Pat Duffey in the Exchange hotel early this morning. He took the money from under the mattress, not from the person; he took but $25, leaving $5, the theft of which would have been sufficient grounds for a more serious charge, and he failed to get out of the room where the theft occurred before being arrested by the officers. As it is, Watson will spend the next sixty days in the county jail as a result of his plea of guilty to the petit larceny charge placed against him.

Duffey's story to the court was one of rank ingratitude on the part of Watson. In a rich Irish brogue, with quaint expressions, which convulsed everyone in the courtroom, he told how Watson had bitten the hand that fed him. Duffey said he and his three friends met Watson at Grand Rapids. Watson didn't have a cent and they were flush, so they paid his way to Duluth, arriving several days ago. The party put up at the Exchange, Duffey and the rest staking Watson. They continued to furnish him with money and drinks, pay his board and show him a general good time, and he took it as a matter of course.

Last night the crowd decided to shake the parasite. "What made me sore on him first was his kicking on the grub," said Duffey. "Be dad, anybody that lives on charity and then kicks on what he gets, ain't very much."

Last night when Duffey retired he placed $30 in a wallet and put it under the mattress. When he awoke this morning he looked in the wallet and one lonely $5 bill remained. The door had been locked all the time and Duffey concluded somebody in the room had the money. He immediately suspected Watson and accused him of the theft.

"I says, 'I've been tiched up'" said Duffey, "'an' I think you got the money.' Then he says he'd have me arrested. Yes, your honor, two years was the sentence he passed on me right there."

The whole crowd remained in the room, with the exception of "Shorty," who went to the police station and reported the affair. After some questioning, Watson admitted having the money and it was dug out of the toe of one of his shoes.

In court Watson pleaded guilty to the charge and sought to explain the theft by saying he wanted to be banker for the party. He said they were spending their money too fast, so he took the $25 for safe keeping. His story was too flimsy and he went up on the hill.

A Very Common Disease.

Within the last few years it is said a disease has been spreading over America. The ailment is the commercial ill known as "Substitution," or the "Just as good" disease. BUYCK WINS SKIRMISH

Court Dissolves Writ of Attachment Issued Against Property.

Town Officials Take Appeal From Judge Dibell's Order.

Judge Dibell, this morning, dissolved the writ of attachment issued on the petition of the Town of Buyck against Hippolelt Buyck, the town treasurer who is the defendant in a suit brought for the recovery of some $30,000 alleged to have been grafted from the treasury. The town has filed notice of an appeal to the supreme court from the order discharging the writ.

Affidavits from a number of the residents of Buyck and Pelican lake, expressing information and belief that Buyck intended leaving the country to make his home in Canada about April 1, were filed in the district court by the town. Counter affidavits were filed by Buyck and others contradicting such reports. Buyck, in his affidavit, claimed that he never became or intended to become a resident of Canada. He claimed that instead of quitting the town of Buyck he had planned and begun the work for an extension to his store building with a view of carrying a larger stock of goods and enlarging his business.

Relative to the charge that he attempted to get his liquor license fee back from the county so as to get out of the country, Buyck claims that there is a man by the name of Rogers running a blind pig in the town. He alleges that a large number if the people of the town who are opposed to him have transferred their custom from his licensed saloon to the Rogers' place and he, Buyck, thought the best thing he could do was to get his license fee back and quit the saloon business.

Buyck claims that there are six or eight weeks in the spring when the Pelican Lake road is impassable and the ice is rotten on Lake Vermilion, that the town of Buyck is completely shut off from getting supplies from the outside. He claims that if the attachment continued in force and he was unable to get additional supplies the people of the town would surely run short of provisions and other goods before the boats begin running on the lake this summer.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm-hearted wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

CHARGED WITH "FRISKING" PAL

Albert Brooks Said to Have Cleaned Out Friend's Pockets.

Albert Brooks is charged with pulling off the old bed-partner "frisking" act on Fred Stein at the Denver lodging house, in First alley, between Fifth and Sixth avenues west, last night. While another man lay awake and watched, it is said, Brooks made a systematic search of Stein's clothing, even removing his shoes in search of coin. He was rewarded by $16.30, it is said, and having stowed the money away, he went to bed.

The lodger, who saw the robbery, reported it to the clerk, who called the police. Brooks was awakened and the money found on him. He demanded an examination when arraigned in municipal court this morning on a grand larceny charge, and his hearing was set for tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock, with bail in the sum of $500.

Brooks, it is claimed, had been "broke" for some time. Stein paying for a bed last night, and taking Brooks to sleep with him. Stein was drunk and went to sleep immediately, giving Brooks an opportunity of committing the theft, with which he is charged. Brooks claims the money was given him to keep.

GOOD HAUL BY BOLD THIEF

Watch and Money Leaves, While Hotel Room Door is Open.

Raymond Barlo mourns the loss of a gold watch, valued at $87, and $60 in cash, and a daring sneak thief, who stole the articles out of Barlo's room in the Brunswick hotel on West Superior street, early this morning, is still at large.

Barlo put the watch and money under his pillow early this morning, as he was preparing for bed, and then stepped out of the room for a few minutes, leaving the door open. Somebody was evidently attracted by the light, took the watch and money from under the pillow and fled before the man returned. Apparently, nothing had been disturbed, but Barlo took another look and discovered the theft.

He reported the matter to the police, but they have not yet been able to locate the thief.

FOLZ WILL ERECT BUSINESS BLOCK

Henry Folz, the Superior street grocer, has leased the southeast corner of Second avenue east and Superior street and will erect thereon a 5-story brick building, with a frontage of 100 feet on Superior street. It is understood that the building will cost in the neighborhood of $40,000 to $45,000.

The contract for the structure has been let to J. D. Molitor & Brother, general contractors, and the work on the foundations is expected to begin very shortly.

The building will be of pressed brick, with sandstone trimmings. Mr. Folz will occupy the corner, it is understood, and will have one or two other stores to rent. The upper stories may be finished off for lodge rooms or halls. The improvement is one of the largest planned on East Superior street for some time.

FINNISH LEGION ELECTS.

Calumet, Mich., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Finnish Legion No. 488 has elected the following officers: Past president, Auron M. Hnikki; president, Minnine Kangas; vice president, Sophia Onkka; secretary, Frank J. Johnson; treasurer, T. W. Lakso; chaplain, John L. Wiedelman; conductor, Charles Olsen; guard, Michael Estenberg; sentinel, William Berg; organist, Agnetta Bayard; degree master, Henry Johnson; trustee for three years, Cefanus.

MAN LOSES HIS HEAD.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 2.—Placing his neck on a rail of the Wheeling & Lake Erie tracks at East Forty-ninth street in front of a rapidly approaching locomotive, a well dressed, unidentified man sought death today. The man's head was cut off and carried upright on the pilot for several blocks, a ghastly spectacle.

PRISONERS SLIP AWAY

Grand Larceny Suspects Escape From Small-pox Hospital.

Authorities Had Warning That They Would Make Attempt.

Although the authorities were supposed to have been taking extra precautions to prevent such a move, John McDougall and John Herton, the young grand larceny suspects who were taken from the county jail to the smallpox hospital, escaped from the last named institution at 11 o'clock last night, and have thus far succeeded in keeping out of the grasp of the police.

When the young men were taken from the jail to the pesthouse, they were closely guarded. It was heard that some of their friends were coming down from the range to rescue McDougall and Herton. This rumor is supposed to have induced extra vigil on the part of the authorities.

But last night the pair battered down the door of the fumigating room at the pesthouse and made good their escape. Supt. Neal McDougall says that both were there at 10:30, but by 11:15 they had flown.

McDougall and Herton were arrested March 23, under suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of several down town offices. They were cast into the county jail to await a grand jury hearing, and came down with the smallpox, which made necessary their removal to the detention hospital.

SCOTT-GRAFFS HAVE GOOD CLUB

Semi-Professionals Organize for Baseball Season of 1908.

The Scott-Graff company will be represented on the semi-professional diamond by a strong team this year. At a meeting held last night the club was organized, with L. R. Avoy manager, George Cullen captain and Al Swanstrom treasurer. The manager was instructed to go ahead and secure players for the team, and he will start immediately.

The Scott-Graff club was fairly strong last year, but it did not cut a very wide swath, on account of getting into the field too late to secure the best of the local corner-lotters. This year, however, the manager is going right out after the men, and he says by the time the snow disappears, he will have as likely a bunch of candidates for the Scott-Graff uniforms as can be gathered around Duluth.

Mr. Avoy will go after dates with the best of the Northern Minnesota semi-professional clubs immediately. He will attend the meeting of managers at the St. Louis hotel, next Sunday, and if the league scheme does not go through, will get some good dates with the men who are to be assembled. He expects his team to be as strong as any in Northern Minnesota, and all of the independents will be taken on.

Company E Will Play.

Company E., the new company of the Third Minnesota, has already broken into the indoor baseball game and a nine from the company will meet the Second Division Naval Militia team at the armory tonight. The different military companies all have indoor baseball teams in the field and several games will be played before the boys take to the outdoor sport.

MARCH COLDER THAN AVERAGE

Monthly Report of the Local Weather Bureau Out.

Last month was somewhat colder, taken as a whole, than the average March, according to the monthly report of the weather bureau. The mean temperature for the month was 23 degs. above zero, where the mean for the past thirty-eight years has been 29.4 degs.

The warmest day was March 30, when the thermometer registered 55 degs. above, and the lowest was 5 degs. below on March 25. The average daily deficiency in temperature as compared with previous years was 6.2 degs. The total precipitation last month was 1.51 inches, with a snowfall of fifteen inches. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the northeast, with an average hourly velocity of fourteen miles. There were five clear days, thirteen partly cloudy, and thirteen cloudy.

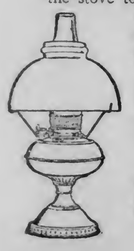

Put This Stove in Your Kitchen

It is wonderfully convenient to do kitchen work on a stove that's ready at the instant wanted, and out of the way the moment you're done. Such a stove is the New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. By using it you avoid the continuous overpowering heat of a coal fire and cook with comfort, even in dog-days. The is so constructed that it cannot add perceptibly to the heat of a room; the flame being directed up a retaining chimney to the stove top where it is needed for cooking. You can see that a stove sending out heat in but one direction would be preferable on a hot day to a stove radiating heat in all directions. The "New Perfection" keeps a kitchen uniformly comfortable. Three sizes, fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

THE NORTHERN LEAGUE SCHEDULE.

The schedule of the Northern league was released for publication in the evening papers of today. The season opens May 14, with Duluth at Winnipeg and Fargo at Brandon, and closes Sept. 7 with Fargo at Duluth and Brandon at Winnipeg.

Duluth will play 116 games during the season, Winnipeg 113, Fargo and Brandon 112 each. Winnipeg gets the most home dates, with 70; Duluth is given 59 and Fargo and Brandon 49 each.

With both American teams opening across the border, the season at this end of the circuit will not open until May 23, when Winnipeg will open a series on the Duluth grounds, and Brandon will appear at Fargo.

The American teams will cross the border four times, while the Canadians will come to the United States on only three trips. The schedule is so arranged that all of the holiday dates in both countries are taken in, except that on the closing day, which will be Labor day, the two Canadian clubs will meet at Winnipeg.

The schedule follows:

DULUTH AND BRANDON AT WINNIPEG JULY 13, AFTERNOON.

M'NEIL TO BE MANAGER

Former Leader of Crookston Team is Signed by Fargo.

Has Interest in Club and Expects to Have a Winner.

Fargo, N. D., April 2.—William H. McNeil, the veteran ball player who played organized ball in the Red River valley over twenty-five years ago, and who is undoubtedly the best posted man, along baseball lines, in the valley, has been signed to manage the Fargo Northern league team for the season of 1908.

W. J. Price, Alex Stern and Matt Camitsch, the owners of the Fargo team, talked over the prospects with McNeil, and they are greatly pleased over the outlook for a top-notcher team with Mac at the managing end. He was the manager of the Crookston team for the last three years that that city had a team in the Northern league and he was always able to get together a fast bunch of ball players, and was able to keep them well along at the top of the column.

Mr. McNeil has been given an interest in the team and this interest will grow larger as the team climbs to the top of the percentage column, which will be an incentive for him to give the city a winning team. He already has a number of good players listed and those that had been signed by Mr. Price were turned over to him. He expects to try out some of the best material in the valley, and there are a number of the boys who will undoubtedly make good. With local boys playing, an added incentive will be given to local patronage of the games.

The Fargo team will report for practice at Fargo on May 1, and this will give them two weeks in which to round into shape for the opening of the season, May 14.

The Fargo team will wear gray uniforms this year.

WILL TRY OUT HIS YOUNGSTERS

Artie O'Dea Has Game at Minneapolis Next Sunday.

Artie O'Dea will try out some of his youngsters for the Brandon team at Minneapolis next Sunday. He has arranged a game with the Minneapolis American association team and will get some of his recruits together at the Flour City to go on the diamond and show what they can do. He will probably take Mulcrone from here to try out the pitchers. O'Dea has picked several men from the Twin City lots and he wants to see them work before he reports them at Burlington.

Louis Livingston, O'Dea's second baseman, who has been here for some weeks, will leave in a few days for Chicago to spend about a week before going to Burlington to join the squad. O'Dea has practically signed his team and isn't worrying any about the prospects.

There is nothing doing in the Duluth camp. All of the men have been signed and ordered to report to Morrow at Aurora April 25. There the weeding out process will begin immediately, so that the squad will be cut to the regular team by the time it arrives in Duluth. Only a few days will be spent here, as the Sox will open at Winnipeg May 14.

HANDICAP IS FEATURE.

Program Arranged for Grand Circuit Week at Readville.

Boston, April 2.—A $50,000 handicap dash race on Aug. 24, in which the slowest horse will go a distance of 1¼ miles and be allowed fifty feet start for each second difference in speed, no horse to be handicapped slower than up to a mile in 2:15, will be the feature of the grand circuit week at Readville this year. The purse, which is offered by the New England Trotting Horse Breeders' association, is the largest ever projected for trotting horses in the country. The entire fee will be $50 and the purse will be divided as follows:

First, $30,000; second, $10,000; third, $5,000; fourth, $2,500; fifth, $1,500; sixth, $1,000.

The handicap and speed allowances will be announced on Aug. 18 and the horses will be placed against the knowledge of their ability up to this date.

Fargo has at last secured a manager and there's nothing to it now, but to start the season of the Northern league. The fans have been rather anxiously awaiting the announcement from Fargo that the owners of the club had signed their manager. It was thought for quite a time that Bobby Lynch, the former manager of the Eau Claire club of the Wisconsin-Illinois league was slated for the Fargo job, but he has gone to the semi-pros in Chicago.

William H. McNeil is no stranger to the fans of the Northern league circuit. He's the original Red River Valley baseball man. Unless he knew that he was in line for the Fargo reins and gathered players in advance of signing the contract, he may be handicapped to a large extent by the late date, but he knows baseball players and should be able to gather a good team together.

All of the manager have now been secured. W. E. Morrow will pilot Duluth, Eddie Herr, Winnipeg; Artie O'Dea, Brandon, and McNeil, Fargo. The four are old heads at the baseball game. Three of them have been brought together in the Northern league before. All have the backing of responsible owners in signing their teams. They are working for a well-balanced league, and, in their hands, there is no reason why the teams should not be fast and fairly equal.

The fans have only to lie back now and watch developments. The training trips will come soon. Then the homecoming of the ball players and on May 14 the umpires will give the old familiar call. If the teams may be judged by the managers, the class of ball will not be inferior and the enthusiastic ones can see nothing but a big success for the rejuvenated league.

Success to the Tri-State Fair & Racing association. The efforts of C. E. Houk have borne fruit and the association now lives and has its being. The meeting at Ashland yesterday was important to lovers of good horse racing, who have long been deprived of the sport. It means Duluth will get back on the harness horse map, where it should always have had a place. With H. R. Elliott and John Runquist at the head of the movement to restore the game here, it stands in a fair way to flourish and there is good sport in sight for the thousands of lovers of it in Duluth.

EASY FOR DANIELSON.

Elling Deisen, Colfax Ski Rider, is No Wrestler.

Elling Deisen may be a champion ski rider, but he can't wrestle. He was as a child in the arms of Andrew Danielson at the Metropolitan opera house last night in a bout following the regular performance, the West end man getting two falls in quick time. Deisen didn't seem to have anything at all and Danielson didn't have to bring out much of his stuff to get the money. Shad Link refereed the match.

Emil Peterson and Will Beaulieu were both on hand to challenge the winner. It is probable that Beaulieu and Peterson will meet at the Met next week and the winner of the match will go against Danielson in a succeeding bout.

EASY FOR JOE GANS.

"Spike" Robson Stopped in Third Round at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, April 2.—Joe Gans stopped "Spike" Robson, the English featherweight champion, in the third round of what was scheduled as a six-round bout before the National Athletic club.

TOMMY BURNS IS STILL BUSY

American Will Probably Meet Gunner Moir Once More.

London, April 2.—Tommy Burns, the champion heavy-weight fighter, appeared in a new role last night. He was a guest at the dinner of the Sphinx club and was down for a speech in a debate which had been arranged on "Publicity in Sport," which turned mainly to the ethics of Oxford's recent secret trial. Neall, Burns' manager will sail for New York on the Lusitania Saturday. He will try to arrange a match with Johnson and will cover Johnson's deposit of $2,500 with $2,000 added. Burns says he is willing to allow the money to remain in the hands of the stakeholder for from one to twelve months, to give promoters an opportunity of arranging the contest. He demands $60,000 as his share of the prize money, no matter what the result of the fight, and he would prefer a contest of forty-five rounds or to a finish, which would limit to California or Nevada.

Arrangements are about completed for another fight in England in which Gunner Moir probably will be pitted against Burns for a percentage of the gate receipts. The fight, if it is arranged, will take place in one of the big football grounds and the price of admission will be from one shilling upwards, which means that at least 50,000 persons will probably attend.

CAMPERS WILL HOLD REUNION

Boys Will Have Campfire and Reunion at Gymnasium.

The annual boys' department camp reunion for boys who have attended Camp Miller will be held Friday evening. The occasion is one that is always eagerly looked forward to by the former campers. The program will begin at 9 o'clock. From 9 to 9:30 there will be an informal reception in the club-room. This will be followed by luncheon. At 10 o'clock the campers will adjourn to the gymnasium, and around the fire will repeat one of the camp evenings. The boys will bring their bedding and sleep in camp style. In the morning a regular camp breakfast will be served.

* * *

The regular monthly meeting of the boys' cabinet will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, in the boys' department building.

* * *

The last of the series of interscholastic basketball games will be played Friday afternoon, at 4:30, between the Jackson and Jefferson schools.

HORSEMEN HAVE ASSOCIATION

Old Tri State Circuit is Reorganized at Ashland.

Ashland, Wis., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting of representative horsemen here, yesterday, the Tri-State Fair & Racing association, which held forth in towns of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, several years ago, was reorganized, with C. E. Houk of Ironwood president and J. B. Matthews of Ashland secretary. Representatives were present from Hibbing, Duluth, Ironwood, Rhinelander and Ashland, and they showed a fine degree of enthusiasm.

The circuit is to be made up of the five towns named and Antigo. The latter town had no representative at the meeting yesterday, but it is expected enough interest will be worked up there to swing it into the circuit, so as to make the sixth town.

The association plans to hold county fairs in the different towns on successive weeks, featuring the horse racing events, but paying due attention to the agricultural and live stock exhibits. The promoters of the plan urged that such a circuit is needed for advertising purposes and to encourage the farmers, and they had no trouble in working up the interest.

The plans were only roughly drafted at the first meeting. It is planned to open at Rhinelander, the second week in August, going successively to Ironwood, Ashland, Duluth and Hibbing. The matter of program and purses will be gone into at a later meeting.

SAPOLIO

SENATOR DEITRICH

Was Author of Ideas Now Being Pushed in Congress.

Resolutions That He Introduced About Seventeen Years Ago.

FROM THE HERALD WASHINGTON BUREAU.

Washington, April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The habit which history has of repeating itself is again exemplified in the present session of congress and by the administration. Some months ago the president startled the country by announcing, through one of his advisers, that the power of regulating all railroad affairs should rest solely with the federal government; this doctrine to apply to intrastate as well as interstate traffic.

Senator LaFollette is a persistent advocate of the physical valuation of railroad properties as a prerequisite for the acceptance of railroad bonds as the basis of national bank circulation.

Again there is a proposition on foot to enact legislation to require all engineers, firemen, conductors and switchmen employed in the operation of railroads to be licensed by the federal government.

These propositions are generally regarded as new measures. Yet the published proceedings of the commercial congress, which met in Kansas City in the spring of 1891—seventeen years ago—show that a series of resolutions was offered by Mr. Deitrich of Hastings, Neb., afterwards governor of the state of Nebraska and later a United States senator, which covered those very point.

Mr. Deitrich's resolutions provided in brief that all power of control and regulation of railroads should be taken from the states and that the federal government alone should have that power. That the United States should be divided into interstate commerce districts and that parties feeling aggrieved by the decisions of the commissioners in either of the districts should have the right of appeal to a supreme commission, whose decisions should be final. The resolutions also provided for the physical valuation of all railroad properties by the federal government in accord with such valuations. Mr. Deitrich argued that such a policy would result in the enchanced value of such securities and would, besides, give them a stable value and make them less subject to the manipulation of speculators.

He also proposed that all locomotive switchmen, firemen and engineers should be licensed by the federal authorities arguing that such a course would have a tendency to prevent strikes as a licensed employe would hesitate long before taking a course which, if unjustified, might result in the forfeiture of his license.

It is interesting to note that all these propositions, which have practically lain dormant for seventeen years are now being vigorously pushed before the commerce committee of the house and senate. If they should ultimately be enacted into law it will be the man who fathers them today and not Senator Deitrich, the real father of the ideas, who will be given the credit.

"I have often thought," said Congressman Ryan of Buffalo, "that an interesting article might be written on business and professional signs. Sometimes the names on the doors of business places are exceedingly appropriate and then again they go by contraries. For instance I have frequently noticed on my way to the capitol the sign of a tobacconist. It is Plugge. There is another speaking sign over a store in the National Theater building where Sam Needle is ready as a theatrical or civilian tailor. Daly and Knightly are plumbers on New York avenue, and yet in spite of the implied willingness of the firm to attend to the wants of their customers at all hours I understand that their establishment is closed promptly at six o'clock every evening.

"Barnwell Robinson is a vetinerary surgeon and his name should appeal to the owners of live stock in need of vetinerary service. There is a tailor on a side street named Makover, and yet I am advised that he does very little in the way of repairing, devoting his energies to the very latest sartorial creations. A gentlemen named Garden is a florist up town and some one told me of a saloon in East Washington conducted by a gentleman named Booze. Those seem to be very appropriate names and perhaps the same is true of a similar establishment in Buffalo conducted by an old German named Sauerwein. But I never could understand who two of my constituents named respectively Drinkwine and Munnn formed a partnership and opened a tonsorial parlor instead of a sampleroom. Overturf is a very good name for a real estate dealer and the gentlemen of that name in Buffalo seems to get a fair share of the business.

"When Congressman Steele of Indiana was defeated for re-election by Fred Landis I am told that he formed a partnership with a gentleman named Robb. Of course there is nothing in a name, but the combination of Robb & Steele does not seem to have the exactly proper sound as the name of a firm of attorneys. And I don't know that the Washington sign 'Chew, Chew & Chew. Attorney-at-law, sounds much better. Some day I may gather together a long list of such peculiar, appropriate and inappropriate signs and give them to some writer. In the meantime I should like to know how the firm of Irish & English, dealers in furniture and household goods in Buffalo came to get mixed up. English is and Irishman and Irish an Englishman."

RARE OLD COIN.

Double Eagle, of Discarded Longacre Design, to be Sold.

New York, April 2.—A rare $20 California gold piece, struck at one of the private mints at San Francisco in 1855, will be the feature of a sale of old coins that will take place next Saturday at Elder's auctioneer rooms, in this city. The valuable piece of money turned up from the United States of Columbia.

It is the size of a regular government double eagle, but the medal is of a brassy color, differing materially from the reddish hue of the United States gold pieces. This is due to the fact that it was made of pure California gold, just as it was smelted.

On the obverse is a large liberty head, almost exactly like that on the regular $20 piece, with 13 stars around the border and the date "1855" beneath the bust. On the coronet, however, instead of the usual word "Liberty," is found the inscription, "W. M. & Co." This stood for Wass, Molitor & Co., a firm doing a coining and coining and smelting business in San Francisco as early as 1852. On the reverse side, which is similar to the recently discovered design of the old double eagle of Longacre, there appears a ribbon above the usual eagle, bearing the inscription "900 thous."

We Pay $2.10

We could buy beans as low as 30c per bushel, yet we pay $2.10 for ours.

The reason is this: We buy Michigan beans, because a certain soil there produces the best beans grown.

Then we select them by hand, so we get only the whitest, the plumpest, the fullest-grown.

We bake these beans in ovens heated up to 245 degrees. That fierce heat is required to make beans digestible, and you can't apply it. That is why home-baked beans are heavy food.

We bake in live steam, so all beans are baked alike. And they are baked without bursting. They are nutty because they are whole.

Then we bake the beans, the tomato sauce and the pork all together. Thus we get our delicious blend.

That's why Van Camp's beans are better than yours.

We Pay $3.45

We could buy tomato juice for 75c a barrel. Yet we pay $3.45 for just the tomatoes used in a barrel of ours.

The difference is this: Cheap sauce is made from tomatoes picked green and ripened in shipment. It is flat.

Else it is made from skins and cuttings—scraps from a canning factory. Such sauce is not rich.

Ours is made from whole tomatoes—ripened on the vines—picked when the juice fairly sparkles.

The result is this: Our beans are nutty, yet mealy. Our sauce has a flavor, a tang, a zest which Nature alone can give.

Some brands may cost less—and no wonder. But your people won't like them. When you serve Van Camp's, your people will want them daily. They'll eat them in place of meat.

Van Camp's BAKED WITH TOMATO SAUCE
PORK AND BEANS

These beans are always ready. When you are tired, here's a meal without labor. When you are hurried, here's a meal without waiting. And no other meal can compare with it.

Think how much bother they'll save you.

Beans are 84 per cent nutriment. They are just as appetizing, just as nourishing as meat. They will be your main dish once a day, as they should be, when you once know Van Camp's.

Think what that will save on your meat bills.

10, 15 and 20¢ per can.

RETIRING JUDGE SPOONER

Bemidji, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hon. C. W. Stanton, the newly appointed judge of the Fifteenth judicial district, was sworn in as judge at the banquet given last evening by the Beltrami County Bar association at the Hotel Markham. The oath of office was administered by the retiring judge, Hon. Marshall A. Spooner.

Judge McClenahan, Sr., of Brainerd, associate judge of the Fifteenth judicial district, will arrive in Bemidji this evening and will officiate on the bench until the present term of court is finished.

Judge Stanton will go to International Falls this evening, and will at once close his business affairs at that place so that he may move to Bemidji and assume his new duties as judge.

John E. Samuelson, who has been associated with Mr. Stanton at International Falls, as associate county attorney, will be appointed as court reporter.

YOUNG GIRL MISSING DURING FIERCE BLIZZARD.

Portal, N. D., April 2.—Miss Ethel Gilpen, aged 13, left her home north of Portal Tuesday and searching parties have been unable to find her. A blizzard has been sweeping this section and it is feared she has become demented and has perished in the storm.

DIPHTHERIA CLOSES SCHOOL.

Mapleton, Minn., April 2.—The public school will be closed for a week because of a diphtheria scare. There are only two or three cases in the village and efforts are being made to stamp out the disease.

FARMERS' BIG STORE.

Niagara, N. D., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fred Lucke of McCanna, Andrew Jorgenson of Pilot and Fred Lucke of Niagara have organized the Farmers' Mercantile company, with a capital stock of $50,000. Besides general merchandise they will carry machinery. The company is a strong one and should do a big business.

JAMESTOWN'S HOT ELECTION.

Jamestown, N. D., April 2.—The city election in this city is, according to present indications, going to be the hottest since John Eager defeated Bailey Fuller for mayor, the fight being principally centered about the two candidates for mayor, Charles McElroy, the present alderman from the First ward, and Pierce Blewett, formerly trainmaster of the Dakota division.

PRISONER WELL FED.

Madison, Wis., April 2.—There may be no fancy dishes served to the inmates of the Green Bay reformatory, but a recent investigation of the institution ordered by Governor Davidson shows that the prisoners are well fed, and that they receive wholesome, nourishing food. The average supply of meat to each inmate is 9.76 ounces a day. An inmate of the institution recently lodged the complaint which led to the investigation.

MANY MEN WANTED.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Local labor employment agencies and contracting firms say that while the report from Chicago to the effect that 300,000 laborers will be wanted for railroad work between now and June 1, is probably correct, the activity has not been felt to any extent in Milwaukee thus far. It is stated that in Wisconsin a large number of men will be required for railroad work about June 1.

STATE HAS MUCH COIN.

St. Paul, Minn., April 2.—State Treasurer Dinehart's report of the condition of the various funds in the state treasury at the close of business at the end of March, showed a balance of $2,299,-311.01. In all of the funds, about $50,000 less than the total balances on March 31, 1907.

SPIES RENOMINATED.

Menominee, Mich., April 2.—Special to The Herald.)—Augustus Spies, the present mayor of this city was renominated by the Republican city convention in opposition to Redmond Pangborn, Democratic candidate. William Kuhnle and James Sullivan are the candidates for city treasurer of the respective parties.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

FIVE SENT TO PRISON

Offenders Ordered Confined in Stillwater by Judge M. A. Spooner.

Retiring Jurist Signalizes Last Day by Passing Some Sentences.

Bemidji, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hon. C. W. Stanton of International Falls, who was appointed by Governor Johnson to succeed Judge M. A. Spooner, resigned, assumed his duties yesterday, the retiring judge's appointment becoming effective then. The new judge is being generally congratulated over his appointment.

Before laying aside the duties of judge he has so capably filled, Judge Spooner passed sentence upon five offenders, who have been convicted at the present term of court.

Tollef Otis, found guilty of assault in the second degree, was sentenced to three years' hard labor at the state prison.

When Tollef Peterson was to be sentenced for grand larceny in the first degree, Mr. Torrance, his lawyer, asked the leniency of the court on the ground that the evidence upon which Peterson had been convicted was purely circumstantial. The court explained that no doubt of guilt of the prisoner existed in his mind, as there was only one other key to the door and the defendant had access to it, and several points pointed to the prisoner's guilt. The judge then sentenced Peterson to five years at hard labor at Stillwater.

Mike Shea, convicted of the same crime as Peterson, was given the same sentence. When asked why sentence should not be pronounced upon him, Shea stated that he knew nothing of the crime for which he had been convicted. The court replied that he would dislike to punish an innocent man, and that if anything ever came up to disprove his guilt, he would do all in his power to rectify the mistake, and then pronounced the sentence.

In the case of Bert Roberts, found guilty of uttering a forged instrument, County Attorney Henry Funkley recommended the leniency of the court. Roberts was charged, first, with forgery in the first degree, which was continued to the next term of court; second, with uttering a forged check, or forgery in the third degree, for which he was sentenced for one year in the state prison. After the pronounciation of the sentence the prisoner looked relieved and smiled.

George Adams changed his plea of not guilty to the charge of grand larceny in the first degree Monday to a plea of guilty to the charge of grand larceny in the second degree. It appears that he threatened his victim with a knife and compelled him to give up his money. The judge stated that the prisoner's countrymen in this part of the state are too free with their knives and that he had decided to make an example of one of them. He sentenced Adams to three years at hard labor.

THAYER HELD, OTHER RELEASED

Result of Hearing on Charge of Blowing Neving Dam.

Bagley, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Before Justice of the Peace Loen, George Thayer and John Samuelson were given a hearing on the charge of having blown up the dam at Neving Tuesday night of last week.

The testimony showed that Thayer went to the store of Mr. Malverson at Neving, the day previous to the blowing up of the dam and secured a quantity of dynamite, which was left in the store.

The next day John Samuelson went to the Neving store and asked for the dynamite that Thayer had ordered. Samuelson also got eight or nine fuse caps and twenty feet of fuse. He took the fuse, caps and dynamite and placed them in a gunny sack, taking them away with him.

After the dam was blown up some of this fuse and a portion of the gunny sack was found lodged in the broken structure.

The next morning after the explosion tracks leading through fresh snow from the dam towards the homes of Thayer and Samuelson were seen. It is said that Thayer had made threats to blow up the dam. No threats are credited to Samuelson.

Thayer was held to the grand jury and was released on giving his bond in the sum of $500. Samuelson was not held to the grand jury and ordered released.

POSTMASTER ERICKSON

Successor to Anton R. Carson in Charge at Bemidji.

Bemidji, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—G. E. Carson, who has been the postmaster of Bemidji for the last four years, has turned over the office to his successor, Anton R. Erickson.

The report of the office for the quarter just passed showed that the receipts were $3,710.30, the proceeds for Uncle Sam being $1,358.31.

Mr. Carson, the retiring postmaster, announces that he will give his undivided attention to his ice business in this city and will probably also engage in other business.

Postmaster Erickson announces that he will make no changes in the personnel of the present force, which is as follows:

A. Otto, deputy postmaster; Frank Slipp, chief mailing clerk; S. A. Cutter, money order clerk; Edmund Gould, general delivery clerk; free delivery carriers, Harry Gell, J. C. Bobbs, Dennis Considine. Rural mail carrier, route No. 1, Ralph L. Grover.

ARE ON LONG HIKE.

Two Young Men Are Walking From Seattle to Chicago.

Bismarck, N. D., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—On their way on a 2,400-mile pleasure jaunt the two professional long distance walkers, R. F. Hay and William Jackson, sturdy specimens of Scottish health, arrived in Bismarck early in the week.

The young fellows have undertaken the contract to walk from Seattle to Chicago in the period of ninety days. They have already expended about sixty days of their allotted time, having started from Seattle Jan. 26, and expect to land in Chicago April 25.

They are depending for sustenance from the sale of photographic post cards of themselves. At Miles City not long ago they were held up by three tramps and robbed of all their currency they had with them—a matter of $15, with which they had intended buying a new supply of pictures. Since that time it has been rather tough sledding for the young gentlemen, as they have been handicapped by not having any supplies for sale, and therefore being compelled to get along on charity.

LET PEOPLE DECIDE

Who is Preferred for Postmaster at Aitkin, Says Bede.

Aitkins, Minn., April 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The contest between Messrs. Hollister and Shook of this place over the Aitkin postoffice will be decided by the votes of the patrons of the postoffice, if the method proposed by Representative J. Adam Bede, who has the recommendation of the postmaster to the department at Washington, is adopted by the aspirants. Mr. Bede sugegsts in a letter to Mr. Hollister that the matter be decided by an election. He has written to Mr. Hollister making that suggestion and Mr. Hollister accepts the plan. The congressman will address Mr. Shook in a similar vein.

In his letter to Mr. Hollister the congressman says:

"I have heard nothing since I was in Duluth regarding the Aitkin postoffice matter, and do not know when the department will ask me for a nomination, but in thinking the matter over myself I have decided that the most satisfactory way to settle the contest between you and Mr. Shook would be to hold an election and let the people determine whom they desire as their postmaster, and I wil endorse the one receiving a majority of the vote.

"I would suggest that you print both names on one ballot, and that you hold the election on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, or such other day as you and he may agree upon. There will be little or no expense in doing this, and it will be in keeping with the policy of letting the people run their own affairs. This seems to me a fair way to settle the contest, and I think all concerned will acquiesce in the result."

FIFTY DOLLARS PER ACRE.

Record Price for School Land Paid in North Dakota.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The highest price ever realized in North Dakota for public school lands, $50 per acre, was paid at the sale here, when C. G. Halvorson purchased the northwest quarter of section 36, in Northwood township. Fully 500 farmers from every section of the county were in attendance at the sale and the bidding on many of the tracts offered for sale was lively. In other cases farmers living adjacent to tracts offered were able to purchase at the appraised value, on account of there being no other bidders for those particular pieces. Not only was the record price for a single tract obtained, but the average prices received was the highest realized at any sale of school land yet held in the state.

CALUMET NORWEGIANS

Will Observe Norwegian Independence Day May 16.

Calumet, Mich., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Calumet Sons of Norway are making elaborate preparations for a grand celebration of the Norwegian Independence day which occurs on Sunday, May 17. The local Norwegians have decided to celebrate one day earlier, Saturday, May 16. The Calumet theater has been secured for the occasion, and arrangements are being made for a grand concert and appropriate exercises, including speeches and other features. The detailed program is not complete as yet, but the services of the great Norwegian contralto, Miss Eleanore Olson of Chicago, a talented elocutionist and reader, have been secured for the occasion. In addition Prof. Relmstad of Superior, Wis., a famous Norwegian tenor, has promised his services.

COPPER NEAR MORA.

Red Metal Said to Have Been Found in That Vicinity.

Mora, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—There is more or less excitement in this locality over the reported discovery of copper ore.

Several years ago a man named James Mulvey purchased 400 acres of land in this vicinity, simply as an investment. He has since cut off all the timber, and has offered the real estate for sale at a sacrifice. He never was able to secure a buyer. Now it has been learned that there is a rich deposit on a portion of the tract and the owner has been offered $40 an acre, with a right on his part to reserve a half interest in the ore deposit.

It is believed that the vein of copper located near here is the extension of the deposit which was recently discovered at Hinckley. The find at the latter place is a valuable one, and shafts have already been sunk in the preparation of mining the metal. The two deposits are only fifteen miles apart.

EX-COLORADO CONVICT IS WANTED IN MANKATO.

St. Paul, Minn., April 2.—Governor Johnson issued a requisition upon the governor of Colorado for the extradition of Raymond J. Dannaher, wanted at Mankato on a charge of grand larceny in the second degree. The authorities learned that he is to be released from the Colorado prison yesterday and have asked for his detention until the governor of Colorado can pass upon the application for his extradition.

ARE AGAINST TREATING.

Thirty-Three Young Men Sign a Pledge Against Habit.

Marquette, Mich., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Based upon the belief that the custom of giving and accepting treats is the one chief cause of drunkenness, an Anti-Treating league has been founded at the French Catholic church. The new organization, which is composed principally of young men, has a charter membership of thirty-three who have signed the following pledge:

"I solemnly promise, in the presence of God and upon my honor as a gentleman, that I will not treat anyone, and will not allow anyone to treat me publicly to any kind of intoxicating drink."

STATE GETS JUDGMENT

Against Minnesota & International Railway Company for Taxes.

St. Paul, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Lewis has filed his decision in the case of the state against the Minnesota & International Railway company, granting judgment for the state in the sum of $1,403, on account of taxes on gross earnings from 1899 to 1904, inclusive. The state demanded the sum of $6,256.27 for back taxes.

The defendant showed that for certain items of receipts it was not bound to pay any taxes. These receipts thus exempt were for loading logs, the cost of which was paid by the shipper; the sale of cars, rails, etc.; the rent of work trains; material and labor furnished to other corporations and the like.

PASSENGERS' CLOSE CALL.

Engine is Partially Derailed and Train is Stopped.

Mankato, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Chicago Great Western train due here at 9:20 p. m. was derailed about five miles south of Mankato Tuesday night. The engine crew noticed fire flying from the tank wheels, and the tank came near going in the ditch. Brakes were applied instantly and the train brought to a quick stop. Examination showed the tank wheels to be riding the ties instead of the rails. Supt. Banks and a number of the officials were in a private car attached to the train. They told the engine crew that they were well pleased that the train was stopped without derailing the coaches, and everybody on the train thought it a narrow escape from what might have been a bad wreck.

NOAH CONFESSES HE KILLED GUS JOHNSON.

Minot, N. D., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Overcome with remorse for his awful crime, R. S. Noah, who was brought here from Kenmare to escape the fury of indignant farmers, who believed he had murdered Gus Johnson, whose body was found in a cellar at the Johnson home, has confessed to State's Attorney McGee. He says he shot Johnson while the latter was sleeping, then concealed the body in the cellar, hoping to dispose of Johnson's property and escape before the crime was discovered.

Patsey Coyle, who was arrested with Noah on suspicion of being implicated in the crime, will be held as an accessory.

ASSAULTED BY STRANGER.

Crystal Falls, Mich., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—A peculiarly atrocious cutting affray is reported from the Sunday Lake mining location, Gogebic iron range. Sitting quietly at a table in a bar-room, Felix Skyda was approached by a stranger directly the latter had entered the place, and without warning was attacked by the man with a knife. A gash was cut across the forehead and another one through the face before bystanders could interfere. It was necessary to knock the fellow unconscious before the knife could be taken from him. Sykda's assailant was taken to the Wakefield lock-up.

APPOINTED PROBATE JUDGE.

St. Paul, Minn., April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Governor Johnson has appointed Mac Loman probate judge of Koochiching county. He succeeds W. G. Kane, resigned.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Marquette—Miss Lydia Olson, the recently appointed librarian at the Peter White public library, has assumed her new duties. The resignation of Miss Mae Hewitt, whom Miss Olson succeeds, went into effect Dec. 15 last, and Miss Olson was appointed at a meeting of the library board held early in January.

Munising—C. J. Goodrich, who for the past two years has been connected with the Munising schools, has accepted a position in the Commercial Savings Bank of Marshall, Mich., and has left for that place.

Negaunee—Thomas Bennett, who has been at Globe, Ariz., for a year past, arrived in the city Tuesday and will again locate here. He reports that there are many idle men in the Arizona camps.

Ishpeming—The People's party has nominated this ticket: Mayor, W. J. Roberts; recorder, J. D. West; treasurer, Hans P. Hanson; school inspector, John E. Casin.

Republic—Carl Mertz, a pioneer resident of Republic, came to a sudden end at this place Tuesday morning, the result of an attack of heart failure.

Hancock—The city of Hancock now has two national banks. They are the First National and the Superior National, the latter being converted from a state institution, the change taking place Wednesday.

Hancock—The junior class of the high school is planning upon giving a dancing party in the near future, the proceeds of which are to go into an entertainment fund to be used in the annual entertainment given by the class to the seniors.

Iron Mountain—The board of education has voted unanimously to re-engage L. E. Amidon as superintendent of schools for another year. Mr. Amidon has held the position for ten years and his re-election is pleasing to school patrons.

Hancock—A large delegation of Hancock council, Knights of Columbus, will go to Calumet by special car on the street railway on Monday evening next, to be present at the conferring of the first degree on a large class of candidates.

South Range—The exodus of foreigners to their home across the water has continued, and Tuesday a party consisting of seven Italians left this district for New York, whence they will take passage for Italy.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Madison—Charles Trask of this city will be compelled to give up his position as alderman of this city, the supreme court having affirmed the decision of the lower court in ousting him from office. The case is a peculiar one, and involves technicalities in the election law.

Milwaukee — Milwaukee vessel inspectors have reaffirmed their ruling of last season that all water craft propelled by machinery is amenable to the inspection law passed by congress in 1905. This means that motor boats must be equipped with lifesaving apparatus and lights, the same as steam vessels.

Oshkosh—The Winnebago Traction company will endeavor to get permission to build an extension of the Oshkosh-Omro Interurban line to Berlin. Col. H. I. Weed, attorney for the company, states that these extensions have been taken up by the stockholders and placed in the hands of a reorganizing committee.

Milwaukee—A party of Milwaukee railway men, It. M. Thayer, passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines; John A. Millington, freight department of the Wisconsin Central road, and Henry Berglinson, traveling agent of the same road, started Tuesday evening upon a ten days' pleasure trip to points in the state of Washington.

Madison—Edward Ellickson, a juror, was fined $5 and costs by Judge Stevens for holding a conversation with a man interested in the Wagner trial.

Ripon — Mrs. Isabella Hunter died Tuesday, aged 94 years. She was the last surviving member of the original Wisconsin Phalanx, and who came to Ripon in 1845.

Milwaukee—Benjamin H. Dally, associated with the Star Union Transportation line for the last twenty-five years, all of which time he has spent in Milwaukee, has accepted a position as division freight agent for the Vandalia railway, with headquarters at Logansport, Ind. He is at present the local agent for the Star Union line.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Minneapolis—M. H. Conley, a Great Northern engineer, was painfully injured near the Como shops Tuesday. While leaning out of his cab window he struck his head on a semaphore signal post. He was knocked unconscious and taken to his home, where he is said to be in a serious condition.

St. Paul—The remains of W. D. Trainer, the actor, who murdered Mrs. Prior and then shot himself Sunday morning at the Clarendon hotel, St. Paul, will be taken care of by the Elks lodge at Bakersville, Ky., of which the man was a member. The body will be sent to his home at West Union.

Little Falls—The State bank of Brainerd will soon be opened with a capital of $25,000. J. H. Guerin and E. A. Storck of Little Falls are the leading men in the movement, and men of means in Iowa and this part of Minnesota and Brainerd will be associated with them.

Grand Marais—The camp of C. J. Johnson, located inside the village and logging north of the town, has made a creditable showing at the landing on the bay front, many ties and much pulpwood being now in evidence.

Aitkin—H. H. Osterhout went to Duluth Monday to attend the silver wedding anniversary of the Rev. Dr. E. C. Clemans and wife.

St. Cloud—Clover seed has reached the price of $12 a bushel in the market at St. Cloud. The farmers are selling hundreds of bushels to the dealers.

Moorhead—The deadly "shaper," a wood-working machine at the Anderson foundry, claimed another victim Tuesday in the person of John Bjorkman. The thumb of his right hand, as well as the second finger, were badly lacerated, an dthere is grave danger that he will lose the thumb.

Aitkin—W. A. Tully will leave in a few days for White Earth, where he will resume his position as engineer in the government sawmill, which will soon start up.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Mandan, N. D.—Peter Cosgrove of Odense, Morton county, was in the city and reported that conditions were favorable for seeding, and that he had already seeded twenty-five acres to wheat.

Fargo, N. D.—The deal was consummated Tuesday afternoon by which George Pirie again becomes the lessee of Pirie's hall, the lease term of which is about to expire. The parties to the lease are J. B. Kessler of Edgeley, the present owner of the Hagaman block, and Mr. Pirie, and it is for a term of five years from date.

Hillsboro, N. D.—County politics are beginning to warm up. There are at present five candidates in the field for register of deeds.

Grand Forks, N. D.—President and Mrs. Webster Merrifield of the state university are expected to arrive home Monday from California, where they have been spending the winter months.

Bismarck, N. D.—Lee Mallard of Stewartsville brought his young son to town Monday and had him operated upon for appendicitis at the hospital, where he is resting nicely.

WHEAT HAS GOOD BULGE

Shorts Are Nervous and Market is Well Bought.

Flax is Up at the Close in the Duluth Market.

Duluth Board of Trade, April 2.—Shorts were nervous and bought the wheat well at the close today. Prices were up in all of the markets.

The colder weather seemed to be the chief bullish influence of the day and it proved sufficient to induce good covering by the shorts and a better demand from other interests.

Liverpool closed ¼@½d lower, Paris ¾@1c lower, Berlin ¾c higher and Budapest ⅝c lower.

The May option closed ⅞c higher in Duluth, 1¢ higher in Chicago, New York and Winnipeg and ⅜-½c higher in Minneapolis. The July option closed ⅝c higher in Duluth, ⅝c higher in Chicago, ⅝-1c higher in Minneapolis, ¾c higher in New York and ½c higher in Chicago.

May corn closed ⅝c lower in Chicago and ¼d lower in Liverpool. May oats closed ⅝c higher in Chicago.

Car receipts at Duluth were 49, against 145 last year, and at Minneapolis 168, against 264 last year, making a total for the Northwest of 217, against 449 last year. Chicago received 12, against 16 last year. Winnipeg received 104, against 100 last year.

Primary receipts of wheat were 382,000 bus., last year, 452,000 bus. Shipments, 240,000 bus., last year, 255,000 bus. Clearances of wheat and flour aggregated 22,000 bus.

Primary receipts of corn were 517,000 bus., last year, 688,000 bus. Shipments, 421,000 bus., last year, 415,000 bus. Clearances of corn were 3,000 bus.

Wheat was fairly active during the session in Duluth. May wheat opened ⅝c higher at $1.01⅜, declined to $1.01, rallied to $1.01⅜, declined to $1.00⅝, rallied to $1.01⅜ and closed there, a gain of ⅝c over yesterday. July wheat opened ⅝c higher at $1.02⅜, advanced to $1.02⅝, declined to $1.02⅜, rallied to $1.03 and closed at $1.02⅞, a gain of ⅝c over yesterday.

Durum wheat was ¼c up and cash spring wheat was selling on a basis of 2c over May for No. 1 northern.

Flax was quiet and firm. Closing prices showed fractional gains over yesterday. May flax opened ¼c higher at $1.15½, advanced to $1.16 and closed at that price, a gain of ¾c over yesterday. July flax opened ⅝c higher at $1.14¾, went to $1.15⅜ and closed there, a gain of ⅝c over yesterday.

Coarse grains were unchanged.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Cold Weather in Southwest and Small Receipts Makes Wheat Firm.

Chicago, April 2.—Cold weather in the Southwest and small Northwest receipts caused firmness in the local wheat market today. May opened ⅛c lower to ¼c higher at 92⅝c to 92¾c, sold at 92⅝@92¾c and later advanced to 93⅛c. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 229 cars against 207 cars last week and 465 cars a year ago.

The market was firm throughout the session, chiefly on reports of damage to the crop in Kansas and Nebraska. The high point for May was 93¼@93⅜c. The close was strong with May up ¼c at 93¼c.

Corn was dull and the market was steady. May opened unchanged to ⅛c lower at 66⅝c to 66¾c and sold off to 66c. Local receipts were 208 cars with 49 of contract grade.

Corn continued dull the entire day and tone was steady, prices being confined to a ¼c range. The close was steady with May ⅛c lower at 66⅛c.

Oats were very quiet and steady. May opened ¼c higher at 55¾c and sold at 55⅝c. Local receipts were 150 cars.

Provisions were quite active. The market opened weak on profit-taking, but soon rallied under buying by shorts, which was based on a 10c advance on live hogs. May pork opened 22½c lower at $13.50, and sold up to $13.62½. Lard opened 2½c to 5c lower at $8.45 and sold up to $8.47½. Ribs started 10@12½c lower at $7.22½ and sold at $7.30.

Close: Wheat—May, 93¼c; July, 85⅞c; September, 86⅝@⅞c. Corn—May, 66¼c; July, 64⅝c; September, 63½c. Oats—May, old, 55⅝c; May, 52¼c; July, old, 47⅜c; July, 45¼c; September, 38½@⅝c. Pork—May, $13.50; July, $13.87½; September, $14.27½. Lard—May, $8.40@8.42½; July, $8.67½; September, $8.85. Ribs—May, $7.22½; July, $7.55; September, $7.80. Rye—Cash, 70@67c. Barley—Cash, 70@84c. Timothy—April, $4.65; Clover—Cash, 24c. Cash wheat: No. 2 red, 94½@96¼c; No. 3 red, 92½@95¾c; No. 2 hard, 94½@$1.00½; No. 3 hard, 90¾@96c; No. 3 spring, 94c@$1.05; others nothing doing. Corn—No. 2, nothing doing; No. 3, 62¼c.

THE MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Winter Weather Checks Selling and Spring Wheat is Firmer.

Minneapolis, April 2.—Wintry weather with temperature 2 below zero in portions of North Dakota checked the selling that had been going on for some time in expectation of an early spring wheat was firmer. May was weak and July strong. The two options were 2¼c apart at the opening yesterday but today they sold only ⅛c apart before noon. The fact that local stocks show an increase of 100,000 bushels for five days in the face of light receipts made it look as if a shortage of wheat here, if one develops will be felt in July. Hence traders sold May and bought July. Receipts here were 168 cars against 304 in Duluth, 49 against 145. May opened $1.02⅝; high, $1.03¼; low, $1.02⅛; close: $1.03¼. July closed $1.02⅝@1.02¾. September closed 90⅜c.

For choice wheat there was good demand, but the off grade stuff was hard to sell. No. 1 northern was quoted ¼@1½c over May and No. 2 northern 1c under. Millers bought some. Close: No. 1 northern, $1.04⅜ spot or to arrive; No. 2 northern, $1.02@1.02⅜ spot; $1.02⅜ to arrive; No. 3 wheat, 94c@$1.

No. 3 yellow corn 61¾c.
No. 3 white oats, 49½@49¾c.
No. 2 rye, 70@71¾c.
Barley about the same as yesterday.

Not much good stuff received. Close, 65@78c.

Flour was quiet and unchanged with a fair domestic demand, but limited foreign inquiry. Shipments, 41,047 barrels. First patents, $5.25@5.40; second patents, $5.15@5.30; first clears, $4.15@4.25; second clears, $3.20@3.30.

New York Grain.

New York, April 2.—Close: Wheat—May, $1.02; July, 96¾c. Corn—May, 75⅝c; July, 73⅛c.

DECLINES IN STOCKS

Prices Opened Generally Lower, Advanced, But Fell Off Again.

Trading Was Slow and Market Closed Heavy and Dull.

New York, April 2.—The opening price movement of stocks showed some irregularity, but the issues with the largest speculative following were lower generally. Changes were narrow and the volume of dealings small. Canadian Pacific fell 1. Westinghouse Electric rose 2 and Great Northern preferred ⅝.

Selling orders increased in volume especially in the coal stocks and the grain carriers. Liberal sales of the copper stocks also contributed to the general depression. Erie second preferred dropped 2¾, the first preferred 1, United Railway & Investment preferred 2⅝, United States Rubber second preferred 2, St. Louis & San Francisco second preferred 1¾, Reading and Brooklyn Transit 1¾ and St. Paul, Southern Railway preferred, Iowa Central preferred and Colorado Fuel 1.

The market came almost to a standstill at a fractional recovery and operations became trivial. United States Realty rose 1, St. Louis & San Francisco second preferred fell 3 and Allis-Chalmers referred 1⅜. Bonds were steady.

The rapid bidding up of Consolidated Gas accelerated the improvement which was under way, but the general rise halted after the representative stocks had risen to yesterday's closing level.

Prices wavered slightly around the high level, with business much curtailed. New York Central advanced 1¼ and Third Avenue 1. Pacific Coast receded 4⅜ and Westinghouse Electric first preferred 3.

The market closed heavy and dull. The rise of 1⅜ in Union Pacific had a momentary effect on prices, but its rise was wiped out and prices elsewhere reacted. Canadian Pacific had risen 1¼ and C. C. C. & St. Louis, National Lead and United States Rubber 1. United States Rubber second preferred sold at a decline of 4, the first preferred 1 and Colorado & Southern second preferred 1¼.

Copper Gossip.

Boston to M. W. Lee & Co.: There has been no change in the local situation. The curb stocks that were listed today will be followed by others just as soon as their statements can be made. This will be the sole net result of the campaign in Yukon, which is slowly settling down to its proper level of valuation.

Boston to Walter W. W. Carr: There has been no change in the local situation. Greene Cananea is well spoken of and there has been significant buying recently. Shannon is also in an excellent technical position. They are looking for assessments on Allouez and Centennial, but if so it will simply mean that Calumet & Hecla does not care to lend the properties for development work at the present time.

St. Paul Livestock.

St. Paul, April 2.—Cattle—Receipts, 600; easy and unchanged. Hogs—Receipts, 2,200; 5c lower. Range, $5.85@6; bulk, $5.90. Sheep—Receipts, 1,000; 10@15c lower. Sheep, $5@6.50; lambs, $6.50@6.85.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., April 2.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: Trade was brisk in all classes. John Stone, Thompson, N. D.; Pierce Bros., Georgetown, Minn.; Nelson Davis, New Richmond, Wis., and O. E. Westerlund, Red Wing, Minn., were among the out-going shippers. Farm chunks and farm mares continue in active demand and today's sales show that the rural orders in that class were of large volume with a better class of offerings in demand. Dealers do not anticipate a spring advance in values as great as that in former years. Today's attendance of buyers was large, and among them were a large number of teamsters who were active bidders for draft teams, which they wanted and considerable competitive bidding developed, but the most keen bidding was among the dealers and farmers from the Northwest.

The Cotton Market.

New York, April 2.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of one point to an advance of three points, late months being relatively steady on predictions for cold weather while near months were easy. Shortly after the opening the general list sold off to a net less of 3@7 points. The market was quiet late in the forenoon with old crop months inclined to be easy and about 6@8 points net lower while new crop positions ruled steady and were a point or two net higher at mid-day on predictions for frost in some sections of the belt.

Spot closed quiet, 10 points lower; middling uplands, 10.40; middling gulf, 10.65; sales, 50 bales. Futures closed steady. Closing bids: April, 9.50; May, 9.58; June, 9.62; July, 9.66; August, 9.58; October, 9.55; December, 9.56; January, 9.58; March, 9.61.

The market came almost to a standstill at a fractional recovery and operations became trivial. United States Realty rose 1, St. Louis & San Francisco second preferred fell 3 and Allis-Chalmers referred 1⅜. Bonds were steady.

The rapid bidding up of Consolidated Gas accelerated the improvement which was under way, but the general rise halted after the representative stocks had risen to yesterday's closing level.

Prices wavered slightly around the high level, with business much curtailed. New York Central advanced 1¼ and Third Avenue 1. Pacific Coast receded 4⅜ and Westinghouse Electric first preferred 3.

The market closed heavy and dull. The rise of 1⅜ in Union Pacific had a momentary effect on prices, but its rise was wiped out and prices elsewhere reacted. Canadian Pacific had risen 1¼ and C. C. C. & St. Louis, National Lead and United States Rubber 1. United States Rubber second preferred sold at a decline of 4, the first preferred 1 and Colorado & Southern second preferred 1¼.

BEDE WANTS TO KNOW SENTIMENT

Of Northern Minnesota People on Free Wood Pulp.

Washington, April 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Congressman Bede has written a letter to H. V. Eva, secretary of the Duluth Commercial club, asking that he call a meeting of the public affairs committee of his organization to discuss and ascertain the sentiment in Northern Minnesota on the question of free wood pulp. It was suggested by Mr. Bede in his letter to Mr. Eva that the views of newspaper and other publishers be obtained as to the proposition of free wood pulp. It is not thought possible to get any action looking to charging tariff on any schedule, but members are priming themselves with information especially on wood pulp to spring at the opening of the next session, when it is expected tariff revision will be undertaken.

O. H. Simonds of Duluth, who has been in Washington several days, left last night for Buffalo en route home.

THREE WOMEN CLAIM

To be Widows of Deceased, and Seek His Estate.

Minneapolis, Minn., April2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Three women, each asserting that she is the widow of Willard P. McDonald, formerly a mining promoter here, are fighting over the disposition of McDonald's estate, and Judge Smith of probate court must decide which of the three was the legal wife of McDonald. If the story of the women is true McDonald, who was well known in Minneapolis, was a bigamist.

McDonald died Nov. 2, 1907. He had lived in Minneapolis and Excelsior since 1900, and operated extensively in mining stock.

McDonald's will, presented for probate after his death, provided that his entire estate should go to Rachel J. McDonald of Excelsior. In petitioning for the probate of the will, Mrs. Rachel McDonald said she was the widow.

In the will itself, drawn on a legal form, McDonald did not refer to her as his wife, and the printed words, "my wife," were crossed out.

The two women, who have filed notice of contest, declaring they are the widows, are Alice and Mattie McDonald of Arkansas. Mattie McDonald says she was Willard P. McDonald's wife and that she had children by him. Alice McDonald says that she married McDonald after the will was drawn, in 1898, and that she is entitled to his property, which is estimated at $10,000.

FOUR PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Hot Springs, S. D., April 2.—W. R. Ward, George Lewis, Robert Page and B. F. Eldridge of Edgemont, who have been confined in the county jail for the past month, charged with breaking into the station at Edgemont, S. D., have escaped from jail. The sheriff had two doors locked to keep them in, but they unlocked them and escaped. A previous attempt, two weeks ago, had been foiled, a lead key being taken from them then.

CONFERS WITH HIS HENCHMEN

Columbus, Ohio, April 2.—Secretary Taft arrived in Columbus today, the guest of the day, of the Columbus Board of Trade and guest of honor at the annual dinner to be given by the board of Memorial hall tonight.

Mr. Taft went into conference today with his manager, Mr. Corys and other politicians throughout Ohio. He declined to discuss the political situation saying he has been too busy to keep it well in hand.

All the members of the new state central committee, which is now a Taft organization, called upon him during the day. The committee meets here today. Mr. Taft will leave Columbus Friday morning for Chicago, where he speaks in the evening.

In regard to the business situation, Mr. Taft said:

"The effect of the recent business depression has been curious. It has affected the country, from what I can judge in traveling about, only in spots. Some parts of the country have not been affected at all.

"It would appear that this depression is not so general and will not be as long lasting as others have been."

FIRST SUGAR REFINER DEAD.

New York, April 2.—Said to have been the first refiner of sugar in the United States, Harmon Schroeder, a native of Germany, retired for thirty years after a successful business career in this city, is dead at his home here, aged 88 years.

STREET CARS.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

This company operates a street railway line in the city of Duluth between Third avenue east and the end of Rice's Point, and another street railway line in the city of Superior between Twenty-first street and the end of Connor's Point. These lines are separated by the waters of St. Louis bay, and are operated as two distinct and separate lines.

The public is hereby notified that this company does not, by undertaking to carry any passenger, or by accepting fare for such carriage, assume any responsibility beyond that of carrying such passenger safely between points on the above mentioned lines.

This company is not responsible for close connections, nor safe transportation, between the above mentioned lines by any ferryboat or other means of transportation. While the employes of this company have been instructed to keep themselves posted and give upon request all the information they can as to the probability of connections being made with other transportation lines, the company has no better means of foreseeing unexpected interruptions in the service of such lines, nor of telling how long such interruptions will continue, than the public has, and, therefore, cannot be responsible for notice of such interruptions.

Johnson to register the title to the following described real estate situated in St. Louis County, Minnesota, namely: Lots numbered One (1), Two (2), Three (3), Four (4), Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14), Fifteen (15) and Sixteen (16), all in Block numbered Seven (7), Chester Park Division of Duluth, according to the recorded plat thereof, on file in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for said St. Louis County, Minnesota, vs.
Applicants.
Thomas Tomling, Unknown heirs of S. Ferguson Brooks, deceased, Unknown heirs of Joseph Ridgly Brooks, deceased, and all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the application herein,
Defendants.
You are hereby summoned and required to answer the application of the applicants in the above entitled proceeding and to file your answer to the said application in the office of the clerk of said court, in said county, within twenty (20) days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of such service, and, if you fail to answer the said application within the time aforesaid, the applicants in this proceeding will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.
Witness, J. P. Johnson, clerk of said court, and the seal thereof, at Duluth, in said county, this 2nd day of April, A. D. 1908.

MEASURE TO BE AMENDED.

Washington, April 2.—The house committee on public lands has agreed to report out Congressman Volstead's bill providing for federal drainage of the ceded Indian lands in Minnesota which are under the jurisdiction of the federal government. The secretary of the interior recommends that the expense of draining be assessed against the lands, and that the patent be withheld until the amount is paid. But this does not suit the Northern Minnesota people, who have protested vigorously against the withdrawal of a certain area in the Red Lake reservation, where a survey for drainage has been made. Congressman Steenerson has introduced a bill providing for the releasing of these lands and opening them to settlement. It is quite probable that the Volstead bill will be amended so as to adjust the cost of drainage so as to make it collectable by the local county authorities.

JUVENILE COURT WORK

Will be Explained at West Duluth Mass Meeting.

Meeting is Part of a Movement for Branch Y. M. C. A.

A large attendance is expected at the mass meeting to be held tomorrow night in the Assembly hall of the Irving high school, West Duluth, under the auspices of the West Duluth W. C. T. U., when Judge J. D. Ensign will speak on the "Juvenile Court and Its Methods."

The meeting, though Judge Ensign's talk will deal principally with the work of the juvenile court and his hopes for a detention home at the Head of the Lakes, is indirectly in line with the movement that is on foot in West Duluth to build a branch Y. M. C. A. there.

The juvenile court is a subject with which but few are acquainted, and one which it is believed all parents, teachers and all who have children in their charge, should understand. Every one is invited to be present at the meeting, but especially the parents and teachers are urged to attend.

In addition to Judge Ensign's talk, Miss Mary V. Holmes of Riceville, Iowa, accompanied by Miss Blanche Mallory on the piano, will sing several selections. Miss Holmes' voice has been very much appreciated the few times she has sung in West Duluth.

S. A. Foster, the principal of the Irving school, will preside at the meeting and introduce Judge Ensign.

The following committee has the arrangements of the meeting in charge. Mrs. H. H. Phelps, Mrs. Alba Merritt and Mrs. W. F. Bailey.

The annual meeting of the Westminster Presbyterian church will be held this morning at the church. The reports of the officers will be read and there will be a program and refreshments.

William P. Roberts of Minneapolis, grand master of the Masons of Minnesota, with several other officers of the grand lodge, will be present at the meeting of the Euclid lodge, A. F. & A. M. Saturday night at the lodge rooms, 602 Central avenue. During the early part of the evening there will be degree work and later a banquet and speeches.

Capt. and Mrs. L. A. Anderson, under the names of "Daya Ratus" and "Jivi Bal" and dressed in Indian costumes, will give a talk on the life and costumes of the people of Ceylon Saturday night at the Salvation Army's rooms, 5507 Grand avenue. Capt. and Mrs. Anderson have lived in Ceylon and are well acquainted with the life there. They will also sing some native songs.

Watch repairing. Hurst, West Duluth.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.
Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. All druggists.

A BRITISH TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER IS CUT IN TWO DURING NIGHT MANEUVERS

Thirty-Six Men Lose Lives Off Isle of Wight.

Small Vessels Were in Midst of Attack on Larger Ones.

Cruiser Berwick Strikes Tiger and Sinks Her Instantly.

Portsmouth, Eng., April 3.—Thirty-six men, including Lieut. Middleton, the commander of the torpedo boat destroyer Tiger, lost their lives in the collision off the Isle of Wight, last night, between that vessel and the British cruiser Berwick. The vessels belong to the Portsmouth division of the British home fleet, and were engaged in night maneuvers in the channel, while on their way to Portland. The night was very dark, and the Berwick was steaming slowly. When the destroyer attempted to cross the big cruiser's bow she was caught midships and cut in half with knife-like precision, sinking almost immediately. The deck crew, who were dressed in heavy oilskins and boots, went down with the vessel, not having time to free themselves from their heavy incumbrances. Of the twenty-two who were rescued, most of them were engineers and stokers, who, having light clothing, were able to keep themselves afloat until boats from other ships, which were immediately launched, picked them up.

The collision occurred at 8:10 o'clock last night. The ships were maneuvering without lights. It is believed that many of the men were killed by the impact. Tugs were dispatched to the scene of the disaster at daylight today and divers will make an attempt to recover the bodies of the men who were drowned.

Were in Midst of Attack.

The smaller naval vessels were in the midst of an attack on their bigger consorts when the disaster occurred. The entire fleet was under masked lights, and in the absolute darkness the Tiger was suddenly struck square amidships by the Berwick. The sharp stem of this vessel, to use the words of an eye witness, cut the destroyer in two as if she had been made of paper. The forward half sank instantaneously and the sea became dotted with struggling men. Most of them, however, sank before help could reach them. The warships in the immediate vicinity quickly had their boats overboard and the scene of the tragedy was brilliantly illuminated by a concentration of searchlights. The after portion of the Tiger floated for a minute or two, just long enough to enable those on board to seize life belts. They threw themselves into the water and were able to keep afloat until picked up. Lieut. William E. Middleton was on the bridge at the time of the disaster and went down with the forepart of the ship. The Tiger had a complement of fifty-nine men and was of 400 tons.

CONTINENT NOT FOUND

Commander of Anglo-Polar Expedition Returns From North.

Traced the Continental Shelf in the Beaufort Sea.

Seattle, Wash., April 3.—Capt. E. Jnar Mikkelsen, who jointly commanded the Anglo-Polar expedition which sought to find an undiscovered continent in the Beaufort sea, arrived from the North yesterday on the Yucatan. Capt. Mikkelsen's vessel, the Duchess of Bedford, was lost in the ice pack near Flaxman island, a year ago.

Ernest De Koven Leffingwell, who, with Capt. Mikkelsen commanded the expedition, remained at Flaxman island to continue his scientific work. Capt. Mikkelsen started Oct. 16 from Flaxman island and made the journey along the northern shores of Alaska to Nome, arriving at the latter place Jan. 5. He left Nome with a companion Jan. 18 and journeyed with dog sledges up the Yukon river to Fort Gibbon, and came out by the way of Fairbanks and Valdez.

Capt. Mikkelsen's expedition traced the continental shelf in the Beaufort sea and ascertained that if land does lie beyond the sea, it is an independent continent. He has obtained informa-

VANDERBILT WILL GIVE $1,500,000

As Alimony and Make No Active Contest to Suit.

New York, April 3.—The principal question at issue in the Vanderbilt suit is said to be the amount of alimony to be paid Mrs. Vanderbilt. It is reported that Mr. Vanderbilt has consented to the payment of a lump sum of $1,500,000, and that if this is accepted as satisfactory his defense will be of a passive character, but that if it be rejected the action will be actively contested.

The ground upon which Mrs. Vanderbilt's suit is brought has not been made public. In that connection it is said that Mrs. Vanderbilt might have brought action for divorce in Rhode Island, where she was living, upon any one of several grounds. Any action for divorce in New York must be based on the statutory cause.

MITCHELL DECLINES OFFER OF PRESIDENT.

Washington, April 3.—John Mitchell former president of the United Mine Workers of America, called on President Roosevelt today, and on leaving the White House said that the president had offered him the position of special commissioner to study and report upon labor conditions on the Panama canal zone. Mr. Mitchell said he was not able to accept the offer, as it was necessary for him to recover his health before he could take up work of any kind. He said that he had no plans, everything being dependent upon his health

ESCAPE IN NIGHT CLOTHING.

Brainerd, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. Berthaker and Leonard and Kirk Smith had a narrow escape from perishing in the fire that destroyed the home of James Smith here Wednesday night, managing after being aroused to escape in their night clothing. The house was destroyed, the loss being about $3,000 with $1,000 insurance

TOBACCO FOR NEW BABOON

"Handsome Harry" Contented With a Chew of the Weed.

New York, April 3.—A liberal allowance of chewing tobacco is likely to be included in the daily rations of a new baboon freshly arrived at the Bronx menagerie from South Africa, and immediately christened by the keepers "Handsome Harry." When Harry, who is a rare hamadryas baboon, reached the zoo, Dr. W. Reed Blair, veterinary physician there, consigned him to a large cage in the monkey house. The baboon immediately began to make trouble. He dashed himself against the bars and the best efforts of the keepers could not make him subside. He disdained offerings of sugar, peanuts and other dainties and was growing more and more violent when he suddenly paused, threw a huge paw around Frank E. Berhardt, one of the keepers, who was trying to soothe him and fishing from the keeper's coat pocket a bag of chewing tobacco, thrust it into his mouth and retired into a corner of the cage, apparently in supreme content. There was no more trouble with him after that and Dr. Blair concluded that the baboon got the habit from the sailors on the voyage from Africa. Hereafter a portion of chewing tobacco will be served with Harry's meals.

THE MILK DRIVERS WILL NOT STRIKE.

Chicago, April 3.—There will be no strike of milk wagon drivers. The differences between the milk dealers and the drivers were settled last night, when the dealers, in a final peace conference, offered a flat $1 a week increase in the basic rate of wages, instead of their first offer, $1 and $2 on a commission basis.

The drivers, who had demanded a flat $3 a week raise, accepted the compromise concession. They felt it was better to accept the additional $1 a week than to risk losing everything through a strike, of doubtful possibilities at best.

THIRD TIME THIS SPRING

Ohio River Goes Above Flood Stage at Cincinnati.

It Promises to be the Worst in Many Years.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 3.—For the third time in six weeks, the Ohio river, at this point, has gone above flood stage, the result of heavy rains, and this third spring flood of the present season promises to be one of the worst in many years. The water reached 53.7 feet at 7 o'clock this morning, a stage which ordinarily compels the abandonment of the Grand Central passenger station, but the railroads were still able to use the tracks at that hour and were hopeful that they might continue to do so.

GENERAL STRIKE IS ON AT ROME

Whole Garrison of City in Readiness to Prevent Disorders.

Rome, April 3.—A general strike has been proclaimed as a protest against the fatalities in connection with disorders on the streets here yesterday, when the troops fired on and killed three rioters and wounded fifteen others, four of whom were mortally injured. The strike so far has not been very successful, especially in the center of the city. Most of the shops art open, although shutters have been put up on the buildings as a protection against possible riots.

The government has taken energetic measures to restore order. The whole garrison of the city is being kept in readiness. Several demonstrations had been formed throughout the day, but these were rapidly broken up by the troops who, with fixed bayonets, charged upon the disturbers and forced them to disperse. Seventy anarchist, who had gathered at their headquarters, were surrounded by troops and taken into custody.

By noon the movement had become more general. The drivers of the mail wagons used to collect from the pillar boxes, refused to continue and were at once replaced by soldiers. The wagons are being escorted by cavalry. One of the men injured yesterday died today.

GAINES RENOMINATED.

Charleston, W. Va., April 3.—At Hinton, late yesterday, the Republicans of the Third district unanimously renominated Joseph Holt Gaines for his fifth term in congress. C. C. Beury of Fayette county and William S. Edwards of Charleston were elected district delegates to the Chicago convention and instructed to support Taft for the presidential nomination.

NAVAL MEN EMPLOYED BY SUBMARINE FIRM WHILE UNDER GOVERNMENT PAY

JAMES E. WATSON,
Nominated by the Republicans of Indiana as Their Candidate for Governor.

Lilley Presents Affidavits to Substantiate His Charges.

Chief Electrician of Navy Served on Board of Submarines.

Statement From Lake Contradicts Evidence of Charles Ferry.

Washington, April 3.—Representative Lilley of Connecticut, author of the resolution under which the special committee of the house is investigating charges against the Electric Boat company, placed today in evidence an affidavit, dated March 12, and signed by Carl Foster, residing in Bridgeport, Conn. Foster swore that during the fall and winter of 1902 he served in the United States navy in the capacity of chief electrician, and that during that time he served upon several submarine torpedo boats owned by either the Holland Torpedo Boat company or its successor, the Electric Boat company, and none of which were owned by the United States government, and that many of the crews of these submarine torpedo boats were sailors in the United States navy receiving pay from the United States government, and in addition thereto, received wages from the Holland Torpedo Boat company.

This statement was offered in substantiation of Mr. Lilly's charges that the Electric Boat company had paid money to enlisted men. Mr. Lilley also presented an affidavit from John C. Lake, vice president of the Lake Torpedo Boat company, dated Bridgeport, Conn., March 16, to the effect that about two years ago he had an interview with Charles Ferry, a representative of the Bridgeport company, in which Ferry told him that President Bowles of the Fore River Shipbuilding Engine company had asked him (Ferry) to use all influence possible upon a Connecticut congressman to induce him not to use his influence in favor of the Lake company, but to use it in favor of the Electric Boat company; if he was successful in this the Fore River company would make contracts with the Bridgeport Brass company for goods to the value of about $100,000.

Mr. Ferry, in his testimony before the committee Wednesday, denied that President Bowles had made him any such a proposition or that he had ever promised him an order for seeing any one.

DEATH OF DOG

Causes Millville, N. J., Woman to End Her Life.

Millville, N. J., April 3.—Brooding over the death of a pet dog, Mrs. Hannah Willis threw herself into the Richmond mill pond, near her home, today, and was drowned.

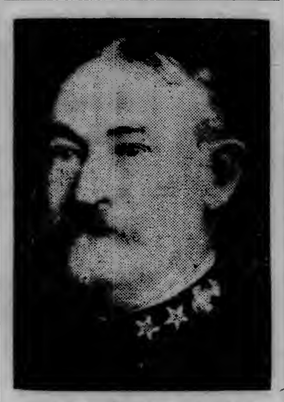

Several weeks ago, while Mrs. Willis' was crossing the railroad track, an electric train struck and killed her pet. The shock so unnerved her that her physician feared for her reason.

BIG LOANS MADE BY THE GERMANS

Have Borrowed $250,000,000 at High Rate This Year.

London, April 3.—The news given out yesterday of the new German and Prussian loans, amounting to $162,500,000, came as a surprise to London, and has resulted in much discussion, and even in the expression of some distrust of the financial position of Germany. That loans amounting to $250,000,000 already have been found necessary this year, and that these loans are keeping pace with the greatly increased naval expenses of Germany. Investors British financiers and the British public keenly, and some people are of the opinion that this financial activity shows a tendency ultimately towards war. Others, however, believe that these German loans provide a safeguard against war. Financiers here have realized that the naval undertakings of Germany, the Prussian plan for expropriating the land of the Poles, and the project of extending the state railroads, might require the raising of a loan within a year, but it was not expected that the government would borrow so much in time of peace, or find it necessary to pay such a high rate of interest. Four per cent is a higher rate than Germany has been compelled to pay in more than twenty years. It is believed that little English capital will be invested in these loans, and that the English market will only be indirectly affected.

REAR ADMIRAL THOMAS,
Who Has Hoisted the Blue Flag of Command on the Minnesota and Taken Full Charge of the Battleship Squadron.

First Clash of Day Comes on Permanent Organization.

The Report of Committee Making Honnecker Chairman, Adopted.

Much Argument Expected on Money and Trust Planks.

St. Louis, April 3.—The first clash of the day in the Populist convention came on the report of the committee on permanent organization, which recommended that George A. Honnecker of New Jersey be made permanent chairman. W. B. Jones of Nebraska moved as a substitute to the report that the temporary organization be made permanent. Mr. Coxey asked that the motion be withdrawn, saying that he desired to divide the honors with the East. Mr. Jones declined to withdraw and the convention worked itself into a parliamentary tangle, which was ended by a roll call on the adoption of the substitute.

The calling of the roll developed that the state of Montana was represented by a resident of St. Louis, but who "called Montana his home." His vote was promptly challenged by W. B. Jones, who claimed that the Montana representative was not accepted by the committee on credentials and could therefore take no part in the convention. Nebraska was voted down and the Missouri man cast the vote of Montana.

The substitute was lost by a vote of 486 to 281. The original motion was adopted and Mr. Honnecker was elected permanent chairman.

Tibbles Objected.

The report of the committee on resolutions was read by J. A. Parker of Kentucky, and on a motion to adopt, F. H. Tibbles of Nebraska objected, saying the more important part of the plank adopted by the committee last night was omitted.

Mr. Parker, in explaining, said that at a subsequent meeting of the committee, the plank of money had been materially modified. Mr. Tibbles charged that it was done without the knowledge of the committee on resolutions. There was much confusion in the convention, and many delegates were clamoring for recognition. Mr. Tibbles, still trying to gain the attention of the chairman, became engaged in a heated colloquy with that individual. Tibbles insisted he had the floor and asked the chair that he be permitted to speak. "I cannot furnish you

GREAT TEST FOR IOWAN

Frank Gotch is Given Even Chance With "Russian Lion."

Immense Crowd to See Wrestling Match for World's Title.

Chicago, April 3.—The largest crowd ever attracted by a similar event in Chicago is expected to gather tonight at Dexter pavilion to witness the match between George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," champion wrestler of the world, and Frank Gotch of Iowa, the champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler of America. The match will be for the world's title. The best two in three falls will decide the struggle, and the only hold barred will be the deadly strangle.

Gotch was regarded today by bettors and critics as having about an even chance to take the title from Hackenschmidt, and it was argued that if Hackenschmidt wins he must win quickly. If he does not get the first fall inside of thirty minutes, it was contended, Gotch's power of endurance is likely to win the match for him.

Danger in Head Hold.

Gotch's chief danger, it was said, lies in the famous head hold of the foreigner. This hold, Hackenschmidt claims, is equal to or even better than the painful toe hold on which Gotch will rely for the victory. It is a lock with fingers clinched over the top of the head, and with a man as powerful as Hackenschmidt, it is said to be even more effective than the famous strangle hold, barred on account of its injurious effects. Hackenschmidt is said to have practiced this new hold, together with a defensive on the toe hold, Gotch's favorite grip. Both men have been in training at local clubs for the past ten days, and will enter the ring in excellent condition.

NEARLY PERISH FROM EXPOSURE

Lightkeeper and Wife Drift About All Night.

Newport, L. I., April 3.—After they had drifted about Long Island Sound all night in an open launch, which had been broken down, John J. Cook and his wife were picked up, early today, by members of the Eaton's Neck life-saving crew. Both had nearly perished from exposure.

Cook, who is keeper of the lighthouse at Stamford, Conn., was taking his wife from the mainland, where she had been sick for two weeks, to the lighthouse, when the launch was disabled and drifted upon the rocks. In pushing the boat off, Cook broke his only oar.

The light at Stamford lighthouse was kept going all night by Mrs. Cook's aged mother.

SPIRIT COMMUNICATION

Caused St. Louis Fortune Teller to End Her Life.

St. Louis, Mo., April 3.—The body of Mrs. Elizabeth Highfill, 52 years old, a fortune telling medium, was found in an artificial lake in Lafayette park this morning, she having committed suicide by drowning during the night. Yesterday Mrs. Highfill told several of her friends that she had a communication from the spirit world to the effect that she would die in poverty unless she took her own life. They thought she was joking and did not take the matter seriously even after she drew up a will and had William Gummersheimer sign it as a witness. After dinner with friends last night she apparently started home, but instead went directly to Lafayette park and threw herself into the lake.

BIG DISTILLERY IS IN FLAMES

Corning & Co.'s Plant at Peoria, Ill., is Burning.

Peoria, Ill., April 3.—The fire which broke out in the mill at Corning & Co.'s distillery, at 1:45 this morning, is still raging and from present indications the entire plant, including the two immense bonded warehousse, elevator, cattle yards and storehouses will be entirely wiped out.

Several explosions occurred during the progress of the fire and endangered the lives of the firemen, but so far no fatalities have been reported. In one of these explosions, 50,000 gallons of spirits in the still plant were consumed. A stampede of 3,000 head of cattle occurred after the first explosion, and they are now running at large in the railroad yards.

It is impossible at this time to place the origin of the fire, but the watchman claims it started in the top of the mill.

The damage so far is placed between $750,000 and $1,000,000.

MICHIGAN SECOND

Bay City, Mich., April 3.—Michigan holds second place in the production of beet sugar in the United States, according to statistics collected by the National Farmer, a publication of this city.

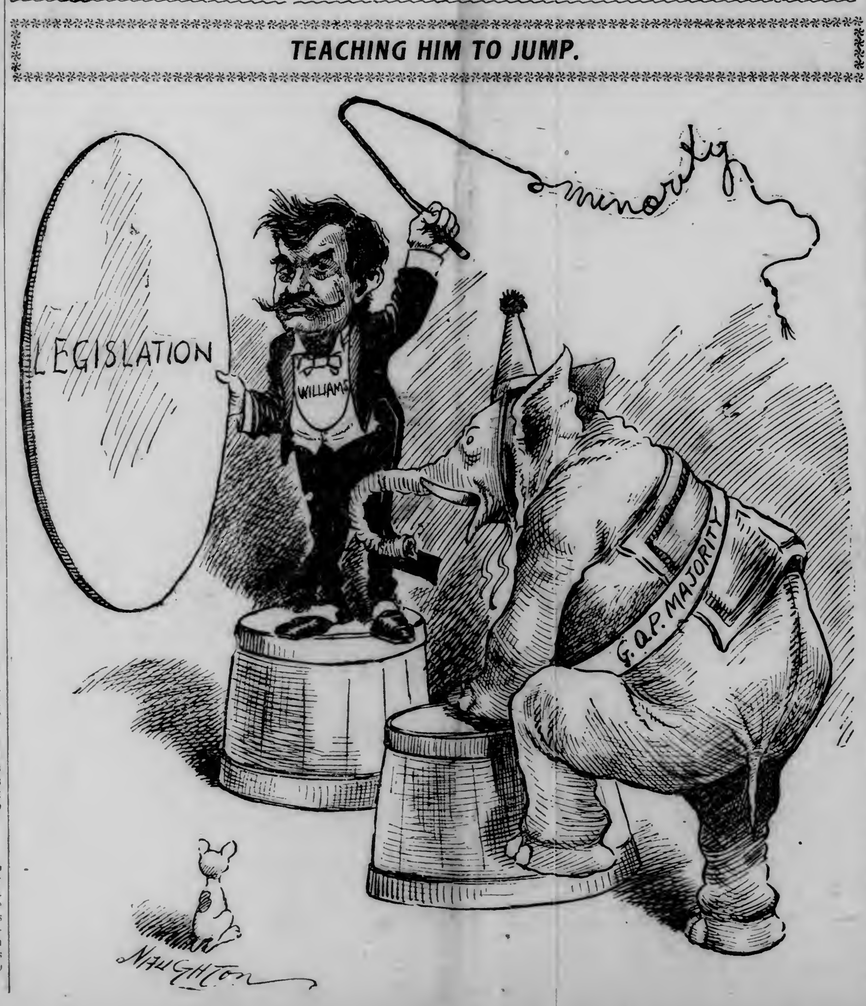

Sixteen factories were operated in Michigan in 1907, producing 165,000,000 pounds of sugar, or 84,000 tons, falling short of the product of the preceding year 22,000 pounds, due to unfavorable climatic conditions early last year.

Ninety-four thousand acres were planted to beets last year, and farmers received $4,500,000 for their crops. Colorado led the country, with 422,732,530 pounds of sugar from 138,366 acres; California was third, with 164,000,000 pounds of sugar, and Utah produced 100,000,000 pounds. Beet sugar production for 1907 in the United States was 410,000 long tons, compared with 435,010 long tons in 1906.

THE BEST REASON

Having just what you want at the price you want to pay, and the greatest line of Fashionable Spring Clothes in Duluth to choose from, are both good reasons for asking your patronage—we've many more good reasons—but probably the best among them, is that we are just as eager to give you what you want, as you are to get it—that means a whole lot to men who don't want to be "talked out" of their clothes notions.

Beautifully Tailored Suits

Fashionable fabrics are not enough this spring—there are so many "kinks of fashion" in the new models that ordinary tailoring methods are helpless. It takes a master workman to build a suit that is right this spring. Ours are all made by men who know and practice fine tailoring—yet our prices are no more than most stores charge for the commonplace kind—with English words to express yourself," said the chairman.

"I cannot furnish you with a set of brains to preside over this convention," hotly retorted Mr. Tibbles.

After considerable wrangling, Mr. Tibbles went to the platform and read that part of the platform that he said had been omitted from the original draft.

A motion to incorporate the resolution advocated by Mr. Tibbles in the platform was made, and was laid on the table by a vote of 462 to 307.

By another vote the motion was taken from the table and submitted to a special committee, which was ordered to report at the afternoon session.

Platform Completed.

St. Louis, April 3.—The platform to be submitted to the Populist convention was completed at daylight after an all-night session of the committee on resolutions. Much consideration was given to the money plank, and when finally accepted by a majority of the committee it was not satisfactory to the minority and a fight over its phraseology on the floor of the convention was certain. A debate was also exepected on the trust plank.

As prepared by the committee this plank declared that the issuing of money is a function of the government alone that should not be delegated to any corporation or individual. The demand is made that money be issued direct to the people without the intervention of banks and be a full legal tender for all debts, public and private. The working of the national banking law is criticised and the demand made that the power to issue money be taken from the banks. The Aldrich bil is denounced as "a method by which the nation and the people can be both robbed. It has not in it an intelligent purpose that is honest."

The Fowler bill is also denounced.

The plank on trusts demands that the government own and control the railroads and all public utilities which in their nature are monopolies.

Ownership of the general telegraph and telephone lines and a parcels post were also asked. The taxation of monopoly privileges while they remain in private hands is another feature of this plank.

Other planks submitted favored the initiative and referendum and the referendum to recall from office disloyal or inefficient representaties.

The enactment of legislation looking to the improvement of conditions for wage earners.

Abolition of child labor and suppression of sweat shops.

Abolition of convict, as opposed to free labor.

Exclusion from American shores of foreign pauper labor.

Eight-hour work day and legislation in favor of safety appliances for working men.

Enactment of an employers' liability act, within constitutional bounds.

Work on public improvements in times of depression for unemployed men.

tion concerning ocean currents which will be invaluable to him when he makes his next attempt to attain the unknown continent.

Improvised a Raft.

Capt. Mikkelsen made use of a new idea in Polar travel, by which he was able to save ninety pounds weight on his sledges. In the tedious march over the ice hummocks, the party frequently came upon water. Capt. Mikkelsen had none of the native kayakas, of which Dr. Nansen made such good use, but instead, he made his boats when the occasion arose. He strapped a waterproof tarpaulin beneath his sledges and improvised a raft which floated.

The sledge expedition went further into the unexplored Beaufort sea than had been planned by the Royal Geographical society of London, and the American Geographical society of New York, which directed the expedition. They found the continental shelf, and had learned that beyond this shelf there was water of great depth. It was ascertained that the Beaufort sea was not a shallow basin, as had been supposed.

The journey north was approximately along the 149th Meridian. Soundings were taken occasionally. At a distance of sixty-four miles from land they were unable to touch bottom with a 320-fathom line. This indicates that the continental shelf had been passed, and one of their objects had been accomplished. They continued the journey until they crossed the 72nd parallel, when the ice conditions prevented further travel. The return journey was made under the most trying conditions. They landed near Cape Halket, May 6.

GREAT BENEFIT TO THE WORKERS

Is Splendid Series of Imperial Insurance Laws in Germany.

Berlin, April 3.—Nothing in the social legislation of the past thirty years has given more satisfaction to Germans than the splendid series of imperial insurance laws covering accidents, sickness, invalidity and old age. As the late president of the imperial insurance department, Dr. Bodiker, used to say, they form a corona of legislative enactments which will redound to the glory of the new German empire for more than her greatest military achievements.

It was the old Emperor William I who initiated this work of conciliation and social reform. Toward the close of 1881 he sent a rescript to Prince Bismarck, solemnly stating that it was his imperial duty to impress upon the reichstag the necessity of furthering the welfare of the working classes.

"The Lord," said the pious old kaiser, "has blessed our reign, and we would be happy if we could carry with us to the grave the consciousness of having given our country an additional and lasting assurance of internal peace and the conviction that we have rendered to the needy that assistance to which they were justly entitled."

Urges Invalidity Pension.

The kaiser then mentions insurance against industrial accidents and sick relief insurance, and winds up with this reference to old age and invalidity.

"Those who are disabled in consequence of old age or invalidity possess a well-founded claim to a more maple relief on the part of the state than they have hitherto enjoyed. To devise the fittest ways and means for making such provision, however difficult, is one of the highest obligations of every community based on the moral foundations of Christianity."

It is important to note that this vast scheme gives the workman a due and just provision as a legal right, in order that he may not be compelled to rely on public charity.

The old-age and invalidity law of Germany as it now stands has been in force since 1899. Two-thirds of the wage-earning people of Germany are insured against sickness, and one-third of the cost of this is compulsorily borne by the employers; and in the case of old age and invalidity, thirteen out of sixteen wage-earning work people have a right to a small pension in case of permanent incapacity, or on reaching the age of 70. The pensions are small, but, added to other means of livelihood, they make all the difference between a pinched existence and absolute starvation, and these pensions can be claimed as a right and not as a charity.

Insurance Is Compulsory.

It is intended to secure to persons working for wages or salary a legal provision in cases not covered by the sickness and accident insurance laws. The essence of the law is compulsion. All wage-earners over 16, no matter what their trade is, including servants and apprentices, are subject to compulsory insurance. Officials of the empire and of the various states are exempt from compulsion. So are teachers at public schools and two or three other unimportant classes of the population, whose compulsion could not very well be carried through. Women who marry, survivors of insured persons who die before the annuity becomes attainable, and two or three other classes have a right to the recovery of contributions.

The old-age pension, to be granted, does not require evidence of disability to work. It is granted to every one who has completed the 70th year of his or her age, the waiting time being necessarily longer. There are a number of most intricate provisions regulating procedure. These regulations are not hard on the contributors, and are usually construed in a spirit which is liberal and kindly to the contributors.

Mohall, N. D., April 3.—The Renville County club held a very important meeting here, at which the plans for the future work of the organization were laid. SCHOOL OF RELIGION

Without Sectarianism Proposed for University of Michigan.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 3.—A school of religion to be located here, in connection with the University of Michigan and to present the study of religion without sectarianism or even the giving of favored place to christianity was advocated yesterday by Prof. Robert M. Wenley of the department of philosophy of the University of Michigan. Prof. Wenley was addressing an interdenominational conference of church and guild workers of this state. Prof. Wenley said that christianity should only be studied in such a school along with the religions of the Oriental, savage and primitive races.

Bishop Charles D. Williams of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan, addressing the conference, said that there was no reason why religion could not be studied impartially, just the same as medicine or law, and there was no reason why the state could not support such a school of religion. Bishop Williams characterized theological seminaries as dehumanizing and said that they gave about the worst possible preparation for the ministry or anything else.

The delegates agreed that the university should have a school of religion, and an executive committee was appointed to prepare plans for a permanent organization of the conference.

CLASSED AS FOODSTUFFS.

Odor of Elderberries Does Not Exclude Them, Say Appraisers.

New York, April 3.—In a decision on an importer's protest, the board of appraisers defend the humble elderberry, domestic and foreign, from the insinuation that its odor renders it unfit for human consumption. In its opinion, written by Judge Waite, the board declares that elderberries are just as worthy as limburger cheese. The report says:

"Considerable stress seems to be laid upon the fact that the berries have an unpleasant odor. The question of odor is largely a matter of personal taste, and that characteristic would not exclude the berries from classification as edible fruits any more than the smell of limburger cheese would exclude it from the list of foodstuffs. The evidence shows that the berries are known as edible fruit.'

The importers claimed the berries should be imported free as fit only for dye stuffs, but the decision orders that the regular duty on foodstuffs must be paid.

GREEN BAY TO HAVE A NEW PAPER MILL.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 3.—An Evening Wisconsin special from Green Bay, Wis., says: The Green Bay Paper & Fiber company is to increase its capital stock from $150,000 to $200,000, and will build a $100,000 paper mill in connection with its sulphite plant. The mill will have a capacity of fifteen tons of paper daily, and other machines will be installed later which will increase its capacity to thirty tons. All of the sulphite manufactured will be used at that time. The company will employ 150 people when it has completed the mill.

HILL ASSURED

Paris, April 3.—Dr. and Mrs. David Jayne Hill met the Prince and Princess Radolin at the reception given by Ambassador White yesterday afternoon. Dr. Hill is the ambassador designate of the United States to Germany, and Prince Radolin is the German ambassador to France.

Both the prince and princess manifested particular cordiality to Dr. Hill the prince conversing with him for fifteen minutes, and assuring him that the reception accorded him in Berlin would be all the warmer on acount of the unfortunate incident of his acceptability at the German court.

Dr. and Mrs. Hill will return to The Hague, where Mr. Hill is American minister, on Monday next. Dr. Hill has heard nothing of the Washington report that he is to replace Whitelaw Reid as American ambassador to Great Britain, and he does not credit the rumor.

CHARGES AGAINST INDIAN AGENTS

Mrs. Grey Says Red Men Were Forced to Eat Bad Meat.

Washington, April 3.—Mrs. Helen Pierce Grey, the newspaper writer arrested last summer because of her connection with the protests of Crow Indians against the manner in which the government agents managed the Crow reservation, resumed her statements yesterday before the senate committee on Indian affairs.

She charged that to keep from starving, the Indians were compelled to eat the meat of diseased cattle and sheep; that they were frequently thrown into jail without cause and kept at the mercy of the agents; that the children of the government reservation school were mistreated. She stated positively that all of these things must have been done with the knowledge of officials at Washington.

Another interesting chapter was added also to her account of her own experiences as an investigator. That some of the members of the committee were impressed by the character of the charges which Mrs. Grey said were susceptible of proof was evidenced from cross-examination. It is not unlikely that a general investigation will be ordered.

TO PLACE AIRSHIP STATION.

Germany Will Maintain Military Balloons on French Border.

Berlin, April 3.—The German military authorities have decided to establish a station for military airships at Metz, in South Germany, a distance of not quite ten miles from the French frontier.

Germany is only following the lead of the French war office, which some time ago established a similar station at Verdun, twenty miles from the Franco-German frontier. The ill-fated Patrie began her famous flight from Verdun, and the airship Ville de Paris is now stationed there, and will remain there until the new French airship, La Republique, is ready to take her place. There is no reason to believe that the station at Metz is intended to be the first of a chain of stations for military airships along the German frontiers.

WE stand ready to supply the entire family with stylish Spring Clothing on easy payments of $1.00 a week, and you don't have to pay a penny more than the cash stores ask.

UNION MEN NOT AT WORK

Seven Hundred of Them Now Receiving Lockout Benefits.

Fight Still Continues With No Sign of Settlement.

While it is claimed that nearly as many men are now employed in the building trades in Duluth as last year at this time, the number of union men working is less than half what it was at the beginning of April, 1907. This is due, of course, to the fight for the open shop. Possibly 40 per cent of union building tradesmen are employed while the 60 per cent of laborers between that mark and the normal is made up of men working along open shop lines, almost all of whom have been brought into the city from outside points, and who are boarding here.

Lockout benefits are still being paid to 700 men. The carpenters have a bigger percentage of men receiving benefits than any other union, because there are more carpenters affected than any other trade.

The painters, decorators and paperhangers are faring better just now in Duluth than any other union in this line of work, for they have been able to pick up numerous odd jobs, without having to depend upon the bosses for them. They are thus independent and working for themselves. It is estimated that 70 per cent of the men in this organization are now regularly employed.

The carpenters have not been so fortunate in securing work along union lines, but it is estimated that perhaps 40 per cent of them are employed under conditions that do not infringe upon union principles. The electrical workers, sheet metal workers, tinners, plumbers, etc., also have a certain number of men working, but the percentage will average even lower than the carpenters, it is said.

To a disinterested person it does not look as if there was any immediate prospect of a settlement of existing difficulties, and matters do not seem to be any farther along in this respect than they have been for the last two or three months. Union leaders are still hoping that the rush of spring work will make it necessary for the contractors to go back to the union shop, but the contractors assert this will not be necessary, for they say they can import all the skilled workmen they need from other cities.

He Got What He Neeeed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c.

RICHEST DUKE IS COMING HERE

Hunting Trip in Rockies for Westminster's Young Lord.

London, April 3.—The duke and duchess of Westminster are going to America the coming summer to spend a long vacation. Just what their plans are no one seems to understand. It is, of course, no more than probable that the richest peer and peeress in England will receive more than ordinary social attention in America, but it is evident that the duke and duchess will also spend considerable time in traveling and sightseeing on the Western continent.

The duke has signified his intention of taking a hunting trip in the Rockies, but whether or not the duchess will accompany him into the wilds is not given out. The duke is a follower of all sorts of outdoor sports, to which his unlimited wealth has made his complete devotion possible. He is only 29 years old and his beautiful duchess is at least two years his senior.

The duchess is the younger daughter of a once famous beauty, Mrs. W. Cornwallis West, and is a sister of the princess of Pless. In all England she is accounted one of the most beautiful of the duchesses. Her marriage to the wealthy young duke, whose fortune is based largely on his holdings of 600 acres in the very heart of London, was a romantic one. The most valuable part of these holdings fronts on Park Lane, and the plot of ground on which is situated the duke's London home, Grosvenor house, is valued in excess of $5,000,000. In addition the duke owns more than 20,000 acres in other parts of England and Scotland, and it is estimated that by the time his young son reaches his majority the estate will be yielding an income of $5,000 a day.

When the young duke of Westminster met Miss Lelagh West on a hunting trip in Ireland, he was not yet of age. When his attentions to the young woman became noteworthy, her elder sister, the princess of Pless, interposed objections which stirred up strife and caused the duke to be sent to South Africa as an officer of the British army. Distance and time, however, failed to achieve a severing of the ties, and when the duke became of age he left the army and married the beautiful woman who has reigned over his household with distinction and success.

Of late rumors to the effect that the Grosvenors (for such is their name) were not entirely happy in their marital relations were circulated, but there seems to have been not the slightest foundation for the stories. Only a short time since the duke was slightly injured while hunting and the duchess hurried home from France with all speed to nurse him. Her attention was so unnecessary that it was remarked.

At Eaton hall, in Chester, the $12,000,000 estate of the duke and one of the finest country places in England, the duke and his wife have entertained royalty on several occasions and are wont to live in the most lavish fashion.

SACRIFICE BY WILSON

That Permitted Grant to End Career as Army Officer.

Incident is Recalled by Father of Special Delivery System.

FROM THE HERALD WASHINGTON BUREAU.

Washington, April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles R. Skinner of the appraisers force of the city of New York was here a day or two ago. Mr. Skinner was at one time a member of congress from one of the northern districts of New York state. During his term he introduced and pushed to passage the bill to establish the special delivery system, which has proved of such great value to the mail-using public. Mr. Skinner is known as the father of the special delivery. "The bill was passed in the house during the last day of the last session of the Forty-sixth congress," said Mr. Skinner in commenting upon the enactment of the law, "and I believe the wisdom of its enactment has been very clearly demonstrated in the last twenty years. But I shall never forget that last night of the last session of the Forty-eight congress which brought my congressional career to an end and saw the enactment of the special delivery law," said Mr. Skinner, "and it is neither of those incidents which stamped the date on my memory. There was a contested election case pending, that of Frederick against Wilson. It had been a bitter political fight, and Wilson's supporters could have won out by hanging on to their parliamentary guns for a few hours longer. But there was pending a bill to restore U. S. Grant to the army and to place him on the retired list as a general. If Wilson's supporters had insisted upon his right, the Grant bill would have died with the session. Wilson called his friends off, sacrificed himself for the old hero and made it possible for U. S. Grant to end his career as an officer in the army for which he had done so much. That 'Jim' Wilson has been for nearly twelve years past the secretary of agriculture, and if my memory does not deceive me he holds the record for long service in the cabinet of any president."

The historic old structure made famous in the Civil war, known as the Baltimore & Ohio "depot" has finally been razed. Today nothing but a pile of debris marks the place where the station stood and within a very weeks the depression in which the rails of the Baltimore & Ohio were laid will have been filled in and for the first time in half a century it will be possible to walk or drive directly from the capitol to the government printing office along North Capitol street. On the other hand the old Pennsylvania station, made memorable by the bullet of Guiteau which felled a president on the 2nd af July, 1881, still stands and will be permitted to remain as it is for some time. The station building will, it is understood, be turned into a storage warehouse for government use until the plans for the beautification of the Capital city are perfected. But the tracks running into the building have all been removed and the structure itself looks like a deserted mansion. Some day the parking commission plans will be carried out and the "Mall" which was occupied by the railroad, in part, for a third of a century, will be restored to its original purpose—a portion of the great park system designed by George Washington.

"One of the most beautiful ceremonies which I ever attended," said Senator Smoot of Utah, "was the celebration of the Persian New Year at the residence of the Persian minister on March 21. The people of Persia," continued the Senator, "date the beginning of their new year from the hour when the sun crosses the line and enters the vernal equinox—that being in their philosophy the time for the beginning of spring, the beginning of life and the beginning of the New Year. The idea was carried out most beautifully with seeds, buds and flowers and the guests of the Persian minister have cause to remember one of the prettiest and most impressive celebrations that any of us ever saw. It was unique and beautiful and every guest enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent.

One of the most brilliant men who ever came out of Virginia was John S. Wise. He is of the "old stock" of Virginia gentlemen, but, unlike most of the members of the family, John S., is a Republican in politics. Today he is a resident of New York city, where he has a lucrative law practice. Occasionally he runs over to Washington to look after business, to renew old acquaintances and to indulge in an "Old Dominion feed," as he calls it. Mr. Wise was here a day or two ago and he met several old cronies of the confederate days. John suggested a trip to Harvey's Oyster House, one of the most famous places in the country for Southern cooking and oysters. Having been reared on the shore of the Chesapeake bay the eminent lawyer of New York believes that there are no oysters in the world to compare with those which are dredged or "tonged" from the waters of the lower Potomac. His friends, when they sat at the table, found no less than six dozen of the bivalves on the shell awaiting them, and the next course was an enormous dish of "jowl and turnip greens." The food was disposed of and heartily enjoyed, and then Mr. Wise hustled about town conducting the business which had brought him here. He went back to New York that same afternoon and the friends who met him on his way to the station were surprised to see him "toting" two tin buckets to the train. When approached he explained that one was filled with Chesapeake oysters, specially "shucked," and that the other contained "a mess of turnip greens and jowl which I am taking back to New York for Mrs. Wise who never can get any real Old Virginia dishes in that great city. New York doesn't know what oysters are and I doubt if any one there ever realized the beauties of turnip greens."

FLOWER SCENT INJURIOUS.

London, April 3.—Until lately few cases of serious heart failure, due to the presence of hyacinths in living rooms, have been recorded.

The latest instance is that of a healthy young girl in Bromley, Kent, who, after sitting for a couple of hours in a room in which there were several pots of these plants, began to feel somewhat faint. Two hours later, after she had gone home, she fell into a deep sleep. The doctor in attendance stated that the defective heart action, leading to the insufficient supply of blood to the brain, which caused the fainting, was due to the effect of the hyacinth scent on the nerves which regulate the heart's action.

"Heavily scented flowers," says a medical man, referring to this case, "should never be kept in any living room which is not well ventilated. The heavy feeling which too many flowers in a close room are apt to give is due to a slightly depressant action on the heart. If the heart is weak, or 'nervous,' and the perfume is sufficiently concentrated, the heart beat may be so impaired as to cause a prolonged fainting fit."

TOMORROW

We offer the best opportunity of the season to select your Easter Suit. When one considers that there are but twelve buying days before the dawn of Easter, the time to decide is all too short. The sun has gotten far enough across the line to bring out the most exquisite toilettes. Tomorrow we offer 500 magnificently Tailored Suits at the most advantageous prices of the season—$19.50, $22.50, $25.00 and $29.50.

These suits have been groupt according to prices for easy selection. You could spend an entire morning looking thru the different fabrics, no matter what your fancy, we can satisfy it.

The stripe is the popular tailored fabric in woolens this spring. Stripes in mannish materials of hard twisted worsteds—beautiful soft weaves in two-toned stripes of gray—hair-line stripes just faintly outlined, the cream of the English suitings, all the choice shadings. Then again you may prefer a handsome, plainly tailored suit of French serge or Panama, in the spring shades from tan to brown, from Copenhagen blue to navy, green in the exquisite sage and stone tints, etc. This offering of distinctive new styles is exceptionally complete, and we cannot impress too strongly the many advantages of making your selection tomorrow.

TO BE SATISFIED

With the style of your clothes you will want garments that hold their shape—

Shoddy fabrics pressed into shape with an iron are, to say the least, disappointing.

There are many stores which make it their business to furnish clothes which at first glance will deceive many.

A few times of wear and their true character is revealed.

So that if you want to be safe on quality, fit and service, be satisfied with nothing short of perfect garments, such as is guaranteed with the S. & B. Co.'s name in the collar—

They cost no more, often less. We make it easy for you to get just what you want, to make you refer with pride to the store where your clothes came from.

It's the quality behind the style that has made this store and keeps it first in the heart of every woman who wants the best.

EASTER WRAPS

Whether you had thought of a smart little Jacket or a long Tailored Coat, the variety is equally good.

Speaking about coats reminds us to mention about the quality of materials necessary to have a coat keep its shape. Many coats are being offered for sale that are made from slimsy fabrics, the same, in fact, that indifferent makers use in their suits. The material in our covert coats, for instance, is a firm, mannish cloth of English manufacture and guaranteed to hold its shape. These are priced at $13.50—at $16.50, $19.50 and $22.50 we show numerous pretty styles in English novelty fabrics with fancy linings of dependable silks. We highly recommend these garments as being unsurpassed in tailoring and materials.

BEAUTIFUL MILLINERY

Our Millinery business thus far has been the greatest in our history. Women who have been buying their hats elsewhere, and who came "just to look" at our hats, were captivated by their artistic beauty, while the prices pleased them equally as well, if not better. Season after season our hats have been noted for their superiority, yet present indications show that their popularity has increased beyond our greatest expectations. A thousand graceful conceits bear out our pride in our Millinery for this season. But come and see the whole exhibit so poorly hinted of. You'll be agreeably surprised at the amount of style in our hats at $5.00, at $6.50 and $7.50—the line is still better, at $10.00 and $12.00 it is superb.

MISSES' COATS

An extensive and satisfying showing of distinctive styles for misses awaits visitors to this important department. We have been unusually successful in securing a large number of exclusive models which has enabled us to excel as heretofore, in fitting all figures—very pretty suits at $15.00 and $16.50.

THE NEW CORSETS

An all important feature in the fitting of your spring suit, is to be properly "corseted" with one of our new spring models. "The new snug hip" American Lady Corset gives those long, graceful lines, demanded by the present models. This is without a question, the best of the new models. All corsets fitted by an expert corsetiere.

Exclusive Styles in Spring Hats!

We wish to announce the arrival of our Spring Hats. If you are looking for style and durability, you can find both here, in any "shape." Our uniform prise is $3.00. We make a specialty of fitting correctly, every type of face.

KILLS MAN IN COURTROOM

Detective Dwyer of Terre Haute Shot by Henry McDonald.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 3.—Found guilty of a charge of arson, Henry F. McDonald, in the circuit courtroom, yesterday, shot and killed William E. Dwyer, seriously wounded several other officers, and was himself seriously wounded.

When the jury reported its verdict, McDonald jumped to his feet and drew a revolver. He fired at Prosecuting Attorney James A. Cooper, Jr., but missed. Mr. Cooper dodged and McDonald directed his fire at the officers seated around the table. Detective Dwyer was shot down. Almost in an instant police officers and deputy sheriffs drew their revolvers and opened fire on McDonald. The convicted man fell with half a dozen bullets in his body.

Harvey V. Jones, superintendent of police, was shot in the side, Deputy Sheriff Ira Wellman sustained a wound in the chin, Sylvester Doyle, city court bailiff was shot in the leg and another shot struck a bystander.

The events which culminated so tragically had their origin in the dynamiting outrages that destroyed the Methodist church and other property on the night of Feb. 21, 1907.

EVELYN HAS A DOUBLE.

Denies She Was Ejected From the Hotel Knickerbocker.

New York, April 3.—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw denies that in company with E. K. Thomas, she was ejected from the Hotel Knickerbocker early Tuesday morning. She blames it all on a double, saying there is in New York a young woman described by her as "an actress, or something," whose resemblance to her has caused a great deal of trouble.

"She wears linen collars like I used to wear," said Mrs. Thaw, "and in a train in the subway the other day she was almost mobbed by a lot of rubbernecks, who thought she was I. I have given up the linen collars on her account. She must look like me, even without them. May be it was she who was at the Knickerbocker."

SUFFERED WITH ECZEMA 25 YEARS

Limb Peeled and Foot Was Like Raw Flesh—Had to Use Crutches, and Doctors Thought Amputation Necessary — Montreal Woman Writes of Cure Seven Years Ago.

BELIEVES LIFE SAVED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I have been treated by doctors for twenty-five years for a bad case of eczema on my leg. They did their best, but failed to cure it. My doctor had advised me to have my leg cut off, but I said I would try the Cuticura Remedies first. He said, "Try them if you like, but I do not think they will do any good." At this time my leg was peeled from the knee, my foot was like a piece of raw flesh, and I had to walk on crutches. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bottle of Cuticura Pills. After the first two treatments the swelling went down, and in two months my leg was cured and the new skin came on. The doctor could not believe his own eyes when he saw that Cuticura had cured me and said that he would use it for his own patients. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Ointment, and five bottles of Resolvent, and I have now been cured over seven years, and but for the Cuticura Remedies I might have lost my life. I have lots of grandchildren, and they are frequent users of Cuticura, and I always recommend it to the many people whom my business brings to my house every day. TAKES STEP FOR APPEAL

J. L. Cromwell Files Notice of Motion in Election Contest.

Will Ask That "Erickson" Ballot be Counted for Him.

Preliminary steps for an appeal of the Bloedel-Cromwell election contest were taken yesterday when C. E. Adams, representing Mr. Cromwell, the Republican candidate for alderman in the Second ward, filed in the district court notice of a motion for additional findings from Judge Cant as to the ballot of "John Erickson," which the court has already held to be an illegal vote. Mr. Adams asks that the court find that the ballot in question was intended for Mr. Cromwell.

The motion will come up for a hearing at the special term of the district court tomorrow. In event the court denies the motion, Mr. Cromwell will make application for a new trial, on the ground of errors of law and that the judgment is not sustained by the evidence. If this motion is denied, an appeal will be made to the supreme court from the order of denial.

The statutes provide for a speedy hearing on appeals in election contests, and it is believed that the matter can be heard and disposed of within thirty to sixty days' time.

Mr. Cromwell denies that the appeal is being taken for the purpose of delaying settlement of the contest. If he is entitled to the Erickson ballot, he wants it counted. It is claimed that a number of the prominent local attorneys have expressed opinions indicating a belief that Mr. Cromwell has a fighting chance in taking the contest to the supreme court.

It is not believed that the appeal proceedings will have the effect of holding up Mayor Haven's appointments any longer, although there have been some rumors to the contrary. Mr. Cromwell is said to be acting independently in the matter and will not be influenced by any threats to hold up the mayor's appointments in case of an appeal.

DEMOCRATS NOTIFIED

By Republicans of House That Obstructive Tactics Will be Fought.

Washington, April 3.—Formal notice was served on the Democrats in the house of representatives yesterday, by Mr. Payne of New York, the floor leader of the majority, that from this time on, the Republicans would lock horns with the Democrats and carry through the program of the majority in spite of the attempt of the minority, under the leadership of Mr. Williams of Mississippi, to dictate the character of legislation to be enacted.

After several measures had been refused consideration by reason of these tactics, Mr. Payne called up the resolution to refer to the several committees the president's special message to congress. Observing that the Democrats were preparing to place obstructions in the way of its consideration until ample time had been given for general debate, Mr. Payne asserted that "because of the hypocrisy of the other side," meaning the Democrats, no general debate would be allowed.

A duel in parliamentary tactics then continued until the Democrats forced the thirteenth roll call, and by the vote of 121 to 81 the house, at 10:09 p. m., adjourned, thus ending the struggle for the time being.

SENSATION CREATED

Chicago, April 3.—Dr. George W. McFatrich was granted a decree of divorce from Marguerite E. McFatrich by Judge Theodore Brentano in the superior court on statutory grounds. Neither husband or wife was present at the hearing.

Announcement of the legal separation of the Chicago oculist and his beautiful young wife came as a startling sensation to society circles, where no hint has ever been dropped that the relations between the two were other than perfect.

About the filing of the petition, hearing of evidence and action of the court, a cloak of secrecy was thrown and supreme effort made to hide the matter from the public. Evidence supporting the petition for divorce, and counter evidence denying charges made, were introduced by attorneys for the plaintiff and the defendant. The hearing lasted but a few minutes, and then Judge Brentano ordered that the decree be entered.

Certificate of evidence on which Judge Brentano granted the divorce cites a trip to Milwaukee made by Mrs. McFatrich in company with a wealthy real estate man. Theater parties, midnight suppers, automobile rides and hotel registers figure in the bill of particulars.

PRISONER BAFFLES POLICE.

Frenchman Shows Lot of Loot, But Keeps Secret of Others.

Paris, April 3.—The police of Pontoise have had under lock and key for the last six months a mysterious prisoner, whose identity they can not discover. He was caught redhanded in a burglary, and on being examined declared that he is a man of good family, for the sake of which he will not allow his name to be divulged. The police call him Marius Durand for want of a better name.

Durand told his jailers that he could show them a grotto in which treasure was hidden which had been taken from a house in Maisons Laffitte, near Paris. He led the police to a cave near the village of Sartrouville, and there they found he had hidden the proceeds of twenty-seven robberies in half a dozen hiding places which the police would never find.

Durand speaks French, German, English, Italian, the Alsatian patois and other languages. He says that he has worked on trans-Atlantic steamers, and has lived in Marseilles, Naples, Algiers and New York. He has been in prison in Strasburg, in Colmar, and in several other places, but his name is still a mystery.

PESTHOUSE TOO SMALL

Inmate of Emergency Hospital Writes of Conditions There.

Patients Are Well Treated and Board is Excellent.

To the Editor of the Herald:

Dear Sir—Believing that a short account in your valuable paper of the experiences of the average smallpox patient would be of interest to the readers of The Herald, I will endeavor to give an idea of how things are conducted in and about the emergency hospital for smallpox patients. My first experience with the dread disease came in the shape of a big surprise on being told by my doctor that I had smallpox. My next surprise was when a ramshackle black wagon was backed up to my door and I was requested by the health officer to take a ride to what he called the pesthouse—a name that should never be used in connection with this institution. The name pesthouse does not apply here.

I, along with many others, think that the livery company furnishing the conveyance is well enough paid to furnish a much better and more comfortable wagon for that purpose. Undertakers give more care and furnish better rigs to move the dead bodies of our friends than does the company which has the contract for moving the county's smallpox patients.

After an hour's ride in the wagon you arrive at the hospital and are met at the door by the very genial superintendent, Neil McDougall, who shows you into a large sitting room, where you find twenty-five or thirty smallpox patients in all stages of the disease, but who are all more or less cheerful and glad to see a new face and get acquainted with the new comer.

A word about our life here and what we do with ourselves and how we are fed and housed will be of interest. We are free to sit around and play any of the games that have been kindly provided, such as cards, dominoes, gammon board or checkers or we may stroll out around the grounds. There is no apparent restraint. We go to bed when we feel like going and get up when the breakfast bell rings at 8 a. m. After breakfast we make up our own beds, and sweep out the rooms. Each Wednesday and Saturday is scrubbing day. Everything is done without a grumble and altogether our lot is not quite so bad as is often painted by those on the outside. The enforced detention is the hardest thing to bear, but there are lots of worse places than the emergency hospital of St. Louis county.

The board we receive here is certainly good and substantial and very clean.

On behalf of the inmates, I would like to thank the good people who are so kindly supplying us with fruits. We are unable to have fruit on our table at each meal.

That there ought to be some arrangements made here for handling the ever increasing number of patients is evident. The building is too small as it is, with thirty-one patients. Cots have to be put in the halls and the rooms are crowded. The building should be enlarged so that crowding could be avoided. As it is now should fire break out at night I fear the results would be disastrous. There should be more rooms so that the worst cases could be provided with rooms by themselves, and be kept quiet. As it is the worst and least affected patients are all huddled together, which is to say, the least, annoying. That this state of crowding the building will some time be remedied we have no doubt. A sidewalk around the house is another thing which ought to be provided so that patients could walk around outside without having to plow through mud and snow. The cost of this would only be a little lumber, as the patients would only be too glad to build the walk themselves.

Yours respectfully,
T. G. THOMPSON,
Letter Carrier No. 8, Duluth, Minn.

JOHN D.'S DAUGHTER

Is Driven From Chicago by Threats of Death.

Chicago, April 3.—Mrs. Harold McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, the richest man in the world, is verging on nervous breakdown and has prepared to depart hastily from the city, as a result of a series of threatening letters received by her which have led her to believe that her life and those of her children are in peril.

Guards have been placed about her mansion. Servants and coachmen are being utilized as extra guards. Working in relays, they are watching pedestrians who pass or approach the house. No one is permitted to enter the grounds without first being scrutinized.

The contents of a threatening letter received Wednesday have been kept secret by the members of the household. Mrs. McCormick, who is of a highly nervous disposition, has been badly frightened for weeks over the first letters, but Wednesday her collapse was almost complete.

ORGAN RECITAL AT THE TEMPLE

Prof. Reyner Shows Possibilities of Splendid New Organ.

The second organ recital of the current season was given last night at the auditorium of the new Masonic temple by Prof. H. W. Reyner. The spacious hall of the temple was comfortably filled with an audience that seemed to enjoy thoroughly the excellent program that had been selected. The program was selected with a view of pleasing every music lover in attendance, and Prof. Reyner is to be congratulated in so ably achieving his object.

The success of the two recitals thus far given has lead to the decision to give others in the near future. Both the attendance and the appreciation have been flattering to those who have the programs in charge.

In addition to the organ numbers, there were solos by Phillip Gordon Brown and Miss Cora Swan.

Following is the program:

March—Pontifical .....F. de la Tombelle
a. Cantelene in A flat....H. A. Wheeldon
b. Chant Sans Paroles.....E. H. Lemare

LOST LOVE RESTORED.

Bishop Fallows Tells How He Can Reunite Estranged Couples.

Chicago, April 3.—In a sermon last night on "The Psychology of Doubt," Bishop Samuel Fallows explained for the first time in public his system for reuniting estranged married couples.

The method used is simple, but the bishop declares that he has used it successfully, and he also gives an instance in which it had been used by a Chicago lawyer to prevent a divorce between a man and wife.

He said: "What the will can do is to create by autosuggestion a determination to continue to love or to believe. This I make use of in my efforts to reunite people who have entered into the holy bonds of matrimony and who think that they have ceased to love each other."

FORM POLAR CONGRESS.

Swedish Scientists Interested in Plan to Organize World Association.

Stockholm, Sweden, April 3.—Scientific men display the keenest interest in Dr. Otto Nordenskjold's project for a polar congress under the auspices of an international polar bureau at Brussels. The explorer has finished his prospectus for the congress.

Dr. Nordenskjold proposes to have at the congress two persons from each country engaged in polar research, one to be an explorer of the Arctic and the other an explorer of the Antarctic regions.

The congress will not concern itself with actual plans for further research, but will inquire exhaustively into the theoretical and scientific aspects of the questions involved, leaving practical men to realize on the knowledge thus adduced and conveniently recorded.

BIG LAND TRANSACTION.

Several Thousnd Acres in Upper Peninsula Are Sold.

Houghton, Mich., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. E. Collins of Sheboygan, Wis., representing the Crocker Chair company of that city, was in Houghton this week for the purpose of placing on record the deeds in a large hardwood land transaction. His company has just purchased from G. E. Sanborn & Co. of Ashland, Wis., 6,163 acres of these lands in Houghton and Baraga counties for the consideration of $85,563.25.

The lands are located in sections 47-35, 48-35 and 48-36, in Houghton county, and 47-33, 48-34 and 48-35 in Baraga county. They are all adjacent to Skanaw, and the timber will be cut in the mills at that place. The lumber will then be shipped to Sheboygan, via the C. M. & St. P., to be worked into the finished product.

Stolen From Minnehaha Postoffice Did Running Cracksmen.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Cracksmen, who, the police say, are experts with explosives, Wednesday night blew the safe in the Minnehaha postoffice, stole $280 in cash and ran to the street car leaving a trail of postal supplies by which the police were able to trace them for some distance.

The Minnehaha postoffice is in J. R. Hartzell's general store at 4301 East Fifteenth street. About $100 of the money stolen was government money and the remainder belonged to Mr. Hartzell.

The room was wrecked. The safe door lay on the floor surrounded by valuables which the thieves left in their hurry. All the cash was gone, together with the stamps and other postal supplies.

Boys playing in the woods found the supplies which the robbers threw away, fearing to be caught with the telltale goods in their possession.

AGED MAN PERISHES AFTER LOSING HIS WAY.

Minnesota Lake, Minn., April 3.—Bela Maloy, over 80 years old, an early resident of Faribault and Blue Earth counties, was found lying dead beside the road between Minnesota Lake and Wells by a rural mail carrier.

He was fond of walking about the country, and is thought to have lost his way and stepped through the ice on a small pond beside the road, which caused him to fall. His age and weakness prevented him from rising, and as he had lost his mittens and his cap had fallen off, he died from exposure.

FORMER MINNESOTAN DIES.

Stillwater, Minn., April 3.—Word has been received in this city of the death of J. H. Pratt, formerly in the butcher business, which occurred March 31 at his home at Sanish, Wash. The body will be brought to this city for interment beside that of his son, James Pratt.

MANY WERE SWINDLED.

Tracey, Minn., April 3.—After taking orders from forty-five persons for suits, receiving cash from many of them and after cashing several worthless checks, H. A. Seeley, a tailor, absconded and is now being sought by the officials.

DRINKS CARBOLIC ACID AT BAR, BUT SURVIVES.

Green Bay, Wis., April 3.—John Lessinger, 20 years old, employed at the Cook hotel in this city, stepped to the bar, asked for a glass of water, poured the contents of a bottle or carbolic acid into it and drank the mixture. He fell to the sidewalk, but was picked up and hurried to the hospital where it is thought his life may be saved.

CAME WITH OX TEAMS.

Isanti, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Peter Shulean and Olof Eastlund families came to Isanti forty-eight years ago last Friday, and have made this neighborhood their home during nearly half a century. They came from Center City with ox teams, and as there were practically no roads in those days, it required three days to make the journey of about thirty miles.

JOHNSON IS TALKING.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 3.—M. N. Johnson of Petersburg, who is a candidate for the position of United States senator, is busily engaged in making a speaking tour of the state. Within the last couple of weeks he has covered Morton, Stark, Adams, Hettinger and Bowman counties. On Monday night of this week he spoke at La Moure, Tuesday night at Davenport, Wednesday night at Fargo, Thursday at Hillsboro.

SHOEMEN BANKRUPT.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 3.—J. D. McBrain and Griffith A. Gibson of the firm of McBrain & Gibson, shoe merchants of Bottineau, have filed a petition in bankruptcy in federal court. They have seventeen creditors, one of whom is the Bottineau bank, which holds notes to the extent of about $2,000. They place their available assets at $3,836.12, besides $1,000, which they claim to be exempt. They place their liabilities at $5,361.55.

DOCTOR DENIES GUILT.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 3.—Dr. John Fawcett was arraigned in district court late Wednesday afternoon to enter a plea to a charge of performing an illegal operation which resulted in the death of a girl. He entered a plea of not guilty.

GAVE SHORT WEIGHTS.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. E. Larson, a dairyman, withdrew his plea of not guilty to a charge of using false weight and entered a plea of guilty. Judge Andrew Holt imposed a $50 fine with an option of forty days in the county jail, and Larson paid his fine.

SOO BRIDGEMAN KILLED.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Sam Wachal, a bridgeman for the Soo road, was struck by a switch engine and fatally injured Thursday in the company's yards at Shoreham. Wachal was detailed on the truntable. As he was crossing the tracks the engine ran him down, cutting off both his legs and fracturing his skull.

"E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen: In 1867 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol, and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. C. N. Cornell, Riding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906."

CHINAMAN'S SUCCESS.

Baltimore American: "Away down in the Sierra Madre mountains of Northern Mexico I came across a Chinaman who has made a great success of farming and who is destined to become a very rich man," said Mr. Thomas B. Hamby of San Antonio, Tex. "This son of the Orient, whose name is Joe, has the biggest potato farm in the whole republic. He speaks both English and Spanish well, and he is as quick and progressive as any Yankee I ever beheld. His neighbors admire and like him immensely, and all hands say there isn't a squarer man in Mexico.

"Joe came into Mexico about five years ago, and bought 600 acres of unimproved but productive land at trifling cost and on credit. He started in raising Irish potatoes and made enough the first season to pay for his place. His success caused him to buy more property and he now owns 2,000 acres. Not once has he had a failure of crops, and this season he told me he expected his shipments of potatoes to be about seventy carloads. They are the finest I ever saw and in quality fully equal the celebrated variety that has made Greeley, Colo., famous.

"His farm is right at the summit of the continental divide, 7,500 feet above the sea level, where there is plenty of rainfall to make good crops without irrigation. Joe told me that he had made a beginning in sugar beet farming with good results and he believed that Northern Mexico would some day be one of the great sugar producing regions of the world."

WHY RABBITS' TAILS ARE WHITE.

Nashville Tennessean: "Rabbits have white tails," said Ben A. Easley of Baton Rouge, La., "so that the young may be able to distinguish their mother in case of pursuit. The color of a rabbit is so like that of the ground that this would otherwise be difficult, if not impossible.

"When a rabbit is running you can see nothing but the tail. It looms in the distance gorter like a beacon light. And that is why rabbits have white tails. The young ones can see the older folks scampering across country. In this way they can keep an eye on the frisky mother and father."

NEW BAGGAGE CARS

Have Been Received by Iron Range Road From Car Makers.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Duluth & Iron Range Tuesday received two of the new baggage cars ordered some months ago from the American Car company of St. Charles, Mo. The cars have all the latest improvements and are of the largest size, being seventy feet in length and have ample room for express, baggage and mail departments, which have been crowded in the old cars, which have been in use so many years. Both cars are equipped with electric motors connected with the axle of the car for furnishing power for the electric lights with which their trains are to be lighted. The cars will be put into the service between Duluth and the Range points and three coaches are yet to come to complete the order.

A large number of the railroad boys are daily returning from Western and Southern points to await the opening of the ore season. They report times very dull at most every point they have traveled and work scarce.

NEW DULUTH BRIEFS.

New Duluth, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual meeting of the Presbyterian church was held Tuesday evening at the church parlors. Rev. S. A. Jameson of West Duluth presided.

The treasurer's report was read and accepted, the new officers were elected and other business was transacted.

The new officers are J. A. Dunham, W. H. Crosby and H. C. Tower, elders; W. H. Crosby, L. S. McKay and Martin Erickson, trustees; Martin Erickson, treasurer.

After the business meeting Rev. S. A. Jameson delivered a lecture which was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

W. A. Thayer, Charles F. Wills and Frank Napravnick were delegates from Riverdale camp, M. W. A., to the Woodman meeting at Hibbing Wednesday evening.

Otto Krueger has been appointed policeman for New Duluth, to succeed John A. Bartz, who has been policeman and poundmaster for a number of years.

SMALLPOX SCARE OVER.

Sunday Services Will be Resumed at the Bethel.

The smallpox scare at the Bethel is over, and services will be resumed there next Sunday. The Sunday school services were ordered discontinued by the health commissioner, as it was feared they would serve to spread the disease, but permission was today granted W. D. Edson, the superintendent, to hold services next Sunday as usual.

ON THE IRON RANGES

SINKING AT FAYAL NO. 4 PROGRESSES

Sinking Crew at Present Engaged in Making Mining Chambers.

Eveleth, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the No. 4 shaft of the Fayal mine, the work of sinking the shaft to a shipping level is going on with rapidity. The shaft is being made as safe as possible as it is being blasted through hard rock. The sinking crew is now making the mining chambers. The work is being done at night by an experienced crew of drillers. The shaft is the newest one at the Fayal, and is within a stone's throw of the track that is being used to haul the ore to the Iron Range tracks.

Lee Roberts, the former night boss of the Drake & Stratton strippings is moving his family to Chisholm as he has been selected as the night boss for the same company at the job that they have on the Leonard mine. He has offered a considerable number of the older brakemen and dinky runners work at the new job.

A few mining men have arranged to go to Canada to see the prospects there. In the party are William Stephens and Bert Barret. Dan Stephens is already in Canada. The party does not expect to get out before the middle of the month.

NEW COMPANY IS PART OF MILITIA

Company F, Third Regiment M. N. G. Becomes Fact at Last.

Eveleth, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Last night at the Vail opera house a company of militia was mustered in, that will become company F, Third regiment, Minnesota National Guard. Fifty-one men answered the call, to be mustered in. A number of National Guard officers were in attendance, among whom were Maj. Eva, secretary of the Duluth Commercial club, who is also the battalion commander of this regiment, Lieut. Weaver, Lieut. Chisholm, adjutant to Maj. Eva, and Lieut. Col. Resche of Duluth, who had charge of the mustering in. Capt. Vanduzee of St. Paul was also present. The men who were last night mustered into the National Guard are active workers in the city's welfare and are very prominent in all affairs.

After the roll call the officers of the company were elected. The vote was first taken informally, and then formally. Out of forty-eight votes cast, R. M. Cornwall, cashier of the First National bank, received 45 for captain. In the contest for first lieutenant, Alderman Hatch received 31 votes to 17 cast for Ed Loye. F. R. Ellsworth was elected second lieutenant with 36 votes out of 48.

All the new officers have been very active in the movement to secure a militia company for Eveleth and no doubt will see that the company will make a success in its endeavors.

This is the first militia company on the range, though Virginia is now trying to get a company also.

After the election of officers Lieut. Col. Resche and Maj. Eva spoke a few words to the members of the new company F, laying great stress on the fact that each member should attend the drills as much as was possible, as it would be through the individual efforts of each man as well as that of the officers, that the company would be a success. The absence of a man would retard the whole company just that much. They both predicted well for the company.

As the time to go into camp is only about two and a half months off the members of the company will work especially hard to make a good showing at Lake City during the encampment.

AURORA SCHOOL NOTES.

Recent Happenings Connected With Schools of Village.

Aurora, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Supt. Holbrook of the Proctor schools was here Tuesday. He is making a visit to the schools of some of the range towns.

Miss Bessie L. Olson, who is attending the state normal school at St. Cloud, has been appointed to a position in the Aurora school for the coming year. Miss Olson will be graduated this year, and she has had some experience as a teacher. She will live at the home of Clarence Vanderpool while she is teaching here.

Miss May D. Geer will teach another year at the Mesaba school at the same salary that she is now getting—$75 a month.

There is some talk of a school at the Spring mine, at Mesaba, next year.

Miss Lucy L. McNutt, who teaches a first and second grade room in the John A. Johnson building at Two Harbors, has been visiting with Miss Gray during the greater part of this week. She left Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mildred Curtiss of Madison, Wis., began work here in the first and second grades Monday. The other rooms of the first floor are not so crowded now as they were.

A system of pupils' records is being worked out by the superintendent this month. Cards are to be used instead of a book.

Miss Leona Hedloff of the Soudan schools is visiting with Miss Adams this week. Miss Hedloff teaches a room of second and third graders.

LICENSE SLOT MACHINES.

Sparta Council Will Expect $5 Per Month for Them.

Sparta, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The slot machines that gather in the coin in the saloons here will have to pay something into the village treasury, the council having decided to charge each saloon $5 per month for each machine operated. This is expected to yield something in the way of a revenue, as the village is in need of money at present. In the interest of economy, the council declined to appoint Schultz Campbell night watchman. Business men are talking of petitioning the council to have the watchman reinstated.

LEONERD OPEN PIT.

Work Will be Started by Drake & Stratton Next Monday.

Chisholm, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. Shalla of this place has bought the interest of J. Glaboaka in the firm of Jackse & Glaboaka's grocery store, one of the largest grocery stores on the range.

The Drake & Stratton contractors were unable to start operations on the Leonard pit today on account of the recent snowstorm. They expect to start Monday. Several of their former employes have returned this spring, among whom are T. McCarthy and Mose Stanton.

Mrs. W. Grant and daughter, Jesse, were the guests of T. Michaud of Duluth the fore part of the week.

J. Thompson left for Duluth yesterday morning, where he will visit relatives for a few days.

AGREEMENT NOT SIGNED.

Hence Aurora Council Will Revoke Certain Licenses Granted.

Aurora, Minn., April, 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Is the Fitger Brewing company handing the village council of Aurora a lemon in regard to the blind pig question? is a question being asked. March 21, at a special meeting of the council Fitger's representative stated that they would sign an agreement not to sell no more beer to blind piggers, and with this understanding licenses were granted to C. R. Hill and Matt Alto. As the agreement was not prepared, Fitger's man agreed to sign it on the 23rd. Over two weeks has passed, Fitger's man has been in Aurora twice since, and the agreement has not been signed yet.

At a meeting of the council Tuesday night it was agreed to revoke the licenses of Hill and Alto if the agreement was not signed within two days.

The Bovey-Coleraine Commerical club has passed the blind pig resolution and has written to Aurora for a copy of the agreement.

The council have under advisement a plan to have all licenses for the selling of liquor expire on the same date, probably May 1. As it is now there are from one to two applications for licenses before the council each month.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Was Verdict of Coroner's Jury in Case of Lucile Blake.

Chisholm, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The coroner's jury that inquired into the death of Lucile Blake, the Star theater actress, who shot herself in a room adjoining a soloon early yesterday, found in accordance with the story in Thursday's Herald, that death resulted from an accident. There was some suspicion against Fred Boden, the bartender, who at the woman's request is said to have produced the pistol that killed her, but the jury promptly exonerated him, the evidence going to show the woman was intoxicated and while snapping the hammer the revolver, that was supposed to have been empty, fired a bullet into her breast. Little can be learned of the woman's antecedents. She is said to have claimed Minneapolis as her home. She played in several variety theaters on the range and was well known to the habitues of those places.

EGGS STREWN ABOUT.

Plenty of Hen Fruit Along Road to Coleraine.

Coleraine, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Eggs were below par along the road leading to town yesterday afternoon as the result of the runaway of a team drawing a wagon load of "hen fruit," and twenty-four cases of "strictly fresh" being strewn along the highway. The team belonged to James & Son and took fright at a passing freight train, the jolting to the wagon sending the eggs in all directions to the delight of numerous dogs.

MEAT EATERS ALARMED.

Carcass of Diseased Meat Marked "Inspected," Partially Sold.

Sparta, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Local vegetarians are finding argumentative "food" in support of a no-meat diet, in the sensational discovery made by James W. Falk, a local butcher, who came across evidences of disease in the hind quarter of a beef carcass he had received from Duluth, which bore the mark of the government inspector, "Inspected 274, P. S. D." An examination disclosed that the leg of the animal had evidently been broken before it was slaughtered and sufficient pus had gathered to infect a good part of the carcass. How the meat could have passed the inspector is a puzzler. Mr. Falk did everything possible to stop the consumption of the meat taken from the carcass by sending word to all who had purchased any of it.

There is a resulting scare among meat eaters and hereafter Mr. Falk and other butchers will probably carefully look over all meat despite the inspector's mark.

"The number given is that of the Elliott Packing company," said Warren Mendenhall of the Elliott company this morning.

"The publicity given the incident, I consider, is an unwarranted slap at a Duluth institution. Our business is conducted under the direct supervision of a government inspector and his assistant, who do nothing but inspect every piece of meat that is sent out from our plant. They inspect the cattle as they come in, and watch the slaughtering and the packing. Any cattle that they consider unfit for food are condemned. I, of course, don't know anything about this particular quarter of beef. If the facts are as reported, however, it probably came from some animal that was slightly injured in some way. The injury healed, leaving no visible mark, and it got by the inspector. You can't see through a quarter of beef any more than you can through a brick wall, but if the inspector had noticed it, he would undoubtedly have thrown it out, judging from the strictness he shows in other cases.

SALOONKEEPER FINED FOR RUNNING DISORDERLY HOUSE.

Eveleth, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Palm, a local saloonkeeper was found guilty of having a disorderly house and was fined $25 and costs. Last week there was some scuffling and fighting in Palm's saloon, and that when the officers came in, they were told to get out. They went to the chief then and he accompanied them back to the saloon. One of the men in the saloon was covered with blood while another was being choked, when the officers arrived. Judge McGilvery for the defendant tried to show that if his client were found guilty of the charge against him then every saloonkeeper in town was liable to arrest on the same charge. The case will be appealed to the district court.

HEROIC TREATMENT TO STRAIGHTEN BOY'S LEGS.

Aurora, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word has been received from John Byouk, the little boy who was taken to the State hospital at St. Paul some weeks ago, to the effect that the surgeons have resorted to an operation to straighten his legs. The boy was extremely bow-legged and was sent to St. Paul by Humane Officer Grae. The surgeons decided to break his legs Saturday.

BOARDING HOUSE BURNS.

Aurora, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Peterson's boarding house at the Adriatic mine has burned to the ground. Fire was discovered at 4 o'clock in the morning in the second story, where a number of miners were asleep. The men barely escaped with their lives, and everything in the house was destroyed.

BUYS MYERS' INTEREST.

Aurora, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—G. E. Webb, manager of the Aurora Mercantile company here, has purchased the interests of F. B. Myers of Biwabik in the business. At a meeting of the directors yesterday Webb was elected president and treasurer, and C. H. Taylor of Duluth secretary. The company is the largest of its kind in Aurora.

WHITE TOWNSHIP WILL HANDLE CRIMINAL CASES.

Aurora, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The board of supervisors of the township of White, recently elected, held its first session last night. The present board is comprised of J. T. Vickers, J. J. Hudson, August Knuti and John W. Lang. The clerk was instructed to have Attorney McGilvery of Eveleth present at a special session Tuesday night to draft an ordinance which will empower the township to handle criminal cases otherwise than by the state law. This ordinance will be passed so as to make the work against the blind piggers more effective.

DEVELOPMENT OF ST. LOUIS COUNTY

Keynote of Successful Banquet Held by Biwabik Commercial Club.

Biwabik, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—"The Development of St. Louis County Agriculturally" was the keynote of the banquet of the Biwabik Commercial club held at the Hill hotel last evening. About 125 guests were present, and the affair was a most enjoyable and instructive one. Toastmaster Seeley had charge of the program. Among the guests were twelve or fourteen of the prominent farmers living in the vicinity of Biwabik.

A. J. McGuire, in charge of the state experimental farm, the first speaker, had for his subject "The Adaptability of St. Louis County Soil," and he gave an interesting address along this line. B. P. Neff, representing the Duluth Commercial club, gave a straight-from-the-shoulder talk on the need of supporting home merchants. He urged that the citizens buy at home, and cut out the catalogue houses. He also urged the co-operation with the Duluth wholesalers in this connection, saying that Duluth and the range towns were dependent upon each other, and that the prosperity of the one meant the prosperity of the other.

Humane Agent Grae spoke on farming, A. J. Hostetter on farmers' clubs and the state exhibit, P. E. Dowling on "The Usefulness of Commercial Clubs," and J. L. Myers on "Advertising."

AURORA STATE BANK TO INCREASE CAPITAL.

Aurora, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—A deal is in progress whereby the capital of the Aurora State bank will be increased from $25,000 to $45,000. Several local parties have bought an interest in the institution. A. W. Cowin of Lake City, Minn., has also bought in and has been elected vice president. F. B. Myers of the Biwabik bank retains the presidency, and with this exception the banking company will be composed of Aurora parties. Cowin will make Aurora his home.

Why you should buy your clothes at the "Fitwell" Clothing Parlors. They employ expert tailors to make any necessary alterations, to insure a perfect fit, free of any charge.

WE REPEAT

That if a poor watch is a poor investment, a good watch is a good investment. We have never sold the cheap "bargain counter" watches, not because of any "foolish" reason, but for the very good reason that we know there is no money in them. We have a reputation to sustain, and every one we would sell would be the making one certain enemy, and that would make many more. The result would do us more harm than ten times the profit in the watch. We make a reasonable profit in good, standard watches, and every purchaser is a life-long advertisement. Don't you think we have it figured out about right?

SAVED FROM SCAFFOLD

Band of Russian Criminals Concocted Scheme to Work Judges.

They Had Been Sentenced to Die on the Gallows.

Warsaw, April 3.—To the clever acting of a young girl, the sweetheart of one of their number, and the assistance of a baby borrowed for the occasion, thirteen precious young Russian scoundrels owe their escape from the hangman's noose. The men were members of one of the worst and most daring gang of thieves and highwaymen that ever infested this part of the country. They were found guilty by court-martial and the penalty is death, a fate, by the way, which they richly deserved. At the psychological moment, however, just before sentence was passed upon him, the accommodating sweetheart and the borrus baby were brought in and the former was married to the youngest of the prisoners. A few tears on the part of the wife, a prolonged screech on the part of the baby, who thus showed his objection to having a pin stuck in his leg, and the hearts of the judges were melted.

Instead of death penalty the sentence of the thirteen was commuted to twenty years' imprisonment each.

The funniest of the whole business is that neither the police nor the judges suspect to this day that they were bamboozled by an ingenious plan concocted by one of the prisoners. The real facts of the case were told me by the mother of the child which played so large a part in the comedy.

Joined Bandit Society.

Stanislas Lukasiak, the youthful prisoner, who married under the shadow of the gallows was the son of a respectable workingman. He was apprenticed to a locksmith and worked in that capacity for some time. When the revolution broke out in Russia, Lukasiak was, like most young men, dragged into the vortex of strikers and demonstrations. He, with many others, lost his place and, driven to desperation, determined to become a bandit. He joined a bandit society which styled itself the Workingmen's union to disguise its nefarious purpose. There were thirteen members whose ages ranged from 18 to 25. They had no political aims, but exerted all their energies to robbing the rich wherever they could. Being well armed, they were very successful. More than one death is laid at their door as their victims often offered resistance. For over three years these thirteen youths were the terror of the country. In that time they robbed offices and private people of upwards of 100,000 roubles. It was while he was a member of the Workingmen's union that Lukasiak met Marya Borowska, the girl who was eventually to save him and his companions, and became engaged to her. He did not, however, tell her how he got his money and when he was arrested, as he eventually was and taken to the citadel of Warsaw she had not the slightest idea that he was guilty of the charges laid against him. Stanislas and his twelve companions were tried by court-martial, the lawyer they employed assured them that their sentence of death was brevity for a means of escaping the impending death sentence. Twenty years' hard labor was infinitely preferable to the harsher punishment. At the end of that time the oldest of them would be only 45 and there was always a chance that a coronation would be the means of cutting off another five years. But the officials who preside over court-martials are particularly hard upon bandits. Some eight or ten are hanged nightly in the Warsaw citadel. One night, since these men were arrested, as many as thirteen were hanged. To the members of the Workingmen's union this coincidence of numbers was a bad sign.

Unfolded His Plan.

Suddenly, one of the men, known by the name of Lanky hit upon an idea that immediately appealed to all except Stanislas.

"Stanislas is going to save us all," he exclaimed and unfolded his plan. "You've got a girl to whom you are engaged," he said. "She's got to do the trick."

Lukasiak remarked despondently that being engaged to a girl did not help any of them much when he was likely to be hanged by a rope within a few hours.

"Before you hang by the rope, you've got to be married to that girl," said Lanky. "The president of the court-martial Gen. Uversky, looks a good old buffer. Well try to play on his feelings. You've got only today to do it in because the trial will be over tomorrow before dark and it will be all over with us before the next day dawns. You must ask permission to see your betrothed and tell her to get hold of somebody's baby—the younger it is the better—and be ready to come here with it tomorrow afternoon. You must speak to the lawyer tomorrow morning as soon as he comes to the citadel and tell him you want to marry the girl you've lived with before you're hanged so that your child shall have civil rights and not be a nameless outcast."

At first Lukasiak said he would not cast such a slur on his girl's name for any of them. But the others soon persuaded him that it would be far better than hanging and that, if he were hanged after all his sweetheart would be none the worse as she would be free to marry whom she liked.

Prisoners under sentence, or even likely to be put under sentence of death in the near future, are allowed to see visitors.

Marya happened to come that same day to the citadel and agreed to the young bandit's proposition. She even said she would go to their lawyer and tell him the story Lanky had concocted and induce him to see the president of the court-martial that same day.

The Borrowed Baby.

The lawyer fell into the trap—Marya went with the borrowed baby in her arms—and posted off to the citadel where he saw Gen. Uversky and obtained, from that astonished man, permission to bring Marya and a priest to the citadel next morning.

The following day the trial of the thirteen bandits was continued. The proceedings were short and were expected to end before evening. As there was not the slightest doubt that they were guilty of the most daring robberies committed in the country for many years they were pretty certain of being condemned to death. At 3 o'clock Gen. Uversky told the court that there would be ten minutes pause, as one of the prisoners had asked and obtained leave to get married before sentence was passed upon him. Lukasiak was then led, guarded by a strong convoy of soldiers, into the next room where a priest, Marya (with the bogus baby in her arms) her mother and sister, were awaiting him. The president and the eleven generals who formed the court, also came in, watching the short ceremony with considerable interest. When it was over bride and bridegroom took leave of one another. Both wept copious tears, for they had little hope of seeing one another again, and the baby, jabbed with a pin at the proper moment, added his voice to the din. The twelve generals were visibly moved and so was the lawyer.

Marya Fainted.

Marya begged leave to be present during the rest of the trial and was allowed to take a seat in the court. Lukasiak was led back to the dock and the trial went on. In half an hour it was finished, and, in a husky voice, the president passed sentence of death upon the thirteen prisoners. Poor Marya fainted and Lukasiak burst into tears. The court retired and the prisoners were led back to their cell, gloomily to await the sequel.

Soon their lawyer appeared. He said that the court, although obliged by martial law to pass sentence of death on them, felt strongly moved to recommend them, and especially Lukasiak, to mercy. Death sentences of this sort are usually confirmed by the governor general of Warsaw, who signs them almost as soon as the trial is over, so that the prisoners are quickly disposed of. But Gen. Uversky declared that these thirteen should, if possible, be spared. He wrote a petition to the governor general and presented it himself. The sentence was commuted to twenty years' hard labor in Siberia and perpetual exile in that country.

All the bandits were delighted and Lanky took credit of it to himself. There is no doubt that, had Lukasiak not married Marya at the very last moment of their trial they would have been hanged before the next sun shone. But the ceremony broke the monotony of the daily court-martials, and, Marya being young and pretty, appealed to the romantic element that everybody, even old generals, possess.

Marya will be able to join her husband in Siberia and travel there at the expense of the government. With Lanky to advise them, there is little doubt that the enterprising thirteen will shift very well for themselves, even in that uninviting country.

FINE RECIPE HELPS MANY

Relieves Old Severe Cases of Rheumatism as if by Magic.

Cut this out and put in some safe place, for it is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world if you should have an attack of rheumatism or bladder trouble or any derangement of the kidneys whatever.

The prescription is simple, and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at any good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound Kargon, one ounce; compound syrup of sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and scalding, weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc. It is now claimed to be the method of curing chronic rheumatism, because of its direct and positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them life and power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, relieving the worst forms of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles. The extract dandelion acts upon the stomach and liver and is used also extensively for relieving constipation and indigestion. Compound sarsaparilla cleans and enriches the blood.

A well-known local druggist is authority that this prescription is safe to use at any time.

MAN'S LEG AMPUTATED WITH A POCKET KNIFE.

St. Louis, April 3.—Five persons were injured in a collision of a Burlington railroad passenger train with a freight near here, yesterday. J. A. McKittrick, a stockman, was pinioned under the wreckage by his left leg, which was nearly crushed off at the knee. Scalding steam from the damaged locomotive was enveloping him and to save McKittrick's life, the Rev. R. C. Allen of Grove City, Pa., cut off the leg with a pocket knife.

Are You Sick?

Much sickness is due to a weak nervous system. Yours may be. If it is, you cannot get well until you restore nerve strength Your nervous system is nature's power house; the organs of your body get their power from it. If the power is not there, the action of the organs is weak, and disease (sickness) follows. Dr. Miles' Nervine cures the sick because it soothes the irritated and tired nerves and gives the system a chance to recuperate. Try it, and see if you do not quickly feel its beneficial effect.

NEW HEIR TO $20,000,000.

Octogenarian Wants a Share of Valuable Harlem Property.

Chicago, April 2.—A fifth "heir" with President Roosevelt and others to sixty acres of valuable property in the heart of Harlem, New York city, came into prominence in Waukegan yesterday. The property is valued at $20,000,000, and it is said Hetty Green has offered $1,000,000 cash for the interests of the Waukegan heir. This rumor about Hetty, however, has not been fully confirmed.

Levi Safford, 80 years old, a patient in the Jane McAlister hospital in Waukegan, is the man who lays claim to this "fortune." The superintendent of the hospital vouches for his clear mind.

Safford's ancestors on his father's side "squatted" on the Harlem property, but for some reason these ancestors went to sleep one day and land jumpers came along and took up a residence. Safford says he has refused persistently to accept Mrs. Green's $1,000,000 offer.

MANAHAN IS DUE FOR A SETBACK

Attorney General Inquiry Into Coal Rates is Unnecessary.

St. Paul, April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Manahan, the St. Paul lawyer, and Bryan leader, who has announced his intention of compelling President Hill of the Great Northern, and R. T. O'Connor to make known the extent of railroad campaign contributions in the case of the present and past state administrations, is due to get a setback.

Manahan's plan of action was to use them as the principal witness in an application before the railroad and warehouse commission for the investigation of the coal rates and weights used in cattle shipments in the state.

The setback that is to be given Mr. Manahan and his plans came yesterday when the commission received a letter from Attorney General Young holding that the proposed investigation of the coal rate and the cattle weights would avail nothing. The right of the state to make lower rates was now in court, he held, and to make further reductions would only result in additional litigation.

In the minds of the individual members of the commission Manahan's activity is for political purposes largely and some of them are not slow in making known their belief.

THE GROCERYMAN.

Chicago News: "I've got some news for you tuls morning, Evelina," said the groceryman, as he laid his basket on the table.

"You've got more pay, I suppose," said the pretty cook, indifferently. "Or does the boss insist on your going in partners with him and runnin' the business the way it ought to be run?"

"It would be a good thing for him if he did," said the groceryman. "He don't know what's to his intrust, though. When he seen the run o' custom there was after I'd been kep' in the store for a week he'd be shakin' hands with hisself. As it is, I don't get no show. It takes me all my time deliverin' what's ordered without drummin' up any new trade gen'rally."

"It wouldn't if you didn't put in so much time gassin' with folks that want to get rid of you," said the pretty cook, severely.

"What's more," pursued the groceryman, ignoring the inuendo, "rushed as I am, I find time to boom the business once in a while. I got a new customer this mornin' an' that's the news I'd got to tell you. She's a bride."

"Is that so?" asked the pretty cook, opening her eyes. "Who is she? Is she in the red brick?"

"Naw," replied the groceryman. "She's in the flats op'sit. Robinson put me wise they was expected back an' I got in ahead of everybody. I guess she never done no kind o' housekeeping afore. She ordered——"

"Is she young?" interrupted the cook. "I don't want to know what she ordered. Tell me about her. What's her name? I wonder if it ain't somebody I know."

"Yes, she's young," replied the groceryman. "I told her I'd come from the best grocery in town and wanted to get her custom and she seen right away that it must be a good grocery if I was representin' it, so she said that was all right an' she'd jest as soon give me her trade an' a little rather. I asked her what she wanted an'——"

"Oh, hush!" said the cook. "How young was she?"

"Bout 20 or 25, I guess," said the groceryman. "She might have been a few years older or younger, I don't know. 'I don't know exactly what I do want,' she says. 'I haven't had time to think about it. I'll want some sugar an' some salt-an' pepper——'"

"Did you say she was good lookin'?" asked the cook. "What was she wearin'?"

"She's a peach," said the groceryman. "'Pepper,' she says, an' mustard. You don't keep cream, do you? I can't think what else it is I want,' she says, 'Oh, coffee an' tea, o' course.' Then——"

"Is she a blonde or a brunette?" asked the cook. "You didn't tell me what she had on."

"It was a kind of a dress," explained the groceryman.

"Smarty!" said the pretty cook.

"Then she stuck," pursued the groceryman, "Couldn't seem to think of anything else. So I says, 'You let me name over a few things, ma'am,' I says, an' she says, 'Oh, thank you so much.' So——"

"What's their name?" asked the cook. "Now you listen to me an' don't keep buttin' in," said the groceryman. "I want to tell you. I got out a pencil an' a list an' my order book an' I put in half an hour namin' things that she needed an' puttin' 'em down. An' when I got through how much do you think it come to? A hundred an' seventy-six dollars an' thirty-two cents! 'My gracious!' she says. 'I hadn't no idea it would amount up like that. I thought it would be about $20. I couldn't spend more than that.' So I had to cut it down to $20. Wouldn't that jar you?"

"There's jest one thing I've got out of all this," said the pretty cook. "She ain't more'n 20 herself."

THE SENATE STOREKEEPER.

Washington Herald: John McGrain, the storekeeper on the senate side of the capitol, knows what it means to cater to the whims and desires of members of the upper branch of congress, and his force is probably the most industrious in the big building on the hill. His position as storekeeper means that he is responible for the furnishing of all the committee rooms in the senate, and that is a big enough job for any one man, especially at this time, when senators are moving from one place to another as the result of committee changes.

Some senators prefer green effects in their rooms, and if they have just moved into a new one, that means to begin at the beginning with the furnishings. Others like red, and still others yellow, and it is up to McGrain to nd the proper rugs and the accompanying fixtures to make the room furnishings harmonize. Then there are some who prefer blue, and McGrain must have all the accoutrements that go to make up a blue room handy and ready to slip in at a minute's notice.

Senatorial "finickiness" extends even to the manner of heating too, and that means more work. There are three brands of heat on tap in the capitol—hot air, steam and open fireplace. Perhaps a senator has moved from a room where he enjoyed the crackling blaze of hickory logs to a room where the fireplace has been hidden back of a desk and the furiture dried out by steam. Then it is up to the force from the storeroom to change everything and arrange so a cheerful blaze will not only give heat but not be out of harmony with the color scheme of the room. Some prefer liquid soap, others insist upon the old style kind that can be grasped in the fist, and the work of the storekeeper extends even to the personal requirements of secretaries and clerks in the matter of typewriters.

EIGHT ARE AFFECTED

Barbers Go on Strike in Leading Downtown Shops.

Nineteen Others Sign Scale—Union Depot is Picketed.

Union barbers of eight leading downtown shops are on strike today. The trouble may extend farther, but it is hardly considered likely. All the shops are open, but in those affected there are only one or two men working, and in almost every case these men are the proprietors.

There was something of a mixup in the St. Louis shop this morning, resulting from a dispute between George Mardorf, proprietor, and one of the men as to the wages due. The dispute grew so warm that fists were employed as a means of bringing the little affair to an end, but there were no serious consequences. The quarrel had nothing whatever to do with the union, but was merely to settle a personal disagreement over money.

The strikers have established headquarters at room No. 2, in the basement of the Torrey building, and agents of the unions are watching all incoming trains, to notify any barbers who may appear that there is a strike on in Duluth, and that if they go to work it will be as non-union men. At headquarters the men in charge declared that everything was running smoothly, and expressed confidence of winning out in the end. They say good barbers are scarce all over the country, and that they do not believe the places of strikers can be filled by competent men.

The shops so far affected are the McKay, with 4 men out; the Spalding, with 3 men out; the Palladio, with 5 men out; the Lonsdale shop, with 2 men out, and the Lyceum, with 3 men out.

Proprietors of these shops held a meeting last night and signed an agreement to open their shops at 7 o'clock in the morning. The meeting was held in the Lyceum shop, owned by George Brown. These men hope to get proprietors of other shops in the city to sign. The barbers, on the other hand, have got nineteen shops to sign a paper guaranteeing that the men will be allowed to work along in future under the same conditions and the same hours, as in the past. The question of wages is not involved at all. It is merely a matter of hours.

The journeymen met last evening and today were highly indignant at a published insinuation that one of their officers had been responsible for withdrawing the union card from the Palladio shop. They say their constitution plainly states that if a man is interested in more than one shop, and trouble with the union occurs in any one, the card shall be taken down in them all. Because trouble arose in two shops in which Harry McCollum is interested, it became necessary to take down the card in the third.

A POLITICAL CONTRIBUTION

Of $500,000 Included in New York Ferries Company Deal.

New York, April 3.—The sum of approximately $700,000 involved in the Wall and Cortland street ferries railroad company deal, which has been under investigation by the grand jury, included a political contribution of $500,000 with interest made by the Metropolitan Street Railway company in the presidential campaign of 1900, according to an explanation said to have been given to the grand jury by Thomas F. Ryan. Mr. Ryan has been a witness before the grand jury in connection with this case and it was learned today that the jury soon will hand up a presentment containing an outline of Mr. Ryan's explanation of the deal. Mr. Ryan said that when it was decided that the Metropolitan Street Railway company should make a big contribution to the 1900 campaign fund a further decision was made to make it to Mr. Ryan, W. C. Whitney, Thomas Dolan, P. A. B. Widener and William L. Elkins.

There was a further understanding that they were to be reimbursed by the Metropolitan for their contributions with interest at 5 per cent. Consequently the five men sent their personal checks for $100,000 each to George J. Huhn & Sons of Philadelphia, by whom the money was paid over to the campaign committee. It is said that no mention is made in Mr. Ryan's testimony as to which political party received the money. It was two years after the contribution was made, according to Mr. Ryan, before an opportunity to purchase the Wall and Cortland company. In making the payment to Anthony Brady, by the simple method of adding five times $100,000 with interest thereon at 5 per cent for a little over two years, Ryan, Elkins, Widener, Dolan and Whitney were handed back their campaign contributions made in 1900, the amount each received, according to Mr. Ryan's testimony, being $111,000.

THE DOLMAN.

London Daily Mail: "What is the meaning," asks a correspondent, "of the garment called, I believe, a dolman—a sleeved tunic hung from the left shoulder—worn by the king of Spain at the Bourbon wedding? The bridegroom, too, I notice, was similarly overdressed." The immediate meaning of it was that the two personages mentioned were wearing the most splendid clothes they could find in their wardrobes. It signified in the second place that both of them were officers of hussars, to whom the dolman is pecular. Regarded as a historic relic, the dolman means even more important things. In a sense it means the salvation of Christendom from the hordes of islam.

For hussars were invented by Matthias Corvinus, king of Hungary, one of the great opponents of the Turk in his long struggle to break into Europe. Matthias raised a special force of light cavalry by enrolling one man out of every twenty in the villages of Hungary and "huszar" means in Magyar "twentieth."

The world has always looked to Austria and Hungary for example in the matter of light horse and hussars have come to be copied all over Europe without any thought of the meaning of the name. Great Britain, never quick to innovate, changed two light dragoon regiments to these. Along with the name the distinctive details of the busby and dolman have been copied too.

The dolman tells plainly of the Turkish wars of the fifteenth century. The Hungarian troops had borrowed from their hostile neighbors the idea of the "dolman"—the word is Turkish—a sleeved robe worn over the other garments, probably for warmth. Whether it was Turk or Magyar who conceived the idea of casting it loose and going into action with it flying picturesquely on the breeze we do not know.

The hussar's busby too is Hungarian, the bag depending from the crown being a rudimentary form of a long stuffed bag that hung from the Magyar's busby to save his head and neck from sword cuts.

MAKING ROMAN CANDLES.

The most solitary person in the world during working hours is the maker of roman candles.

He occupies an isolated cell, says the Technical World, and nobody comes near him while he is engaged in his patient toil.

The wages he gets are high, but not by reason of the loneliness to which he is condemned; he is paid for the risks he is obliged to take.

The quarters occupied by this cremite artisan are a tiny house, which might almost be called a hut, with a floor space not more than six feet square. Standing by itself, at least sixty yards from any other structure, the little building is of wood, of the simplest architecture.

If it were to be blown up, the financial loss would be almost nil—a point of some importance, inasmuch as its diurnal tenant is obliged to use considerable quantities of explosives in the business which engages his attention, for a roman candle is a sort of magazine or repeating gun, with a paper tube for a barrel and balls of fire for projectiles.

Every day all of the people who are looking for things turn to The Herald want ads. Have you anything to say to them—to the "people who are looking for things?"

Watched Demented Husband Three Days and Three Nights.

Frail Little Woman Worn Out by Sad Journey.

Hollow-eyed and weary from three nights of sleepless vigilance, an old woman, well over the 60 mark, led her white haired husband from a Northern Pacific train at the union station this morning and turned him over to a policeman to be put in the station until the 5:20 Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic train leaves tonight, when she will resume her wearisome journey. The couple are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson of Spokane, and, in compliance with his expressed wish, the woman is taking her aged, sick and demented life companion back to their old home in Michigan.

At the Central station, the frail little woman saw the feeble old man put behind the bars, where he went into spasms of restless raving and insane cries. She ministered to him until the officers assured her that he would be well cared for and then went to secure the long deferred rest. She expected to continue her journey tonight and, arriving at their old home, hopes that the familiar scenes and associations will restore the departed reason.

The couple had been in Spokane for several years with their sons and daughters. Some weeks ago, the old man, who is about 70 years of age, suffered a stroke of apoplexy and his health continued to be poor. He constantly asked to be taken to his old home and finally, the aged couple started together. That was Tuesday night. They had been on the train but a short time, when the signs of a weakened reason became more pronounced and the old man became violently insane. The little woman was constantly at his side on the long journey. Without sleep, almost without food, she arrived in Duluth this morning all worn out by the long vigil. She could not watch over her husband all day and the officers took charge of him while she could secure some rest.

FIGHT OVER BURIAL FUND

Money Collected for Funeral Purposes Causes Legal Battle.

Two Harbors Austrians are interested in a suit filed in municipal court yesterday, growing out of a fund collected for the burial of one Jovo Mikich last fall and the relief of his father in the old country.

The suit was brought by Louis Wukosov against Michael Wukosov and the sum of $233 is involved. Louis was the custodian of a fund collected among friends, when Jovo Mikich was killed in Duluth about Nov. 1, last year. He claims that $323 was turned over to him to pay the funeral expenses, erect a cross, etc., the remaining money to be sent to Mikich's father. He alleges that, after everything had been paid, he still had $90, but when Michael requested him to turn over the money to be sent to Mikich's father, he gave him $323 by mistake. He demands judgment for $233.

In his answer, Michael claims that no part of the $323 turned over to him was the property of Louis, but was part of the fund collected among Mikich's friends. He says he held $17 out to erect a cross over Mickich's grave and sent the remainder to the old man in Europe. Mike makes a counter charge that he loaned Louis $100 last October, which he has never received, and he demands judgment for that sum.

WOODSMEN SUE AGENT

Want Damages Because They Found No Work Waiting.

Joseph Johnson has filed a suit in municipal court against G. S. Richards of the National Employment company, in which he seeks to recover for himself and five companions for damages he claims they incurred by being hired by Richards for a job that did not exist.

Johnson alleges that on Nov. 4, last, he, Matt Mattson, John Simonson, William Johnson, Andrew Nylund and Carl Matgon were engaged by Richards to go to a point on the Alger-Smith road to work at tie-making for R. R. Haughtarling. He says they paid their fares to the camp, and, arriving there, were told that Richards had no right to hire anybody for Haughtarling, and they were not given work, being compelled to pay their fares back to Duluth.

The complaint alleges that Richards refused to give them redress and Johnson sues for $60, the other claims having been transferred to him.

GETS ENDLESS CHAIN LETTERS

Duluth People Get Communication From Religious Fanatic.

Several Duluth people have received communications within the past few days from some person supposed to be a religious fanatic, and they are very indignant that the mails are being used for the purpose. Although the communication conveys in no way a threat, it is of a nature that causes the recipients much annoyance, and determined efforts are being made to detect the writer. The letters are of the "endless chain" variety, and contain a prayer said to have been sent to Bishop Lawrence with the recommendation that it be sent to nine other persons.

The letter says that "he who will write it for nine days, commencing on the day it is received and distributing it to nine different persons, sending only one each day, on the ninth day will experience some great joy." One of the requirements is that the letter must have no signature attached. Bishop Lawrence denounced the prayer and the sender.

STRENUOUS TIME FOR TAFT IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 3.—Secretary Taft will arrive in Chicago late this afternoon to enter on a 36-hour endurance encounter with Chicago hospitality. Before he leaves town tomorrow night he will have made six speeches, attending six formal banquets and luncheons, and fulfilled a series of engagements which he has pronounced in advance "fine, if I am able to live through it."

STEEL MEN OPTIMISTIC CONCERNING FUTURE.

New York, April 3.—Almost without exception the steel manufacturers, who met in this city last night at a dinner given by Chairman E. H. Gary of the United States Steel corporation, expressed the opinion that there has been a gradual though slow improvement in business, according to a statement made by Mr. Gary today. He said all those present at the dinner were optimistic concerning the future. Mr. Gary said that no one was requested to express an opinion concerning prices and very little was said on that score. He added, however, that so far as he knew there has not of late been any disposition on the part of any of the steel maket to change prices.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., ITALIAN GETS A SECOND BOMB.

Rochester, N. Y., April 3.—For the second time in six weeks, a bomb has been exploded by the "Black Hand" at the home of Frank Di Maria, a well to do Italian, here. Six weeks ago a bomb placed under the front porch of Di Maria's home half wrecked the building. At 4:30 this morning a second bomb was exploded under the side of the house and beneath the bedroom of Di Maria. The bomb blew in the windows and crushed the cellar wall. Five members of the Di Maria family were asleep at the time. No one was hurt. Di Maria had received the usual threatening letter from the "Black Hand." The explosion marks the tenth bomb in this city in the past year.

SUPERIOR NEWS

Turns Over Tax Rolls.

The delinquent tax rolls were turned over by City Treasurer Hunter yesterday to the county treasurer for collection. Out of nearly a million dollars of taxes, there are only $113,300 delinquent. The delinquents will have to pay the county treasurer an additional 5 per cent penalty.

Independent Candidates File.

Yesterday was the last date for the filing of nomination papers by independent candidates for the coming municipal election in Superior, and quite a number of candidates for ward offices visited the city clerk's office. George Penn wants to be supervisor in the Fifth ward. Albert Moores seeks a similar place in the First ward, Jason D. Clark wants the job as justice of peace in the Second ward and George Cominskey will run for alderman in the Eighth ward.

Sportsmen Will Dine.

The annual meeting and banquet of the Douglas County Game, Fish and Protective league will be held at the Commercial club rooms, this evening. The banquet will be served at the Rossiter hotel. The members will discuss matters in connection with the campaign to be pursued for the preservation of game.

Inspected Route.

Members of the state railway commission, with Chief Engineer Pence, are said to have been in Superior and made a trip over the proposed route of the Soo road, previous to the hearing, which has just been finished in Madison relative to the proceedings brought by the railway company to secure an entrance into Superior. The other railroads, with tracks on Rice's Point, are seeking to prevent the Soo road from establishing any crossings in that part of the city.

Baltimore, April 3.—Commander George W. Roche, U. S. N., retired, died at his home in this city last night.

THOSE WHO HAVE PASSED BEYOND

Berne, Switzerland, April 3.—James Jeffrey Roche, the American consul at Berne, died here this morning after a long illness. Mr. Roche was appointed to Berne in April, 1907. Previous to that he was American consul at Genoa. Mr. Roche was born in Ireland in 1847 and was appointed from Massachusetts. He was a poet and author of considerable note.

St. Paul, April 3.—Dr. Chester C. Higbee, for thirty-four years a prominent physician of St. Paul, died at 12:15 o'clock this morning at the age of 73. He was well known in G. A. R. and Loyal Legion circles.

St. Louis, April 3.—H. D. Miller, superintendent of terminals at St. Louis for the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad, died yesterday from infection caused by eating shad roe which is said to have been diseased.

New York, April 3.—Benjamin Curtis Porter, the portrait painter, died yesterday at his home in this city. He had been ill a year.

THE TARIFF IN 1908.

Senator Beveridge, whose progressive and public-spirited ideas The Herald has often admired in spite of the fact that his reactionary enemies make sport of his boyishness, said these things about tariff revision to the Indiana Republican convention:

> Two years ago some of us began this fight. We were met with arrogance from those who think the world does not move; from interests whom the tariff properly protected when it was made but whom changed conditions now enable to act like highwaymen to other honest interests; from a purchased press owned by gluttonous corporations and by men whose wealth flowed from obsolete schedules.

It is necessary to take issue with one feature of these sentences, while admiring the spirit that actuates them as a whole.

We are not aware of any "interests whom the tariff properly protected when it was made, but whom changed conditions now enable to act like highwaymen." We know of many interests that act like highwaymen, but we know of none that have been given power by changes that have occurred since the Dingley crime was committed. These interests were never "properly protected." The schedules which they secured from a purchased party are the only changes that gave them the power to become commercial highwaymen.

No "gluttonous corporations" have been formed to deal in commodities that were "properly protected." Proper protection would never permit the creation of commercial highwaymen. Proper protection, according to time-honored terms of Republican tariff platforms, covers the "difference in cost of production at home and abroad," or the difference in wages at home and abroad. It was designed to protect American workingmen from competition with products made by cheaper foreign labor. That was the theory, but the Republican party, in practice, never paid the slightest attention to it. It has never even taken the trouble, probably, to figure the difference in labor cost. It has accepted campaign contributions from interested corporations, and then, through the good offices of its Cannons, its Dalzells, its McClearys and its Tawneys, it has given these corporations whatever "protection" they desired. They had bought it and paid for it, and they got it. It must be admitted that the Republican party has dealt fairly with its financial supporters.

So instead of schedules covering the difference in labor cost, we got schedules so high as to absolutely prohibit competition from abroad. These provided, the interests that had bought this protection proceeded to stifle competition at home by the usual trust methods. This is the history of the creation of the "gluttonous corporations" of which Senator Beveridge speaks. There have been no "changes in conditions" except those that iniquitous tariff schedules brought about.

This is the evil of the tariff. The tariff is the mother of trusts, and the Republican party is the long lost father. This must be thoroughly understood in order to judge of the good faith of the party in its declarations for tariff revision; and the parentage of the trusts must be also thoroughly understood in order to judge whether or not Governor Johnson is right when he says that the tariff is the "paramount issue" of 1908.

HIGHER MEAT PRICES.

It is hardly fair for the meat trust to impose sharply higher meat prices upon the people of this country just when the encouragement of easier living conditions is needed to make things go again.

Of course the trust, as usual, is amply supplied with excuses. It is a very chilly day when the meat trust can't think up plenty of excuses for raising the price of meat. Apparently it employs a corps of very ingenious thinkers for this one purpose alone. This time the story goes that there is a shortage of live-stock. Last fall the meat trust was paying so little to stock raisers that they could not afford to ship their cattle to market. During the winter they were forced to dump their cattle on the market, and prices went down. Now it is easy to claim a shortage, while at the same time the meat trust is feeding out of its refrigerators the meat bought at the cheap prices of last winter.

Apparently there is but one protection for the public. That is to realize that people as a rule eat more meat than is good for them anyway, and that the proper thing to do now is to cut down the consumption of meat in proportion to the increase of prices, so that the monthly meat bill will be about the same as before. This can be done in the average household to good advantage, and the result will be better health, a more varied diet, and more economical living.

If the meat trust can artificially create a shortage of meat supplies, the public can, if it wishes, create an artificial over-supply by refusing to consume its customary amount.

The trust is powerful and ruthless, and no other remedy seems to present itself.

DECREASE IN TUBERCULOSIS.

Though tuberculosis is still waxing in strength and the ferocity of its appetite for human life in most places, curiously enough recent statistics show that in England a marked decrease in its ravages is in progress.

Deaths from tuberculosis in England have fallen, according to these statistics, from 54,918 in 1853 to 30,746 in 1907. The death rate from this disease per 10,000 has fallen in the same period from 29.8 to 11.5.

These figures are from a recent government report, and are therefore to be relied upon. The theories that have been advanced to account for the change take no account of improved hygiene. One is that the people are becoming immune to the disease, and the other is that the tubercule bacillus is itself undergoing an evolution which is stealing its virulence. The latter theory is not wildly improbable, since the same thing has happened in this country to the germ of smallpox, though in this case vaccination is given credit for the change.

Another curious fact is that while the disease has been decreasing steadily in England and Wales, it has in the same period been increasing very rapidly in Ireland.

The fact that the disease is decreasing in virulence in one country will be no comfort to the unfortunate individuals in other countries who find themselves afflicted with the dread disorder. To them, however, other statistics bring comfort, and these are found in the increasing percentage of cures since the vital facts about consumption were discovered. The knowledge that it is contagious points the way to curbing its spread. The knowledge that it is not hereditary, as was once supposed, dissipates senseless dread. The knowledge that it is curable if taken in time brings hope where hopelessness once held full sway.

Broadly speaking, if every citizen of every community in the world knew just what to do and did it, consumption could be utterly wiped out of existence in less than a generation. The knowledge of what to do exists, and the only thing remaining is to spread that knowledge, together with information about the benefit and relief to be gained by heeding it.

Dirt, foul air and insanitary living are the friends of tuberculosis. Cleanliness, fresh air and sunlight are its bitter enemies. If there were no unclean places, no foul rooms where the air is stagnant, there could be no consumption.

Side by side with precautionary measures against the disease must go measures for its cure. It should be remembered that where there are no complications, where the case is taken in time, where the patient is kept in the fresh open air and given plenty of sunlight, nourishing food, sleep and freedom from anxieties, there is no excuse for a death from consumption. And since hygienic conditions will kill consumption, there is no excuse for its existing at all.

THE WORK TEST.

In all the charges made by the police and the News Tribune against the bread line and the generous people that have supported it, the only one worthy of real consideration is the claim that these men will not work if they have a chance.

The morning paper, showing its characteristic dislike of the man who is unfortunate enough to be poor, has pictured the bread line as an array of crooks and loafers, going from the saloons to the Bethel and avoiding employment offices where glittering opportunities for work are offered. This morning it said that "there is work now for all who will work." The truth is that the employment offices are not offering any amount of work, and that the supply of jobs is still far below the supply of men.

But in order to make sure that the undeserving are eliminated, a consummation that is devoutly to be wished in the interests of those who are deserving, the Bethel authorities have adopted the plan of requiring the men to work for their breakfasts. Each man will have to labor in a woodyard in order to earn his meal ticket. This will result in cutting out the loafers.

Nobody wishes to support those who are idle by choice. The object of the bread line is to care for men who wish to work but who cannot get work. The Bethel authorities have been guided in this matter by the noblest motives, and so have those who contributed the money that has made the bread line possible. They have no desire to foster pauperism. They aim merely to help honest laborers to keep body and soul together during the dark interval of non-employment.

The work test should solve the problem of eliminating the loafers. It will at the same time relieve the beneficiaries of the bread line from the degradation of being compelled to accept charity when it is work that they ask.

And those who will not work should be driven out of town immediately.

RECEIVERSHIP LOOT.

During five months the Knickerbocker Trust company of New York, which closed its doors during the panic of last fall, was in the hands of three receivers.

Lately it was released from its receivership, and opened for business again.

The court allowed the three receivers $75,000 each for their trouble, besides correspondingly large attorneys' fees.

It is not surprising to hear, after this, that the superintendent of banking of New York has recommended that the old style of receiverships be done away with, and that insolvent banks shall be placed in charge of deputies of his department who shall be paid regular salaries for the work.

The expense of receiverships in this country has become a shameful scandal. It was utterly impossible for the receivers of the Knickerbocker Trust company to earn the compensation allowed them by the court, which was at the rate of $180,000 a year each. It amounts simply to looting the resources of the trust company with the connivance of the courts.

It is related that the attorneys for the receivers, in demanding this sum for their clients, dwelt upon the generosity of the receivers in not demanding 5 per cent upon the amount of money handled by them, which would have amounted to a great deal more than the $225,000 that was paid. In view of the remarkable rate of pay that was allowed them by the court, the marvel is that they did not demand all of the bank's resources as compensation, and that the court did not compromise by giving them half.

The court, however, announced that the sum allowed was less than the receivers had earned, and less than they could have claimed under the statutes. The court is wrong in its first statement, since they could not have earned what they got. It is right in its second statement, but the statute itself is grievously wrong.

The suggestion of the New York superintendent of banks appears to be a good one. It would throw much responsibility upon the department of banking, and would increase the need of care in selecting its chief and its subordinates, but it would certainly obviate the shameful spectacle of trust funds being looted under the guise of law and with the approval of the courts.

The liquidation of a banking institution is a very important function. It should be put into the hands of capable, expert and honest men, who should be paid a fair price for their services. But to put it into the hands of men who will consent to receive an unfair portion of the money that belongs to needy depositors is to outrage justice and make the courts a cover for looting helpless creditors.

If state banking departments are properly constituted, this work could be as well done by them, and far more cheaply.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

"Sueing with stars, or how I assisted in the overthrow of villainy," might be the title of the experience of P. A. Cosgrove, who is at the Lenox. In his college days Mr. Cosgrove did the "Long Live the King" yell, with heavy pressure on the rising tempo, for many of the stars that visited Minneapolis. Finally he was promoted from the ranks of the javelin bearers to the position of head super. In this position he was compelled to get out and rustle for noble Romans.

Many times Mr. Cosgrove was obliged to get men to fit the armor that was carried by a star. If the armor had been built on the model of a bowlegged man, Mr. Cosgrove in the capacity of official recruiter for the stage army would be compelled to look until he discovered a man with legs with a marcel wave. Or, if the original soldier, whose palpitatings heart under the glossy armor, happened to be a stury one, with a billowing chest, then it was up to the head super and official recruiter to go forth and from the many prospective spear carriers select one upon whose shoulders the armour would rest snugly.

In his position of head javelin heaver and official recruiter Mr. Cosgrove assisted at the big yell act for McCullough, Kean, Warde, James and others. His training as a college rooter stood him in excellent stead when it came to yelling outside of the Roman cities. It's a nice looking wager that the ancient Romans would have beat it to the highest vantage points of the seven hills, had a bunch of college rooters started to "Rah, Rah" in the midst of an October evening. It was for this reason that Mr. Cosgrove always selected as many college students as possible. When they started to advance upon the enemy it seemed as if there were thousands in the ranks of the stage army.

So in this way Mr. Cosgrove got a nearup view of the ranting, strutting, but effective Thomas Keene in the part of Richard the III; the less robust, but more calm Frederick Warde in many parts; the jovial Louis James, he of the stage asides and funmaking proclivities; and the only John McCullough in his immortal part of Virginius. John McCullough possessed a voice that would fill the largest valley ever set forth in a land company's prospectus, its rumbling base notes hurling out over the footlights, but when the college chorus started their Romanized "Rah, rah," the actor had to advance to the front stage to make himself heard above the drowning vocal waves of the student soldiers. Mr. McCullough was invariably hoarse after he left Minneapolis and its legions of college Romans behind.

In this way the stars were ably assisted by the big and effective mob entry, while the students of the immortal band were staked to a few "ham ands" to put a little steam into the mental energy with which they might pursue the mid-night studies of famous tragedies. It proved a most effective arrangement for all parties concerned.

J. T. Ingersoll, the commercial traveling man whose trunk containing about $500 worth of pure yellow metal for the plugging of aching crevices in the teeth of worried citizens was stolen, is back at the St. Louis. The trunk was rudely plucked from in front of the St. Louis hotel upon the last trip Mr. Ingersoll made Duluth. This time he has become cautious and rode on the same wagon with the trunk, from the depot to the hotel and saw to it that it was safely deposited within the safe confines of his room. He is taking no more chances with the bold and reckless methods of Duluth property annexers.

A porter of the Hotel Lenox has become a most earnest student of international law. Some one told him the other day that a law was to be passed by congress whereby all aliens were to be sent back to their native country. The porter at once became alarmed. He consulted whatever authority he could lay his hands upon. While shining shoes he eagerly questioned customers as to the phases of the question. He informed some one that a distant relative of his was a policeman in this city, and if worst came to worst he might enlist his assistance in the solving of the knotty problem. At the present time he is still worried, but is still devising schemes to thwart the big deportation act.

A Millionaire Radical.

Springfield Republican: Robert Hunter, whose connection as a Socialist agitator with the Union square meeting of unemployed in New York has given him a new kind of fame, has for ten years been engaged in excellent work connected with public charities and sociological research. He studied tenements and slums in Chicago and poverty in New York, wrote a book or two, married a daughter of the New York millionaire Anson Phelps-Stokes, and gradually advanced through sociology into Socialism along with his brother-in-law, J. G. Phelps Stokes, who appears to have kept out of Saturday's Union square muss altogether. Messrs. Hunter and Stokes are regarded in New York as the leading "parlor Socialists" of the city. They are, indeed, notable cases of young men reared in great wealth turning into extreme radicals, and the future may have a story to unfold with such persons in the center of it.

THE WEATHER.

This morning dawned clear, and the air was crisp and fresh with a lingering touch of yesterday's cold associated with a prophetic hint of tomorrow's warmth. It was moderating rapidly. Last night's lowest temperature was 14 degs., and the weather man looks for rising temperatures tonight and tomorrow, accompanied by partly cloudy conditions.

A year ago today it was showery.

The sun rose this morning at 5:43 and sets tonight at 6:40, making 12 hours and 57 minutes of sunlight.

Says Mr. Richardson of conditions: "The barometer has fallen and the temperature has risen throughout the Northwest, while in Gulf states and most districts east of the Mississippi a rise in pressure has been attended by lower temperature. Some rain or snow fell over the lake region, New England, the Lower Mississippi valley and Texas during the past twenty-four hours, largely due to barometric depressions centralized off the New England coast and over Mexico. The Wyoming high pressure area has moved to Southern states, while the Alberta disturbance has increased in strength. This low pressure in connection with the Southern high barometer and the easterly movement of both, favors more or less cloudiness and milder temperatures in this locality tonight and Saturday."

Following were last night's lowest temperatures:

Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Duluth, April 3.—Local forecast for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Saturday: Duluth, Superior and vicinity, including the Mesaba and Vermillion iron ranges—Partly cloudy and warmer weather tonight and probably Saturday; southerly winds.

H. W. RICHARDSON,
Local Forecaster.

Chicago, April 3.—Forecasts until 7 p. m. Saturday: Upper Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota—Fair and warmer tonight; Saturday increasing cloudiness and warmer.

North Dakota—Partly cloudy tonight, and Saturday; warmer tonight.

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

Virginia Enterprise: The intimation by John Saari that he would not turn down another call from his legislative constituents meets with the approval of the boys of the range press—and the range press usually has something to do with making others think likewise. It is therefore probable that Mr. Saari will be among the favored ones. He has served two terms, and his record is his recommendation.

Browns Valley Tribune: We can see trouble ahead for that "Bryan Volunteers" club in Minnesota, in case the Platte orator should be elected. There are now twice as many "Volunteers" as there are federal positions to fill in Minnesota.

Fairmont Sentinel: Not a Democrat in all Minnesota, so far as we are able to learn, has a thing to say against Mr. Bryan. They have loyally followed him through two great campaigns to defeat, and will be quite willing to follow him to one more, but they would prefer to support a man as candidate in the campaign whose name spells victory.

Ogilvie Sentinel: Governor Johnson's boom for the presidency is assuming alarming proportions—so far as Mr. Bryan is concerned—and is becoming more and more inflated as the days roll by. Evidently, there'll be a "hot time in the old town" of Denver next July, and don't forget it, either.

Fertile Journal: Europe does not like us, says an Eastern banker who has returned from there. However, it likes our heiresses and that's no aerial pipeogram.

Thief River Falls Press: With Johnson out of the race for a third term, there is no such a thing as naming the candidate of either party for governor this year, and neither seems to be burdened with strong material.

Anoka Union: If the Hon. C. B. Miller of Duluth can carry St. Louis county against J. Adam Bede, he's the man.

Hibbing Mesaba Ore: The modifying of political party lines has brought the gum-shoe into great prominence in Minnesota.

Brainerd Tribune: Jacobson seems to be leading Ed Young several lengths in the gubernatorial free-for-all. Time for your Uncle Joe Heatwole to get into the game and give the boys a few pointers in practical politics.

Albert Lea Standard: The bishop of Buffalo advises single women to pray for husbands. While he was about it, the bishop might have advised the married women to pray for theirs, too.

Anoka Union: The gubernatorial aspirations of Joel P. Heatwole makes some of the politicians sit up and take notice. Joel's platform is a corker and will find favor with the masses.

The Last Straw.

When a miserable moisture permeates the atmosphere.
And snow with rain is mingled and the skies are gray and drear;
When a solitary robin that was singing on a limb
You know lies frozen somewhere in the wilderness so grim;
When the patter of the rain is all that breaks the dismal hush
Of the world that has become a vast, unbroken sea of slush;
When you shiver all impatient for the mercury to climb,
Then a neighboring piano plays "The Good Old Summer Time."

Dallas News: The Republicans in congress seem to look upon their president with the kind of awe and affection man holds for his mother-in-law.

Burning Issue in Emporia.

Emporia Gazette: What position is Mr. Taft going to take with reference to the question of permitting chickens to run at large?

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Taken From the Columns of The Herald of This Date, 1888.

Fred Voss yesterday tendered his resignation as clerk of the municipal court, and G. H. Holden was today appointed by Judge Martin to fill the vacancy. Mr. Voss has found that the duties of city treasurer do not permit him to keep the other position.

Fielder B. Chew, formerly of the law firm of Brown & Chew at Morris, Minn., has located in Duluth.

Mrs. Charles F. Howe and child returned today from Lake View, Ill., where they have spent a large part of the winter.

O. G. Traphageen has the plans completed for the new city hall on East Superior street, and they will be submitted to the board of public works in a few days.

The lease of the Paige-Sexsmith sawmill by Scott & Holston to L. D. Stocking and others will probably be signed within a few days. It is expected that about 8,000,000 feet will be cut at the mill this seaon.

O. G. Traphagen's plans for the new schoolhouse at Oneota have been accepted by the board. The building will be of brick, two stories high, and will cost about $10,000.

At the city council meeting last evening, Mayor Sutphin announced the resignation of John K. Shaw as a member of the board of fire commissioners, and the appointment of John Flynn to be his successor. Aldermen Armstrong and Costello were appointed member of the board of health. The appointments of F. B. Daugherty and W. B. Fuller to the offices of fire commissioner and city engineer, respectively, were confirmed. On motion of Alderman Swanstrom, the salary of the city treasurer was increased from $1,200 to $1,800 a year.

J. L. Carey to Bannerman & Haug, lots 6, 7, 8 and 9, block 93, Portland, $5,000.

S. H. Rothermel, Jr., to J. O. Burger, lots 5 and 9, block 71, Portland, $3,600.

A. S. McKinley to Barney Trimbo, lot 351, block 74, Second division, $3,000.

F. L. Anson to H. G. Benson, lot 60, East Fourth street, First division, $2,700.

O. L. Young to Marion Douglass, lot 60, block 3, Third division, $500.

C. F. Smith to R. H. Patterson, lot 3, block 72, London, $600.

L. Nelson of Minneapolis is in the city looking for a suitable location for a tailoring establishment at the West end. He will put in a $5,000 stock.

The office of assistant trainmaster on the St. Paul & Duluth line, heretofore held by Mr. Burnett of St. Paul, has been abolished.

Willard A. Robertson, formerly connected with the Duluth Elevator company at West Superior, has severed his connection with that firm and will become advertising agent for a Chicago publishing house.

"JOHNSON OF MINNESOTA."

Indianapolis Times: Governor Johnson's statement of his position in the present campaign does him great credit. He says that he will make no campaign for the nomination, and that he does not believe that any one ever should make a campaign for the presidency. In this he is right, though the principle is one that we have all but forgotten. If the Democratic party and the country want Governor Johnson, either as candidate or as president, he will respond. Further than this the governor says that he is not a candidate "against" any one, and that he is not to be used simply for the purpose of defeating Mr. Bryan. Here, again, he is right. If there are those who think that he is qualified for the place, they are at liberty to support the governor if they choose to do so. It really looks as though the Democratic party were getting together again, and on a pretty sound and sensible basis. The more one hears of the Minnesota governor, the more does one admire him. He is a man of courage and principle—and also of sound political sense.

Calumet, Mich., News: Governor Johnson will accept the nomination for president if the Democrats at the Denver convention want him for their candidate. The governor does himself credit in what he says. He is dignified and careful and his announcement has the ring of sincerity. The Minnesota governor has a host of admirers throughout the whole country who believe him to be one of the nation's strong men. He will lose none of his popularity by the frank, dignified manner in which he says that he will not refuse the presidential nomination if his party wants him to lead in the coming campaign. The true Bryan man should be the first to approve of what Governor Johnson says.

Roseau Region: If Johnson should start in and tour the country as does Bryan, he would be the democratic nominee for president with no one else in sight at the end of the race.

Rochester, N. Y., Union and Advertiser (Dem.): The Johnson brand of Democracy is of the sort that the country needs. It is sufficiently radical for all practical purposes, and yet is safe and sane.

Milwaukee Sentinel (Rep.): The nomination of Governor Johnson—a new man with a shining record and an attractive personality who is probably stronger than Bryan in debatable Northern states, and who might carry the Republican state of Minnesota—is a contingency for Republican party managers to be seriously concerned about.

Philadelphia Ledger (Ind.): Governor Johnson's guarded and moderate statement of his willingness to be considered as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination—not for the purpose of defeating Mr. Bryan or any other man, but as a means of revivifying the party as a great national organization—ought to infuse a new ray of hope and spirit in the ranks of the Democracy.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch (Dem.): Mr. Bryan's personal character is good, but it is no better than Governor Johnson's. Governor Johnson has been through the fire of important public office. Mr. Bryan has not enjoyed that distinction. Governor Johnson is held in high esteem today by men of all parties than he was a year ago, two years ago or four years. He has stood the test. No test has yet been applied to Mr. Bryan except that of the polls, where the results were far from satisfactory.

Hibbing Tribune: Mr. Bryan says that he is not a candidate, but he has his suspicions that John A. Johnson is.

Grand Rapids Herald-Review: The Duluth News Tribune in its opposition to Johnson will get so far committed to Bryan that it cannot recede with credit to itself.

Johnson as a Rallying Point.

Philadelphia Public Ledger: It is because Governor Johnson's declaration opens the way for that free struggle for men and policies within the party that it assumes a significance. It is wholly problematical whether Johnson can at this late day rally to his support the Democrats who are now unwilling followers of the Nebraskan in sufficient number to secure for himself the prize at Denver; but if he shall do no more than win enough delegates under the two-thirds rule to rescue the party from Bryan and the despair which his continued control will bring, he will have performed a great public party.

Present conditions in the minority party are such as to justify grave anxiety for the future of the system of party management of nation affairs. Without the maintenance of a strong and united party of opposition, powerful enough to hope for victory, the country is in constant danger of that multiplication of minor parties, each pledged to some specific policy or scheme of administration, which has complicated the legislative procedure of France and Germany, and which is already threatening to revolutionize parliamentary procedure and traditions in Great Britain. Governor Johnson will at least serve the purpose of a rallying point for the Democrats who preserve the old ideals of the party and who hope for a standard-bearer other than Bryan.

Dispersion of the Overcrowded.

New York Sun: Recent building statistics contained in various departmental reports seem to justify the belief that the problem of decentralizing population in this town is in a fair way of being solved. They prove that a notable dispersion of residence construction has already been achieved, and by disclosing what sort of people have been least benefitted by the dispersion suggest special measures of relief on their behalf.

"No; that is the reason her managers are taking a cue from nature."

"In what?"

"In featuring her face."

Chicago Tribune: The street car conductor was about to sit down to breakfast, when a messenger boy brought him a telegram announcing that a rich relative had died and that he was the sole heir.

"Easy street!" shouted the conductor, reaching for an imaginary bell rope.

Puck: Mrs. Fogarty (in fashionable restaurant)—Now, for goodness sake, Mike, don't order Irish stew.

Mr. Fogarty—All right, I won't dear. Waither, fetch me ayther some Hibernian Suey, or Celtic Goulash!

Philadelphia Press: Tess—Bess doesn't seem so quick to deny her age as she used to be.

Jess—No, she's gotten very stout lately.

Tess—What had that to do with it?

Chicago Tribune: "I wish," said the revivalist, "Brother Grimshaw wasn't quite so strong on doctrinal points. As fast as I bring people into the church he tries to put them out of it for heresy."

Baltimore American: "It is queer that the ladies' tailor we just met, who makes a specialty of gowning young girls, is such a favorite with the society debutantes."

"Why is it queer?"

"Because he gives all his 'bud' customers a miss-fit."

Harper's Weekly: "I tell you, Binks, what that boy of yours needs is a thoroughly sound thrashing."

"I don't believe in corporal punishment."

"What? Do you mean to say you never whip that boy, Binks?"

"No-o," replied Binks, after some hesitation. "That is never except in self-defense."

"Prince" de Sagan.

Philadelphia Record: It would be difficult to find the words which would adequately express the burning contempt with which the decent people of this country must contemplate the demoralizing spectacle presented by the affairs of a certain divorced American woman just returned to New York from France and the man who has followed her here in the apparent hope of securing for himself the position from which a titled relative has just been cast by the courts. Even the title which he bears, although the citizens of a republic which has long repudiated all such class distinctions, adds to the ignominy of his performances, dragging that which should be an indication of some nobility of character and station into vulgar notoriety.

SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

CLOQUET TO BE STRONG

Sawmill Town Fans Show Rising Enthusiasm Over Baseball.

In Accord With League Plan and Will Send Representative.

Cloquet is to be right in line with the other towns in the vicinity of Duluth with a fast semi-professional baseball team for the season of 1908. At a recent meeting held in the sawmill town, the club was organized and plans laid for the season. James O'Neil, manager of the club, was chosen to represent Cloquet at the meeting of managers next Sunday. If the league scheme goes through, Cloquet will be in on the deal.

Cloquet earned a big spot on the independent baseball map last year, when it had one of the strongest semi-professional nines in the district. This year the management has started out early, and when the teams get on the field, Cloquet will be ready to cope with any of them. Most of the men who were on the team last year are still at Cloquet, and with reinforcements to the squad, a fine nine will be picked.

It is believed that most of the managers will respond to the call for a meeting here next Sunday. The probability that a large number of games may be played in Duluth during the summer, and that there will be a sufficient number of strong teams to make up a good league, even if Hibbing and Virginia do not get into line, appeal to the managers, and they will be on hand to talk things over. Should the league plan fall, they will close with each other for dates during the season.

CENTRALS BEAT THE COLUMBIAS

Postponed Match Played in Duluth City Bowling League.

In a postponed match last night in the Duluth City Bowling league, the Centrals won two out of three games from the Columbias. Mitchell of the Centrals rolled the high score of 257 and also secured the high average of 199.

Wednesday night, the Oak Halls won three straight games from the Centrals Roberts of the Oak Halls rolled the high score of 240 and Massey of the same team got the high average of 214.

The Fitwells and First National bank five will meet tonight. The Fitwells have a lead of but one game over the Bankers and there is a possibility of a tie resulting from tonight's match, or the bankers may break into the lead with three straight victories.

Following are the scores of last night's match:

Centrals.

GOTCH IS FAVORITE.

Duluth Wrestling Enthusiasts Interested in Big Match.

Interest is being taken in Duluth in the Gotch-Hackenschmidt wrestling match to be pulled off in Chicago tonight. Considerable money has been wagered here, with Gotch the favorite, although Hackenschmidt's admirers are by no means shy in putting up their coin. Local sports figure that Gotch's superior knowledge of the game should gain him the victory.

A number of enthusiasts left last night for Chicago to see the match. Among them are James Bird, Joseph Kenney, J. D. Campbell, Orin Brown, Patrick Cassidy and Marvin O'Donnell. Walter Burkhart, who left for Chicago to buy furniture for his new hotel, will also see the bout.

Athletics Beat Students.

Philadelphia, April 3.—The Philadelphia league team defeated the University of Pennsylvania nine yesterday by the score of 9 to 3.

Easy for Chicago.

Sioux City, Iowa, April 3.—The Chicago American league team No. 2 yesterday defeated the local Western league team by a score of 11 to 0 in the first exhibition baseball game of the season here.

That Winnipeg is intended to be the financial backbone of the Northern league for the season of 1908 is evident from the schedule published yesterday. Duluth loses its position as a ready-coin producer, and the Canadian city takes down all the medals. The drawing powers of Sunday baseball in the United States are passed up in the face of Winnipeg's week-day attendance, and the men who wear uniforms in the Northern league this season will adhere almost absolutely to the Canadian blue laws regarding Sunday baseball. They have many quiet Sabbaths in Winnipeg and Brandon before them, and a no-Sunday ball clause in any contract would hardly injure a Northern league team.

An analysis of the schedule shows that there are seventeen Sundays between May 14 and Sept. 7. Of that number, eight will be taken up with games on the Duluth lot and only six at Fargo. On every other Sunday the teams will be across the border. Of the Duluth Sunday dates, Brandon gets three, Fargo four and Winnipeg but one lone Sunday—July 5, the day following a holiday double-header. Winnipeg's single appearance here on Sunday is a sort of equalization, in view of the fact that the Maroons will appear in double-headers here both Memorial day and the Fourth of July.

Winnipeg will play seventy games at home and only forty-three on the road. Duluth fares better than the other two towns in home games, with fifty-nine to fifty-seven abroad; Fargo playing forty-nine at home and sixty-four abroad, to Brandon's forty-nine at home and sixty-three abroad.

The Canadian holiday dates are fairly well divided between Duluth and Fargo, in appearing at Winnipeg. Fargo gets Victoria day, May 24, this year, and Duluth is down for a double-header Dominion day, July 1.

The league has probably adopted a system of equalization of transportation expenses. The American teams make four trips to Canada, while the Canadians will cross the border but four times, giving Fargo and Duluth over 1,000 miles each more travel than the Canadian clubs. The system is necessary, in order that Winnipeg may have its large number of home dates and all of the Canadian holidays may be taken in.

Although the fans may have some complaint on account of the small number of Sunday dates here, the schedule committee has certainly done its work well for the interest of the league. The swinging of a circuit of four clubs like the Northern league is quite a problem. Errors in the schedule might mean financial disaster, and the owners cannot afford to encounter that, after two seasons during which they verged on bankruptcy. Winnipeg is a corking good baseball town. The fans turn out there in greater number for many week-day games than they do here on Sunday. It is necessary for the success of the league that the Manitoba metropolis be given all the home games that can consistently be swung to it, and the committee has done so.

Baseball is a business proposition. It is necessary to get the crowds to support the game, or no league can live. The schedule, as adopted, is about as good as could be drafted, looking at it from the viewpoint of the managers and fairness on the part of the fans, and only inferior ball and unforeseen contingencies could bring about the wreck of the league in the middle of the season.

Tonight, George Hackenschmidt and Frank Gotch will meet at Chicago, and the catch-as-catch-can wrestling championship of the world will be decided. The entire country is astir. Wrestling has gone through many hardships. Fake promoters and fake wrestlers have time after time threatened to kill the sport entirely by their bungling attempts to pull the cotton over the eyes of the sporting public. The interest in the sport, when played on the square, was too great to be downed by temporary reverses, and the game still lives.

Tonight's meeting is to be between probably the two greatest specimens of physical manhood and strength ever to get together on the mat. Gotch and Hackenschmidt are both giants. They are both well endowed with brawn and muscle. Hackenschmidt is probably the stronger, but Gotch is better versed in the game. Regardless of which way a man may point the indicator in picking his winner, his calculations are liable to be upset. If the match goes through to a finish without a hitch, and one of the men is returned a decisive winner, it will be the biggest boost the wrestling game has had in America in years. Should anything happen to throw a chill on the enthusiasm of the spectators and the enthusiasts who will watch for the results by wire, wrestling will be laid low and ill not recover for years.

The small number of Sunday dates allotted to Duluth by the Northern league schedule is the biggest boost for the semi-professional league scheme, which has been agitated during the past few weeks, and to discuss which a meeting has been called for Duluth next Sunday. The Duluth members of the proposed league can get Athletic park under advantageous terms for the Sundays on which the Northern league club is away. There are hundreds of fans, unable to attend week-day games, who will demand satisfaction of their natural love for baseball, and the semi-pros will put up a good article of ball. With the dates cinched in advance, the Duluth teams would be in a position to go through a successful season, and the league could take down some money in Duluth and figure prominently in the local baseball field.

Company E Wins.

The new Company E indoor baseball team brought into the field with a flourish last night, defeating the Naval Reserves by a score of 3 to 2. The Company E battery worked in great shape. Baumgartner pitched steady ball, and the catcher showed up in picking men off at second base on attempted steals. The game was enjoyed by a large crowd. Company E is ready for other games, and will probably meet the other militia nines in turn.

LAST GAME OF SERIES

Noon and Night Class Teams to Meet at Basketball.

Committee Will Decide Tie Between Deighton and Horak.

STANDINGS OF THE TEAMS.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Horak's	9	6	.600
Deighton's	9	6	.600
Noon	7	7	.500
Night	4	10	.286

The last game in the Y. M. C. A. Basketball league series will be played tonight, when the noon and night class fives will meet. The result of the game has no bearing on the possession of the cup, nor the standing of the teams, as the noon class has third place cinched and the night class is in a hopeless last place.

The disposition of the protest of the Horak team against the forfeiture of last Friday night's game to Deighton's class will decide the championship of the league. Should the decision be in favor of Horak, his team will take the cup without a struggle. If the forfeiture is declared valid, the teams will still be tied and another game, or a series, will be necessary.

There is a disposition on the part of the members of both teams to throw out the whole proceeding and play the game. The game was scheduled and it is said Horak notified Deighton at a late hour, that, on account of the inability of some of the members of his team to appear, he would be unable to play. Deighton held that the game should be played as scheduled and it was forfeited to him, Horak promptly filing a protest with the basketball committee.

The committee will take up the matter at a meeting to be held today or tomorrow. Should the game be played, the best Deighton can get is a tie, while a victory by Horak would give him undisputed possession of the cup.

The sensational spurt by Deighton's team and the consequent downfall of the Horak five added interest to the league race and the controversy over the leadership is attracting attention in association circles.

READY FOR BIG MATCH

Hackenschmidt and Gotch Will Go on Mat at Chicago.

Interest in the "Science Against Strength" Feature.

Chicago, April 3.—With the selection of Edward W. Smith, sporting editor of a local newspaper, as referee, arrangements for the world's championship wrestling match here tonight between George Hackenschmidt and Frank Gotch were practically completed yesterday. The big Dexter Park pavilion in the stock yards, where the bout is to be held, is ready for the throngs that are expected to attend the contest and both contestants pronounce themselves fit to put up a hard struggle.

The match is of especial interest to followers of wrestling, not only because the world's championship is involved, but also because the styles of the two men differ materially. Hackenschmidt has always been known as a man of terrific strength and he wrestles along lines calculated to give him every possible advantage from this fact. Bar locks, neck and head holds have always been favorites with him.

Gotch, on the other hand, is unusually agile for a man of his bulk. He is taller than Hackenschmidt, but is built on only slightly less powerful line. He has perfected a toe hold, which none of his opponents thus far have been able to withstand and in addition has a thorough knowledge of grapevines, crotch holds, full and half Nelsons and other twisters. The match is therefore expected to be in some respect a contest of science against strength, of speed against might.

Four or five minor bouts will be decided before the contestants in the big match are called to the mat. These will be started early in the evening and it is planned to have each decided by one fall, thus doing away with an undue delay in starting the championship struggle.

WANT ROLLER POLO HONORS

Kelley and Lincoln Park Teams to Meet Next Week.

The Kelley Hardware and Lincoln park roller polo teams will probably get together next week to decide the roller polo championship of the Head of the Lakes. Both have defeated the strongest teams in Duluth and Superior, and the championship honors rest with them.

The Lincoln park team is the older organization and has been playing steadily all winter, while the Kelleys have only been in the field two weeks. Three members of the Kelley team were members of the old Northern five, which held the championship of the city last year, however, giving the Kelleys a call to play for championship honors.

The Kelleys' victory over the Treadwell team of Superior by a score of 9 to 0 at the Temple rink Wednesday night was a big boost for the stove jugglers. They will meet the Pease team at the Temple rink next Monday night and expect to repeat their performance at Superior last Monday night, when they won by a score of 3 to 1. The series with the Lincoln park boys will follow. One game will be played at each rink, and if a third is necessary, the place will be selected later.

GOLF TOURNEY ENDS.

Allard Lord of Washington Successfully Defends His Title.

Pinehurst, N. C., April 3.—The eighth annual united North and South amateur championship golf tournament ended yesterday with 36-hole finals in all divisions, Allan Lard of the Columbia Golf club, Washington, D. C., title holder, defeating John E. Porter of the Allegheny County club 5 up and 4 to pay, in the battle for the championship trophy.

FIRST TESTIMONY IN THE VANDERBILT CASE.

New York, April 3.—The first testimony in the divorce suit of Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt against her husband, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, which was filed in the supreme court Wednesday, was taken yesterday before Referee David McClure. Howard Kempster, the personal valet of Mr. Vanderbilt, was the one witness called. When the hearing was adjourned none of those interested would talk for publication, but it was admitted that the evidence and recommendations of the referee probably would be in the hands of the court before Mr. Vanderbilt reaches the other side on the Mauretania.

DUSTY ROADS AND DISEASE

The Two Are Synonymous, Says Dr. Cushman of Washington.

Where Roads Are Good Children Are Well Cared For.

Washington, April 3.—"I have noticed that wherever I see bad roads I invariably see neglected, unkempt, unwashed children. If I travel along a good road I see children well cared for. I do not say that one thing directly follows the other, but they undoubtedly go together. A community that is negligent of its roads will be negligent of its children, and a community that is negligent of its children will not produce good citizens, nor above all things will it have a high standard of public health."

That apparently long distance observation on cause and effect was recently voiced by Dr. Allerton S. Cushman, assistant director of the office of public roads of the United States department of agriculture, at a meeting of the American Public Health association.

Dr. Cushman was asked yesterday to justify the statement.

"It is, I think, justified by a day spent in a motor car in any country section," said he, "and, insisting as I do on the condition, I think it has a bearing on the question so frequently asked by unthinking Americans: 'What possible relation can there be between the public road and public health?'

Dirt and Dust Mean Death.

"If the medical men of the world know what they are talking about, the relation is intimate. Dirt and dust mean disease. Cleanliness and sanitary surroundings work for a better citizenship. The relation of science to mundane things is evident, if one will use even a percentage of the powers of deduction which Conan Doyle gave to Sherlock Holmes. Science holds in her archives a delightful little story which well illustrates my purpose.

"It is related that at one time the flavor of the famous Staffordshire cheese had departed and a splendid industry was endangered. Sir John Lubbock, the great naturalist, made a prolonged investigation and finally reported to the farmers that in his judgment the best restorative measure possible would be to import a great number of cats and set them free in Staffordshire.

"Naturally the unbelieving scoffed at the antidote, for they deemed the suggestion ridiculous. They asked a reason for so extraordinary a prescription.

The Cheese of Staffordshire.

"'The peculiar flavor of the Staffordshire cheese comse from a hybrid clover which formerly grew here in great abundance,' said Lubbock. 'The bumblebee is the one means of cross-fertilizing that clover. The field mice have increased very rapidly in numbers of late and they are destroying the nests of the bumblebees. If you can destroy the mice, the bees can work on that clover, and Staffordshire cheese will soon be as good as ever. Get cats, therefore.'

"I don't vouch for the story," continued Dr. Cushman, "but I indorse it for its power of illustrating the delicate equilibrium which, under our complex civilization, exists between the public health and public utilities.

"Nobody will deny that the 2,150,000 miles of public roads of America constitute the national dust factory and furnish fully 90 per cent of the dust we inhale. The delicate breathing apparatus of the human body was never meant to harbor such substances as every passing breeze blows from the thoroughfares, and the percentage of people dying from diseases carried by dust is higher than is generally believed.

When It Means Money, We Listen.

"The American becomes a skeptic when you confront him with a proposition which, to him, is akin to the 'cats of Staffordshire.' If he doesn't understand what you are talking about, he assumes that you don't understand it yourself. He finds dusty roads a menace only when it is brought home to him that they cost him money. That was demonstrated to the orange growers of California a few years ago, when dust-covered fruit no longer commanded so high a price as when free from dust. The result was an aroused interest in road improvement and in dust suppression.

"Appeals on the score of cleanliness and good health never stirred the Californians, but a slump in the price of oranges brought about a wonderful era of activity. The outcome was gratifying, and California soon had dustless oiled roads.

"If then, as doctors say, dust means dirt; dirt means disease, and disease means death, dusty roads have no place in our national economics."

IS BOY "JACK-THE-RIPPER?"

Youth Arrested in Berlin Calmly Confesses to Atrocious Crimes.

Berlin, April 3.—A youthful "Jack the Ripper" has been arrested by the Berlin police, in the person of a 16-year-old boy named Kut Keller. He was caught in the act of attacking a little girl. At the police station the boy admitted this and other similar crimes, both on small girls and boys, several of whom he had threatened with the knife. His confession roused the suspicion that he might be the murderer of the little 5-year-old girl, Elsa Mielke, who was stabbed and killed in Berlin two months ago. Keller admitted his guilt complacently, and described the circumstances. He shows no sorrow, but rather seems to enjoy his notoriety.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

A great many blood medicines contain Mercury, Potash, Arsenic or some other strong mineral. These ingredients act unpleasantly and often dangerously on the system by affecting the stomach and upsetting the digestion, and sometimes do great damage by eating out the delicate lining and tissues of the body. No such results ever come from the use of S. S. S. This great medicine enjoys the distinction of being the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood remedy on the market. It is made entirely from the extracts and juices of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks of the forests and fields gathered under our own supervision. In the treatment of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Skin diseases, Blood Poison, and all blood diseases and disorders S. S. S. is a safe and efficient remedy. It removes from the blood all impurities, humors or poisons, and safely as well as surely cures all ills and ailments due to a bad condition of the blood. For more than forty years S. S. S. has been recognized as the best Blood Purifier and the Greatest of all Tonics. We have books on the different blood and skin diseases which we will be glad to send free to all who desire them, and will also furnish any medical advice wanted without charge.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

KILLED HER WITH STICK

John Mooney, Wealthy Wright County Farmer, is Being Tried

At Buffalo for Brutal Murder of His Wife Near Waverly.

Buffalo, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—John J. Mooney of Waverly, said to be one of the wealthiest real estate dealers of this state, Wright county, is on trial here for his life. He is charged with the murder of his wife last summer, the state claiming he killed her with a stick of wood. In a sense he is said to be a self-confessed murderer, as it is claimed he made a confession shortly after the killing. Because of the man's wealth and his prominence in this county the trial is attracting no little attention. He is defended by two of the ablest criminal lawyers in the state, who are contesting every bit of evidence of a damaging character introduced. It is expected that the plea will be temporary insanity.

The woman's death was one of the most brutal in the annals of this part of the state, and public sentiment is strongly against the accused.

The homicide occurred at noonday and was the outcome of an unhappy union in wedlock, the couple having often quarreled previous to the killing.

The victim's death was effected by the use of a heavy stove stick, with which her head was laid open. Following the attack Mooney called up William Quinn, a Waverly business man, on the telephone and told of his act, saying it was the result of a quarrel. This confession will play an important part in the prosecution's case.

It seems, though the couple had not been on good terms for some time past, the immediate cause of the man's attack was that his wife had neglected to have the noonday meal ready and the prisoner is said to have admitted the fact.

TRAMPS SEIZE N. P. TRAIN.

Overpower Crew and Ride to St. Cloud Where They Are Ejected.

St. Cloud, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—An army of seventy-five tramps took possession of a Northern Pacific freight train, a few miles this side of Minneapolis, on Monday night, and were in command until the local police butted in at the station, in this city. It appears that a large number of the unemployed gathered in the Minneapolis yards and saw that there was little chance for them to get a ride west, so they stayed in small numbers. An organized gang was gotten together, who walked about four miles west of the Mill city. Here they held up a freight train and had things their own way. The train crew, outnumbered ten to one, was powerless, and had to carry the gang as far as this city. When they arrived in St. Cloud, Agent J. K. Cooling was informed of the holdup. Mr. Cooling immediately called the police, and Officer Brick put the men to rout.

When he arrived at the Northern Pacific station he found nearly 150 tramps waiting for trains west. The local lockup is too small to accommodate such a number, so it was thought best to make them keep on going.

CASHIER WAS WISE.

Looked Up Signature and Found Check for $250 Forgery.

Little Falls, Minn., April 3.—What looked like an attempt to pass a forged check for $250 was foiled Wednesday by Joe Moeglein, cashier of the Merchants' State bank.

A mysterious looking woman, wearing a black veil, came to the cashier's window and asked to cash a check of $250 in the account of Judge E. F. Shaw of this city. Her appearance excited suspicions, and Mr. Moeglein looked up Judge Shaw's signature card and found that it did not correspond at all to the signature of the check.

THE TRUTH ABOUT KIDNEY TROUBLE

Kidney trouble is inflammation of the kidneys, due to colds, exposure, worry, excesses in eating and drinking, etc.

Backache is seldom an evidence of inflammation of the kidneys.

Smokiness or sediment that can be seen with the naked eye are not usually evidences of a very serious stage of the inflammation. Both often show in people otherwise well and commonly disappear with the exciting cause.

The patient should diet, avoid colds and live carefully, and the ordinary case of kidney trouble will, with care and treatment, usually disappear the first few weeks.

If it persists, or there should be continued evidence of disordered kidneys, it should demand the attention of the patient, in view of the position taken by medical writers that about the sixth month the inflamed condition becomes chronic and incurable.

It will be seen through all the above that the real trouble is inflammation in the kidneys. While there are many kidney stimulants, they have been abandoned by physicians, for they now know that none of them carry repair to inflamed kidneys.

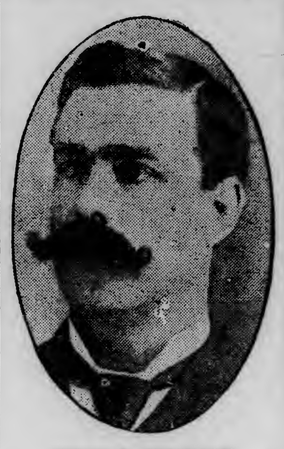

The late John J. Fulton was the first man in the world to discover an emollient that reaches the kidneys.

It reverses the old treatment. Instead of irritating the inflamed kidneys with stimulants, the effect is the gradual reduction of the inflammation and for the first time kidney disease, both in the first and second stages, is amenable to treatment, Fulton's Renal Compound abating the inflammation in about 87 per cent of all cases.

Mr. Moeglein turned to the telephone and called up Judge Shaw, but while he was doing so, the woman quickly disappeared.

Mr. Moeglein followed her. She stepped into the Hub Clothing store. There she took off her veil and put it into a bag that she carried, and when Mr. Moeglein got by the door, she went out again. He notified the police and a search was made at the depot, but she could not be identified, although a woman answering to her description was found at the depot. She denied that she was the party and proof was not strong enough.

DIES AT BRAINERD.

Miss Hazel Cole of Glendive, Mont., Passes Away.

Brainerd, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Hazel Cole, sister of Miss Mabel Cole, a nurse at the Northern Pacific hospital, died at the hospital Wednesday after suffering terrible agony for several days. Miss Cole was about 17 years of age and made many friends during her brief visit here previous to her being taken sick. She was the daughter of Mrs. M. H. Dickinson of Glendive, Mont., to which place the remains were taken by her sorrowing mother and sister. Another sister, Miss Minnie Cole of Minneapolis and other relatives are expected to accompany the party to Glendive. Mr. Dickinson, the stepfather of the deceased, is also on his way to this city from Glendive.

SEVERAL NEW CHURCHES

Recently Established in Northeastern North Dakota.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Several new churches have been established in Northeastern North Dakota by Rev. Mr. Waaler, Presbyterian missionary for this section. The list includes Bathgate, Neche, Hamilton, Leyden, Walhalla, Inkster, Forest River and Osnabrock. New pastors have been assigned to the churches, and will soon take up the work. The assignments follow: Rev. Mr. Smith, Greenfield, Ind., at Forest River; Rev. Mr. Jones, Greenville, Ohio, at Inkster; Rev. Mr. Stubbelhine, Canton, N. Y., at Bathgate and Neche; Rev. I. S. Simpson, Chicago, at Osnabrock.

WHITEFISH BAY FROZEN

Far as Can be Seen, But Other Places Are Getting Open.

Marquette, Mich., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The reports of the ice conditions from the regular and display stations of the weather bureau indicate that there are large fields of ice, broken up and moving with the wind, over the western, central and eastern portions of Lake Superior. The ice in Whitefish bay remains solid and extends beyond vision. The ice in St. Mary's river remains solid along the shore, but has been weakened and in some places opened by the current in the channel. Hay lake remains solid, and heavy loads are crossing from Sugar island to the mainland. The ferries began crossing at Sault Ste. Marie on the 26th.

The ice in Green bay remains firm. In Lake Michigan the ice is confined to the northern portions, from the Manitou Islands to the straits. The ice at the straits has been strengthened during the past week by the continued cold weather and a solid field extends eastward from Mackinac island about five miles. In Lake Huron the ice fields are broken up, moving with the wind, and confined to the northern portion. The ice in Saginaw bay is broken and open water is reported. The St. Clair river is open, and the steamer M. Sicken with tow passed up from Marine City to Port Huron on the 28th. The last of the ice ran out of Lake St. Clair on the 28th, and the Detroit river is clear of ice.

WOODMEN ELECT DELEGATES

To State Meeting to be Held in Mandan, May 6.

Larimore, N. D., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Grand Forks county convention of the Modern Woodmen of America was held here yesterday and every lodge in the county was represented. W. L. A. Calder was chairman of the meeting and N. Hillzerd was secretary. The following committees were named: Credentials, Dr. W. F. McManus, John Ness and Joan Uffelman; order of business, George Robbins, T. F. Mooney and W. A. Pickett; resolutions, James Coulter, C. H. Fodness and Edgar L. Richter. R. C. Spriggs and M. W. Day were elected delegates to the state camp in Mandan May 6 and J. E. Turner and Dr. W. F. McManus were chosen as alternates.

FREDERICK E. RICE DEAD.

Northwestern Superintendent of Pullman Company and Known Here.

St. Paul, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frederick E. Rice, superintendent of the Northwestern division of the Pullman company, and formerly district superintendent in St. Paul, died yesterday at his home in Chicago, after an illness of some months. He was 55 years of age.

Mr. Rice was stricken with a paralytic stroke Dec. 28, while at work at his office in Chicago and a short time later underwent a severe operation which yielded only temporary relief. He was in St. Paul for the last time a few weeks ago, but was not able to leave his private car while in this city.

Mr. Rice was for several years in charge of the Pullman company's business in St. Paul, and was well known to railroad men throughout the country.

Mr. Rice is survived by his wife, formerly Mrs. Turnbell.

Mr. Rice was one of the oldest employes of the Pullman company, having been in its service for nearly forty years at the time of his death. He was beloved and esteemed by the employes, especially those under him, the conductors and porters with whom he came personally in contact.

The funeral will be held from the former residence of Mr. Rice, 322 Summit avenue, on Saturday at 3:30 p. m., Rev. Dr. John Wright of St. Paul's Episcopal church officiating. The remains will be escorted to Oakland cemetery by Paladin Commandery, Knights Templar, and placed in a vault.

IT CAUSES MUCH COMMENT.

Order of President Van Hise Ordering Segregation of Sexes.

Madison, Wis., April 3.—The attitude of President C. R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin in advocating segregation of the sexes in the class rooms at the university is arousing deep interest on the part of alumni and friends of the institution in all parts of the state, and is the subject of animated discussion both in and outside of university circles. The question promises to become one of the most important which has arisen in connection with the university in years. There are about 2,500 men and 800 women students in the university.

SEEKS FINANCIAL BALM FOR LOSING WIFE'S LOVE.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 3.—The trial of the case of Sanders R. Reed against B. S. Brynjolfson, to recover damages of $25,000 for the alienation of the affections of Mr. Reed's wife, is on trial here. The plaintiff is a Great Northern conductor and resides at Devils Lake. There is much interest in the case on account of the fact that Brynjolfson was a leader in the Democratic ranks for several years.

MAY 8 DESIGNATED AS WISCONSIN ARBOR DAY.

Madison, Wis., April 3.—State Supt. C. P. Cary is sending out to the public schools copies of the Arbor and Bird day annual of 1908. The book was compiled by State Library Clerk O. S. Rice, and contains 112 pages of highly interesting matter. The cover is highly artistic and was designed by Clara Eyron of the Milwaukee Art Students' league. On page 2 is Governor Davidson's Arbor and Bird day proclamation, designating May 8 as Arbor and Bird day this year.

FARGO WOMAN BUYS BLOCK IN THIEF RIVER FALLS.

Thief River Falls, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—In consideration of $15,000 cash, the new brick block known as the Baker-Wilcox block, extending around the First National bank in the form of an L, was sold this week to Mary Brunette of Fargo, N. D. The property has a frontage of twenty-five feet on Labree avenue and extends the same distance on Third street. The lower floor is occupied by the Robertson Bazar store, while the second floor is divided into flats that rent for a handsome amount. Mr. Baker, who sold the property, still thinks the block a good investment, but having removed to Ogema to make that place his permanent home, wished to have all his holdings in one place.

MORE STATIONS CLOSED BY THE GREAT NORTHERN.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Great Northern Wednesday closed the stations at Manvel, Harwood, Kelso, Backoo and Union. The company has planned to close the stations at Bartlett, McCanna, Dresden and a number of other points, but decided finally to keep them open. Residents in the vicinity of many of the towns had vigorously opposed the action of the company. It is stated that the station of Manvel is closed only temporarily. It will be re-opened at an early date, it was given out on good authority last night.

TRUSTY PLEADS GUILTY TO MAKING JAIL BREAK.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Bruce entered a plea of guilty in the district court yesterday on a charge of escaping from the county jail. Bruce had been a trusty and left when he had only three days to serve. He was captured two weeks later. Judge Templeton sentenced him to five days in jail and gave him some good advice.

STATE IS TEMPORARILY WITHOUT FEDERAL JUDGE.

St. Paul, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Minnesota is temporarily without a federal district judge. Judge William Lochren, whose resignation was sent to Washington Monday, considers that he has retired from the bench and will not preside at further judicial proceedings or do further judicial acts. Judge Page Morris, the other Minnesota district judge, is in Arizona.

Judge Page Morris is expected back from Arizona early next week. Tuesday, April 7, is the first day of a federal term of court and Judge Morris will be on hand to call the term calendar.

HOTEL ST. REGIS, NEW YORK

America's Finest Hotel

COMFORT WITHOUT EXTRAVAGANCE

"It is difficult to imagine a more delightful place in which to live than the St. Regis, New York." This was the expression of one who has been a frequent guest at this famous Fifth Avenue hostelry during the three years of its existence. It is the universal sentiment of all the thousands who have happily enjoyed its hospitality.

For particular people there is no place like the St. Regis. There is an indefinable something about its service and its refined interiors which imparts comfort and restfulness and makes one feel at home. Its beautiful interiors might be duplicated in other creations for public entertainment, but the peculiar charm of attractive, yet unobtrusive ministration so characteristic of Hotel St. Regis is one which guests do not soon forget, and which is found nowhere else in so high a degree.

When you next visit New York make the St. Regis your home. By so doing you will add greatly to the pleasure of your stay. You will also realize that the silly reports once current about exorbitant charges and multimillionaire exclusiveness have no foundation.

The cost of living at the St. Regis is no greater than at the other first-class hotels, and, considering its exceptional accommodations and service, it is even less. This is shown by the fact that a beautifully furnished room of large size may be had for $4 a day, or the same, with private bath, for $5 a day (or for two people at $6 per day). Parlor, bedroom and bath from $12 upward. The restaurant charges are no higher than elsewhere.

AMUSING ANECDOTE

How Premier Clemenceau of France Made Room for Friend.

His Own Appointee Declared to be "Nigger" and Removed.

Paris, April 3.—A rather amusing anecdote concerning M. Clemenceau, the premier, is just now going the round of the press. Clemenceau wanted a snug little "sous-prefecture" to offer to one of his followers, and he summoned the director of this department to find him one.

"Monsieur le President, je n'ai rien," said the functionary.

"I don't care. I tell you I must have a sous-prefecture; bring me your list," retorted Clemenceau. After consulting the administrative document he suddenly exclaimed, "What's that?" putting his finger on a name.

"That, Monsieur le President, is a promising young man you yourself appointed as sub-prefect not long ago."

"Why, grand dieu! he's a nigger," said the premier.

"Oh, M. le President, not a nigger; only a white man rather bronzed."

"He's a nigger," insisted Clemenceau. "Impossible for a nigger to administrate Frenchmen. Revoke him at once; transfer him to the colonies if you can. I don't object to niggers in the colonial administration, but not in France. This sous-prefecture is now vacant and available for the person I wish to appoint to the post."

The sacrificial "nigger," it appears, is still waiting for a berth in the colonies, but in reality he is no more "nigger" than Clemenceau is himself.

Combes After Official Again.

M. Combes is bestirring himself and is trying to reconstitute the "bloc" with a view to a return to office when M. Clemenceau and his cabinet have had their day. M. Juares, who has been very active of late, is resuming his alliance with him, and the Temps, at the conclusion of an article on the subject, says: "It is for the Radicals to consider whether they are weary of their independence and would fall again under the horrible yoke under which they all groaned at the end of M. Combes' ministry, without being able to rid themselves of him."

At Meudon a theoretic Socialist and communist, well known about the middle of the last century, M. J. B. Beluze, has just died in poverty and oblivion. There was a time, however, when Beluze had acquired a considerable notoriety as an advocate of communist colonies in different parts of the world. He was the son-in-law of Cabet, the author of the "Voyage en Icarie," who established the first communist bureau in Paris in 1848 and in fifteen years sent some 3,000 communists to the Icarian colonies on the Mississippi.

Beluze is also said to have been the leading spirit in the attempt to found an Icarian colony at Cheltenham, Eng., which failed, and afterward he devoted his whole time to proselyting in favor of workmen's productive corporations.

Curiously enough, Gambetta and M. Clemenceau were both members of an association which he founded during the third empire, and, while they both reached success as well as fame, he has died in obscurity.

Tobacco Statistics Shown.

When Jean Nicot, who represented Frances II. at the Portuguese court in 1559, sent a packet of snuff to Queen Catherine as an infallible specific against headache, he little dreamt of the popularity that the fragrant weed would eventually attain in his native land.

Statistics of the consumption of tobacco in France in 1906 are now out, and they show that during that year nearly 907,040,000 cigars of French manufacture and 15,500,000 of foreign fabrication were smoked in this country. As for the packets of tobacco also sold, they would if piled together, have constituted a huge block, each side of which would be 47 yards in length. And all this without prejudice to the 2,500,000 kilogrammes of cigarettes disposed of in the same year.

Who would not invest his or her little all in the millinery business? It seems that the present fashions in ladies' hats have brought a prodigious boom in the trade. One milliner has coined money to such an extent last autumn that on New Year's Day she distributed $19,000 in presents among her hands.

Her leading employe draws a modest salary of $11,000 a year. The reason of the boom is the modern woman's need not only of expensive hats, but for many of them. It appears that almost every hour of the day calls for a different hat. What is worn at a tea party at a private house will not do for tea in a tea shop.

Beethoven Hats a Necessity.

The hat that suits a classical picture show would be hopelessly wrong for an impressionist exhibition. At concerts the millinery depends upon the program, and there are Claude Debussy hats, as there are Beethoven hats, and Richard Strauss hats and hats for orchestral music, and hats for chamber music. There are also special hats for M. Jules Lemaire's lectures on "Racine," now drawing all Paris, and different hats for the different plays, about which he lectures. An expert swears that for Racine's one comedy Les Plaideurs "choux" and "ruches" were the thing, while when M. Lemaitre lectured on the tragedy o. "Andromaque," all the women with the right taste wore Gainsborough.

There is always some way out of a difficulty, and a lady has suddenly discovered one solution of the theater hat problem, which is original, even though it is not likely to be universally adopted. A gentleman sitting in a stall behind her groaned at the presence of her headgear; others who smpathized with him, joined in the protest, and soon a chorus of varied sounds went up around her, much to the annoyance of the lady. Suddenly she came to a determination, and deliberately taking off her hat, she placed the "picture thing" on the groaner's knees behind her. His breath, it may be supposed was taken away by the lady's deliberate action, as he groaned no more, and attentively nursed the sacred trust on his knees till the first act was over, when the lady took back her hat, with thanks, and put it on. At the opening of the second act she was about to hand her headgear to the man behind her, as she had done in the first, but he was gone.

A CHURCH FOR SMOKERS.

Atlantic City to Have One Where Also Coats May be Shed.

Atlantic City, N. J., April 3.—Religious services exclusively for men in which the congregation will be privileged to smoke and divest coat and collar if desired is an innovation planned by the Rev. Sydney Goodman, assistant rector of the Episcopal church of the Ascension.

The church for men is to be conducted in the new parish hall recently erected, adjoining the church in Kentucky avenue. The auditorium has seating capacity for 350 persons. Services are to be held immediately after the regularly Sunday evening service.

A moving picture show will afford entertainment. Mr. Goodman feels that many men who refrain from attending church services by reason of embarrassment due to the presence of the fair sex will take advantage of the opportunity to listen to religious topics expressed in a practical manner.

O'BRIEN STARTS

To Washington to Ask Rehearing in Rate Injunction Suit.

St. Paul, Minn., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Attorney T. D. O'Brien, who assisted Attorney General Young before the United States supreme court in the recent Minnesota railway case, left for Washington last night and carried with him papers in an application which he will make to the United States supreme court for a rehearing in the commodity rate injunction suit. He will also ask the court to explain its decision in detail on the ground that some of the points are not quite clear as to the state's position in the matter.

While the rehearing will be asked for, Mr. Young, however, said that, if it could not be secured without unusual delay, the whole thing would be dropped and the original sit thrashed out on its merits in the federal district court.

SCHEME OF BLACKMAIL

In Which Miscreant Tried to Carry Out Hideous Threats.

Lives of Millionaire's Sons at Munich Were Threatened.

Berlin, April 3.—A diabolical case of blackmailing, in which the miscreant attempted to carry out his hideous threats, is reported from Munich. A few weeks ago a manufacturer-millionaire, named Wilhelm Ludovici, received a letter, in which he was summoned to leave $30,000 at a spot afterwards to be indicated, and to intimate his willingness to do so through the advertising columns of a local paper. The communication continued:

"You will now, I assume, hand this letter to the police and have me arrested when I go to get the money. In the latter you would not succeed, but you would nevertheless experience the following: To convince you of the seriousness of the matter I would first kill one of your children, and do it with means of which you have no idea, and against which there is no protection. Then I would again address to you my demand for money, but this time require two million marks ($500,000). If you remained stiff-necked I would cause another of your children to follow the first, and each time demand a million more, till your resistance was broken. Take care of your eyesight in case you should lose it. Escape from this doom is impossible for you and yours. You may have yourself watched by detectives. In vain. You may leave Munich, but I will follow you. Even if I should be caught, that would be nothing to me. No one is executed now, and jail has no terrors for me Experience gives wisdom, and as a rule one evil experience is enough. Take care that you do not recognize in the corpse of your first murdered child how foolishly you have acted. But then it will be too late, you will not know another peaceable hour, for every moment you may expect another Job's message, whereas now by payment of a trifling sum you escape it all. It rests with yourself to chose what form your life shall take."

This letter, which was written with the freedom of a cultured man, bore the signature Josef Meier. Herr Ludovici, who is generally known to be particularly devoted to his three boys, regarded the document as on a level with other crazy applications of which every notoriously wealthy man is the object and said nothing about it. He also paid no attention to a further letter, in which the writer announced that the death sentence of his first son had fallen.

One evening last week, however, as two of the millionaire's sons were returning from school to their father's villa in the suburb of Bogenhausen, they were followed by a couple of lads of some 12 to 14 years of age, who as soon as they reached a lonely spot, rushed at them and attempted to empty bottles of vitrol over their heads. Luckily, the plan failed, only one of the boys being touched on the back of the neck by a drop of the acid, flung away the bottle, wrapped in cloth, as he ran.

Herr Ludovici, of course, now informed the police of what had occurred, and they inserted a trap advertisement in the Press. The villain who had planned the outrage, however, evidently smelt danger, and failed to appear at the appointed rendezvous. Meanwhile he had written to the now anxious millionaire, informing him that the attack had merely been intended to show that his threats were to be taken in earnest. The police have discovered that a few days ago a man of whom an exact description has been obtained vainly attempted to persuade some lads playing in the street to throw what he called "salt water" over the boys, whom he would point out to them. Herr Ludovici's children are no longer allowed to go out unattended.

Mint in a Cell.

To turn a prison cell into an amateur mint and circulate false coin therein manufactured direct from the scene of his captivity was the brilliant idea of a convict at Rendsburg. For some time the police of the Schleswig town had been much puzzled by the prevalence of spurious 5-mark pieces, the source of which it was impossible to discover. At length the mother-in-law of a prison warden was detected in the act of trying to pass two of the fraudulent coins. She denied, however, all knowledge of how she had come into her possession, and a watch set on the house of her son-in-law revealed nothing of a suspicious nature. But one of the detectives had the happy idea of having himself confined in jail as a supposititious prisoner. In the dead of night, as he sat in his solitude pondering over the problem, his attention was suddenly aroused by a strange tapping in a neighboring cell. Slipping out quietly, he peeped through the observation window of the door from behind which the sound seemed to come, and, to his astonishment, saw a convict and a warder hard at work with a very complete smather's plant.

It appears that the prisoner, who was in for coining, had corrupted the guardian and induced him to bring his instruments to jail from their hiding place. He had then initiated him into the mysteries of his craft, and they had set to work together, while the warden's wife and mother-in-law placed the product of their labors on the market.

New Dramtic Star.

Herr Waledmar Muller, the ex-detective commissary who resigned from the police force recently because the fugitive bandit, Herr Friedberg, did not respond to his "open telegram" inviting him to come home and give himself up, is hailed today as a new dramatic "star." His play, "Regine Hellmuth's Geschaeft," which was produced at the Friedrich-Wilhelm theater, not only scored a great popular success, but receives the unanimous praise of the critics.

Taking the apparently prosaic theme of the state railway commission, with the unromantic atmosphere of the time tables, Herr Muller has constructed a play which in the opinion of the critics justifies the expectation of clever work from his pen. The new piece, which bristles with "situations," is a severe attack on the cold-blooded rigor of the bureaucratic railway management, which results in sending to prison the engine driver, the gray-haired veteran hero, with a long record of good service, as punishment for a fatal railway accident. The author is thought to have found inspiration in his own career for the character of the engine driver, who is represented as suffering mental tortudes in consequence of his excessive devotion to duty.

Prophecy Proved Fatal.

How much mischief can be wrought by fortune-tellers is shown by the melancholy fate of Auguste Reltzenstein, a young Vienna ballet dancer, who had come to Berlin hoping to find employment. The girl had been unsuccessful in her efforts in this direction, but had formed an acquaintance with a decorative artist, which rapidly ripened into a tender relationship. In an evil moment she consulted a fortune teller, who informed her that before reaching the age of 23 she would shoot herself in consequence of the infidelity of her lover. This dismal prophecy preyed upon her mind and cast a shadow over her love affair. Finally she bought a revolver, with which she journeyed out daily to a suburb to practice shooting, in preparation for her destiny. Yesterday she paid a visit to her lover, and after loading him with reproaches for his imaginary treachery, pulled out the revolver and shot herself through the head.

HAT MONEY FOR CHURCH.

Women of a Missouri Town to Forego Easter Bonnets.

Chillicothe, Mo., April 3.—Several dozen women, members of the First Methodist Episcopal church in this city, have shown their devotion to their church in a unique manner. They have agreed to forego that article, the Easter hat, in order that a church debt of $700 may be paid.

A year ago the Ladies' Working society of this church took upon itself a debt of $700 for the church. The debt is still in existence, and the leaders of the society have been at their wits' end as to the best means for raising it. Recently one of the society members hit upon the plan of asking the members to put the money that they expected to spend for Easter hats into a fund to pay off this debt.

Drawing up a list pledging its signers to such a promise, she first signed it and then took it to other members of the society. The proposition was a severe test on the loyalty of the women to the church, but they were equal to the sacrifice. Many of them signed the list and thus agreed to give up the cash that would have been spent for a "Merry Widow" for the purpose of paying off that long-standing debt.

The result is somewhat hard on the millinery stores, but it is quite gratifying to the church officers. The women who have thus pledged themselves are expected to go to church Enter Sunday bareheaded and show to the other members of the congregation who those are who have made the sacrifice.

Whether the brethren will arise to the occasion by giving up the spring "darby" for the same purpose remains to be seen.

RAISULI WON'T GO ON STAGE.

Is Holy Man and Rejects London Hippodrome's Offer.

Tangier, April 3.—The attempt to lure the brigand Raisuli from his mountain fastnesses, in order that he might have the privilege of entertaining English music hall audiences has failed, as everyone knew it would, except apparently the management of the London Hippodrome, who sent a representative specially to him with what is described as an enticing offer to the famous chieftain to do a "turn" on the boards. Mr. Trussell, the Hippodrome envoy, has cabled to announce that, with the lamentable stupidity which characterizes the colored races in their dealing with philanthropists of the music hall manager type, Raisuli has actually refused to discuss his terms. In fact, Mr. Trussell, after going all the way to Tangier, is surprised to find that Raisuli is not, after all, the kind of savage which he and his management believed him to be. In a letter to the Hippodrome people he says:

"Raisuli is not the man we think, but a very high and important personage, a holy man, chereef of the family, and in the direct lineage of the prophet. So that you will understand a certain man in high position saying to me: 'Why do you not ask Abdul El Aziz, the sultan, to come to your theater; it would not be more absurd?' Raisuli is, moreover, a very learned, very religious man, and passes his time in religious exercises, devotions and studies."

WINS MOST PECULIAR BET.

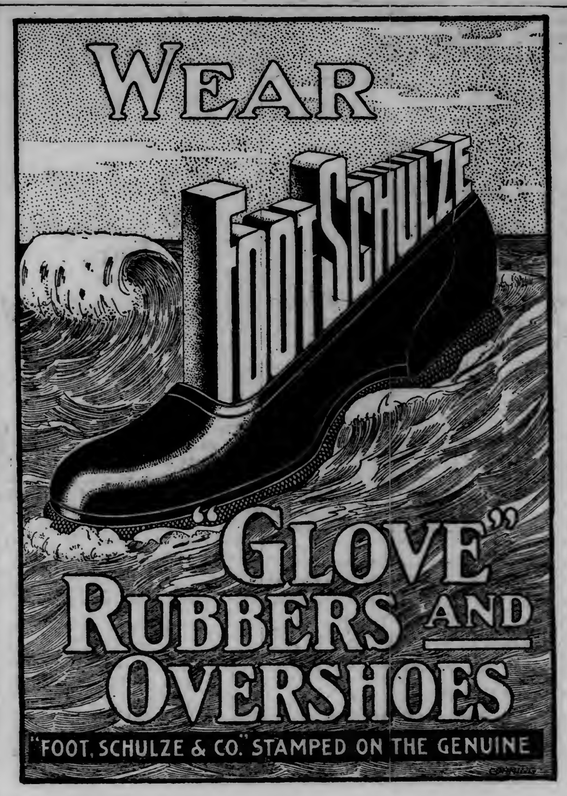

Man Lives One Year on Railroad Train on Wager.

Vienna, April 3.—The story of an extraordinary bet has been reported from Salzburg. A commercial traveler, resident in that town, did business for a long time in New York, where he made the acquaintance of a well knon American sportsman. In the course of conversation the question aroso how long a man could endure life in a railway carriage. The commercial traveler expressed his belief that he could remain one year traveling up and down a given line. The American wagered $5,600 that he could not endure the movement for that length of time.

The Austrian undertook to travel continuously on the line from Vienna to Linz, Salzburg and Innsbruck, going and returning. A contract was drawn up by a Vienna lawyer, accordingly, and the money deposited. The traveler started on his monotonous journey at the beginning of 1907. Nearly at the end of the year he was overcome by a violent attack of influenza, but bore his illness without yielding. He has now won his bet, and received the amount wagered. Doctors pronounced him in good health, except that he is suffering slightly from nervous shock.

Death Was On His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

REMARKABLE CURE IN AN INDIANA TOWN

Showing the Value of Tonic Treatment in Severe Nervous Cases.

A Well Established Case of St. Vitus' Dance Cured in a Short Time by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Many a child has been called awkward, has been punished in school for not keeping still or for dropping things, when the trouble was really chorea, or St. Vitus' dance, as it is popularly called. So common is this nervous disease in childhood that in some schools one-fifth of all the pupils have been found suffering from it in one form or another.

Before the presence of the disease is betrayed there is usually a disturbance of the general health. The child shows listlessness and inattention. Then it becomes restless and twitching of the muscles and jerking of the limbs and body follow.

Often the patient loses flesh and becomes pale and bloodless. A remedy that cures St. Vitus' dance, and cures it so thoroughly that no trace of the disease remains, is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The cures effected in such a severe nervous disorder show the power of these pills in strengthening weak nerves through building up the blood, a principle of wide application in many forms of nervous trouble.

A recent cure is that of the 7-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. James E. Packard of Swayzee, Ind. The facts in the case are known to every one in that little town where the family is well known. Mrs. Packard's account of her daughter's suffering and of her recovery follows:

"When not quite 7 years old Nellie was taken with St. Vitus' dance and was sick for over five months. She had always been healthy and was never of a nervous disposition and I am at a loss to explain the cause of her sickness. When quite young she had scarletina, but had apparently entirely recovered from it. She began to complain during the early part of the winter, before her sickness, of chills and a numbness in her sides, but we thought nothing of it at the time. Later her teacher told me that Nellie would drop off to sleep in school and that she did not disturb her for she thought sleep would do her more good than study and that we ought to take her out of school.

Lost Control of Her Muscles.

"She began to grow more nervous and I then noticed that she staggered in walking, but thought it was a habit and tried to correct her, but she did not improve. She got worse all the time and finally jerked all over. She got so she could hardly feed herself and her hand would knock things off the table. She didn't speak to anyone, didn't play any nor take an interest in anything. She didn't seem to have any control of her tongue, the saliva ran out of her mouth and she complained of her neck hurting her and began to carry her head to one side.

The Characteristic Spasms.

"Later she had spasms, which lasted for perhaps an hour during which her head and eyes rolled about, she became pale and looked terrible. Following these spells she wouldn't notice anything for a day and would be very nervous from two or three days to a week. She became thin and awfully run down and I thought she never would get well.

What the Doctor Said.

"Our doctor said her nerves were completely run down and that she had St. Vitus' dance. He didn't know whether she would recover from the disease and if she did he was not certain that her mind would be right. His medicines failed to cure her and I was discouraged. A friend in Marion then told me about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I bought a box as I was willing to try anything that gave hope of a cure. In a few days we could see a difference and we gave her the pills regularly until they effected a cure. She is now going to school and is as healthy and bright a child as one could wish to have. I cannot tell what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been worth to us and I recommend them highly."

Of Interest to All Nervous People.

That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured obstinate cases of St. Vitus' dance, is the best evidence that they will cure lesser nervous disorders, because the principle in the treatment of all nervous diseases is the same. Nervousness is a question of nutrition. Food for the nerves is what is needed and the best nerve food in the world is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because they build up the blood and the only way to nourish the nerves is through the blood.

They are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50. Write Dr. Williams Medicine company, Schenectady, N. Y.

SEND BOAT TO CHICAGO

Duluth Yacht Club Will Enter Nutting Cup Races.

The Annual Banquet Was a Very Brilliant Affair.

The 250 men who attended the banquet and annual meeting of the Duluth Yacht club, at the St. Louis hotel last night, were entertained by one of the best programs of after-dinner speeches ever heard in the city.

They were gems of wit and eloquence. Besides these there was a musical program that aroused the yachtsmen and their friends to such a pitch of appreciative enthusiasm that encore after encore was demanded.

The entertainment part of the affair was so very successful, in fact, that it seems entirely fit and proper to mention it even before the important fact that, at the annual meeting following the banquet, it was decided to enter a boat in the Sir John Nutting cup races at Chicago next August if the enjoyment of those present last night is any indication of what may be expected in the way of good times at the yacht club, the rush for memberships will make it necessary to build new and larger quarters immediately. There was a contagion of enthusiastic goodfellowship that was good to see.

Officers Re-elected.

Also at the business meeting the old list of officers was re-elected. Horace H. Johnson was again made commodore. To his unbounded interest and energy on behalf of the club in the past, is laid most of the progress and success of the organization, and he has been so very successful at the head of affairs that the members did not even for a moment consider putting another name forward for the honor. H. S. Mahon was made vice commodore; Dr. Frank Lynam, rear commodore; G. Fred Smith, captain; H. R. LeCocq, Dr. D. H. Day, F. E. Kennedy and B. Baker, board of directors.

Dr. D. H. Day acted as toastmaster. His reputation as a humorist is well established, and his faculty of saying just the right thing at just the right time kept things running smoothly, and kept the banqueters in good humor with themselves and all the world. The program of toasts opened with a toast to the American flag, by Dr. Day. Several of the musical numbers were rendered by the high school choir under the direction of Prof. A. F. M. Custance. The first musical number was "My Own United States," sung by Miss Maude Matteson and chorus. The hit made by this song was a fair sample of the reception extended the other musical features.

Clarence B. Spencer was a stranger to most of those present, but his solo, "The Indifferent Mariner," was received with such keen delight that an encore was necessary to keep the furniture from being broken up. Mr. Spencer is the fortunate possessor of a rich baritone voice, and he knows now to use it to the best possible advantage. One of the high school girls was heard to remark that he sang "divinely," and the banqueters who overheard the remark were willing to let it go at that.

Clarence B. Miller had "Vikings and Other Sea Heroes" as a subject for his remarks. Wit and seriousness were happily intermingled. He gave a vivid word picture of the achievements of the early Viking heroes, telling how they braved the dangers of the sea and invaded foreign shores, not only crossing the ocean and settling upon the North Shore of North America, but invading many of the European countries as well, and leaving the stamp of their hardy personality there to this day. Upon the side issue, Mrs. Miller had good words to say for the sailors of the Duluth Yacht club, incidentally saying a pretty compliment to Duluth's young women, and the high school girls in particular.

George H. Atkin, vice commodore of the Chicago Yacht club, told of the Sir John Nutting cup races, and the conditions governing the entries and contests. He also briefly sketched the history of the Chicago organization, and told of the struggles it met with before it reached its present position of prestige in the yachting and social world. In 1897 the club had only eighty-five members, and now the membership is 650. The success of the club in recent years he said was due to the fact that it had entered boats in club races with big clubs of other cities, meeting with excellent success in having cups from the start. He broached the cherished project of an entry from Duluth in the August Sir John Nutting cup races, and held in a forcible way of the presence as an entry would give to the local club, and to Duluth as a whole. He also mentioned the good time the crew and any rooters who went along would have, and of how all expenses of the crew would be borne by the Chicago organization. Boats of the type desired cost from $1,500 to $1,800 to build. The cost price will be raised by subscription among the local club members. Subscription lists were started among the members present last night. There are four days' racing for the cup, and the boat getting the highest percentage for the four events gets the cup, and holds it until the following year.

"Land Lubbers."

Warren E. Greene spoke of "Land lubbers and other things," and his witty expressions extracted laugh after laugh. He also dealt seriously of work in store for the club, and of the importance of keeping the shore line of the lake, bay and river in a sightly condition, and the waters of the bay free from garbage, etc. The smoke nuisance came in for a few words, and he suggested that steps be taken to do away with it. Here are some of Mr. Greene's definitions of a land lubber:

"The kind of a man who wears a yachting cap but who does not own a boat.

"A man who does his cruising in a trolley car, and his deep-sea sailing in a hack.

"He talks about the rolling waves, but sticks to the rolling sidewalks.

"The sort of a man who goes out with the wind and comes back with the life savers."

Mayor Roland D. Haven was to have been present, and was down for a toast on "A Model City," but as he was unable to be present an able substitute was found in the person of E. L. Millar, who succeeded in adding several stories to his reputation as an after-dinner speaker. Besides a string of good stories, he spoke of needed civic improvements.

Dr. Marcus B. Callum responded to the toast, "The City Beautiful," telling of his cherished plans for a public park system, and of other improvements in line with artistically beautifying the city.

Several musical numbers were rendered between the toasts. Charles O. Applehagen appeared in vocal selections to his usual good advantage, and Mr. Spencer added to his first success with topical songs that delighted the banqueters immensely.

In talks relative to plans of the club it was agreed that particular attention should be paid to the social side this year. Regular nights for dancing in the large new club dancing hall will be specified, and there will be a variety of functions of a social nature during the season. The reports of officers covering the past year showed the club to be in a prosperous and flourishing condition. It is expected that 200 new members will be added to the rolls this year. One hundred new members already have been secured. The annual report of Commodore Horace Johnson and H. A. Earnshaw, secretary, was very comprehensive, and was issued in pamphlet form for distribution among the members. It explains in detail the financial expenditures of the organization in the past, and gives a clear insight into the business-like manner in which the affairs of the club are run.

YOUNG BOY IS BLACKHANDER

He Warned Merchant to Leave $10,000 on Pain of Death.

Chatworth, Iowa, April 3.—Through the Sherlock Holmes investigation of L. R. Crowell, cashier of the Chatworth Savings bank, the "black hand" mystery of Chatworth has been solved. The guilt is fastened upon George Hendrich, aged 19, who apparently has been reading too much lurid literature.

Frank Wakeman, a wealthy grain merchant, found a note under the door latch addressed to him. On opening it, he learned that if he did not deposit $10,000 at a certain place at the south end of the railroad yards that night at 8:30, return to his home and maintain absolute silence, he, his family and all his property would be destroyed.

With the aid of Mr. Crowell of the bank, Mr. Wakeman identified the writing as exactly like indorsements written upon checks by young Hendrich. The boy was arrested on suspicion. After a sweating process, the county and county attorney secured from the lad an admission of his guilt. He was bound over to the grand jury and was taken to Orange City to await the action of that body.

Young Hendrich is not especially vicious and it is believed any attempt at extortion was the outcome of reading trashy literature and associating with evil companions.

The crime to which he has confessed is punishable by a fine of $500 and not more than two years in the state penitentiary.

FIDDLED HIS WAY.

Boy Earns Passage Home From Germany With Violin.

New York, April 3.—Henry Berchman, a 17-year-old New York boy, fiddled his way across the Atlantic on the North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. The boy was sent abroad to study the violin three years ago. His father sent him a remittance to come home on the Kaiser, but the money went astray, and the boy, knowing that his parents would expect him home on the Kaiser, boarded the vessel at Bremen.

After the ship was well away from port the lad, carrying his violin, made his presence known on board. He explained to the officers that his father would pay his fare on his arrival, but that if that was not satisfactory he would like to work his way over by fiddling. Permission was given him to play, and so as a sort of official fiddler he came across gratis.

UNDERTONE STRONGER

Produce Markets Show Stiff Prices During the Week.

Meats Are Still Up, But Eggs Are a Little Cheaper.

The week in the produce market has been one of a higher level of prices, for the most part.

Meat prices have gone higher and the prices of other commodities offered along Michigan street have gone up a little, with the exception of eggs and cheaper grades of butter.

However, the meat market has seen no advance since Monday, when prices for all grades of meats went up half a cent. Since then, the market has remained very firm, but there have been no bulges.

The meat men can see no end to the strong market yet, however. They expect another rise before the present shortage of meat all over the country is over. Another advance is expected by next week, when the demand will likely become firmer, in view of the approach of Easter.

At Chicago, South St. Paul, Kansas City, Omaha and other live-stock markets, provisions are very scarce. Receipts have been very light.

* * *

But if meat is higher, it is consoling to know that eggs are lower. Receipts of eggs have been quite liberal this week and they are now quoted at 15 to 16 cents a dozen, which is something lower than last week's quotations. All the eggs in the market now are fresh ones, or supposed to be, at least, as storage eggs have been out of the market for the past three weeks.

* * *

Strawberries are the cheapest they have been this season. Receipts from Florida are on the increase and the Louisiana berries, in pints, have been arriving in good quantities. Prices for the Louisiana berries have gone off from $2.50 and $2.75 per case of pints to $1.75 and $2. Retailers content to take small profits tomorrow on their berries will probably be offering them very cheaply.

The outlook for strawberries is that they will be quite plentiful from now on. So far all of the berries have come from Florida and Louisiana.

* * *

The orange market is displaying a stronger undertone, due to the fact that stocks are not as large as they were earlier in the season, that they are being packed in ice and the fact that the California shippers have been curtailing shipments.

The action of the California shippers has been a concerted one. Some people say that shipments have eased up for the reason that stocks are becoming very low, but the general impression seems to be that the shippers have the goods, but they are not shipping great quantities of the fruit for the reason that they want to see a higher level of prices. It is their claim that earlier in the season, when the orange market was so low, they were losing money, and now they want stiff prices so that they may make the usual profits that they reap during a season.

* * *

The apple market continues strong, as stocks are getting lower.

* * *

Bananas are higher, being quoted now at 4½c a pound, instead of 4c to 4½c last week and 4c the week previous. Importers are curtailing the supply, it is said for the purpose of making a higher market for the fruit. The demand is stronger, too.

* * *

The local market still affords grape fruit, at prices the same as those which prevailed a week ago.

* * *

Vegetables are about unchanged. The potato market is expected to remain about unchanged during the next week, unless country roads become very bad and shipments consequently smaller.

Potatoes are quoted at 70c to 75c a bushel.

* * *

There was another advance in cranberries this week. This pie delicacy is now quoted in the wholesale district at $14 a barrel. The market has been steadily advancing as the season wore on and stocks depleted. Stocks are very low. Half the time there are no cranberries to be found on the local market, even at $14.

* * *

Sweet potatoes are very firm at $7.50 a barrel.

* * *

Firmness continues in the poultry market. Dressed spring chickens and hens are 14c to 15c a pound and turkeys 17c to 19c. The demand has been very firm.

The fish market is steady and unchanged.

PETAL BOX NEWEST FAD.

London Society Gives Up Scent Bottle for Latest Rival.

London, April 3.—The smaigrette, which ousted the scent bottle last year, has this season found a rival in the petal box. Little boxes are filled with flower petals, which have been dried, spiced and treated with the oil of the flower from which they come.

"The scent bottle and smaigrette were all very well in the days when fainting was considered a necessary item in woman's equipment," a Bond street jeweler said yesterday; "but nowadays women do not faint. The overtired woman of the twentieth century suffers from neuralgia or congested headache attendant on strained nerves. It has been proved that the perfume of flowers is most efficacious in these cases, and petal boxes meet the difficulty.

"Petal boxes are not brandished in public, like the old-fashioned scent bottle used to be, but are cunningly fitted into the handle of an umbrella, the ivory stick of a fan, or even on a bracelet. They can be made of gold, silver or tortoise shell, but colored enamels have proved the most popular. The flower petals used are poppy, violet, rose or lavendar."

HORSE THIEF ESCAPES BUT IS SOON RETAKEN.

Steel, N. D., April 3.—Four men were arrested here yesterday afternoon, charged with being implicated in the stealing of a valuable horse at Bowdon, Wells county. In the excitement of getting the men to the county jail, one of the thieves escaped and supposedly took the train for the West at Medina. Sheriff Wasser of Stutsman county was notified of Jamestown, and from descriptions sent to him he recognized the escaped prisoner on the streets of Jamestown this morning, and the fellow was nearly starved and caged in the county jail.

BRYAN WILL NOT ATTEND.

Des Moines, April 3.—While in Des Moines yesterday, William J. Bryan put a quietus on the speculation as to whether the New York National Democratic club had intended that he should speak or maintain a discreet silence at the banquet, to be given there April 13, by wiring a withdrawal of his acceptance of the invitation to attend. He will not be present and therefore cannot speak.

When the Liver goes Wrong, don't Abuse it

The old way of treating a torpid liver was with salts or cathartics.

They whipped the tired liver to a spurt of action. But this is what else they did:

They irritated the lining of the stomach and boweis, causing an inflammation.

They flooded the bowels with digestive juices, needed to digest your food.

They upset every function.

Thus every habitual user of salts and pills suffers from chronic dyspepsia.

The liver needs gentle treatment. Abuse means injury.

Then the liver grows hard and unresponsive, compelling a larger dose.

Cascarets act naturally. Their effect is the same as the effect of laxative foods.

They bring their results without injury. Without the pain and griping which denote irritation.

Every effect is curative.

When you realize all that harsh physic does, you will never use anything but Cascarets.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The box is marked like this:

Cascarets THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

The vest-pocket box is 10 cents. The month-treatment box 50 cents. 12,000,000 boxes sold annually.

A Woman's Health

Is a heritage too sacred to be experimented with. For her peculiar and delicate ailments only medicines of known composition and which contain no alcohol, narcotics, or other harmful or habit-forming drugs should be employed. The one medicine which fulfills all these requirements is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a remedy with a record of over forty years of cures to recommend it; a remedy, the makers of which print its formula on every bottle-wrapper and attest its completeness and correctness under oath; a remedy devised and adapted to woman's delicate constitution by an educated physician—an experienced specialist in woman's diseases; a remedy, every ingredient of which has received the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar diseases; a remedy which has more bona-fide cures to its credit than any other sold by druggists for woman's special requirements. It is not given away in the form of "trial bottles" to be experimented with, but is sold at a fair price by all dealers in medicines.

Delicate, weak, nervous women should especially shun the use of alcoholic medicines which, from their stimulating and exhilerating effects may seem, for a time, to do good, but which from the inevitable effects of the alcohol in shrinking up the red corpuscles of the blood are sure to do great and lasting harm in the long run. Besides they beget a craving for stimulants which is most deplorable.

Only invigorating and nerve strengthening effects can follow the use of this famous medicine for women. It can not possibly do harm in any state or condition of the system. It has been carefully adapted to woman's needs by an experienced physician—a specialist in their diseases. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

If a woman has bearing down, or dragging pains, low down in the abdomen, or pelvis, backache, frequent headaches, dizzy or fainting spells, is nervous and easily startled, has gnawing feeling in stomach, sees imaginary floating specks, or spots before her eyes, has melancholia, or "blues," or a weakening disagreeable drain from pelvic organs, she can make no mistake by resorting to the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will invigorate and tone up the whole system and especially the pelvic organs.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Perscription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic, "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For over-worked, "worn-out," run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstreses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

No woman suffering from any of the above symptoms can afford to accept any secret nostrum or medicine of unknown composition, as a substitute for a medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is OF KNOWN COMPOSITION and has a record of over forty years of cures and sells more largely to-day than ever before. Its makers withhold no secrets from their patients, believing open publicity to be the very best guaranty of merit.

Dr. Pierce invites all suffering women to consult him by letter free of charge. All letters of consultation are held as strictly private and sacredly confidential and all answers are returned in plain, sealed envelopes. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

SAYS HE IS A COUNT.

Mystery Surrounds the Identity of Prisoner at San Francisco.

San Francisco, April 2.—The mystery concerning the identity of Eugene Harrach, the youthful prisoner arrested at the Regina hotel, yesterday, on a felony accusation of signing his name to a fictitious check for $640, in payment for automobile hire, is puzzling the police and the acting Austro-Hungarian consul, Karl Ruiz de Rozas.

Harrach asserts that he is Eugene Othmar, Count Von Harrach, one of the richest noblemen of the Austrian empire. He also claims to be related to the family of Count Otto Von Waldsleih, who a year ago was erroneously thought to have been the supposed desperado slain in a fight with a posse of officers at Willows. The police admit there may be several solutions to the mystery of Harrach's identity.

In the meantime Harrach is detained in jail pending the investigation now being made by the police as to his identity. The prisoner has spent some eight weeks in this city, livign at one of the leading hotels and spending money lavishly. All of his hotel bills, amounting to $2,000, it is said, were paid.

TO INVESTIGATE THEFT.

Salt Lake City, Utah, April 2.—The Tribune today says: When it is impanelled, April 13, the United States grand jury will be asked by the directors of the Utah National bank to investigate the theft, in January, of $106,250 from the reserve chest of that institution. This statement was made yesterday by W. S. McCormick, president of the bank.

DIRECTED BY DREAMS

Vision Guides in the Discovery of Gold in Arkansas.

Leaders Predict Coming of Angels and Prophets to Rogers.

Rogers, Ark., April 3.—That a "cool billion in gold will be discovered within sixty days;" that "in the near future God will appear over the city of Rogers, followed by Moses and Elijah and legions of angels," and that "the name of the New Jerusalem and Noah's Ark" will be featured, are a few of the startling statements appearing in the current issue of the Sunshine and Truth, a small paper issued occasionally by the promoters of the Kruse gold mines of this city.

Located in an old meadow in the city limits is the supposed mine, where work was begun anew last week, and where it is being carried on today in preparation to hoist fourteen cars of the supposed ore, which, it is announced, will be shipped. To where? To where "the vision directs," for it is to be remembered that this mine is worked strictly according to visions as seen by Will H. Kruse, and which appear to him in the form of dreams.

The operations have been carried on for several years, secretly at first, but one day Rogers people, forty-nine of them, received telegrams from Chicago, where Will H. Kruse and his brother, Ed J. Kruse, the latter being editor of Sunshine and Truth, were on business, and which stated: "One hundred million dollars for the people of Rogers. Hurrah for Rogers."

Shortly after this work was commenced at the mine, and the opening day is still fresh in the minds of local citizens.

Vision Directed Work.

This work was all performed according to visions, and the result is a long grade, looking much like a railroad bed, and which remains today undisturbed. A car load of dirt, or ore, was sacked and shipped to St. Louis for analysis, and an assay of $25,000 to the car was rendered. This supported ore, the promoters state, is stored in St. Louis.

The attention of the outside world was attracted, and for a few weeks the local postoffice was swamped with inquiries relative to the mine. Interest finally subsided, but the latest movement has again aroused attention, and, while their announcement is regarded in no serious light, it is interesting, to say the least.

Associated with Will H. Kruse in the the mine, which is on his father's farm, is his brother, Ed J., and brother-in-law, L. M. Proctor. The money for the operating expenses is supposed to be derived from working the "system market," and which was started in Minneapolis for the week of March 2, 1908. St. Paul was attacked the following week; Milwaukee was next in line; Chicago is being visited this week, and St. Louis and Kansas City next.

The "system market," they explain, is a plan whereby Will H. Kruse is told in a vision to buy and sell in stipulated amounts of of wheat, and up to date, so far as is known by outsiders, the vision has been correct.

Not Known on 'Change.

The Kruse family moved from Le Sueur, Minn., to Rogers a number of years ago. Will H. Kruse's home is in Minneapolis, but he was unknown on the stock market exchange two years ago, when it was announced he had pulled off a big deal. Mr. Kruse has announced that he predicted the Russo-Japanese war, the Kansas City flood, the Iroquois theater fire, the earthquake in Asia Minor, Queen Victoria's death, the San Francisco earthquake and numerous other catastrophes of more or less startling character.

The fact that no mining stock is offered for sale, and that the gold will be used in establishing a modern Utopia or Jerusalem in Rogers, and that affairs will assume the shape of an elaborate bureaucracy, is regarded as more than passing strange. No contributions have been asked for, and none will be accepted, it is averred, but as yet outside financial support has not been offered.

The undercurrent of feeling, however, is one of expectancy for the great day when the gold will be discovered, and laborers are leaving applications for work.

DEPORTATION MEANS DEATH

Russian Linguist Fears He Will be Sent Home.

New York, April 2.—Fearing that he will be deported to Russia and that he will be executed there because of his activity during a revolutionary movement there in 1905, Walter Uppit, who is locked up in Jefferson Market prison, hopes to be able to defeat the deportation proceedings.

Uppit, who is 27 years old, a linguist and a graduate of the University of Riga, escaped to this country after he had let an unsuccessful rebellion in Riga, where he was an instructor in the Russian naval school.

"I was arrested last Saturday in Union Square after the bomb throwing," Uppit said. "I have been told the Russian authorities have asked the department of state to have me sent back to Russia. I know that if I am taken back I shall be executed because of my activity in the revolution. I left my house in Riga only five minutes before the police came to arrest me."

MRS. HILL WAS THE REAL CAUSE

Petty Jealousies of Wives of the Ambassadors Caused Trouble.

Washington, April 2.—Many are the rumors current in diplomatic and society circles regarding the underlying causes of the now celebrated incident connected with the succession of the American embassy at Berlin. The latest is that a woman's boast and her consequent gossip form the real basis for the embarrassing situation in regard to Dr. David Jayne Hill. This is the expressed belief of a number of persons in official life, who have moved in the same circle with the Hills in Washington and have come in contact with them abroad.

These persons cling to the theory that the ambitions of Mrs. Hill were the innocent cause of it all.

There have been received in Washington within the last two weeks at least two letters that have tended to strengthen this impression. One is from a prominent American woman now in Berlin who has spent the winter in Southern Europe. She wrote that Mrs. Hill, when she was in Berlin with the minister recently, looked for a house for occupancy when the Towers left, did considerable talking about the "brilliant future" before herself and the doctor in Berlin. She was about to reach the height of her life's ambition, she told the people, and she was anxious for the happy and proud moment to arrive.

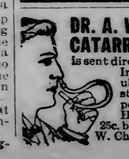

'Tis was displeasing to the Towers, especially to Mrs. Tower, and is said to have reached the ears of the imperial household. The other letter, which has just come to the wife of a European diplomat stationed here, was posted in Paris last week. It, too, said plainly that Mrs. Hill was creating much gossip by the manner in which she spoke of the promotion of her husband to be ambassador to Berlin. The Towers have often visited in Paris and have at times entertained lavishly there. This gossip is said to have reached the ears of their friends, who are displeased. The writer remarked that such remarks would react against the Hills if they reached either the emperor or President Roosevelt.

WILL SHOTS BE FIRED FROM LONDON TO PARIS?

London, April 2.—Col. F. W. Maude, in the April Contemporary Review describes a gun which "is in existence and can, by application of electricity, impart an initial velocity of 30,000 feet a second to projectiles on board a ship or in permanent defenses. Projectiles of 2,000 pounds' weight lie fairly within these limits."

In a succeeding passage he declares that if the rule of velocities up to 2,500 feet a second—viz. that the resistance increases as the square of the velocity—holds good at a higher rate, then there is practically nothing to prevent these weapons from throwing shells from London to Paris, or vice versa, at the rate of a few thousand a day. The inventor is W. S. Simpson, a Scotchman.

Simpson assures the critics that the greatest experts of the country have seen, examined and witnessed the working of the model, and expressed their entire satisfaction of its practicability. The article adds that Col. Maude did not hesitate to say that the results claimed were certain to be realized.

$1.00 Box Of My Safe Fat Reducer Free

I Want to Prove to You Before Your Own Eyes and at My Expense That I Can Reduce You to Normal Weight Safely, Without Starvation Diet or Tiresome Exercises.

It Doesn't Matter What You Have Tried, Send For This Free $1.00 Box of My Safe Fat Reducer Today.

POSITIVE PROOF IN PICTURES.

The Above Photographs Taken From Life, Showing the Remarkable Reduction of Flesh by Means of Kellogg's Safe Fat Reducer.

Free, positively free, a $1.00 box of Kellogg's Safe Fat Reducer, to every sufferer from fat, just to prove that it actually reduces you to normal, does it safely, and builds up your health at the same time. I want to send you without a cent of expense on your part this $1.00 package of what I am free to call a really wonderful fat reducer.

My treatment is prepared scientifically. It does not stop or hinder digestion; on the contrary, it promotes proper digestion and assimilation of food, which 99 fat people in a hundred haven't got, and that's why they are fat.

I will tell you why you are fat if you will send for this free package of my treatment. I can tell you a good many things about your fat which you probably never knew about and ought to know.

When I tell you here what my treatment can do I speak from hard-shelled experience, not from my own, but from the experience of others who have tried almost everything from starvation to violent exercise and drugs and have failed until they tried and used my treatment.

How Much Flesh Should You Lose?

What the Well-Formed Man or Woman Should Weigh.

The following is the correct height and weight of a well-formed man. A woman's weight will be generally about 8 pounds less than the following figures:

Stature.	Weight.
5 ft. 0 in.	121 lbs.
5 ft. 1 in.	124 lbs.
5 ft. 2 in.	129 lbs.
5 ft. 3 in.	135 lbs.
5 ft. 4 in.	139 lbs.
5 ft. 5 in.	145 lbs.
5 ft. 6 in.	149 lbs.
5 ft. 7 in.	155 lbs.
5 ft. 8 in.	161 lbs.
5 ft. 9 in.	166 lbs.
5 ft. 10 in.	171 lbs.
5 ft. 11 in.	176 lbs.
6 ft. 0 in.	182 lbs.

A lady's waist should be two-fifths of her height.

Loses 62 Pounds; Thanks God For It.

Further Proof of Wonderful Strength-Giving Effects of Kellogg's Treatment.

Mrs. S. E. Carter of Tracy, Ky., lost 62 pounds of flesh and says she thanks God for the great blessing the treatment brought her.

"I feel better than at any time in fifteen years," she writes. "My weight at this time is 148 pounds.

"Very soon I began to feel beyond all doubt that I was really losing as fast as was best. I weighed at commencement 210 pounds, as you can well see by my photo.

"I shall ever be grateful to you, and thankful to God, that I found the right remedy on first trial.

"You can use my name when you want to. Any one that wants to hear what I have to say in regard to such a great blessing will please write me and I will answer all letters."

Lost 30 Pounds In 30 Days.

Mr. R. J. Richardson, of Blockow, Mo., writes:

"I have already taken two months' treatment. I never fail to recommend your treatment to any fat person I see, for it surely does the work. I got a month's treatment and I lost just thirty pounds in thirty days."

Loses 83 Pounds In 90 Days.

Mrs. Etta Hamerick, 230 Fischer Ave., Detroit, Writes:

"I have just finished the seven weeks' treatment of your Safe Fat Reducer, and must say that it is one of the most wonderful treatments I have ever seen or heard of. It has simply made me into a new woman. I have lost in weight 83 pounds in three months. My health is in every way improved. You can refer any one to me."

"Ohio's Fat Boy" In 70 Days Loses 189 Pounds.

"Prof. F. J. Kellogg. My Dear Sir: Your Safe Fat Reducer is all and more than you ever claimed for it. My weight today, after ten weeks' treatment, is 285 pounds, a loss of 189 pounds, as I weighed 474 pounds when I began with the Safe Fat Reducer. I never felt so well before, not even in 1896, when I was in hard training as a professional bicyclist and riding partner of Baby Bliss. The reduction has been natural and gradual, and has at no time interfered with my regular daily duties or caused me the slightest inconveniences in any way. The action of my heart is strong and regular, and I have got rid of that 'smothered up' feeling which bothers all excessively fat people. My breathing is easy and I feel strong and active, and lighter on my feet than I have been for years.

"Please send me another supply of your Safe Fat Reducer, as I am about out.

"Very truly yours, J. H. Bechle, Jr., 607 Cedar Street, Canton, Ohio."

101½ Pounds Gone!

The remarkable case of Miss Artie Adams of Shelby, Ohio, is illustrated in her own words:

"When I look back to the time before I took your wonderful obesity cure I do not see how I stood it. My weight is now 163½ pounds, and I have lost just 101½ pounds. I can hardly believe that there has been such a difference in my feelings and appearance. But oh, how thankful I am that I found a cure for my awful burden of fat, in Kellogg's Safe Fat Reducer. I can hardly realize that I weigh now only 163½ pounds. You can use my letter as a testimonial if you wish."

Cures Prominent Nurse Of Terrible Fat.

Clara Elizabeth Doolittle, nurse for over fifteen years in America's best hospitals, including New York City and homeopathic hospitals of New York, praises the Kellogg Safe Fat Reducer:

"When I commenced treatment with Saft Fat Reducer I weighed 209 pounds, my chest measure was 42 inches, waist measure 32 inches and hips 48 inches.

"Fer four months I have been losing in weight constantly and naturally and with no ill effects, and am feeling much better.

"Today I weigh 148 pounds. My chest measure is 37 inches, waist measure 27 inches and hips 40 inches.

"I cannot speak too highly of Mr. Kellogg and the great work he is doing for fat-burdened humanity." Clara Elizabeth Doolittle, Box 64, Tekonsha, Mich.

Doctor Recommends It.

To show you what physicians themselves have to say about Kellogg's Safe Fat Reducer, here is a letter from Mrs. E. P. Bean, M. D., of Monnett, Mo.:

"Prof. F. J. Kellogg:—I think your Safe Fat Reducer will do all you claim for it and even more. When I began taking it I weighed 192½ pounds. I took one month and a half of treatment, and I now weigh 150 and feel so much better. I have recommended your treatment to several of my patients and find the same good results in every case. I never felt better than when I was using the food. Yours truly, Mrs. E. P. Bean, M. D., Monnett, Mo."

Leaves No Wrinkles.

You should have no fear, after being reduced by Kellogg's Safe Fat Reducer, that your loss of weight will result in wrinkles, as is usually the case with so many treatments used for flesh reduction.

Free $1.00 Package Coupon.

This coupon is good for a $1.00 package of Kellogg's Safe Fat Reducer, if sent with ten cents in silver or stamps to help cover postage and packing, and as evidence of good faith and if you can honestly say that you have never used this treatment before. FINE WAISTS

Daily Ruined by Grimy Hands of Street Car Conductors.

Atlanta, Ga., April 2.—Atlanta society women have presented a numerously signed petition to the street railway mangement asking that conductors be ordered not to assist women on and off the cars, alleging that fine waists are being daily ruined by grimy hands of conductors.

Mrs. Marla Spindle, who got up the petition, says:

"We know it is impossible for the conductors to keep lily-white hands, and while we also know that the help is kindly meant, we implore them to help old ladies in black dresses. But when they see a lady in a white or light colored waist, for goodness' sake let her get off by herself and she will remember them in her prayers. Too many of us have had our waists ruined by hands of well meaning conductors."

SHONTS WILL BACK

Duc de Chaulnes If He Settles Down to Work.

Chicago, April 2.—"A title does not make a man; neither do debts."

This is the first public statement that Theodore P. Shonts, formerly the Panama canl commissioner, has made concerning his titled son-in-law, Duc de Chaulnes.

"It is not wise to generalize about a matter of title," said Mr. Shonts, when he was asked about the marriage of his beautiful daughter, Theodorea, to the French nobleman. "The possession or lack of a title has nothing whatever to do with the worth of a man. And a man's debts may prove his worth. It takes a good man to get into debt and live comfortably."

"Is it true," he was asked, "that the duke has become inoculated with the American germ of work?"

"Well," laughed Mr. Shonts, "it hasn't broken out in a virulent form as yet. But then he is on his honeymoon and cannot be expected to turn from those pleasures. I tell you, the duke is a square-shouldered young man, who looks the world right in the face and wants only a chance, and he is going to get it. I know that he is going to plunge into useful life and make good at it. If he does make good he will find me behind him. As for the work the young man is going to undertake, that is not a matter with which I am sufficiently familiar to speak at this time."

BUYS STOCK; WEDS OWNER.

Purchase Starts Romance Between Clubman and Wealthy Widow.

Moorestown, N. J., April 2.—Truman W. Brophy, a wealthy Chicago dentist and clubman, was so delighted with a high-bred bull the other day and other registered stock that he had purchased of Mrs. Esther Strawbridge, whose farm is one of the show places of Moorestown, that he wrote her about it. That was the beginning of a correspondence and several visits which sealed his fate. Last night, the doctor and Mrs. Strawbridge were married at the handsome home of the bride, by Quaker ceremony.

Mrs. Strawbridge is the widow of Edward Strawbridge, who was a member of the big department store firm of Strawbridge & Clothier of Philadelphia.

WEST END

HAND-OUT MEN ABROAD.

West End Housewives Are Keeping Their Doors Locked.

West end housewives are keeping their front and back doors locked because of the number of "hand out" men who are abroad.

They say that tramps are quite numerous in that part of the city and they have been compelled to curtail the dealing out of free coffee and other food to the hoboes who have applied for something to eat at the back doors.

The police learned yesterday that two over-zealous hoboes attempted to hold up a man named Maynard near the railroad tracks at Fifteenth avenue west, but they failed. Maynard was in a rig and the tramps grabbed the bridles of his horses. He told them very forcibly he would shoot unless they stood aside and they fled instanter.

It is said that a number of tramps have been living in a deserted shack near the railroad tracks. None were to be found there yesterday, however.

Death Claims Girl.

Helen Wensted, the 15-year-old daughter of Mrs. Hannah Wensted, died yesterday afternoon at her home, Twenty-first avenue west and Seventh street. Death was due to consumption, from which she has been suffering for several months. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon. Services will be held at the residence at 1:30 and at the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. K. Madsen, pastor of the church, will be in charge. The interment will take place at Park Hill cemetery.

West End Shortrails.

The Swedish Christian Sick Benefit society will hold its regular meeting this evening in Sloan's hall.

Herbert Whitney of Lake Nebagamon, Wis., was visiting friends in the West end yesterday.

Mrs. A. N. Hopkins and Mrs. R. D. Hayes and Raymond Hopkins left yesterday for Burnett, Wis., where Raymond will remain for a time on account of ill health.

Mrs. William Chapman of 321 Twenty-eighth avenue west is recovering from an attack of the grip which confined her to her home for two weeks.

John Bingham, the old time West end lumberman, has formed a partnership with M. Johnson and the firm has opened a lumber yard in the West end. John Nord has also opened a lumber yard.

The Lincoln Park roller polo team is matched to play the Kelleys at the Lincoln rink a week from tonight.

August Anderson, the West end druggist formerly with the Pasco pharmacy is to go into business for himself at Twenty-ninth avenue west and Third street.

David Adams has purchased a new fifty foot lot on the upper side of Fourth street, between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth avenues west, and has let a contract for the erection there of a $2,500 house to C. S. Douglas & Co. This house has already been sold. Three others in the same neighborhood have just been completed for Mr. Adams, which makes nineteen he has sold in the West end during the year.

"Lion Cough Cure" stops that cough. Sold at "Lion drug store."

The series of services Rev. P. G. Nilsen, state evangelist for the Swedish Baptist conference, has been conducting at the First Swedish church, during the past week have been very well attended. The services concluded last night, as there will be no services this evening.

Rev. J. L. McBride, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, has gone to Michigan, where he will remain for several days.

Rev. F. O. Kling, pastor of the First Swedish Mission church, returned today from Eveleth, where he has been conducting special services.

Mrs. J. B. Litginski of the United States block entertained the O. A. O. club yesterday afternoon. The favors were won by Mrs. J. Murphy and Mrs. C. Waaden. Mrs. Waaden will entertain the club next week.

Iver Pancratz of Little Falls is in the West end on business.

Frank R. Smith of Twenty-ninth avenue west, has gone to Hibbing for a few days.

Men's Clothes.

It is a most popular assumption that women care more about clothes than men do. Fashion has given women a much greater latitude in the matter of dress, but men are often as particular as women in this matter. Men and women of particular tastes agree that golden grain belt beer is a beneficial tonic and unsurpassed as a food tonic. LYCEUM — Mack-Leone Players in "Thelma."
METROPOLITAN—Burlesque.

"THELMA."

Dramatization of Famous Novel, Attraction Offered by Stock Company.

The "S. R. O." sign was called into use last evening at the Lyceum when the Mack-Leone players opened their engagement of three nights and a matinee in the dramatization of Marie Corelli's famous novel, "Thelma."

"Thelma" is, without a question, one of the best attractions the Mack-Leone people have offered since they have been in Duluth. Apparently they have made every effort to stage the play properly, regardless of expense, and the scenery and stage settings are up to the standard of the best road companies.

Miss Leone apparently finds the role of "Thelma" a congenial one and is seen at her best in it. Mr. Mack has the part of Lord Errington, while Miss Farnum is cast as Louisa and Mr. Patton as Olaf.

"Thelma" will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night, with the usual Saturday matinee.

Race War on Stage.

There will be a race war on the stage of the Metropolitan after the regular performance of the Bohemians this evening.

It will not be a real race war, but a warm contest between white and colored amateur entertainers for the first prizes in the "amateur night" events, which take place this evening.

A long list of amateur acts has been booked and there is every prospect of much applause, and, on the other hand, much use of "the hook."

The chorus girls' contest last evening gave one of the largest audiences of the season a big laugh. After the finale of "The Summer Time," the girls hustled into other makeups and did specialties. A sister act comprising Jennie McNabb and Jack Gray, got the first prize. The girls sang and danced and Miss McNabb, right from Scotland, sang several Scottish songs. Viola Allen gave some clever imitations of George M. Cohan and Anna Held and won second prize. Marie Revere and Willie Wichon gave a burlesque of a sidewalk conversational act of the old school and got third prize.

There will be a matinee tomorrow and wrestling tomorrow night.

BUYCK CASE IS INVOLVED

Demurrers and Appeals Are Coming in Rapid Succession.

Buyck Files Demurrer, Claiming No Cause of Action.

Hippolett Buyck, treasurer of the town of Buyck, who has been sued by the town for the return of about $30,000 of the township funds alleged to have been converted to his own use through illegal methods, has demurred to the complaint recently filed by Arnold & Pickering for the town board.

Mr. Buyck demurs to the complaint on the ground that the facts alleged in it do not constitute a cause of action. The demurrer was served yesterday on the town, but has not yet been filed in the district court.

Judge Dibell yesterday dissolved the writ of attachment against Buyck's property, but granted a five days' stay of proceedings in order that the town may have the opportunity of filing a bond on its appeal to the supreme court from the order discharging the writ.

Under the supercedeas bond the town must guarantee to pay the costs of appeal and all other damages that Buyck may sustain by reason of the attachment, providing the town loses in the supreme court on its appeal.

With the bond in effect the writ will still continue in force, although there is said to be still another legal process known in law whereby Buyck can come back with another bond to cover costs and damages to the town, etc., and get a release of the attachment pending the trial of the issues.

The legal fight between the town and its treasurer will probably be a long-drawn-out contest.

Buyck is represented by Davis & Hollister and Judge W. G. Benham of this city.

In the meantime the ice on Vermilion lake is said to be getting unsafe for travel by teams, and it is probable that if Buyck gets any relief from the attachment in order to get any supplies to the town, he will have to do so by teaming from Pelican Lake station on the Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg road. The officers who made the trip to the town of Buyck to serve the attachment papers say that the winter road from Pelican Lake to the town is still in good condition for sleighing.

NATIONAL PAINT LAW

Will be Advocated by Food Commissioner Ladd.

Fargo, N. D., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—A national paint law is to be boosted by Commissioner Ladd of this state, a recognized authority on paint matters and the father of the law in North Dakota which has withstood in the courts all the attacks of the paint men. In fact the law in congress is copied after the North Dakota law, and the committee to which it has been referred requested Mr. Ladd's presence there to explain its advantages. Mr. Ladd left yesterday for the national capital.

CUPID DOES QUICK WORK

Maiden is Wooed and Wed in Twenty-Four Hours.

Wedding Bells Will Follow Acquaintance of Few Hours.

All short distance records of wooing and winning went by the board yesterday, when a traveling man met, wooed and won a maiden in the short space of twenty-four hours. They met last night and are to be joined in holy wedlock today, if the assurances given by the maiden are adhered to. No preliminary flirtation sparring was indulged in.

Josephine Tomany is the name of the girl. She is, or rather, was employed at the McKay hotel. J. L. Lorenz, a traveling man from the windy city of Chicago, where they do everything, even courting in a most breezy and refreshing manner, is the name of the man in the case.

According to the story told by the girl's friends, the couple met last evening at the evening meal, Miss Tomany waited on the man. She had not long to wait, however, if results speak for accomplishment. Miss Tomany informed her friends of the dining room that she had made an engagement to go to the theater with the traveling man. That was after the evening meal. Shortly before the village clocks were pointing to the unromantic hour of 1, Miss Tomany returned to the hotel, packed up her personal belongings and informed her friends that she was going to be married.

Mr. Lorenz paid his bill early this morning. It is said that all preliminary business that even Cupid insists upon being transacted, was to be gone through with today, the ring purchased and the happy couple made one.

Miss Tomany has been at the hotel but a week. She is an extremely pretty girl of the brunette type. She was indeed an attraction to the hotel, but Dan Cupid rudely interposed and whisked the maiden away.

Miss Tomany informed her friends that she and her husband were to go to Milwaukee after the officiating party had pronounced the amen words to the marriage ceremony.

WANT TERMINAL ELEVATORS.

North Dakota Equity Society Favors Having One Here.

Fargo, N. D., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Terminal elevators at both the Head of the Lakes and in Minneapolis are now demanded by the members of the American Society of Equity and the independent shippers, according to Carl P. Rakow of Wheatland, one of the organizers for the society. Mr. Rakow has been in the northeastern part of the state addressing the local unions and finds a lot of enthusiasm over the terminal elevator proposition. He urges perfect organization in both Dakota and Minnesota and figures that there are 275,000 grain growers who can be interested if the proper effort is made. It would be an easy matter, he says, to raise the millions necessary for the plan and he insists that the cost of the elevators could be practically saved from the first crop handled. In addition to giving the farmers control of the spring wheat territory and in a measure of the prices of their product.

TWO FINED FOR STEALING BARREL

Petty Theft Gets Young Men in Jail for Five Days.

Henry Brearty and John Smith walked down the railroad track near Sixth avenue west this morning. They were in search of work they said. They spotted a whisky barrel near the track and promptly picked it up and made for the nearest dealer in junk. Joseph Karon, the true owner of the barrel, saw them tugging off his property, made complaint against them, and they each drew $5 and costs or five days in municipal court.

Frocke Labovitz, a Roumanian merchant was arraigned in municipal court this morning on a charge of petit larceny, preferred by Peter Nolander. Labovitz is charged with a very crude short change game. Nolander claims he went into Labovitz's place, tendered a $10 bill in payment of an account of $2 and received but $8 in change. Labovitz denies the charge and his case is set for next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, before a jury.

Sam Flick scared a woman half to death on Lake avenue south last night. She claimed he tip-toed up behind her and she feared he was about to snatch her pocketbook. She reported the occurrence to a policeman and Flick was brought up and charged with vagrancy. He pleaded not guilty in court this morning and his case will be disposed of this afternoon.

Swan Anderson may have never heard of a vendetta or a stiletto, but he has the system. He had a grievance with another woodsman last night, but he scorned to strike in public. He lay in wait in a dark corner, and, when his victim appeared pounced on him. He used only nature's weapons and didn't do much damage before the police broke in and arrested him. He drew $10 or ten days this morning.

Owen Healy discovered that whisky barrels and bottles are of no value, other than as receptacles for essence of joy. He found a store room of the Duluth Scrap Iron company and proceeded to raid it systematically. He did get away with several barrels and bottles before the proprietors discovered it, but he was captured yesterday. He was found guilty of petit larceny and given a sentence of $15 and costs or twenty days. Owen went up on the hill for the twenty-day term.

CONCERNING WOMAN.

At the bi-monthly meeting of the Women's Council, which was held this morning at the clubroom of the library, the reports of the various committees of the Council were heard.

The report of the committee on a vacation school for manual training was presented by the chairman, Mrs. J. F. Killorin. The committe anticipates receiving permission from the board of education for the use of rooms in the Adams school and the high school buildings for such summer classes for boys over the age of 12 years. It is planned to engage a thoroughly trained teacher in manual training, with an assistant if possible, and the school will be maintained during July and August. In an informal inquiry as to the number of boys interested in such work, a most enthusiastic response was returned, and it is estimated that 300 boys in the neighborhoods of these schools will be anxious to attend the classes. At the meeting of the school board, which is to be held this evening, the permission for the use of the rooms will probably be granted. The committee was empowered by the Council to continue the work and make definite plans for the school, if the board of education grants the use of the rooms.

Mrs. J. B. Weston, acting chairman of the Art school committee, reported for the school. The school opened Wednesday of this week and eleven pupils have enrolled. During the next week it is expected that many more of those who sent in the written applications for tuition will be enrolled in the classes. Mrs. Julius Barnes, chairman of the finance committee of the Art school, reported $112 in tuition fees having been received, and bills contracted to the amount of $60.24. The work of the undertaking has thus far been most successful and encouraging.

The work of the summer school for domestic science, which has been maintained for three years, and which will again be carried on during the coming summer, was informally discussed. The matter of engaging the teacher was left with the committee, of which Mrs. William White is chairman.

A letter from Mayor Haven, requesting the co-operation of the Women's Council in arousing interest in the coming visit of Lee F. Hanmer of New York, field secretary of the National Playground association, was read. The Council moved that the delegates from the various clubs bring the matter before their clubs and that the members be invited to interest themselves in the afternoon meeting, which will be held at the library, April 21. "It is the first time in my memory," said Mrs. Woodbridge, president of the Council, "that a public official has asked the women of the city to assist in such a matter, and as good citizens we owe our support to such a movement."

A committee, consisting of Mrs. H. S. Ely and Miss Duncan, was appointed to interest the principals of the city schools in ordering seeds for the school children. In former years a committee of the Council has ordered the seeds and redistributed them to the school children. This year it is planned that each school order directly.

LET WOMEN PROPOSE

In Order to Set Things Right, Says J. Adam Bede.

"The cause of women's rights has found still another champion," is the editorial utterance of an Eastern exchange. "Mr. J. Adam Bede, a member of congress from Minnesota, comes into the lists and bumps his fellow men in the failure they have made of the proposal business. We men have been on the job for 2,000 years," he says, "and the fact that we have made a complete failure of it is proved by the number of divorces, which is increasing every day. Why, divorce is as common as appendicitis, and it is all the fault of us men. "As a remedy, cure, antidote or way of redress for matrimony's failure he subscribes to the revolutionary suggestion that woman takes the proposal job into her hands. Mr. Bede, of course, is not the inventor of the proposition, as its wisdom was discovered several years ago by ladies of emancipated thought and an acute realization of the general inferiority of man to woman, but he is the first male on record to publicly declare his complete domestication. In his wild state Mr. Bede was probably as brutal and tyrannical as the rest of us, but captivity has evidently shown him things as the advanced woman sees them, and his reduction to submissive tameness is a great triumph for his trainer. Our congratulations to the lady.

"Without going to the lengths of Mr. Bede and, admitting that man's stupid choice of a partner is responsible for the popularity of divorce, we would not be unwilling to enter into a reciprocity agreement on the proposal question. The inclination to throw all the responsibility for unhappy marriages on us is getting too pronounced, and women are too universally becoming convinced that they are poor, ill-used darlings. Let's divide up the accounting, and give hubby a chance to do some of the reproaching on stable ground. Presented with an opportunity of refusal many an unhappy wretch would say no when the pursuing maiden asked him for his heart and hand. As it is now, more than one fellow falls into an open trap simply because his friendly attentions have been deliberately misunderstood."

Easter Sale.

The women of the First Baptist church will conduct the first of the Easter sales tomorrow all day at the office of the Singer Sewing Machine store, 18 West Superior street. Fashions and Follies.

How do the Paris fashion makers expect to make us to "do" our hair to go with the brimless hats which they are determined to revive this spring? The Greek style of hair dressing which hair dressers say is coming in, will never be compatible with the present style, but it is safe to say that the brimless hat will be seen on many, for it is a fashion bound to take with the crowd. Some of those tiny brimless hats are trimmed with wreaths of cherries and others have a frill of velvet ribbon with loops running up one side.

The newest craze in fashion is bangs. If you desire to be au fait, your fluffy pompadour must be edged with a fringe. This new headdress of twenty years ago, in that it is soft and fluffy instead of straight. The pin curl, as it is technically called, may be either artificial or natural, according to the taste of the wearer. On account of its softening effect, it has the advantage of being becoming to the high or the low forehead. The pin curl is adjusted underneath a loosely marcelled pompadour, around which is wound a coronet of puffs arranged in a low and long effect in the back.

The pin curl is also worn with the Grecian style of headdress, modernized, of course. Word comes from Paris that the braid coronet, which was so much worn two years ago, will again be seen during the coming summer.

This is about the mother of Adelaide, says the Atchison Globe. When Adelaide was only 5 weeks old her mother began to flavor, season and spike her conversation with the doings of Adelaide, and she has kept it up ever since, though that was seventeen years ago. Adelaide grew older, and there was more to tell about her. The mother of Adelaide began to talk more, until now those who are near the mother of Adelaide have Adelaide pourned into both ears as long as they will stand for it. Adelaide isn't pretty and she isn't a prodigy, but she would be a nice girl in the eyes of the people if they heard less about her. Three families have moved out of town to escape hearing about Adelaide, and there is fear that Adelaide's mother will finally depopulate the town.

When a very polite woman has company she never looks at the clock. If by any means her eyes must wander to that side of the room she very carefully looks above the clock, or below it, but never is she guilty of the rudeness of looking at the clock itself. When a guest looks at the clock and commends upon the lateness of the hour, then a hostess may look at it, but she must immediately, in very polite and ladylike terms, insist that the clock lies; that it is at least four hours too fast. The clock is an important factor in true politeness. Only by utterly ignoring is when there is company can a woman become a perfect lady, says the Atchison Globe.

Leather waistcoats for cool weather are very much affected by college men, the most popular being of brown ooze leather bound with either black braid or braid matching the shade of the leather. Gray is worn by those to whom it is becoming, and occasionally some daring spirit chooses to wear one of red, blue, or green.

Hosts at Dinner.

Capt. and Mrs. A. B. Wolvin were hosts at dinner last evening at their home in compliment to Miss Jessie LaSalle and Ernest Rackle. The table appointments were in yellow, daffodils being the flowers used. Besides the hosts and guests of honor, covers were laid for:

Josephine Carey.
Charlotte Partridge of Chicago.
Messrs—
George Rackle.
Carroll Graff.
Fred Wolvin.

Luncheon.

Mrs. Stephen H. Jones will entertain at luncheon Monday at the Spalding in honor of Mrs. Stella Prince Stocker, who will leave next week with her daughter, Miss Clara Stocker for a three months' trip abroad. The guests will be the members of the Cecilian club of which Mrs. Stocker was the founder.

Saturday Club.

The regular meeting of the Saturday club will be held tomorrow afternoon at the club room of the library. The half hour devoted to current events will be in charge of Miss Marjorie Quillard who will talk on "The Value of Purpose in Industrial Work in Schools." Italian history will be the regular study with Miss Multhaner as leader and the outline is as follows:

Unification of Italy.
The Great Triumvirate, Cavour, Mazzini, Garibaldi.
I. Reasons why unity was possible under leadership of Sardinia.
a. Race, location. b. Leadership of Cavour. c. Gains for Sardinia by the Crimean war.
Miss Multhaner.
II. Garibaldi. a. Sketch of his life. b. His work for Victor Immanuel in '60-'61.
Mrs. L. E. Paddack.
III. Cavour's part in '60-'61. Death in '61. Character, services to Italy.

What Retail Markets Offer.

Strawberries, 3 pint boxes for 25 cents
Cauliflower, 20 cents a head.
Cucumbers, 20 cents a lb.
Tomatoes, 20 cents a lb.
Apples, $1 a peck.
Rhubarb, 10 cents a lb.
Milk fed broilers, $1 each.
Chicken, 20 cents a lb.
Lobsters, 40 cents a lb.
Shad, $1.25 each.

Milk fed chickens, to be broiled to a tender and luscious delicacy, and nice fat, red strawberries, are the things which may be secured for the Sunday dinner, provided that your Lenten giving up does not include chickens and strawberries. The market in almost any other line is as nice. Shad, expensive and exclusive, is to be had, and lobsters are in. The vegetables are slightly cheaper in price than during the preceding weeks, and things in general hold out the promise which a warm, pleasant April day should hold out.

HOW I TOOK MY WRINKLES OUT

After Massage, Creams and Beauty Doctors Had Failed.

By HARRIETT META.

Trouble, worry and ill-health brought me deep lines and wrinkles. I realized that they not only greatly marred my appearance and made me look older, but that they would greatly interfere with my success, because a woman's success, either socially or financially, depends very largely on her appearance. The homely woman, with deep lines and furrows in her face, must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister.

I therefore bought various brands of cold cream and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply would not go. On the contrary, they seemed to get deeper. Next I went to a beauty specialist, who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took the treatment. Sometimes I thought they got less, but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave. One day a friend of mine who was versed in chemistry made a suggestion, and this gave me a new idea. I immediately went to work making experiments and studying everything I could get hold of on this subject. After several long months of almost numberless trials and discouragements I finally discovered a process which produced most astounding results on my wrinkles in a single night. I was delighted beyond expression. I tried my treatment again, and lo and behold my wrinkles were practically gone. A third treatment—three nights in all—and I had no wrinkles and my face was as smooth as ever. I next offered my treatment to some of my immediate friends, who used it with surprising results, and I have now decided to offer it to the public. Miss Gladys Desmond of Pittsburg, Pa., writes that it made her wrinkles disappear in one night.

Mrs. James Barss of Central City, S. D., writes as follows: "My face has become fuller, the flesh firmer, and my eyes brighter; all of which is due to your marvelous treatment. The change is so great that it seems to be more a work of magic."

I will send further particulars to any one who is interested absolutely free of charge. I use no cream, massage, face steaming or so-called skin foods, there is nothing to inject and nothing to injure the skin. It is an entirely new discovery of my own, and so simple that you can use it without the knowledge of your most intimate friends. You apply the treatment at night and go to bed. In the morning, lo! the wonderful transformation. People often write me, "It sounds too good to be true." Well, the test will tell. If interested in my discovery please address HARRIETT META, Suite 813 B, Syracuse, N. Y., and I will send full particulars.

Use Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts they will give perfect satisfaction.

GUST LAHTI RESIGNS.

Former Secretary of Police Department Goes to Mining Company.

G. F. Lahti, for over five years secretary of the Duluth police department, left that position this morning to take one in the claim department of the Oliver Iron Mining company. He is succeeded by Neil E. Beaton, who assumed the duties of the position several days ago.

Mr. Lahti was appointed secretary of the department Jan. 1, 1903, and has served continuously since. His knowledge of the workings of the department and accuracy and care in keeping the records of both the police department and the identification bureau made him a valuable man at the central station. His new position gives him greater opportunities and more promise, and his friends look for his success.

RAILROAD NEWS

BUSINESS FALLS OFF

Deficiency of 11,358 in the Number of Cars Handled.

Report of Car Service Association Shows Big Reduction.

The March report of the Lake Superior Car Service association, as compiled by Manager James Kelly, shows a deficience of 11,358 cars in the total handled during the month, as compared with the same period last year. This is a reduction of nearly one-third. The total for the month was 25,102 cars.

While there has been a falling off in all classes of freight handled, the biggest differences was noted in coal. Coal shipments show a big falling off during March, as compared with the same period a year ago.

Freight shipments are running rather light in all lines, as compared with previous seasons. With the approach of summer, however, it is expected that business will pick up with the railroad freight departments.

Pulpwood shipments have been quite an item with Duluth roads during the last three months, but they will count for little from now on, for the pulpwood has been pretty well cleaned up, and only a very little remains to be sent forward, except by the water route. The movement was completed this year in record-breaking time, thanks to the fact that there was no car shortage, and the railroads were in good condition to handle shipments promptly.

Estimates of local railroad men as to the total movement of pulpwood during the present season vary. Some place it as high as 9,000 cars, and others as low as 7,000 cars. In any event, the total runs much heavier than last year, although the movement was completed in a much shorter space of time owing to advantageous conditions.

Coal hasn't been moving into the interior very heavily lately. The demand has been light, partly because many of the interior dealers took the precaution to stock up early in the season, laying in a sufficient supply to last them through until spring, and partly because of the mildness of the weather all through the Northwest during the winter has made the consumption smaller than usual.

WILL RUSH WORK.

Guggenheims Will Ship 1,500 Railway Laborers to Alaska.

Seattle, Wash., April 3.—M. J. Heney, contractor of the Copper River & Northwestern railway, the Guggenheim Alaska road, will send 1,500 railway laborers north as fast as they can be secured and transportation provided them. Mr. Heney states that he has received instructions to rush the construction on the Cordova division of the Guggenheim road as fast as possible.

ARE "HITTING THE RAILS"

Western Roads Are Overrun With Tramps and Hoboes.

A bright and merry hobo blew into the recruiting office this morning. He was somewhat travel worn and weary, but he still retained a pleasant and engaging smile. He had made the long jump from Kansas City, via the side door Pullman route, but was as optimistic as a man making that long ride on the unyielding rigidity of iron bumpers could reasonably be expected to be.

"K. C.," he began, "is full to the alleys with men. The square looks like as if a Fourth of July celebration was in progress, for the "boes" are sittin' on the fences and taking up all the benches in the park."

The hobo, who rode the bumpers up from St. Paul last night, is authority for the statement that the road is overrun with tramps "hitting the rail." They are floating west into Omaha, out from Omaha, St. Paulwards, and, in fact, are hitting the rail for anywhere in particular.

The "shakes," meaning brakemen, are the ones who have the particular enmity of the traveling gentry. They are collecting toll of the road travelers at a time when cash fares, in the nature of a rebate to the brakemen, are a very great rarity. So, while the road is busy with wayfarers, the "shakes" are deriving a reduced income off the shakesdown, and the roamers are cursing the brakemen. But still the wandering Willies manage somehow to get around.

RED WARRIOR.

Western Paper's Opinion of Duluth Company.

"The Red Warrior is destined to become one of the leading properties of Beaver county, and judging from the manner in which the company is doing development work the day is not far distant when this property will rank with the best of them. The old workings have been passed up and a new shaft is being sunk and is now down to a depth of seventy-five feet. Good ore has been encountered from the surface and it is believed that within a depth of 300 feet an ore body of great magnitude will be uncovered. Last week the property was visited by W. A. Eaton of Duluth, president of the company, and Guy A. Eaton, a director of the company, and who is also postmaster of the city of Duluth. These gentlemen were accompanied by Mr. Pritchett, a mine expert from Denver, who are here to make an inspection of the property for the benefit of the stockholders. Mr. Pritchett stated that in his opinion this was one of the best properties in Southern Utah and that there was not a shadow of doubt but that the Red Warrior would become a great mine in the not far distant future."

The copper stock market was quiet but fairly firm during most of the session, but weakened at the close. North Butte opened at $54, declined to $53.50 and closed at $53.25 bid and $53.50 asked. Amalgamated opened at $59, advanced to $59.25, declined to $58.25 and closed at $58.37½ bid.

Greene-Cananea opened at $8.87½ bid and $9 asked, sold at $8.87½ and $8.62½ and closed at $8.62½ bid and $8.75 asked. Butte Coalition opened at $21, declined to $20.87½ and closed at $20.75 bid and $21.25 asked. Calumet & Arizona opened at $160, advanced to $161, declined to $160 and closed at $160 bid and $161 asked. Anaconda opened ex dividend at $37.75, advanced to $38, declined to $37.37½ and closed at $37.37½ bid.

Superior & Pittsburg sold at $12.62½, declined to $12.37½ and closed at $12.37½ bid and $12.62½ asked. Denn-Arizona sold at $8.25 and $8.12½ and closed at $8, bid and $8.25 asked. Globe at $8.50 and $8.12½ and closed at $8 bid and $8.25 asked; Calumet & Sonora at $6.25 and closed at $6.25 bid and $6.50 asked. Butte-Ballaklava sold at $9 and closed at $9 bid.

Copper Queen of Idaho was $1.12½ bid and $1.25 asked.

Black Mountain sold at $3.87½ and closed at $3.75 bid and $3.87½ asked.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

New York, April 3.—Daniel R. Delancy of Brooklyn, cashier of the law firm of Henry E. Coe & Co. of this city, was arrested at Mountaindale, Sullivan county, today. He is charged with taking $26,000 of the firm's funds.

Jones Case Being Heard.

The case of John B. Jones against the village of Aurora, Minn., is being heard in district court this afternoon. Jones is the socialist husband of Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, the New York girl who spoke here and on the range in the interests of socialism last fall, and brings suit against Aurora for $5,000 damages, charging slander, assault and false imprisonment at the hands of Marshal August Knuti. He was arrested charged with having been responsible for the explosion of a charge of dynamite placed under the house of a mining captain.

BEGS WIFE TO RETRACT.

Husband Wants Her to Say He Shot Himself Accidentally.

St. Louis, April 13.—Lying at the point of death at the city hospital, John J. Barry, street car conductor, wounded by a bullet, today begged his wife, for her own protection, to retract her statement that she shot him accidentally while he was trying to take from her a revolver with which she had threatened to commit suicide. He urged her to say that he shot himself accidentally while cleaning the revolver. But, standing by his bedside, Mrs. Barry maintained her assertion that she had fired the shot. Pleading with her to make a retraction, Barry became unconscious, and it is believed he will die within a short time. Mrs. Barry is not in custody.

BOYS LEAVE GERM TRAIL

McDougal and Herton Slept in Switch House First Night.

McDougal in Eruption Stage and May be Picked Up.

John Herton and John McDougal, the young men, who escaped from the city detention hospital Wednesday night, certainly left a trail of smallpox behind them, but the officers are unable to follow it. It was discovered that, after leaving the detention hospital, the young men came direct to the city, spending the remainder of the night in the switch house at 600 Garfield avenue. The switch house has been thoroughly fumigated by the health department and further signs of their passage are being watched for.

It is believed Herton and McDougal had confederates. They left in the clothes they wore in the detention hospital, their own clothes having been taken from them when they were taken in. The clothes they wore consisted of little more than overhalls and a shirt, and it is believed they were met outside by others, who furnished them with clothes, into which they changed in the switch house, the detention hospital garments being taken away in an attempt to wipe out the clue.

It is believed the two boys have either gone to Superior to hide, or succeeded in getting a train out of Duluth. In either case, McDougal runs long chances of being picked up by the authorities. He was in a state of eruption and, if he is seen, will certainly be taken up as a smallpox patient. Herton was convalescing, but is still able to scatter smallpox germs widely and they will probably cause a small sized epidemic of the disease somewhere through their daring escape.

McDougal and Herton were both awaiting the action of the grand jury on grand larceny charges, in connection with thefts from outer offices of physicians and other professional men in the business blocks on Superior street.

Damages for Brother's Death.

John Spolarich of Virginia has made application to the probate court for the appointment of Steve Spolarich of Eveleth as administrator of the estate of his half brother, Thomas Delach, who was killed last month in an accident in a mine at Mountain Iron. The decedent left no estate except a cause of action against the Oliver Iron Mining company, and the relative wants the administrator appointed so that the action may be brought to trial. Damages in the amount of $5,000 are asked for Delach's death. It is claimed that Delach was killed by a cave-in of ore and that the accident was due to negligence of the mining company. L. H. Corcoran of this city is attorney for Spolarich.

Jury Has Insurance Case.

The jury in the case of Swallow & Hopkins against the Aetna Life Insurance company retired about 10 o'clock this morning and up to a late hour this afternoon had reached no agreement. The plaintiffs seek to recover, under an employers' casualty insurance policy the money they paid out in settling damages for the death of one employe and the injury of another by reason of an accident at a mine which Swallow & Hopkins operate. The insurance company claims that one of the employes was under legal age for employment and that in the other case no notice of accident was given the defendant, nor was it aware of the accident until after the plaintiffs had effected a settlement.

Sablotzky Case on Trial.

The case of Harry Luery against Jacob Sablotzky for an accounting of an alleged partnership deal in the New York Clothing store, is still on trial in Judge Dibell's room. Luery claims an interest in the business, but Sablotzky claims that the plaintiff was hired as a clerk.

Court Directs a Verdict.

Judge Cant, this morning, took the case of Alex Bergstrom against Anton Johnson and others away from the jury and directed a verdict in favor of the defendants. Bergstrom claimed a timber trespass and sued for $1,500 damages. The case was on trial two days.

Claims Adverse Possession.

Swan G. Gudeen of the West end has started a suit in the district court against Dr. O. A. Oredson to recover $100 damages alleged to be due for the adverse possession of a strip of ground about three feet wide alleged to belong to part of lot 18, block 70, Myers' addition to Duluth, Second division, owned by the plaintiff. The suit is understood to be one arising from the alleged claim that a building erected by Dr. Oredson encroaches on Gudeen's lot.

Arthur Thomas Dismissed.

Arthur Thomas, charged with grand larceny, appeared in court this afternoon and was dismissed for lack of evidence. The charge was that he stole $13.60 from G. A. Wilson while the latter was drunk in the Bijou barber shop.

HOWLEY TO LEAVE CITY

State Labor President Ends His Work in Duluth.

He Made Many Friends Among Both Parties in Fight.

George B. Howley, president of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor, and personal representative of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation, will leave tonight for the Twin Cities. He is through with his work in Duluth in connection with the building trades' strike or lockout, and affairs connected with all local labor difficulties are left in the hands of Duluth union leaders.

Mr. Howley has been in the city for about four months now, acting in the capacity of general in the movement against the open shop, and everything is now running so smoothly that it is believed to be unnecessary that he should remain here longer. While paying such close attention to local troubles he has of necessity had to neglect his work elsewhere in the state, and it is found imperative that he should devote some time and attention to this other work, especially in view of the fact that everything is running along so smoothly here.

Mr. Howley has made a host of friends while in the city, and it is with keen regret that they see him leave. The friends are numbered on both sides of the controversy, and the contractors are just as sorry as the building laborers to see him go, for he has at all times been so fair and conservative in his work in connection with local labor difficulties, that the members of the Builders' exchange and the Civic committee felt that in him they could rest assured of getting the fairest possible treatment.

MORE OFFICERS FOR SKI CLUB

Directors Meet and C. E. Evens is Again Chosen President.

At a meeting held in the rooms of the Builders' Exchange today, the wing of the Duluth Ski club, represented by the incorporators, elected officers from the set of directors chosen at the meeting Monday night. There are only one or two changes in the officers, the list of those chosen being as follows: President, C. E. Evans; vice president, Dr. H. Hovde; second vice president, H. Wanneboe; recording secretary, A. S. Lunde; financial secretary, J. J. Wangenstein; treasurer, W. H. Wells; chairman of grounds committee, H. Wanneboe.

The business was transacted just as nothing had occurred to disturb the club ranks. The reactionary faction, which also chose a set of directors Monday night, was ignored entirely and no official reference was made to them. None of the opposition were present and everything passed off quietly.

The club expects to secure a lease on the grounds of the Duluth Ski Hill company for next year, and it is said the other faction is also after a lease. The directors announced after the meeting today that new members will be taken in next fall the same as before, and no effort will be made to monopolize the sport, although the club, as represented by the crowd that met today, expects to control the sport on Chester Hill next winter.

THE GAME IN TIN CAN.

At a dinner in Hot Springs, Va., the conversation turned to card sharps, and Eben D Jordan of Boston said:

"A one-eyed man was suspected of cheating in a poker game in the town of Tin Can. He played on and on, till the chips were stacked so high on the table before him as nearly to hide him from view. Finally he won a huge jack pot. His one eye gleamed as he clawed in three bushels of blue chips, and in the sullen silence a tall, lean player rose.

"The tall, lean player took his revolver from its holster, and juggling it carelessly, he said:

"'Gents, there's cheatin' goin' on here. I ain't the kind of gent to name names, nor to make no personal allusions; but if this cheatin' ain't stopped I'll shoot his other eye out, an' then he'll be blind.'"

You can sell your real estate—and anybody else's—anywhere—any time—most any price (if honest)—if you can write or procure a convincing ad.

WHERE BROMS COME FROM.

Washington Herald: "Illinois furnishes the aristocratic brooms for the world, the highest grade of brushes being grown in our state," said Valentine W. Kenger, a manufacturer of Chicago.

"Kansas produces the cheaper brush, and most of it is shipped in bales to Illinois to be manufactured in the numerous broom factories. The broom corn district in Illinois is confined principally to the central section, the counties of Douglas, Coles and Moultrie producing nine-tenths of the total crop. It is estimated that the crop in the United States this season will aggregate 50,000,000 brooms, valued at fully $10,000,000.

"To move this great product would require 200 trains of over fifty cars each, aggregating 100 miles of brooms. The broom corn harvest has just ended in Central Illinois, and material for 15,000,000 to 18,000,000 brooms was cut there this season. The brooms grown and manufactured in Illinois are the fancy kind, that retail from 35 to 40 cents.

"Down in Oklahoma they raise a coarser grade of brush, sufficient to manufacture about 25,000,000 brooms of the kind that sell for from 15 to 25 cents each. Kansas has about 5,000,000 brooms to its credit, and there is some brush grown in Missouri, Tennessee and Arkansas. Kansas favors a dwarf variety of broom corn, which is preferable for whiskbrooms. In fact, Kansas raises material for nearly all the whiskbrooms used in the United States.

"Nearly all the high-grade brooms are consumed in this country, the exports being generally of the cheaper quality. The people of Europe in most instances stick to the old-style brooms of twigs. They look askance at the modern American broom."

THE FIRST OF THE MONTH

Holds no terrors for the one who buys for cash. The wondering as to whether you got this or got that, in accordance with the monthly bill, is a mind and purse agony unknown to the one who pays cash. And then, again, the credit buyer is seldom in exact touch with the quantity he gets for the price he pays. Really, there s no satisfying excuse that can be made to one's self for not paying cash at Duluth's only strictly one-price cash grocery and meat market, that saves its patrons from 25 to 40 per cent on their eatables. Tomorrow's attractive prices follow:

BUCK WOOD FOR A MEAL

Four Relays of Bread Liners Sweat Over Hand Saws.

Work an Hour for the Right to Eat Free.

The bread-liners are sawoig wood today.

Right after the free coffee and sandwiches at the Bethel this morning, about thirty-five set out for Anderson's wood yard, Sixth avenue east and Fourth street, where they were to work for an hour or so to secure the necessary ticket which will entitle them to remain in the Bethel building tonight and to drink two cups of coffee and eat two sandwiches tomorrow morning.

After the first crew of thirty-five men were told to lay down their saws, they were presented with the tickets, and replaced at the saw-bucks by a fresh crew of thirty-five from the Bethel's bread-line.

Four crews of men sweated over the saws this morning, and more were expected on the job this afternoon. The afternoon crews had not started work by 2:30, however.

The men in charge of the wood yard say they are satisfied with the work done today by the bread-liners. "They seem to be good, willing workers," said the wood yard manager.

The Bethel authorities say that they are satisfied with the way the plan has succeeded at the outset. W. D. Edson, one of the officers of the Bethel society, was present at the free breakfas. there again this morning and he explained to the men, the scheme devised by the directors to exclude loafers from the line.

He told about the wood-yard work and when he asked how many would make up the first crew of thirty-five to start for the yard, about 200 of the 230 in the room signified their willingness to go.

Matt Daly, a member of the seamen's union, and T. J. Fennessy, a railroad construction crew foreman, both members of the "bread-line" because they are out of employment, were in The Herald office this morning, to make a statement in defense of the bread-line and the men who comprise it.

"The bread-liners are not loafers but are honest, hard-working fellows, anxious to get whatever work they can," said Daly. "There are no crooks there. Crooks are sleeping in hotels and probably have money while we are sleeping on the hard floor at the Bethel where it is so crowded that there is not room to change your mind."

THE TAFTS.

New York Press: Bill Taft, 333 pounds, is descended from the ancient family of Jack Falstaff, originally Falstaff, weight 433 pounds. Falstaff, or FalsTAFT, was the family pet of Prince Hal, as Bill TAFT is the family pet of King Roosevelt. When Prince Hal got to be king he threw Falstaff to the dogs.

NO PROTEST ON IMPROVEMENT

Twentieth Avenue East Will be Paved This Year.

No objections were filed this morning at the first hearing on the advance assessment for the Twentieth avenue east paving before the board of public works. Several property holders on Twentieth avenue east appeared before the board, looked over the assessment roll and expressed satisfaction with the arrangements. The assessment will go right through the confirmation now and the work will be done this year.

The meeting of the board this morning disposed of considerable routine business and was then adjourned to this afternoon. The sprinkling district will come up for confirmation and there are some changes. Last year the city laid out sixteen districts, and this year, it is divided into seventeen. The council orders the number of districts to be sprinkled, fifteen of the sixteen being ordered last year. There were some small protests on the sewer in Seventh street, between Eighth and Seventh avenues west, with the outlet to Third street on Eighth avenue, but there is no great opposition to it. The hearing was continued for a week.

A GHOST STORY FROM ITALY.

Chicago News: Italy is steadily producing the champion "spirit" yarns of the decade. The following comes from Ancona and is given in the language of two brother lawyers, the sons of Sig. Marracini, public prosecutor: "Since several days the strangest events have been taking place in our house. Last night we heard repeated knockings and the moving of furniture in uninhabited rooms. Hurrying thither, we heard a rustling, and nothing more. Meanwhile, there was a curious disturbance in the electric wires and all the bells in the house began to ring, making a horrible din. Believing that the wires had somehow got into contract we had the whole installation examined by a competent person, but everything was in order. But the most remarkable thing was the discovery of jets of water springing from the walls and almost flooding the floors. These were seen not only by us but by other persons as well. Shortly afterward we were in the dining room, when we saw milk coming up through the floor. We reported the matter to some workmen, who examined the walls, broke up the floors, raising the blocks, but they did not find the least trace of milk, water or any other liquid.

"Still the prodigies was not finished, as was shown by the appearance in the dining room of a cup filled with milk. One of us, who happened to be close to the spot on the floor where the cup appeared, drew a little nearer and saw a cup of coffee and milk arrive. Our father then cried, jokingly, 'Coffee and milk? Rah! I should prefer wine,' shortly afterward, while the table was being cleared, we saw a liquid running from the walls; it was wine. A little while ago a pear appeared and then we recalled that our sister had asked at table for a pear, but was refused, as she had already eaten enough fruit. The pear was on a dish, which was locked away in the glass sideboard. When the latter was opened the pear was no longer there.

"We then thought that some mysterious mediumistic force might be exercised by our sister, so we watched her every movement carefully and followed the child when she rose from the table. When she passed close to a book shelf where there were two volumes on spiritualism, one of the books was raised in the air as though by some supernatural force. It hit the girl several times on the shoulders, then danced for a few moments in the air and was then clapped against the wall at the very spot whence the milk had issued.

WHEAT HAS SOFT TONE

Bearish Feeling About the Southwest Causes a Decline.

Flax is Quiet and Firm in the Duluth Market.

Duluth Board of Trade, April 3.—Prospects for the breaking of the threatened drought in the Southwest and a general bearish feeling about the winter crop caused a soft wheat market in America today.

Prices went off steadily from the opening, but during the last half hour there was a slight reaction, the bulls feeling that the effect of the bearish news had been spent. The rally was not enough to make a firm close. All the markets closed weaker than yesterday.

The Modern Millers report on the Southwestern situation was accounted bearish, and shipments from Argentina were liberal and about as expected. The Modern Miller says:

"Milling correspondents covering the principal winter wheat states report the condition of the crop on April 1 as generally good, the plant having a healthy color and seasonable growth nearly everywhere. The plant came out of the winter with an unusually small top growth, but had a strong root growth. Favorable weather during the greater part of March caused an improvement nearly everywhere. Insufficient moisture in Kansas and Nebraska has caused some deterioration and good general rains are urgently needed, to prevent serious inurjy to the plant. Damage by insects is slight and is confined to early sown by the fly in Kansas and none at all by green bugs, though these were plentiful in Northern Oklahoma and Southern Kansas."

The Liverpool market closed very firm, at 1d to 1½d higher. Berlin closed ⅝c higher and Budapest 1¼c lower.

The May option closed ⅝c lower in Duluth, ⅜c lower in Chicago, ⅜c lower in Minneapolis and New York and ⅝c lower in Winnipeg. The July option closed ⅝c lower in Duluth, ⅜-⅝c lower in Chicago, ⅜-⅜c lower in Minneapolis, ¼c lower in New York and ⅜c lower in Winnipeg.

The May corn closed unchanged in Chicago and Liverpool. May oats closed unchanged in Chicago.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool:

"Wheat—As a result of the firmness in America yesterday, the market opened firm and ⅜d to ½d higher. Offerings were extremely light and support good, short being nervous and covered actely. The fact of the continued liberal shipments from Argentina being ottset by the fact of continental purchases of off coast cargoes. A large percentage of the Argentine exports again went direct to the continent and a good demand was reported for red wheat cargoes. During the morning values gained an additional ¼d to ½d. At mid-day the market was firm and from ½d to ¾d higher than Thursday.

"Corn was steady and unchanged. The market was neglected and extremely dull."

Car receipts at Duluth were 32 against 126 last year, and at Minneapolis 163 against 264 last year, making a total for the Northwest of 195 against 390 last year. Winnipeg received 103 against 158 last year.

Primary receipts of wheat were 344,000 bus., last year 672,000 bus. Shipments 180,000 bus., last year 280,000 bus. Clearances of wheat and flour aggregated 279,000 bus.

Primary receipts of corn were 461,000 bus., last year 475,000 bus. Shipments 420,000 bus., last year 429,000 bus. Clearances of corn were 4,285 bus.

Wheat was fairly active during the session in the Duluth market and closed weaker. May wheat opened unchanged at $1.01⅝, declined to $1.01¼, rallied to $1.01⅜, declined to $1.00⅝ and rallied by the close to $1.01, a loss of ⅝c from yesterday. July wheat opened ⅜c higher at $1.00, declined to $1.02 and closed at $1.02¼, a loss of ⅝c from yesterday.

Durum wheat was unchanged and cash spring wheat was selling on a basis of 2c over May for No. 1 northern.

Flax was quiet and closed firm. May flax opened unchanged at $1.16, declined to $1.15⅝ and closed unchanged from yesterday at $1.16. July flax opened ¼c lower at $1.18, advanced to $1.18¾ and closed at that price, unchanged from yesterday.

Coarse grains were unchanged.

Following were the closing prices:

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Opens Firm But Soon Weakens on Selling.

Chicago, April 3.—There was only a moderate trade in wheat at the start today. The market opened firm, on an advance at Liverpool but weakened on selling brought out by reports of rain for Kansas. May opened 1½@¾c higher at 93⅝@¾c and sold off to 92⅞c. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 214 cars against 175 cars last week and 500 cars a year ago.

The market continued weak until the close of the session. The low point for May was 92⅜c. The close was weak with May off ¼c at 92⅞c.

Corn was dull and easy. Improvement in the grading of receipts and weakness of wheat were the principal influences. May opened unchanged to ⅛c lower, at 66⅛c to 66⅜c and sold off to 65⅞@66c. Local receipts were 188 cars with 55 of contract grade.

The market showed no rallying power. The low point touched by May was 65¾c. The close was steady with the May delivery unchanged at 66⅛c.

Oats were very dull and the market was steady. May opened c higher at 52⅜c and sold at 52⅜c. Local receipts were 109 cars.

A decline of 10@15c in the price of hogs caused weakness in provisions. The market was active. May pork opened 5c lower at $13.40 sold at $13.37½ and advanced later to $13.47½. Lard was 15@17½c lower at $8.25. Ribs were 7½c lower at $7.15.

Close: Wheat—May, 92⅜c; July, 88¼c; September, 86⅛c. Corn—May, 66⅛c; July, 62⅝@62¾c; September, 63c. Oats—May, old, 52⅜c; May, 52¼c; July, old, 47c; July, 45c; September, 37½c. Pork—May, $13.25; July, $13.40@13.42½; September, $13.57½. Lard—May, $8.30; July, $8.52½; September, $8.70. Ribs—May, $7.07½ to $7.07½@7.10; July, $7.40; September, $7.65. Rye—Cash, 77c. Barley—Cash, 70@84c. Timothy—April, $4.65. Clover—Cash, $23.00; Cash wheat—No. 2 red, 94¾@96c; No. 3 red, 92¾@95½c. No. 2 hard, 94¾c@$1.00½; No. 3 hard, 90¾c @$1.00; No. 3 spring, 94c@$1.05. Others nothing doing. Corn—No. 2, nothing doing; No. 3, 62½@63c.

THE MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Wheat Firmed Slightly, But Continued Pressure Was Too Much.

Minneapolis, April 3.—Dry weather had some firming effect in wheat, but continued pressure was on, and wheat came out on the hard spots. Stronger Liverpool cables were offset by continued liberal Argentine shipments. Locally the stocks ran up by 30,000 from the earlier increase of 100,000 bushels, and now indicate gain of 150 000 in tomorrow's weekly statement. Receipts today were 163 cars against 361 and only 8 cars winter wheat appearing, the smallest proportion for some time.

Duluth receipts were 32 cars against 126. The Modern Miller report was bearish and was an offset to the bullish Ohio state crop report of earlier in the day. Near the close the market was off a little from yesterday. May wheat opened at $1.03½ high, $1.03½ low, $1.02⅞; close, $1.02¾. July wheat closed at $1.02; September closed at 93½c.

Cash demand was helped by outside millers. Local millers also wanted some. No. 1 northern sold at 1½c over, but for a choice lot free from mold. Close: No. 1 northern, $1.04; frost 2c over would probably have been spot; $1.0, to arrive; No. 2 northern, $1.02½ spot, $1.02 to arrive; No. 3 wheat, 93½@98½c.

No. 3 yellow corn, 61¾c; No. 3 white oats, 50c; No. 2 rye, 69¾@71¾c.

Flax in demand by crushers at the Duluth May price. Close, $1.15¾.

Bran in bulk, $21.25@21.50.

Flour—Some of the mills have curtailed on the output and unless shipping directions come in more freely a mill or two may close temporarily. General demand is moderate. Shipments, 31,580 barrels. First patents, $5.20@5.40; second patents, $5.10@5.30; first clears, $4.15@4.25; second clears, $3.20@3.30.

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, April 3.—Wheat—Spot, quiet; No. 2 red Western winter, 7s 1d; futures, barely steady; May, 7s; July, 7s 1¾d; September, 7s 3½d. Corn—Spot, arm; prime mixed, American new, 5s 5½; prime mixed, American old, 5s 7d; futures, quiet; May, 5s, 7½d; July nominal.

DECISION RENDERED BY THE SUPREME COURT.

St. Paul, April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The supreme court today affirmed a $6,000 personal injury verdict given in the Ramsey county district court in the case of John Anderson, a lunatic, by his guardian, Ella M. Anderson, respondent, vs. Grant Smith et al, appellants.

Anderson, who was employed by the defendant in railroad construction work, was badly injured by a premature explosion of dynamite, and sued for $10,000. The damages given, the supreme court says, are not excessive.

DECLINES IN STOCKS

Market Was Irregular and the Trading Was Very Dull.

Large Selling of United States Steel Broke Prices Sharply.

New York, April 3.—The few stocks traded in when the market opened today were not materially changed from the prices of last night. Small gains and losses were quite evenly divided, while many stocks sold at unchanged prices.

Brisk selling for a few minutes drove prices down sharply, the large blocks of United States Steel which were sold to below 33, assisting the decline. The metal stocks as a group showed the most weakness, but there was also decided pressure against St. Paul, Union Pacific and Reading. When the selling movement spent its force, prices hardened slowly and the market became very dull. Great Northern preferred gained 1 and St. Louis & San Francisco second preferred 1¼.

A slow recovery on very dull trading carried Union Pacific 1 over last night. Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie rose 2. Wabash preferred declined 1 and New Haven 2. Bonds were steady.

The wiping out of the advance in Union Pacific furnished the only feautre of interest during the noon hour. The rest of the list sagged in sympathy. Pacific Mail lost 1¼. Brooklyn Union Gas advanced 1.

The market grew steadier by the middle of the afternoon, the improvement arising from the dearth of selling rather than the accession of new buying orders. Westinghouse Electric improved 3 points.

The market closed heavy and dull. Union Pacific's decline to below yesterday followed the announcement of further postponement of the Erie directors' meeting. St. Paul yielded 1⅝. United States Steel, American Smelting, Colorado Fuel, Western Union, North American and Canadian Pacific 1. Manhattan sold at a decline of 5. There was no effective rally.

Stock Gossip.

Miller, New York, to M. W. Lee & Co: The market has again been very professional, the room taking the bull side this morning on confidence that the extension or the payment of the Erie notes would be arranged at the meeting this afternoon. The subsequent disappointment in this regard caused some throwing over of stocks.

Steel has been made under considerable pressure due to pessimistic dispatches from Pittsburg and neighborhood and many prophesies were made at Chicago of coming out in pig iron. The Erie affair must certainly be adjusted either satisfactorily or otherwise prior to next Wednesday. Meantime, the market waits thisparticular development naturally with more or less trepidation.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., April 3.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: Trade quite active, the demand centering on general purpose horses and farm mares. Receipts were liberal. W. E. Watson, St. Charles, Minn.; Leo Froehlich, Merrill, Wis.; John Montgomery, Hurley, S. D., brought in mixed loads of horses, all of good quality. A large number of buyers were on the market and numerous good sales were consummated. Thomas eKough bought a good bunch of horses far railroad work. William Reibolt received a big bunch of good farm mares during the day. Drafters show a slightly upward trend in value.

The Cotton Market.

New York, April 3.—The cotton market opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 3 points, and during the early session sold 4 to 7 points higher in response to steady cables, continued reports of a better feeling in the cotton goods trade, and cool weather in the South. The market advanced on moderate buying. New Orleans was a buyer here, but Liverpool appeared to be selling and local demand was mostly from shorts.

Cotton, spot, closed quiet, 10 points higher; middling uplands, 10.50; middling gulf, 10.75. Sales, 200 bales. Futures closed steady. Closing bids: April, 9.56; May, 9.66; June, 9.70; July, 9.74; August, 9.65; October, 9.65; December, 9.66; February, 9.66; March, 9.67.

AT THE SHOP WINDOW.

A Phase of the Newly Married Just Starting Housekeeping.

New York Sun: "We see," said Mr. Gilmmerly, "all sorts of people looking in at all sorts of store windows; women looking in at the beautiful things displayed in the windows of dry goods shops; children, enchanted, looking in at the toy windows; hungry people halting to look longingly at the steaks and chops and turkeys and celery invitingly arrayed in the window of the restaurant; skilled mechanics viewing with keen interest the fine tools shown in the window of the dealer in such things.

"We see all sorts of people looking in at all sorts of store windows, but among all these people I think I like best the young married couple looking in at the window of the furniture store.

"I like young married people anyway, happy and hopeful as they are; of limited means perhaps, but with life and the world before them, with the present and the future rosy. Their present stock of housekeeping goods may be small, but how nicely they make it do, how happy they are with what they contemplate adding to their stock as they go along as they have the means.

"There's one corner in the sitting room, for instance, in which a big, comfortable chair that she would so much like to get for him would fit so nicely, and they are going to have it some day. And the day comes when they've saved up pretty nearly enough to get it, and she has had her eye on just the chair they want for a long time.

"And some day she meets him when he is coming home from business and walks home with him, a young couple pleasant to see, and she halts him on the way in front of the window in which she has seen this chair.

"A busy thoroughfare, brilliantly lighted, and all the shop windows likewise bright with light, and in front of this particular window where the furniture is, this young wife halts her husband and turns him there to face it. And over in a corner is the chair she likes, and in a moment you see them both looking at it intently.

"And you can't hear what they say, because these young people don't talk loudly, but you can imagine her saying to him:

"'That's the chair, George, that big chair over in the corner,' and you can imagine him saying to her:

"'How splendid!'

"And then they both stand and look at it for a while and talk about it a little, about how nicely it will go in that corner, and how nicely it will go with that the other things in the room, and how very comfortable it will be, and then with her clinging to his arm a little closer now, they move on along with the throng toward home.

"Surely there can be no greater delight in shopping than comes to the young married couple keeping house, buying things that they need, or for their home's adornment, as they can go along. What a joy it must be to buy these things when at last they can, and what a joy they must find in their possession, as they buy them, one by one, to add to their home's completeness, comfort and beauty; and surely of all the people that I see looking in at the store windows none gives me more pleasure than the young couple looking in at the window of the furniture store at the things they are going to buy."

HIS WIFE'S WAY.

Chicago News: "They say that women talk a great deal," said the man with the knitted muffler. "I've even heard men kicking about it. They don't specialize, of course, but I notice that when a man kicks about women it's his wife that he means. Same way with a woman when she roasts the men."

"I'd like to know where you heard that women talked," said the jocular individual with the silk hat. "Somebody's been libeling the sex. Next thing you'll hear that men drink a great deal and moke more than is good for them—what?"

"If you wouldn't try to be so funny you'd make friends," said the man with the knitted muffler, somewhat impatiently. "I was going to say that I've heard women who would turn in and tell their opinions of things in general and in particular. I've been sorry for their families $100, but maybe I've wasted my pity. My wife isn't at all that way."

"Your own wife never is," remarked the man with the silk hat.

"But I wish she was sometimes," pursued the man who would turn in and tell her opinions of things in general and in particular. I've been sorry for their families $100, but maybe I've wasted my pity. My wife isn't at all that way."

PROTESTS ON SEWER

Property Owners Demand Change in Route of Trunk Sewer.

Many of Those Assessed Say They Will Not Benefit.

The first hearing before the board of public works this morning on the advance assessment for the outlet sewer in Fifty-eighth avenue west, brought a storm of protest from property owners. Such complications arose that the hearing was continued for one week, in order that conditions may be further investigated.

The protest having the greatest weight with the board was filed by the Zenith Furnace company, which claims that the outlet is so arranged that the sewage will be deposited on the company's property. The representatives of the company told the board that at some future date, the shore will be extended to the dock line by the company, covering the outlet of the sewer, or compelling an extension, which the company does not want through its land.

The representations of the furnace company being correct, the present plans would necessarily be altered to extend the sewer 3,000 feet, through water of varying depths, to the established dock line. The move would entail large additional expense to the property holders, and a reassessment of the 1,000 or so lots affected by the sewer. Other claims were made that the right-of-way was not clear and, in order that the statements might be verified, the continuance was taken.

Some of the people, whose property has been assessed for the sewer, think that they will receive no benefit and should pay nothing. The sewer is to be constructed on an order from the council, in accordance with the charter provision relative to outlet sewers, and every piece of property to which the outlet benefits is assessed. The assessment is based on the supposition that at some future time, lateral sewers will be constructed to connect with the trunk outlet. Owners of property below Redruth street claim that the land is good only for manufacturing purposes and no lateral sewers will ever be constructed there, thus eliminating the probability that they will receive outlet benefits from the proposed sewer.

Before the hearing next week, further data will be secured by the members of the board, and it is probable the property owners will renew their protests and seek to have the work abandoned, or the route changed.

"SOUL KISS" AT UNION DEPOT

Young People Do Turn That Lasts Fifteen Minutes.

A young man in woodsman attire coming up the steps in the union depot yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock was met in the fond embrace of a young lady, in a long gray coat and rose decorated hat, before he had half reached the top landing. The hug and the kisses that went with it, and which he freely returned, were not by any means short lived, for they stood there on the steps for fully a quarter of an hour, both trying to talk at once, between caresses.

Quite a little crowd of amused onlookers gathered at both the head and foot of the stairs, but the couple locked in each other' arms, were entirely oblivious of the many pairs of smiling eyes that stared at them.

The little girl, who runs the lunch counter at the foot of the steps, guessed they must be sweethearts. It looked like a safe bet.

When the couple finally had to give each other up, he retraced his steps down the stairs and she went up, still unconscious of the people watching them.

YOUNG WIFE CLAIMS ABUSE

Mrs. Dibiaso Says Husband Has Treated Her Shamefully.

After one year of wedded life, which she alleges was far from a blissful period in her life, Mary Dibiaso of this city has started divorce proceedings against Frank Dibiaso. Mrs. Diabiaso is 17 years old and her husband is alleged to be 21 years old.

In her complaint, filed this morning in the district court by Ross & McKnight, Mrs. Dibiaso claims that they were married in Duluth Jan. 23, 1907, and that from the wedding day her husband began a systematic course of cruel and inhuman treatment toward her in which numerous acts of violence to her person are special features.

It is alleged by the wife that in March, 1907, when she was in a delicate condition, Dibiaso struck her in the face and kicked her in the stomach, the alleged assault resulting in her serious illness. It is further claimed that on various dates Dibiaso threatened to kill his wife and struck her severe blows in the face.

Dibiaso is said to be capable of earning $2.25 per day, but his wife alleges that he has not supported her. She asks that the court order Dibiaso to pay her attorney's fees and temporary alimony pending the trial of the action.

CONDUCTORS WILL FIGHT

Are Opposed to the Order Demanding Bonds From Them.

The conductors of the Northern Pacific do not intend to submit tamely to the recent mandate of that road ordering all conductors to secure a bond guaranteeing their honesty. A fight will be made on the order.

Word is out already that plans are under way whereby the conductors will adopt some measures to circumvent the carrying out of the order. Some look upon the order as one that promised a heavy rebate to the road. There are over 300 passenger conductors on the Northern Pacific system, while the number of freight conductors will far outnumber the passenger ticket handlers. When it is considered that the bond calls for $10 from each of the passenger conductors and $5 from each of the men in charge of the freight trains, it can be readily seen what a large yearly income would be received by the company doing the bonding.

The men coonsider the recent order in the light of a slap at them. They intend to fight the enforcement of the mandate. They don't object so much to the payment of the money as they do to the principal involved in the ruling. The sum of $10 a year would not be a heavy penalty, they admit, but the principle involved in the placing of bonds on a man's character is the thing to which the conductors are strenuously objecting.

It is not stated what measures will be adopted by the conductors to combat the enforcing of the ruling, but it is clearly understood that the rule will not be enforced unless it be after a healthy fight.

YOUNG IS TO QUIT RACE FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP, KNOWING HE IS BEATEN

Expected to Write Fiery Letter, Explaining His Reasons.

The Nomination of Jacobson is Now Generally Conceded.

Means Domination of Bob Dunn Element in Party.

ATTORNEY GENERAL YOUNG, Who Is Expected to Withdraw From Race for Governor.

St. Paul, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Attorney General E. T. Young, realizing that the combination which has been working to defeat him at the state convention has already accomplished its purpose, will, it is stated, withdraw from the race for governor in a few days, and it is likely that he will accompany his withdrawal with a fiery letter, explaining the reasonsh for withdrawing, and, perhaps, bitterly denouncing the combination of persons and circumstances that has defeated him. The nomination of Jacobson is now conceded, and with it comes the domination of the Bob Dunn element in the party.

The race decision did not kill Young; his defeat was accomplished long before that, and Young understood it, although a favorable decision might have had the effect of rehabilitating his hopes and resurrecting his gubernatorial boom. But now he is up against it. He renounced his claims upon the office of attorney general, which he might have had for the asking, and George Simpson, his assistant in office, is slated for the nomination. Simpson was instrumental in pushing Young

THREE MEN ARE BADLY BURNED

Accident in Paper Mill at Marinette, Wis., Results Seriously.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 4.—An Evening Wisconsin special from Marinette, Wis., says:

In an accident in the digester room of the No. 2 paper mill of the Marinette & Menominee Paper company last night, three men were badly burned. Cornelius Borse will die and Frank Reinke and August S. Bohr are in a critical condition and may not recover.

The plate on the valve leading from the digester to the pipe which conveys the stock, blew off. There was a pressure of 110 pounds of steam on at the time and the steam and the stock, hurled with terrible force and struck the three men, who were working in the digester room. They were blown up against the brick wall. All three managed to crawl out of the room, but were terribly burned.

MORGAN VISITS POPE AND QUEEN

New York Financier and Daughter Receive Warm Welcome.

Rome, April 4.—J. Pierpont Morgan and his daughter, Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, were received in private audience today by Queen Helena, after which they visited the pope.

Her majesty was most gracious to her American visitors and accepted the presidency of a committee to give outside relief in maternity cases, in which Mr. Morgan is interested. She presented Mrs. Satterlee with a beautiful photograph of the royal children, asking her to take it to her own children.

The pope received Mr. Morgan and Mrs. Satterlee in his private library. His demeanor was very cordial. Mr. Morgan requested the pontiff to write on a piece of paper an expression of his good wishes for himself and his family, and the hope complied with the desire of his guests.

Subsequently Mr. Morgan and his daughter called upon Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, and Mgr. Bisleti, major domo of the Vatican, after which they visited the Borgia apartments.

FRENCH AUTOMOBILE WAY BEHIND SCHEDULE.

Bakersfield, Cal., April 4.—The French car in the New York to Paris automobile race arrived here at 10:20 last night. The car will lie here until 8 a. m. today. The trip to Seattle will be made by boat, thence by water to Vladivostok. The run to Paris will then be made. Next winter the car will be shipped from Paris to Seattle, thence to Alaska, ending the race finally at Vladivostok next year. The car should have been in Seattle when Chicago was reached, and is therefore considerably behind its original schedule.

CARRIED TO OPEN LAKE

Peshtigo Fishermen Have Terrible Experience on Loose Ice.

Four Exposed to the Wintry Blasts for 36 Hours.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 4.—A Daily News special from Marinette, Wis., says: Four Peshtigo harbor fishermen, Hans Opsahl, William Johnson, N. Nelson and Charles Lubas had a terrible experience while lifting nets on the ice, south of Peshtigo Point, Thursday afternoon, having been carried out on loose ice in the open lake, where they were exposed thirty-six hours. The field of ice began to separate into small pieces and started to blow out in the lake. The current was so swift that the four men were being carried out rapidly, and with apparently no chance of getting back, the ice breaking into small pieces, increasing the danger for them. Fortunately they had with them some ice cutters, and these they used to detach small portions of the ice field. Each man in this way managed to cut off enough of the ice to float with and succeeded in successfully crossing the open spaces and finally in reaching the shore last night.

The men had nothing to eat, and in facing the wintry blasts, they were almost exhausted when they reached shore. In the meantime their friends on shore had become greatly alramed about them, and had procured gasoline launches and set out in search of them. The boats were unable to make any progress, however, and the attempt had to be given up. The men began working to get ashore early Friday morning, to cross the small space between them and the shore, and finally succeeded, after nearly thirty-six hours.

TO OPERATE AN ELEVATOR

in Federal Building is Now Ambition of Sherman Smith.

St. Paul, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is stated on good authority that Sherman Smith, former member of the lower house of the Minnesota legislature from a Minneapolis district, and last winter secretary to Lawrence H. Johnson, speaker of the house, and at present under sentence of federal court for tampering with United States jurymen, is willing to be satisfied with operating the elevator in the Minneapolis federal building. This position was made vacant by the death of George Seaton.

The former political leader is at present out of jail on a legal stay granted by Judge Page Morris of Duluth, in whose court the alleged offence of undue familiarity with the jurymen took place, while the trial of certain grain men was on in St. Paul several weeks ago.

It is understood that his friends have applied to Congressman Frank M. Nye to use his influence in landing the job for Sherman. It is also stated that other leading politicians will be asked to do what they can, which will not be much, as the position sought comes under the civil service rules and must be obtained by examination.

GREAT NORTHERN DIVIDEND.

New York, April 4.—Directors of the Great Northern Railway company today declared a quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on its stock. This is unchanged from the last previous quarterly dividend.

WOMAN TAKES DEADLY PILLS; CHICKENS DIE

Crookston, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Albert Rice, whose attempt at suicide by cutting her throat in a barber shop at McIntosh, where her husband was working, caused a sensation two weeks ago, and who previously was unsuccessful in an attempt to hang herself on Friday, made another attempt, swallowing about a dozen carbolic pills. The overdose made her sick, and, rushing to the back yard, she vomited the poison and soon fully recovered. A ludicrous outcome was that chickens owned by her parents ate the pills and seven of them died in a few minutes. The husband of the desperate woman left for parts unknown after the razor episode.

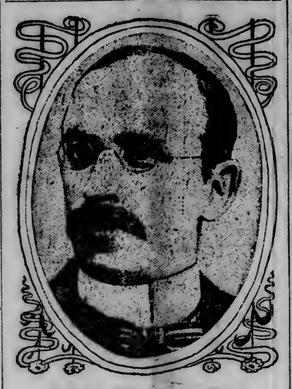

PLAN ILL ADVISED

Attempt to Make Reprisals on Venezuela Would Fail.

New York, April 4.—The plan to make reprisals upon Venezuela for her failure to come to terms with the United States on the question of pending American claims by laying an embargo upon Venezuelan products, forbidding their importation into this country, is declared by the New York merchants engaged in the Venezuelan trade and familiar with its conditions to be futile. Alfred Debuys, an official of a prominent firm which has an important trade with Venezuela, speaking of the plan to place an embargo on Venezuelan asphalt and enact a practically prohibitive duty on coffee from that country, said:

"Should the attempt be made to enforce a policy so ill advised, Castro would simply laugh at us. To enforce such an embargo would entail endless difficulties and even though we should compel all Venezuelan products to be plainly stencilled 'From Venezuela' that country would easily find a market for her goods elsewhere. Should the attempt be made, as is reported, to check the exportation of American products to Venezuela as well as the importation of products from that country, the islands of Curacao and Trinidad, lying close to the Venezuelan coast, would afford such tempting facilities for the evasion of the embargo by American shippers that we should be likely soon to find ourselves embroiled on the one hand with Great Britain, which owns Trinidad, and on the other hand, with Holland, as Curacao is a Dutch possession."

MEN OF ALL INTERESTS URGE AMENDMENTS TO THE ANTI-TRUST LAW

ALEXANDER BERKMAN, Anarchist Leader, Who Was Taken in Custody at the Time of the Bomb Throwing in New York, Has Been Released, as the Police Could Find no Charge on Which to Hold Him.

Merchants, Labor Leaders and Others Appear Before Committee.

President Low of National Civic Federation Makes Address.

Combines Should be Permitted, But Under Proper Supervision.

Washington, April 4.—In the interest of amendments to the Sherman anti-trust law, a large delegation of representatives of manufacturing, commercial, railway, labor and agricultural interests, all identified with the National Civic Federation, appeared today, before the house committe on judiciary. The delegation included Former Mayor Seth Low, E. H. Gary, Albert Shaw, Isaac N. Seligman, Victor Morawetz, Charles A. Moore, William J. Schifflin, John S. Huyler, V. E. Macy, William C. WILL BREAK WITH UNIONS Canadian Pacific Railway Abrogates Agreement of Last September.

Winnipeg, Man., April 4.—The Canadian Pacific railway has decided to break with unions, which have a membership of the metal trades employed in the Canadian Pacific railway shops. The company has abrogated the agreement entered into last September, giving a month's notice to the unions from the Great Lakes to the Pacific coast. While the company asserts no reduction in wages or increase in hours will follow, the unions have called a meeting from all over the system and will appeal to the board of conciliation of the labor department at Ottawa to negotiate. Thousands of men are affected and the delegates already here declare that a strike is probable. The former agreement granted a nine-hour day and a three and a half cents an hour wage increase.

SHORTAGE OF WARNER AS OIL INSPECTOR REPORTED BY THE PUBLIC EXAMINER

EDWARD EVERETT HALE, Chaplain of the United States Senate, Who Celebrated His Eighty-Sixth Birthday on Friday, and Is in Excellent Health.

For His Two Years Amounts to Total of $12,010.

Report is Given to Attorney General to Take Action.

Warner's Bond of $5,000 Held to be Still Good.

St. Paul, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The report of Public Examiner Schaefer, filed this morning with Governor Johnson, shows that there is a shortage of $12,010 in the accounts of Fenton G. Warner, state oil inspector during the administration of Governor Van Sant, from February, 1903, to February, 1905. In the Minneapolis district alone, which includes St. Paul and Minneapolis, the shortage is reported to be $5,826. Mr. McDermott told the examiner that the reports and records of the Warner administration had been destroyed before the former assumed office, but the examiner obtained sufficient data from officials and the oil companies to trace the shortage.

The report of the examiner has been turned over to the attorney general's office, to take whatever action is deemed necessary to recover the money due to the state.

George W. Peterson, assistant attorney general, has given an opinion that the $5,000 bond, which Warner gave during his administration as state oil inspector, holds good and that this amount can be recovered from the National Surety company, which furnished the bond.

CAMBRIDGE WINS RACE

Defeats Oxford for the Third Year in Succession.

Led From Start and Finished 2 1-2 Lengths Ahead.

Putney, Eng., April 4.—For the third year in succession Cambridge today won the 'varsity boat race, defeating Oxford by the handsome margin of about two and a half lengths. The light blues, the Chambridge crew, fully juestified the confidence reposed in them by the riverside experts and forged to the front from the crack of the pistol and led from start to finish.

The result was never in doubt. In spite of the advantage of the dark blues, the Oxford men, in winning the toss, which enabled them to choose the Surrey side of the river and thus escape much of the heavy water at the start, the extra stamina of the Cambridge men quickly sent the nose of their boat ahead and enabled them to assume a lead which they held comfortably to the end.

GUESTS FLEE IN NIGHT CLOTHES

Make Hurried Exit From Burning Hotel at Meadsville, Pa.

Meadville, Pa., April 4.—Over 100 guests at the LaFayette hotel were compelled to make a hurried exit in their night clothes early today when fire destroyed the hotel square causing a loss estimated at $100,000. For a time the fire threatened to spread and the fire departments of Erie and Franklin, La., were held in readiness to assist the local department. About 3 o'clock this morning one of the bell boys while on his way to summon one of the guests, discovered that one of the hotel passages was quickly filling with smoke. An alarm was sounded immediately, but the fire burned so rapidly that guests left their belongings in the hotel and fled to the street. Practically everything was lost.

The cause of the fire has not yet been ascertained.

CAMPBELL GETS SEVEN YEARS FOR PERJURY.

Livingston, Mont., April 4.—Charles W. Campbell, found guilty of perjury, here, was sentenced today to seven years in the penitentiary. Campbell was a witness in the Barney Hanlon murder trial, and testified for the defense. He said he was an eye-witness to the shooting of Lanon by Hanlon, and contended that Lanon was armed with a gun, which he attempted to use when shot by Hanlon. It was shown that during the quarrel, in which Lanon was killed, Campbell was asleep and knew nothing of it. This is the first conviction in Montana on a perjury charge.

NO POSTMARK FOR CARDS.

Washington, April 4.—As a result of numerous complaints of postcards being defaced by the postmarking, the postmaster general has ordered discontinuance of the postmarking of cards at the office of address. The postal card fad has reached enormous proportions and the new ruling is expected by postal officials to be received with delight by the thosuands of collectors.

THOUSANDS OF DEAD LETTERS

Returned to Writers—All Records of the Division Broken.

Washington, April 4.—Out of 1,063,692 pieces of mail matter received in the dead letter office during the month of March, over 660,000 were returned to the senders, breaking all records for this division. Fourth Assistant Postmaster General De Graw today said that the great increase in mail handled is largely due to the proficiency and accuracy of the postal experts employed in the dead letter division.

These experts are selected from the city postoffices and the railway mail service. The average number of letters returned by each clerk in the division daily during March was 409, while for February the average was 368. Some of the clerks maintained a daily average of 800 letters during March and one clerk deciphered the names and addresses of 916 letters and returned them to the writers, in the course of one day's work.

MONARCHISTS ARE CONFIDENT

That They Will Secure a Majority in Portugal's Election.

Lisbon, April 4.—The Monarchists are confident that the influence of the government machinery on the governors and prefects throughout the country will insure a strong Monarchist majority in the chamber of deputies in the elections that take place in Portugal tomorrow. They have determined to limit the Republican deputies to twelve. There are 146 deputies to be chosen.

The efforts of the secret police in investigating the tragedy of Feb. 1, when King Carlos and the crown prince were shot down, have failed up to the present time to establish the complicity of outsiders, but they have developed apparently conclusive evidence that the death of Former Premier Franco was decreed by a secret Republican society, in spite of the protests of the Republican leaders. The editors of the newspapers who insist that the accomplices of Bussia, who killed the king, be brought to justice, are receiving letter threatening them with death.

King Manuel has left the Necessidades palace only once since the assassination of his father and brother; this was when he drove in a closed carriage to the Ajuda palace to visit his grandmother, Queen Maria Pia.

T. E. WATSON WILL MAKE NO STATEMENT.

Atlanta, Ga., April 4.—In response to a request for a statement as to whether or not he would accept the Populist nomination for president, Thomas E. Watson sent the following message to the Associated Press today from Macon, en route to his home at Thomson, Ga.:

"In advance of official notification, it would be best for me not to talk for publication.

DEFECTIVE PAGE

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper.

Women are as subject to kidney trouble as men, which fact is often overlooked.

Many woman's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they will cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and maybe despondent; it makes any one so.

But thousands of irritable, nervous tired and broken-down women have restored their health and strength by the use of Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

Swamp-Root brings new life and activity to the kidneys, the cause of such troubles.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, may address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and receive sample bottle free by mail.

ARGUE FOR INJUNCTION

Carbolite Case Submitted to Court at Special Term.

Hartensteins' Reply to the Director's Answer is Presented.

The injunction proceedings instituted by H. L. Hartenstein, president of the American Carbolite company, against the directors of the company, to prevent an assignment of the concern to William W. McMillan of this city, in the interest of the creditors, are being fought out before Judge Cant at the special term of the district court today.

Mr. Hartenstein, though not present in person, is represented by R. R. Briggs of this city and E. R. Thurman, of the law firm of Waterman, Thurman & Ross of Chicago, Ill.

The hearing was not completed by this noon and the court adjourned until 2 o'clock, when it was expected that the directors would have ready a counter affidavit by Charles A. Duncan to meet certain affidavits introduced by the plaintiff this morning.

Besides a large number of affidavits in which claims were made that the plant was badly managed during the absence of Mr. Hartenstein and that the representatives of the carbolite trust were taken through the plant and given complete information concerning the same. Hartenstein's reply to the answer of the directors was read by Mr. Thurman. The reply was a voluminous affair and went into many details of the alleged history of the American Carbolite company and its operations, and in which a considerable amount of the private correspondence of some of the directors to outside parties concerning the plant was reproduced. In a general way, Hartenstein reiterates the charges made in his complaint that the directors are attempting to freeze him out; that the company is not insolvent; that the demoralization of the plant is due to the discharging of skilled employes that he brought here from Michigan, and that when he was in charge of the plant himself it was making good.

During the argument this morning it developed that the Constantine Hydraulic company has started a suit for $36,000 damages against the American Carbolite company, but the directors here did not have any definite knowledge of the matter until Mr. Thurman produced in court a letter from Hartenstein, under date of March 27, stating the facts. The directors claim that they have been to much trouble and expense in telegraphing all over the country to find out about the rumored suit and that it was only through the byplay in court this morning that they were able to get any information from the representatives of the president, Mr. Hartenstein, about the matter of which they should have been advised some days ago.

The directors claim the company is insolvent, that it is bankrupt by reason of the mismanagement of Hartenstein, and they ask for an assignee.

Our American Pride.

Every true American must thrill with pride as he reads of the splendid showing made by our navy when sixteen of its best vessels started on their long cruise recently. Those ships are products of American skill and manned by American sailors and gunners. Every true American should also take great pride in pointing to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as the leading remedy for curing ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is the product of American skill, and for 54 yaers has been proving its ability to cure and prevent poor appetite, dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, kidney ills, costiveness, colds, grippe and malaria. It is also an excellent Spring medicine and blood purifier, and is able to strengthen and build up the entire system. We urge you to try a bottle without delay.

DIAMOND CRISIS ACUTE.

Antwerp, April 4.—The crisis in the diamond industry, which is due largely to the cessation of the American demand for the stones, is acute. The decision of the Diamond Workers' union to cease work for the month of April will make it practically impossible for merchants to unload their stocks and meet their liabilities, and as a result failures are anticipated.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

List of Changes Needed to Make City Schools Safe.

Results of Recent Investigation Submitted to the Board.

The school board's committee of investigation, comprising Directors Barnes and Stevens and Supt. Denfeld, made its report last evening to the board of education.

The committee has not visited all of the schools yet, but reported on its findings in those it had seen.

After the board had heard the report, the committee on buildings and grounds was instructed to carry out such minor repairs and changes as were suggested by the investigating committee, and to wait until school is dismissed for the summer before tackling the big jobs.

If many of the changes suggested by the investigators were accomplished at this time, it would mean the closing of a number of schools for several weeks, and the board does not deem it wise to do that now. The committee was also instructed to make no great expenditures without consulting the board.

Director Stevens told his fellow members that he was loath to see any niggardly policy adopted in making needed improvements in the schools and the rest of the board concurred with him. He said the Fairmont school in West Duluth should be replaced by a new building as soon as possible.

Following is the report of the committee, comprising Directors Barnes and Stevens and Supt. Denfeld, in part:

"The general conditions appear satisfactory.

"The fire drills observed in all buildings show careful training of pupils. Considerable speed was observed in passing out of the buildings. In the opinion of the committee, more time should be taken in clearing the building to minimize the danger of falling, and so to avoid a panic resulting from the obstruction of those who have fallen. If a building is cleared of pupils in a minute and a half, it is soon enough.

"In buildings where boilers have been placed under the school room, it would be well to consider their removal when contemplated changes are made in the heating plants.

"We recommend that, as speedily as possible, wooden structures now in use as school buildings, give place to brick.

"Beginning with the buildings, in the order visited, the following facts are set forth for the consideration of the board:

"Lester Park—Additional steps and platform at west entrance. Additional hose and rack in building.

"Lakeside—Electric gong and additional gong in basement. Swing window out, hanging the same at the side in manual training room in basement.

"Endion—Your committee finds iron stairway in building, except from the first floor to basement, which is of wood. We recommend change to iron. Recommend that wooden cloak rooms be removed and replaced by steel lockers, and all wooden partitions in basement be removed and replaced by brick. Also recommend that two rooms, now occupied in basement, be equipped with steps at one window in each room, swung on hinges for exit. Basement doors swing in; should change to swing out. New chain needed for gong. Recommend removal of heating plant to outside boiler house.

"Franklin—Gong needed in basement.

"Nettleton—No recommendations.

"Washington—Make rear exit. Steps to one window in kindergarten room in basement; also hinges on one window to swing outward for exit. Interior construction of wood. Change in stairway should be considered.

"Webster—Protect joists in basement from boiler. Brick partition for coal room in basement. Additional exit might be provided in rear of building.

"Whittier—Wood building. Recommend concrete steps at westerly entrance.

"Hadleson—Two-room wooden building, one story.

"Jackson—Replace lower section on fire escape. Replace gong, making proper connection. In rooms in basement, used as workshop, ceilings should be protected with asbestos board. Opening in partitions should be provided with doors and windows. Put in hose rack and hose in standpipe in basement. All old seats and inflammable material should be removed.

"Emerson—Wooden stairway from first floor to basement should be replaced by iron. Wooden cloakrooms replaced by iron lockers.

"Adams — Recommend removal of boilers from under main building to outside. Additional gong for basement, both gongs to be arranged so as to ring from each floor. Interior partitions in old part of wood.

"Lincoln—Exit from basement should be arranged, if possible, from basement corridor. Provide swinging window in each room in basement with steps. Door in basement in northeast corner changed to open out. (We are informed this change has been made.) Put in three-inch water service from Twenty-fifth avenue west, abandoning present three-fourths-inch service from Fourth street, because present supply is inadequate; also standpipe and hose throughout building. Recommend electric system of fire alarm, with push buttons on each floor, office and engine room. Replace wooden stairways with iron, wide as possible.

"Monroe—Rear entrance should be provided. Additional gong for basement.

"Bryant—No recommendations.

"Oneota — Remove unnecessary inflammable material now in basement. Asbestos board on ceiling over boiler.

"Ely—No recommendations.

"Longfellow—No recommendations.

"Irving—Gong in basement. Hose and hose racks for basement. Change door from manual training room to swing outward. Put in steps in each room in basement for window exit, one window in each room to swing outward.

"Fairmount—Wooden building, ten rooms, two stories. Platform at east entrance widen about three feet. Old style defective wiring should be changed. Recommend removal of wooden partitions and wooden ducts in basement, to be replaced by brick and iron.

"Fond du Lac—New sheet irons under stoves, larger than at present. Replace handrail for stairs.

"Stowe (New Duluth)—Settling badly in center.

"Smithville—Rear door should open outward.

"Madison—Change inside vestibule doors to one pair, instead of two.

"Washburn—The board should protect entrances of building from snow and ice gathering in the valleys of the roof.

"In a general way, the committee suggests that all interior wooden stairways in buildings be replaced by iron stairways; that all outside doors be kept unlocked during sessions of the schools; that bolts now in use in outside doors be replaced by Cromorne exit bolts; that all outside doors be supplied with appliances for holding them open while children pass out; that in all wooden buildings, fire axes be provided at the entrances.

"In all brick buildings having wood-on partitions for bearing walls, the same should be removed and replaced with brick or some other fire-proof construction.

"Your committee has looked over the Central high school superficially, but would ask for further time to report fully on this building, and other school buildings not visited.

"All alterations and new construction your committee would recommend as near fire-proof as possible, with wide halls and exists and basement exits."

TWO TRAINS TO CHICAGO

Omaha Road Will Inaugurate New Service April 19.

Time of Departures From Duluth Only Two Hours Apart.

Two trains daily each way between Chicago and Duluth, long dreamed of, will soon be a reality. It is officially announced by the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha road that on April 19 a second train will be put in service between the two points. There will also be some changes in the running time of the train now in operation.

The present train will be the fastest of the two. The other will do more of a local business. The new train will leave Chicago at 6 p. m. and will arrive in Duluth at 7:45 a. m. The train now leaving Chicago for Duluth at 10 p. m. will leave at 10:45 p. m., after the inauguration of the new service, and will arrive in Duluth at 12:45 p. m., instead of 11:30 a. m., as at present.

On the return trip, the new train will leave Duluth at 3:15 or 3:30 p. m., it has not definitely been decided which, and will stop at all the stations between here and Spooner. It will arrive at 7 p. m. in Chicago. The fast train will leave here at either 5:15 or 5:30 p. m., and will arrive in Chicago at 7:30 o'clock the following morning, making the running time practically the same as now. There will be only half an hour's difference in the arriving time at Chicago of the two trains.

Both trains will be equipped with sleepers, dining cars part of the way, chair cars, day coaches, etc. The present train will remain the same as now, so far as equipment is concerned. The new train will be equipped with a sleeper for Chicago and a sleeper for Milwaukee.

The time of the Twilight Limited between Duluth and the Twin Cities also is to be changed. The hour of departure has not been decided upon for a certainty, but probably the train will leave Duluth at 2:15 p. m., arriving at St. Paul at 7:15 p. m.

Duluthians have been wanting a second train over the Omaha between here and Chicago for a long time. There was no criticism to offer on the old train, but it made it rather inconvenient to have but one train a day. While the two passengers will not be run very far apart, the leaving time it such as it is believed will best suit the needs of the traveling public.

CUT EXPENSES.

Railroads in Eastern Canada Inaugurate Policy of Retrenchment.

St. John, N. B., April 4.—The railroads operating in Eastern Canada have inaugurated a policy of retrenchment because of the extensive decrease in traffic over their lines. The construction of new cars has been stopped entirely by most of the roads, and many cars in need of repairs are laid up at the shops.

The Canadian Pacific railway officials say that 300 men have been laid off at the shops in Angus, Quebec, and a further cut down is possible. The workshops of the Grand Trunk railroad at Point St. Charles are working on reduced time.

OPPOSE ENFORCEMENT.

Railroads of Illinois Will Fight Low Rate Laws.

Chicago, April 4.—Executive and traffic officials of railroads operating in Illinois, at a meeting here, yesterday, decided to oppose enforcement of the 2-cent passenger and minimum freight laws recently passed by the state legislature. The conference resulted in a unanimous agreement that recent decisions of the United States supreme court have given ample basis for legal action, and President B. L. Winchell of the Rock Island system, who presided at the meeting, was empowered to appoint a committee to direct the contest.

PROMOTERS FALL OUT

A. M. Chisholm Sues Martin Pattison for $162,000 Damages.

Unlawful Conversion of Denn-Arizona Stock is Charged.

A dispute between the promoters of the Denn-Arizona Mining company, which has been brewing for some time, came to light in the district court this morning, when Martin Pattison, who has been sued for $162,000 by Archibald M. Chisholm of this city, argued on a demurrer to the complaint, on the ground that it does not state a cause of action. The arguments for the demurrer were made by Baldwin, Baldwin & Dancer, while Francis Sullivan and Hans Haroldson appeared for Mr. Chisholm. The court took the matter under advisement and teh attorneys will file their briefs.

Mr. Chisholm claims that Mr. Pattison, through false representations, has acquired 2,000 shares of Denn-Arizona stock, which, the plaintiff alleges, should have been delivered to himself. It is claimed that Mr. Pattison has converted the stock to his own use and benefit.

In his complaint Mr. Chisholm states that he, Pattison and three other men associated themselves in a company for the promoting and developing of the Denn-Arizona copper property; that they agreed to divide 60,000 shares of stock equally among themselves and put 15,000 shares on the market for the public to purchase.

Mr. Chisholm alleges that prior to the incorporation of the company and completion of the contract, the request of Martin Pattison, the latter's son, Byron M. Pattison, was admitted to the inner circle of promoters, and the agreement was amended so that Byron Pattison should share equally with the rest in the division of the 60,000 shares. This, it is claimed, resulted in the cutting down of each man's allotment from 12,000 to 10,000 shares. It is alleged that 18,000 additional shares of stock were afterwards issued to the promoters.

Mr. Chisholm claims that Mr. Pattison worked his son, Byron, into the deal simply as a catspaw, that the stock acquired by Byron Pattison is really the property of Martin Pattison, who by the alleged deal is said to have gained control of two-sixths of the capital stock issued to the promoters, whereas the other four men have but one-sixth each.

Mr. Chisholm claims that the alleged fraud lies in the method by which Martin Pattison is said to have acquired the additional one-sixth interest.

The suit brought by Mr. Chisholm involves only the damages for the alleged loss of the 2,000 shares which he claims he would have had on the first allotment.

Mr. Pattison, in his demurrer to the complaint, claims that Mr. Chisholm never possessed the 2,000 shares of stock, hence there can be no ground for an alleged conversion of the same by the defendant.

In case the demurrer is overruled and the case comes to a trial on the issues, it is expected that there will be some interesting testimony in connection with the alleged manipulations to gain control of the Denn-Arizona stock.

Mr. Chisholm claims that the time the alleged conversion was made the stock was worth $86 per share.

FORECAST OF COUNCIL

Confirmation of Appointments Will be Postponed or Passed.

Two Ordinances Will Probably be Defeated Monday Night.

In view of the fact that George J. Bloedel, who was declared by Judge Cant in district court to be elected alderman from the Second ward, cannot take his seat until the appeal of James L. Cromwell is decided, it is believed Mayor Haven's appointments of E. K. Coe, city engineer, and Dr. F. J. Patton, health commissioner, are due for another setback at the council meeting Monday night, if not a positive turndown.

As far as can be seen on the surface, the Democrats are playing politics alone in their action on the appointments. They believe that Cromwell is not entitled to the seat and, by occupying it, he is preventing a Democratic majority in the council. They believe that, while their majority is prevented by a Republican, they are only asserting their rights in preventing a Republican executive from placing Republicans at the head of all city departments. There has been no loosening of party lines on the Democratic side during the four meeting the appointments have been before the council, and none is looked for Monday night.

It is said Alderman Foubister's ordinance, increasing the fee of employment offices from $100 to $500, will be thrown out, when it comes up for its second reading Monday night, as it is incompatible with the provisions of the state law. The ordinance is designed to drive out some of the disreputable agents, but if it should get through the council, it is said it would be declared invalid.

Alderman Moore's ordinance requiring salons to draw their curtains and screens during closing hours, will also come up for second reading and will probably cause a "wet" and "anti-lid" division of the council.

SUPERIOR NEWS

Build New Elevator.

At a meeting of the officers of the Grand Republic Elevator company yesterday afternoon it was decided to take the necessary steps to place the plans and specifications of the proposed new elevator for that company in the hands of the contractors as soon as possible. The site of the elevator is to be at Hughitt slip and the building, which will have a capacity of 200,000 bushels, will cost $75,000. It will probably be built of concrete.

Visitors Will Preach.

The question of dividing the district, which has been under discussion since the opening of the convention of the Red River valley district of the Norweglan-Danish Methodist ministers, was not decided yesterday afternoon at their meeting at the Billings Park church, and will probably not be decided fully at this convention.

Tomorrow morning and evening the out of town ministers attending the convention will fill several of the pulpits of Superior and Duluth.

Trains by June 1.

Trains will be running from Chicago to Superior on the new Wisconsin Central road by June 1, according to Chief Engineer C. N. Kalk of that road. He and City Engineer Banks spent a part of yesterday afternoon in consultation, as a result of which, contracts for grading on the company's right of way through the city will be awarded in a few days, and work on it and the company's station at John and Winter street will be started as soon as the frost leaves the ground.

The Wisconsin tracks are now laid as far as the city's limits.

Talks to Voters.

At meetings held in two localities in the Tenth ward, Itasca and Allouez, Frank Crumpton, Republican candidate for mayor, addressed the voters on the issues of the coming municipal election. Speeches in behalf of Mr. Crumpton were made by Alderman Hislop, Alderman Hall and Alderman Thorne. Tonight the Crumpton forces will hold a meeting at Billings Park.

SEEDING PROSPECTS GOOD.

Winnipeg, Man., April 4.—Reports of seeding prospects from all over Western Canada received here today indicate that the outlook is unusually bright. Spring work will start in ten days. Winter wheat in Alberta is well advanced and showing up green in several localities.

BUY STOCK WITH FULL PARTICIPATION IN THE ENTIRE HOLDINGS OF THE WHITESIDE COMPANY, OWNING 16 FULL MINING CLAIMS IN NEW MEXICO, ALIVE WITH "HIGH-GRADE ORE."

We have published, from time to time, statements of development work done on these properties, shafts sunk, cross made, etc., and the flattering assays made by well known experts. This various data has now become too voluminous for publication in newspapers, but is on file in our office for your examination, and the more you know about mining, the more enthusiastic you will become about these properties.

If not already an investor with the Whiteside Company, have you ever stopped to seriously consider what constitutes our claim to your attention? All men with good red blood in their veins like the spirit of the "miner's chance." With one mining claim in a good district we might have floated a company with a high capitalization and offered stock at a dollar a share. This would not have been an unusual proposition and provided the mine was a "bonanza" would pay wonderfully well to all concerned. Still the element of "chance" would be almost too great for us to hope for the support of conservative investors.

We firmly believe that our present undertaking should appeal to any man who has money to invest, as the returns are surer, and risk less, than in any other mining venture now being floated. In brief, we have 16 full mining claims, any one being considered A No. 1 You have 16 chances of making money as against one in the average company. We are just as interested as you could be in seeing these mines pan out, as our money is invested. In inviting your cooperation we are not trying to make money through "stock scheming," but on a low capitalization are offering stock at 25c per share, with full participation in the full 16 claims.

Mineral outcroppings on all our claims have been tested by experts and the reports are highly favorable—there is every indication of immense deposits of high-grade ore beneath the surface.

You are not buying a chance on these being mineralized claims—they ARE mineralized claims. Our work is simply to develop and we are passing beyond experimental stages and daily proving the fact that we have valuable ore.

We are experienced mining men and if you are a practical miner you know this price will simply cover the low cost of development work in New Mexico. Instead of floating about in the old romantic way with a little pick and letting your business at home go to pieces while you chased imaginary mines, you are simply casting in your lot with a syndicate that has linked together 16 different claims that are conceded to be gilt-edge prospects. Every day is proving the accuracy of our knowledge and is bringing success nearer and nearer.

In our determined effort to avoid sensationalism and show this proposition in its plain, true light, we hope we have not failed to impress you with the absolute necessity of buying stock NOW, if you hope to do so at 25c per share. Things are becoming electrical in our vicinity and very little more will cause this stock to go up in leaps and bounds. We court your investigation—we want you to come in and let us submit proofs—we want you to make an examination, but—

STUNG ONCE, BUT MAY TRY AGAIN

City May Give Street Flushing Machines Another Trial.

The board of public works will make another attempt to substitute street flushing machines for the present system of hand flushing with a hose. At yesterday's meeting it was decided to petition the council for the right to purchase, subject to the approval of the council, two street flushing machines and one machine sweeper. Several of the latter are already in use in the city, but the flushing machines are innovations.

The action of the board brings up the fact that there is a street flushing machine in storage in Duluth, worth $850, under control of the board, but useless to it. The board had the flushing machine sent to Duluth about two years ago, to be used on trial. It arrived too late in the fall and could not be used, so was placed in storage for use the following spring. During the winter it developed that the St. Louis Street Flushing Machine company, which owned the machine, was involved in a suit, with another concern, which claimed the St. Louis flusher was an infringement on a patent.

The city was enjoined from using the flusher, except on the payment of $6 a day royaly. The city has never paid for the flusher, so it is still the property of the St. Louis company. The company lost its suit, it is said, so the machine is useless.

The street flushing machine would be very useful to the board now that there are so many miles of pavement in the city. The hose flushing is slow, tedious and expensive. The machines do the work thoroughly, at a minimum expense, and the board will make strong representations to the council to allow the purchase.

NEW CITIZENS PASSED UPON.

This was "citizen-making" day in the district court, and Judge Ensign's room was crowded all the morning with applicants for second papers, with their witnesses. The proceedings were conducted by the court, and United States District Attorney John C. Sweet represented the government at the hearing.

Out of the applications made this morning, nine were admitted to full citizenship, and seven were denied. Most of the applications denied were held up on account of legal technicalities, but in the case of a few the court and the government were not satisfied with the class of testimony submitted as showing proof of residence.

At noon there still remained several applications to be passed on.

MEN'S DISEASES

Medical Specialists Cure Them and Other Maladies By Animal Extracts and Rays.

The many physical and mental wrecks of men which you see in office and shop, in store and street, their very looks betray that they are suffering of that awful condition of Weakness and Loss and Lack of Manhood.

If your testicle is longer on one side than on the other, and you feel the cords to be thick, varicocele and wormlike, and you have pain in the region of these, you may be sure that you are the man with this brain and body wrecking condition. No matter how little you may have had it, and how little you feel of the ill effects of this at present, in time it will have the same effect on you as it has on every one of its victims. This disease is a condition where the spermatic veins are over-filled with blood, and this being stagnant in the cord will fill up, increase the weight and drags continually the spermatic cord with all its sensory and sympathetic nerves, causing pain, distress and nervousness. But remember, the process goes further, the spermatic cord being the canal from the testicle and surrounded by thousands of fine nerve fibers, is slowly, but surely torn, and you have then a true "Loss of Manhood." Varicocele and associated diseases affects both mind and body, lowers the vital, sexual and general physical forces, causes mental depression and a long train of nervous diseases. Ninety out of 100 of these sufferers experience a loss of sexual vigor in later years, and with it comes nervous irritation, seminal losses, dyspepsia, dragging, heavy and painful sensation of the groin, pain in the back, melancholy and drowsy depression. Varicocele and weakness is the direct cause in thousands of cases of rupture, as the enlarged veins are extending up into the inguinal canal and go through the internal wall of the abdomen and causes the passage o fthe guts to pass through this hole and go down into the scrotum.

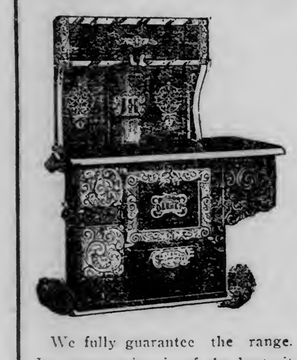

This disease is often associated by Hydrocele, enlarged, prostatic gland, spermatorrhoea, stricture, bladder and the whole train of associated diseases is brought on by that secret vice of habit, which destroys body and soul, even of the best and of the most hopeful of young men.

We found in former years that cutting and dissecting out these veins did not cure our patients. The deep-seated nerves that control the function and nutrition of the sexual organs were still causing the patients trouble and more pain than before. After our discovery of the poisons in stagnant circulation of varicocele we invented the "Direct Method of the Dissolving Process," and this method is as superior to the old-time cutting and blood letting and drugging, as the modern electric light is superior to the old-fashioned tallow candle.

We are Specialists in Men's Diseases only, and we are as successful in the cure of these diseases as we are in the cure of all and any man's ailment. Men, if you want a cure of your suffering, no matter what your trouble is and how long you had it, come to us and you will not look any longer for the restoration of your health. Consultation is free from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. No. 1 West Superior street.

French & Bassett
DULUTH, MINN.

We have an exceptionally fine line of Steel Ranges for this season. We have selected in addition to the famous Buck's line, three other makes that stand unequalled, when it comes to price, construction and durability. These give you a wide choice as to prices, style, finish and make. Don't think of buying your new range until you see what we have to offer.

This is an extra large, all steel range, with duplex grates that burn either wood or coal—has six No. 8 lids, pouch feed, large high closet, heavy linings and cast back flues. A range that is much larger and heavier than the ordinary cheaply priced ranges you find about town.

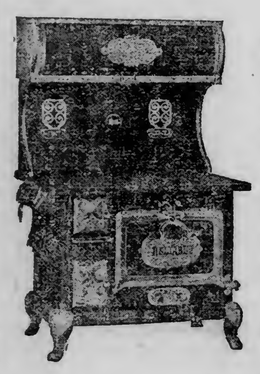

This range will give you good service—and we ask you to come in, look it over and compare it with other ranges that are being offered around town. Our price—

$23.75

We fully guarantee the range. Its construction is of the best—it has a great many points not found in other steel ranges. All steel body, fully nickeled, duplex grates, a large warming closet, extra well lined with heavy asbestos; a large steel oven, pouch feed, large flues, is a splendid baker and a fuel saver. It is built upon honor. You can't find its equal in any Duluth store for less than $30 or $32. All we say is, compare it. This range is extra special value at our price

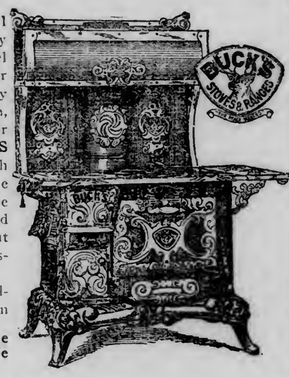

$24.50

The RELIABLE steel range is one we want you to see in comparison with any other range made. Very heavy, best blued steel body, rounded corners, a steel base that will never crack or break; steel and cast top, all ornaments fully nickeled; large, finely built warming closet; a quick baking, all-steel oven, every part of the range body air-tight, asbestos lined; extra heavy duplex grates, and a very deep fire box with solid cast linings. The RELIABLE steel range is sure to give the very best satisfaction, fully guaranteed, a fuel saver and a range that will surpass others selling at much higher prices. Our price

$46.50

There are more BUCK'S steel ranges in use in Duluth than any other make. The BUCK'S steel range will continue to be our leader—made entirely of the very finest steel and southern gray iron, every part perfectly put together and beautifully finished. BUCK'S ranges are not to be compared with any other makes, where they have several cheaper grades of the same name, that can be sold "cheap," and whose poor construction and light castings soon give out and are discarded.

If you want a range for durability, economy of fuel, high grade in every respect, get a BUCK'S.

Come in and see the finest line of steel ranges in Duluth. We have it.

Mrs. Banack Says She Had to Hide in Attic.

Children Smuggled Her Food While She Hid From Husband.

Claiming that she has been living in fear of her life; that for two months last year she was compelled to hide from her husband and sleep on a bed of rags and rubbish in the attic of her home, and eat portions of food smuggled to her by her children, in the absence of her husband, Mrs. Frank Banack has filed in the district court a divorce action against Frank Banack, a local railroad man.

This is the second time that Mrs. Banack has instituted divorce proceedings. The first case was started last November, but never came to a trial of the issues. Banack was at that time ordered to pay temporary alimony. He neglected to meet the payments and was brought into court for contempt. He told a hard luck story, and finally effected a settlement with his wife, and went back to live with her. Shortly afterward he left her again and Mrs. Banack sought to renew the order for alimony, but the court refused to consider the case any further. This resulted in a new action being started.

In her complaint in the last case, Mrs. Banack claims that Banack threatened to kill her, called her abusive names and accused her of being unfaithful. She says he attempted to stab her and came so near it that the knife was stuck in the door as it was closed behind her by the quick action of her son-in-law.

The Banacks were married in this city May 11, 1885, and have three children.

YOUNG IS TO QUIT RACE FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP, KNOWING HE IS BEATEN

into the race for governor, that he might run for attorney general. With this Simpson has been taken up by the Jacobson-Dunn crowd, and they are playing ball together.

Up Against a Stone Wall.

Young it bitter at the lack of support he has been receiving in his efforts to fight the corporations, and also to become governor. He is going to pull out of the race, because he realizes that he is up against a stone wall, a combination which no man could hope to go against. First, there is Jacobson, a man with a record in the legislature and on the board of control, which every man in the state has heard of. He is unquestionably honest, at least that has been his reputation up to this time. He has a reputation for starting fights for the people; he is known to have ability and an understanding of all the departments of the state. Nothing can be said against him except that he is not polished, and the people perhaps do not care greatly for that if they find no other fault. Then, added to Jacobson's personal popularity, was Dunn's support, and the support of that strong faction which does as Dunn says, and without which no man can succeed. Next, the "corporate interests" tied up with Jake. Here is Dar Reese, representing the liquor interests; Ed Smith of Minneapolis, representing the railroads; Tom Shevlin of Minneapolis, representing the lumber interests; Lee Willcuts and W. W. Rich, representing the federal machine, and scores of others, all openly supporting Jake. All of these have been fighting Jake in all previous history, but now, when they had to choose between Jake and Young, they chose Jake. Young had to fight his battles alone; to win the popular approval which Jacobson had was not the work of one season.

That Jake has sold out to the interests is preposterous; no one believes that. But they preferred him to Young and they offered him their support. Many conferences have been held between's Jacobson's friends and the representatives of the corporations; Jacobson's own friends admit this. But that is enough, for that means much more than they could expect to get If the Viking blood in Jacobson were aroused by their open opposition. Jake on the stump is a whirlwind when he has something to arouse him, but now, when he cannot attack the corporations for opposing him, his stump speeches may be decidedly tame.

Got Wise to the Game.

When Jake first came into the present campaign, many of those who had previously been opposing him began to line up for him and it looked to an outsider as if they were intending to make him overconfident and then kill off both him and Young. But then Jacobson got wise to the game, had a talk with Young and gave it out that he and Young were going to stick together or rather that either he or Young would be nominated. Of course Jacobson denied making a combination afterward, yet his statement had its effect. Those who had been hanging off waiting for a dark horse, rushed in and lined up with Jake, some of them because they preferred him to Young and some because they wanted to be on the band wagon. Some of them thought that since Jacobson's nomination was assured, they might as well be good and be on the right side and take what favor they might, as to fight a hopeless battle.

Not only have the bosses agreed on Jake's nomination but they have fixed up the whole slate. Eberhart is to have another term as lieutenant governor, Judge Mills is to be renominated for railroad commissioner and Charley Elmquist of Rush City is to succeed W. E. Young. Simpson will get the nomination for attorney general unless some hitch occurs. Julius Schmahl and C. C. Dinehart may be popular enough to get in without the assistance of the "leaders," but at any rate they are going in again. And Bob Dunn, because he first declared for Jacobson as a harmony candidate, is the accepted king-maker, the big man in the party. Dunn and Jake had a long conference here the other day. Elmquist and Joel Heatwole of Northfield and other politicans were in town the same day, but if any of them sat in at the conference is not known.

Bob Dunn's Reward.

Neither is it known what reward Dunn will ask for his services. He will hardly ask any direct reward just as present. If he can sit idly by and wait for a couple of years or four years, and then get the support of the Jacobson crowd in another attempt to make himself governor, he may be satisfied. And if he has something to say about the appointments to be made by the next governor, it will please him all the better.

An indication of the growth of the Jacobson sentiment is the recent statement of the Winona Republican Herald that the First district is developing Jacobson sentiment and that it will go for him unless Young gets busy. The Republican Herald was enthusiastic for Young when he first came out, and the First district was supposed to be for him solid, but since the Winona paper has got Young out of the field for attorney general and Simpson, who hails from Winona, is assured of the nomination, this paper does not continue its advocacy of Young's nomination.

Young has realized for some time what he was up against, but he has been busy with the rate case and other matters lately so he has not had time to think of politics. But now that he is getting a little time to think, it is said that he is preparing a letter to the public with some hot shots in it.

Congressional Aspirants.

Two congressional aspirants have appeared this week, C. B. Miller of Duluth and Paul Ewert of Pipestone. Ewert is at present assistant United States district attorney at St. Paul, but he is going home to fight McCleary this fall. He has announced a platform of immediate revision downward, the abolition of the tariff on wood pulp and print paper, on lumber, soft coal and some other products. He favors excluding stock gamblers from the mails and the regulation of the loans of banks under government supervision. He advocates several other of the "Roosevelt policies." A warm fight in the Second district is looked for, as McCleary is building up some strong fences and Gilbert Gutterson is getting ready for another fray.

Support For Johnson.

The Johnson people continue to be encouraged with the reports they are receiving from different parts of the country, and there is not a day that does not bring strong and unexpected offers of support. The fight in this state remains about at a standstill. The Johnson people have far and away the best of it, just as they have been having for some time. While the Bryan men are making big claims, there is little probability that any county, or at least very few, will elect Bryan delegations, and still less that any district will elect Bryan men.

St. Paul's Campaign.

The local campaign is hot warming up very much, at least on the Republican side. McKibbin, the Republican nominee, spent most of his ammunition in the primary campaign and the Hoffmann supporters, while not openly knocking McKibbin, are not enthusiastically supporting him. Dan Lawler, the Democratic nominee, has practically the undivided party behind him and enthusiasm runs high. There is nothing sure in politics, but everything poin[illegible] election.

T. E. WATSON NOMINATED

As Candidate for President by the Populists' Convention.

St. Louis, April 4.—For president of the United States, Thomas E. Watson of Georgia; for vice president, Samuel Williams of Indiana.

The above ticket was nominated yesterday by the People's party convention, after two stormy sessions throughout which the Nebraska and Minnesota delegations, working in the interest of William J. Bryan, strove desperately to bring about an adjournment of the convention until after nominations had been made by the Democratic and Republican parties. Hopelessly outnumbered, and without any chance whatever of gaining their object, the Nebraska men fought desperately to the last, and when Jay W. Forrest of East Albany, N. Y., mounted the platform to place Watson in nomination, they withdrew from the convention, attended by the Minnesota delegation, which consisted, however, of only one man, T. J. Weighan. If Bryan is nominated at Denver, the men who walked out of the convention will support him, and they declare that the Populists of Nebraska will do so to a man.

The money plank in the platform as agreed upon, follows:

"The issuing of money is a function of government, and should not be delegated to corporations or individuals. The Constitution gives to congress alone the power to issue money and regulate the value thereof. We, therefore, demand that all money shall be issued by the government direct to the people without the intervention of banks, and be a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and in quantities to supply the necessity of the country. We demand that postal savings banks be instituted for the savings of the people."

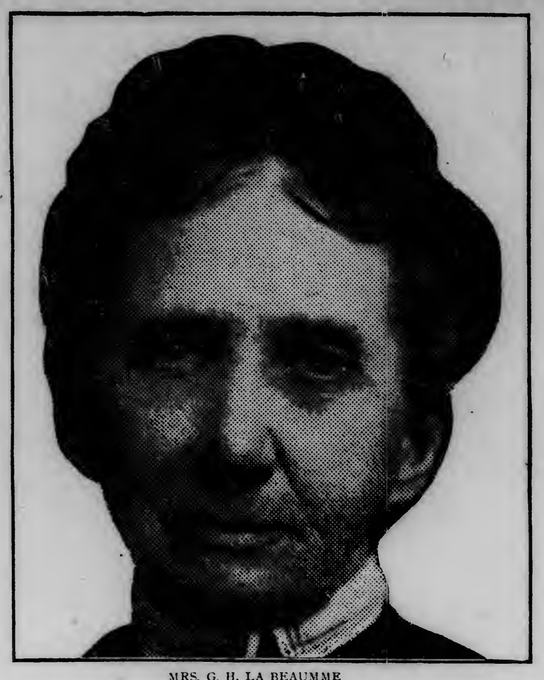

SUPERIOR MAN WEDS

Girl Whom He Saved From Drowning at Boyd, Wis.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A romance which began two years ago at Boyd was consummated here in the marriage of Ole A. Enger of Superior, and Miss Minnie Sass of Boyd. Enger met Miss Saas in an unusual manner, having the fortune to save the girl from drowning at Boyd, where he was supervising the construction of a bridge.

Miss Saas was boating on the river below the bridge, when the craft was overturned by being struck by a falling timber. Enger leaped into the river and rescued her. After the incident they were introduced and the courtship began.

FOURTEEN YEARS OF PAIN

MRS. G. H. LA BEAUMME

Mrs. G. H. La Beaumme, De Soto, Mo., praises the wonderful health - giving qualities of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

For fourteen wearisome winters grip and the "tired feeling" were her constant companions. Duffy's restored her to vigorous health.

In gratitude Mrs. La Beaumme writes:

"I have been a sufferer from Grip for 14 winters. When cold weather set in I would have those miserable aching pains, and a tired feeling, which never left me till warm weather. Just before Xmas last I had a terrible time with Grip and a cough, also a severe pain in my left side. I had often been advised to try your Malt Whiskey, but as I had often tried various remedies I was skeptical and concluded there was no relief. However, as I was made a Christmas present of two bottles of Duffy's I used it, and before I had finished using them I felt so much better that I used four more bottles, which stopped the aching pains, the cough, the pain in my side, and made me feel like a new person generally.

"I have recommended Duffy's to my friends, who are now using it. I shall always have some in the house, for it has certainly done wonders for me."—Mrs. G. H. La Beaumme.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pury Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as the great family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00. Write Dr. R. Curran, Consulting Physician, for a free illustrated booklet and free advice. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

SECURES DITCH CONTRACT.

St. Cloud Man Will Dig Big Trench Near Redwood.

St. Cloud, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—John J. Wahl has returned from Redwood, Minn., where he was the successful bidder on judicial ditch No 7., which will be dug in that vicinity this summer. The contract price is $19,000. There were four other bidders for the work, and the local company offered to do the work for $300 less than the nearest competitor.

The ditch will be about thirteen miles in length. The local people will ship their machinery to Redwood in the near future and will at once begin work on the big job. They expect to complete the ditch this summer.

This is the first contract secured by the company, which was only recently organized in this city.

NEW BRAINERD INDUSTRY.

Brainerd Lumber & Mercantile Company Has Been Incorporated.

Brainerd, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Announcement is made of the incorporation of the Brainerd Lumber & Mercantile company, with a capital stock of $100,000. The company, though incorporated under the laws of South Dakota, has its principal place of business in Brainerd. It will operate a general store and also take over the cedar business of George A. McKinley of this city, who is president of the corporation. A sawmill and lath and lumber mill will also be conducted by them in this city.

MEETING OF BOYS' CABINET

Arrangements Made for Field Meet and Baseball League.

The regular monthly meeting of the boys' department cabinet was last evening at the club rooms. The reports of the various committees showed that all the activities were going along in good shape. The boys' conference committee reported that $112 had been raised to send the three delegates to the boys' conference at New York.

The athletic committee reported that fifty-two gymnasium classes had been held during the month. The basket ball season will close with the game today. The committee has ordered the banners that will be awarded the sophomores in the high school series and the Jeffersons in the interscholastic series.

The final arrangements are being made for the annual banquet to be held Friday, April 10. Dr. M. S. Rice has been secured as toastmaster. E. W. Peck of Minneapolis will be present and respond to a toast. The balance of the speaches will be secured in a few days.

The Interscholastic Baseball league will be held again this year, the committee decided to give a silk banner to the champion school. The secretary will organize the league so that the games can begin in the middle of April. The field meet committee will also be organized this month.

Plans are being made for the summer camp at Deerwood to be held the first two weeks of August. The prospects for a big camp are bright, and the committee will leave nothing undone to make this year the most successful ever held.

The gypsy trip will receive special attention this year. It is a cheap trip, but affords a great variety of experiences.

STATION HELD ON CHARGE OF STEALING FROM BOX CAR.

Grafton, N. D., April 4.—W. N. Vergowa, station agent on the Soo, near Minot, was arrested by Sheriff Hankey and brought for trial before H. A. Ball, justice of the peace for Walsh county. The charge was grand larceny and alleged the theft of fourteen suits of clothes valued at $218.75, from a freight car that was sidetracked during the tieup of the road in 1907. Vergowa pleaded not guilty and was bound over to the district court on a cash bond of $500, which was promptly furnished by the defendant.

Spring Humors

It is important to you from every standpoint that you should thoroughly cleanse your blood of all those impure, poisonous and effete matters that have accumulated in it during the winter. Do this by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

You will feel better, look better, eat and sleep better, do your work more easily and satisfactorily, and be in good condition to resist prevalent diseases and to withstand the hot waves of summer which have such a depressing and prostrating effect on the weak, debilitated and run-down.

The secret of the unequaled success of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for Spring humors is the fact, proven annually by thousands of grateful people, that it thoroughly cleanses the blood, gives strength and tone to every organ and function and builds up the whole system.

MRS. J. F. GEE.

"I speak from experience of 25 years with Hood's Sarsaparilla in giving my recommendation. For spring humors and as a general blood purifier this medicine never fails. It always does all that is claimed for it, and more. I know it to be good for scrofula, salt rheum, and all similar troubles, and as a general spring medicine I can positively say it has no equal. It gives me genuine satisfaction to say these few words in favor of the medicine I have found so reliable in our family." MRS. J. F. GEE, 50 Gould street Stoneham, Mass.

Low Addresses Committee.

President Low addressed the committee as follows:

"The problem with which the bill, introduced by Col. Hepburn, and prepared under the auspices of the National Civic Federation, seeks to deal, is not an easy one, but it may be stated very plainly. As a result of a long series of decisions by the supreme court of the United States, it is at last made clear to everybody doing interstate commerce by the methods of combination which are characteristic of these times, that much of such business is done contrary to law. Common carriers, business corporations and business men, labor organizations and labor men, have all had it brought home to them, one after another, that under the terms of the Sherman anti-trust law a large part of the business done in the United States at the present time is being done contrary to law. Co-operative associations and other associations of farmers are subject to the same statute.

Effective Supervision Wanted.

Common carriers should be permitted to combine and to make traffic agreements in proper cases and under suitable governmental supervision; for combination and traffic agreements often mean more effective service of the public. What is wanted is effective public supervision and not an absolute prohibition of the very thing that may secure the best public service.

"This bill, affects only those who voluntarily place themselves under it. If it becomes a law, it is almost certain to lead to a large measure of publicity; and that, in the opinion of many, is likely to be the cure for most of the evils that have brought about too great legal restraint.

"There is much reason to believe that publicity will make the criticism of corporate undertakings more intelligent, and therefore, in the main, more friendly.

"The National Civic Federation fully understands that there may be honest differences of opinion as to the general scheme of the bill under discussion, but while the bill may not escape criticism, we believe it capable of vindication."

SAYS SHE IS HAPPY

until that time.

"The world has not treated me badly since I came away. I am happier as I am than I would be if I were back home, and I do not regret coming.

"Mr. Balcom was never my legal guardian. He was my spiritual adviser and rector, and nothing more in that capacity. Since I left Hempstead he has been able to support me adequately. While we have not lived in luxury, we have been comfortable, and Mr. Balcom has had no trouble in making a good living for the baby and me."

Mrs. Balcom, as she styles herself, says there is no truth in the stories that they had a hard time making a living. Balcom, she says, is an expert workman and makes $4.50 a day. She says that when her estate is settled she will have between $100,000 and $150,000.

ON THE IRON RANGES

DULUTH MAN IS TAPPING TREES

G. G. Hartley's Sugar Camp Where President Roosevelt Gets Supply.

Coleraine, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—G. G. Hartley of Duluth is spending his vacation at his noted sugar camp on the shore of Trout lake below Coleraine. He owns a great forest of hard maples. Last year he collected sap from over two thousand trees and it is reported that he will tap many more this season. President Roosevelt receives an annual supply of maple syrup from this camp.

Justice Trescott is trying an assault and battery case. The plaintiff is Ed Lee, who was badly cut with a kettle in the hands of Charles Wallace, the defendant. Wallace keeps a boarding camp and the trouble arose over the settlement of a board bill. Ed Lee was laid up in the hospital for about three weeks. Attorney Price of Grand Rapids and D. D. Greer of Coleraine are the attorneys in the case.

School will open next Monday after a week's vacation. Supt. Vandyke spent a part of his vacation in the Twin Cities attending a meeting of the city superintendents at the University. Many of the teachers are out of town. Several attended the Madame Sembrich concert in Duluth. Miss Cole, the principal of the high school, is at home in Minneapolis, for vacation.

Dr. E. C. Clemans of Duluth is conducting a series of meetings here this week. He has a host of friends here who greatly enjoy his sermons. He will speak in the high school building Sunday morning and evening, and at Taconite in the afternoon.

GRAND RAPIDS EVENTS.

Local Happenings in the Itasca County Seat.

Grand Rapids, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. T. Reid of Deer River was a visitor in the county seat recently. Mr. Reid says that he was going to be a candidate for county superintendent of schools at the coming election, and he feels that he has excellent chances of landing the prize.

John W. Alton and a party of landseekers left recently for the northern part of Koochiching county where they will look over and probably file on some land.

Louis Jorgenson is having the material hauled for a fine new residence which he will build this summer on his lots on Winnipeg avenue, between the Halvorson and the P. A. Smith homes.

Fred Christianson, formerly of Trout Lake, was here this week from Shotley Brook on Red Lake, at which place he and a man named George Seager have a sawmill.

The two-weeks-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hachey died Tuesday. The funeral was held Wednesday from St. Joesph's church.

Art Wilder, who has been conducting the Morrisey hotel at Deer River for the past several months, has returned with his family and has taken up his residence here again.

Dr. G. E. McIntosh's Unique Theater company will render the Passion play at the village hall on Sunday evening, April 12.

LOSERS CRYING FRAUD.

Minneapolis Debating Team Allege Virginians Were Not Fair.

Virginia, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charges of "unfairness" have been made against the Roosevelt high school debating team by the faculty of the Minneapolis high school, and Supt. Bliss of this city is now in Minneapolis to make answer to the charge. The charge of unfair methods is said to be based upon the fact that the Roosevelt team used a chart in its recent debate with the Minneapolis team and it is alleged that this chart was made by others than the members of the Roosevelt team. It is said that if the charge of unfairness is upheld that will necessitate another debate between the two teams.

The fact that the Minneapolis papers took the ground that the Roosevelt won the debate on merit would indicate that the charge of unfairness is rather farfetched.

CLARENCE MILLER SPEAKS.

Is Grand Orator at Dedication of Hibbing Masonic Temple.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—There was a notable gathering of Masons here last night to participate in the dedication of the new Masonic temple. The impressive dedicatory exercises were in the charge of Grand Master P. W. Roberts of Minneapolis, assisted by Senior Grand Warden Patton of Duluth. During the evening the local lodge exemplified work in the first degree. Following a sumptuous banquet Hon. Clarence B. Miller of Duluth, who had been delegated grand orator for the occasion, delivered an eloquent and stirring address.

WALTER MITCHELL BURIED.

Many Pay Tribute to Popular Young Hibbing Man.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Evidences of genuine grief over the untimely death of Walter Mitchell, son of Captain Leo Mitchell of the Pillsbury mine who was killed in the Glen mine Wednesday, were not lacking when the funeral of the popular young man was held today from the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaVictor, 325 Railroad street.

A long procession followed the body to Greenwood cemetery where interment was made. The sorrowing widow, a bride of only a few months, was nearly heartbroken and received the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

HIBBING'S MAYOR LOSES HIS FATHER AT PITTSBURG.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word has been received from Pittsburg, Pa., of the death there Wednesday of the father of Mayor E. B. Weirick of this village. Mayor Weirick, who left here Sunday, reached his father's bedside just before his parent died, which is a course of no little gratification to the mayor's friends as it was feared he would not arrive in time.

The elder Mr. Weirick had long been a sufferer from stomach cancer.

NEW CHEMICAL TESTED.

Addition to Hibbing Fire Fighting Appliance All Right.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Thomas O'Connor, fire chief, has satisfactorily tested the new chemical engine recently ordered by the council and the machine will probably be accepted by the council.

It is provided with two 45-gallon tanks through which the water is forced, thus mixing the water with the chemicals. One of the tanks may be recharged while the other is in use, thus enabling the engine to work steadily in case of a long continued fire. A third horse has been purchased by the village to be used on the chemical engine.

VIRGINIA MAN IS GOING TO YAKIMA

Smith Purchases Myer's Interest in Store—Other Events.

Virginia, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. E. Figott, the meat dealer, has disposed of his interests here to Macbeth & Gardner, and has also sold his shops in Bovey and Mountain Iron. After cleaning up some of his accounts he will remove to the Yakima valley in Washington, where he will engage in fruit farming.

At the annual meeting of the Virginia Store company, N. J. Smith, who has acted as manager for some time past, purchased the interest of F. B. Myers of Biwabik and was elected president, treasurer and general manager of the concern. C. H. Taylor of Duluth is the principal stockholder.

The funeral of Miss Maud Harper, daughter of Mrs. Joseph O'Leary, was held at the Catholic church Thursday afternoon. Deceased was nearly 18 years of age and died on March 30, after a short illness from pneumonia.

Prof. Theodore Reimstur, the famous Swedish tenor, will give a concert in the Swedish Lutheran church next Friday evening, the 10th inst.

Miss Maude Webster, who has been McGray for several months past, has returned to her home in Hibbing.

Ruth Agnes, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Peterson of Mariska, who died on the 30th ult., was buried here Thursday. The funeral services were conducted in the Swedish Lutheran church by Rev. P. O. Hanson.

Joseph W. Munch, champion speed roller skater of the Northwest, came up from Minneapolis Thursday night and warmed up a bit at the rink.

The first heat in a special contest between Fred LeMear of Eveleth and Joe Symonlak of this city will be held at the roller rink tonight. These two are the fastest of the local skaters, and a lively contest is looked for.

COMPANY F ROSTER.

Young Men Who Joined Eveleth Company of Militia.

Eveleth, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The young men who joined the state militia company here Thursday night, to be known as Company F, Third regiment, Minnesota National Guard, are as follows:

EVELETH COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETS MONDAY.

Eveleth, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—At next Monday night's meeting of the Business Men's association a number of the members will speak on different topics. Lunch and cigars will be served. President Hearding of the club will speak on the insurance of bank deposits. A discussion will follow.

The subject of commercial clubs will occupy part of the evening. Vice President Alex MacDonald will show what good a commercial club accomplishes and what benefits are derived from such an organization.

BUILD FINE CHURCH

Is Plan of Austrian Societies of Eveleth---Other Happenings.

Eveleth, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A plan is on foot among the Austrian societies of the town to erect a new $40,000 church on the site of the present Holy family Catholic church. These societies will try to raise all the money themselves.

The Eveleth hotel, which has been run by John A. Mitchell for some time past, has been sold to Martin Johnson of Virginia, who will conduct it.

Mine Inspector W. H. Harvey has accepted the superintendency of the Schinango mine at Chisholm and will in time make his home at Chisholm.

Supt. Richards of the Corrigan-McKinney company of Crystal Falls, who was for some time very prominent in mining circles around Eveleth through his work as mining captain at the Fayal, at the Auburn mine and at the Spruce mine under Supt. Kimberley, was in town Thursday.

By order of Chief of Police Kent, all dogs will have to be licensed by their owners before May 1. After that date, all unlicensed dogs will be shot and their owners prosecuted according to law.

TO OPEN WINDOM PROPERTY.

Oliver Mining Company to Start Work on Mine.

Grand Rapids, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is reliably stated that the Oliver Mining company is planning to open up their property at Windom station, at which point is one of the most valuable ore beds on the Western Mesaba. At the present time their engineer corps is busy getting the necessary data, preparatory to opening up the mine, and we are informed a shaft will be sunk in the near future. The Windom mine is an open pit proposition.

SAWMILL IS FIRED.

Incendiaries Fail in Effort to Destroy Plant.

Grand Rapids, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Neumann Bros.' sawmill, on Prairie lake, came near being destroyed by an incendiary fire early in the week. Mrs. Neumann was disturbed in her sleep early in the morning by some one outside, and looking out discovered the boiler house of the mill, near where she was sleeping, in flames. She gave the alarm and the employes responded with alacrity.

After hard work the fire was subdued, the mill and the lumber being saved. The damage was confined to the boiler house, being about $2,500. This is the second time the Neumanns have suffered a loss by fire, a former mill having been completely destroyed.

START EXPLORING WORK

Near Olson's Place in the Sturgeon Lake Country.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Diamond drill exploration work has been started by James Geary in the search for iron ore on section 32, 60-21, about eighty rods from Homesteader Olson's place at Sturgeon lake. Another drill will be placed in the same territory and that locality will be thoroughly explored.

Homesteaders and others who have frequented the Sturgeon lake country have long believed that the district contains iron ore and some deposits have been discovered, but no investigation has ever been made to determine if ore exists in paying quantities. Should ore be discovered in paying quantities, a valuable territory will be opened up as the Sturgeon lake country and the Bear river district both contain rich agricultural lands as well.

Lost—An Eagle charm with a diamond setting in breast of eagle, Wednesday, April 1, between Powers' theater and the Duluth, Missabe & Northern depot. Finder will please return it to Geary's saloon for reward. Peter Pastoret.

"There's a Reason"

ENTERTAINED BY PROCTOR ORDER

Proctor, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Modern Samaritans entertained Mr. Henderson, deputy imperial good samaritan, Mr. Christie, imperial good samaritan and Mr. Nelson, good samaritan of Alpha Council, all of Duluth, at their meeting Thursday evening. A good sized crowd was in attendance and after initiation, a lunch was served.

The Five Hundred club was entertained by Mrs. F. D. Knight at her home, Tuesday afternoon. The first prize was won by Mrs. H. Simkins and the foot prize by Mrs. George H. Carlton.

A chicken pie supper will be given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. at their building, Wednesday evening, April 22.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Glen Putman died at St. Mary's hospital last Monday morning of tuberculosis of the bowels. Mrs. Putman was 28 years old and was the daughter of J. C. Murray of this village. Besides her husband and two little sons, she leaves her father, two sisters and three brothers to mourn her loss. The funeral took place from St. Rose's church Wednesday. The remains were taken to Chatfield, Minn., for burial.

A men's gymnasium class has been organized at the Y. M. C. A., to meet on Tuesdays and Fridays at 2:30 p. m.

Tom Hunt returned to Proctor Tuesday from an extended visit with relatives near Toledo, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Price returned home Tuesday from Montreal, Canada, where they have spent the winter, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll returned this week from an extended visit with relatives in the southern part of the state.

A. E. Anderson spent a few days this week at Iron River, Wis.

Eklund & Johnson have opened up a meat market in the new building recently completed by B. Magoffin. They have a first class market and will no doubt receive their share of patronage.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church held its regular cooking sale at McEwen & Quick's store this afternoon. Mrs. M. H. Briggs and Mrs. William Chisholm were in charge.

J. E. Koen, who has been in the saloon business here for some time, has sold out to J. R. Judge and Dan Cusick, who will run the place under the name of Judge & Cusick. T. R. Hancock has taken the place vacated by Mr. Judge.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Carlson returned this week from a six weeks' visit with relatives in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

John Lowney, the East side barber, has purchased the little building used by Mr. Cameron, and has remodeled it for his barber shop. He moved into it this week.

H. G. Gilderman, George Blanchette, J. P. Murray and A. J. Blanchette went to Hibbing o nthe special train run from Duluth Wednesday night, as representatives to the county convention of Modern Woodmen from Zenith camp, No. 7221.

A. A. Brink has completed his large building near the Y. M. C. A., and has furnished it up preparatory to running a rooming house.

The married ladies' and the teachers' basketball teams played a game Monday night at the gymnasium that will go down on record as the fastest and closest game ever played in Proctor, the game ending in a score of 6 to 5 in favor of the married ladies. The game stood 5 to 4 in favor of the teachers, with about three-quarters of a minute to play, when one of the married ladies succeeded in throwing a basket and winning the game. Barely had the basket been made when time was called. There has been much rivalry between these two teams, so no trouble was encountered in drawing a large crowd.

The new postmaster, George M. Wilson, is getting things in shape preparatory to moving the postoffice from its present location on the West side of town to its new location in the Quackenbush building on the East side.

Miss Leona Koons left Tuesday for a few months' visit with friends and relatives in Marquette, Mich.

C. M. Taggart returned to Proctor last week, after a few months' visit at Hot Springs and Sheboygan, Wis.

Mr. Barker, a Hill brakeman, returned to Proctor this week from Baltimore, where he has been since ore season closed.

Frank Dollowitz returned to Proctor Tuesday after an extended visit with relatives in Peoria, Ill.

Christe Hassett, clerk in the yard office, has been laid up for the past ten days with an attack of pleurisy.

Romeo and Phil Bentner returned to Proctor Tuesday morning after a three months' visit with relatives in Winona, Minn.

Clyde Brittan returned to Proctor Monday from Barnum, Minn., where he has been spending a few of the twelve weeks he has been gone.

Harry King, a fireman, left Tuesday for Winnipeg for a few weeks' visit.

Miss Mabel Warde of Duluth spent a few days this week in the village with friends.

Fred Laberdie returned to Proctor Tuesday from the Copper country, where he has been visiting for the past two months.

Prof. F. W. Holbrook has been spending the week along the range visiting the schools of the different towns.

The Eveleth basketball team will come down to play a game tonight with the local team. The Proctor team has won all the games played so far this season with the Eveleth team, so no trouble is expected tonight in again winning the game.

Spring Humors

It is important to you from every standpoint that you should thoroughly cleanse your blood of all those impure, poisonous and effete matters that have accumulated in it during the winter. Do this by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

You will feel better, look better, eat and sleep better, do your work more easily and satisfactorily, and be in good condition to resist prevalent diseases and to withstand the hot waves of summer which have such a depressing and prostrating effect on the weak, debilitated and run-down.

The secret of the unequaled success of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for Spring humors is the fact, proven annually by thousands of grateful people, that it thoroughly cleanses the blood, gives strength and tone to every organ and function and builds up the whole system.

MRS. J. F. GEE.

"I speak from experience of 25 years with Hood's Sarsaparilla in giving my recommendation. For spring humors and as a general blood purifier this medicine never fails. It always does all that is claimed for it, and more. I know it to be good for scrofula, salt rheum, and all similar troubles, and as a general spring medicine I can positively say it has no equal. It gives me genuine satisfaction to say these few words in favor of the medicine I have found so reliable in our family." MRS. J. F. GEE, 50 Gould street Stoneham, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sarsatabs are Hood's Sarsaparilla in tablet form. Have identically the same curative properties. 100 doses $1.

Sold by all druggists or sent promptly by mail on receipt of price by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Law Addresses Committee.

President Low addressed the committee as follows:

"The problem with which the bill, introduced by Col. Hepburn, and prepared under the auspices of the National Civic Federation, seeks to deal, is not an easy one, but it may be stated very plainly. As a result of a long series of decisions by the supreme court of the United States, it is at last made clear to everybody doing interstate commerce by the methods of combination which are characteristic of these times, that much of such business is done contrary to law. Common carriers, business corporations and business men, labor organizations and labor men, have all had it brought home to them, one after another, that under the terms of the Sherman anti-trust law a large part of the business done in the United States at the present time is being done contrary to law. Co-operative associations and other associations of farmers are subject to the same statute.

Effective Supervision Wanted.

Common carriers should be permitted to combine and to make traffic agreements in proper cases and under suitable governmental supervision; for combination and traffic agreements often mean more effective service of the public. What is wanted is effective public supervision and not an absolute prohibition of the very thing that may secure the best public service.

"This bill, affects only those who voluntarily place themselves under it. If it becomes a law, it is almost certain to lead to a large measure of publicity; and that, in the opinion of many, is likely to be the cure for most of the evils that have brought about too great legal restraint.

"There is much reason to believe that publicity will make the criticism of corporate undertakings more intelligent, and therefore, in the main, more friendly.

"The National Civic Federation fully understands that there may be honest differences of opinion as to the general scheme of the bill under discussion, but while the bill may not escape criticism, we believe it capable of vindication."

SAYS SHE IS HAPPY

until that time.

"The world has not treated me badly since I came away. I am happier as I am than I would be if I were back home, and I do not regret coming.

"Mr. Balcom was never my legal guardian. He was my spiritual adviser and rector, and nothing more in that capacity. Since I left Hempstead he has been able to support me adequately. While we have not lived in luxury, we have been comfortable, and Mr. Balcom has had no trouble in making a good living for the baby and me."

Mrs. Balcom, as she styles herself, says there is no truth in the stories that they had a hard time making a living. Balcom, she says, is an expert workman and makes $4.50 a day. She says that when her estate is settled she will have between $100,000 and $150,000.

ON THE IRON RANGES

DULUTH MAN IS TAPPING TREES

G. G. Hartley's Sugar Camp Where President Roosevelt Gets Supply.

Coleraine, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—G. G. Hartley of Duluth is spending his vacation at his noted sugar camp on the shore of Trout lake below Coleraine. He owns a great forest of hard maples. Last year he collected sap from over two thousand trees and it is reported that he will tap many more this season. President Roosevelt receives an annual supply of maple syrup from this camp.

Justice Trescott is trying an assault and battery case. The plaintiff is Ed Lee, who was badly cut with a kettle in the hands of Charles Wallace, the defendant. Wallace keeps a boarding camp and the trouble arose over the settlement of a board bill. Ed Lee was laid up in the hospital for about three weeks. Attorney Price of Grand Rapids and D. D. Greer of Coleraine are the attorneys in the case.

School will open next Monday after a week's vacation. Supt. Vandyke spent a part of his vacation in the Twin Cities attending a meeting of the city superintendents at the University. Many of the teachers are out of town. Several attended the Madame Sembrich concert in Duluth. Miss Cole, the principal of the high school, is at home in Minneapolis, for vacation.

Dr. E. C. Clemans of Duluth is conducting a series of meetings here this week. He has a host of friends here who greatly enjoy his sermons. He will speak in the high school building Sunday morning and evening, and at Taconite in the afternoon.

GRAND RAPIDS EVENTS.

Local Happenings in the Itasca County Seat.

Grand Rapids, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. T. Reid of Deer River was a visitor in the county seat recently. Mr. Reid says that he was going to be a candidate for county superintendent of schools at the coming election, and he feels that he has excellent chances of landing the prize.

John W. Alton and a party of landseekers left recently for the northern part of Koochiching county where they will look over and probably file on some land.

Louis Jorgenson is having the material hauled for a fine new residence which he will build this summer on his lots on Winnipeg avenue, between the Halvorson and the P. A. Smith homes.

Fred Christianson, formerly of Trout Lake, was here this week from Shotley Brook on Red Lake, at which place he and a man named George Seager have a sawmill.

The two-weeks-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hachey died Tuesday. The funeral was held Wednesday from St. Joesph's church.

Art Wilder, who has been conducting the Morrisey hotel at Deer River for the past several months, has returned with his family and has taken up his residence here again.

Dr. G. E. McIntosh's Unique Theater company will render the Passion play at the village hall on Sunday evening, April 12.

LOSERS CRYING FRAUD.

Minneapolis Debating Team Allege Virginians Were Not Fair.

Virginia, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charges of "unfairness" have been made against the Roosevelt high school debating team by the faculty of the Minneapolis high school, and Supt. Bliss of this city is now in Minneapolis to make answer to the charge. The charges of unfair methods is said to be based upon the fact that the Roosevelt team used a chart in its recent debate with the Minneapolis team and it is alleged that this chart was made by others than the members of the Roosevelt team. It is said that if the charge of unfairness is upheld that will necessitate another debate between the two teams.

The fact that the Minneapolis papers took the ground that the Roosevelt won the debate on merit would indicate that the charge of unfairness is rather farfetched.

CLARENCE MILLER SPEAKS.

Is Grand Orator at Dedication of Hibbing Masonic Temple.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—There was a notable gathering of Masons here last night to participate in the dedication of the new Masonic temple. The impressive dedicatory exercises were in the charge of Grand Master P. W. Roberts of Minneapolis, assisted by Senior Grand Warden Patton of Duluth. During the evening the local lodge exemplified work in the first degree. Following a sumptuous banquet Hon. Clarence B. Miller of Duluth, who had been delegated grand orator for the occasion, delivered an eloquent and stirring address.

WALTER MITCHELL BURIED.

Many Pay Tribute to Popular Young Hibbing Man.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Evidences of genuine grief over the untimely death of Walter Mitchell, son of Captain Leo Mitchell of the Pillsbury mine who was killed in the Glen mine Wednesday, were not lacking when the funeral of the popular young man was held today from the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaVictor, 325 Railroad street.

A long procession followed the body to Greenwood cemetery where interment was made. The sorrowing widow, a bride of only a few months, was nearly heartbroken and received the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

HIBBING'S MAYOR LOSES HIS FATHER AT PITTSBURG.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word has been received from Pittsburg, Pa., of the death there Wednesday of the father of Mayor E. B. Weirick of this village. Mayor Weirick, who left here Sunday, reached his father's bedside just before his parent died, which is a course of no little gratification to the mayor's friends as it was feared he would not arrive in time.

The elder Mr. Weirick had long been a sufferer from stomach cancer.

NEW CHEMICAL TESTED.

Hibbing, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Thomas O'Connor, fire chief, has satisfactorily tested the new chemical engine recently ordered by the council and the machine will probably be accepted by the council.

It is provided with two 45-gallon tanks through which the water is forced, thus mixing the water with the chemicals. One of the tanks may be recharged while the other is in use, thus enabling the engine to work steadily in case of a long continued fire. A third horse has been purchased by the village to be used on the chemical engine.

VIRGINIA MAN IS GOING TO YAKIMA

Smith Purchases Myer's Interest in Store—Other Events.

Virginia, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. E. Pigott, the meat dealer, has disposed of his interests here to Macbeth & Gardner, and has also sold his shops in Bovey and Mountain Iron. After cleaning up some of his accounts he will remove to the Yakima valley in Washington, where he will engage in fruit farming.

At the annual meeting of the Virginia Store company, N. J. Smith, who has acted as manager for some time past, purchased the interest of F. B. Myers of Biwabik and was elected president, treasurer and general manager of the concern, C. H. Taylor of Duluth is the principal stockholder.

The funeral of Miss Maud Harper, daughter of Mrs. Joseph O'Leary, was held at the Catholic church Thursday afternoon. Deceased was nearly 18 years of age and died on March 30, after a short illness from pneumonia.

Prof. Theodore Reinstar, the famous Swedish tenor, will give a concert in the Swedish Lutheran church next Friday evening, the 10th inst.

Miss Maude Webster, who has been McGray for several months past, has returned to her home in Hibbing.

Ruth Agnes, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Peterson of Mariska, who died on the 30th ult., was buried here Thursday. The funeral services were conducted in the Swedish Lutheran church by Rev. P. O. Hanson.

Joseph W. Munch, champion speed roller skater of the Northwest, came up from Minneapolis Thursday night and warmed up a bit at the rink.

The first heat in a special contest between Fred LeMear of Eveleth and Joe Symonitz of this city will be held at the roller rink tonight. These two are the fastest of the local skaters, and a lively contest is looked for.

COMPANY F ROSTER.

Young Men Who Joined Eveleth Company of Militia.

Eveleth, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The young men who joined the state militia company here Thursday night, to be known as Company F, Third regiment, Minnesota National Guard, are as follows:

Webb, Hiram Gordon, Allister Murray, G. W. Gordon, John Anderson, Fred Krinning and Ben Gulbrandson.

EVELETH COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETS MONDAY.

Eveleth, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—At next Monday night's meeting of the Business Men's association a number of the members will speak on different topics. Lunch and cigars will be served. President Hoarding of the club will speak on the insurance of bank deposits. A discussion will follow.

The subject of commercial clubs will occupy part of the evening. Vice President Alex MacDonald will show what good a commercial club accomplishes and what benefits are derived from such an organization.

BUILD FINE CHURCH

Is Plan of Austrian Societies of Eveleth---Other Happenings.

Eveleth, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A plan is on foot among the Austrian societies of the town to erect a new $40,000 church on the site of the present Holy family Catholic church. These societies will try to raise all the money themselves.

The Eveleth hotel, which has been run by John A. Mitchell for some time past, has been sold to Martin Johnson of Virginia, who will conduct it.

Mine Inspector W. H. Harvey has accepted the superintendency of the Schinango mine at Chisholm and will in time make his home at Chisholm.

Supt. Richards of the Corrigan-McKinney company of Crystal Falls, who was for some time very prominent in mining circles around Eveleth through his work as mining captain at the Fayal, at the Auburn mine and at the Spruce mine under Supt. Kimberley, was in town Thursday.

By order of Chief of Police Kent, all dogs will have to be licensed by their owners before May 1. After that date, all unlicensed dogs will be shot and their owners prosecuted according to law.

A chicken pie supper will be given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. at their building, Wednesday evening, April 22.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Glen Putman died at St. Mary's hospital last Monday morning of tuberculosis of the bowels. Mrs. Putman was 28 years old and was the daughter of J. C. Murray of this village. Besides her husband and two little sons, she leaves her father, two sisters and three brothers to mourn her loss. The funeral took place from St. Rose's church Wednesday. The remains were taken to Chatfield, Minn., for burial.

A men's gymnasium class has been organized at the Y. M. C. A., to meet on Tuesdays and Fridays at 2:30 p. m.

Tom Hunt returned to Proctor Tuesday from an extended visit with relatives near Toledo, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Price returned home Tuesday from Montreal, Canada, where they have spent the winter, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll returned this week from an extended visit with relatives in the southern part of the state.

A. E. Anderson spent a few days this week at Iron River, Wis.

Eklund & Johnson have opened up a meat market in the new building recently completed by R. Magoffin. They have a first class market and will no doubt receive their share of patronage.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church held its regular cooking sale at McEwen & Quick's store this afternoon. Mrs. M. H. Briggs and Mrs. William Chisholm were in charge.

J. E. Keen, who has been in the saloon business here for some time, has sold out to J. R. Judge and Dan Cusick, who will run the place under the name of Judge & Cusick. T. R. Hancock has taken the place vacated by Mr. Judge.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Carlson returned this week from a six weeks' visit with relatives in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

John Lowney, the East side barber, has purchased the little building used by Mr. Cameron, and has remodeled it for his barber shop. He moved into it this week.

H. G. Gilderman, George Blanchette, J. P. Murray and A. J. Blanchette went to Hibbing o nthe special train run from Duluth Wednesday night, as representatives to the county convention of Modern Woodmen from Zenith camp, No. 7221.

A. A. Brink has completed his large building near the Y. M. C. A., and has furnished it up preparatory to running a rooming house.

The married ladies' and the teachers' basketball teams played a game Monday night at the gymnasium that will go down on record as the fastest and closest game ever played in Proctor, the game ending in a score of 6 to 5 in favor of the married ladies. The game stood 5 to 4 in favor of the teachers, with about three-quarters of a minute to play, when one of the married ladies succeeded in throwing a basket and winning the game. Barely had the basket been made when time was called. There has been much rivalry between these two teams, so no trouble was encountered in drawing a large crowd.

The new postmaster, George M. Wilson, is getting things in shape preparatory to moving the postoffice from its present location on the West side of town to its new location in the Quackenbush building on the East side.

Miss Leona Koons left Tuesday for a few months' visit with friends and relatives in Marquette, Mich.

C. M. Taggart returned to Proctor last week, after a few months' visit at Hot Springs and Sheboygan, Wis.

Mr. Barker, a Hill brakeman, returned to Proctor this week from Baltimore, where he has been since ore season closed.

Frank Dollowitz returned to Proctor Tuesday after an extended visit with relatives in Peoria, Ill.

Christe Hassett, clerk in the yard office, has been laid up for the past ten days with an attack of pleurisy.

Romeo and Phil Bentner returned to Proctor Tuesday morning after a three months' visit with relatives in Winona, Minn.

Clyde Brittan returned to Proctor Monday from Barnum, Minn., where he has been spending a few of the twelve weeks he has been gone.

Harry King, a fireman, left Tuesday for Winnipeg for a few weeks' visit.

Miss Mabel Wards of Duluth spent a few days this week in the village with friends.

Fred Laberdie returned to Proctor Tuesday from the Copper country, where he has been visiting for the past two months.

Prof. F. W. Holbrook has been spending the week along the range visiting the schools of the different towns.

The Eveleth basketball team will come down to play a game tonight with the local team. The Proctor team has won all the games played so far this season with the Eveleth team, so no trouble is expected tonight in again winning the game.

Twin City & Lake Superior Railway Co.

Presents An Investment That Is

ENDORSED! GUARANTEED! SECURED!

SIX DAYS ONLY AT $44.00!

In announcing the close of the sale of the $44 stock of TWIN CITY & LAKE SUPERIOR RAILWAY COMPANY and the advance to $50, we take the opportunity to thank our two thousand stockholders for their hearty participation in the enterprise

We have offered the best investment proposition that the actual investor of his or her own money has ever had an opportunity to participate in on an equal basis, dollar for dollar, regardless of the amount invested, in the United States. We have offered it upon a straightforward, clean-cut, sensible and legitimate plan, and we have won our friends and supporters in the open field by dealing fair and square with everybody. The honest doubter or even sceptic of yesterday is our enthusiastic stockholder and supporter today.

Beginning with the plan by which the actual investor could participate in capitalizing what is certain to be the best paying piece of railroad in the Middle West, and by honestly and squarely putting the stockholders' money into the work and by guaranteeing to every stockholder par value, $100 PER SHARE, with the completion of the road, we added on the first of the year a bona fide guarantee in real estate, farm lands, that positively insures the safety of the investment during the period of construction and until the first guarantee becomes actually operative.

This feature, in particular, coupled with a thorough and exhaustive examination of our books and records, conducted during the month of February, at the instance of the "Minneapolis Journal," has won for us the unqualified endorsement of the "Journal," and followed by the entire press of the Northwest and many solid, substantial business men not heretofore identified with the enterprise.

The location engineering is complete, the right-of-way between the cities is all secured, all bridges have been located and plans drawn, and on July 1, 1907, actual construction began and was continued without interruption until after January 1st. Thirty-two miles of the best standard railroad roadway in Minnesota is complete, including culverts and trestle bridging, ready for the ties and rails. Construction track is being laid and grading operations will begin again on a large scale Monday morning, the 6th, and the entire work will be vigorously pushed during the coming season.

For the benefit of those who have not closely followed our progress and the record of well won endorsement, we reproduce here in full, the editorial comment of the "Minneapolis Journal," under date of March 12th, together with some pointed extracts from Mr. Wendell's report. We have made good every promise and proven every assertion that we have ever made in this connection, so far as accomplishment permits of proof. We have asserted that this would be the best paying piece of railroad in the Northwest to its stockholders. We have figures to show that this too will be proven conclusively with the completion and operation of the road, and we want to submit them to thinking men and women.

SIX DAYS ONLY AT $44.00!

FIRST: We have the shortest possible road between the Twin Cities and the Head of the Lakes, many miles shorter than the shortest existing line, our line being 96 per cent tangent.

SECOND: We have the lightest maximum grade by better than one-half.

THIRD: Our total capital charge for a double track, fully equipped, electric road is many thousand dollars less per mile than any existing single track steam road, that is, practically two railroads at less capital cost than any single track road operating between the Twin Cities and the Head of the Lakes.

FOURTH: Operating expenses generally averaging 70 per cent of the gross earnings of steam roads will be reduced 33 1-3 per cent by electric operation.

FIFTH: Passenger business, which is generally claimed by steam roads is handled at very little profit or even at a loss, is, as is well known, highly profitable to an electric road, and it is not disputed that the passenger business between the Twin Cities and the Head of the Lakes will be quadrupled within a year after the installation of electric service and a two-hour schedule. Consider well these facts and figures and then remember that in spite of their enormous capitalization, in spite of their longer mileage and greater grades, in spite of their immense interest account, in spite of their expensive operation by steam, railroads between the Twin Cities and the Head of the Lakes are earning for their stockholders and properties 12 to 15 per cent.

Upon our advancing schedule plan of capitalization only 8,800 shares remain that may be sold below $60 per share. We will accept orders for this stock while it lasts and up to Saturday, April 11th, at $44 per share, with 2 per cent discount if all cash accompanies the order, or upon the installment plan, 10 per cent with the order and 10 per cent monthly for nine months. If any remains, it will be offered at $50 while it lasts and when exhausted the price advances to $60. If you have accumulated money for which you are seeking an investment where it will honestly earn for you many times its possibilities in a savings bank or real estate mortgage, whether it be an amount sufficient to buy one share or one thousand, we earnestly ask you to consider our offering. If you have no accumulation or saving at this time, but are a stated income earner, we ask you to consider well the possibilities for you in an investment of what you can spare monthly for the next nine months in this stock.

What you are buying today at $44 per share, fully paid and non-assessable, will be worth $100 within a year and a half and upon the extremely conservative estimate of 10 per cent hereafter on the full par value of $100, your dividend on your actual investment today, will be not less than 25 per cent. There is no time to lose if you want to take advantage of the $6 per share advance in the selling price that takes place on Saturday, the 11th. Cut out the coupon appearing in this announcement, fill out for the number of shares you want and the manner in which you want to buy, and mail with your remittance as directed. It is an opportunity that will not present itself again. Where else can you double your money and have your principal absolutely safe.

Watch For Our Announcement in The Herald on Page 3, Monday.

What the Minneapolis Journal Says Editorially of the Twin City & Lake Superior Railway.

(March 12th, 1908.)

THE DULUTH AIR LINE.

For a year the backers of the Twin City & Lake Superior electric line project have been using the advertising columns of The Journal in soliciting the investing public's support. The publicity given to the enterprise has naturally given rise to the questions: Is it a feasible project on a bona fide basis, and are all reasonable safeguards given to investors? To answer these questions, Fred H. Wendell, of Wendell & Green, the Minneapolis public accountants, has just completed a thorough examination of the books of the company. It was in the belief that a new short line to the Head of the Lakes, operated by electricity, would, if realized, be a good thing, and the public was entitled to an impartial and expert examination of the enterprise in question, that The Journal commissioned Mr. Wendell to undertake the task. He was selected because of his well-known qualifications for the work, and because his standing in the community insured his reporting facts exactly as he found them.

Mr. Wendell has completed his examination and made his report to The Journal. He finds substantially that the project is wisely conceived and logically laid out; that the company's affairs have been economically administered in the interest of the individual investors; that every facility was afforded him for a thorough examination and that there is not and has not been any opportunity or disposition for stock-jobbing on the part of the officers. After his thorough examination, Mr. Wendell declares that he would not have the slightest hesitation in investing his own money in the project.

Extracts from Mr. Wendell's Report to Minneapolis Journal, February 29th, 1908.

"No stock has been issued or delivered by the Railway Company for any purpose without full payment for same."

"The officers of both Twin City & Lake Superior Railway Co., and Western Surety & Adjustment Co. have bought stock in considerable amounts and paid for it in cash exactly as outsiders have and at the same prices as ruling when sale was made."

"Payments to Twin City & Lake Superior Railway Co. by Western Surety & Adjustment Co. for stock issued has been on an average basis of about 82 per cent of sale price. This on the basis of gross selling price from which 2 per cent discount was allowed to purchasers so that actual payment to Railway Company was about 84 per cent of sale price."

"It is calculated that the sale of stock under contract of March 26th, 1907, with Western Surety & Adjustment Co. will furnish sufficient funds for single track and equipment and leave $636,000. This, together with the added receipts from advanced prices at which it is proposed stock shall be sold, will readily supply funds for the second track."

"The redemption clause in stock certificates is shown by the officers to be of particular advantage, first, last and all the time to the road, and that before the redemption term, the stock must be selling at least at par, hence no occasion would exist to trade certificates for transportation of persons or property, although they hope it may be largely done."

"The records and books of both companies are in excellent condition and a lively hearty interest is evinced by all the officers as well as by employes in positions of trust."

"The railway company's books show no outstanding accounts due and unpaid, and no unpaid accounts except small amounts on construction account not due contractors until contract work is finished and represented in the usual 10 per cent reserve to insure completion of contracts."

"Every possible facility has been furnished us for thorough examination of all books, records and plans."

(THE ARROW LINE.)

Stock in this Company is now offered for sale to investors at $44.00 per share, and represents an attractive opportunity to the investing public, standing as it does at the very head of the Middle West industrial enterprises.

THE TWIN CITY & LAKE SUPERIOR RAILWAY COMPANY'S plan of financing a PUBLIC UTILITY is endorsed by the press, praised by the people and encouraged by President Roosevelt. Our stock is being advertised for by parties wanting to exchange for MINNEAPOLIS CITY PROPERTY, Iowa, Wisconsin and North Dakota farm lands, automobiles and other commodities. This is the best evidence that this stock is soon to have a substantial, collateral exchange value at BANKS.

Parties looking for an investment of merit, worth and sound responsibility in a corporation whose books have stood the test of CRITICAL PUBLIC EXAMINATION, would show wisdom, good judgment, keen foresight, as well as ability to accumulate, by buying NOW before the BIG ADVANCE.

Space here will not permit giving full particulars, but we will be glad to send you additional information.

Until April 12th stock can be bought at $44 per share, after that date price advances to $50. As soon as the allotment to be sold at $50 is exhausted, the price will advance to $60 per share.

HOW YOU CAN BUY STOCK NOW.

We are offering the full paid, non-assessable $100 par value stock of the Twin City & Lake Superior Railway, on the following easy terms:

$ 44.00 buys 1 share, pay down $ 4.40 and $ 4.40 per month for 9 months.
220.00 buys 5 shares, pay down 22.00 and 22.00 per month for 9 months.
440.00 buys 10 shares, pay down 44.00 and 44.00 per month for 9 months.
1,000.00 buys 25 shares, pay down 110.00 and 110.00 per month for 9 months.
2,200.00 buys 50 shares, pay down 220.00 and 220.00 per month for 9 months.

If all cash is paid with the application a discount of 2 per cent will be allowed to the purchaser. You can contract for any number of shares, paying for them in the same proportion. You can pay more down and more per month, if you desire, or you can pay in the entire balance due at any time, when a certificate will be issued.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

REID DROPS HIS ACTION

For $10,000 Damages for Loss of Wife's Love.

Sensational Grand Forks Case Has Come to Sudden Ending.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The sensational-loving public that expected a rich morsel of scandal to be uncovered in the trial of the $10,000 damage suit of Saunders R. Reid, a Great Northern conductor living at St. Joe, this state, against B. S. Brynjolfson, a prominent man of this city for the alleged alienation of the affections of the plaintiff's wife, are doomed to disappointment as the case has probably been amicably settled. At least it was suddenly dismissed after the plaintiff's side had been heard in the district court behind closed doors.

The most sensational testimony was given by the plaintiff who testified to finding his wife and the defendant drinking in an East Grand Forks wine room. He had heard the couple were together and followed them to the wineroom. Following this disclosure the husband and wife separated, the children being placed in a school run by sisters of charity. The defense offered no testimony and then came the unexpected motion to dismiss without prejudice. The dismissal without prejudice means technically the plaintiff can renew the suit but this is not expected.

The trial of Dr. J. W. Fawcett of this city on the charge of performings an illegal operation upon a young woman which caused her death was then taken up and may be concluded today.

JOHN M'DERMOTT LOSES HIS LIFE

Fatally Injured by Being Caught Under Load of Logs.

International Falls, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—John McDermaid, an aged homesteader near the Manitou, was killed by the upsetting of a load of logs. In hauling logs to the river they were crossing the Dan McCauley place, and going down a grade the double trees became unhooked and the tongue dropped down, causing the load to slue.

The son was driving and the father seated on top of the load, when it turned over and he was caught under the logs and injured internally to such an extent that he died in three and a half hours. The interment was at the Emo cemetery.

MEMBER OF RICE STREET

Gang Dies in Stillwater States Prison of Tuberculosis.

Stillwater, Minn., April 4.—Joseph White, alias "Spec" White, alias Joe Ellino, a member of the once famous Rice street gang of St. Paul, died last night in the state prison of tuberculosis. He was about 35 years old. He was one of the trio—White, Dugan and Rice—who, fourteen years ago, entered the Harris residence in Minneapolis to commit burglary, and in a fight killed Mr. Harris.

All three were convicted of murder in the second degree and given life sentences. White was received at the prison May 11, 1894. Dugan and Rice are still in prison. Mrs. Ellius of St. Paul, mother of White, came here and took the body of her son to St. Paul for burial.

KANE SUCCEEDS STANTON.

Has Been Appointed County Attorney of Koochiching County.

International Falls, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The board of county commissioners has appointed W. V. Kane county attorney of Koochiching to succeed C. W. Stanton, who was appointed judge of the Fifteenth judicial district by Governor Johnson, succeeding Judge Spooner, resigned.

Mr. Kane embarked in the practice of law here three years ago, becoming judge of probate when the new county was created.

LOOKS INTO CITIZENSHIP

Of the Inmates of the County Jail at Houghton.

Houghton, Mich., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—David G. Povey, agent for the United States immigration bureau, is in Houghton for the purpose of investigating the standing as citizens of the inmates of the Houghton county jail, St. Joseph's hospital and the county poor house. The data is being collected for the purpose of determing whether or not any of thees inmates are liable to deportation as alien paupers.

Mr. Povey collected the information at the county jail and the hospital Wednesday and Thursday visited the county poor house. He is making a similar visit to all the counties of the upper peninsula and compiles similar information at all public and private charitable institutions and all county jails and poorhouses.

Omega Oil

RHEUMATISM—If you are taking internal treatment for Rheumatism, it is well to use Omega Oil externally at the same time The Oil cannot do any harm, but will help to bring about a cure much more quickly. Rub the Oil in freely and often.

WILL SPEND LARGE AMOUNT FOR ROADS

Calumet Township Figures on Annual Outlay of $20,000.

Calumet, Mich., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Horatio S. Earle is not the only man in Michigan who believes in good roads. The officials of Calumet township are so much in favor of having first class highways that they are considering the advisability of apprpriating $20,000 to be used on the roads this year. Calumet township can at the present boast of some of the finest macadamized highways in the peninsula.

Trap rock is available, and it is made full use of. Under the supervision of Highway Commissioner Paul P. Roehm, the roads of the township have been greatly improved the past few years. Last year $18,000 was expended on the highways.

CASS LAKE HAS BRIGHT FUTURE

Under New Administration City Will Certainly Forge Ahead.

Cass Lake, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The newly elected village council assumed control of the affairs of the village Thursday night and clearly demonstrated that they will exert every effort to make Cass Lake a pride to this part of the state. After appointing the village policemen, Mayor L. M. Lange, in a fervent and emphatic manner, told them what their duties were. He said that Cass Lake must rid itself of all unlawful occurances, that the state laws regarding saloons and gambling must be enforced and since it was his duty to see that such was done, he would spare nobody or anything until matters were satisfactorily conducted. George Gibson was appointed city marshal and Ed Brouliette and Joseph Boldoc night policeman.

From the present outlook, Cass Lake is about to shoulder a most notorious, progressive and memorable year yet recorded in its history. Several public buildings are already in contemplation, which include a Carnegie library, an opera house, a Congregational church, a hotel with all modern conveniences, a school house, and possibly a fire hall and jail.

The early part of the week an enthusiastic meeting of the business men and other citizens was held and a band was organized. In less than twelve hours afterwards the citizens most enthusiastically agreed to contribute over $100 each month for the maintenance of the organization.

Arrangements are well under way for an excellent baseball team and several good men have been secured to toss the leather-covered spheriod.

J. Nels' sawmill will open within a few weeks and means employment for about 200 men.

The box and crating factory will soon increase their help considerably. The proprietors of the box and crating factory, Messrs. Kenfield and Lamereaux, take pride in stating that the crating factory in Cass Lake is the largest one of its kind in the world.

There is a great probability that a large area of the forest reserve will be opened in the very near future. For the past ten years the people of Cass Lake have eagerly and patiently longed for the government to throw open this land for settlement, but not until recently have active steps been taken. The opening of this land, which is adjacent to the village, means considerable for the future welfare of the town.

The Commercial club is already making extensive prepartions for the accommodations of the summer visitors. The boat landing will be greatly remodeled and several new launches and rowboats will be placed on the lake. Cottages will be built on the lake shores as well as on the many beautiful spots on the river banks within easy reaching distance to Cass Lake.

WALTER HILL'S AUTO

Strikes Two People. Perhaps Seriously Injuring One.

St. Paul, Minn., April 4.—An automobile driven by Walter Hill, son of James J. Hill, last night ran into a buggy containing Dr. and Mrs. B. Kirby, who live at 653 Olive street. Both were thrown out. Dr. Kirby was seriously injured, and it is thought that his skull is fractured. His wife was also injured, but not seriously.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Summit and Fairview avenues. Walter Hill was the only person in the automobile.

SUICIDE WAS NOT BROKE.

Five Hundred Dollars Found Sewed in His Clothing.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A nice sum of money, not much, but sufficient to keep an aged couple from want for some time, was found yesterday in the shoulder of the coat worn by Carl Hult, who committed suicide last week in the St. James hotel, where he stopped on his way to Sweden to visit his parents.

The finding of the money was the result of a telegram received by A. Matson, 603 Second avenue south, from friends in Tacoma. The Tacoma friends knew Hult and asked Matson to find the old clothes, if possible, and save them for the parents. Matson at once notified Coroner J. M. Kistler, who yesterday ripped open the lining in the shoulder of the coat and found $506 in bills.

This money the coroner will turn over to Hult's parents as soon as they can be found and their right to the money established.

STORK WAS VERY BUSY IN CALUMET LAST MONTH.

Calumet, Mich., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Finnish, 21; Austrian, 18; American, 12; Italian, 11; English, 6; Canadian, 5; Norwegian, 3 Swedish, 3; German, 2; Hungarian, 1; Irish, 1; Polish, 1.

These were the March births by nationalities as compiled by Deputy Township Clerk Meads. The total number of births for the month of March, just ended, as far as the records show, is 84, far and above any previous months in the history of the township.

MISTAKES HAT FOR RAT, HUNTER WOUNDS COMPANION.

Tyler, Minn., April 4.—While creeping around the banks of a slough hunting ducks, Jorgen Larsen was seriously wounded by a charge of buckshot from the gun of a man named Sorenson. The latter was in search of muskrats, and mistaking a dark object—Larson's hat—moving slowly below the bank, said to himself, "There goes a muskrat," and fired at it. If it had not been for his heavy felt hat Larson would probably have been killed instantly. As it was his skull was fractured and shot were found two inches deep in his neck.

FRANK ANTHONY'S FUNERAL.

Many Friends Pay Last Tribute to Well-Known Man.

Hancock, Mich., April 14.—(Special to The Htrald.)—A large number of friends of Frank W. Anthony, a well known resident of this place, who died early in the week, after many years' residence in the Copper country, gathered at his funeral Wednesday afternoon. The pall bearers were Con Bedell, Frank Mayotte, James H. Gillespie, H. Halverson, M. R. Goldsworthy and George Ross. Services were conducted by Rev. J. S. Gould, pastor of the Hancock Congregational church, and interment was in the old Protestant cemetery in Hancock.

MELLEN AERIE OF EAGLES INSTITUTED THIS WEEK.

Mellen, Wis., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Deputy Grand Worthy President Pierrelee of the Eagles instituted an aerie of the order Wednesday evening, and the institute was very successful, and a large number of Mellen people are on the charter member list. The election of officers resulted as follows: Past worthy president, Robert Johnson; worthy president, Wells M. Ruggles; worthy vice president, Judge Simmonds; secretary, Gust W. Johnson; treasurer, Gust W. Johnson; treasurer, M. L. Beaver; inside guard, M. Sayeles; outside guard, H. Hirschpurger; trustees, Ed Blake, H. Wier, Charles Norton; aerie physician, Dr. Lockhart.

EX-POLICE CAPTAIN DIES.

St. Paul, Minn., April 4.—Thomas Walsh, a resident of Minnesota since 1856, and former police captain, died at his home in this city Friday, just two weeks after the death of his wife.

Mr. Walsh and his wife were born in the County Waterford, Ireland, the former in the year 1839, and both sailed in the same ship for America.

Truth and Quality

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing. Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. To get its beneficial effects always purchase the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

ASHLAND COUNTY WOODMEN MEETING

Gather at Mellen Selected Delegates to State Convention.

Mellen, Wis., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—This city has been the mecca this week of the Modern Woodmen of America of Ashland county, who held the county convention here Wednesday to elect delegates to the state meeting and transact other business.

Chief Forester O'Brien of Ashland brought along a team which exemplified work before the county gathering, making a very favorable impression.

E. J. Lockhart of Odanah was elected delegate to the state convention at Wausau in May, and R. W. Parsons of Ashland, alternate. The next convention will be held at Ashland in 1911.

The different camps were represented by the following delegates:

Ashland—D. S. Mackie, J. B. Nichols, J. M. O'Brien, F. A. Siebensohn, W. G. Nohl, H. Yaffe, Ed Knapp, Adam Stenz, J. Posshage, Len Markeson, A. C. Miller, C. H. Brunker and M. Fitzgerald, and in addition R. W. Parsons, D. E. Canty, T. H. Johnson, Ed Byers, O. B. Schroeder, William Main, A. C. Thines.

Butternut—M. O'Connell, R. G. Boettcher.

Glidden—Louis M. Taylor.

Mellen—C. P. Peck, W. H. Beach, W. A. Warren, J. Nordby.

Odanah—T. C. Echlin, Elof Carlson, E. J. Lockhart, A. G. Hill, Anton Gunderson.

ASHLAND NAVAL RESERVE.

Efforts to be Made to Bring About Its Organization.

Ashland, Wis., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Citizens of Ashland who are interested in boating have decided to organize a naval reserve in this city. Every other state that has a lake port on the Great Lakes has a division or a number of divisions of naval reserves. Wisconsin, with all her fine lake ports, has not a naval reserve to represent her at the annual maneuvers of the Great Lakes squadron, which takes place every year in the waters of Upper Lake Michigan. There has been little or no effort made to organize a naval reserve in this state, as there is no bill providing for the organizing of such a body.

LUMBER COMPANIES COMMENCE OPERATIONS.

Bemidji, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Crookston and Bemidji lumber companies began operations at the local sawmills this week, and will soon be running steadily. Both companies ran their mills temporarily on Tuesday and tried out their machinery, preparatory to beginning the season's work Thursday. Everything moved along nicely and the machinery gave entire satisfaction, indicating that the repairing done during the winter had the desired result.

BODY FROM PANAMA.

Hastings, Minn., April 4.—The remains of Maurice P. Rich, who died at Colon, Panama, have arrived here, and were taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rich. The funeral will be held from St. Luke's church on Sunday, Rev. Arthur Chard officiating.

MONOTS GETTING RELIGIOUS.

Minot, N. D., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Interest in the present evangelistic campaign in Minot is growing very rapidly. Even before the coming of Rev. J. S. Hamilton and Prof. Bursk, cottage gatherings for prayer and conference have been held in different parts of the city for six weeks. Men and women have been praying everywhere.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Winona—Dr. and Mrs. H. Wychgram Thursday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, surrounded by their eleven living children and nine grandchildren. Dr. and Mrs. Wychgram have spent the entire fifty years of married life in Winona.

Minneapolis—Archbishop Ireland will meet the general committee Monday night having in charge the new Catholic procathedral cornerstone ceremonies of May 31, and will confer with the various sub-committees on the progress being made in the plans for the program of the day.

Stillwater—Next Tuesday night the city council as at present organized will hold its last meeting and new officers of that body will be held a week later. There is but one change in the aldermen, S. C. Lull taking the place of J. J. Stinson in the Third ward. The council will remain seven Democrats and two Republicans.

Crookston—The county convention of the Modern Woodmen, which was held in this city Wednesday, decided not to hold an annual picnic in this city this summer. At the invitation of the Mallory camp the other camps will join that town this summer and co-operate in making the local picnic a big success.

Sandstone—Clarence Miller of Duluth has been secured to deliver the address at the commencement exercises given by the high school graduates on June 3.

St. Cloud—The annual meeting of the St. Cloud Driving association will be held at the Commercial club rooms next Monday evening. At that time the officers for the coming year will be elected and the various committees appointed.

Pine City—Word has been received here that John Kline, who for twenty-six years held the position of section foreman on the old St. Paul & Duluth road at Mahtowa and this place, died at Kansas City, Mo.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Fargo, N. D.—Last month was the banner month of the year for real estate transfers in Cass county. The total amount of money turned over in the transfers was $522,774.58 and there were ninety-seven transfers recorded.

Edinburg, N. D.—Bids for the grading work of the Northern Dakota railway will be opened on April 15. The line is to run from Edinburg to the Pembina Portland cement mines.

Grand Forks, N. D.—The convention committee of the Commercial club is considering the matter of a Grand Forks button, to be used by the club for any convention that may be held in the city in the future.

Fargo, N. D.—Grand Recorder E. J. Moore of the A. O. U. W. states that there would be no grand lodge assembly this year in this state, but the fraternity would be interested in the supreme lodge meeting to be held at Des Moines, Iowa, in June.

Grand Forks—Two big deeds were recorded at the register of deeds office Thursday aggregating an amount of $18,000. Jacob Hartman transferred to Oscar Tryten a half section of land in Michigan township for a consideration of $6,500 and Philip Marquardt transferred a half section in Union township to Edward S. Digness for a consideration of $11,500.

Bismarck, N. D.—The contract has been signed between the Commercial club and H. C. Rhud for the remodeling of Mr. Rhud's two-story brick building, on the corner of Third and Broadway, to be used as permanent quarters for the club.

HOME ENDORSEMENT

Hundreds of Duluth Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Duluth people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Duluth reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in faraway places. Read the following:

Capt. M. McLean, marine captain, living at 4324 Gilliat St., Duluth, Minn., says: "Lapse of time has only strengthened my appreciation of Doan's Kidney Pills. I gave this remedy my hearty endorsement in the summer of 1898, because of the good results I obtained from the use of it. It promptly and effectually rid me of a dull, heavy aching just over the kidneys, banished the restlessness that broke my sleep at night, and brought about a healthy and natural action of the kidneys. Since that time there has been no return of the trouble, which fact convinces me that Doan's Kidney Pills cured me permanently."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Calumet—Frank Malko, after pleading guilty to robbing a mail box in the Calumet postoffice, was sentenced to the industrial school at Lansing until he is 17 years of age.

Laurium—Ice skating at the Palestra is at an end and preparations will now be made for roller skating. The management states all of the roller skates owned by the rink will be sold.

Houghton—Mrs. D. W. Hayden left Wednesday night for her home in Duluth, after a visit here with Mrs. Edward Howard. Mrs. Howard accompanied her.

Calumet—Mrs. D. F. Harrington and child have left for Rochester, Minn., where Mr. Harrington has undergone an operation for stomach trouble.

Hancock—The tugmen of the Portage Lake district will meet Sunday for the last time this spring. Officers will be chosen and other matters acted upon.

Houghton—The Michigan College of Mines receives from time to time gifts of equipment which are valuable in the college work. It has recently received a unique addition in the shape of a Stanley steam motor carriage.

Hancock—Mrs. Hosking, an elderly lady residing on Hancock street, is seriously ill at her home as the result of her falling down the cellar stairs a few days ago. Mrs. Hosking was badly cut about the head, besides which she suffered internal injuries.

Houghton—The dates fixed for the holding of the annual county fair by the directors of the Houghton County Agricultural society who met at the Citizens' bank Wednesday were Sept. 22, 23, 24 and 25.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Oshkosh — The steamer Leander Choate, built here for the Oshkosh Steamboat company, and named after a local capitalist and philanthropist, was launched Thursday afternoon. It is the largest steamer on these waters and will be used for passenger and freight traffic on the Wolf and Fox rivers.

Marinette—A dispute regarding the division line of the Wisconsin and Michigan waters of Green Bay is now up between fishermen of this city and the chief game warden of the state of Michigan, and the case will eventually be carried to the courts and will result in a petition to the national government to define the boundary line.

Milwaukee—E. H. Glantz, chief deputy United States marshal since Nov. 1, 1899, resigned Friday, in favor of J. H. Reinardy, former assistant postmaster at Kenosha. Mr. Glantz will not leave immediately, but will remain a few days, in order to "break in" his successor.

Neenah—Fears are being entertained for the safety of the Neenah dam, which is being threatened by large cakes of ice carried down in the annual rush from the lake.

Eau Claire—Frank Bilderbuch of Red Wing, Minn., aged 21 years, who has just been released from the Green Bay reformatory, where he served two and one-half years for burglary, has been arrested in this city charged with the theft of a suit case and clothes.

Chippewa Falls—Miss Cynthia I. Carlisle has just completed her twentieth consecutive year as teacher in the high school at Durand. It is said that she holds the record among the teachers of Wisconsin in the point of length of service in one school.

Ashland—Rev. A. Johnson of Alaska has been in the city for a few days for the purpose of raising funds for carrying on his missionary work in Alaska. Rev. Johnson has been in Alaska for several years and has put his best efforts to raise the moral plane of the natives.

DON'T BLAME HER

For she cannot help it. Women are often cross, irritable, hysteric, and declare they are driven to distraction at the slightest provocation.

Men cannot understand why this should be so. To them it is a mystery because in nine times out of ten this condition caused by a serious feminine derangement.

A remedy is necessary which acts directly upon the organs afflicted, restoring a healthy normal condition to the feminine system, which will quickly dispel all hysterical, nervous and irritable conditions. Such is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

The following letter serves to prove this fact.

Mrs. Mattie Copenhaver, 315 So. 21st St., Parsons, Kans., writes:

"For two years I suffered from the worst forms of feminine ills, until I was almost driven frantic. Nothing but morphine would relieve me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness and made me a well woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

SECULAR SHOTS AT PULPIT.

Minneapolis Journal: Methodists will have no need to go to either national convention to get some political exercise. The conference at Baltimore will elect ten new bishops.

Washington Post: The Buffalo bishop who advised all spinsters of marriageable age to take husbands must have forgotten for the moment that even in matrimony it takes two to make a bargain.

Boston Transcript: The Alaskan archdeacon suggests that the church building be used as a clubhouse during the week and that the miners be allowed to use tobacco therein. "Holy smoke!"

Springfield Republican: A Boston Methodist pastor has respectfully requested that his salary be reduced. The church will probably be able to accommodate him. There is no ministers' labor union to interpose a veto in the interest of a living wage.

Boston Transcript: The Methodist Episcopal church has sustained a serious loss in the death of Bishop Charles H. Fowler. His record was one of surpassing distinction in his denomination, not only as an executive, but also as a missionary. He was a pillar of his church beyond most to whom that term is applied.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: A pastor in a New Jersey town declares there are too many churches in that particular community. With twenty-one churches for a population of 20,000, the outspoken pastor thinks the proportion should drop to the same as the proportion of saloons, one for every 2,500 persons, or eight saloons altogether. It isn't so much the overplus of churches that will attract attention as it is the comparison.

Admission, 25 cents.

FALL IS LIKELY TO PROVE FATAL

Charles Walt is Terribly Injured in Elevator Shaft.

Charles Walt, an employe of the St. Louis hotel, is dying at St. Mary's hospital as the result of an injury received while alighting from an elevator at the hotel yesterday afternoon. His back is broken and his chest crushed and the physicians hold out but little hope for his recovery.

Walt, who has been assisting the engineer, went into the basement and then started to return to the kitchen, which is on the second floor. He used the freight elevator in making the trips to and from the basement. Suddenly a scream was heard and Mr. Foss, the engineer, hurried over to the elevator shaft. He was too late, however, to render any assistance, for with a sickening thud Walt's body dropped into the basement.

Just how the accident happened is not known. It is believed that in some way Walt's body became wedged between the edge of the opening and the elevator and that he was pulled from the elevator and fell to the basement.

The ambulance was called and Walt hurried to the hospital. He was conscious, but in no condition to explain how the accident happened. Walt is 33 years of age and married. It was stated at the hospital this morning that recovery was very doubtful.

BULL RUNS AMUCK ON THE STREET

There was a wild scramble for shelter this morning when a healthy specimen of the bull tribe ran amuck at the corner of Sixth avenue west and Superior street about 10 o'clock.

The bull was being driven along the street, when it broke from its guardians and made a dash for the sidewalk.

Scores of woodsmen were sunning themselves along the sidewalk, and there was a wild scene of confusion for several minutes. Two fat men, who seemed to have the animal in charge, puffed along on its trail, and finally ran it down before any serious damage was done.

MRS. THOMAS SAVER, OLD CLOQUET RESIDENT, DEAD.

Cloquet, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Thomas Saver, 52 years of age, died Friday morning, at 8 o'clock, after a protracted illness of asthma and rheumatism. She has been seriously ill since Wednesday. She had resided twenty years here.

Mrs. Saver leaves a husband, two sons and three daughters, all married. She was well known among the old settlers. The funeral will be held Monday, at 8:30, from the Catholic church.

CLOQUET HOME BURNS.

Cloquet, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fire last night at 9:45 o'clock, totally destroyed the residence on Seventh street, owned by Louis Johnson, and occupied by John Monger. All the household effects were lost. A mistake in the alarm caused confusion, there being no water for twenty-five minutes. The fire is supposed to have started in the kitchen.

"LID" GOES ON STORES

Sunday Closing Order Covers Every Part of the City.

Prosecutions Will be Made for Violations of the Law.

The order of Chief Troyer relative to the closing of clothing stores on Sunday will go into effect tomorrow all over the city. The officers of the police department have been instructed to order every storekeeper on his beat that his place of business must be closed all day Sunday. The order also requires the officers to secure evidence against violators of the law and submit it for prosecution.

The most flagrant violations of the law relative to clothing stores have been committed on the Bowery, in the West end and in West Duluth. The order closing the places on Sunday was inspired by the Retail Clerks' union, doubtless backed up by the owners of the larger stores, who have always respected the Sunday closing law. A committee of the clerks' union made a tour of investigation last Sunday and collected evidence against nearly a score of clothing dealers. The evidence was laid before the city officials, and the order followed.

On several other occasions in past years, efforts were made to close up the small clothing dealers, who insisted on opening their places on Sunday. They put up the plea that many men come to town on Sunday, who have not time to make purchases during the week, and the opening of their stores was merely an accommodation. The plea will not go any more. The chief's order is unmistakable and prosecutions will be made next week if any dealer, in any part of the city violates the law tomorrow.

VACCINE FOR JAIL LODGERS

Prisoners in City Lock-up Have Their Arms Scratched.

The health department followed up its donation of vaccine points with free breakfasts at the Bethel this week by furnishing the virus with lodgings at the city jail last night. A physician and two inspectors descended on the jail last night about 10 o'clock and, with the aid of the officers, went over the sleepy crowd perched on points of vantage on the benches and enjoying rest with the disadvantages of a concrete floor as a bed.

Every man in the place sumitted to an inspection and, if he couldn't show a scar of a previous vaccination, his arm was scratched. Fully seventy-five of the eighty or so men in the jail submitted to the inoculating process and there was no vigorous protests. Some of the men were in the line at the Bethel Monday morning and they escaped a second experience with the vaccination needle.

FISH HOUSE ROBBED.

Police Capture Two Men Charged With Burglary.

"A Piscatorial Crime, or the Robbery of the Fish House," was staged last night by Frank Sten and John Manack.

All was quiet down on Lake avenue during the early morning hours. The lid was peacefully reposing in its place, and Christenson's fish house loomed up silent and dark against the midnight sky.

The two conspirators crept stealthily on the scene and started to help themselves to the Lenten standby.

Officer Rutchart appeared on the scene.

"Hooked," said the copper, and took a Frank Gotch hold on the collars of the two robbers.

The curtain went up on the final scene in the municipal court this morning. Burglary was the charge, and the hearing was set for Monday. The police say that fish houses must not be robbed during Lent.

SOUR UNDIGESTED FOOD AND BELCHING OF GAS

The Following Tells How One 22 Grain Triangule of Diapepsin Will Digest 3,000 Grains of Food and Cure Stomach Misery in Five Minutes.

Some people think they have Indigestion, others Catarrh of the Stomach, others Nervousness, Cancer or Dyspepsia, etc. Call it this if you will, but the real name for your trouble is Fermentation of what you eat, with only partial digestion. Everything you eat turns to either Acid, Stomach gas or Stomach poison, which weaken the digestive organs, causing a lack of gastric juice. Your food sours, is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, burning sensation, a feeling of vomiting, heartburn, water brash and tenderness in the pit of the stomach, slimy tongue, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, nausea, belching of gas, dizziness, sick headaches, intestinal griping, mental depression and many other common symptoms.

You can cure all this by not eating, by not putting any food in your stomach to ferment; but how about the nourishment needed to sustain your bodily strength? If you are a stomach sufferer, either man or woman, young or old, whether you call it Indigestion or any other name, go now to your best pharmacy and give 50 cents for a case of Pape's Diapepsin.

These 22-grain Triangules are pleasant tasting and as harmless as candy, and will digest 3,000 grains of any kind of food you eat.

Every possible kind of Stomach trouble is readily cured by Diapepsin, which takes right hold of the food in your stomach and digests it alone, without the help of the stomach, just as if your stomach wasn't there.

Your stomach will be as good as any after you stop this fermentation of everything you eat—this formation of Stomach Gas. After a few days' use of Diapepsin your Stomach will again be in good working order, your intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will have no use for laxatives or liver regulators.

Pape's Diapepsin is not a secret concoction or patent medicine, as the complete formula is plainly printed on each case. It is a prescription built upon a thoroughly scientific principle, which will prove true to any stomach sufferer within five minutes after taking the first Triangule.

YOU WILL REALIZE THAT "THEY LIVE WELL WHO LIVE CLEANLY," IF YOU USE

FUGITIVES CAPTURED

Two Smallpox Patients Are Arrested at Carlton, Minn.

Will be Brought Back to Duluth by Team.

After exposing scores of people to smallpox, John Herton and John McDougall, the two young men who escaped from the detention hospital Wednesday, were arrested at Carlton, Minn., last night, and brought back to Duluth today.

The police of the city have been prosecuting an energetic search for the pair, wanted on the charge of grand larceny, as well as because of their affliction. Even if the men are not found guilty of the grand larceny charge, Dr. Murray will probably swear out a warrant charging them with breaking quarantine, and this may land them in jail for two or three months.

Detective Frank Schulte of the Central station went to Carlton and he will bring the men to Duluth by team this afternoon. Herton will probably be subjected to fumigation and returned to the county jail as he has recovered. McDougall, however, will be placed in the detention hospital under strong guard and good care will be taken that he does not escape again.

GRAVES DECORATED.

Fifty Thousand Workmen March to Cemetery, But Make No Disorder.

Rome, April 4.—A procession of 50,000 of the workmen of Rome made its way through the main thoroughfares of the capital today to the cemetery, where are the graves of the men killed in the rioting of last Thursday. The progress of the men was witnessed by thousands of people from balconies, windows and roofs along the line of march. Upon arriving at the cemetery wreaths were deposited on the graves of the victims. Fiery speeches were delivered, but there was no outbreak or disorder of any kind. The authorities had taken precautions to have troops present in large numbers.

A Chemical Mystery.

Some years since, a meteor that fell in Mexico, attracted attention from scientists all over the world, because there was some reason for thinking that it might be a fragment of a lost comet. A scientific investigation proves that golden grain belt beer is rich in nutrition and nerve food, and a pure, wholesome drink that aids digestion. Order of your nearest dealer or be supplied by Duluth Branch, Minneapolis Brewing Co.

Following are the nominations received to date: B. W. How, H. R. Armstrong, J. Uno Sebenius, Henry Nolte, G. A. Everest, E. P. Towne and W. I. Prince.

FOR PUBLIC PRINTER.

President Appoints John S. Leech, Now in Philippines.

Washington, April 4.—John S. Leech of Illinois, now public printer in the Philippines, was today appointed public printer here. Mr. Leech will succeed Public Printer Stillings, whose resignation was accepted some days ago. The appointment as made by President Roosevelt was in the nature of a surprise, as his name had not been mentioned in connection with that place.

DUKE TO VISIT KING.

Turin, April 4.—The duke of the Abruzzi left here late this afternoon for Rome. He has sent a telegram to Kink Victor Emmanuel saying that he would be at the Quirinal Sunday morning. It is believed here that at his interview the matter of the engagement of the duke to Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of Senator Elkins of West Virginia, will be settled.

BRYAN IN KANSAS.

Hutchinson, Kan., April 4.—William J. Bryan, on his way to Colorado, is booked to deliver three speeches in Kansas today, at Hutchinson, Dodge City and Garden City. He arrived here this morning, accompanied by several prominent Kansas Democrats, who had met him at Kansas City.

CROOKSTON STORE ROBBED.

Crookston, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The P. G. Turnquist general store was entered by burglars, last night. The money drawer was rifled of $25 cash and a large amount of goods stolen. Groceries were scattered around the alley in the rear. The front door was opened by a skeleton key. There is no clue.

MINES CLOSE.

Plattsburg, N. Y., April 4.—Five hundred and fifty miners and laborers were temporarily thrown out of employment at Lyon Mountain today by the shutting down of the mines of the Deleware & Hudson company. The shut down is for a period of twenty days and is due to an overproduction of ore, for which the company could not find sale on account of the depression in the money market.

NEW HOSPITAL AT FARGO.

Fargo, N. D., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—A new three-story hotel will be erected soon on Front street, at the corner of Fourth street. This hotel will be built for James Kennedy, and the plans are now being made by Architect O'Shea, and it is thought that the contract will be let in the near future.

THE CARE OF CHILDREN

Judge Ensign Gives Good Advice to Teachers and Parents.

Delivers Interesting Talk on Methods of Juvenile Court.

"Treat your children kindly, so that they may have confidence in you and not be afraid to come to you with any of their troubles, no matter what they may be.

"Rich parents should not over-indulge their children with too much money or too fine dress. It not only tends to breed discontent in them, but in the children of less well-to-do parents, with whom they may play."

On these two principles in the bringing up of the young, Judge J. D. Ensign of the juvenile court laid special stress in his talk last night to mothers, fathers and teachers at the Irving high school, West Duluth. The assembly room was filled to its full capacity.

Judge Ensign spoke on the subject, "The Juvenile Court and Its Methods." He said that the only true way to govern children was with kindness, to get their confidence, let them come to you or encourage them to do so, with their troubles. Let them always feel that they are being treated justly, and you will have better boys and girls, was his advice.

"In the juvenile court," said Judge Ensign, "harsh, unkind words to the boys and girls that come before it are prohibited. We reserve the harsh words for their parents who deserve them. The juvenile law of Minnesota states that the judge shall treat the children as their parents should treat them. The law at the best is too hard on the youth.

"Since the juvenile court has been established in Duluth, we have had 600 children come before it, seventeen of whom were girls, and some of them have been very sad cases. In most cases, the cause of their crimes can be traced directly to the neglect of the parents."

Judge Ensign spoke of the injustice which wealthy parents, who indulge their offspring, are inflicting upon them. He said that it caused discontent and unhappiness and often that it put the means of sinning in the child's way.

"Not only this, but it may have a bad influence on the children who associate with the one who has everything he wishes," said the speaker. "Not long ago a case of this kind came before us. It was that of two little girls who had stolen some silk stockings from the Glass Block and had gone out in an alley and put them on as soon as they got out of sight of the store. When asked why they had committed the theft the girls said that they knew a girl at school who wore silk stockings, and when they got the opportunity to take some from the store counters for themselves, the temptation was too great and they fell.

"I always try to keep track of the boys and girls I have to send to the training schools. Every time an officer takes a child from Duluth to the reform school, I have him stay over a day so that he may have time to investigate how the other Duluth children there are getting on, and give me a report of them when he gets back."

A. S. Foster, principal of the Irving school, presided at the mass meeting, and introduced the speaker.

Miss Mary V. Holmes of Riceville, Iowa, sang.

DIPHTHERIA WIPED OUT

Not a Case Exists West of the Ore Docks.

Only Two Smallpox Cases in All of West Duluth.

There isn't a case of diphtheria or scarlet fever west of the Missabe ore docks. The only contagious disease with which West Duluth is afflicted is smallpox, and there are only two cases of quarantine on account of that.

This reassuring announcement was made at the office of the health commissioner this morning, and it shows the most encouraging conditions existing in West Duluth. When the diphtheria epidemic struck Duluth last spring, West Duluth was afflicted also. There was a time when the prevalence of the disease in the western part of the city approached alarming proportions, but consistent work on the part of the health officials has removed every vestige of it. Not a diphtheria sign is showing now.

There has never been very much scarlet fever, but under normal conditions a case or two is not unusual. There are none now, however.

The smallpox situation is better than it has been most of the winter. The cases under quarantine are of a mild type, and there have been no bad exposures in West Duluth. The contagious disease situation, on the whole, is better than in any other district of the city of similar size, and West Duluth people are gratified over the showing.

LUMBER YARDS SCORCHED.

Fire Breaks Out at Red Cliff Lumber Company's Property.

Fire broke out in the yards of the Red Cliff Lumber company, at Forty-second avenue west, early this morning, and for a time the 15,000,000 feet of lumber stored there was threatened.

The origin of the fire is unknown. It started in the southwest corner of the yard. Fortunately the wind was from the northeast, and the fire had to work directly against the wind. In spite of this fact, it made rapid headway.

A general alarm was turned in, and all of the departments in the city, with the exception of Lakeside, responded. The engines surrounded the blaze and checked its progress, not before some 200,000 feet of lumber had been consumed, however.

It was believed that the fire started from sparks from a switch engine, but it was later learned that there had been no engine in the yards this morning. It was then suspected that a lighted cigar might have started the blaze.

BRINGS WILSON FROM DETROIT

Chief Deputy Stephen Pierce of Sheriff Bates' office returned this morning from Detroit with John W. Wilson, a Duluth young man, who was arrested in the Michigan city on information furnished by the Duluth authorities. He was arraigned in municipal curt this morning on a charge of grand larceny in the second degree. His hearing was set for next Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, and bail fixed at $250.

Wilson is charged with swindling Thomas P. Bradley, secretary and manager of the Duluth Log company, out of $50. It is alleged that Wilson represented to Bradley that he needed $50 to join his employer, Erick Anderson at Winnipeg. He gave a sight draft for the amount and Mr. Bradley furnished him with the money. The representations are alleged to be false, as Wilson is said to have started East immediately.

WILL ADVANCE PRICE OF STOCK

New Road to Twin Cities Praised by Minneapolis Paper.

Announcement is made by the Western Surety & Adjustment company that on Saturday, April 11, the cost of the stock of the Twin City & Lake Superior Railway company will be advanced from $44 to $50 per share. In a recent issue the Minneapolis Journal, which made a thorough investigation of the project and had an expert go through the boks of the new company, published an editorial strongly commending the proposition as a wisely conceived project, that it is logically laid out and that the affairs have been economically administered in the interests of the individual investors. The company promises the shortest route between Duluth and the Twin Cities, with an electrically equipped road that will carry passengers and freight at a cost far below that of the steam power roads. It is claimed that the road can be operated at a great profit to the people investing in it.

NINETY DAYS FOR STEALING SACK

Because he thought that his only means of redress for two sacks stolen from him on the bowery, was stealing some other person's wardrobe, Dennis O'Connor will spend the next three months in the county jail.

Lawrence Leshak, an old man, left his sack in a saloon on West Superior street near Fifth avenue yesterday afternoon. He had gone but a few minutes, when O'Connor entered the place, picked up the sack and walked out. The case was reported and O'Connor was soon captured and the sack recovered.

O'Connor didn't try to excuse his theft this morning. He said he had two sacks stolen on him this winter and he saw a chance to get away with that of the old man and took it. In imposing the court limit of $100 fine or ninety days imprisonment in the county jail, Judge Cutting said that petty thieveries must be stopped by heavy sentences, as they are becoming all too frequent. The goods O'Connor secured weren't worth much, as far as intrinsic value, but the lesson will probably teach him to follow the blazes along the sraight and narrow in the future.

JOHNSON BOOM STIRS ILLINOIS

Chicago, April 4.—Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota is preparing to invade Illinois in the interests of his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination, an announcement that caused much unrest among the Bryan committee when it met at the Briggs house to formulate plans to organize Cook county.

Headquarters for the Minnesota executive were opened at the Grand Pacific hotel during the day, and the news was given out that Governor Johnson will be in Chicago for a few hours Monday morning, at which time he is expected to confer with several of the local leaders. From Chicago Johnson will proceed into the South, where his friends assert he has much strength.

On his return from Louisville, Governor Johnson will spend April 14 in Chicago, where he will be guest of honor at a luncheon and reception at the Press club. Oddly enough this is the date set for the return of John P. Hopkins from Europe. Pessimists among the Bryan men saw in this fact more than a mere coincidence, and the prospects increased of a bitter fight between the element in control of the state organization and the men who are not in control.

Hopkins has always been the political Siamese twin of Roger C. Sullivan. Sullivan has repeatedly said that Illinois will give a solid delegation to Bryan, but in case Hopkins comes home and lines up with Johnson, all the talk of harmony will vanish, and the Bryan men will set forth to vanquish Sullivan.

The Johnson headquarters at the Grand Pacific hotel are in charge of Frederick B. Lynch, treasurer of the Minnesota state Democratic committee, with Theodore M. Knappen as assistant manager. Mr. Lynch, on throwing the doors open, announced that the campaign in Illinois was to be one of publicity and education only; that it is for the purpose of letting the Democrats know of Johnson's availability, and that it is not his intention to start any movement toward building up a political organization. He said that half of the national delegates probably will go to Denver uninstructed, and that the headquarters have been established with a view of determining public sentiment and of showing that "in Johnson we have a man who can win."

EACH GIVEN SIXTY DAYS.

By consenting to plead guilty to petit larceny, to which the charges of grand larceny and receiving stolen property were modified by County Attorney John Norton, George Patterson and Joe Lyons, both colored, escaped appearing before the grand jury and drew sentences of sixty days each in the county jail in the municipal court this morning.

Patterson was charged with taking a coat, owned by William Massingill, from the Jefferson club, 22 West First street, last Saturday night, and turning it over to Lyons. The men were arraigned early in the week and demanded an examination, which was set for this morning. During the examination it developed that the men had taken the coat and the county attorney consented to modify the charge and allow them to plead guilty to petit larceny. The coat was valued at $40, and was recovered.

BIG WAGERS MADE.

At least $5,000 was collected on the result of the Gotch-Hackenschmidt match last night in Duluth. One well known man in the city sent out several agents collecting wagers at odds of 10 to 6 that the Russian lion would win. He is said to have cashed in three figures today.

Several other admirers of the Iowa farmer cashed substantial bets on his chances against the pride of European mat artists. In all, it is a conservative estimate to say that over $5,000 was cashed on the victory of the Iowa farmer last night.

LABOR

STRIKE IS AT AN END

Journeymen Barbers and the Bosses Arrive at an Agreement.

Call for Annual Meeting of State Federation is Issued.

The barber strike is at an end.

The boss barbers and their men held a conference in the Torrey building, last evening, and arrived at an agreement that proved satisfactory to both. Only eight of the forty odd shops in the city were affected by the trouble up to last night, but there was some danger of the strike spreading.

The strike lasted a little less than two days. The bosses in the places where the men walked out insisted on their men beginning work at 7 o'clock in the morning and working until 7 o'clock in the evening, except on Saturdays, when the closing hour was to be 11 o'clock at night. The journeymen have been going to work at 7:30 a. m., and refused to change their methods.

The shops will be open at 7 o'clock every morning, but the hours are so arranged that the men will not have to work any longer than formerly. In some shops they will be allowed to report for duty at 7:30 a. m., and in others they will go to work at 7 o'clock, but will be allowed an extra half hour off later in the day. All feeling of unfriendliness has been wiped out, and both sides appear to be satisfied with results.

* * *

President George B. Howley and Secretary-Treasurer W. E. McEwen of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor, this week issued the call for the twenty-sixth convention of that organization, to be held at Winona, opening June 8, and the call is now being mailed from Mr. McEwen's office.

The call is issued to all state craft organizations, city central bodies, building trades councils, allied trades councils, local trades unions, federal labor unions, union label leagues and kindred labor organizations, and gives in detail a number of facts bearing on the necessity of each union sending its full quota of delegates.

There is no specified time for the convention to come to a close. It will run along from day to day until all the business has been transacted. Each trades assembly, building trades council, union label league, etc., will be entitled to five delegates. Local unions paying into the federation treasury a per capita tax will be entitled to one delegate for every twenty-five members or major fraction thereof, but no organization will be entitled to a greater number than five delegates.

Labor organizations that have seceded from national and international bodies will not be allowed representation or even recognition. The revenue of the federation is derived from an affiliation fee of $1, payable on entrance, and a per capita tax of 2 cents a month for each member of the organization affiliated, the per capita to be paid at the beginning of each quarter, at the call of the secretary. The dues of the central labor bodies are $1 a delegate.

Labor leaders say the past year has demonstrated that the State Federation of Labor is a most useful factor in the growth and development of the labor movement in Minnesota. Were there no central body, it is claimed, the movement would scarcely extend beyond the limits of the three large cities of the state.

The call says the treatment of labor measures by the state legislature in the past has clearly established the need of a greater vigilance on the part of organized labor. An educational campaign should be prosecuted with energy in the rural districts of the state, so that the agricultural classes will recognize the justness of labor's position, says the call.

* * *

The lockout in the building trades showed no new developments this week. George B. Howley, president of the State Federation of Labor, who has been superintending labor's side of the controversy since the trouble first began, has left Duluth to take up federation work in other parts of the state. The supervision of the local campaign against the open shop is left in capable hands. Seven hundred union men are still drawing strike benefits. Considerably less than half the membership of the membership in the building trades is now working. The largest percentage employed is in the painters' union, where about 70 per cent of the members, it is claimed, are working along union lines.

* * *

Matt Comerford of New York, general president of the International Union of Steam Engineers, who arrived in the city last Wednesday, remained in the city only two days. He is on his way to the coast, and while traveling west he will stop at numerous towns between here and the coast. He says business with his union is not very lively just now, owing to a general slackness in all lines of industry. He looks for rather a dull season all around.

* * *

Woodsmen continue to arrive in the city by every train. Most of them are fairly well supplied with money, and will be able to get along very nicely until the spring work is on in earnest, if they only will take the precaution not to throw their cash around with the lavish hand usually characteristic of the lumberjack.

KEEP Well This Spring

And avoid languor and weakness by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Would you like to avoid the tired, draggy feelings of spring?

Would you like to keep up your appetite and powers of digestion?

Would you like to fortify the system against the disease germs which lurk everywhere in the spring time?

You can fulfill these desires by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

It is well not to wait until you are run down and miserable before beginning this treatment.

The blood is sure to be weak and watery in the spring, after the artificial indoor life, and what Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills do is to increase the red corpuscles in the blood and thereby make it rich, red, nourishing and life-sustaining.

Keep well and happy this spring and avoid headaches and indigestion by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. So effective is the treatment in forming new rich blood and invigorating the nervous system that you are bound to be benefited by its use. 50 cts. a box at all dealers or Dr. A. W. CONSOLIDATE TELEGRAPH

Offices is Plan of Two Railroads at Brainerd.

Brainerd, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—The telegraph offices of the Northern Pacific and Minnesota & International railroads in this city, will be consolidated about April 10, according to reports current among railroad men here. The plan, it is said, comprises the consolidation of the offices, the telegraphing of the Northern Pacific to be done by the Minnesota & International operators. There will be a chief dispatcher, George Warren, and three trick men, E. L. Orth, W. D. Mock and L. C. Carleton. There will be a day operator to handle the business telegraphing of the two roads. The men at present employed in the Northern Pacific office here will be transferred elsewhere. The operator at the Northern Pacific shops here will also be retained.

DRUNKEN MAN KILLED.

Bena, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Stumbling along the track, considerably the worse for liquor, Frank Taft, a lumberjack, did not see the approaching westbound passenger train, near here, yesterday, nor did he head the whistle. The engineer was unable to stop the train and Taft was struck and hurled to his death, his body being more or less mangled.

SHOULD BE A PURPOSE

Imprisonment of Convicts Should Have Object in View.

Frank L. Randall Talks on the Reformatory Idea.

"All imprisonment should be with a purpose," said Frank L. Randall, general superintendent of the reformatory at St. Cloud, who is in the city today, in speaking of the merits and shortcomings of the reformatory system.

"There was a time when men were simply locked up in unsanitary surroundings, and public sentiment countenanced the abuse of criminals and convicts. If they withstood tuberculosis and other diseases, they were finally let loose again to prey upon society.

"The reformatory idea is this: There should, first of all, of course, be a just reason for imprisonment, and then, that imprisonment should be with a purpose—the purpose of reforming the prisoner. There should be men who are able to judge when a man is fit to have his liberty. When the prisoner is fit to have his liberty, he should have it at once, and without delay. Just as long as he shows that he will be a menace to society, he should be kept confined, and should never get his liberty until he ceases to be such a menace. The men who pass upon his case should be in possession of all of the facts of his case, and the story of his life. They should be in a position to act intelligently. That is the reformatory idea. It is hated and feared by criminals, but is liked by convicts—you notice I made a distinction between criminals and convicts—who regret their misstep and want to reform.

"Baseless claims are made by both sides. The most ardent supporters of the reformatory idea make claims for it which cannot be substantiated, and on the other hand the most bitter opponents make groundless attacks upon it. It is not fair, however, to attack a system for individual cases where it has failed to get results.

Convicts are not a class of men by themselves. They are much like other men, in most instances, although, perhaps, a little lower in the scale of culture, and a little less susceptible to the moral influences.

Chamberlain's Has the Preference.

Mr. Fred. C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference." For sale by all druggists.

WATSON S. MOORE GIVEN APPLAUSE

In Methodist Conference When He Criticized Chancellor Day.

Little Falls, Minn., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—There was much applause among the Methodist clergymen at the Brainerd district convention Thursday evening, when Alderman Watson S. Moore of Duluth criticised Chancellor Day of Syracuse university for his criticism of President Roosevelt. Alderman Moore was speaking on "Christian Citizenship." There was a large crowd present in the Methodist church, and many men in the audience.

Mr. Moore said that never before had such honesty been manifested in business, that the people had been educated on moral lines by the clergymen. "Keep your eye on the city hall," was a saying which was greatly applauded.

Mr. Moore said the id was on at Duluth to stay and that both the mayor and the council would help to keep it on good and tight.

The Rev. S. P. Long, in speaking of Wason Moore, said that he was one of the best business men in Duluth and ought to be honored by the voters of Minnesota.

Rev. S. P. Long said there never were more Methodists anywhere in Minneapolis that at present, and that Methodism made more converts to Christianity in its 100 years of existence than did all Christendom in its first 300 years. There was a Methodist in every twelve and a half persons in the United States. He prophesied a great spiritual awakening in the next few years.

Rev. C. W. Lawson said there were more Methodists in America now than there were people in England when Wesley began to preach. There were 30,000,000 English-speaking Methodists in the world and 6,500,000 in America.

Rev. J. T. Brabner Smith spoke of Asbury Deaconess hospital at Minneapolis, valued at $125,000, with fifteen deaconesses and thirty-three nurses.

There was much interest manifested when Rev. J. T. B. Smith spoke of the cure of the soul as a cure for the body. There was much in Christian Science to be accepted and used by Methodists.

A WOMAN'S APPEAL

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these tortures. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood, and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address Mrs. M. Summers, Box R, South Bend, Ind.

LITTLE TIM

By Ernest Henry Goering, Aged 14 Years.

"Papers! Anybody want a paper, only 2 cents?" The questioner was a small newsboy about 11 years old. His name was Jim, and though his feet were bare and his clothes ragged and dirty, he had a bright, nappy face. He went along selling his papers until he met another newsboy. The other newsboy asked "How much yer makin', Jim?" The prompt reply was "Forty cents." The other newsboy passed on without saying anything more, and Jim rounded a corner and went his way selling papers.

As he passed a closed store he was attracted by a flame in the rear of the building. He stood a moment and looked at it. He then ran to the nearest fire alarm box, rang in the alarm and returned to the building. A crowd had gathered and a small baby sat looking out of the window on the third floor. There was no ladder near and Jim thought he could rescue her. Up the fire escape he went and soon came down with the baby in his arms.

The crowd cheered and one old gentleman passed his hat around. The crowd was large and nearly everybody put something in the hat. The money was given to Jim and when he counted it he found it to be $7.35. He pocketed the money, ran home to his mother and after telling her the whole story handed her the money. He was certainly in luck that day.

Jim sold many papers that day; because he had such a bright happy face most everybody bought a paper from him. After he had sold his papers he went home to his mother, who lived in an old rickety house in an alley. She was a washer woman and washed for a rich lady by the name of Jenkins. She made very little money, and what she did make was hardly enough to keep her alive. This was why Jim was obliged to sell papers. He made about 30 cents a day and that helped quite a bit.

At the fire Jim was not seen by the mother and father of the child, whose life he had saved. The next day while Jim's mother was washing some clothes she heard a knock at the front door. She went to the door and found that a man and woman both richly dressed, were the callers. She told them to step inside, which they did. Just as they were about seated Jim came running in with the news that he had made a quarter by carrying a grip to the station for a rich man. When he saw the people sitting there he did not say any more, and was just about to pass out again when the rich woman called him. It may be mentioned here that the rich man was the owner of a dry goods store and his name was Stone. When the woman called him he came and stood beside her. "So you are the one that saved my baby, are you not?"

"Yes, ma'am, I got her down, but dat's nothin'."

"Oh, yes it is something," she cried, and caught the boy up and kissed him.

She let him go and the man who had been silent, now spoke.

"How old are you, son?"

"Goin' on 12, forty soon."

"Would you like to go to school?"

"Sure, I'd like dat, lots."

"Then you shall have your wish, for you and your mother can live with us."

"Oh, how happy we shall be," exclaimed the widow, her eyes brightening.

"Tomorrow a wagon will stop at your house and you can put anything in it you want to take along."

The next day was a very busy one, for they were moving. Jim went to school the following day and brought home many books that evening. He had been put in the fourth grade.

Jim and his mother lived happily for about a month, when she fell very sick. The next day she died and Jim felt very sorry. He went into an alley and cried himself to sleep. It was very cold, and as he slept he dreamed these few words, which he had read in an old book.

"How strange it seems with so much gone
Of life and love, to still live on."

But this was his last dream and as he lay in the cold alley he froze to death. As he was a christian and always good to everybody his soul floated from the earth below to heaven. He was found by a newsboy and the news was carried to Jim's guardian. They felt very badly.

The funeral took place the next day and Jim and his mother were laid to rest side by side, never to be disturbed again.

O'DEA HAS GOOD SQUAD

"Artie" Has Signed Some Promising Youngsters for Brandon.

Claims He Will be in Race for the Pennant.

SOME OF ARTIE O'DEA'S MEN.

Catchers — Mulcrone, Kusta, Mills.
Pitchers — Nelson, Bzoskie, Smith, Fay, McLean, Tredway.
First base—O'Dea.
Second base—Livingston.
Third base—Cook.
Shortstop—Becker, Summers.
Outfield — Menelce. McGraw, Buckman.

Artie O'Dea goes to Minneapolis today, and tomorrow he will try out a squad of ball players, who are candidates for his Brandon team in the Northern league. While O'Dea has been in Duluth, he hasn't been idle. Almost every day one or two men were added to his staff and now he has a squad large enough to make about three teams.

"Pretty fair team right there," he remarked in reference to the above list, "but that isn't half of them. Wait until you see me coming along here about the first of May after having yanked the weeds out of the Brandon garden. I'll have about as nice a little crowd of ball players as anyone ever saw in the Northern league. Let me tell you, Brandon doesn't take any half nelson and hammerlock on last place and get a fall for the season. Brandon is right in the running at every stage of the game. I'm not claiming any pennants, but I'm as full of hope as a lumberjack with Bowery booze four hours after landing from a long season in the woods."

The Pitchers.

O'Dea is paying special attention to his pitching staff. He has picked up some young phenoms, who have made good in the bushes, and he expects to develop them into real big league material. Young Nelson hails from Glen Ulen, Minn., and is built along Rube Waddell lines. A big, raw-boned son of the soil, he is said to have rocket speed and a bewildering array of curves. He built up the bad lands last year while performing with the Independents of North Dakota, and O'Dea thinks transplanting him to Manitoba will not hurt him any.

Bzoskie is another young Minnesota marvel. He is a railroad man from Waseca, Minn., and has been playing baseball since he could creep. Pulling on brake handles and juggling coupling pins has strengthened his arms and he's a human catapult, according to the reports O'Dea has received. He has never tried to break into organized ball, but has been winning games for his division team for several years and is ripe for something faster.

Smith comes from Mason City, Iowa, and has a good semi-professional record in that district. Fay is a southpaw from the Milwaukee corner lots and he has been highly recommended.

O'Dea is staking a lot on his Toronto battery, McLean and Mills. That he has faith in them is shown by his willingness to pay transportation from Toronto to Burlington, Iowa, where they are to report. McLean is a southpaw with a great record and he works nicely with Mills, who is also counted upon to make good.

Our own Wix Tredway has signed a Brandon contract and, if O'Dea can get him working right, he'll burn things up once more. Wix has about as showy speed as any man, who performed in the league last year, but his control is very bad at times. When he's right, nothing can touch him, and if Artie can bring on the periods of success often enough, Wix will be worth keeping.

Besides Mills, O'Dea has Mulcrone and Kusta for the backstop work. Mulcrone is a Duluth man, late of the St. Paul lots, where he played with semi-professional teams. He has a good record behind the bat and in the outfield. Kusta comes from the Milwaukee semi-pros and also plays behind the bat and in the gardens.

O'Dea and Livingston practically have their places spiked down, if Levy gets in his usual stick-work. He fielded better last year than he ever did in his life, despite the fact that it's a few years since he broke into baseball. Cook comes from Rockford, Ill., for the third base job, and Booker is from Winsted, Minn.

The securing of Frank Summers from the South Bend team of the Central league is still problematical. Summers has heard nothing from them, so O'Dea has taken up the case and asked for a lease of the Duluth boy. He expects to hear from South Bend in a day or two. O'Dea thinks he can make an infielder of Summers, and Duluth friends of the boy would like to see him with Brandon. If his fault of running over the ball can be corrected, he will make a great infielder. He is brimming over with speed. He's too fast for the outfield and sometimes his speed works to a disadvantage when playing between the bases.

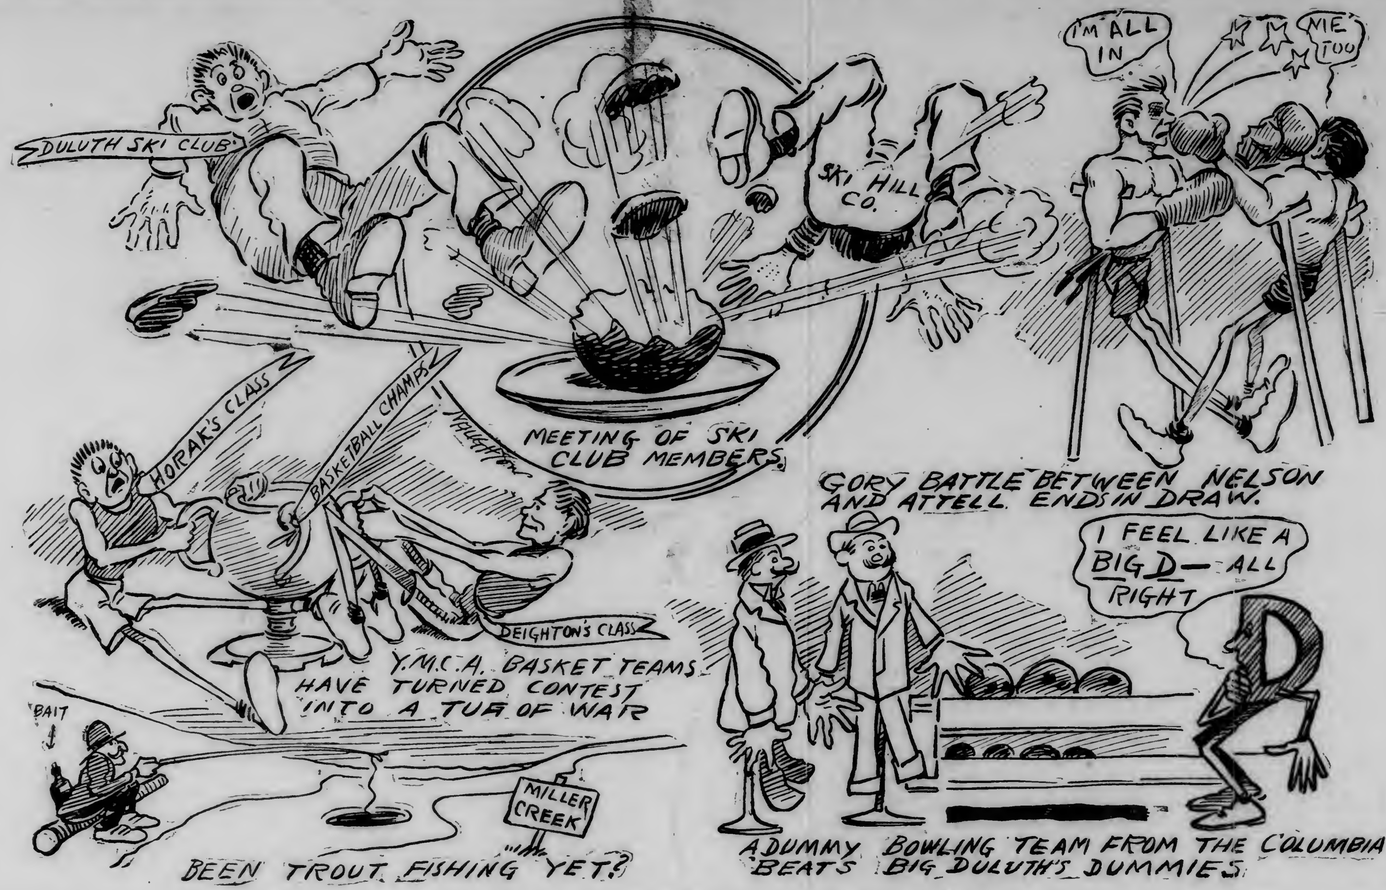

For the outfield, Menelce, McGraw and the catchers are available. Menelce and McGraw are both Duluth boys, who are expected to clinch their places. Besides the men named, Artie has a score of others on the string. He has a scout in Chicago sizing up the men he has signed from the prairie leagues there, and another man is in Minneapolis, where he will also do some scouting himself. He expects to have some men handed down from higher class organizations and when he breaks away from Iowa for the trip to Brandon will have the pick of a fine gathering of material.

Mr. S. L. Bowen of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Cure. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Cure works wonders where others are total failures. All druggists.

BROCK IS SURPRISE.

Cleveland Boy Fights George Memsie Even at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, April 4.—George Mensic (Jimmy Burns) and Phil Brock of Cleveland fought ten rounds before the Pacific Athletic club last night. The result was a surprise, Brock making a showing that would at least have entitled him to a draw if a decision had been rendered. In point of cleverness, Brock showed to the best advantage.

"RUSSIAN LION" TAMED, GOTCH IS THE CHAMPION

Gotch's Defensive Play Worries Foreigner for Two Hours.

FRANK GOTCH,
New World's Champion Wrestler.

Dexter Pavilion, Chicago, April 3.—George Hackenschmidt quit in his match with Frank Gotch for the catch-as-catch-can wrestling championship of the world last night, giving the title to the Iowa man by default. Referee Smith at once declared Gotch the winner.

The end came so unexpectedly that the great crowd of 8,000 which witnessed the contest could scarcely comprehend what had happened.

Not until the referee had announced that Hackenschmidt had surrendered the championship of the world to Frank Gotch did the full significance of the event strike home.

Then the excited crowd swarmed into the ring, surging about Gotch until the police came to his rescue and drove the crowd back through the ropes.

Great Defensive Work.

The match was in some respects sensational, but it served mainly to show that Gotch has a defensive system which no one can break down.

For an hour and forty-five minutes he eluded every attempt of the Russian Lion to fasten a grip on him. Gotch side-stepped, roughed his man's features with his knuckles, butted him under the chin and generally worried Hackenschmidt until the foreigner was totally at a loss how to proceed.

But when, in the clinch that finally came, Gotch slammed his opponent to the mat and came within an ace of securing a firm toe hold, following this up by lifting Hackenschmidt clear of the mat and slamming him on his shoulders with terrific force, the European exponent was heartbroken.

"Hack" Quits.

The lines slowly deepened on his face, the hoots and gibes of the crowd hurt his feelings, and after considering the matter for a few seconds, he decided that it was time to quit. Few of the spectators but were willing to give Gotch the palm. The Iowa farmer was in the better condition and was quicker and trickier and showed a far better knowledge of the game.

Hackenschmidt refused to explain his action to W. W. Wittig, promoter of the bout, simply shaking his head and refusing to reply when asked why he had not surrendered merely the first fall and taken another chance with Gotch. His handlers were at a loss to account for Hackenschmidt's actions.

Great Crowd Present.

Seldom has a sporting event of similar character aroused so much interest in Chicago and the surrounding cities in this and other states as did the big wrestling match last night. All day visitors were arriving from outside points. More than a score came from Gotch's home, Humbolt, Iowa, almost 200 came from Kansas City and a big delegation from Milwaukee, while St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Indianapolis, Detroit, St. Louis, Cincinnati, and scores of smaller towns were represented. Added to these were thousands of Chicagoans.

The crowd began arriving early. Half an hour before the doors were opened, there were lines a block long waiting before the entrance to the building. By the time the first preliminary bout was begun, the big building was nearly half full and streams of spectators gave no indication of diminishing.

The building was admirably adopted for the event. Seats had been provided for 10,000 spectators, and in addition there was general admision room for 2,000 more. The structure is 200 feet wide and 310 long, the arena in the center of which the ring was pitched, being 240 feet long and 109 feet wide. Back of this and running away around the building were tiers of seats, which extended back in the big building.

Spectators Entertained.

A battery of twelve arc lights and fifty vapor lamps illuminated the stage. W. W. Wittig, who promoted the bout and brought Hackenschmidt from Europe, had made arrangements for entertaining the crowds before the match begun. A band of fifty pieces played popular songs and marches and kept the waiting thousands in good humor. The first preliminary was scheduled for 8:30 o'clock, but it was fifteen minutes late in starting. Tommy Rooney and Young Jenkins were the contestants, the weight being 118 pounds. Rooney won. Time 8:45.

In the second preliminary Young Billitty downed Ernest Lindberg in 14:32. The men weighed 133 pounds.

Begins With Toe Hold.

The ascending scale of the bouts brought Ted Tonneman and Dick Torrenson together in the third at 145 pounds. Torrenson won with a toe hold. Time, 12:41. Americus, a Baltimore wrestler, made short work of Harry Laundenback of Chicago. He downed the local heavyweight in 1:45 with a bar lock and crotch hold.

The fifth preliminary brought Mort Henderson and William Dematral together. Dematral won a hard bout in 8:10.

In the semi-final, Stegsmuller, Hackenschmidt's wrestling partner, agreed to throw Ordeman of Minneapolis in ten minutes. To the delight of the crowd, Ordeman took the offensive. He slammed the burly German to the mat and for seven minutes gave Stegsmuller no chance to get a hold. The last three minutes Ordeman was on the defensive, but managed to wring out of all holds and easily stayed the limit. He was roundly cheered.

Gotch Is Nervous.

Hackenschmidt entered the ring at 10:14 p. m. Gotch followed three minutes later. Two handlers accompanied the Russian and a half a dozen helped Gotch into the ring. W. W. Wittig was introduced and given applause. The principals and referee, Edward W. Smith, were photographed in a half a dozen poses. Then the men were called for final instructions. Time was called at 10:28.

Hackenschmidt crouched and they sparred, with Gotch circling around. This jockeying continued three minutes, then Hackenschmidt clinched, but they broke again. Gotch seemed nervous, but the champion was cool. After ten minutes of tugging, Gotch started to rough it and Hackenschmidt kept his temper with difficulty.

Hackenschmidt finally tried for a body grip, but could not reach Gotch. The Russian complained to the referee about Gotch's butting. He missed a leg hold next. Half an hour of hauling and sparring failed to satisfy the crowd. Fifty minutes after the bout started, Hackenschmidt slipped Gotch to the mat. The latter bounded to his feet and the pulling and hauling continued. An old cut under Hackenschmidt's left eye was opened and he bled profusely.

"Huck" Asks for Draw.

Both missed leg and body holds, Gotch taking the offensive for the first time. One hour after the start nothing approaching a hold had been gained by either man. Fifteen minutes more of the tiresome work followed. Then Hackenschmidt suddenly attacked with fury. But Gotch wriggled away and the shoulder-to-shoulder tactics began again.

Gotch's defensive work puzzled Hackenschmidt completely. After an hour and three-quarters of fruitless attempts to get a hold, he straightened up and looked at his opponent with disgust written in every feature.

"Come on and wrestle," said Gotch.

The crowd cheered the American. At 12:45 Hackenschmidt asked the referee to call it a draw, but Smith told them to continue.

They wrestled all over the ring, then went down with Gotch on top. Hackenschmidt slipped from a hold. Hackenschmidt kept his feet well away from Gotch's fingers. Hackenschmidt struggled free, but Gotch caught him for a flying fall which he could not hold. They were near the edge of the mat, Gotch with a firm grip on Hackenschmidt's leg and tugging desperately, when the Russian cried enough. "I'll give you the match," he said, after two hours of unavailing tugging and desperate scrambling.

Perhaps the Tom McCune supporters in Duluth, who have been counting on the Detroit veteran crossing one over on Eddie McGoorty without any appreciable danger to himself in their coming bout on the range had better haul in a few yards of their enthusiasm and get the carburettors in their think-tanks in working order. There's a tiny speck of light far in the distance and it's growing.

Much of the McCune dope is based on the supposition that the Oshkosh child doesn't possess that ever-necessary ability to slip over a dreamland tablet. Eddie is what is known as a fancy boxer. He steps around nicely, blocks and leads in James J. Corbett style, but it was never believed that he couldn't cure insomnia. The illusion blew up the other night like a grand duke under a Nihilist bomb. Eddie handed one over to one George Shrosbee of Chicago in less than two minutes at Oshkosh, and the sports of the Wisconsin burg are losing their heads over the McGoorty youth.

Shrosbee has returned to Chicago and the stuff he hands out is painful. He is probably laying it on in extenuation of his own pitiful grasp at fame, but it sure must tickle rib No. 5 in the anatomy of every citizen of McGoorty's own bailiwick. Here's some of it:

"I have never before seen a man, who could move faster, hit harder, or take advantage of an opening better. To me, at least, the boy looked more promising by far than Bill Papke did two years ago. We sparred for a moment exchanging lefts. I missed a short right, and he was inside the unprotected defense like a flash. I never saw Abe Attell move more quickly than this fellow."

To Shroshee, McGoorty must have looked like a 5,000-head stampede to a lone cow puncher, but there's something to his stuff all the same. He didn't have long to size Eddie up, but the stories of the fight indicate that the Oshkosh youth is coming right along. To put anybody out in less than two minutes is no small feat and there's nothing to show that Shroshee wasn't in condition and doesn't know something of the game. Thomas Shinoski McCune was a veteran around Detroit ten years ago. He isn't as young as he once was and McGoorty is just stepping off the first rounds. They've always given it to McGoorty around here on the boxing part of it, but he wasn't credited with the wallop. He's got that and, unless the venerable Tom can cut over with his wicked right, that has had many men low, the Oshkosh boy is due to start something.

Artie O'Dea is a pretty wise boy, when it comes to sizing up young ball players. He hasn't been working around in small leagues for years, watching youngsters come and go, up and down, without knowing something of what one may expect from them. He's in a better position to see the boys than the ordinary big leaguer, who sees them only at the end of their career in the bushes, after they have broken into their stride.

"We only have a short season here and can't experiment very much, so there's an element of luck in developing young players," said O'Dea during a fanning bee in Al Kuehnow's office yesterday afternoon. "There's a certain stage when every youngster is going to find himself. He's either going back to the stumps to play for meal ticket salaries all his life or follow a plow, or he's going to spurt right up the big leagues. I've seen it happen.

"The manager who gets a boy at the right stage is lucky. Here's a young fellow who has everything that makes a ball player. He's got the physique, the wing and the general knowledge of baseball. Perhaps he lacks the head, or is over anxious. Some fine day he's going to break right or wrong. If he breaks right the manager in a league like the Northern is going to get more than his money's worth out of him, and pass him along a step higher the next season. They may criticise us for picking kids out of the cow-paths, but we're taking long chances on developing stars, and the game's worth the candle."

Tommy Burns is getting his periodical round of angle clangs. Every time the world's champion lets out a word, typewriters begin to click, and on most of them the cylinders melt with the scorching quality of the phraseology. Tommy sure is a popular champion.

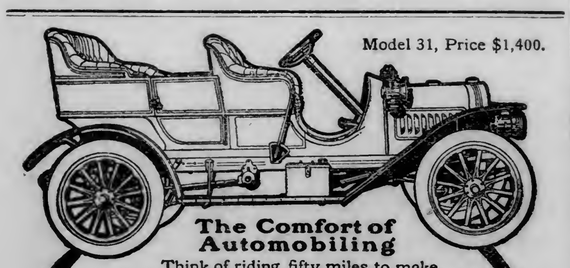

The latest goad to hostile sporting editors is Burns' demand that he be given $30,000 for a fight with Jack Johnson, win, lose or draw. The demand is branded unreasonable, unsportsmanlike and the limit of egotism. Tommy is accused of hedging and every other crime known to pugilism. Johnson is held up as the persecuted black, who is the real champion of the world, but cannot assert his right.

Viewed in a sane light, Burns' demand is no more than a following of precedent. When Fitzsimmons fought Jeffries he received 75 per cent of the receipts, and he lost. Nelson demanded 50 per cent of the money for his fight with Gans at Goldfield and he got it. In other big matches the champion dictated the terms. Burns is coming farther, in view of the fact that he is the only heavyweight champion who consented to meet a negro for the title. Johnson has been howling that he would meet Burns on any terms. Tommy has named his price, and it's now up to Li'l Arthuh to make good.

The Duluth White Sox will be the traveling kids this year. They'll be right on the hop all the time and Fargo will not be far behind. According to the schedule, the Sox will get over 4,150 miles of ground during the season's play. Fargo will buy tickets for 3,938 miles and Brandon for 4,247 miles. Winnipeg travels but 3,111 miles. Which is traveling some for a Class C circuit near the North pole.

TO REPORT APRIL 18

Change Made in Date of Opening Duluth's Training Trip.

Eight Pitchers Will Report and Four Will be Carried.

The candidates for places on the Duluth Northern league team will probably be asked to report one week earlier than was originally intended, bringing the date for the gathering at Aurora, Ill., to April 18. Rockford, the new team in the Wisconsin-Illinois league, wants dates with Duluth, April 19, 20 and 21, and they will probably be taken up. Rockford is baseball crazy and, as the games would be the first of the preliminary training season at Rockford, there would be some money in it for Duluth and give the Sox a good start for the training season.

Instead of returning to Aurora after starting from there, the Sox will keep traveling and Morrow will drop men as he goes along. Freeport, Quincy and several other teams in Illinois will be played and a Wisconsin invasion will follow, with La Crosse on the list. Ashland will also be given a view of the Sox and the team will come to Duluth during the first week in May. Local semi-professionals will be played at Athletic park before the trip to Brandon, where the season will open. Negotiations are also on for a series with Tom Brady's Hibbing champions.

The pitchers to be reported at Aurora have practically been decided upon. They are Walter Kerr, Guy Manley, Frank de Long, Rube Isaacs, Walter Phoenix, George Krick and Jim Haney. Phoenix is a new acquisition, turned over to Duluth by Ducky Holmes of the Sioux City club of the Western league. Holmes recommends him highly to Duluth, saying that he is not yet ripe for the Western league, but a year in the Northern will probably bring out ability which will send him higher next season. Four pitchers will be carried.

FIGHTERS AND MONEY

Prize fighters as a rule are poor financiers. Some of the top notchers have made fortunes when in their prime and have also squandered their money like the time honored drunken sailor. Jake Kilrain, who once fought John L. Sullivan for the heavyweight championship, the other day filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court in New York. Although he admitted that he had won $250,000 in purses, theatrical engagements and as boxing instructor, Kilrain's assets were only $67.10. Kilrain stated that there never was a good fighter who saved or invested his money. But there are facts which show that this has not always been the case.

James J. Jeffries, the retired heavyweight champion, is decidedly on velvet. He won a profitable saloon in Los Angeles, also a big alfalfa farm a few miles away, while his wife has money in her own name.

It is said to have been her personal wealth and also her objections that made Jeff retire from the ring. She is evidently the boss of the household, too, for after the big boilermaker received $1,000 recently for refereeing a fight in 'Frisco he started out to paint the town, only to have Mrs. Jeff appear upon the scene and lead him home by the ear. In his own name Jeffries must be worth close to $100,000. Unlike John L. Sullivan he was never much of a spender and seldom showed a desire for a gay life. A few years ago when Sullivan was dead broke he sent a friend to Jeff for $100.

"What does John want a hundred dollars for?" asked the Californian, with a look of surprise.

"I suppose he needs it for living expenses," was the reply.

"Living expenses, eh? Well, you go back and tell Sullivan if he wants to go into business I'll give him the hundred!" growled the husky champion. The message was promptly carried to Sullivan, who was hurt at first, then amused.

"He'll give me a hundred if I want to go into business," said Sullivan in disgust. "Does he think I want to open a peanut stand?" Sullivan never got the century. This and a few other hard knocks to his senses and for the last three years he has not touched liquor in any form. His ambition is to run up his bank roll and then retire on a stock farm, where he can raise fine cattle and horses. He realizes that he cannot go on boxing and acting for many years more, as his weight, 335 pounds, and his past dissipation are beginning to tell on him in his old age.

By the time Tommy Burns, who now poses as the heavyweight champion of the world, comes back from Europe he will probably have nearly $100,000 in his strongbox.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien is another business fighter of the Burns type. He has always considered the commercial end of a match before any other details. O'Brien outside of the ring is a successful real estate operator and is said to have more than $100,000 invested in Philadelphia property alone.

Jimmy Britt also has the real estate bee and owns several houses in San Francisco. He is reported to be worth $75,000 and is still piling up the dollars day by day.

Jim Corbett has been making money on the stage even since he stopped fighting several years ago. Bob Fitzsimmons is reported to have lost much of the money he earned in the prize ring on his theatrical ventures.

Although Tom Sharkey recently swore off his income tax, his saloon alone is valued at $75,000. He also owns real estate.

BANKERS IN FIRST PLACE

Fitwells Lose Three Straight and Drop From Lead.

Only Five Games Between First and Last Teams.

By defeating the Fitwells three straight games last night, the First National Bank team again took the lead in the Duluth City Bowling league by a margin of two games. The Fitwells fell back into a tie with the Oak Halls for second place, with the Columbias only the game to the bad. The Centrals are running neck and neck with the Big Duluths for last position.

The team averages hold up well with the Fitwells leading with 911 and the Columbias holding 910. The Big Duluths, Bankers and Centrals are tied at 906 and the Oak Halls come one point behind.

S. Olsen holds his position at the head of the regular bowlers, with an individual average of 195. Ferguson and McLean are his nearest opponents with 188. Gordon is really at the head this week, but he has rolled but three games.

SHORT BASEBALL NOTES

If all the bricks in town were anchored, somebody might be led to remark that the Duluth White Sox will go "to Morrow."

• • •

"Bill" McNeil's selection as manager of the Fargo team makes a big hit with the Duluth fans. He has the ability to get better ball players for less money than any manager known to the Northern league, and he's popular all over the circuit.

• • •

Bushelman, the sliver who threw for Winnipeg last year, is with Toledo this season and figured in a victory over the Chicago White Sox in the South this week. He looms up like a regular for Armour's crew.

• • •

Brookins, the Houghton infielder, who has failed to convince a good many people that he is not a negro, refused to accept Manager Watkins' terms and the Indianapolis magnate has passed him up. Watkins' purchase of Brookins caused him considerable "kidding" and he will not get a chance to redeem himself.

• • •

Bill McCormick has reported to Little Rock and is swatting the ball in the ante-season games. Al Cummings is getting a good try-out with Atlanta and is showing up well.

• • •

Artie O'Dea will try out a bunch of Twin City semi-pros at Minneapolis tomorrow. He thinks he will pick off several good men from the corner lots of St. Paul and Minneapolis.

• • •

Sawyer, the big Winnipeg pitcher, who stood second to Terry among the league twirlers last year, looks good to the Des Moines manageinent. His home is in Vermilion, S. D., and he tried out once with the Sioux City club of the Western league, but failed to make it a go.

• • •

Joe Crisp is doing most of the catching in the ante-season games for Kansas City. The former Winnipeg star has the makings of a big leaguer and Cross expects him to stick out the season in the Assomiation.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. All druggists.

BOSTON TERRIERS BECOMING POPULAR AS PETS IN DULUTH; MANY BLOODED SPECIMENS ARE NOW OWNED IN CITY

Michael J. Lanigan, Jr., a Duluth dog fancier, who has just returned from Boston after visiting some of the kennels there, brought with him thre of the finest Boston terriers ever seen in Duluth. He has bred dogs for twenty years, and thinks in Princess Boston, Spider I and Peekabue he has dogs of real class.

The Boston terrier is an offspring of the English bulldog, bred in England. While in America they were bred from the English bull. When first exhibited at Boston they were outclassed, and were later put on as Boston terriers, the name they now bear.

The English bull breeding shows in the short nose, wide head, large eyes, low chest, kinky tail and general appearance, standing higher in the back than in front. They are not fighting dogs, as some people imagine, but children's pets, and quite a number of them are owned in Duluth. The three shown above are but a few of this breed owned here.

THE RULES OF BASEBALL

Few Changes Made by the Rules Committee This Year.

Principal Regulation of the Game Compiled in Simple Form.

With the exception of two new rules enacted by the joint rules committee of the National League and the American League in February, the baseball code remains the same as last year. Both of the changes made this winter are important ones and will be adopted by the Eastern League at its schedule meeting which will probably be held in New York some time next week.

A rule that will prove popular with the spectators is the one which prohibits pitchers from soiling the ball before delivering it to the batter. This habit on the part of the pitchers resulted in delays, but if the intent of the rule is carried out next season all this will be eliminated. Pitchers are prohibited from rubbing the ball on the ground or grass. Some managers claim that is will be a "dead letter," as there is nothing to prevent the pitcher from filling his mit with dirt and remove the gloss from the ball by that method. Whether pitchers will be permitted to evade the rule in this way will depend on the rulings of the umpires.

The other new rule relates to the scoring of sacrifice hits. The amendment to this rule reads as follows: "A sacrifice hit shall also be credited to a batsman, when no one is out, or when but one man is out, when he hits a fly ball that is caught, but results in a run being scored." Heretofore a batter received no credit for scoring a run on a fiyout to the outfield. This will naturally have a tendency to boost batting averages all along the line, as it will not count a time at bat.

When the baseball season is on, many disputes occur between spectators at games, owing to unfamiliarity with the playing rules. Arguments galore are heard over block balls, bunts, fair hits, interferences, scoring of hits, errors, etc. With a view of enlightening the fans a few of the important rules in simplified form, over which the majority of the arguments hinge during the season are presented as compiled by the Newark News:

Rules in Simplified Form.

Official Ball—The official ball must weigh not less than five nor more than five and one-quarter ounces, and measure not less than nine nor more than nine and one-quarter inches in circumference.

The Bat—The bat must be round, not over two and three-quarter inches in diameter in thickest part, nor more than forty-two inches long.

Warming Up—Pitchers, at the beginning of each inning, are allowed to throw five balls to catcher or infielder for "warming up" practice.

Time Allowed Pitchers — If a pitcher occupies more than twenty seconds in delivering the ball to the batter,, the umpire may call a ball for each offense of this nature.

Block Ball—Whenever a person not engaged in the game touches a batted or thrown ball a "block ball" results, and runners shall be privileged to advance around the bases until the ball is thrown to the pitcher standing in his position.

Time Allowed Batters—A batter failing to take his position within one minute after the umpire summons him, will be called out.

Interference—The batter shall be called out if he attempts to hinder the catcher from fielding or throwing the ball.

Fair Hit—A fair hit is a legally batted ball that settles on fair ground in the infield, or that bounds from fair ground to the outfield inside of first base, or third base, or that touches the person of a player or the umpire on fair ground.

Bunt Hit—A bunt hit is a legally batted ball, not swung at by the batter.

Out on a Bunt—The batter is out on a bunt that rolls foul if the attempted bunt is made on the third strike.

Infield Fly—The batter is out on a pop fly to the infield, with first and second, or first, second and third bases occupied, provided the fly is batted before two men were out.

Three Strikes—The batter is out when three strikes are called, and first base is occupied, whether the catcher holds theb all or not, except there be two out at the time.

Umpire's Ruling Final—No appeals can be made from any decision of the umpire on the ground that the official was not correct in his conclusion as to whether a batted ball was fair or foul, a baserunner safe or out, a pitched ball a strike or a ball, or any other play involving accuracy of judgment, and no decision rendered by him shall be reversed except that he be convinced that it is in violation of the rules.

A Base Hit—A base hit is credited to the batter when the ball strikes fair ground outside of the reach of the fielders; when the ball is partially or wholly stopped by a fielder in motion, but such player cannot recover himself in time to field the ball to first base before the batter reaches that base; a base hit is also credited to the batter when he hits the ball with such force that the player cannot handle the ball in time to put out the batter or force out a base runner. In cases of doubt the batter is credited with a hit and the fielder exempted from an error. A base hit is never credited to a batter when a base runner is forced out by the play. Where a base runner is called out by being hit by a batted ball, except by himself, the batter is credited with a hit.

Battery Errors—These are not charged up against pitchers and catchers. They include wild pitches, base on balls, balks, etc., by the pitcher; wild throws by the catcher, in an attempt to prevent a stolen base; passed balls are also classed as battery errors.

Fielding Errors—An error is a misplay which allows a base runner to make one or more bases when perfect play would have insured his being put out.

Balk—A balk is any motion of the pitcher while in position to deliver the ball to the bat without delivering it, or to throw to first base when occupied by a base runner without completing the throw; a balk is also a thrown ball by the pitcher to any base to catch the base runner without stepping toward the base in the act of making the throw.

Dead Ball—A dead ball is a ball delivered to the batter by the pitcher, not struck at by the batter, but hits the batter while he is standing in his position. If, in the opinion of the umpire, the player made a reasonable effort to avoid being hit, the batter is given first base.

Substituting Players—A substitute may take the place of a regular player at any stage of the game, but the player that retires from the game cannot resume playing again in the game.

Coaching—Two coachers are allowed in the game, one near first base line and the other near third base line, to coach the runners only. The coachers are not allowed to incite or try to incite the spectators to demonstrations during a game.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, who was taken into custody following the Union Square bomb-throwing, was discharged Friday. When he was arraigned in police court the police said they had been unable to get any evidence whatever to connect Berkman with the affair.

Ralph D. Cole of Hancock county, Ohio, was renominated congressman of the Eighth district on the forty-eighth ballot at the Republican district congressional district convention Friday.

Local No. 220 of the Western Federation of Miners at Goldfield, Friday by a vote of 90 to 25 declared off the strike inaugurated last fall. The miners will return to work with non-union men, but will ask for the Tonopah scale of wages, which is 50 cents a day less than former wages.

The Democrats in the second assembly district convention of Niagara county, New York, Friday elected delegates to the state convention. A resolution endorsing William J. Bryan for president was tabled. Another which would put the convention on record as opposed to Mr. Bryan was also tabled.

AN AUCTION OF STAMPS INTERESTS COLLECTORS.

New York, April 4.—Stamp collectors during the coming week at the auction sale of a large collection, the property of a well known San Francisco man, at the Collectors club, will have the opportunity of seeing how well stamp prices have held up under the business depression. The dream of every small boy who collects stamps is that some day he may acquire a specimen of the rare 12d black Canada, the rarest British North American stamp, of which less than a score of copies are known, and which dealers catalogue at $400. This is in the collection, with various other rare stamps valued at $100 each, and the mysterious $5 state department U. S. of which nearly two thousand copies were printed but less than fifty are now known.

FARM BOYS ARE BETTER

Jennings Says Country Youth Has the Advantage in Baseball.

Many Tank Towns Put on Map by Great Players.

Little Rock, April 4.—"Give me the boys from the farm for baseball." says Hughie Jennings "Give me the chaps who have been brought up in the open air of the country, who have worked hard all day, have gone to bed early because there was nothing else to do, and who have been brought up on good, wholesome farm grub. As ball players, they'll make the city lads take the back seats every time."

Jennings was commenting on the peculiar fact that most of the great stars of the national game have come from little upheard of country towns. In the ranks of the major leagues there are few great men in the game who have been reared in city life. There are some brilliant exceptions, of course, but the city star is a rarity.

"The boy from the big cities," says Jennings, "might develop if he had a chance, but there are too many other attractions in city life. Out in the little country towns the big strong boy has nothing else to amuse himself with, as a rule. When he gets a day off it is baseball. At night he goes to bed early because there are no theaters, no flashy saloons, no society life. He develops more rapidly physically and becomes a strong man when his city brother is coming along more slowly.

"Say, a boy in the country starts to play ball at the age of 15. He has plenty of places to play He has no other attractions. He has ideal air to breathe and good plain food. He plays far more ball than his city cousin because he has more places, and he is working under better conditions. In five years he is a finished ball player, and ready to try the big leagues.

"The city boy, on the other hand, has many, many side lines to amuse himself with, and as a rule they are not conductive to great strength. He finds fields where he does play are scarce and when he does play he doesn't get the same fresh air. Accordingly he develops more slowly. He is ready to try the league game at the age of 25. He is almost too old to start in."

To back up the view he holds Jennings points to some of the great stars of today. They come from little towns never heard of before, but which since then are as well known to the public as any of the big cities.

Sam Crawford, for one, made the little town of Wahoo, in Nebraska, famous. He was a barber's assistant there as a boy and he played on the town team. Wahoo stands out stronger on the map to the average school boy now than a city five hundred times larger.

Ty Cobb in two short years made Royseton, Ga., a little hamlet in the Southern state, the most talked of small town in the country. Coal Hill, Ark., is a town of 1,000 people and yet Charles Schmidt has made it rank in publicity with some of the big cities. Moosic, Pa., is well known now as the birthplace of Jennings. Following is a list of the other places where Tigers have been developed: Claude Rossman, Philmont, N. Y.; Ira Thomas, Collingsville, Conn.; Bill Donovan, Lawrence, Mass.; Matty McIntyre, Port Richmond, Staten Island, N. Y.; Davy Jones, Tomah, Wis.; Fred Payne, Mexico, N. Y.; Killian, Racine, Wis.; Siever, Wichita, Kan.; Summers, Ladoga, Ind.; Willett, Caldwell, Kan.; Mullin, Toledo; Coughlin, Scranton; Schaefer and O'Leary, Chicago.

It will be seen readily that the small towns of the country furnish the great majority of the stars. Where one star claims a big town as his birthplace ten will tell you they were brought up on the farm.

To build the championship team of the Tigers now in the South, it took playing talent from sixteen states, when the Colts are also included. Suggs comes from South Carolina, Warhop from West Virginia, Killifer and Jones from Michigan, Drack and Maloy from Ohio, Downs from Iowa, Sterzer from Maryland.

They have been brought from every section of the country to be taught the game more fully and to be moulded into a big baseball machine to represent Detroit. Tigertown is no exception. All teams are made up in the same way.

Baseball has brought more hitherto unheard of hamlets into prominence than earthquakes, joke books or scandals.

During a fanning bee around the Tiger gathering place can be heard the twang peculiar to the New Englander, the music of the soft Southern voice, or the drawl of the Westerner.

DUN'S WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

Moderate Improvement in Business Noted at Many Centers.

New York, April 4.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: While the volume of business is still much below normal, modern improvement is contantly noted, although the rate of progress is very different in the leading center of trade. Aside from the idleness at bituminous coal mines, which is not expeteed to be prolonged, April did not bring any serious labor disputes, and many wage earners were enabled to resume work by accepting small reductions in pay.

Sales of pig iron have been made at lower figure than at any time since the decline began, although regular quotations are nominally unchanged. Furnaces that have begun to accumulate stocks, however, make concessions rather than reject offers. Some finishing mills have also sought raw material more freely, and the net result is a better tonnage of pig iron, although it is estimated that little more than 50 per cent of the steel price making capacity is now in operation. Demand is still best for tin plate, with the wire and pipe trades next in point of activity, but the railways do not place much business, although small orders for rails are noted and many contracts for equipment are under consideration. Sharp competition for business in light rails has produced lower prices in that line, but as a rule, the level of quotations for finished steel products remains unaltered.

Textile conditions show further moderate gains, although progress is slow and lower prices are still expected by purchasers in numerous lines. This is the case as to both cotton and woolen goods, the decline in raw material of both industries encouraging the waiting attitute.

The increased interest of jobbers in the footwear market that was noted last week has not been maintained, manufacturers reporting less demand, and it is believed that pressing needs were satisfied. Hides maintain the recent improvement in activity.

MINNESOTA UNIVERSITY

Harter, Schwartz and Potter Won in Pillsbury Oratorical Contest.

Promising Material for Baseball Team and Good Season Expected.

Minnapolis, April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Six of Minnesota's strongest orators competed for the $100 prize, offered to the winner of the Pillsbury oratorical contest, and for the honor of representing Minnesota in the Northern Oratorical league. Harter, Schwartz and Potter were the successful orators and received the Pillsbury prizes of $100, $50 and $25. There were six speakers, Bernard Petterson, Clarence Harter, Harold Deering, L. B. Schwartz, Lenas Potter and A. N. Gulbertson.

The contest was one of the best ever held at the university, for the men who contended were the ablest in Forensic circles at the U. The competition in the preliminaries was keen and choice was made from a large number of candidates. The orators have all been prominent in debate and oratory since entering the university, and the speeches all showed careful preparation. Rev. C. G. Clark presided over the contest and the judges were Hon. D. P. Jones, Hon. James A Peterson and Rev. C. E. Burton.

The baseball cage in the Armory has nearly fulfilled its mission, as the problem of working out a large number of candidates is now solved. The men have had several outside practice this week and will soon do all their work on the diamond. They are working hard to get into form for the opening game with the Alumni, April 11. This game will give them some practice for one of the hard games of the season, a week later, when they meet the fast Illinois team. Milder climate gives Illinois the advantage of earlier practice, while their nearness to the National league affords them opportunity of some good practice games.

Minnesota has some promising material, and Coach Wilmot predicts a successful season. The pitching staff is strong, headed by Dretchks, Tyrell and Lange. Barrowman and Rand are promising candidates for the catcher's position, while the rest of the field will be picked from the following: H. Peterson, Keating, Green, Capt. Boyle and Ernest.

The inter-fraternity bowlers are nearing the end of their schedule The Dekes are now tied with Chi Psi for first place, by virtue of their defeating Psi U in three straight games, in one of which they rolled the highest team score of the tournament. Alpha Delta and Sigma Nu hold down the bottom positions, but a few victories would place them well up toward the front again. Thus far Maloy holds the high score, with 23.

If "As You Like It" was easy for Shakespeare to write, at least it is not easy to make up the cast from the Dramatic club. So far Rosalind, Celia, Phebe, Orlando and Le Bean have been chosen, but the men's parts are mostly unfilled as yet. Further triale are to be held this afternoon. The plan is to put on "As You Like It" the last of May, in the same way that "Twelfth Night" was presented last year. A rude stage was built on the campus, and the play was produced in the natural setting, as was the custom in the time of Shakespeare.

The popular election campaign is beginning with full force among the sophomores, and more candidates with petitions are entering the field every day. Consternation reigned among the class members when they found that only those who had paid their class dues would be allowed to vote, or be voted for. All eligible 1910 people are to vote for the general offices, namely, managing editor, editor-in-chief, secretary, business manager, two assistant business managers, chief artist and three assistants.

The university chess tournament is still on and will be in progress for a month or six weeks. About 400 games have been played out of 700 on the schedule. Each man is to play every other man two games, there being twenty-seven men entered.

Local chess enthusiasts are in communication with the Chicago and Wisconsin clubs, and it now seems that the organization of a Western Intercollegiate Chess league is a certainty. As to the membership, it is probable that Chicago, Wisconsin and Minnesota will be in on the ground floor. Definite news will be on hand next week, when Secretary Barrow of the Chicago club will be in Minneapolis to arrange details for a tournament next year.

Last Friday and Saturday the State Superintendents' association held their annual convention at the university. The purpose of the convention is to discuss methods and to select teachers for the coming year. The seniors assembled in the rotunda to give the superintendents an opportunity to see and talk to them. Not as many positions were secured this year as is usual; some are laying it to the alleged fact that the seniors are in a combine for higher wages.

Special interest has been manifested among the faculty in the Nebraska coed basket ball game to be held tonight, because several of their number were formerlyconnected with the university there. Nebraska's party consisted of the seven basketball girls, their coach, umpire and athletic directors. A reception was held for the visitors Friday afternoon, in Shevlin hall.

Plans for the military ball, the first social function after Lent, are well under way. The flags and bunting for decorating the hall have already been secured from army headquarters at Fort Snelling and from the Minnesota National Guard. A number of battleship flags will also be used. The University band will furnish the music, and between dances there will be a flag raising, and also an exhibition by the crock squad.

News of the Theater

AT THE LYCEUM

"Buster Brown" Will Be in Duluth Friday and Saturday—Mack-Leones in "The Galley Slave" First Four Days of Week.

"Buster Brown," the most delightful philosopher of modern stagecraft, has an engagement to meet a number of amusement lovers at the Lyceum Friday and Saturday, April 10 and 11. He will have "Tige," "Mary Jane" and full two score others along with him to assist in the reception, which will be characterized by clever songs, bright music and enough mischief making to make it in a rare entertainment. Master Reed takes the leading part for which he is fitted in more ways than one. The stage settings are all new, and are said to be far more beautiful than those seen here on previous visits of this popular musical comedy. The costuming is all new and in keeping with the big beauty chorus with which Buster has been surrounded. This play has come to be regarded as a standard production, one that never ceases to entertain and delight. R. F. Outcault, the famous cartoonist, is the originator of "Buster Brown." His pictures in the Sunday supplements of the metropolitan dailies have made hundreds of thousands smile, while the philosophy has made a deep impression on the minds of all. The best of Mr. Outcault's work was taken and made into a story form, the whole being put together in the shape of a play. The play has been just as successful as the cartoons, and the large number of people who have seen it, is a guarantee of its popularity.

"THE GALLEY SLAVE"

Will be the Last Production by the Mack-Leones Until June.

When the Mack-Leone players present Bartly Campbell's old drama "The Galley Slave," at the Lyceum next week, commencing Monday and continuing four nights, the younger generation may wonder what kind of a play it is. Their parents know probably. To quote a Hibernianism, "It's so old it's new." In the old stock days, "The Galley Slave" was looked upon as being quite the biggest production of a season. Few plays today will live twenty-five years. "The Man of the Hour," one of the biggest successes of the year, "The Witching Hour," "The Thief" and all other popular plays of today may in twenty-five years be as dead as though they had never been written, as far as their commercial value is concerned, but "East Lynne," "Silver King," "Our Boys" and "The Galley Slave" live on, and grow young. The desire is exhibited by the theater-going people all over the English-speaking world for a revival of these old plays.

This production of "The Galley Slave" will be the final performance given by the Mack-Leones until June. There will be matinees on Tuesday and Thursday.

ROYAL KRONOBERG BAND

Will be Heard in Concert at Lyceum April 19.

The Royal Kronoberg Regiment band sailed from Hamburg for New York March 14. Two days before director Erik Hoegberg, the eminent conductor of this the crack military band of Sweden, left for America, he was made a knight of the royal order of Vasa by king Gustaf V, who has appointed crown prince Gustaf Adolf of Sweden personal protector of the whole undertaking.

The repertory of the Royal Kronoberg Regiment band, which will appear here in grand concert at the Lyceum, April 19, is exceptionally large, varied and cosmopolitan. It embraces, of course, a large number of the military marches of Scandinavia, Germany and America, of which the old Swedish marches are of particular interest. Among the latter are found the Biorneborgian march, Finnish Calvalry march from the Thiry Years' War and several other regimental marches of the most glorious antiquity and history. Among the more recent marches are Soederman's famous Swedish Wedding march and Prince Wilhelm march, not to forget the Parade march of the Royal Kronobergians themselves. The repertory embraces all of Sousa's marches.

Among operatic selections are found the overture to Wilhelm Tell, by Rossini, a fantasia from Norma by Bellini, and of Wagner numbers, selections from Lohegrin and the Entrance of the gods into Walhalla from Rheingold.

Naturally the nature and temperament of Swedish are mirrored in the music of the Kronobergians. Thus they play an admirable medley of Swedish folksongs by Sjoeberg, Tunes from the Swedish Archipelago (Skargardslater) arranged by director Hoegberg, medley of Bellman's songs from the eighteenth century, national dances by Soederman and Swedish quartets arranged for military band. Every concert will be opened with "Hear us, Svea" and closed with the Swedish army tapto.

Of waltzes are found a large number of the very latest, not to forget The Merry Widow, which operatta had a tremendous run in Stockholm all of last year. Adding that Italian serenades and Sutherland waltzes, the American Parol and catchy ballet numbers also will be on the program of the Royal Kronobergian band, one must concede that their repertory, which really embraces 1,000 compositions, is both varied and interesting.

AT THE METROPOLITAN

The Cherry Blossoms Company, Headed by John Perry and Including Many Empire Circuit Favorites, Will Appear During the Coming Week.

The Cherry Blossoms will play their annual engagement at the Metropolitan next week. All of the usual features will be included, a chorus girls' contest, amateurs' night and all the matinees, including one for ladies on Thursday.

The company has always made a hit here in the past, and the advance agent says that the organization is larger and more capable than ever, this season.

Two new burlesques, described as "sparkling" by the press agent, are offered for the consideration of Metropolitan patrons. One is called "Aboard the Yacht Skiddoo," and the other "The Three Old Cronies."

John Perry heads the company and is singing a new song, "Down in the City of Booze," which he sang with great success here last season.

Others prominent in the company are Markey and Moran, Granville and Mack, Goff Phillips, Eugene Jerge, Alene and Hamilton, Lillian Perry and many others.

Not the least important part of the Cherry Blossoms' organization is the chorus of pretty girls, which is seen and heard in some new musical hits.

AT THE BIJOU

John and Bertha Gleeson and Fred Houlihan, and Miss Franklyn Gale & Co. Are the Two Big Features for Next Week.

One of the best bills of vaudeville seen at the Bijou in some months is promised for next week. Among the principal acts will be John and Bertha Gleeson and Fred Houlihan, in a potpourri of dancing and music, introducing Bertha Gleeson. John Gleeson is one of the most finished dancers on the stage, while Fred Houlihan has the reputation of being one of the leading pianists in vaudeville.

The New York Telegraph says: "John and Bertha Gleeson and Fred Houlihan are offering New Yorkers one of the best musical and dancing acts ever seen in New York vaudeville. They have also the best dressed and most polished act seen in years."

Another big feature card for next week will be Miss Franklyn Gale and company, who present a playlet, entitled "The Seamstress," by Charles W. Doty. The following notice from the Winnipeg Tribune speaks of the cleverness of this talented actress:

"The one-act comedy drama, 'The Seamstress,' as given by Miss Franklyn Gale and company, was the best act of the afternoon, and was very pleasing. Miss Gale is a finished emotional actress and held the attention of the entire audience. Her supporting company also acquitted themselves most creditably. The playlet deals with a father and daughter who have met with reverses, and in order to make both ends meet, the girl works in a factory. A supposed murder is committed and the father, who is a detective, gets another opportunity to again become a member of the force by tracing the murderess. As it turns out the daughter is the criminal, and Miss Gale's portrayal of the girl, who was subjected to insults, and who, in self-defense, defended herself, was particularly well enacted. The act is one of the best of its kind ever presented at the Bijou, and has a happy climax when the person who was thought to be dead was only wounded."

The balance of the acts are all first-class attractions in their different lines. Effie Pierson, a pretty singing comedienne, will introduce a number of her newest songs. Miss Pierson has a very pleasing stage presence. She sings with vivacity and uses a pair of dazzling eyes with telling effect. She is always a favorite in every city where she plays. A bright comedy turn will be offered by Fitzgerald and Wilson, who have a number of new jokes and sparkling parodies, which have been a big hit over the entire circuit.

A clever gymnastic act will be Marzello and Woulfe, who do some excellent work on horizontal bars, in comedy makeup and burlesque wrestling, which is said to be exceptionally good.

Isadore Silver will sing one of the latest illustrated songs, entitled, "In the Valley Where My Sally Said Goodbye." The moving pictures for the week will be "The Crazy Musician" and "A Study in Feet," both of which are comedy subjects. Matinees are given daily at 2:45, and evening performances at 8 and 9:30. A special school children's matinee will be given Saturday afternoon, and performances Sunday afternoon and night.

STAGE SERMON STRIKES FIRE

Charles Rann Kennedy's Morality Play, "The Servant in the House"---One Charm is Simplicity of Telling a Great Truth.

New York, April 4.—One of the charms of "The Servant in the House," Charles Rann Kennedy's new play at the Savoy, is the triumphant simplicity with which a great truth, a great philosophy, a great religion, is proclaimed.

The story is most simply told. There is nothing lugged in by the heels. The members of the household are the people one usually meets in an English country vicarage. The vicar, his wife, their neice, are photographed with sharp accuracy. They are portraits, not caricatures. Even the wayward brother, Robert, with his savage realism, is no unknown quantity, but a faithfully drawn sketch as true to nature as is the worldly, ambitious, flippant, rhetorical egotistic Bishop of Lancaster. Even the Bishop of Benares is a probable person, and the Indian butler equally so.

And so here we have a quiet family party in the midst of which is not only proclaimed but worked out the world's salvation. In no other one factor does the author show his skillful strength so surely as in this use of the simple things of life for the display of the miracle. For it is a miracle. The Christ spirit appears, the Christ thought impels the entire machinery of the drama, the Christ force reincarnated in the servant in the house cleanses the hearts and minds of his friends—even as he rids the house of the unclean bishop—illuminating their souls by the instillation of the Christ gospel.

Renan called Christ "the verb of the universe." Mr. Kennedy does not reiterate Renan's phrase, but he voices the identical thought in the action of his drama.

In the beginning of the story Manson makes no claim to any higher form of service than the duties given him as butler, but as his spirit works upon the minds and hearts of those about him he gradually forces his higher service upon them and claims obedience because of it. There is a subtle change of manner, a look in his eye, as of the servant merging in the master. The vicar's wife says:

"Manson, you're perfectly wonderful! I respect you very much."

"It is not enough. I shall require more," he answers. "Service such as mine demands a greater recompense. I demand the uttermost obedience, loyalty and love."

"Manson, how dare you! By what right • • •"

"By my own right • • • The right of understanding, the right of purpose, the right of will!"

"You force me to speak angrily to you! Do you forget that you are my servant?"

"No! And therefore, it is my office to command you now! Sit down, and hear me speak!"

And at this point the vicar breaks in, saying:

"He has been sent to help us! Martha, this is God!"

The intuition of the neice, Mary, is quicker, but less deep. She finds in the butler her Uncle Joshua, the Bishop are expecting the bishop that very of Benares, in the first interview. They morning.

"To think," she says, "that before the day is out, he will be sitting here, perhaps in this very place, just like—" (She breaks off suddenly, gazing at Manson; for his eyes have taken a strange fire).

"Just like I am now—"

(Falteringly): "Yes—"

"Talking to you?"

"Oh!" (She rises, afraid.)

(Softly): "Mary."

(In a whisper): "Who are you?"

"I am—(He is interrupted by the great bell of the church, which tolls the Sanctus.) After the third stroke, he continues: "I am the servant in this house. I have my work to do. Would you like to help me?"

And their compact is sealed.

The prompt book thus describes the scene of the drama:

"The scene, which remains unchanged throughout the play, is a room in the vicarage. Jacobean in character, its oak panelling and beaming ceiling, together with some fine pieces of antique furniture, lend it an air of historical interest, whilst in all other respects it speaks of solid comfort, refinement, and unostentatious elegance—evidently the room of a rich man, who has, however, apparently come to some compromise on the difficult question of his entrance into the kingdom of heaven; for the panelled walls possess, among other decorations, a richly ornamented crucifix, a Virgin and Child, by an old master, certain saints in ecstasy, and a really remarkable oil painting of the divine author of our religion."

This, then, is the scene of the labors of the servant. Against so cleverly constructed a background how appropriate is the battle that is waged.

At his first entrance Manson is quizzed by his new master about his religion, and in his answer he sounds his war cry:

"My religion is very simple. I love God and all my brothers," knowing full well the vicar's state of mind and his hatred of his own brother, the renegade Robert.

Later, as he talks with Robert and the bishop of Lancashire, he compels both to recite their varied creeds. The bishop is looking to the use of his fellow bishop's name for the gathering in of his untold wealth for a society of which he is the chief officer. Manson divining his thought, says, with cutting irony:

"God's not watching. Let's give as little and grab as much, as we can!"

Robert finds that his creed is similar to Manson's. For the benefit of both, as a stumbling block to the one and an illuminating torch to the other. Manson describes his temple, his beautiful temple in India, for which untold millions have been subscribed by sacrifice.

"I am afraid you," turning to the bishop, "may not consider it an altogether substantial concern. It has to be seen in a certain way, under certain conditions—some people never see it at all. You must understand, that this is no dead pile of stones and unmeaning timber. It is a living thing. When you enter it you hear a sound, a sound as of some mighty poem chanted. Listen long enough, and you will learn that it is made up of the beating of human hearts, of the nameless music of men's souls—that is, if you have ears. If you have eyes, you will presently see the church itself—a looking mystery of many shapes and shadows, leaping sheer from floor to dome. The work of no ordinary builder! The pillars of it go up like the brawny trunks of heroes; the sweet, human flesh of men and women is moulded about its bulwarks, strong, impregnable; the faces of little children laugh out from every corner stone; the terrible arches and spans of it are the joined hands of comrades, and up in the heights and spaces, there are inscribed the numberless musings of all the dreamers of the world. It is yet building—building and built upon. Sometimes, the work goes forward in deep darkness; sometimes in blinding light; now beneath the burden of unutterable anguish; now to the tune of a great laughter and heroic shoutings like the cry of thunder. And sometimes in the silence of the night-time, one may hear the tiny hammerings of the comrades at work in the dome—the comrades that have climbed ahead."

Robert is visibly impressed by the recital and determines to be one of the builders. He is encouraged by the possible echo in his heart of the "tiny hammerings of the comrades at work in the dome—the comrades that have climbed ahead," and when the time comes for him to take an active part in the scheme he quickly finds his place. The drains under the church are out of order. He is a drain-cleaner. "Some one," he says "has to clean the drains—some one has to clear up the muck of the world, and I'm the man!"—and down he starts to go under the church into the vilest muck to do his duty. But by this time the vicar has seen his duty and tearing off his priestly habit and collar, rolls up his sleeves and grasps his brother's hand, offering to aid him in his cleansing process.

Little Mary divines, too, that this man of action, rough and uncouth though he may be, and covered with the slime of the cesspool, is the wonderful man she has pictured as her father, and exclaims: "You are my father, you are my wish come true. Because you are brave, because you are beautiful, because you are good."

And now that his work is accomplished and it is time for him to disclose his real identity, Manson enters and spreads the table for luncheon, and as the members of the united household surround the table he tells his master that the bishop of Benares has arrived.

"He is here," he adds, impressively. Something in his manner, his looks, his bearing, compels the vicar to fall on his knees, exclaiming:

"In God's name, who are you?"

"In God's name, your brother," is the quiet answer as the curtain falls.

In the first chapter of his "Christianity and the Social Order," Dr. Campbell, pastor of the London City Temple, says:

"We are today confronted with the startling fact that in practically every part of Christendom the overwhelming majority of the population is alienated from Christianity as represented in the churches. In our own country nearly 75 per cent of the adult population remains permanently out of touch with organized religion."

And there is a creeping fear among professing Christians in America that the same state of affairs exists here.

Turn loose among the citizens of this metropolis of the country a few sermons such as is preached nightly in "The Servant of the House" and holiness and right living will become the fad of the hour. Possibly Mr. Kennedy brought his "servant" from India to preach a universal faith. The mysticism of the East is cleverly blended in the making of character. Knowing that the universal brotherhood was the cry of the Orient as well as in the Occident, that the preaching of Gautama Buddha is of similar import to that of Jesus of Nazareth, he brings from the Indies his miracle worker, who in his very utterance does away with all blind adherence to any formal doctrine. We are told that when the Buddha died he inculcated adherence to the truth, the Dharma, but did not insist on obedience to the detailed regulations of the order. These regulations were temporary only, made for special purposes, to suit definite conditions.

So when Manson replies to the vicar who questions him about his religion: "I love God and all my brothers," he echoed the truth of the world as uttered by every sage since the beginning—the truth as voiced by the Christ who said:

"Thou shart love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment, and the second is like unto it. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

In the first part of the play Manson goes about in a muffled divinity that seldom glows through his disguise, but as opportunity offers he becomes more and more free, and in the final scene discloses in himself the Christ thought and power. Ordinarily such a personation would smack too much of blasphemy to permit more than one performance of the play. But the theme is handled so dexterously, the esoteric thought gleams through the mere material plot and action of the drama so subtly and ennobles it so exquisitely, one is charmed by the presentation while impressed by the lesson presented. The vigorous simplicity of the story aids materially in the use made of the symbolism utilized. There is a passion deeply felt and poignantly expressed. The emotions developed are almost tragic—the personages almost elemental. The story told is purely a heart story, just as the doctrine preached is purely a heart doctrine. Both phases of the play attack at once, and herein lies its power and its beneficence.

GOSSIP OF THE RIALTO

Title Russian Visitor Still Encountering Difficulties ---Pleasing Farces by Ditrichstein and Fitch---Carlotta Nillson to Become a Frohman Card.

New York, April 4.—Mme. Komisarzhevsky, the distinguished Russian actress who in private life is the Countess Muraviff, and who completed her three weeks' engagement at daly's theater, will have a tale to tell of her American experience when she returns to St. Petersburg with her company. During her stay at Daly's she had trouble with several play agents, who contested her rights to sundry plays in which she was announced to appear. Then she entered into a contract with Manager Michael Mintz, of the Thalia theater, which, since the German company abandoned this historic playhouse on the Bowery, where at one time all the great tragedians of the past and of different countries scored notable triumphs, Yiddish players have been holding forth. Manager Mintz announced that the Russian actress would appear under his management for a limited engagement, part of the time on tour and part of the time at the Thalia. As soon as this announcement was made, the Yiddish company attached to the Thalia held an indignation meeting. They contended that the madame, not having oined the union, was taking the bread out of their mouths, and they posted her as a miserable "scab." Circulars were issued, calling upon the public to boycott the visitor. The pronunciamento ran something like this: "The Russian actors are scabbing in the place of Yiddish performers, and to make room for them the Thalia theater has locked out its old players. Every one in sympathy with the Hebrew Actors' Protective union and the United Hebrew Trades is asked to keep away from the Thalia theater. Decent people should not patronize a theater where scabs are playing."

In the meantime the Russian actress opened her short road tour in Williamsburg on Monday evening. The play had not progressed to the second act before three policemen appeared on the stage and demanded to see the license under which the house was operating. The theater is a new one, and the manager was unable to produce a license. He pleaded with the police to allow the play to go on to the end, promising to procure a license on Tuesday. The actress joined her appeal to the manager's, but the police were obdurate. The audience hissed and the madame waxed indignant, but there was nothing for it but to dismiss the large house, while the police maintained possession of the stage.

Leo Ditrichstein's "Bluffs," after a short road tour, was presented at the Bijou last week, with the author in the leading role. In the main the farce is based on familiar expedients, but is enlivened by many amusing episodes that have the savor of novelty, with intermittent stretches of dullness. An enterprising press agent is well introduced in the complications. One of the chief characters is a fiery Texas colonel, whose daughter has eloped with one Carl Himmelhoch, an actor, traveling under the name of Jack Belaire, who becomes the victim of his overzealous press representative and thereby gets into an endless chain of difficulties. Frederick Bond played the colonel. In the cast is Miss Fola La Follette, the daughter of the Wisconsin senator.

In "Girls," presented for the first time this week at Daly's, the problem of the eternal feminine is admirably exploited in the form of a three-act farce, and in the characters of three nice young girls who keep a "bachelor apartment," determined to have nothing to do with the opposite sex. It is a reversal of the familiar trio who figure in "Trilby," "The Three Muskateers" and in Murger's "La Vie Boheme." In this case the familiar roles played by men are taken by girls. The frame is from the German of Hugo Holtz, with embroidery by Clyde Fitch. The disrobing scene of the three hours, the late supper and the disturbing noise of the steam pipe bear the carmarks of Fitch, and were among the things that made for the success of the piece. The unexpected intrusion of this sanctuary consecrated to innocence, by Edgar Holt, after the girls have tucked themselves in for the night and put out the light is obviously the handiwork of the German farceur, as is the expedient of making him walk the plank across the street into the open window of Lucille Purcell across the way, who is not so particular about gentlemen's company.

Edgar has sought refuge in the dovecote to escape the vengeance of a jealous husband in the same house, one whose young wife he has innocently enough been taking a midnight supper. He finds the door of the dovecote open, and insists on the rights of sanctuary.

Pamela Gordon (Laura Nelson Hall), the elder of the three graces, has a prime regard for the proprieties, and exercises a motherly care over the safety of her younger colleagues. One is a secretary and stenographer, the second is a stenographer and illustrator, and the third is a free-lance writer, genuine Bohemians in their modesty ways. Out of Edgar's unceremonious visit to this holy of holies, where man is never suffered to intrude, grows the complication. Edgar is a gentleman and risks his neck to relieve them of his embarrassing presence, as already explained. All but Pamela are impressed by Edgar's bonhomie and general good nature.

In the second act Pamela and Violet are employed in a big law office. There they again meet Edgar. He is no other than the junior partner of the firm that employs them, but he has been off on a vacation. He has become violently interested in Pamela, but Pamela trusts no man, and does not believe in Edgar's sincerity until he sends her an armful of American beauty roses in the third act, and by adopting her own tactics of ostensible indifference, compels her to yield to the feminine instinct and renounce her prejudice against all men in favor of him. In the meantime the leaven of love has been working in Violet's case, who becomes engaged to the crusty, woman-hating clerk in the law firm, while the third of the three musketeers, Kate (Amy Ricard), who has gone on the stage, has succeeded in drawing Mendelbaum, her impresario, into her meshes and announces her forthcoming marriage by the time that Pamela has conquered her aversion. The farce is well played and is presented by a strong cast, which includes Charley Cherry (Edgar), Ruth Maycliffe (Violet) and Zelda Sears as Lucille Purcell, an affected piece of femininity which took a strong hold on the audience; also Herbert Standing and Leslie Kenyon.

After Hilda Englund dropped out of the cast of Ibsen's "Love's Comedy," and Grace Elliston was engaged for the principal female role another sudden complication ensued, and instead of being produced at the Bijou, as at first announced, the piece was given its premiere at the Hudson Monday afternoon without Miss Elliston. The role of Svanhild was played by Mabel Wright, who was cast for the less important part of Anna. The withdrawal of Miss Elliston was explained to be due to her action in presenting a contract to the manager on Saturday afternoon, which provided that if the trial performance proved a success, Miss Elliston should have the exclusive right to play Svanhild at a salary of $250 a week and 25 per cent of the net receipts. The manager declared that he was unable to accep. the terms, and Miss Elliston withdrew, but declined to enter into explanations.

An announcement which has escaped general attention is to the effect that Carlotta Nillson is to be a Frohman star next year, which probably signifies that Miss Nillson has obtained a suitable play which has been approved at Frohman headquarters. Miss Nillson first attracted attention as Mrs Elvsted in Mrs. Fiske's performance of "Hedda Gabler." She appeared in "Letty," the Pinero play, and then passed under Walter Lawrence's management, appearing jointly with Henry E. Dixey in "The Man on the Box."

She was then starred in "The Three of Us," in which she appeared until a few months ago, when her contract with Lawrence expired, and she began to read plays with a view to discovering a suitable vehicle for her next venture. The news that she is to pass under Charles Frohman's management came as a surprise.

The Shuberts have determined to act on the suggestion furnished by Henry Miller of giving special dress rehearsals for the benefit of the critics, "because," as Lee Shubert explained "we are convinced that a hurried glance at a production is like a hurried bite at a meal. It cannot be utekly assimilated and digested, and the result is that the critic's published views very frequently works an injustice both to him and to the producing manager, as well as to the public. It is no unusual occurrence when a critic, after hastily condemning a production, confesses, after seeing the performance a second time, that he has exercised faulty judgment in his conclusions, and that the play he condemned is after all a worthy one."

Of course, this has been the rule in Paris for a long time, but even this advantage has resulted in dissatisfaction to the producing managers, and recently a plan was agitated to abolish special performances for the critics and to go back to the old method. The chief complaint was that many good points were lost at a dress rehearsal which, under the stimulating influence of an interested audience, became a conspicuous element of the success of a play when given as a regular performance. The experiment worked admirably in the case of "The Servant in the House," but it remains to be seen what will happen when the novelty has worn off and all managers engage in the practice.

The movement for a broader copyright law has been seriously taken up by the combined theatrical interests of the country, and the committee from New York that appeared before the committee of the house of representatives having the proposed bill in charge made encugh progress last week to make them feel sure there will be improvement in conditions. The real reason for this agitation is that the old copyright laws are so restricted as to their reach that they no longer cover the conditions that may arise today.

For instance, it was pointed out that there will be a new call for improvement now that the moving picture and phonograph deal has bobbed to the surface. This Parisian importation is regarded by managers and authors alike as a menace to their copyrights. By means of the combination the producers of the effect are able to get the action and business of a reigning play. A corps of drilled performers supply the action, and other experts read the lines into a phonograph record. The two are eventually worked together and sent through the country long before the termination of the original play's run in New York or Chicago, where it may have been produced.

This is manifestly unfair to the men who have put their money and brains into the original telling. As the laws exist today, it is almost impossible to reach these moving picture men, and they go on reaping a big harvest for something which they were not in the least responsible for in original design and mentality.

The condition illustrates also that the old laws must be amended to make way for these new possibilities, and it is for these things that the managers are now centering their efforts upon the committee at Washington having the detail of the new measure in charge.

Hubert Henry Davis and Alfred Sutro are both working upon new plays, which are to be produced in London and New York by Charles Frohman during the coming season. Mr. Frohman has also secured the American rights to be the lively piece, "Diana of Dobson's, now in London, and will bring it out son in America.

• • •

Pinero's newest play, just completed and turned over to George Alexander for early production in London, is to be called "The Thunderbolt." It is described in advance by the author as an episode in the life of a provincial family. The piece will be brought out shortly after Easter and is awaited with interest since it will likely mark the wonderful improvement that Pinero showed in "His House in Order."

• • •

Jack Barrymore's career as a star in "Doodles" will be short-lived, as that comedy is to be withdrawn in a week. It is rather odd that this story, which ran for a year in London with great success, has been a complete failure in this country. This, too, despite the fact that it was designed for the American stage by Clyde Fitch. Managers are rather inclined to believe that the success of the piece in London was due to the clever personal efforts of Cne Coyne, who created the part of the silly young lord who is the central character in the comedy.

• • •

It has been decided that the final performance of "The Soul Kiss" in New York will be given on Saturday, after which Mlle. Genee, the star of that success, will sail back to London to fill out engagements booked for her there and which she has been unable to cancel. She will come back in the fall to head the company when it goes on tour. The time in New York will be taken up by Ziegfeld's newest revue, "The Follies of 1908," now in progress of development for the opening. It will start in the theater, but be moved to the roof as soon as the weather warrants the change.

• • •

When Alfred Aarons brings out his new comedy, "The Hotel Clerk," he will have as understudy for Elfie Fay, a former Cincinnati girl in Ethel Pennington, who has been booked for that position. As Miss Fay is given to generous behavior that will permit her understudies oportunities to show what they can do, it is likely that Miss Pennington will have plenty of chances of showing her ability.

• • •

Two old friends returning to vaudeville for the spring will be Ethel Levy, who leaves Sam Bernard's company for that purpose, and Charley Grapewin and Anna Chance, who will make their spring dip into the continuous after the close of their season in "The Awakening of Mr. Pipp." Grapewin has a new act he wants to try out on the vaudeville circuit and for this reason has booked time in the East.

• • •

Edmund Breese, who originated the role of Ryder in "The Lion and the Mouse," and has been playing it ever since, will be a star next season under the management of Henry B. Harris. He will have a new play by Edith Ellis, called "The Nebraskan," as his initial stellar vehicle.

• • •

Edna Aug, having recovered from her illness that started the week she was to have played her last vaudeville engagement here, sailed last week for Paris, and will remain abroad all summer, likely playing an important part in one of the revues now being prepared for the summer. Miss Aug will remain abroad until late next season, by which time she will have her play, "Cindrella of Tompkins Square," in such shape that it will be ready for production. The piece was written by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, and was mapped out for Miss Aug's stellar use.

• • •

A member of one of the Belasco companies playing some one-night stands in Illinois is responsible for a story illustrating the trouble that the manager was put to finding time for his independent attractions. One town they played was at least two miles from the railway depot. Riding up town from the station the player overheard two natives discussing the prospects of the show that night.

"Wonder if it's much of an op'ry?" inquired the one of his companion. "Never heard of this Belasco. Did you?"

"Yep. I heard he was a big gun in the show business," answered his friend. "Can't be so much, or he'd never play this town," was the salient rejoinder, and they agreed to forego the "op'ry" for that reason.

• • •

Whether it has been the depression or the change in public taste or a common mixture of both is not sure, but all along the line there is complaint that the wonderful interest in melodrama has been decidedly on the wane this season. The lurid shows are moving about in their cycle and have come to the underside of the revolution. A few years back these excitable affairs were all the rage, and a man who owned a fair melodrama had a miniature gold mine in his hand. Now the biggest of them are having their troubles, and the shows have been doing a miserable business. It is estimated that more sensational shows of the melodramatical persuasion have closed their season to date than was ever known before at this time of the year.

The depression has cut some figure, for the working people have been denying themselves the pleasure of theater-going in the hard times, but the matter has lost its charm in a great many instances, and it looks as if the managers will have to find the new things before they will be making the big returns that they did for the past eight years or so with the melodramatic offerings.

• • •

May Irwin, having ended her profitable vaudeville, is reported to be scouring the continental theaters in search of a good farce comedy for her use next season, when she expects to return to stardom at the head of her own organization.

• • •

Frank Keenan, one of Mr. Belasco's best players, reiterates that actors should go at their business as if it were a trade to be learned the same as anything else. The more an actor studies the better he is; few men and women are born with the acting gift. Mr. Keenan, who has been very successful because of his hard work, writes as follows in the Theater Magazine: "From my beginnings I deduce the fact that actors must learn the trade of acting. They must learn to read intelligently, to walk, and gesticulate gracefully, and they must learn to think what a part means. They should ask themselves the three questions, Who? and Where? and Why? Before they go on the stage to play a scene they must be able to answer to themselves: 'Who is this man?' 'Why is he here?' 'How did he get here?' These questions intelligently answered will greatly help to make him a good actor."

• • •

Henry Miller, who is himself an enthusiastic Friar, has volunteered to help swell the spring fund of that society by a special matinee performance in Kansas city during the engagement there Easter week. Mr. Miller will put on "The Great Divide" for this special matinee and will turn over to the Friars all funds derived from the same. The week was selected, as it will fall in the middle of Margaret Anglin to the play, as she assumes her old character of Ruth Jordan on that occasion.

• • •

Amelia Summerville, having closed her engagement in "Twenty Days in the Shade," went into vaudeville this week, putting on a sketch called "Brainstorms," which was written for her by Alice E. Ives.

• • •

Clyde Fitch sailed last week for his annual visit to Europe, and before returning will enjoy his vacation in his villa near Florence, Italy. During his early weeks abroad Fitch will visit Berlin and there assist in staging his play, "The Truth," which has been adapted for the German stage, and will be given there soon.

• • •

Henrietta Crosman, who has encountered several failures this season, and is still undaunted, has joined the Henry B. Harris forces, and contemplates a tour in repertoire of good comedies. She will revive "The Country Girl," "As You Like It" and "Taming of the Shrew." It will be seen that the three are all classical efforts, in which Ada Rehan made her great successes. There is some talk that Miss Crosman will add "Mme. Sans-Gene" to her repertoire.

• • •

Manager Will J. Davis of Chicago, who has recently returned from a trip through Mexico, is enthusiastic concerning the new National opera house that is being built in the city of Mexico. It will be erected by the government, and will be under the control of the Mexican authorities. The opera house, when completed, will be one of the finest, if not the most modern and beautiful in the world. It is to cost in the neighborhood of $6,000,000, and is modeled after the best to be found in the auditoriums of the world. Despite its unusual size and the great stage space that is allotted, the house will not seat over 2,000, and will be so constructed that every seat will be one of rare advantage. This is essentially modern in outline, and shows the tendency toward the smaller and more compact theaters.

• • •

The New York legislature has taken up the matter of regulating and licensing moving picture theaters in that state. This movement illustrates how important the picture business is becoming in the field of amusements. The bill now pending seeks to place the moving picture theaters upon the same legal plane that the regular playhouses are, and to make them subject to the same laws and regulations. The managers of the state have been in conference with the committee having the bill in charge, and they have evolved a law which, it is thought, will be amicable to all, and which will be of great benefit in establishing this branch of the business upon a surer and more legitimate basis.

Williams and Walkers, the most successful colored stars the American stage has produced to date, this week celebrated the sixteenth anniversary of their partnership. In commemoration of that event they worked into "Bandanna Land" in New York many of the biggest song hits they have had from the outset of their career. The negro performers began their professional work in San Francisco. They had been working there as waiters when a chance came to go in a vaudeville performance. They worked in a crude sort of sketch that caught on at once and they have been going it ever since. Vaudeville held them for a time, but later they played at the Casino in New York and then the late Will McConnell and James Lederer took them out in a piece called "The Shenegambian Carnival." It was played at the Grand opera house here at the end of the season and made a good impression, but was not a success. Lasher Hurtig & Seamon established them in the popular-priced houses and took them to London, where they made a wonderful go of their style of entertainment. They have been doing this sort of stuff ever since and have become fixtures in their line of work.

Lole Fuller, the American dancer, is publishing her reminiscences abroad and soon expects to have the book published in Berlin. It is planned to have it come out at the same time in Paris, London, Vienna and New York. In this book the dancer tells of her experiences on the stage and mingles it with some heretofore unpublished details of her meeting with celebrated people in the social, political and artistic lives of the countries she has visited.

"A Waltz Dream," which was given its London premier recently, does not seem to have made the hit in England that it has scored in Germany and in this country. Te London critics like the music immensely, but they are almost a unit in declaring the book tame and lacking in humor.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines.

It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed conterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness.

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The students returned to school Monday looking for more worlds to conquer, after the short spring vacation. No more holidays are in sight until June 9, when the summer vacation will begin, so every one is settling down and plugging hard in order to pass in the finals.

• • •

Monday afternoon the Zenith board held a "fudge feast" in the physical laboratory, and Prof. Phillips claimed that no experiment ever turned out more perfectly than this one.

• • •

After enjoying several solos and a few encores from Mr. Drowshak, the boys present were escorted in order that the girls could trill the music for the May festival. Mr. Custance has decided that only the girls will be needed for the music, so the "bassos" will be missing.

• • •

In order to keep their wits in good working condition, the Zenith board whiled away a few hours on Tuesday afternoon producing a miniature paper, worthy of a place in any little farming town. The editorial labors under the alias of the "Scream," and contains columns of society, sports, twenty-year ago items, an evening story and the never failing "ads." The "Scream" has made a big hit with the students and they all hope that another "attempt" will soon be published.

• • •

The seniors predict that spring is just around the corner and will soon be here. The outlines for their final themes have been called in and spring and these outlines always arrive simultaneously.

• • •

An April fool joke was played on the track candidates by the weather man this week. Monday and Tuesday nights the warm winds were so alluring and gentle that the boys swarmed out to the campus and exhibited wonderful powers, putting the shot and throwing the discus and hammer. On Wednesday the April snow storms drove the shivering bunch back to shelter. On the first pleasant day next week Prof. Heston will take charge of the athletes and get down to business. The prospect of a championship team to represent the school has been made brighter by Sargent McGonagle's return. "Sardo" is taking a "P. G.," and his fame as a "track fiend" is great. Many remember the records he put in danger last year and when he "dons the togs" this spring, many former records are expected to fall.

• • •

The sophomores have decided to celebrate their second birthday on April 24, by giving the annual sophomore hop. The "feed" committee has already begun work and reports that the menu will be a novelty as well as a feast. The spread will be held in the lunch room, and at 7:30 a short dance program will begin.

• • •

The juniors could not let the first of April go by without celebrating, and so held a class meeting. They elected their track and baseball captains. To David Duncan, who led the junior hockey team to the championship pennant was entrusted with the care of the '09 track team. George Ostergren will be captain of the junior baseball nine, and expects to turn out a fast team. The president tried to impress his classmates with the fact that class spirit must exist in order to accomplish a project as great as the junior-senior. The spirit is lacking and the outlook is dubious. The treasurer reported $40 and the meeting was adjourned.

• • •

After the contest between the freshmen-sophomore teams is over, the Public Speaking club will wind up its events for the year. Although the school team did not establish a world-wide reputation, it made a good impression on every side and has done as well as could be expected of a team that makes its initial plunge into any line of action.

Word has been received of the appointment of Louis Denfeld to an army position. It is not known definitely if this appointment is for West Point or Annapolis. Examinations are given before the real message comes. Mr. Denfeld will not be the first soldier in his family, as his uncle, Commander George Denfeld, has for years been a well known officer at Annapolis and took a prominent part in affairs during the Spanish-American war.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

Mr. Thos. Stenton, postmaster of Pontypool, Ont., writes: "For the past eight years I suffered from rheumatic pains, and during that time I used many different liniments and remedies for the cure of rheumatism. Last summer I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and got more relief from it than anything I have ever used, and cheerfully recommend this liniment to all sufferers from rheumatic pains." For sale by all druggists.

TAKE NO CHANCES.

From Golfing: An English visitor to Carnoustie last summer was one day starting a match when his caddie asked to see his cigarette case, and when it was handed to him coolly put it into his pocket. The visitor expostulated. The caddie responded:

"It's a' richt, sir. I'll gie it back to ye efter the roond. Ye see, I've gotten hauf a croon on ye an' I dinna mean ye to smoke till ye win Gang on. I'll tak' care o' ye a'richt."

The Englishman grinned and went on to win.

THE POPULISTS.

The fact that a People's party convention has been held this week was the quadriennial reminder to many people that the Populists still exist as an organized party. It is sixteen years since Populism reached its high tide, and since then its extinction has been wellnigh complete.

Yet the spirit of Populism, which is the spirit of unrest in a people that began a few years ago to realize faintly that the machinery of government had got away from them, is still marching on. It has spurned the bonds that held it to one party and has spread through all of the parties to a greater or less degree, being most marked in the Democratic party, least evident in the Republican party in spite of the fact that its rank and file and its most notable leader are tinctured with Populistic doctrines, and having its part in the tenets of the Socialist party, from which, however, it borrowed some of its cardinal principles.

Populism reached its flood in 1892 when Gen. Weaver, as its candidate for president, received 1,055,424 popular votes, the greatest number ever received in this country by a third party candidate. He received, also, twenty-two electoral votes. In 1896 there was fusion with the Democrats, and again in 1900, though in that year 50,373 staunch "Midroaders" balked at fusion and voted for their own candidate. In 1904 the party appeared again as a separate organization, and Tom Watson of Georgia received 117,183 votes as its candidate for president.

In the early days of the party "Populism" was synonymous with wild-eyed fanaticism in the minds of many people. Its doctrines were looked upon as violent and revolutionary, and in many respectable communities it was almost a disgrace to be a Populist; certainly it was a brand of eccentricity, as to the harmlessness of which many stodgy good people had grave doubts. It is worth while now, just to take note of how far we all have traveled, to see what those doctrines were that so alarmed us once upon a time. Here they are, from the platform of 1896:

Free silver—which was also embraced by the Democrats but which most of us have agreed to forget for the time being; the income tax—in which most people except those having great incomes believe, and which has the sanction now of a popular Republican president; postal savings banks—which all of us believe in now, and which also has the approval of the Republican president and many party leaders; government ownership of railroads and telegraph—which many of us believe in, which many more realize to be an inevitable ultimate evolution, and which Mr. Bryan has rather cautiously approved; prohibition of private land monopoly—which none of us will dispute; the initiative and referendum—which has been adopted in the Republican state of Oregon, and which is gaining more friends every day as the failure of the present system of representative government becomes more plainly evident; employment of idle labor in times of depression upon public works—which is now urged by men of all parties; prevention of the abuse of the writ of injunction—which a Republican president has urged upon congress.

Nothing very violent about these doctrines, is there? Indeed, the nation has caught up with Populism, and promises to pass it soon.

THE FOUR-DAY BOAT.

When Christopher Columbus made his famous first trip across the Atlantic, his feeble, fragile craft fought the wind and wave for sixty-nine days.

The other day the young steamer Mauretania, traveling what is known as the "long route," made the trip from Sandy Hook to Daunt's Rock, on the other side, in five days and five minutes.

It is a far cry from the little caravels of Columbus to the swift leviathans of modern trans-Atlantic traffic. The advance in transportation facilities is but one feature of the tremendous progress the world has made in the four centuries. The wretched discomfort of travel upon the Santa Maria contrasts with the bewildering luxuries of the Mauretania as the squalid condition of the common people of the world of that day contrasts with the comfort that prevails today; only then the squalor was more widely distributed and today the luxuries that have succeeded it are congested largely in the hands of a few, showing that progress has been unevenly distributed.

The run of the Mauretania beat the best previous eastern run by two and a half hours. Very likely the record will be again beaten, and no man can say what the limit of speed-increase may be. Men who would be affronted if you called them old can remember when twelve days was considered a phenomenal trip; and in that day it would have been deemed absurd if anybody had dared predict that the voyage would ever be cut to five days.

The 500-foot boat was then considered practically the limit. It has reduced the time nearly to one-half of that occupied by the earlier steamships, which were about half that size.

The introduction of all-steel construction was probably the most important advance in the art of ocean-going vessel construction, and it ushered in a new era. The enormous increase in ocean travel, coincident with the coming of greater speed and greater comfort, stimulated competition, and the evolution from the old-style packet, with its auxiliary sail-power, to the greater modern flyer, is the result of this competition.

It was the introduction of the steam turbine that made the five-day boat possible. While the economical features of the steam turbine have not yet been fully worked out and its comparative value settled, it is in present favor because of its efficiency in producing high speed with large vessels.

The five-day point gained, marine constructors are now predicting confidently the four-day boat. Already arrangements have been made for the construction of two turbine-driven express steamers, each 1,000 feet long, and it is considered not unlikely that within the next three or four years a New Yorker can take a business trip to London, transact a day's business, and get home again in the time occupied a few years ago in the trip one way.

Yet those who travel for pleasure are perhaps not so interested in this achievement as those who travel for business reasons.

SOUR MILK AND LONG LIFE.

Those who follow every piece of advice guaranteed to produce good health and long life will be kept very busy indeed, and they will encounter some rather unpleasant experiences.

One of the latest scientific pronouncements of this character is that we should drink sour milk. To a people that has always looked upon sour milk as waste to be discarded or used to fatten swine, this counsel will cause involuntary grimaces of disgust. It should not be dismissed too peremptorily, however, because the advice has good backing, and it is accompanied by apparently sound reasoning.

Bishop Fallows, who is mixing theology with hygiene and healing, says that the man who wants to live to be 120 years old should make sour milk and buttermilk a feature of his daily diet. He quotes, in support of this idea, the great scientific authority Metchnikoff, who says that old age is caused by hardening of the arteries, and that the antidote is sour milk.

Dr. H. G. Piffard of New York, in a paper lately delivered before the Bellevue Hospital Alumni association, scored the New York health department for prohibiting the sale of sour milk. The doctor quoted ponderous and learned authorities to show that the lactic bacteria which sour milk are not only harmless but helpful, and that the bacteria of putrefaction, which are harmful, multiply very rapidly in milk after pasteurization.

Dr. Piffard gave sour milk credit for much of the ancient longevity of humanity. He cited the case of Abraham, who lived to be 175 years old, and whose chief article of diet was curdled milk, which he set before his angel visitors as related in the Bible.

He showed that for centuries sour milk has been a part of the diet of the peoples of Eastern Europe and Middle and Western Asia, and a very important part of it. In these regions men live long and hardy lives, unless they are cut short by sword or plague.

Buttermilk, for similar reasons—the presence of lactic bacteria which upbuild the system and attack and destroy the deadly germs—was placed on the same pedestal as sour milk by the doctor. The only trouble about buttermilk, he said, is that there isn't any. The passing of the churn, which has been replaced by the modern creamery, has involved the passing of real buttermilk, an article which it is almost if not quite impossible to find in the cities, whatever the case may be on the farm. New York buttermilk, Dr. Piffard said, is simply doctored skim milk, possessing no qualities entitling it to rank in the same class as the real article, which is one of the most wholesome, delightful, refreshing and strengthening beverages known to man.

The sour milk theory is not a playful scientific joke. It is more than plausible, and it is supported by concrete evidences in the form of the European peasants who live largely upon sour milk, and who are strong, healthy and long-lived. The bare fact that they drink sour milk and live long is not proof, but it supports strongly the scientific reasoning which sings the praises of a sour milk diet.

CONFLICTING ECONOMIC FORCES.

The worst enemy of conservatism in this country is the greedy and insatiable beneficiary of conditions that conservatives would retain.

The worst enemies of economic progress are the bomb-throwers and the madmen who preach violent methods of reform.

In view of the fact that the one ardently wishes to have things remain as they are, while the other as ardently wishes to have them changed, these statements might seem paradoxical, but they are not.

The ruthlessly greedy beneficiary of conservatism wants to leave things as they are, but by his merciless methods of satisfying his greed he makes it impossible to leave things as they are.

The anarchist wants to have the present system abolished and replaced by one which he conceives to be better, but by his violence he delays change, buttresses the conditions he attacks, and discredits those who are seeking reform in the only way that reform can come—by arousing class consciousness and arming the hitherto inert masses with the knowledge of how to get what belongs to them.

Between these two extreme radical elements are the masses of the people, bewildered. They see that the greedy beneficiary of special privilege is a menace to themselves and to their free institutions, but when they turn from him to seek relief they are confronted by the wild-eyed, muddled, frenzied fanatic who preaches and practices violence.

Both of these classes are dangerous enemies to society. Both should be eliminated. Progress must come through sane, level-headed consideration of conditions and remedies, and both the anarchist and the parasite of high finance tend to prevent the dispassionate and constructive thought that is needed.

The high financier makes people hate the conditions that make him possible.

The absurd preacher of violence makes people distrust reform measures.

Progress would move faster if both could be eliminated, but it is hard to eliminate either. The high financier is entrenched behind great political and financial power, and he will not submit to being dislodged without a struggle. The bomb-thrower works in the dark, and we only become aware of him when he throws his bomb.

Yet it should be impossible to overcome both of these menaces to popular rights. We can realize that the bomb-thrower does not represent real reform, and that it is unfair to judge reform measures by his insane acts. By adopting reform measures that seem reasonable and logical, we can take away the special privileges that make the high financier possible. As to the anarchist, we can make it a crime to possess the implements of his trade, and provide punishment for everybody who has explosives for which he can show no legitimate use. And when we find one of this unholy tribe, we can make it so hot for him that he will move on or change his views.

DEMERITS FOR RAILROAD MEN.

Railroad employes have of late been subjected to some rather scathing charges from railroad managers. In part this is due to the instinctive desire of the railroad manager to pass on to somebody else the criticisms that reach him from the public. In part it appears to be based on actual conditions.

It is charged that there is a growing laxity of discipline among railroad employes. Some railroad officials attribute to this the nation's unpleasant prominence in distressing railroad accidents. This charge, while partly true, comes from the wish to shift the burden of responsibility for accidents from the shoulders of the railroad managers to the shoulders of the railroad employes. Any analysis of accident reports will show a large percentage due to niggardliness or carelessness on the part of railroad management, while at the same time it will show a large proportion due to the railroad men themselves.

The management of the Canadian Pacific railroad has developed a new plan, which has already been put into operation, by which it hopes to overcome the tendency to laxity of discipline.

Under this plan all employes will start with a clean record. Any exceptional service rendered will be credited to the employe's record. Any failure of discipline or judgment will be debited. In short, the company proposes to keep books upon the conduct of its employes. A weekly discipline list will be issued on each division. This list will show the cause and extent of discipline or action and the extent of record or demerit. Employes will, as heretofore, be subject to summary dismissal for insubordination, drunkenness on or off duty, frequenting saloons or places of low repute, incompetency, dishonesty, failure to carry out train orders and rules respecting train movements.

When demerit marks against any employe number sixty, he will be discharged.

Good service for a continuous period of one year will result in the removal of twenty demerit marks from the record of any man that has a bad score, so that temporary laxity may be made up by subsequent good work.

The circular carrying these provisions is published in the Railway Age, and upon the same page is a letter from a railroad employe charging that favoritism among railroad managers plays a large part in breaking down discipline. Unquestionably, where advancement goes by favoritism instead of by merit, discipline becomes an unknown quantity. Instead of destroying this system of favoritism, the Canadian Pacific plan will accentuate its evils. It will put into the hands of railroad managers or superintendents who wish to play favorites a powerful weapon to use in behalf of their pets and against those out of favor. It will be very easy for a superintendent who wishes to advance a favorite to pile up demerits against men standing in the way until they are put out of the way by dismissal. At the same time credits may be unfairly used to advance a favorite.

THREE SPORTING EVENTS.

The rushing river of current events threw to the top of its boiling flood yesterday three items of transcendent interest: all appealing more or less to the sporting instinct in humanity.

Last night Frank Gotch, an Iowa gentleman who has attained huge proficiency in adjusting the shoulders of his opponents to the mat in the wrestling ring, held muscular argument with one Hackenschmidt, heretofore known as the "Russian Lion" and champion wrestler of the world, as a result of which Mr. Hackenschmidt incontinently shed his lion's skin and betrayed himself as a lamb, while Mr. Gotch complacently assumed his title of world's champion.

Yesterday afternoon the friends of Mr. Bryan of Nebraska and the friends of Mr. Watson of Georgia met in final combat in the Populist convention at St. Louis, and, not to put too fine a point on it, the Watson men wiped up the earth with the Bryan men, who refused to play any more and left the place in a huff.

These were two clean, complete victories. The third event appears to have been a draw. It happened in congress, and it was a contest for points between the Republican majority in the house of representatives and the Democratic minority in the same. In order to understand the game it should be made clear that the object of the Republican players is to prevent any bills going through the wicket, while the object of the Democratic players is to score by putting some through. The Republican players having set out to prevent any scoring by consuming time over trifling matters, the Democratic payers interposed dilatory tactics intended to prevent anything except action on certain bills for which the Republican president and the non-partisan people have expressed a desire. The Republicans countered with a "gag rule" extemporaneously produced by the committee on rules—an adjunct to the speakership corresponding to the bat which the baseball batsman uses—the same being designed to make the Democratic minority keep its mouth shut and sit quiet. This, being fundamentally abhorrent to the Democratic nature, was greatly resented, and the result was a prolonged engagement with words as weapons. Epithets, defiances, taunts, reproaches, verbal brickbats flew back and forth, to the vast enjoyment of the galleries but to the small profit of the people.

Finally the game was called on account of darkness, and the umpire declared it a draw.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

They are telling a story about a traveling man who was at the St. Louis recently. A Duluth man, who has a very fast horse, asked the commercial man if he wanted a ride. Nothing loath, the knight of the grip stated that he would be very pleased to accompany the driver of the steed with a record around the 2:15 mark. Later he regretted his decision.

They had several appetizers before they started on the drive. The horse seemed to feel the spirit of the thing, for it started off at a record-breaking clip. Pedestrians narrowly missed being rudely brushed off their pins by the rein-straining horse. They took corners at a clip that sent the buggy on two wheels, wobbling between wrecking and righting by a hair's breadth.

In vain did the man of the road protest against the reckless rate at which they were traveling. The harder the owner pulled on the reins of the mare the faster she traveled. At Lakeside they went at a rate of speed that froze the blood in the city bred veins of the traveling man. Finally the traveling man saw the utter futility of verbal protest and gave himself up to the inevitable. However, no accidents occurred on the wild ride, and they returned to the hotel in safety. Aside from badly shaken nerves, a paleness that was born of severe fright and a dizziness from the blur of rapidly passing objects, the traveling man was none the worse for the experience.

Now, however, if any one asks him if he wants to take a drive, he courteously refuses, bearing in mind the experience behind the mare with a near-record mark.

Some one has pointed out the easy road to matrimony by the avenue of the hotel kitchen. It is not woman's province to wait upon man from the rosy Cupid point of view, but in waiting upon man and ministering to his material needs, the girls of the dining room seemed to have secured an unbreakable hold upon his tastes. Duluth has supplied several wives from the dining rooms of the local hotels within the last few weeks, and according to present indications, several more are due to assume the gentle burdens of the "thou shalt obey" regulations.

E. W. Merritt, at the St. Louis, is a mining man from Butte, who is well known to many Duluth men. Mr. Merritt says the copper interests of Butte will resume active work in a very short period.

A. L. Kenyon from Lima, Peru, states that the trade between America and her South American sister is bound to increase mightily within the next few years. Mr. Kenyon says many things have conspired to increase the trade activity between the two countries. The visit of Mr. Root had a most desired effect upon the Latin cousin. His assurance of the good feeling on the part of America would do everything in its power to not only keep the Monroe doctrine inviolate, but also that the trade relations of the two countries would be carried forward on the most friendly terms.

"South America is just awakening to its own possibilities," says Mr. Kenyon. "Heretofore, it has required the eye of a foreigner to point out the weaknesses of the natives. Now, however, they are beginning to find out their weaknesses for themselves and are taking advantage of this knowledge."

Mr. Kenyon believes that the industries of South America will increase greatly within the next few years. He also believes that the United States has a great field of commercial development in the Latin countries. The field, he says, is practically undeveloped, and it awaits the coming of a great power like the United States to establish trade relations and begin the work of building up a legitimate trade.

Mr. Kenyon believes that in the near future South America will not be known as the fostering mother of revolutions. They are becoming fewer each year, he says, and it is only a question of time when the citizens of that country will refuse to listen to the voice of every pretender who aspires to office. They are becoming tired of armed strife and will refuse to revolt at the call of some trivial cause.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

New York Press: A man doesn't enjoy smoking very much if he can afford it.

A man likes to be popular unless he has a chance to get rich.

A woman never expects to grow old, even long after she is.

A pretty girl always knows when she is pretty, whether she is or not.

The reason a woman is afraid a man is under the bed is she knows he isn't.

To Fall Back On.

Richmond Times-Dispatch: Of course, if Mr. Fairbanks does not hear his name mentioned at Chicago, he can always blame it on the acoustics of the hall.

To the woman who bakes, Royal is the greatest of time and labor savers. Makes home baking easy, a pleasure and a profit.

ROYAL Baking Powder

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

With minimum trouble and cost biscuit, cake and pastry are made fresh, clean and greatly superior to the ready-made, dry, found-in-the-shop variety.

THE WEATHER.

This morning dawned fresh, clear, splendid and spring-like. A light east wind brought a touch of coolness, but the sun shone warmly, and quickly dispatched what was left of the recent snowfall. Last night's lowest temperature was 25 degs. and yesterday's highest was 34 degs. The outlook for tonight and tomorrow is rather dubious, the weather man says. It is going to be cloudy, and there will probably be some rain or snow, followed tomorrow by clearing and colder weather.

A year ago today a small amount of rain and snow added variety to conditions.

The sun rose this morning at 5:41 and sets tonight at 6:41, making an even thirteen hours of sunlight.

Says Mr. Richardson of conditions: "The southern high pressure area has moved to Ohio valley states, the Western Carolinas and Georgia, its northeasterly movement causing colder weather in the Northeastern lake region and New England. The Alberta disturbance has advanced its center to Saskatchewan, causing warmer weather in most districts lying between the 85th and 110th meridians, and scattered areas of rain or snow in the Eastern lake region, New Mexico, Alberta and Oregon. The barometer is rising in British Columbia and the Northwest coast region, attended by colder weather in those districts. The easterly movement of the Saskatchewan low pressure may cause some rain or snow at the Head of the Lakes tonight, followed Sunday by clearing and colder weather."

SATURDAY NIGHT TALK

The Tonic of a Cheerful Presence.

Bronson crossed my path the other day. I had not seen him for quite a while, and I was at once struck by his sunny, cheerful demeanor. Now Bronson was never a misanthrope or a hypochondriac, but this time there was something so pronounced about his cheerfulness that I said, "Have you come into a fortune, old man?" "I'm not a cent richer than when you last saw me," was his prompt and jocund reply. "Well, then, have you been taking up with some of these new-fangled mind healing schemes or joined the Society for the Promotion of Universal Happiness?" "Yes and no," he answered. "I haven't swallowed whole any of the current devices for fostering physical or spiritual health. But as a result of reading and observation I have made up my mind that the thing to do is to put up a cheerful, hopeful front to the world, to keep my thoughts on health and virtue rather than on disease and vice, and to proceed on the assumption that mankind is meant to be happy, well and virtuous, come what will."

I had a chance the next few days to find out whether or not Bronson lived up to his new views, for we were fellow-travelers and fellow-sojourners under circumstances that tested our powers of endurance. Not once did he show himself impatient or irritable. Moreover, as I continued with him, I began to feel the forthputting influence of his strong and cheerful presence. I felt that he had gotten hold of some hidden and inexhaustible fountain of joy, and that life would not discomfort or vanquish him no matter in what trying forms it should come to him. Somehow he seemed to have gotten a grip on himself, a mastery of circumstances, a philosophy of the universe that anyone might covet.

The Bronson incident set me to thinking about the men and women of my present or past acquaintance, who carried with them the tonic of a cheerful presence, and I found, as I reflected, that the list included almost all of those whom I cared most to remember. There was an old college acquaintance, for example, whom I remembered over the years, not so much for his high rank, or for his athletic record, but because he deserved the title which came to be his before he was through his freshman year of "Old Cheerful." I recalled the fact that whenever we were campaigning for new members of the fraternity, and conversation dragged, all we needed to do was to bring "Old Cheerful" into the parlor where the sub-freshman was being rushed, and at once things would brighten an'l quicken.

Then I thought of an old aunt who used to visit at the parental home. She was a childless widow, poor and lame, but there was such an even cheerfulness about her that we were always glad to see her arrive and sad when she departed. Most of us must have at least a few relatives or friends of this type—God bless them. Whether they know it or not, they constitute the membership of the League of Good Cheer, into which society anyone who can be cheerful himself and communicate to others the desire and the purpose to be happy ought to be admitted without fee and with all the privileges of life membership.

But why can't we all belong? Can we make any better contribution to the world in which we live than the tonic of a cheerful presence? The influence of such a life spreads from person to person, until it becomes impossible to measure the totality of its output.

The Cheerful Presence requires for its nourishment something more than vaudeville jokes, or the funny column in the newspaper. Its roots go down deep into the realities of the spiritual world on which was builded the character of Him who once said to a group of anxious and discouraged men, "Be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."

HENRY ALLEN COOPER

BY SAVOYARD.

HENRY A. COOPER.

FIFTY years ago Wisconsin carried the doctrine of state sovereignty to the pass of successful nullification, and when the big war came Wisconsin was under rule to appear in the supreme court at Washington to purge herself of her contempt of the orders of that tribunal; but law is silent in the clash of arms, and Wisconsin went unwhipped for her treason. Perhaps that is an unfortunate term, in light of the fact that nullification is a local question—treason in South Carolina and patriotism in Wisconsin—and so we will just let it go at that, for since hypocrisy was first born in the world, it is given to the elect to work iniquity in behalf of virtue, or, as Sir John Falstaff put it:

"Why, thou unconfinable baseness, it is as much as I can do to keep the terms of mine honor precise. I, I, I, myself, sometimes leaving the fear of heaven on the left hand, and hiding mine honor in my necessity, am fain to shuffle, to hedge and to lurch."

And so with Wisconsin and the fugitive slave law, the Dred Scott decision, and the riders of the supreme bench. Leaving loyalty on the left hand, and hiding her duty in her fanaticism, Wisconsin nullified the law of the land and violated the Constitution of the United States.

* * *

But since Wisconsin's treason was made effulgent patriotism by the fortunes of war, Wisconsin has been a thoroughly loyal state, and for the old flag and a pension. She has always held up her en her end of the in congress—both houses—and in Carpenter, Spooner and Vilas she was in the first rank in the senate. In Bragg she had the most feared and best hated man in the house of representatives.

There was an election in the Wisconsin legislature some time ago to choose a man to supply the vacancy in the United States senate, occasioned by the resignation of John C. Spooner, and we have the story that this paper was presented to one of the candidates for his signature:

"I hereby promise and declare that I will, in case of my election to the United States senate from Wisconsin, most heartily support and uphold Senator La Follette in his work, endeavor and political effort, both in Washington and within the state as well."

He emphatically and indignantly spurned the offer, and besought somebody to tell him the answer to this question: "Is thy servant a dog that he should do this great thing?" He was not elected, and perhaps he would not have been had he accepted the proposal to sell himself for the senatorship.

* * *

Henry Allen Cooper was the man who was invited to become a senator with a vote in pawn, if tradition is to be taken for truth, as it sometimes is. Nobody who knows Cooper would credit him with any such baseness. He is conspicuous for his independence of character. He oftimes leads his friends and enemies alike to believe he is the stuff of which mugwumps are made. He has been known to break the shackles of party, not only in debates, but on the roll call, and if all the swashbucklers had had his determination the congressional cat would likely have been belled long ago. Not even to Tom Reed himself did Cooper tremble in fear or bend in sycophancy. He is that all-too-rare public character—a man with opinions which he will not surrender.

Wisconsin in 1850, and after a collegiate course in the Northwestern university, he studied law and was graduated from a law school in Chicago, after which he entered upon the practice at Racine, his present home. He was three times elected district attorney, after which he was state senator, and in 1892 he was returned to the Fifty-third congress as a Republican, and has been seven times re-elected. He was the first and only chairman of the committee on insular affairs, a council made necessary when we bought some millions of orientals to civilize and fetch up in the way that they should go.

* * *

Cooper distinguished himself his first session. Though a minority member, a Republican in a Democratic congress, it is scarce too much to say that Cooper's speech against the funding bill asked by the Pacific railroads was more potential for the defeat of that measure than any other. He was a pioneer of the noble guild of octopus chasers. After the government had voted empires of land and millions of cash loans to the Pacific railroads that were constructed on the credit mobilier plan, Jay Gould got possession of them and made money out of them; but when Thurman and Edmunds chased the octopus, Gould withdrew, and the roads were acquired by that Boston set who caused Wall street to stand aghast in admiration and envy. With the earnings they constructed parallel lines and diverted traffic to these latter. Now they were before congress to extend the government loan for eighty years at 2 per cent. That wa sthe thing Cooper did so much to defeat. Since then the government has collected the entire debt.

But the roads swore it was ruination. Yet they paid all those millions into the treasury without financial embarrassment, and their properties are among the most valuable of Mr. Harriman's entire holdings.

* * *

In 1896 the Republican national convention was guilty of the stupendous folly of preferring William McKinley to Thomas B. Reed a sthe candidate for president, and we had as sequence the far from glorious war with Spain, and the sequence of that was our acquisition of the Philippine archipelago, another superlative folly that the Republican party has the impudence to lay on Almighty God. Cooper added immemeasurably to his reputation as a forensic bater by his speech on the Philippine question. Hoar of Massachusetts, and Carmack of Tennessee, had opposed the government's policy in speeches in the senate that rank with the finest specimens of parliamentary eloquence in our history, and Cooper gave us the other side.

Nobody in congress has ever pretended to give the one tenable reason for the presence of the American flag in the Orient—the British alliance and the federation of the English-speaking peoples. That would insure the peace and security of all who speak our tongue and make for the tranquility of the world. But here is the Republican party, that was born to free the negro, going half way around the world to enslave millions of Orientals. It claims to find in the Constitution of the United States authority to go up and down the earth to civilize folks, when the fact is there is not a community in our own country half civilized as yet. We left Poland to writhe in agony under the accursed despoilisms of Germany, Austria and Russia, and shed a bushel of tears over the comparatively mild rule of Spain in Cuba and in the Philippines. Our conduct is as absurd as was that of the duchess of Somerset when Dean Swift accused her of having red hair and of murdering her first husband. As for the murder charge, which everybody knew to be false, her grace designed no answer; but as to the carroty hair, a charge visibly true, the lady made indignant and vociferous denial.

Cooper made the Philippine speech in 1902, and it has served as the Republican case since its delivery, and the country appears content to tax itself to the quick to maintain an odious and unconstitutional satrapy 12,000 miles away, without the security a British alliance would afford, and that, too, when the policy is likely any day to breed a war that will grind the American people under a debt of billions and billions.

The speech of Cooper was very eloquent and full of sentiment. He appeared to argue that because a fellow named Rizal wrote a poem and was executed for insurrection, it was our duty to civilize his fellow-countrymen. If we do that for all poets and rebels, we will be kept pretty busy the rest of our natural life, and possibly neglect some important domestic jobs.

Some time ago I wrote a syndicate letter, with Shelby M. Cullom for the subject, and in it I tried to give my impressions of John M. Palmer. A few days ago somebody sent me a copy of the Tribune, a newspaper published at Lewiston, Idaho, in which a Col. Parker challenges some of my facts, and among other things he says that John M. Palmer got his seat in the senate by signing a paper pledging him to support what is called 16 to 1, and thus brought to his support four middle-of-the-road Pops in the legislature. My recollection is there were but two Pops, though Col. Parker may be right as to the number. I do not believe Gen. Palmer ever signed such a paper. Had he done so it would have been printed everywhere when he voted for the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman law. There was no necessity for him to so sell himself, for those Pops were elected by Democratic votes and everybody knew that it was only a question of time when they would vote for the Democratic caucus nominee. But whether or not the colonel is right as to the facts, his conclusions in the following discover him to be endowed with the power of vision, though the blessed gift of observation was denied him:

"'Savoyard' has the faculty of manufacturing more Democratic history than any other safe and sane Democrat whose writings I have ever read.

"The safe and sane Democrats are queer people, tinctured with Pharisaism to an unprecedented extent, and labor under the delusion that what they do is all right, but when the reform element does it is all wrong. The fusion of the Democracy with the reform element in the presidential campaign of 1892 is a case in point. I have a very vivid recollection that in 1892, when Cleveland was our nominee for president, the Democracy of Idaho and other Western states received instructions from the Cleveland campaign managers and the national Democratic committee to haul down the names of the Democratic presidential electors and to substitute therefor the names of the Weaver electors, who were running on the Populist ticket.

"Let me reiterate: The completeness and highest significance of the presidential campaign in 1892, which placed the Democracy in complete control of the federal government was largely due to fusion with the Populists. In 1868 Oregon gave three electoral votes to Seymour. In 1880 Hancock received five from California and three from Nevada. Otherwise no Democratic candidates since the war had secured a single electoral vote from any of the states north and west of Indiana until the election of 1892. In that election, Mr. Cleveland secured fifty electoral votes from the Northwest, while twenty-two more were diverted from the Republican to the Populist column.

"The political revolution of 1892 began in 1890. It became evident in the elections of that year that sentiment in the Northwest was hostile to all the courses and policies upon which the Republican party had entered, notably against McKinleyism and the political alliance with trusts, monopolies, and other forms of the money power.

"In a straight vote between Republicanism and Democracy in 1892 the Democrats captured the thirty-six electoral votes of the two great states of Illinois and Wisconsin, together with five from Michigan, one from North Dakota and eight from California.

"In the fusion states, the Weaver electors swept all before them, resulting in the transfer of twenty-two electoral votes from the Republicans to the Populists. These changes were so great that Mr. Cleveand could have been elected, even if New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Indiana had gone Republican. The changes thus made would have thrown the election to Cleveland, even if every Southern state had been carried by the Populists. The election of Cleveland would have been assured in the same way had the solid South voted for Weaver, and New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut ofr Harrison.

"But the Democratic-Populistic-Cleveland fusion in 1892 accomplished even more than this. The policy pursued in the West by the Cleveland campaign managers gave to the Democracy the control of the senate, which the Republicans had packed, as they supposed for many years, by the admission of these new states. Illinois, North Dakota, California, Wyoming and Kansas each sent a Democrat to the senate chamber, while a Populist from Nebraska and another Populist from Kansas took the places of Republicans.

"Thus, when Cleveland was inaugurated, the prospects for a long regime of Democratic ascendancy were very light. But the two years of Cleveland plutocratic administration shattered the party, and in the congressional elections of 1894 the big Democratic majority in the house of representatives was reversed into a large Republican majority, and they have since held undisputed control of every department of the government."

And then the colonel complains because we, Palmer and Buckner, plutocrats, traitors and things, howled when "the Bryan Democracy undertook to join forces with the Populists of 1896." He closes by biddding me and the rest of the safe and sane layout to get on the plutocrat band wagon, etc.

* * *

Does Col. Parker mean to say that there was a particle of sympathy on Grover Cleveland's part for what the Populists call their "principles," which interpreted are only another phase of mischievous, worthless, profligate and unconstitutional paternalism? If he does, then he cannot even see, much less observe. Does Col. Parker deny that "the Peerless One" and the "Matchless" not only sympathizes with, but cordially approves and fondly embraces all the stuff the Populists promulgate as their "principles" and things? I trow not. Was Grover Cleveland nominated by a Populist national convention? William J. Bryan was—by two of them—and he accepted.

Col. Parker accuses me of "manufacturing bogus history." However that may be, I will now give him some of the real stuff that any man possessed of the power of observation will understand.

In 1892 the Democratic and Populist parties found themselves opposed to a common enemy. It was to the interest of each to curtail or destroy the supremacy of the Republican party, to the end that the Democrats might obtain power immediately, leaving to the Pops hope of power remotely. Hence, in its own interest and not in the interest of the Pops, except incidentally, the Democratic party accepted the Populist party as an auxiliary, just as Maj. Gen. Andy Jaokson profited by the services of the pirate Lafitte at New Orleans.

In 1849 Thaddeus Stevens joined with the "slave power" to defeat Robert C. Winthrop for speaker of the Thirty-first congress, and by the act of Stevens, Howell Cobb, a Southern slave holder, was chosen speaker. It was the object of the South to have a pro-slavery speaker; it was the object of Stevens to defeat a Northern "doughface;" but it would be absurd to say that Stevens had a sympathy for slavery or slave holders, and yet he had as much as Grover Cleveland had for Populists and Populism.

But I will now cite a case that even Col. Parker can understand. When James II was king of England, the Catholics and the Quakers found themselves in alliance against the established church to secure religious toleration and allow all nonconformists to worship God according to their accepted forms. Would Col. Parker say that there was sympathy between these two—Catholic and Quaker? Why, the pope of Rome looked on William Penn as the most despicable of heretics; while Penn thought the pope the same as anti-Christ, or a little samer. And that was the feeling existing between Cleveland and Weaver in 1892.

But Bryan and Weaver were as thick as Brindle and Cherry. There was nothing the Pops believed that Bryan did not accept. That is why the Democratic party has been a hobo ever since it deposed Cleveland in 1893, and set up Bryan and Jerry Simpson. Bland and Tom Watson, as Democratic demigods, or rather demagogue.

DULUTH SHRINERS PLANNING TO INVADE ST. PAUL NEXT SUMMER

Monster Gathering of Masons Scheduled for Saintly City.

Members of Aad Temple Will Be Active in Ceremonies.

Aad Temple of Duluth will figure prominently in the big celebration that will attend the Thirty-fourth annual session of the Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine which will convene in St. Paul July 14 and 15, next.

The annual meeting will be held under the auspices of Osman Temple of St. Paul and the Mystic Shriners in the Twin Cities are making preparations for the biggest affair in Masonry that has ever been held within the state.

It is expected that the delegation from Duluth will be so large that a special train will be chartered to carry the Shriners and their families to the Sainty City. Even at this early date hotel reservations are being made by the local people and, judging from the replies to inquiries received from the Twin City hotels and private boarding houses both St. Paul and Minneapolis will be long on crowds and short on accommodations for the big ovent.

Aad temple of Duluth is going to a considerable expense in preparing for its participation in the annual session, but it is expected that the showing to be made at St. Paul will be second to none of the big temples in the Northwest.

The official badge for Aad Temple, which will soon be issued is said to be one of the most elaborate and handsome emblems that will be seen at St. Paul. The design is emblematic of Duluth as the gateway of the Northwest and contains a fine reproduction of the famous aerial bridge.

Aad Temple will send to the Imperial council its past and present potentates. The temple has had three potentates. Jesso Norton and Joseph B. Cotton bear the honorary title of past potentate of the temple and A. A. Farrington is the present potentate.

Potentate Farrington has just received the official advance program of the annual session and it shows that Aad Temple will have a prominent place in the big show.

The official program, which will be of much interest to the Shriners and their friends, follows:

Sunday and Monday, July 12 and 13, 1908.

Special trains and boats will be met by reception committees. Escorts for Arab patrols and nobles from depot and wharf to hotels by Osman Temple Arab patrol and escorts. Beginning Monday morning each delegation will be met and escorted to its headquarters by bands.

Delegations having engaged quarters in Minneapolis will be met at depots by Zuhrah Temple Arab partol and escorted to their hotels.

Ladies accompanying all special delegations will be taken to their hotels in special cars and automobiles. Baggage to be immediately transfgerred by special wagons.

The visiting delegations coming or departing by way of the Great Lakes will be received at Duluth by the nobles of Aad temple and entertained and shown the various points of interest in and about the city. Duluth. (the Pittsburg of the West), situated as it is at the Head of the Lakes and with its natural gateway is fast becoming one of the greatest inland shipping ports in the United States, and from its docks each year are received and shipped millions of tons ore and coal and millions of feet of lumber. Thousands of couriers bearing ore, coal and lumber arrive and depart monthly, and its population is showing great increase each year.

Officers of the imperial council, representatives and visiting Nobles, immediately upon their arrival in St. Paul are requested to register and receive their official itinerary for the week.

Headquarters for the imperial council and representatives will be at the Hotel Ryan, and the general headquarters for visiting Nobles will be at the Masonic temple, Fifth street, between Wabasha and St. Peter streets. Upon your arrival visit the information bureau in the depot from which you will be directed and advised in regard to accommodations and given any other information.

Sunday, July 12, 8 p. m.

Appropriate services at all churches in St. Paul and Minneapolis. Special services at the People's church in St. Paul and Fowler M. E. church in Minneapolis.

Monday, July 13, 10 a. m.

Special sightseeing trips for all visiting Nobles and ladies by automobiles, carriages, electric cars and sightseeing automobiles to Indian Mounds park, located at the summit of the first bluff when approaching St. Paul up the Mississippi.

The Nobles and ladies of Zuhrah temple will keep "open house" for visitors in Masonic temple, Hennepin avenue and Sixth street, every day and evening during the week. Visiting Nobles and their ladies are cordially invited to call and enjoy the hospitality and courtesies to be extended. Plans will be made for personally conducted trips for the visitors by automobile and trolley to points of interest.

Monday, July 13, 2 p. m.

Steamboat excursions for the Imperial Council, representatives and their ladies for a delightful trip up the Mississippi river to historic Fort Snelling, at which point they will be received and entertained by the officers' club and shown about the barracks and other points of interest on the reservation. After which time all visiting nobles and their ladies are invited to witness grand military maneuvers, review, dress parade and band concert.

Monday, July 13, 5:30 p. m.

Officers of Imperial Council and representatives and their ladies will leave Fort Snelling, returning by boat down the Mississippi, and arriving in the city at 6:30 p. m. Provisions will be made for all visiting Nobles and their ladies to return to the city by trolley, early enough to be in time for this evening event.

Monday, July 13, 8 p. m.

Grand ceremonial session of Osman Temple at the St. Paul Auditorium. At this particular time the walls of this beautiful building will be expanded to provide for the grandest ceremonial session ever held by any Temple. Never before has it been possible at an imperial council meeting to hold a ceremonial session, such as will be provided in this grand amphitheater, which will house 16,000 people, with a stage of 16,000 square feet, and so acoustically arranged that the faintest voice can be heard in every corner of it. This immense stage will be the scene of three sections, the finest that Osman has ever put on, everything new and original except the ritualistic work. Osman Temple has long been noted for its original and unique ceremonial sessions, and on this occasion the work will be put on entirely by Osman Temple. If you have ever attended one of Osman's ceremonials you will know what you may expect. No expense will be spared to make this particularly unique and well to be remembered.

Every visiting Noble is is invited to attend this ceremonial session, but must be provided with his fez and this year's yellow card, to gain admission.

Monday, July 13, 8 p. m.

Theater parties for all visiting ladies. Special attractions will be provided during that week at the different theaters and all the seats of at least two theaters for this evening will be provided by Osman temple. Receptions at the different headquarters, by ladies of the various visiting temples, including concert, and a reception by the ladies' committee of Osman temple in their parlors at Hotel Ryan.

Tuesday, July 14, 9 a. m.

Imperial Council, officers and representatives, escorted by all visiting patrols and bands to the opening session of the Imperial Council at the Auditorium. Procession to start from Hotel Ryan (headquarters of the Imperial council). All patrols and bands to be on hand promptly at this hour. All patrols accompanied by bands or drum corps will report to the committee on parades. This parade will mark the finest event of the Imperial Council session, and it is hoped that all visiting patrols and bands will participate.

10 a. m.—Opening session of the Imperial council at the Auditorium. The building having, since the night before, been changed from a grand amphitheater of its entire capacity, to a beautiful theater, with a seating capacity of 3,500 for Imperial Council sessions. The program will start by a grand prologue and musical selection rendered by the Minnesota State band of fifty pieces. This will be followed by a chorus of 200 voices (the children of St. Paul public schools) under the direction of Noble D. F. Colville, accompanied by the Minnesota State band. Addresses of welcome by the mayor, potentate of Osman temple and others.

2:30 p. m.—Traditional banquet in honor of the imperial council (officers and representatives) upon the stage of the auditorium, in the rear of the theater, having been arranged for, during the time of the Imperial council's session in the theater. Band concert during the banquet.

Tuesday, July 14, 9 a. m. and 2 p. m.

Side trips for visiting Nobles and ladies, electrical excursions to White Bear Lake, Stillwater, Indian mounds and state fish hatchery, Como park, state agricultural school, Phalen park, Wonderland, Lake Minnetonka and Fort Snelling, as well as South St. Paul, a suburb of St. Paul, which is rapidly growing to be one of the greatest stock centers in the United States, where one of the five largest packing industries in the United States is located, and visitors at all times are welcome to inspect the various large plants. All Nobles will be received and entertained by members of the South St. Paul Stock Yards company.

Launch trips up and down the Mississippi and Minnesota rivers, under the auspices of the Minnesota boat club and St. Paul Launch club. These trips will not only be made on this day, but will be provided every day during the week. You are sure to enjoy one of these launch trips.

Tuesday, July 14, 8 p. m.

Grand Shriners' electrical parade, in which all Arab patrols, bands and other visiting parade features will participate, and every visiting Noble is requested to take part. The streets of St. Paul will be gorgeously illuminated on the "Way of Lights," which will be the principal scene of this most dazzling spectacle. This night parade is expected to surpass anything that has yet been attempted, and there will probably be 15,000 to 20,000 Shriners in line, all wearing the red fez and most of whom will be in full dress. This parade will be made up of many divisions, each headed by a band and Arab patrols all in their gorgeous costumes. Every division will be directly in charge of imperial officers, representatives, and potentates from all parts of North America. You can't afford to miss it.

Tuesday evening (after the parade—Reception to the Nobles of the various temples at their headquartes, which will be named more in detail in the official program issued in July.

Wednesday, July 15, 10 a. m.

Second day of session of the imperial council at the auditorium.

Exhibition drills by the visiting patrols at St. Paul Ball park, in which about twenty of the visiting patrols will participate. We are being advised every day that many of the temples are making great preparations and practicing for this event. Not only will the Arab patrols take part, but we are also advised that ladies' patrols, listing thirty to fifty members, are coming prepared to drill and parade.

10 a. m.—Steamboat excursions up the Mississippi river to the Minnesota Soldiers' home and historic and romantic Minnehaha Falls, made famous by Longfellow's beautiful poem, "Hiawatha."

2 p. m.—Grand international automobile races at the State Fair grounds, Minnesota State fair is the greatest state fair in the United States, with grounds of complete area of 247 acres. Last year's weekly attendance was over 300,000, and daily attendance over 50,000. On the opening day of the fair last year 95,000 people attended. It has one of the fastest race tracks in the country. In this event the most powerful automobiles and international driver will take part. These races are under the auspices of the St. Paul Automobile club, who are now making all the necessary provisions for a grand exhibition. This will be one of the main events during the week and one which all visiting Nobles and their ladies will attend. Provision will be made for special cars and automobiles to take the imperial council officers and representatives to the fair grounds immediately at the close of their season.

Minneapolis, Wednesday, 8 p. m.

Grand parade of Arab patrols, bands, etc., on Minneapolis' most beautiful thoroughfare, Nicollet avenue. At the close of the parade, those participating therein will be tendered by nobles of Zuhrah temple. Special features will also be provided for visiting nobles and their ladies visiting Minneapolis upon this evening. Receptions at the Masonic temple and hotels.

St. Paul, Wednesday, July 15, 8 p. m.

Evening reception and band concert at Minnesota state capitol which will be beautifully illuminated.

Receptions at the headquarters of the various temple and special band concert and entertainment at Harriet island (on the Mississippi). Special illumination of the island and numerous searchlights upon the public baths.

Minneapolis Day, Thursday, July 16.

The nobles of Zurah temple, Minneapolis, in assisting Osman temple of St. Paul, have provided a beautiful day's program. Minneapolis, with its beautiful drives, parks and lakes, will be of much interest to our visitors.

The officers and members of the Imperial council and their ladies will be the guests of Zurah temple for the day. Special trolley cars will receive the representatives and their ladies at Hotel Ryan, St. Paul, at 10 o'clock a. m., and carry them to Minneapolis by way of the state fair grounds and the state university. After the ride about the city, a stop will be made at Lake Harriett, where luncheon will be served. After luncheon they will be started upon their journey to Lake Minnetonka, where the party will embark on a steamer for a two-hour trip on the lake, visiting all points of interest. The return will be made to Minneapolis for an early dinner, following which the party will be returned by trolley to St. Paul.

St. Paul, Thursday, July 16, 9 a. m.

Entertainment and special side trips for visiting nobles and their ladies.

6 p. m.—By a noble of Osman temple, Noble Gebhard Bohn, an elaborate reception tendered to the visiting nobles and their ladies upon the grounds of the White Enamel Refrigerator company at Midway. This will be one of the events of the week. The main building, beautifully decorated, and with a floor space of 90,000 square feet, will be thrown open and a grand reception and band concert held. One hundred of St. Paul's beautiful young women, gowned in white, will serve refreshments inside the grand circle of 100 white enamel refrigerators finished especially for the occasion, as a setting frame to this grand room, which will also be utilized for dancing.

Friday, July 17, 10 a. m.

Grand day reception at the state capitol. The most beautiful state house in the United States, built at the cost of $4,500,000 and completed after nine years. Its grounds cover an area of six acres. It is the pride of all Minnesota and admired by every visitor that comes to St. Paul. The entire building will be open for visitors from 10 a. m. until 1 p. m.

1 p. m.—Grand civic parade.

It is expected that Minneapolis and Duluth will add their efforts to the civic bodies of St. Paul in producing one of the grandest displays of military, civic and other features that have ever been seen in the Northwest. A half holiday will be declared, and all business suspended. All divisions will be formed under the direction of numerous marshals. Visiting Arab patrols and bands will take part and other civic and attractive features will be provided by visiting delegations from temples of various cities.

3:30 p. m.—Imperial reception and grand ball at the Auditorium and Armory. The Auditorium will again be expanded to its full seating capacity of 6,000. The immense stage and all other parts of this great building will be the scene of a grand reception in which thousands of Shriners in full dress and members of various Arab patrols in their costumes and accompanied by their ladies will take part.

At the new armory of the Minnesota State National Guard, which is located only a short distance from the Auditorium, will be held a grand Shriners' ball, and all visiting nobles and their ladies are invited to attend.

Saturday.

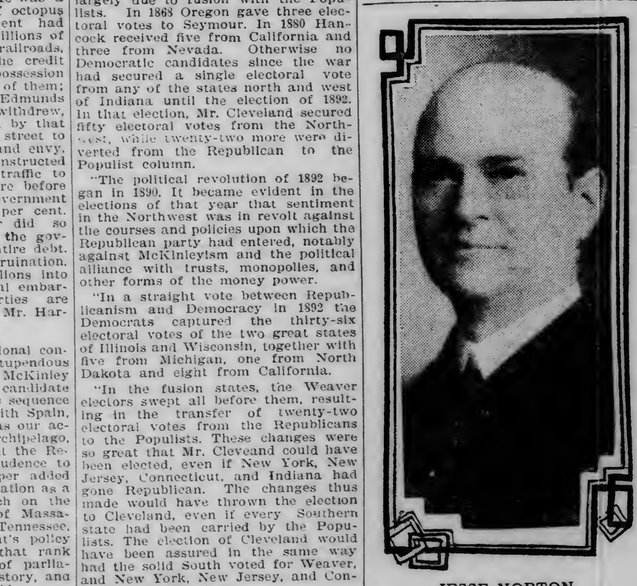

The program for this day has not been definitely settled as yet, but a big event is being arranged for and other attractions will also be provided so that all visitors will have an opportunity to visit the numerous points of interest in the immediate locality of St. Paul.

SOCIETY

THE most interesting social event of the week was the wedding of Miss Jessie Elizabeth LaSalle to Ernest Rackle of Cleveland, which took place this afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. N. LaSalle of Chester Terrace. A number of beautiful social functions in honor of the bride were given during the week and the wedding this afternoon was marked by a beautiful simplicity. Only the members of the families and a few immediate friends were present for the ceremony. Bridal roses and ferns were the decorations used in the living rooms, where the service was read, and in the dining room. Jonquils were the flowers which appeared in the hall.

The service was read at 2 o'clock by Rev. M. S. Rice of the First Methodist church. Miss LaSalle had as her only attendant Miss Lucia Sanderson of Cleveland, and Mr. Rackle was attended by his brother, George Rackle, also of Cleveland. The bride wore a beautiful gown of ivory white satin fashioned in the empire mode, and she wore a tulle veil. Her bouquet was a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Among the guests were Miss Charlotte Partridge of Chicago and Miss Farrington of Minneapolis.

Mr. Rackle and his bride left on the afternoon train for a wedding trip and after May 1 will be at home on Seventy-first street, Cleveland.

Miss LaSalle was the guest of honor at several delightful functions during the week. Mrs. H. A. Dancer entertained at an informal afternoon Wednesday at her home on East Second street. The decoration and favors were Japanese, and twelve guests were entertained.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McManus were hosts at a theater party, at which the guests were the members of the bridal party.

Thursday evening Capt. and Mrs. A. B. Wolvin were hosts at the bridal dinner at their home on East Superior street. Daffodils were the table decorations, and besides the hosts and guest of honor, covers were laid for:

Misses—
Lucia Sanderson, of Cleveland.	Charlotte Partridge of Chicago.
Josephine Carey.
Messrs—
George Rackle.	Fred Wolvin.
Carroll Graff.

The above list of officers was elected at the tenth annual meeting of the Twentieth Century club, which was held Monday afternoon of this week at the club room of the library. The reports of the officers of the club and of the chairmen of the various committees were heard and the club has completed the most successful year of its history. The various departments have been kept up with interest and different classes have been arranged for, so that next fall when the club will enter upon its eleventh year of work, there will be no department in which active work will not be carried on.

The U. S. Kerr Concert.

The musical event of the week will be the concert to be given at Pilgrim Congregational church Wednesday evening, April 8, U. S. Kerr, the basso-cantante, will be the attraction, and will be assisted by the brilliant pianist, Maurice Eisner, who was recently heard in this city with Maude Powell. Although, Mr. Kerr is widely known throughout the United States, this is his initial appearance in Duluth, and according to press comments from ever city where Mr. Kerr has sung, Duluth may expect a rare musical treat. Boston is Mr. Kerr's home city by adoption, as he has spent the greater part of his life there in study. In fact, his musical education was entirely received there with the exception of a year and a half spent in Berlin. Following are a few extracts from recent press notices:

St. Paul Dispatch: "Mr. Kerr stirred the audience to the enthusiasm, which it is accustomed to display upon the occasion of each of his appearances. His voice is so full and musical, his work so artistic in tone and phrasing, and his legato so unfailingly beautiful that his singing is a profound satisfaction."

Minneapolis Tribune: "Mr Kerr's magnificent voice, mellow, vigorous, flexible and thrilling, with an individual quality that renders it distinctive, met the requirements of intrepretation with a facility and an intelligence invariably noted in his work. The limits of space forbid an analytical review of his long program. It must be sufficient to say that in the familiar numbers he excelled himself and in the skillfully chosen unfamiliar songs he placed the music lovers present under the obligation for instruction as well as for pleasure."

Milwaukee Sentinel, Wisconsin: "Not since the days of Plemket Green, Oumoroff and David Bispham has a singer been heard in Milwaukee of whom so many good things could be said as of U. S. Kerr, a young basso-cantante of Boston, who sang here last evening in Conservatory hall."

Milwaukee Journal: "U. S. Kerr fully maintained the fine impression which he made at a former appearance. His voice is large in body, rich and peculiarly carrying in quality, etc. 'The Evening Star,' from Tannhauser, was given with broad, musical warmth and feeling."

Maurice Eisner.

Norwegian Plays.

The Norwegians Thesplans will appear in two plays in their native tongue tomorrow evening at the Flanten auditorium. The plays to be given are a farce "Peter and Inger" and a musical comedy "Abekatten."

The cast for the first named play is as follows:

Mor Hanson, hans Hustra..Mrs. Sanness
Inger, deres Datter ....Mrs. L. H. Larson
Petter Jenson, Mor Hansens Broderson ..... Annar Myhre
Amerikaneren ..... Andrew Rism

..... Mrs. Sanness
Ole, i Iversens Tjeneste .... Roy Prytz
Linddal, juridisk Kandidat..Annar Myhre
Handlingen foregaar i Iversens Hus i Pile-Alleen paa Frederiksberg.

The Art School.

There is widespread interest throughout the city in the Art school established by the Women's Council, and in which the first classes were held during the week. The time for the organization of such a school seems to have been most opportune, and those most keenly interested in the school and the progress of Duluth along cultural lines tell that a great step forward has been taken and that the Duluth Art school is sure of becoming one of the important works of the city. The day and evening classes have been organized and work begun, although the regular art instructor for the school, C. C. Rosencranz has not yet arrived. Mr. Rosencranz is daily expected and it is thought that by next week the classes will be deeply engaged in the regular outline of work.

Although the school has been extensively advertised there is yet some question about the course of work outlined. It is planned to have the first year's work of the Duluth school provide an equivalent for the first year of work in the good art schools of the country. Classes for children and teachers have been arranged for and as the demand grows tuition in applied design and the craft work will be arranged. The school rooms on the third floor of the Washington school building are admirably suited for the purpose, and with the easels and casts already provided have a most studio-like appearance.

It is desired by the board of managers that those contemplating enrolling for the first term will register as soon as possible.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS' PAGE

When Grasshopper Went A-Wooing.

There was a young Grasshopper, gay,
Who thought he would take him a bride;
So forthwith he went out one day
To look round the whole country side.

He hopped through the tall, rustling grass
That grew at the little pond's side;
He smiled at every young lass
Whom he thought might be a fair bride.

But none proved quite to his taste,
So he hurried along toward the wood;
For a bride should not be sought in haste;
Thus Grasshopper gay understood.

But in passing a high tuft of grass
Young Hop saw a pair of bright eyes:
They belonged to a dear little lass
Who was heaving the softest of sighs.

The bright-eyed was Miss Katy Did;
And gay young Hopper's heart beat
As he smiled and lifted his lid,
And bowed low at Miss Katy's feet.

"Be my bride, dearest one," he said,
"For you've captured my heart this day."
And for answer Kate nodded her head,
And together they hopped right away.

They were married in church that same day,
With the family and friends all about:
And handsome they looked, so folks say,
As gay bride and groom they hopped out

YANKEE BREAKFAST FOOD.

A commercial traveler from Chicago was stopping at a hotel in Vermont. Seating himself at the breakfast table he asked of the waitress: "What kinds of breakfast food have you?"

"Apple, mince, cranberry, pumpkin and custard," was her prompt reply.

BERT AND STELLA PAY THE PENALTY.

BY WILLIAM WALLACE, JR.

The mother of Bert and Stella Jackson was obliged to go to town on a shopping expedition, leaving her little son and daughter in the care of the old colored cook, the only house servant kept by the Jacksons. As the town was several miles distant, it necessitated Mrs. Jackson's remaining from home all day when making a journey there. She usually took leave of her little ones as soon as breakfast was over, and did not return till after dusk. But always before this day of which I am telling you Mrs. Jackson's maiden aunt had been of the family and had looked after the children during their mother's absence. But the maiden aunt had gone to visit relatives in a far-away city, and there was no one left at home to keep an eye on Bert and Stella save the old colored cook, Aunt Nancy by name.

"Now, Aunt Nancy, keep good care of my little ones," commanded Mrs. Jackson as she was about to depart. "Give them their luncheon at the usual hour and see that they do not leave the yard while out at play." Then turning to Bert and Stella, she said to them: "Children, obey Aunt Nancy and remember mamma's instructions about your staying in the yard. Do not leave the premises while I am away. It is such a glorious day that you may spend most of the time about the yard or down by the old straw stacks at play. But remain within call of Aunt Nancy."

Then Mrs. Jackson kissed her son and daughter and departed toward the town, 10 miles distant.

For an hour or more Bert and Stella played about the big front yard, enjoying the games that two may participate in. But as the morning dragged toward noon Bert became restless. He missed the usual excitement that prevailed about the place when his parents were at home. But with their mother in town shopping, their father in another state on business, and the maiden aunt visiting relatives in a distant city, he found the country a most desolate place, indeed.

"Didn't mamma say that we might meet her at the railroad station?" asked Bert, tossing a rubber ball listlessly.

"We didn't think to ask her about it," replied Stella. "Now, isn't that too bad? I fully intended to tell her that we wished very much to come to the station to meet her. Of course, she'll come home from the station in the same public hack that she went down there in. But there's room for us, too, for seldom are there any other passengers coming out so far as our house."

"Oh, mamma wouldn't have refused to allow us to meet her tonight," declared Bert. "She'll be so glad to see us standing on the platform when she alights from the train. And what a jolly ride we'll all have together coming from the station in that funny, rumbling, old hack. I'm glad our carriage is at the shop for repairs, for I like the public hack lots better. That old driver is so funny and always entertains his passengers with some quaint yarns as his old horses jog along at about one mile an hour." And Bert laughed at remembrance of the old hack-driver, whose public conveyance was a most unique sight in that vicinity of carriages and automobiles.

"Well, and so you really think that mamma wouldn't object to our going to the station to meet her?" asked Stella, herself becoming a bit lonely and somewhat tired of the monotony of the yard.

"Of course, she wouldn't," asserted Bert, emphatically. "She'll be only too glad to see us there waiting for her."

And so it was agreed by Bert and Stella that as soon as the clock struck 5 they would start for the little railroad station a mile distant.

But the hours dragged and dragged so that it seemed the hands on the clock would never get round to 5. At half-past four Bert suggested that they start earlier and spend the spare time at the station, as the time would pass more quickly there, watching the chance people who might be about the waiting-room, than at home watching the snail-like hands of the clock.

Stella agreed that Bert's plan was a good one, and ran to tell Aunt Nancy of their intention. As Aunt Nancy listened to Stella she opened wide her eyes, saying in a doubtful voice, shaking her head the while: "Lawsey, honey-lamb, I'se not so sartin, I ain't, bout 'lowin' you an Marse Bert to go away off down yander to dat station. Ole Nance, she's bin tole by you all's ma dat she's not ter 'low you alls out o' the yard. Now, I'm not so shore dat you alls better go, honey-lamb."

"But, don't you see, Aunt Nancy? we're just going to meet mamma. If we'd thought to ask her permission she'd have been glad to grant it. I know what I'm talking about, Aunt Nancy." And Stella spoke in a very convincing way.

"Well, maybe you knows, honey-lamb, what you's talkin' 'bout, but old Nance, she knows at the same time what you alls ma done tole her to do. An' though old Nance hates to refuse you an' Marse Bert anything in the whole worl', still she done mus' refuse to give her consent to you all's goin' down dar to meet you alls ma tonight."

"All right Aunt Nancy," laughed Stella, "we'll tell mamma that we went away without your consent, and if she has any fault to find in the matter it will not be with you. And now we're off. Aunt Nancy." And Stella ran out of the house to accompany Bert, who was ambling off down the road towards the station.

"Lawsey, honey-chile, please doan't go!" cried old Nancy, hurrying out of the house in pursuit of Stella.

"Lawsey, honey-chile, please doan't go!" cried old Nancy hurrying out of the house in pursuit of Stella. "Please doan't go, for you all's ma done told me—"

But Stella and Bert, laughing and waving their hands to old Nancy, were out of hearing of the end of Nancy's plea, and were soon lost to the old woman's sight by turning a corner of the hedge.

As they went along they found many things to talk about, and the time as well as their feet flew, and soon they found themselves at the deserted little railroad station where they found seats on the edge of the platform.

And so two hours passed by, Bert and Stella being alone during the whole time. At last the station agent came to open the waiting room, saying that the train would be in from the city in half an hour. Then came a few travelers to take the train, and Bert and Stella took up their places on the platform, where the train would stop, to watch for their mother.

To their joy the train came puffing in on time, and eagerly they watched the few passengers alight from the coaches, hoping every second that their mother would step to the platform. But soon the train was slowly moving away, and their mother had not put in her appearance. In their disappointment and apprehension they stood looking after the slowly departing train, their minds not made up as to what they should do. Stella was the first to speak:

"Why, Brother, mamma didn't come! What do you suppose has happened to keep her in town?"

"Missed the train, I reckon," said Bert, drawing down the corners of his mouth. "Gee, wish we hadn't come, now."

"Well," said Stella, "I guess the only thing for us to do is to get the old hackman to drive us home."

"Yes, that's all we can do," assented Bert. Then he went to look for the hack-driver and came back to inform Stella that the station agent had told him that the hackman had taken some passengers to a farm several miles distant and would not return to his home, which was close to the station, for at least two hours.

"Well, we've got to walk," sighed Stella. "And see how dark it is! Ugh! I wish we'd stayed at home—as mamma instructed us to do." Then Stella fell to blaming Bert, who in turn condemned Stella for consenting so readily to accompany him to the station, declaring that if she had refused to disobey their mother he would not have done so.

"Oh, well, there's no use in our stopping to quarrel about it," declared Stella, almost in tears. "Let us go home as fast as we can. Come along."

Bert, a scowl of displeasure on his otherwise handsome face, agreed that they'd have to go and not waste time fooling about it, so they started off at once toward their own home.

"Say," said Bert, after the first quarter of a mile had been covered, "if we take the upland road we'll not have to pass through any timber. It's half a mile farther that way, but it's all out under the open sky. And it's not pleasant to be walking through the dark woods at night."

"All right," agreed Stella, shivering at the thought of the strip of woods through which they must pass on that road. "I don' mind the extra half mile. But—Bert, what was that? As sure as I'm alive I felt a rain drop." And Stella stopped, holding out her hand to feel for rain.

"Yep, and so did I," declared Bert. "Yep, and there's another and another. Oh, it's sprinkling fast. Just feel it on your face and hands."

Stella began to cry, holding her hands over her face.

"Don't be a cry-baby," said Bert. "Come along, we can't go the uphill road now, for we'd get drenched to the skin. On this road we can take shelter under the trees if it rains very hard."

"And stay out all night!" moaned Stella. "Oh, if only we had obeyed mamma and Aunt Nancy. Oh, it's just good enough for us to be made to suffer for our disobedience, so it is."

"Yep, that's the way with girls," declared Bert, turning his coat collar up to keep the fast-falling raindrops from his neck. "They never care how disobedient they are till they begin getting punished for it. Then they weep and wail. But come on and don't stop there in the road. It's beginning to rain like sixty. Gee, but we'll get soaked!"

Stella was now weeping from cold and fear, and also from a sense of her wrongdoing. Bert also felt a qualm of conscience, remembering that it was through his argument that Stella had been induced to come with him. He felt a lump in his throat. He also felt the need of a plausible excuse for having disobeyed his mother's instructions, and in inducing his sister to act likewise.

Just as both children were about to succumb to the pouring rain and cold they heard the honk, honk of an automobile coming toward them. And in another moment they heard their mother's voice saying: "Stop! There they are in the road." Then she called out to them: "Ah, there you are, my disobedients! Come, get into the auto as quickly as you can. No, Bert, don't say one word of excuse to me now. Tomorrow we shall have the reckoning. You are in no condition—neither of you—to talk tonight." And their mother wrapped them in a warm auto rug, telling the chauffeur to drive home as quickly as possible.

"Now," she said, turning to her disobedients, "I'll explain how I happened not to come by train tonight. Aunt Gracie decided to come and visit us for the week end, and we came from town in her auto. Johnny and Maggie are with us, too, but you shall not see them tonight, for you must pay the penalty of your disobedience. Besides that punishment, I greatly fear you will both be ill from this exposure. And if you are you must realize that you are paying for your own naughty conduct. Now, say nothing to me tonight, but the moment we reach home go to your rooms and get into bed. And I shall give you each a big dose of castor oil."

And as they hurried along in silence Bert and Stella vowed to themselves that never, no, never, would they be guilty of disobeying their mother in future. Castor oil! Both shuddered at the thought. And, worse still, they must go to bed without having a little visit with Johnny and Maggie, two most congenial little cousins, whom they loved.

Bessie's Party.

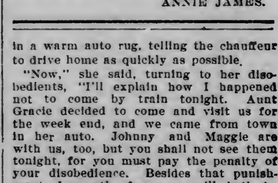

A little party Bessie gave
To all the girls and boys;
They came and brought her presents
In the form of pretty toys.

There was a little cat to sit
Beside a tin play grate;
There was a big sea captain, too,
And the sea captain's mate.

There was a tiny tea set, fine,
Of china pink and white;
A doll with lovely yellow curls
And eyes that closed at night.

There was a little Teddy Bear
With fur so soft and brown;
In fact, he was the very best
Small Bruno in the town.

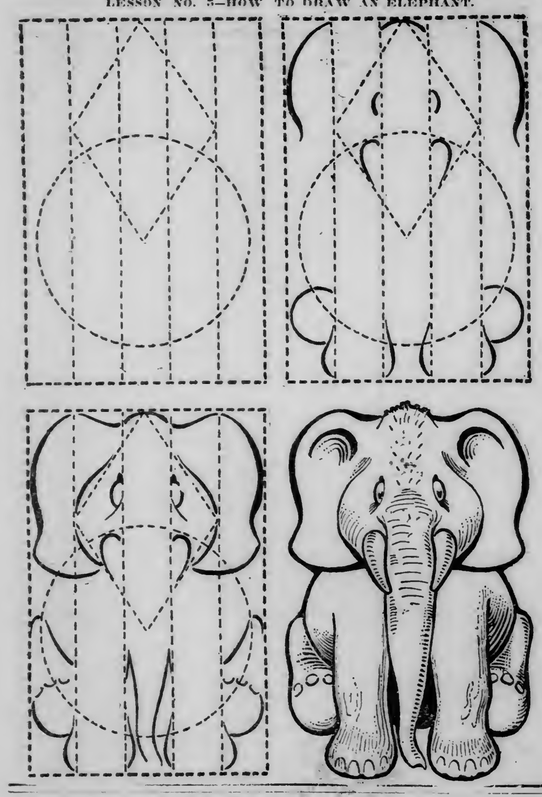

And Bessie very happy was
With all her lovely toys,
And you should just have seen the spread
She gave the girls and boys!

HELPFUL HINTS FOR OUR YOUNG ARTISTS.

LESSON NO. 5—HOW TO DRAW AN ELEPHANT.

THE MAGIC STUMP.

BY MAUD WALKER.

A long, long time ago there dwelt in a land beyond the seas an old couple that were childless. They were much disliked in their community for their wickedness and cruelty to children who worked for them. Among the young who were employed to work for them were their little grandniece and grandniece, aged, respectively, 9 and 11. These little kinsfolk were orphans, their parents having died several years before this story opens. As the parents were very poor, and there were no other relatives save the old uncle and aunt, of whom I have just spoken, they were obliged on their deathbeds to leave their little son and daughter to the care of this old couple, who promised the dying parents that they would take the little fatherless and motherless ones to their own home and be kind to them, educating them carefully and loving them as though they were their very own flesh and blood.

But scarcely had they reached their own home—a fine estate of many hundreds of acres of tilled lands and wild forests—when they put the little grandnephew, by name Henko, and the little grandniece, by name Sena, out in the fields to destroy the weeds that threatened the grain. All day long, beneath the burning sun, did Henko and Sena work, pulling the lusty weeds from the stubborn soil. And at night their little backs and arms ached so that they wept silently in their miserable beds, for they had never been made to suffer that way before, and it almost broke their poor hearts to be subjected to such cruelty. Their own parents had been very poor, but at the same time extremely affectionate and considerate of their little ones, doing everything in their power to make them happy.

One morning when Henko and Sena came from their closetlike rooms for breakfast they were told that after that morning they should eat their meals in the back yard with the other servants. This bit of news was not unwelcome to the children, for while in the presence of their very severe uncle and cross, irritable aunt they could not eat with any relish the spare, coarse meals set before them. And when told that they should in future eat with the servants in the back yard they felt very glad of the prospect of getting away from the formidable company of their old and crabbed kinsfolk, and Henko, forgetful of himself, smiled as he said:

"Thank you, Uncle and Aunt, for your kindness in allowing sister and me to share the meals of the other servants. We shall be very glad to do so."

"Glad to do so? Do I hear my own ears rightly?" And the old aunt sprang from her chair, almost choking on the tender wing of a nicely broiled fowl, as sh gave vent to her anger. (While she and her husband were breakfasting on broiled wild duck, tender oat cakes and honey, washing the dainty viands down with home-made wine, Henko and Sena were eating their breakfast of coarse porridge and skimmed milk.)

"Do you mean to insinuate, my smart young man, that you prefer the company of the servants to that of your venerable uncle and self-sacrificing aunt?" And the old woman shook her fist threateningly in poor little Henko's face.

"Yes, and he has the impudence to say 'the other servants,' just as though he and his sister have been made servants of," put in the irate old uncle. "Bah, isn't it enough to have the thankless children of poverty-stricken kinsfolk thrust upon you without being submitted to their nasty insults? Bah, it's too much for human beings with feelings and hearts to bear. No, sir; you and your sister shall not eat with the servants—the other servants—if you wish to be classed with the menials—but shall eat out behind the pen where the goats are kept at night; and there your meals may be spread upon an old stump. Now, have you anything to say, sir?"

"Only that my sister and I shall obey your orders, Uncle," said Henko, his pale face flushing with the sense of injustice. "We shall go behind the goat-pen tomorrow for our meals, sir."

"Yes, and you'll be sorry enough that you have insulted your foster-parents," declared the old aunt, drinking off a pint of wine to quiet her feelings.

The next morning Henko and Sena went from their rooms to the rear of the ill-kept goat-pen, finding there in the edge of a deep wood an old stump of enormous circumference. It had doubtless been left there many, many years ago, after the greater part of its giant trunk had been cut away and burned for fire wood. They sat down on the grass beside the stump and awaited their breakfast, which was brought to them by a sad-faced, overworked kitchen menial. She fetched two mugs of water and two bits of stale bread crust. The usual skimmed milk and porridge had doubtless been denied them by their angry uncle and aunt.

Thanking the poor kitchen girl for the bread and water, Henko and Sena ate and drank, their hearts very heavy, indeed. How could they work after such a breakfast as a crust and a cup of water? They feared they would fall in the field from sheer exhaustion.

As they sat consoling each other a low voice spoke to them from some nearby spot, though they could not designate the place, for there was no person visible thereabout.

"Little ones, do not take fright," said the voice. "But if you are ahunger and athirst just press your thumbs against a bit of loose bark that grows on the side of this stump and you'll be fed."

Then the voice was silent, Henko and Sena looking toward the stump with wonderfilled eyes, for the voice had surely come from there.

"The voice said to press our thumbs on a piece of loose bark," whispered Sena. "Shall we do so, Brother?"

"Isn't it wonderful that a voice should come from that aged stump?" asked Henko, still too much mystified to think of food and drink.

"But let us try touching the piece of bark," urged the little, half-starved Sena. "See, there's the loose bit of bark. It merely hangs as though about to fall off. Please, brother, press your thumb on it."

Henko agreed to do so, and to their great amazement the stump opened like a great door as soon as they pressed their thumbs against the bit of loose bark. "Ah, my little ones, just step down stairs and partake of breakfast. It is all waiting—nice and hot and fresh—for you."

In vain did Henko and Sena look for the owner of the voice. No one was to be seen. They stepped down a flight of stairs, beautifully carpeted. When about 10 feet below the earth's surface they saw a brilliant light gleaming from an open door. Through this door they walked, feeling no fear. They found themselves in a spacious room, filled with sweetest perfume and flowers. A table was spread for two. As Henko and Sena stood looking about them in admiring wonder the voice that had spoken to them from the stump again sounded in their ears.

"Sit down and eat to your satisfaction, my little ones."

Henko and Sena did as told, and had soon finished a most appetizing breakfast; in fact, the finest one they had ever enjoyed. As they were about to rise from the table the voice again addressed them:

"I am an invisible fairy, and I dwell here beneath the stump of an old tree in whose branches dwelt my ancestors. After the tree had been cut down I could not give up the old spot, so made for myself this little abode beneath my old friend. I can become visible at times, but never by daylight. Only on moonlight nights can I take on the form of a human being and so become apparent to the human eye. Dwelling here with me beneath this magic stump are ten of the greatest fairies in existence. We have great powers over man, beast and the elements. I have just discovered that you two little ones are orphans and that you are not treated kindly by your old uncle and aunt. They are very wicked people, and we fairies have decided that their lives shall not last much longer. They are a menace to good people. They ill treat their poor servants and those who fall into their power. One of our fairies has gone out to touch a duck which the cooks are preparing for the supper of the old man and woman. The fowl thus touched by her will cause those who eat it to fall ill and their stomachs will refuse food for a fortnight. After that they will be so weak that no amount of nourishment can help them to rally. They will weaken and die, although they will have the daintiest of food about them in abundance."

The voice ceased speaking and Henko and Sena wondered still more at it, knowing now that it came from an invisible fairy.

"Oh, that you might do something for us," said Sena, her voice full of sadness. "If we could get away from our cruel kinsfolk, we'd work without complaint for our daily bread.

"Yes, kind fairy, please help us to get away from our wicked old uncle and aunt," urged Henko, lending his plea to his sister's.

"You shall have all these grand acres, and you will use the work people rightly," said the voice. "Your old kinsfolk will not be here long to rob and beat their working folk and servants. You two little ones are their only heirs, and you will soon come into possession of a rich inheritance. After the duck that is now being prepared in the kitchen for the table of your uncle and aunt has been eaten by them you will see how truly I have spoken."

"But" and Henko paused as he spoke hesitatingly—"won't that be wicked to make them so ill that they can't eat, and thus cause their death?" He asked the question of the invisible fairy.

"Ah, no, indeed, my dear little man," assured the voice. "You see, the old couple have been robbing and abusing people too long already. They are robbing you. They are working you to death without rewarding you for your labor. They treat you cruelly. They hate you because you are young and innocent. They wish to starve and work you to death. Is it right to allow them to carry out their wicked scheme of starving and robbing innocent children? No, they must be put out of the way, else they will ruin the lives not only of their two young kinsfolk, but of their poor, helpless hirelings. They will feast tonight. After that they may go as hungry as do their poor servants and hired workfolk."

Henko and Sena realized that what the invisible fairy said was true, and they bade her good morning after thanking her for the most enjoyable breakfast. "We must be off to the fields," said Henko. "Otherwise we should love to remain with you as long as you would care to entertain us."

"You'll find the labor in the field very light today," promised the voice. "And you shall have your meals with me till the fortnight has expired. After that you will come into your own—the broad acres of your ancestors. This grand estate is yours by blood right. See to it that you are more just to those who are at your mercy than have been the two who now occupy and enjoy it."

"Ah, good fairy, if we ever come into possession of this dear old estate we shall never abuse our privilege," promised Henko.

"Indeed, we shall take the greatest pleasure in helping the poor," said Sena in a tone full of emotion. "And now farewell till tonight, dear fairy."

That day—and for two whole weeks following—the weeds in the field where Henko and Sena worked simply came out of the ground of themselves, and the little workers found the labor turned into play. And the old uncle and aunt really turned very ill after feasting too heartily on a fine big duck, and their stomachs refused food ever afterward. And in horrible fits of rage against their little grandniece and grandnephew the old couple—who had lived such wicked lives—passed away of starvation, the very thing they were inflicting upon those helpless ones in their power.

And Henko and Sena came into possession of the fine old estate, setting apart a great part of it for the fairies, and protecting the magic stump as though it had been made of diamonds and pearls. And all was happiness and good cheer on the land, for Henko and Sena grew into most generous man and woman, treating their workers as their equals and loving them as fully as they were loved by all who knew them.

SAILING.

Our ship is sailing far away
Toward the moon:
We're going there to spend the day!
We'll reach there soon.
We'll sup with the funny old man
Who lives up there:
Then back to earth we'll sail again
Through the air.

OUR PUZZLE CORNER.

HIDDEN PROVERB.

A well-known proverb is hidden in the following six sentences, there being one word of the proverb contained in each sentence, the words appearing in their rightful order.

A fool sayeth in his heart there is no God.

Let the guilty beware of the wrath to come.

In all matters it is not wise to be led by the conscience.

The needs of the soul are far greater than are those of the body.

No man can evade the hand of time.

The accused is sometimes less guilty than the accuser.

LETTER ENIGMA.

My first is in bed, but not in sleep;
My second is in hillside, but not in steep;
My third is in ocean, but not in sea;
My fourth is in sadness, but not in glee;
My fifth is the same as my fourth, you see;
My sixth is the same as you'll find in my three;
My seventh is in merchant, but not in shop;
My eighth is in scrub-brush, but not in mop;
My whole is the name
Of wild things most dear
To wee nature-lovers
At this time of year.

BEHEADINGS.

1. Behead that which a lover will do when suing for the hand of his adored one and leave the name of a common mineral.

2. Behead the color of a dark day and leave that which comes direct from the sun.

3. Behead the water from a fountain and leave that which little children are taught to do each night before going to bed.

4. Behead that which heralds a storm and leave the sound of a quarrelsome woman's voice.

BIBILICAL CONUNDRUMS.

Who was the straightest man spoken of in the Bible?

Moses, because Pharaoh made a ruler of him.

Why was the first day of Adam's life the longest? Because it had no eve (Eve)

Who was the shortest man mentioned in the Bible? Nehemiah (Knee-high-miah).

RIDDLES WITH ANSWERS.

My first of anything is half,
My second is complete,
And so remains until once more
My first and second meet.
Semicircle.

My first I hope you are;
My second I see you are;
My whole I know you are.
Welcome.

THE LITERARY BENSON
LEFT TO RIGHT, A.C., REV. R. H. AND E.F., THE "DODO" BROTHER

BY DEXTER MARSHALL

(Copyright, 1908, by Dexter Marshall.)

BROTHERS who have made good through their own efforts and gained the public eye thereby are neither too numerous to be commonplace, nor so rare as to be exotic. They run the gamut of human endeavor from corporate business to international statecraft. The seven sons of the late Mayer Guggenheim control the smelting business of the country; Jules and Paul Cambon, as ambassadorial representatives of France at Berlin and the Court of St. James, are two of the most influential international peacemakers in active service today. Charles and Daniel Frohman are among the most prominent men of the American stage; Walter and Frank Damrosch are among the present century's foremost music conductors. Three of England's literary lights are A. C., E. F. and the Rev. Robert Hugh Benson, all sons of the late archbishop of Canterbury; American literature boasts of the Gilders, Richard and Joseph, with their sister, Jeannette, thrown in for good measure and their music-writing brother, John F., on the side, as it were.

Richard Harding Davis and Charles Belmont Davis, a few years younger than the crator of "Van Bibber," have both gained enviable fame as short story experts. George Barr McCutcheon is known far and wide as an American writer of novels of the Anthony Hope style; John T. McCutcheon's fame also has come through his pen, his daily newspaper cartoons being copied the English world over. Dan Beard is the most prominent living member of a family of four brothers and two sisters who have won name and competence as artists and writers. The late Frank Beard, editor of Ram's Horn and the original "chalk talk man," was a member of this famous family, who had a famous father.

Like literature, the international stage, broadly speaking, furnishes several noteworthy instances of brothers who have won world distinction through their work on it. Whenever one thinks of grand opera stars of the past or present, the brothers Jean and Edouard De Reszke instantly come to mind. Coquelin Caine has lately been compelled to assist in the incarceration in an insane asylum of Coquelin cadet, one of France's best known interpreters of the comic drama. The rise of Charles and Daniel Frohman from humble newspaper positions to control of many theaters and actors by the score on both sides of the Atlantic, is matched in part by the joint career of Sam and Lee Schubert. It will be remembered that Sam—the little man who literally was always on the run—met death in a railroad wreck a couple of years ago when he was at the height of his brilliant managerial career.

Brothers in Politics.

Turn to politics and there, too, will be found brothers who are playing the great game more or less prominently and successfully. In his efforts to secure the Republican presidential nomination, William H. Taft is being assisted in Ohio by Charles P. Taft, through his newspaper, the Cincinnati Times-Star; while the big secretary of war's chief political lieutenant in New York is Henry W. Taft, whose reputation as a lawyer is as national as is that secretary's in politics and government. The ambassadors Cambon are world politicians in a broad sense. Beginning with the Fifty-eighth congress, the Second and Fifth congress districts of North Carolina have been represented at the national capitol by Claude and William Walton Kitchin respectively. Henry Gassaway Davis, the multi-millionaire tail of the Democratic national ticket in 1904, and one of his brothers, have been politically powerful for more than a generation in West Virginia, which they have helped greatly to develop industrially. Ask any Hoosier politician what he knows about the three Landis brothers, and he will tell you among other things that Charles B. and Frederick were part of the Indiana delegation in the Fifty-ninth congress; that Charles B was returned to the Sixtieth congress and that before he gained international attention as the judge who fined the Standard Oil company $29,000,000, plus a few hundred thousands, Kenesaw Mountain Landis, the second brother, was private secretary to Walter Q. Gresham, when the latter was Cleveland's secretary of state, and otherwise gave evidence of a deep interest in the political game.

National politics has, of course, given "Jimmy" Garfield his present name; until he was chosen recently as president of Williams college, Harry Garfield, the senior of the brothers by two years, was well known as Princeton university's professor of politics. He and Lyon G. Tyler, by the way, are the only sons of former presidents heading American colleges. It is rather interesting to note that though President Tyler is a son of the tenth president of the United States, he is only ten years older than President Garfield, aged 44, whose father was the nation's twentieth president.

The Three Cudahys.

The great Cudahy packing business is a monument to the industrial genius of three brothers, Michael, John and Patrick, all born in the old sod in '41, 43 and '49, respectively. In Western Pennsylvania and the region contiguous thereto United States Senator Philander C. Knox's brother Alfred is reckoned as no mean financier. Morris Jastrow, Jr., of the University of Pennsylvania is recognized as a world authority on Semetic languages, religions and literature; his brother, Joseph, also born in Poland and in charge of the psychological section of the Chicago World's fair and president of the American Psychological association in 1900, has been professor of psychology at the University of Wisconsin since 1888. While Isaac N. Seligman has become one of the nation's foremost bankers, his younger brother, Edwin R. A., who holds a chair at Columbia university, long has been known as a leading American political economist. It was with the help of his brother, James H. that William H. Moore organized the Diamond Match company (trust) and pulled off many of his other corporate promotion stunts that brought both wealth and fame. Oscar Straus, secretary of labor and commerce, is the youngest of three brothers. Nathan's efforts to supply slum babies with scrilized milk have brought hm wide fame as a philanthropist. Isidore Straus, like his brothers, is a mercantile king.

Though they were born to prominence, the three Belmonts have proved by their own works that they probably would have made good without the backing of birth—August by his metnropolitan subways and other tarnsportation enterurises, and O. H. P. and Perry as representatives in congress—the latter also being minister to Spain under President Cleveland. For years Oren Root, a brother of the secretary of state, was professor of mathematics at Hamilton college, and as such was conspicious in collegate circles throughout the country. His death occurred about a year ago. In the medical profession two names that loom large are Jacob da Silva Solis-Cohen and Solomon Solis-Cohen; a third brother, David, is famous in the excreme Northwest as a lawyer, Portland official, high secret order man and writer on religious and socioligical topics. Dr. Jacob Solis-Cohen was an assistant surgeon all through the Civil war and went with DuPont's expedition to Port Royal. Gen. William A. Kobbe, a veteran of the Civil war, who also fought in the Philippines during the war with Spain, is the older brother of Gustav Kobbe, the musical critic and writer.

Two Star-Gazers.

Two brothers who recently have attracted the attention of astronomers are V. M. Slipher who, as resident director of Prof. Lowell's observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., has discovered evidences of the presence of water in the atmosphere of Mars, and the still younger, E. C. Slipher, who was one of the party of star gazers that studied Mars from the top of the Peruvian Andes, last summer, when that planet was in opposition to ours. What healthy American boy has remained in ignorance of the works of the Sells and the Ringling brothers, and, finally surfeited with thrillers and other wondrous things, called down blessings upon those geniuses of the sawdust ring?" And what reveller, young or old, in Civil war stories, has failed to hear of the famous "Fighting McCooks," seven brothers and five cousins, also brothers, some of whom, notably the cousins, Generals Anson G. and John J., survive.

These are some of the brothers of today who have made good. Foremost among the brothers of yesterday who secured the public eye were W. T. Sherman, in war, and John Sherman in national statesmanship. Cyrus W. Field, who gained undying fame by sticking to it until he bound the continents together with the submarine cable, was one of four famous brothers—David Dudley Field was the last century's most noted law reformer, Stephen Johnson Field sat thirty-four years and six months on the bench if the United States supreme court, serving longer than any justice before or since, and Henry Martyn Field, born in 1822, and the last to answer the inevitable summons, which came last year, was widely known as a clergyman and editor. Then there was the famous Beecher family of brothers and sisters, of whom Henry Ward and Harriet Beecher Stowe—the one as a pulpit orator, the other as the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin"—vied for lasting fame, with the odds at present seemingly in favor of the sister.

It is interesting to note the frequency with which brothers have won out in the same line, or closely allied lines, of work calling for individual initiative if success is to be obtained.

Parallel Careers.

Because their careers have been practically parallel for a good many years, the Parisians call the Cambon brothers "the Siamese twins of diplomacy." Jean and Edouard DeReszke's reputations are inseparably linked. Only a litterateur can hope to keep from mixing up the productions of the Benson trio; while music lovers have been known to give Walter Damrosch credit for work done by Frank. The two Jastrows excel in higher branches of learning. The Beards write and draw with almost equal facility and success. Each of the Guggenheims—Simon, the Colorado senator, included—is a smelting expert, proving his worth in the days before the smelting trust was organized by building and successfully operating a smelter "all by his lonesome."

The Gilders furnish another example. As every one who reads knows, Richard is the editor of the Century and rides Pegasus as recreation. Joseph, with his sister, Jeannette, founded the Critic, and when it was merged with Putnam's Magazine, the two of them became the editors of the latter publication. The late William F. Gilder, on the staff of Gen. Thomas during the Civil war, was one of the most daring newspaper men of his day. John F. Gilder, though a writer, produces neither books nor poems, but music, thus being the exception to the Gilder rule of work.

In the interests of science and of the newspaper he was serving, W. F. Gilder made two remarkable trips far into the Arctic circle. In the late '70s he and Lieut. Schwatka, in their search for the lost records of the ill-fated Franklin expedition, made the longest sledge journey ever undertaken for scientific purposes down to that time, covering 3,251 miles with their dogs. During the three years they were absent from civilization, they found and buried the bodies of forty of the earlier explorers along the coast of King William's Land. On his second trip Mr. Gilder was a member of the Jeannette's relief expedition. The Rogers, the relief ship, being burned in midwinter, and the party being reduced to the verge of starvation, Gilder volunteered and undertook a sledge trip, across Siberia in the hope of obtaining relief.

His sole companion was a trader with a reputation highly unsavory. Gilder being fearful that his companion might desert him in the trackless desert of snow, did not take a single minute of sleep during the fifty-four days that were spent in covering 1,800 miles to the first settlement, where the trader lived. Gilder would lie down and rest, but because the horror of possible desertion was always with him, by an almost incredible exercise of will power, he never let the trader get out of his sight for an instant. After completing this truly harrowing portion of his race for lives, Gilder, accompanied by Cossacks pushed on to Irkutsk, reaching civilization after a remarkable journey of nearly 7,000 miles by dog sledge.

The Three Gilders.

The three Gilders, who are now magazine editors, began their respective literary careers on the same Newark, N. J. newspaper, graduating therefrom direct to magazine chairs. The careers of the two Cambons offer a still more remarkable parallelism.

When Paul Cambon, now ambassador to the court of St. James, left the French army at the close of the war with Prussia, he entered the diplomatic service; Jules Cambon, who as a captain of Mobiles, had made a name for himself in the Franco-Prussian conflict, espoused diplomacy a short while after his brother. The year 1882 found Paul prefect of Lille; Jules held the same post at Constantine. A little later Paul was sent to Tunis; Jules took his brother's old post at Lille. In Tunis, as French resident, Paul won the appellation of the "Cromer of Tunis;" meantime Jules, in Lillie, was attracting wide attention, like Paul before him, by his wise prefecturial conduct, which finally won for him the governor generalship of Algeria. He accomplished in that dependency what Paul had done for Tunis.

Paul meanwhile had been ambassador to Madrid for some little time. In 1890 he was sent to Constantinople, said to be the hardest diplomatic station in the world. When British uneasiness of his success at the porte was at its height Delcasse transferred Paul to London. That was in 1898 and just about the time when Jules secured his first ambassadorial post, being sent to Washington, where he remained till 1902, when he was given Paul's old post at Madrid. Today he represents France at Berlin; Paul is still in London. Thus each brother has been ambassador in three different capitals. And as Jules entered the diplomatic service somewhat later than Paul, so each time he has received advancement somewhat later than his brother.

At the time of the Franco-German dispute over Morocco and the subsequent Algeciras conference each brother played a most important role. Jules strengthened the traditional friendship between France and Spain; Paul arranged the entente cordiale between his country and John Bull. Quite a number of European writers on things diplomatic have declared that at this critical time the peace of Europe was preserved largely because of the work of the Cambons.

Seizure of Jules' Cow.

There is one incident in Jules' public career, however, that has no counterpart in Paul's. Before the war with Prussia Jules was a writer on a Parisian Republican newspaper. Napoleon III having levied a certain special tax, young Cambon boldly declared in his newspaper that it was not legal, took the precautions to secrete his worldly goods and then refused to pay his share of the tax. He neglected, however, to hide his cow, one of his principal possessions, and "Bossy" was pounced upon by the government and led from her owner's sight forever. Immediately all the Republican papers "played up" Cambon for a hero, started a subscription for their cowless compatriot, and in almost less than no time made him owner of a second cow far superior in milk-giving qualities to the late departed. It was by this amusing little incident that Jules first became known to the boulevardiers.

Jules is 63; Paul, who first gained public notice as private secretary of M. Jules Ferry is two years older. His chief outward distinction at present is his tortoise shell rimmed monocle. Both men have been immensely popular in their respective ambassadorial posts and are extremely polished.

The careers of the Kitchin brothers also offer some rather interesting parallels. Both were born and have lived continuously in North Carolina; both are graduates of the same college; both ran for the state legislature and were defeated; both are Baptists and boast of anti-race suicide families; both look alike, dress alike and are usually seen together when government business takes them to Washington.

William Kitchin has been in congress beginning with the Fifty-fifth congress; Claude's district sent him to the national capital as a unit of the Fifty-eighth congress. Each brother has represented his respective district since his first election. Claude Kitchin's immediate predecessor was a Republican, but by becoming the champion of the movement to eliminate peacefully the negro as a political factor in the district Kitchin was triumphantly elected. When re-elected to the Sixtieth congress he received all but 1,800 of the nearly 12,000 votes cast. Kitchin got his congress nomination by making in a speech the hit of the evening at the organization of the "Red Shirts," as the negro eliminators came to be known from the red clothes they wore as a distinguishing mark at the first meeting.

Many Newspaper Men.

Before he settled down to being a tarheel representative, the elder Kitchin was a country newspaper editor. It is interesting to note that quite a few of the successful brothers here mentioned have had newspaper experience of one sort or another. There are the Gilders. William H. Taft was law reporter for his brother Charles' paper, the Cincinnati Times-Star, and the Cincinnati Commercial for two years. Richard Harding Davis and Charles Belmont Davis, sons of the late managing editor of the Philadelphia Ledger, followed for a time in their father's footsteps. The Schuberts sold newspapers in front of a theater they afterward came to control. Daniel Frohman, during the five years that he was in the newspaper world, was office boy, reporter, pri-

FROM THE MINES AND THE SMELTERS

LAKE SUPERIOR IRON MINES

Sparta's Removal to Take Place Within Few Months---Much Development Work at McKinley Mine---Old Mines Being Revived.

It will not be many months now, it is believed, before the village of Sparta, Mesaba range, is shifted to its new location. Ore underlies the present site, and to permit of its economical mining, it is necessary that the town be moved. The new location has been selected, following the contrary spectacle of diamond drilling to determine where ore does not exist, and as soon as the work of filling is completed by the United States Steel corporation an dthe ground has settled sufficiently, a wholesale removal of buildings will take place. The earth used in improving the site is coming from the stripping at the Gilbert mine.

Sparta is not the only Mesaba town built up on ground beneath which are important mineral deposits. It will, perhaps, be only a question of time when McKinley will occupy another site. Hibbing is underlaid with bodies of ore. It is the rule on the old ranges of the Lake Superior region that the villages and cities have been built on ground holding ore, but it has never yet been necessary to make a transfer to a new location, although to an extent this is now in progress at Norway, on the Menominee. Unlike conditions on the Mesaba, where the overburden is shallow and generally of a material easily handled, the ore lies deep and the capping of rock is heavy, some deposits being mined that do not come within 900 feet of the surface.

Much development work is under way at the Steel corporation's McKinley mine. This property lies north of the village of that name and it has an interesting history. The location was the scene of some of the earliest explorations on the range. The existence of ore was discovered by John McKinley, a pioneer prospector of the Mesaba, who subsequently mortgaged the property to John D. Rockefeller in order to aid the Merritt interests in the construction of the Missabe railroad. The mortgage was foreclosed, and with the other holdings of Mr. Rockefeller the mine afterwards passed into the control of the Steel corporation. The property was permitted to remain idle until last spring, when stripping was started and underground work was resumed where it had been left off many years previously. Ore has now been hoisted for the past month and already a fair-sized stockpile has been accumulated. Some shipments will be made this year, but for the most part the work will be confined to stripping and to further underground development.

In section 9, 58-16, midway between McKinley and Biwabik, is the new Kellogg mine of the New York State Steel company. This property is being opened on a deposit discovered in 1906 by Capt. M. L. Fay of Virginia on lands owned by W. H. Yawkey, and it is estimated to contain upwards of 5,000,000 tons of high grade ore. The mine is an underground proposition. It is planned to develop the property on a large scale. A considerable stockpile is accumulating, and it is entirely likely that more than 100,000 tons will be shipped this year. The Monica property of the Republic Iron & Steel company adjoins the Kellogg on the east. The Cass mine in section 2, 58-16, operated by Joseph Sellwood of Duluth, is being tested anew. As developed now, the Cass is a small proposition, but one that in the light of recent developments on the adjoining Biwabik tract I sbelieved to have a good prospect of assuming considerably larger proportions. The original deposit was discovered by Capt. Fay in 1900. Shipments were started in 1903, since which time 250,000 tons have been produced. It is hoped to locate a new ore body somewhere on the eighty acres, and with that end in view systematic exploratory work has been instituted.

In section 1-58-16, near the Cass, are the Hector and Ajax properties of George A St. Clair of Duluth. Both of these are

PROPERTIES LOOKING WELL

Bisbee, Ariz., April 4.—Thomas F. Cole, Charles Briggs, Capt. Thomas Hoatson, C. A. Congdon and other prominent men connected with the Calumet & Arizona, Superior & Pittsburg and Greene-Cananea companies, who were visiting the properties here and at Cananea, have returned to their homes well pleased with the work in hand both in the mines and smelters. They went through all the properties of the Calumet & Arizona and the Superior & Pittsburg and were agreeably surprised by the conditions presented. Capt. Thomas Hoatson told the writer that in the Hoatson shaft he found one of the finest bodies of copper ore that he had ever examined. This body is on the 1,200 level and has been developed 98x360 feet and that its value could be safely placed at 12 per cent. It is the opinion of Mr. Hoatson that the future will demonstrate that the larger ore bodies of the Warren district will be developed between the 1,200 and 1,600 levels. While the greatest showings are now to be seen in the Hoatson, the Junction is presentin gan excellent appearance nad continues to produce steadily.

It is known that the Superior & Pittsburg properties are now ready to double their output whenever the capacity of the smelter at Douglas has been increased. This work is now being done as fast as possible. The new smokestack has reached a height of sixty-five feet; this stack is for the purpose of accommodating additional converter stands which will be ready simultaneously with the stack. The present converters will be moved to the opposite side of the building from where they now stand and the old converter site will be used for two new 500-ton furnaces. One of these furnaces is to be rushed in construction and it is hoped to have it ready by July 1. When this furnace is ready the old furnace will be enlarged one at a time, increasing the capacity of each to 500 tons from 300. After these enlargements have been completed another new 500-ton furnace will be erected, thus giving the plant just double the capacity it now has.

* * *

The Shattuck and Denn have nothing new to record. At the Shattuck only about twenty men are at work. The mine is said to be in excellent condition and ready to produce sufficient ore to supply the proposed 600-ton smelter whenever it is ready to reduce it to bullion. As to when work will begin on the construction of this smelter nothing definite is known. L. C. Shattuck and E. M. Patterson were seen the other day and both agreed that it would probably be the middle of April before all the bids were received for the new smelter. After the bids are in it will require some time to examine them and determine who is entitled to the contract.

* * *

There is hardly anything to mention in connection with the Copper Queen this week. Development work is being continued much the same as for the past two months. The Sacramento shaft, through which is to be hoisted in the future the entire output of the Queen mines, has been completed. The hoist for this shaft has been shipped, but the date of its arrival is uncertain. The new powerhouse has been completed and all the power machine set. During the month there has been a slight increase in the production of Queen ores though there has been no increase of the forces at either the smelter, the mines or at the Douglas smelter. The Queen smelter has operated eight furnaces during the month of March, the same number in commission during February.

* * *

There has been no definite announcement from Cananea as to when the production of copper will be resumed in that camp. The work of remodeling the reduction plant has not been completed, though it was reported last week that two of the furnaces would be ready for operation very soon after the first of April. A mining man who is very close to the management of the Cananea company, this week made the prediction that when the remodeled plant was ready for producing copper that the cost of production at Cananea would not be over 11 cents, as against something near 14 cents under the old management. This man would not venture any opinion as to the probability of the early resumption of production.

Johnson ,Ariz., April 4.—A. J. Pidgeon, president and general manager of the Arizona & Michigan Development company and also for the Johnson, Dragoon & Northwestern railway, building from Dragoon to Johnson camp, a distance of nine miles, has returned home. Mr. Pidgeon was back to Michigan, having been called there to see his father, who was very ill at the time. Before Mr. Pidgeon's arrival his father died and was buried. Mr. Pidgeon states that work on the new railroad will be commenced very shortly as the rate granted them for hauling their ties and steel, which had to be advertised thirty or forty days. The switch has been built at Dragoon, ready for the unloading of the supplies.

Tucson, Ariz., April 4.—A mining deal has been closed here by which the Tucson-Globe Copper company acquires the mines owned by Judge P. C. Robertson and W. F. Westbrook of Globe. These properties adjoin the famous Gibson mine in the Globe district.

Among the Tucson men who are interested in the new company are Col. Epes Randolph, Albert Steinfeld, G. Monier, C. P. Skinner, F. H. Jacobus, W. H. Sawtelle, George F. Kitt, Mose Drachman,

IN THE PARADISE DISTRICT

Patents Have Been Received for Thirty Claims of Manhattan Development Company---When Company Will Start Extensive Work Unknown.

Paradise, Ariz., April 4.—Patents have been received by the Manhattan Development company, for their claims, about thirty in number, adjoining the San Simon on the north and east. In August, 1906, application was made for patents for the entire group of thirty-seven claims. The patents now received represent nearly all of the claims and the best portion of the group. Action on the remaining number, is help up for the present, pending an examination of them by land office geologists, who are expected in town in a day or two.

The claims are all in the Chiricahua forest, and it was necessary for the forest officials here to report in detail on each and every claim before final action on the application could be taken by the patent department. It is understood that the forest service did not report unfavorably on any of these claims, even on those at present in question, but that the officials of the forest simply requested that technical men be sent from the land office to pass upon points in connection with these half dozen claims, such points being ones on which they, not being mining men, were unable to decide. The claims in question were, most of them, so it is understood, located by the company more for protection than for mineral, though there is said to be mineral on some of them. It is believed that patents on every one will be secured by the company; but if not, no harm will be done.

It is not possible yet to learn when the company intends to begin extensive work. It was common talk—even subsequent to the slump in copper—that work was to be commenced upon receipt of patents, but whether operations will be authorized in the face of the period of retrenchment which has not yet entirely passed away, remains to be seen. It depends on two things—the amount of money in the treasury, and the will of the directors and stockholders. Under existing circumstances, it is not believed that the directors would call an assessment at the present time. Yet there are those who contend that a call is not necessary now—that there is enough money in the treasury to warrant starting at once to the extent of the company's plans for development work.

THE COLORADO DISTRICTS

Rocky Mountain Smelter to be Remodeled by Troy Consolidated---Saratoga Company May Lease the Golden Smelter if Showing Warrants.

Colorado Springs, Colo., April 4.—The Troy Consolidated Mining company of Kelvin, Ariz., which recently purchased the Rocky Mountain smelter at Florence, Colo., for $400,000, began remodeling the plant on April 1. The roasters will be rebuilt. A large tonnage of ore will be shipped to the mill from Cripple Creek, where the company owns several claims. The old dump, which was included in the deal, is estimated to be worth $350,000 or more.

The Fannie Fern Mining company of Boston is in good ore in the Fannie Fern mine, Lake City, Colo. The Pelican mine, same district, also owned in Boston, is making a good showing and will be vigorously developed this season.

The Saratoga Mining company has an option to lease the Golden Smelter at Golden, Colo. The plant is being put in readiness to start should the ore body in the mine, which is located in Clear Creek county, prove large enough to supply sufficient tonnage to keep the plant running without depending on custom ores.

A New York syndicate has secured an option to purchase the Headlight and Fairfax lodes on Lincoln Mountain, Empire, Colo. The workings consist of shafts and drifts. They are being unwatered for expert examination. The property is equipped with a first class hoisting and pumping plant and all necessary buildings. The Headlight originally yielded $300 are.

The Americus mine, Covode Mountain, Empire, Colo., is being reopened, and may be worked extensively. Ores ranging from $12 to $60 per ton have been exposed. A streak of gold ore of high grade is found at the bottom of the shaft. It carries 10 per cent copper which characterizes Covode Mountain ore.

The Portland Gold Mining company, Cripple Creek, has recovered its rich Captain No. 3 vein, which was lost in a cavern several months ago. The main result is an immense ore body estimated to be worth $1,000,000 gross, and 30 feet wide by 40 feet long, with proportionate good depth vertically for its great width. The value per ton is not made public, but it is said to exceed the common run of Portland ores.

The Quito mine shaft will be sunk an additional 300 feet, without interrupting present output, which is about $1,500 gold bullion weekly. A tramway track from the mine to the Allan mill is contemplated. The property is situated in the Idaho Springs, Colo., district, and is owned by Pittsburg, Pa., capitalists.

The famous Camp Bird mine, Ouray, Colo., achieved its banner production record last year. The net profits for the year ended Dec. 31 are reported officially at $250,000 in excess of the year previous. The property is owned in London. A sack of bullion daily shipped to Denver is increasing in weight.

ORE RUNNING $200 PER TON

Found in the Manhattan Mine in Nevada---Cross Fissure Half Gold, Also Brought to Light---Sensation in Camp.

Goldfield, Nev., April 4.—The richest ore taken from any property at depth in Manhattan was broken into last week in the west drift on the 350-foot level in the Thanksgiving. The ore body has a width of three feet, which will run between $100 and $200 a ton. It was while working in this satisfactory rock that a cross streak lead was struck running to the north. One round of shots showed this cross streak to have widened to six inches. The rock was half gold. It was scooped up and put into a tin bucket, and when brought through town created a sensation.

The opinion is that this high-grade cross fissure connects with the contact to which it will be followed, in the belief that there will be found even finer ore deposits than exist in the drift.

The Thanksgiving company has decided not to concentrate all efforts on sinking another 200 feet, but will begin stoping the rich ore shoots as soon as the Canyon mill is equipped with cyanide and concentrating machinery.

Over on the Earl estate, in the Litigation Hill section, Forman and associates are mining almost pure gold at their lease holding. These men have on deposit in the vault of the Bank of Manhattan 200 ounces of gold-filled quartz, which is to go to mint at Carson City, without recourse to reduction treatment. The gold in this quartz is so predominant that the latter is almost lost to sight beneath a golden foliation. Were this magnificent find in the Rawhide district instead of here it would be received by the investing public as one of the wonders of the ages. Being at Manhattan, it will, from force of circumstances, be forced into the background until such times as normal mining investment conditions once more prevail. Its worth will then be appreciated by the public at large.

The remarkably high-grade ore above referred to is being mined in a well-defined ledge, which is itself a high-grade deposit of more than ordinary worth. The streak in question is four inches wide and is plastered full with free gold. The ledge carrying this rich bit of nature's handicraft varies in width from one to three feet. Exclusive of the streak referred to, the vein will average upward of $100 gold to the ton, and the quartz is sacked just as broken down without recourse to sorting. For a length of 100 feet this ledge has been stripped without falling off in gold grade. From present indications the same sort of golden treasure will prevail for a distance of at least 100 feet more along the strike of this record-shattering deposit.

MINING COMPANIES IN WEST

That Were Formed and Financed in the Lake Superior District Are Now Doing Well—Several Development Companies That Are Apparently on the Eve of Success.

Houghton, Mich., April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—During the past ten years one hundred or more mining corporations have been formed and financed in the Lake Superior copper district, for the development and operation of mines, mainly of copper, in the United States, Canada and Mexico, principally in Arizona and Montana. While a few corporations of this sort were born earlier, the larger number date from the present century, following the great success of the Calumet & Arizona, which was organized early in 1901. Of the many mining companies of this class, a few have scored great success, and several others apparently are on the eve of success, while more than half have fallen by the way, and many others are in sadly anæmic condition. The panic of 1907, which hit Wall street in the spring, copper in the summer, and the whole United States in the fall, played havoc with the plans of the developing mining companies, and many of them were forced, either to throw up the sponge entirely, or to take the count. Those that chose the latter course are now beginning to recover from their grogginess, and take stock of the situation. There is increased interest in a number of the most promising explorations and developing properties, and work is being resumed in some instances, while resumption is planned in a number of others, and the late spring and summer should see a considerable revival in the cases of many of the better-class explorations, now dormant.

Among the Lake Superior born companies that are doing well in Western states, the Superior & Pittsburg, a younger sister of the Calumet & Arizona, seems to have gotten its stride, with bright prospects for the future. This property is a merger of four different mining companies, organized on lands nearly surrounding the Calumet & Arizona. Owing to the ore lying much deeper than was expected, and the existence of water in undreamed-of quantity, the work of making a big copper mine has taken about five years longer than was anticipated at the start, and has required several millions of dollars in excess of the original estimates. It is a rather surprising fact that nobody seems able to predict the cost of making a mine of copper. No matter how nigh the figure may be put, the estimate always is exceeded. This statement holds good with the most experienced managements, as well as with the novices, but there is this important difference—the experienced people manage to raise the additional cash that is required, and pull through, with a few abraisons of cuticle, and with flattened purses, to the point of ultimate millions in dividends, while the novices, in all but a few cases, are vanquished by the enormous deficits, and are wiped out by the impossibility of compassing the missing millions.

Among the newer Western properties of Lake Superior parentage, the Superior & Boston, located at Globe, Ariz., has reached a stage where predictions of large and reasonably early success seem fully warranted. An assessment of $1.50 per share, paid last week, has provided funds for meeting a payment of $150,000 on the lands, leaving only $100,000 due on the purchase price. The quantity of ore developed will permit the beginning of production within a very short time, and the grade of the ore should give considerable profits, even with copper at its present unsatisfactory price.

Another local company of great promise is developing the Lake mine. While the shaft of the Lake is only 125 feet in depth, the showing is equal to those made by the Baltic or Champion at similar depth, and has not been exceeded in this district since the opening of the Calumet & Hecla, more than forty years ago. The possibilities in the case of the Lake are very great, as the peculiar geology of this district means that big mines rarely come singly. In most cases the copper-bearing beds carry workable values for miles in either direction from a rich property, and, as the finding of the Baltic resulted, within ten years, in the opening of the Trimountain, Champion and Superior mines, with yet other mines opening in the Globe, Challenge and Isle Royale-Baltic, so the making of a big mine from the Lake should result in the making of several other rich mines on either side from the same lode.

The Hermina, a local company operating near Massey Station, Algoma, Ontario, is arranging for resumption, having developed considerable ore bodies of medium grade.

The Lake Superior & Arizona, near Florence, Pinal county, Ariz., is idle, but it is hoped to arrange for resumption at an early date. This property has developed good ore bodies, with a considerable tonnage in sight, but must have about twenty-five miles of railroad to permit profitable operation. Railroads cost money, and the

BETTER AT HELVETIA CAMP

Great Amount of Development Work Being Done in Pima County District of Arizona---Conditions Improve at the Helvetia.

Tucson, Ariz., April 4.—Conditions at Helvetia continue to improve and each day the development work adds greater tonnage to the ore pile.

On the 300-foot level a drift is being run along the foot-wall of the ore body, and when the drift extends 100 feet beyond the original cross-cut a second cross-cut will be run to determine the size of the ore body at that point.

The upraise from the 300-foot level went through 30 feet of ore, then 30 feet of lime, and has now been in heavy sulphide ore for 25 feet. This upraise has acted as a cross-cut in determining the size of this ore body and has proved of greater amount at the proximity of the 200-foot level than was originally believed, and indicates a much larger ore body at the 300-foot level, as no doubt when the original cross-cut at this level is continued, after it passes through a rib of lime, sulphide ore will again be encountered. The size of this ore body at the 200-foot level is unknown, but is certainly more than 30 feet in width. The ore is very heavy and high grade and contains considerable heat.

On the 200-foot level a cross-cut was run easterly from the north drift. This cross-cut passed through some ore and the conditions were such as to indicate that the work was underneath a chute of ore. An upraise was commenced and immediately opened up a body of sulphide pitching to the southeast. The upraise is now entirely in ore.

The capacity of the hoisting plant at the Copper World mine will be immediately increased so that development can be carried on more vigorously.

TUNGSTEN IN TIP TOP CLAIM

In Southern Yavapai County in Arizona---Believed That Property Will Eclipse Former Record as Producer, When Operations Resume.

Prescott, Ariz., April 4.—E. G. Wager, a director of the Tip Top Heath Mining & Milling company, who is in the city from Tip Top mines in Southern Yavapai county, reports the discovery of tungsten in the Tip Top claim, and he is of the opinion that the property will eclipse its former records as a producer when again opened.

"A streak of 60 per cent tungsten has been uncovered, paralleling the silver ore body of the Tip Top Mine," Mr. Wager said: "The market value of tungsten is $30 a unit, or $600 a ton. Several tons of tungsten were taken out of the mine in the operations of early days and thrown over the dump as the value of the metal in the manufacture of steel was then unknown. Its discovery in the mine has added to the value of the property which produced two and a half million dollars worth of silver in the early days.

"Ore which carried less values than $300 a ton was not milled in the early history of the mine. This ore which was thrown over the dump will be gathered and treated when operations are resumed, which will be in the next few months. With the improved methods of concentration and mining, this ore, at one time considered second class, will now yield a handsome profit. Ore carrying 15,000 ounces in silver to the ton was mined from the Tip Top, years ago. Six hundred ounces of silver ore was common in the property and there is some ore of this character now in sight in the old workings.

"The new road under construction to the camp will be finished May 1. Hoisting and mining machinery will be hauled in and installed and the unwatering of the mine commenced. The installation of the machinery and unwatering and repairing of the old workings will take some time. The work will be rushed as fast as possible.

THE BUTTE COPPER OUTPUT

Production of Amalgamated Mines for March No Larger Than for February—About 8,000 Tons of Ore Going to Smelter Daily—The Tuolumne Property Looking Well.

Butte, Mont., April 4.—Notwithstanding the fact that the Amalgamated Copper company resumed operation in all of its Butte properties on March 2, and they have now reached their normal capacity, the actual copper metal production from the Amalgamated properties was no greater for the month of March than it was for the month of February. From this source there will be no actual increase until the latter part of May for the reason that three months are required before the ore can be reduced and placed on the market in New York.

By reason of the fact that miners are now working seven days a week instead of six, as prevailed during the time of curtailment, the output from the Boston & Montana and Clark properties has increased to the extent that the total output for the month was more than 2,000,000 pounds greater than for February. Before the advent of summer the total output of the Butte mines will be close to 26,000,000 pounds of copper a month.

The Amalgamated properties are now sending about 8,000 tons of ore a day to the Washoe smelter at Anaconda, the North Butte from 1,200 to 1,500 tons a day, and the Butte Coalition about 400 tons. The latter properties are not now being worked to capacity, owing to repairs in progress, and the Parrot is sending only a very small amount for the same reason.

The following is the output for March (figured as actual copper production):

	Tons of Ore.	Per ton.	Copper. Total Lbs.
Boston & Montana	105,000	70	7,350,000
North Butte	1,800	150	270,000
Pittsburg & Montana	4,750	135	641,250
W. A. Clark	37,200	80	2,676,000
Miscellaneous	500	75	37,500
Total	149,250		10,974,750

The North Butte company has sent no ore to the Butte Reduction works since early last month, and this accounts for the low estimate on copper production from that company.

It was reported from the property of the Tuolumne Copper Mining company a few days ago that in the west drift on the Miners' Union vein, on the 1,000-foot level, four feet of ore, assaying from 3 to 7 per cent copper, had been encountered. A sample of the ore, which is chalcopyrite, is fine looking stuff, and if it holds out the strike will probably run into a good ore body. The vein is about twelve feet wide, between well defined walls, and the indications are good for permanency.

The Tuolumne company is drifting east and west on the Edith May vein, and the west drift is now within about 150 feet of the west line, up to which the North Butte company has worked on the 1,800-foot level, and on the latter level the North Butte is taking out first-class ore, which averages better than 13 per cent.

Preparations are being made for the installation of the new surface plant, which will include a Nordberg double drum hoist, a new compressor and a new battery of boilers. The new plant will cost about $90,000. It is the purpose of the company to sink the present shaft to a dept of at least 1,500 feet, to come under the ore bodies in the Edith May and Miners' Union veins.

The Davis-Daly Estates Copper company is confining its efforts to development by means of the Colorado shaft, located almost in the heart of the Butte business district. Recent development has proved the property to be immensely valuable at a depth of 1,000 feet, and the next six months, provided, of course, that the surface equipment has the capacity to handle ore in commercial quantity. The equipment at the present time is not adequate to a heavy tonnage, but with the ore bodies located and proved by blocking out, the matter of hoisting and equipment can readily be overcome.

The Davis-Daly company is now working in three drifts on the 1,000-foot level, and all of them are in ore. The Baltic vein, showing a width of more than forty feet, has been cut at a distance of about 160 feet south of the shaft. The assays show from 8 to 10.5 per cent copper, seventeen to thirty ounces of silver and some gold. The vein has been cut diagonally, and the crosscut has passed into it about 149 feet. It has not really been demonstrated whether or not the hanging wall has yet been cut. South of what appears to be a wall, for a distance of 150 feet, the crosscut is still in ledge matter, and has cut a number of stringers, striking another wall. Later developments may prove this to be two distinct veins, separated by a few feet of country rock, and technically one immense vein of highely mineralized rock.

A syndicate known at the Baltimore Mining company has secured a lease and bond on the Baltimore mine, near Boulder, and the first payment of $5,000 has been made. The property is owned by hte Mackey estate and is regarded as one of the most promising in that district. About $30,000 already has been expended in its development, and prior to the shutdown at the Washoe smelter two teams were constantly engaged in hauling ore. Now that the Anaconda plant has resumed the treatment of ores the new owners purpose shipments on a larger scale. Among the men interested in the property are E. H. Renisch, D. J. Charles, T. T. Maroney of Butte, F. A. Bacon of Helena, J. C. Harris of Salt Lake, John Ahren of St. Paul and F. M. Calkins of Fargo. The mine is a producer of copper ores, carrying some gold and silver.

DALY-WEST IS CLOSED DOWN

Shutdown For Several Weeks to Repair Shaft and Overhaul Machinery---New Ore Body Opened in Old Utah Mine.

Salt Lake City, Utah, April 4.—The Daly-West mine and mill at Park City have been closed down in order to permit repairs to the shaft and to overhaul machinery. Ernest Bamberger, manager of the Daly-West, said that the shutdown would continue from two weeks to a month. Generally, the action has been taken to indicate preparation for an extensive campaign which will be begun as soon as the Ontario drain tunnel's operation clears away the water in the lower levels of the Ontario, Daly and Daly-West mines. The tunnel, which is now practically open again and unwatering the mines rapidly, is to be extended into Daly-West ground.

An absolutely new ore body in virgin ground has been opened in the old Utah mine at Fish Springs. The strike was made in a drift sent from the 400 level. Three to four feet of high grade ore has been exposed. The Utah mine is remote from the railroad and ships no ore carrying less than 50 per cent lead and 100 ounces in silver.

One of the richest strikes of silver ore in its history has been made in the Gemini at Tintic. The ore was found in a winze from the 1,600 level, and some of the rock runs into the thousands of ounces of silver to the ton.

According to George H. Dern, general manager of the Consolidated Mercur company at Mercur, the problems of the new slimes plant have been solved. After two months of idleness, during which changes were made in the equipment, the plant has been in operation for two weeks. "In the past," said Mr. Dern, "the tailings at the Consolidated Mercur have run from 95 cents to $1 gold a ton. Oxidized ore is now being run through the slimes plant, the ore averaging $3.50 a ton in gold. The slimes tailings now average 50 cents a ton gold. The saving of the additional 50 cents a ton insures a good profit on the 800 tons that go through the plant daily.

An important strike has been made in ground belonging to the Silver King Coalition company at Park City. The find was made in the Apex, which before the consolidation produced much rich ore down to the 400 level. This ledge has been tapped at about 800 feet depth and the ore carries more than 50 per cent lead with several hundred ounces of silver to the ton.

In the Silver Shield at Bingham a new ore body has been found, which gives assays of 12.6 ounces silver, 1.5 per cent copper and $1 in gold. The ore body was encountered while driving for a point directly under the old workings of the mine, where the rich ore came from in the early days of the property. Before the discovery was made a tunnel had been driven 200 feet through ore when a cross-fissure was encountered. This was cut through, and in driving ahead the new body was found.

MINING IN THE BLACK HILLS

Gilt Edge Maid is One of Most Economically Conducted Properties in the West---Imperial Company Has Reached Quartzite.

Deadwood, S. D., April 4.—Following a visit of some of the directors of the Gilt Edge Maid Gold Mining company to the property at Turner it was announced that much satisfaction was felt over the development and operation of the property. The Gilt Edge Maid is one of the most economically conducted properties in the West. Mining is all done in an open cut, which makes it easier to break down and handle the ore.

The work has been entirely in a vertical of porphyry formation that crushes finely and gives good values. The average grade of the ore treated at present is about $2 in gold a ton. A Blake crusher and two small rolls are used in the dry process. The mill is now handling about 200 tons daily, practically its full capacity. Heretofore all work has been of the surface character, and it is now planned to go deeper and reach some of the high grade material that was found in that section in the earlier days.

The Monarch in the Two Bits district is about ready to commence operations in the mill. For some months past George Bachman, the lessee, has been engaged in remodeling the mill and installing a crusher. Electric power is to be used.

Months of steady work in the Dakota shaft of the Imperial Gold Mining company has developed the much sought quartzite formation, and now sinking has been abandoned to permit of drift work. The Imperial is the first of the companies operating in this section to reach quartzite and the discovery means the opening up of an entirely new set of ore bodies, and the indefinite prolonging of the life of the most productive district in the Black Hills.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts of the aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed the great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address

You Will Need an Oil Stove

When warm days and the kitchen fire make cooking a burden—then is the time to try a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove.

Marvelous how this stove does away with kitchen discomforts — how cool it keeps the room in comparison with conditions when the coal fire was burning. The quick concentrated heat of the

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

goes directly to boil the kettle or bake the bread, and none is diffused about the room to overheat it. Thus using the "New Perfection" is real kitchen comfort. Made in three sizes and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp Just such a lamp as everyone wants—handsome enough for the parlor; strong enough for the kitchen; camp or cottage; bright enough for every occasion. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

Jury Says Life Insurance Company Must Pay $3,773.95.

A verdict awarding Swallow & Hopkins damages in the amount of $3,773.95 against the Aetna Life Insurance company was returned in Judge Ensign's room last evening. The action was instituted to recover on a $4,500 claim for death and accident settlements, based on an employer's casualty policy carried with the life insurance company.

The company claimed that one of the employes involved was under the legal age and that it received no notice of the accident to the other employes before the plaintiffs effected a settlement on their own volition. Washburn, Bailey & Mitchell represented Shallow & Hopkins, and Wilson & Morgan represented the insurance company.

A Reliable Remedy for the Whiskey and Beer Habit

Very few men become drunkards because they like liquor. It is frequently the moderate drinker, who before he realizes his condition, has become a drunkard. The nervous system, having become accustomed to stimulants, is unable to do the same amount or quality of work without liquor, hence the victim drinks more and more. This is a state of disease and should be treated by Orrine. It destroys the desire for liquor, so that the drink is not missed. There is no loss of time or detention from work when it is used.

Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1, the secret remedy which can be used in food or drink without the knowledge of the patient, No. 2 for those who take the remedy of their own free will. Both forms are guaranteed. A registered guarantee in every box.

Treatise on how to cure drunkenness free on request. The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C. The price of either form is $1 a box, making the cost of the complete cure less than one-tenth what it is usually charged at sanitariums, with a guarantee that the expense will be nothing unless a cure is gained. Mail orders filled in plain sealed package on receipt of price.

Orrine for sale by F. W. Kugler & Co., 108 West Superior street, Duluth.

LATEST BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

"The Barrier," by Rex Beach—"The Supreme Gift," by Grace Denio Litchfield—"The City of Delight," by Elizabeth Miller—"The Forbidden Road," by Maria Albenesi.

THE BARRIER. By Rex Beach. New York: Harper and Brothers. $1.50.

We don't know that Rex Beach found a gold mine when he was up in the Alaskan wilds a few years ago, but whether he did or not it is quite certain that he found something equally good, and that is a mine of human interest from whose rich ores he has coined two strong novels, the first being "The Spoilers" and the second "The Barrier," which is just come to hand. It is a strong, breezy, virile story, with not a dull page or a single pause in the resistless current of its events. It is one of those books that you want to keep at until you have finished, and then you are sorry it is over because you have grown to love its people—some of them at least. There is one noble figure in it, Poleon, the French Canadian voyageur, with his great heart, his simple, child-like manhood, his clean soul and his true, primitive passions. Though his is not the leading character in the story, he looms largely upon the stage of the tale, as he must upon the stage of the theater if, as is reported, the book is to be made into a play, a purpose to which it would adapt itself very readily. There are other characters that compel interest and sympathy, and they are all sketched in broad, vivid outlines. It is a sterling novel, with plenty of real humanity in it, and it cannot fail to appeal to a wide circle.

THE SUPREME GIFT. By Grace Denio Litchfield. Boston: Little, Brown & Co. $1.50.

Here is a very vivid story of human suffering and of the development of character under adversity. The scenes are laid in Washington, and the story hinges upon the collapse of a banker, to whom many poor people had entrusted their all. The banker's daughter is the chief figure, and her sacrifices for her father's honor and for the relief of the sufferers for whom he was responsible make a very strong story. The nearly simultaneous death by accident of a man and his wife, wealthy relatives whose property would fill the gap left by the failure, is made the basis of a thrilling struggle of conscience. If one died first, the property belonged to the banker's daughter; if the other died first, it went to a selfish nephew who wanted the heroine. As it happened the property rightly belonged to the nephew, but the banker and his lawyer, the only witnesses of the accident, falsely state that the reverse is the case, and the property goes to the girl. Accidentally she learns of this, and refuses to accept the money. This leads to other complications, as by marrying the selfish nephew she can get the money and straighten up her father's affairs, though this involves giving up the man she loves and marrying a man she dislikes. The story is worked out convincingly and artistically, but the author commits one unforgivable offense in wantonly introducing a tragedy which might easily have been averted, which would have made the story more pleasant but not less artistically probable.

THE CITY OF DELIGHT. By Elizabeth Miller. Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill Company. $1.50.

In this strong novel by the author of "Saul of Tarsus" and "The Yoke," the principal scenes are laid in Jerusalem during the siege in which Titus laid the city waste. To call Jerusalem a city of delight at that time is a hideous travesty, for as the author of this novel has vividly related, it was a place of horror, of fear, of superstition and of desolation. The heroine, a young Jewess, has been married in her childhood to a boy who might have been, had events turned otherwise, king of Jerusalem. In the beginning she sets out from her father's home to meet her husband in Jerusalem, after many years of separation. On the way the plague, from which they had flown, overtakes most of the members of the party, and the girl, accompanied only by a crippled servant, proceeds on her way. She meets her husband and a knavish associate, but neither knows the other. She is betrayed by a woman who steals her dowry and precedes her to the city, where she represents herself to be the Jewish heiress, while the companion of the hero, leaving him for dead by the wayside, appears in the character of the prospective king of Jerusalem, believing the real one to be out of the way. Misunderstanding leads to strange confusion, and in the meantime Titus completes his investment, the siege is on, and death and terror take up their home in Jerusalem. It is a powerful story, related with consummate skill, and it treats a great theme with becoming reverence and astonishing dramatic ability. Its history, drawn evidently from Josephus and the Apocrypha, is accurate, its descriptive matter is entirely adequate, and its incidents are thrilling enough to make suspension of interest impossible. It is a better done piece of literary work than Miss Miller has heretofore accomplished, and it should be remembered that her two previous novels have met with wide approval.

STORIES OF WAGNER OPERAS TOLD FOR CHILDREN. By Elizabeth M. Wheelock, Indianapolis: The Bobbs-Merrill Company.

As a descriptive title, "Stories of Wagner Operas Told For Children" does not quite do justice to Mrs. Wheelock's book, for not merely does she tell the stories, but she gives the very spirit of the operas and interprets them so clearly and so fully that you can "see the things happening." And the stories are brimming with interest, not merely for children, but for grown-ups as well—for all, in fact, who want their opera lore put in a simple, concise and entertaining way. They have a sort of vocal directness, because they are actual conversations, set down exactly as they have been many times "talked off" by the author to children of all ages. The skill and sympathy which Mrs. Wheelock shows in putting into story firm the works of the immortal Master-Singer must command sincerest admiration.

FINANCIAL CALENDAR FOR 1908. New York: Financial Calendar Company, 25 West Broadway. $2.50.

This valuable calendar covers every dividend paying stock—both Canadian and American—the stock listed on all exchanges—and all unlisted, mining, curb, etc—and shows the actual official dates in advance for the year 1908 for dividend meetings, for payment of dividends, for books opening and closing, for selling ex-dividend, for annual reports, for annual meetings; and a complete list of transfer offices. This data cannot be obtained in advance anywhere else; no other record of any description gives the past record of hundreds of the active stocks carried in this publication, nor the transfer offices of hundreds of these corporations. This quick, concise shape makes it the most handy to obtain the gross issue of bonds and stocks, the par value, rate of dividend, companies controlled, gross earnings and surplus in preceding years. The bank and trust companies section, showing the surplus, capital, profits, dividends and dates of payment of dividends, is also a valuable feature.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Edited by Albert Nelson Marquis. Chicago: A. N. Marquis & Co. $4.

There are few if any reference books that are so valuable as "Who's Who in America," and the edition for 1908-09, which has just been issued, is a triumph for its editor and publishers. No one who desires to keep up to the times can afford to be without this book, which contains so much personal information in compact form. The latest edition has been thoroughly revised and brought down to date, and contains brief, crisp, personal sketches of 16,395 of the most notable living Americans in all parts of the world—the conspicuous men and women in every walk of life. Each sketch is a life-story in a nutshell—birthplace, age, parentage, education and degrees, occupation, position and achievements; and, in fact, the chief feature in each career, without puffery or eulogy, praise or criticism. There are 2,057 new sketches—sketches not appearing in any previous edition. There are over 4,000 cross references to earlier editions. This edition, however, is complete in itself without reference to previous volumes. It makes available for easy reference more than 20,000 personal sketches—or a larger number than was ever before brought together in a single volume. The latest addenda is appended to each sketch as usual. The geographical index to this edition (an entirely new feature) adds greatly to the value and usefulness of the book. It groups by state, city and postoffice address all names in the volume, making it easy to find the names for any particular place or locality. This index comprises 138 closely printed pages.

CUPID'S PACK OF CARDS. By Walter Pulitzer. Boston: Luce & Co.

This is a new book of original epigrams and proverbs on the great international Game of Love with the fifty-two playing cards employed separately as a decorative background, and it is not surprising to learn that the publishers have been approached by a manufacturer of playing cards with a view of securing the privilege of reproducing them as a practical pack of cards. On the face of the ace of hearts Mr. Pulitzer says: "The lover and the card player will tell you that the game can be lost in more ways than won."

YARD AND GARDEN. By Tarkington Baker. Indianapolis: The Bobbs-Merrill Company.

This book differs materially from others on gardenin gsubjects. It is for the amateur first and last, for the expert amateur as well as for the beginner. It tells what to do and how to do it, and tells it on the basis of conditions in America, not in England. Three-fourths of the best gardening books are the products of English pens and are written for the use of English gardeners. The American amateur who obtains such a book and attempts to follow its advice—excellent for England—will fail miserably in his plans and planting. "Yard and Garden" contains information that is based on the experience of years. The author, Tarkington Baker, has made gardening his hobby; he is an expert planter and landscape architect, but prefers to practice only for his own enjoyment. In addition to a large city garden, Mr. Baker has a country place, where, on more extensive grounds, larger operations are conducted. From both of these places material for the book has been collected.

The amateur who so often is unable to find definite information as to where and when to plant, as to the selection of trees, shrubs, vines, perennials, annuals and hardy and tender bulbs will find in this book the information he requires. He is told how deep and how far apart to plant, when to plant, how to prepare the ground, how to cultivate after planting, how to water, what fertilizer to use and how to apply it. The subject of soils is made clear, and especial attention is given lawns.

WINDOW GARDENING. By Herman B. Dorner. Indianapolis. The Bobbs-Merrill company.

All those who love "the flowers that bloom in the spring" will be delighted with this book. The author's aim is to give such cultured directions as will enable the inexperienced to overcome most of the difficulties which arise in the growing of plants in the window garden. Methods of treatment are suggested which will enable the grower to care for his plants intelligently and insure a fair measure of success. Of course, says Mr. Dorner, if the grower still insists upon dosing plants with castor oil or watering them with boiling water, or using various chemical nostrums, he need not be disappointed if his attempts result in failure. The cultural directions given are equally applicable to the window garden and the small conservatory. The book is illustrated with photographs prepared under the direction of the author.

KATHERINE TREVALYAN. By Louise Maunsell Field. New York: The McClure company. $1.50.

In this novel the author tears the tinsel off the glittering bauble of social triumph and shows the envies, the jealousies, the smallnesses, the heartaches and the wasted lives that are underneath. It is a searching and brilliant novel of New York society as seen from the inside. It gives us an intimate and detailed description of the lives led by devotees of the "society" that arrogates to itself the capital initial, but what is really merely a fleck of froth on the scum of humanity. Miss Field describes for us all manner of social functions—dinners, dances, theater parties, receptions, house parties and midnight suppers where the more venturesome spirits "go the limit." The corroding and degrading atmosphere is plainly depicted without any descent to "muck-raking" methods. All this is merely a background to the character of the heroine, who is a part of it, but whose purer and nobler nature causes her to rise above it. One is inclined to be somewhat impatient with this heroine because of the almost stupid manner in which she permits herself to be deceived by an unscrupulous fortune-hunter, but it is easily forgiven. It is a spirited narrative, showing a keen insight into human nature. A marked fault is the author's tendency to overindulge herself in the pleasure of producing skilled descriptive passages.

SCHOOL REPORTS AND SCHOOL EFFICIENCY. By David S. Snedden and William H. Allen. New York: The Macmillan company $1.50.

Here is a very valuable book on a very vital subject. School reports, from which the public must get its ideas of what the public schools are doing, should be compact, exact and complete descriptions of what is being done in the schools, what they need and where they succeed or fail. Most reports, unfortunately, fall very far below the ideal. Many of them are merely bulky arrays of tables and figures, much of which are meaningless even to those who made them. This book seeks to ascertain wherein school reports fail to serve their end, and how they can be made to do so. The history of school reports and of efforts that have been made to improve them is carefully studied. Some examples of good and bad reports are given, and there is a complete and instructive study of what reports fail to show and what they should show. The book is popular in form, and is designed for teachers, superintendents, social workers, parents and taxpayers. It should be studied by everybody whose duty it is to see that school reports convey an accurate impression of conditions to the public for which they are designed.

THE FORBIDDEN ROAD. By Maria Albenesi. New York: The Cupples & Leon company. 75 cents.

In this well written and interesting novel, the author achieves the unusual feat of keeping the reader in the dark until almost the end of the tale as to which of two characters is the heroine. There is at first the same puzzle as to which is the hero and which the villain—for the book is amply set forth with the conventional dramatis personae of the old-fashioned novel. Mme. Albenesi, her name to the contrary notwithstanding, is as much of an Englishwoman as Marie Corelli, and she has a large vogue among the novel-readers of the British Isles. The present story is the pathetic relation of the struggles of an improvident, irresponsible woman soul against circumstances and temperament and training; a sort of Nora of "A Doll's House," who entangles herself by a thoughtless forgery. The book will create an interest in the reader that will persist to the last page, and beyond it.

THE MASTER CRIMINAL. By G. Sidney Paternoster. New York: The Cupples & Leon company. 75 cents.

The central figure in this stirring tale of the seamy side of life is a big-brained but bitter man, who has sworn revenge upon society, and who seeks to gratify this appetite by criminal pursuits of extraordinary ingenuity and success. He trains to his ends a son and an adopted daughter. The manner in which this master criminal, like a fiendish spider in a web of crime, plays with his puppets, and the way in which human nature proves too much for him in the end, make a lively and realistically thrilling tale.

Among the Magazines.

Of specially notable interest in the April Century is the discussion of "The Age of Mental Virility," by W. A. Newman Dorland, M. M., who presents in this paper the main results of three years' investigation into the records of achievement of the world's chief workers and thinkers. The conclusions set forth are based upon the careful compilation and analysis of 400 records of men famous in various lines of intellectual activity. Dr. Dorland's records indicate 50 as the average age for the performance of the masterwork. The feature beautiful of the April issue is the second of Robert Hichens' series, in which "The Spell of Egypt" is caught and portrayed for sympathetic readers by the author's text and by the paintings of Jules Guerin. Denderah and Karnak—Karnak, whose notes are triumph and deathless peace, the bugle call and silence'—hold the spell this month, the three color pages showing the Great Temple of Karnak, the Sacred lake at Karnak, and the Temple of Hathor.

The American Magazine creates a strong and proper feeling of interest and excitement. There isn't a dull line in it. "Roosevelt," by "K," is new and refreshing. Surely the president does not know himself one-half as well as "K" knows him. Who is "K?" And what will Roosevelt say? "Mr. Dooley" on "The Temperance Wave" shows how whisky knocks the dot off your little i and makes a capital letter of you. Then "The Interpreter" takes up the follies of fanatical prohibitionists and proceeds to the most eloquent temperance talk written in years. Stannard Baker on "The Tragedy of the Mulatto" presents story after story like that of the well-known white actress who, when she goes to Boston, secretly visits her negro relatives. The way of the mulatto is not happy.

An interesting and novel series of articles by Frederick Trevor Hill, entitled "The Story of a Street," begins in the April Harper's Magazine. The first installment—"Wall Street in the Days of the Dutch"—recounts the exciting times and curious happenings in the days when Wall street was really a walled street and Broadway a weedy trail. Quaint pictures and old prints accompany this first really authoritative history of America's most famous thoroughfare. Striking and realistic photographs supplement "The Passing of the Florida Alligator," in which A. W. Dimmock describes an exciting and picturesque sport which is fast exterminating the alligator from the Florida lagoons. Charles H. Caffin, in "The Art of Thomas W. Dewing," writes of the work of a notable modern painter. Many of Mr. Dewing's paintings have been reproduced in black and tint.

Scribner's Magazine for April has a brilliant colored cover and a frontispiece, also in color, showing a ship passing through the Suez canal at night. The leading article, "How They Rammed the Derelict," is by W. J. Aylward, the artist who, it will be recalled, accompanied the drydock "Dewey" on its long voyage. As an illustrator of life at sea, he is not surpassed. He also has the knack of vivid description. It is many years since Richard Harding Davis has written a serial, and in this number readers are fortunate in having the first installment of "Vera, the Medium," a tale of modern New York, written in Mr. Davis' most graphic manner. The story moves about the efforts of a lawyer to rob an old man of his millions by working on his credulity through a medium. Among the other characters are the district attorney and an ingenious reporter. The story abounds in dramatic situations. In "The Westward Tide of Commerce Through the Suez," Charles M. Pepper shows the awakening of the Far East, particularly Japan, to the benefits of a world-wide commerce.

The April number of the Woman's Home Companion contains several notable articles, and is, in addition, a thoroughly artistic and beautiful issue. Kellogg Durland contributes his second article on "Women of the Russian Revolt;" Jane Addams writes a thoughtful and appealing article on "The Working Woman and the Ballot;" Dr. Edward Everett Hale gives a helpful talk on "The Meaning of Home," and Elizabeth Stuart Phelps continues her serial story, "Though Life Do Us Part." There are also some excellent short stories. This April issue is beautiful in its Easter cover and in many fine pictorial features by Hermann C. Wall, Florence Scovel Shinn, Ellen Macauley and others.

The April McClure's is so full of a number of things that few readers will care to miss it. The Carl Schurz memoirs are resumed in an article, "The South After the War," a graphic picture of the desolation and devastation of the South, an dthe anxieties of the federal government in that critical period. Burton J. Hendrick tells of Hughes' achievements as governor of New York. Ellen Terry is as entertaining as usual in "Some of My Associates of the Stage." Miss Milmine continues "The Life of rMs. Eddy," giving the history of the "Romantic Movement in Christian Science."

Ainslee's for April has a most refreshing table of contents, for almost every story in the table of contents has in it something new. Everything in it seems to strike a new note in short fiction. Among the contributors are William R. Lighton, Anna A. Rogers, Cosmo Hamilton, John Kendrick Bangs, Mary H. Vorse, Henry Gallup Paine, Ada Woodruff Anderson, Harriet Whitney Durbin, William Armstrong and Camillus Phillips.

The Keramic Studio has with the April number, opened a new department under the title of "Happy Study Hours." It is especially for the home workers and students who have no access to teachers in the larger cities. The new department will aid and assist those in doubt. The colored study of "Calla Lily," is very pretty and is applicable for vases, other studies in black and white will appeal to those wishing something new in the way of decoration. The "Cherry Bowl" design also "Sagittaria," "Cowslips" and others are all very attractive and are suitable for china and water color workers.

The special features of the April number of the Review of Reviews are illustrated articles on "The Greatest Naval Cruise of Modern Times," by Winthrop L. Marvin, "The Achievement of the Hudson Tunnels," by Louis E. Van Norman, "National Forests in the Appalachians," by Thomas Elmer Will, and "To Farm America's Swamps," by Guy E. Mitchell; a complete summary of the recent legislation against liquor-selling in the different states, by Ferdinand C. Iglehart, and an account of the workings of the new naturalization system, by Assistant Attorney General Cooley.

A great variety of topics, many of them treated by writers of acknowledged position and authority, make up the table of contents for the April issue of The World To-Day, and the illustrations in this fifteen-cent magazine are both numerous and excellent. A group of six full-page pictures are representative of the "New Americans" to be seen at Ellis Island. The photographs were taken by Julian A. Dimmock, who writes of his impressions while on the island. The editorial entitled "Safeguarding a New Epoch," treats of the new respect for law now prevalent throughout the country.

It has been said that there has never been a novel written which has given a real portrait of a mother. However, beginning in The Housekeeper for April there is a serial by Elizabeth Knight Tompkins, entitled "A Close Corporation," which utterly refutes the impossibility. While it is a home story, beautifully told, nevertheless it is of absorbing interest.

To pick out the salient features of a magazine so bristling with good things as the April number of Popular Mechanics were a feat well nigh impossible. Everyone, desires to know exactly what Uncle Sam is doing and expecting, in the airship line, and the article "United States Will Strive for Air-Ship Supremacy" will tell him just what he wants to know. Another feature describes with illustrations an aluminum heavier-than-air flying machine a Milwaukee inventor has built.

E. F. Benson, the well known English author whose story, "The Other Bed," appears in the April number of the Popular Magazine, is a son of the late archbishop of Canterbury. He achieved international reputation by the publication in 1883 of his novel, "Dodo." "The Judgment Books," "Mammon & Co." and "The Image in the Sand" served to strengthen his reputation.

Young's Magazine for April has the characteristic array of piquant, breezy fiction. The opening novelette is a story of a man, two women and a divorce. It is unique in the fact that the divorce opens, instead of finishing the story, for which the divorce and another wife standing between him and his first love and man's heart nevertheless turns back to her. Both women are distinct types and in one or the other every man will find a woman he has met—and perhaps loved. It's a stirring, tragic story and a daring attack on the great social sore—divorce.

Among the leading articles in the Technical World Magazine for April are: "Public Wealth for the State," by Governor Charles S. Deneen of Illinois; "Shooting to Hit with Big Guns," by Livingston Wright; "What of the New Cactus?" by E. C. Merriam; "The Magic Power of Magnet," by George Frederic Stratton.

Beatrix Demarest Lloyd has written several novelettes for The Smart Set, but her latest story, "The White Stain," will undoubtedly prove the most popular of them all. The opening scenes are in Italy, whither a young English artist has gone to paint a certain picture. There he meets a beautiful young Italian girl. The story then shifts to Paris, where the real drama begins, and a delicate yet strong situation is handled with consummate art. The final chapter of this story is written with such depth of feeling that it will linger long in every reader's memory.

The April number of House and Garden contains a charming little poem by Claire Wallace Flynn entitled "Respite." The three verses are set decoratively, which adds to their charm.

The leading place in the Engineering Magazine for April is given to an illustrated description of the rescue appliances in use in the mines of France, by Jacques Boyer, a prominent consulting engineer and professor in one of the large engineering schools of Paris. M. Boyer's paper on the practical development and use of these devices in France is a most timely contribution, in view of the rapidly increasing importance of the subject of their general introduction in Great Britain and the United States.

Of the many notable features in the April magazines, none is likely to excite keener interest or do more genuine good than the article entitled "The Worrier" in Lippincott's. This is a paper supplemental to a series of five by the same author, George Lincoln Walton, a famous neurologist. Dr. Walton divides his theme into three parts, "At Home," "At the Table," and "On His Travels," and many there are who will be surprised to find that their own peculiarities and idiosyncrasies are similar to those of the chronic worrier, who makes life a burden to himself and others.

In the April number of Success Magazine, Gustavus Myers attempts to answer the question, "Who'll be the next president?" James L. Ford discusses the difficulties of the young girl who comes to New York. Samuel Merwin shows how the opium crime in China has reacted on England. There is an article on "Municipal Bonds," by Charles Lee Scovil, and one on "Concrete Houses," by H. B. Baker.

* * *

"Trinity, Church of Mystery," is the title of an interesting article by Charles Edward Russell in the New Broadway Magazine for April. Rupert Hughes discusses "Our Falstaffian Army," and Ada Patterson gives an atractive sketch of "Edward W. Bok: Editor-Extraordinary." "The Call of the Shops," by Mabel Potter Daggett, is a finely illustrated article.

For April, Wood Craft has articles on the various phases of electrically-operated woodworking plants, the beauty and purpose of the curved line in furniture design, the art and practice of wood-finishing, the selection and testing of glue, and other useful and timely information.

The smiling, satisfied face which looks out from the front cover of the April American Boy is an index to the interesting, instructive and pleasing matter this number contains. "Jimmy Jones, Pirate," "Four Boys on the Mississippi" and "That Dillingham Boy" continue to delight their readers. Mr. Weir's fine serial, "Canal and Jungle," is regretfully concluded. Among the shorter stories are: "The Poetry of Steeples," which tells of ho wone man's heart was in his art; "How Karl Got Even," is a humorous April 1st story, showing that the biters do get bitten sometimes, and "Fooling Father," the moral of which is that fathers are not as often fooled as their sons think.

The Popular Science Monthly for April contains the following articles: "Our Inland Waterways," by Dr. W. J. McGee; "Accidental Resemblances Among Animals: A Chapter in Unnatural History," by Prof. Basnford Dean; "The History of Science," by Prof. C. R. Mann; "Physics," by Prof. Ernest Fox Nichols; "The Respiration of an Inland Lake," by Prof. E. A. Birge.

The April Atlantic contains important articles on many vital topics. The leader is on "The Social Disability of the Jew," and is written by Dr. Edwin J. Kuh, a Chicago physician. John Burroughs, the well known naturalist, contributes an unusually fine essay called "The Divine Soil." The last paper in Edith Wharton's series, "A Second Motor Flight Through France," is printed in this number, together with the third of the "Confessions of a Railroad Signalman," by J. O. Fagan, an employe of a New England railroad.

Two new features make their appearance in the April number of Uncle Remus's Magazine, each of which adds to the attractiveness of that interesting publication. One is "Gilbert Neal," a serial story by Will N. Harben, author of "Miam' Linda" and "Ann Boyd," two of the most successful novels of the last few years. The other is something decidedly out of the ordinary for a literary monthly—a department called "Uncle Remus and the Children," conducted, of course, by Joel Chandler Harris. It is cast along new lines and will doubtless prove popular among the youngsters.

The April number of Current Literature more than sustains this brilliant periodical's reputation. Taft's and Bryan's platforms are cleverly analyzed side by side, the war on gambling and prohibition is taken up in a lively manner, and the great automobile race described with humor and preciseness of information. Senator Allison and the three picturesque senators from Oklahoma are vividly portrayed in "Persons in the Foreground;" likewise "The Heir Apparent to the British Throne," and Alfred Deakin, "The Triumphant Talker of the Antipodes." "Literature and Art" presents "Reflections on the Present Literary Status in America," and the "Growing Pains of American Art."

"Prosperity and the Exchange" is the title of a striking article in the current Harper's Weekly, in which President H. N. Sager of the Chicago board of trade, tells why the great trade marts of the country are essential to the conduct of its important business. In the same issue Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance company, comments acutely and with the force of authority upon certain defects of the Armstrong law as it affects the legitimate and desirable business activity of the life insurance companies. Under the attractive title of "The Invisible Navy," Robert G. Skerrett tells of recent progress in the construction of submarines for the navies of the world. His article is fully illustrated.

Military critics have suggested various reasons for the defeat of Russia by Japan, and no doubt there were many contributor causes of the Russian overthrow. The most original idea on this subject, however, is set forth in an article in the current issue of Leslie's Weekly, written by William H. Brill, a well-known correspondent, who accompanied the Japanese armies. Mr. Brill shows that the premature surrender of Port Arthur by Gen. Stoessel, whom he accuses of cowardice, released the besiegers for active work in the field, and thus enabled the Japanese to beat the Russians at Mukden, which might never have happened had the siege been prolonged. This remarkable statement is accompanied by a page of pictures showing striking features of the Port Arthur siege.

PROFESSORS OF UNIVERSITIES

Under State Control to be Included in Carnegie Benefit.

New York, April 3.—Announcement was made last night that Andrew Carnegie would add $5,000,000 to the Carnegie foundation, or whatever sum might be necessary to include as pension beneficiaries professors of state universities.

No provision was made for this class of educators in the original gift, for the reason, stated by Mr. Carnegie at the time, that the donor thought it possible that such institutions might prefer that their relations should continue exclusively with the state, from which their chief support was derived. This view was not taken by the National Association of State Universities, which in the year following the establishment of the foundation, petitioned the trustees for admittance to the benefits of the retiring allowance system. It was then found that the earnings of the original fund of $10,000,000 were exhausted through the outlet already planned, and that if the faculties of all state universities were to be benefited, an additional $5,000,000 would be required. The additional donation will be in 5 per cent bonds, providing an added annual income of $500,000 and a total for yearly disbursements of $750,000.

The Carnegie foundation was established by Mr. Carnegie on April 27, 1905, with a gift of a trust fund of $10,000,000 in 5 per cent first mortgage bonds of the United States Steel corporation. This fund was placed in the care of trustees, who include the presidents of the leading colleges and universities of the country. The revenue of the fund provides pensions for teachers of universities, colleges and technical schools in the United States, Canada and New Foundland, who are retired after twenty-five years' service, or having reached the age of 65 years, have taught fifteen years preceding. From the benefits of these trust funds were excluded institutions supported by state or colonial government and schools under sectarian control.

W. E. WHITESIDE DEAD.

Accidentally Killed by Falling Down a Mine Shaft.

William Edward Whiteside, 28 years of age, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whiteside of 521 Fourth avenue east, was killed as a result of falling down a shaft at the Hazel mine, near Reading, Pa., a few days ago, according to advices received in Duluth.

Whiteside was well known in Duluth and on the ranges. He is the first of a family of nine children to die. His father was in New Mexico when news of the son's death reached him, and he started immediately for Reading.

EVELYN THAW SUES N. Y. HOTEL MANAGER.

New York, April 4.—Papers were served on James Bregan, manager of the Hotel Knickerbocker yesterday in a suit brought by Mrs. Evelyn Thaw to recover $50,000 damages for alleged injuries to her feelings by the stories that she and E. R. Thomas had been asked to leave the hotel grill room. Mr. Regan turned the papers over to his counsel. Later he said that he did not look at them long enough to find out just why Mrs. Thaw was suing him. He thought it was for being put out of the hotel or because he said he put her out. She denied having been there.

PROMINENT WOMAN

Sentenced to Serve Term in Prison for Abetting Firebug.

Norwalk, Ohio, April 4.—Unless the higher courts reverses the verdict in common pleas court here, Mrs. Martha J. Campbell of Greenfield township, former Women's Christian Temperance union president and Sunday school superintendent, who was convicted of aiding and abetting Miss Lea Mather in the burning of Miss Mather's dwelling house in Steuben last October, will have to serve a term in the penitentiary.

Judge Adler yesterday overruled the motion for a new trial and sentenced the woman to eight months' imprisonment in the penitentiary and to pay the costs of prosecution.

NEW TYPE OF BRIDGE IS BEING BUILT IN NORTHERN MINNESOTA

The Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg road, in crossing the Rainy river at Ranier, Minn., is introducing something new in the way of bridges to this part of the country. It is what is known as a single-leaf Scherzer rolling lift bridge.

It was found necessary to build a structure that would not interfere with navigation, and a lift bridge, which has a span that stands on one end to make room for the boats to pass, was thought to be better adapted to the river in question than the ordinary draw bridge. The draw span is 125 feet in length, leaving a channel of that width when lifted. Trains can now be run over the structure, but it will not be entirely finished for two or three weeks yet.

The bridge will connect the Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg with the Canadian Northern road, establishing a direct route from Duluth to Winnipeg. Electricity is the power used to operate the lift, the proper precautions being taken to prevent wrecks or other accidents.

SOCIALISM AND ROBBERY.

Robbery, as viewed by Socialists, is the one curse that is the direct cause of the afflictions that have fallen to the lot of a suffering humanity. It is far worse today than it was in the past, for the reason that we are so much more enlightened and educated, and because of our ability to use the machine in cheapening the methods of production, and the worst that can be said of our system is that we cheapen production for private gain and not for the gain of all the people.

What we, as Socialists, say is not said in hatred, with a feeling of malice towards individuals, or as firebrands to incite hatred and malice against those whom we criticise, but to say something that will cause people to vote for something that would better humanity. We ask the people who would judge us, to consider what we say, and then ask, are they wrong? and if they so conclude, they should have pity and give us the hand of mercy, and not brand us as the willful destroyers of everything that is good. What we say we say in the open, and as the truth, backed by facts that are as yet undisputed by our opponents, and yet when we ask questions of our superiors, they are unable to answer them in a way that would give a solution of the questions that confront us.

What is robbery? Most people would say, "It was taking away from another by force something that did not belong to him." The Socialist would say that it was getting something that somebody else produced but did not get, without returning an equivalent for the same. The average person can see no wrong in taking a thing as long as he gets it through legal means. It seems they are unable to understand that there is a law more powerful than the legal law, one which, if not obeyed, will destroy our very life.

Robbery is robbery; no matter what excuses are placed in defense of the same, they can not make it right. We must look at that higher law, and ask from what point of force does it become a law, and remember that no man can have a right that can be denied to other men. If some are allowed to accumulate great wealth, it is done at the expense of other men, and causes untold misery, suffering and want, which will in the end eat away the very vitality of the people. The form of robbery that we speak of is one that is hidden beneath the surface of existing conditions, and one that is not easily seen by the average person. If one man is protected by the legal law to hire another man, and for those services rendered pay him a wage, who is to say what that wage shall be? If he be allowed to pay wages, he is also given the right to make those wages the lowest he possibly can induce men to accept, regardless as to how far those wages would go towards supplying the needs of those men.

Men have this legal right in the ownership of the jobs that other men must accept, in order to in some measure, at least earn a living, and through the ownership of these jobs, is the legal law which protects the men in the rights of owning and controling the necessities of life in order to live. The job is owned through the law that allows man to own the natural resources, regardless of the harm he may work against his fellowman, and as long as man has the right to own the tools of production this right will be held sacred to rob his fellow-man. Man, through the ownership of the machine, has the power to say to the worker who asks him for a job: "Yes, I will give you work, and will pay you $2 per day as wages." He hides beneath the word wages the method he is using to rob the worker.

If the worker, using the machine that belongs to the capitalist, produces $10 in value and only receives $2 in wages, there lies $8 of value, his own production, that he did not get. Some one will say: "Why the owner of the machine must have interest on his capital invested in the machine." I will say the machine is the product of labor and not the product of money. You may take $1,000 and lay it away upon a shelf in your office, and leave the same there for ten years, and when you look at it again, you will find it has not grown, but to some extent has wasted away. And as the machine is the product of labor, and nothing more, why should one man pay a toll to another for the right of using that machine, for no other purpose than making a living? Men buy and sell labor power, control and exchange, the products of that labor power the markets, not with the desire of exchanging those products for the usefulness they may contain, but from the view that there is profit for them, and if profit is not robbery, what is it? Our laws place the ban upon the so-called illegitimate profit, making the one legal and the other illegal. The state says that a certain per cent shall be legal and all above that is illegal.

We find that this trouble arises from a condition, which itself creates the wrongs of which we speak. If we allow the right to one man that is unjust to other men, what can we expect but that our whole system will become permeated with graft, robbery and injustice? The Socialist sets forth a remedy which we believe will do away with all of the evils of the existing system, but we do not maintain that we will set forth plans whereby a perfect organization of society would be set up, and that every thing would be cut and dried, and that the state itself would become the father and mother of the people, but that the people themselves would become the lawmakers and the law enforcers. This can and must be done before a just regime can be set up.

If we transfer from private ownership of the land, mines, mills, factories, railroads, and in fact every means whereby one man has a right to exploit another, to the collective ownership of all the people, the same to be managed in the interests of all, and not in the interests of the few—when this is done we can expect some good to accrue to humanity.

P. G. PHILLIPS.

THESE BROTHERS HAVE WON OUT

vate secretary to Horace Greeley, and manager of a paper that lived by a short while; Charles Frohman was also a newspaper office boy, and later connected with the business side of the old New York Graphic. Daniel became a theatrical advance agent because his doctor had advised him to travel for a spell for his health. When he took his peripatetic job he had no idea of making theatrical management his life's work. Charles Frohman drifted naturally into theatrical management; as a youngster he had organized a minstrel show and charged a cent admission to its performances.

All the Beards have done a great deal of their work for newspapers. Dan has been a magazine editor off and on; Frank's cartoons during the Blaine campaign made him famous, and he was also known far and wide as the editor of Ram's Horn. When he was sent to congress, Charles B. Landis was a country newspaper editor. Gen. John J. McCook, noted lawyer, heads a New York law journal. Henry Ward Beecher added to his name by his journalistic feats. George Barr McCutcheon was an Indiana small town editor before his books made him wealthy; John T. has also gained a well-stuffed pocketbook by his newspaper cartoons. Thus the newspaper has been used by not a few pretty well-known brothers either as a stepping stone to their ultimate respective goals or as a field for their fixed endeavor.

The Coquelin Brothers.

From the bakery to the stage was the leap made by the Coquelin brothers. After giving his sons what we would call a public school education, Coquelin pere put them in baker coats, aprons and caps and taught them to knead, bake and sell bread. Just as the father was congratulating himself on the prospect that in his old age he would have some one to look after the business for him, along came Radhael to Boulogne. Constant Coquelin witnessed one of her performances, straightway became enamored of the stage, and after that the bread was poorly kneaded, bakings were burned and customers illy served, while he studied parts and dreamed of the day when he would stride the boards—a star.

When his father at last became convinced that a bakeshop was not Constant's place in life, he sent him to Paris with an annual allowance of $240. Here he studied in the conservatory, made his debut at twenty and has been in pursuit of his ideal ever since. In 1864, four years after his brother had made his bow, Coquelin cadet took the prize in comedy at the conservatory and shortly after began his career as a comic star. When his mind recently gave way—over the outcome of a love affair, it has been said—he was probably France's leading comic actor. He became stage-struck while an employe of a railroad, he having deserted the paternal bakery some months previous.

The Benson brothers are among the present day well-known brothers who had fathers as or more famous than themselves; the late archbishop of Canterbury called them sons. The two Garfields, despite their own works, are best known as the sons of a martyred president; Alphonso Taft was Grant's attorney general. During the Civil war times Major Daniel McCook and Dr. John McCook were famed as the fathers of the "Fighting McCooks," and they fought bravely themselves, Daniel being killed in battle. L. Clarke Davis was a leading newspaper editor years before the public ever heard of Richard Davis. The father of the Gliders was a minister and school head with quite a reputation in the East. The three Belmonts are still spoken of as "the sons of old August." Marcus, father of the Professors Jastrow, was for more than three decades one of the renowned rabbis of America. Meyer Guggenheim had made a fortune in the mercantile business and discovered the possibilities in smelting while he was raising his family of ten boys and girls. The father of Elihu and the recently deceased Oren Root was as noted a mathematician in his day at Hamilton college as his son and namesake was in his. Dr. Leopold Damrosch was a musical king in New York from the early '70s till his death in 1885, when his son Walter took up his work.

All Cambridge Men.

Besides being a great churchman the father of the Bensons also had considerable reputation as a literary man. Each of his sons has built up an enviable reputation as a writer, though as such E. F. is probably the best known through his novel "Dodo." By the really critical the works of A. C. are held to be much superior to those of E. F.; he has certainly been far more prolific, having averaged four books a year since he ceased to be a master at Eton in 1903. He is now a fellow of Magdalene college, Cambridge. All three brothers are Cambridge men.

The youngest of the brothers, Robert Hugh, was the center of a nine-days' ecclesiastical sensation when, on leaving Cambridge, he announced his intention of preparing for the Roman Catholic priesthood. This he did by studying for orders under the late Dean Vaughan. He was ordained a priest at Rome four years ago and given the Catholic church at Cambridge. Three or four months ago a cable dispatch announced that he was planning to give up his parish work and devote all his time to literature.

Like his brothers, the "Dodo" Benson has divided most of his time between two things; he is one of England's small army of archaeologists, and the year before "Dodo" appeared (1893) he went on an archaeological trip which lasted four years and took him to Athens, Egypt and other fields of the delver into the past. This is the same Benson who came to this country a few years ago to study it by extensive travel, never got outside of the metropolis and when he went back home said some sarcastic things about New York in a book that he called "The Relentless City."

Vic E. Hanny and Charles Solomon and P. H. Freudenthal of Solomonville.

It is the intention of the Tucson-Globe company to begin active operations on their property within a short time. They will thoroughly develop the property, and expect to make ore shipments within a short time.

Judge Robertson and Mr. Westbrook had owned the property for a number of years and had shipped considerable ore.

Globe, Ariz., April 4.—The original owners of the Superior & Boston property here will receive a payment of that labor $100,000 this month. The company has a large quantity of high-grade ore in the oxidized zone, and every prospect of sulphides when the zone of concentration is reached. The great Eastern mine of the company may prove to be one of the best in the Globe district. The vein has been opened up for 250 feet, and now that the connection has been made with the Black Hawk shaft, development work will be pushed. The company has brought its several workings from the prospect stage up to that of being mines, although there is a great deal of work yet to be done. It is the same with the Superior & Boston as with the other Globe mines, that much depends on the developments at depth. It has been decided to sink two large three-compartment working shafts.

some other operators in the Butte & Boston district, and at a depth of 150 feet in the Susie shaft it has struck sulphide ore and water in such quantity that the miners were drowned out. The Butte Consolidated properties adjoin the Butte & Bacorn claims on the north and are outside the broken vein territory. The company has ten patented claims and twenty-four that are in the course of being patented. The water, at a depth of 150 feet, is very encouraging. The Butte & Bacorn did not encounter much water even at a depth of 1,000 feet. The Butte Consolidated has a fine tunnel site, but it has not yet been decided to open the property by that means.

The Butte-Knickerbocker Mining company, organized over a year ago, has recently added to its holdings fourteen claims in the North Walkerville district. These claims lie west of the Butte & Bradley group and a mile southwest of the Butte & Bacorn property. They have been favorably reported upon by a number of mining engineers, and it is said six veins traverse the ground. Besides these claims the company has secured possession of the Golden Leaf group at Bannock, in Beaverhead county. The company will devote itself to opening up the Bannock claims first, where the vein is said to be nearly three miles in length, varying in width from ten to 600 feet. The ore is free milling gold and is said to carry rich shoots of ore assaying $100 to the ton. It is thought the ore can be milled and treated by the cyaniding process for about $1 a ton. There is an immense tonnage in the vein. There are several improvements on the property.

The Travona and Ancient mining claims in the southwestern part of the city have been leased by a number of Butte men for $500,000, the lease to run for eighteen months. These are old properties belonging to the Clark interests and in the time gone by produced a lot of gold and silver ore. The Travona was located in 1875, and official figures show that $960,000 was its gross output. Some of the ore netted as high as $1,000 a ton after paying expenses of shipment to Swansea, Wales, for treatment. The Ancient has not been worked below fifty feet, but the mine has produced $75,000. By the agreement the lessees must sink the shaft on the Travona, which is now 300 feet, 200 feet within twelve months.

The affairs of the Milwaukee Gold Extraction company, which have have been in somewhat of a muddle for several months, are now straightened out and new directors and officers have been elected. At the annual meeting held recently in Milwaukee O. F. Dwight was elected president to succeed G. H. Savage; W. E. Buschman, vice president; P. V. Schissler, secretary, and Alvan P. Kletszell, treasurer. These officers and E. R. Mueller, H. L. Schultz and R. M. Pitcher are the directors of the company. Of the 200 resident stockholders in Milwaukee 200 were present at the meeting. The company is capitalized for $3,000,000, of which about $2,600,000 has been subscribed.

problem before the Lake Superior & Arizona is to furnish the road.

Helvetia, promoted locally, is developing steadily, and with bettered prospects. At this property the mistake was made of putting in a smelter and treating the rich oxidized ores before permanent sulphide ore bodies were developed at depth.

The Globe Consolidated, controlled in Duluth, is doing much work in the Globe camp of Arizona, and is meeting with considerable encouragement latterly. The Casa Grande Development company is another Duluth corporation operating in Arizona, and has extensive holdings, slightly developed under former ownership, that give indications of large and rich ore bodies.

In the Silver City district of Grant county, N. M., the Comanche is in the hands of a receiver, but the property is considered valuable, and should make a rich mine after the reorganization that now appears unavoidable. The Tri-Bullion company, controlled in Houghton, has copper and zinc properties in Socorro county, N. M., of unusual promise, and has continued development steadily during the era of financial disturbance. The Tyrone, Copper Gulf and other Duluth companies operating in the Pinos Altos district of New Mexico are developing ore in unusually large quantities, and bid fair to make Grant county a large copper producer within the next few years.

In the Bisbee district of Arizona the Denn-Arizona and Shattuck-Arizona have passed the experimental stage, and must be termed real mines, and good mines. A smelter for these properties is the next step, and plans have been made for a reduction plant, to be built at Douglas, twenty-six miles east of Bisbee, where are located the mammoth plants of the Copper Queen and Calumet & Arizona, the latter treating also the Superior & Pittsburg ores.

Among other promising Bisbee properties controlled by Lake Superior capital, are the Warren Realty & Development company and American-Saginaw Development company, both allied through the Duluth interests with the Calumet & Arizona. The Wolverine & Arizona is a Bisbee property, controlled in the Lake copper district, unallied with other Bisbee enterprises, which has managed, after years of tedious effort, to locate its ore, and which should make a mine in time. The Calumet & Bisbee is an idle property, owned by local interests, which ran its race in 1903, but as the lands are owned outright, something may be done within a reasonably short time in the way of resuming exploratory work, as considerable light has been thrown on the geology and ore deposits of the Bisbee camp by nearly five years' work since the Calumet & Bisbee closed down.

In La Cananea camp of Sonora there is a very heavy investment of Duluth and Houghton county capital, not only in the Greene-Cananea, where T. F. Cole and J. D. Ryan have taken the bull by the horns, and are making over the mine and equipment, to the great ultimate profit of the property, but also in a number of smaller developments in the portion of the camp termed valueless five years ago, but since proven valuable, at least in spots, by the Cananea-Duluth, and which bids fair to develop other good mines. One of the most promising of these newer properties is the Fay-Cananea, a Duluth-owned mine that is showing excellent development.

HORACE J. STEVENS.

old mines supposed to have been worthless when the present operator took them over, but which it has since been demonstrated were not worked out. The Hector, formerly known as the Hale, was one of the very first properties opened on the Mesaba. This was in 1893. The original deposit proved to be a comparatively small pocket, and after an erratic career the mine was abandoned after having shipped a quarter of a million tons of ore. Acquiring the property two years ago, Mr. St. Clair put a diamond drill to work and found a new and larger ore body at greater depth. He sunk a shaft, and during the past two seasons has taken out 100,000 tons of ore. The deposit is not particularly large, still there are reserves enough to keep the mine in commission for two or three years, and perhaps longer. Operations have been conducted through the winter. It is not generally known that it was at the Hector, then the Hale, that the diamond-drill system of mining was given its first test on the Mesaba range. This was in 1895 and 1896. The system proved a failure, as even in this day of more modern and powerful machinery it is not giving altogether satisfactory success at the mines of Laughlin Steel company's Grant mine at Buhl. Mr. St. Clair will also make a new find of ore at the Ajax property, in the immediate vicinity of the Hector, and is preparing to open the deposit. The Ajax was formerly known as the Kanawaha. It was opened in 1899 and has shipped a total of 207,000 tons of ore, some 37,000 tons of which were taken out by Mr. St. Clair with a steam shovel after the property had been abandoned by the former operators.

The Pittsburg Iron Ore company's Nassau mine at Hibbing will not be on the active list this season, it is understood, it is idle now. The property produced 20,000 tons last year, which was its first season as a shipper. The Nassau is capable of large development. At the same company's La Rue mine, at Nashwauk, Butler Bros. of St. Paul are preparing to make an early start on the big stripping and mining contract recently awarded them. Considerable of the equipment is already on the ground. Butler Bros. have a number of years' work ahead of them at the La Rue, and they will give employment to a large force of men. The La Rue was opened in 1903 by Joseph Sellwood, and it has been operated as an underground proposition. Both it and the Nassau, along with other properties that had been acquired by the Rhodes Mining company, were transferred to the Pittsburg Iron company last year. Stripping is in progress at the International Harvester company's Hawkins mine, in section 31-57-38, at Nashwauk, and it is understood that close to 300,000 tons of ore will be shipped this year. The Cleveland Cliffs Iron company's Crosby mine, at Nashwauk, the only property of this big independent concern outside of Michigan, will produce 200,000 tons of the coming season. Preparatory work is under way.

After a shaft had been sunk to a depth of eighty feet especially for that purpose, the exploring firm of Longyear & Hodge has recovered a diamond drill bit worth some thousands of dollars and which had been lost in a 500-foot hole put down at Pickands, Mather & Co.'s Red Rock property, Western Menominee range. The rods had parted some eighty feet down, and after all ordinary methods of recovering the equipment had proved unsuccessful shaft sinking was resorted to. The rods were readily withdrawn with the aid of a steam engine, and without any of the diamonds being lost from the bit. The recovery of the rods and the carbons was an expensive piece of work and required three months' time, but the value of the property at stake made the effort well worth the while.

Contracts have been let for the necessary machinery for the blast furnace now being erected at Iron Mountain by John T. Jones and associates and some of the material is arriving. The buildings and foundations are in readiness for the equipment, including the crusher plant, and the machinery will be erected as rapidly as it can be assembled. It is expected to have the furnace in operation early in July. The plant is designed to treat low grade ores now considered all but worthless, and if things work out as the experiments promise, a practical revolution will be wrought in existing methods. The results will be watched with great interest in the Lake Superior region and in iron circles generally.

The Florence Iron company has taken over the so-called Phyllis exploration, comprising the Hall and Yakel tracts, in the Iron River district of the Menominee, and is testing the property with diamond drills. Mixed ore has been encountered. The Florence company is controlled by Lauterbach, Thalman & Co., of New York, and it operates the Florence mine at Florence, Wis.

Corrigan, McKinney & Co.'s Ironton mine, Gogebic range, is increasing its working forces after having greatly curtailed operations some weeks ago. Forty men have been restored to the payroll the past fortnight.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE.

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of Two Hundred and Twelve Dollars ($212.00), upon a certain mortgage duly executed and delivered by William Ness, an unmarried man, bearing date the Twelfth day of December, 1906, and duly filed in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of St. Louis, and State of Minnesota, on the twelfth day of December, 1906, at 11:45 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, and was duly recorded on the day aforesaid, in said office, in Book 115 of Mortgages, on page 10, and no action or proceeding at law or otherwise have been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a power of sale contained in the said mortgage and pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed and that piece and parcel of land situated in the County of St. Louis and State of Minnesota, and described in and covered by said mortgage, viz:

Northeast Quarter of Southeast Quarter (NE¼ of SE¼), Section Thirty-five (35), Township Fifty-two (52) North, of Range Fourteen (14), West of Fourth P. M., subject to an easement for a road one rod wide on the north side of said mortgaged land, with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, will be sold at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt and interest, and Six Dollars and Thirty Cents ($6.30), taxes and penalty thereon, paid by the mortgagee in accordance with the terms of said mortgage, and Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00), attorney's fees, as stipulated in and by said mortgage, in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law; which sale will be made by the sheriff of said St. Louis County, at the front door of the County Court House, in the City of Duluth, in the County and State aforesaid, on Saturday, the eleventh day of April, 1908, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the date of sale, as provided by law.

Dated at Duluth, Minnesota, February 27th, 1908.

WHEAT HAS NO SUPPORT

Slack Demand Causes Weakness in the Northwestern Markets.

May Flax is Easier at the Close in Duluth.

Duluth Board of Trade, April 4.—Continued drought in Kansas and Nebraska furnished bullish news today but the bearish influences were too overwhelming for the market to withstand and prices fell. The Northwestern markets were the weakest.

The cash demand is very slack, which was the principal reason for the weakness. There is little demand for Northwestern wheat and the market has been sagging in spitte of light receipts and lack of rains in some parts of the Southwest.

Liverpool closed unchanged to ½d higher, Paris ¼c higher to ¼c lower, Berlin ½c higher and Budapest 1½c lower.

The May option closed ¾c lower in Duluth, a shade lower in Chicago, 1c lower in Minneapolis, ¼c lower in New York and ⅞c lower in Winnipeg. The July option closed 1c lower in Duluth, ⅛c lower in Chicago, ⅝-1c lower in Minneapolis, ¼c lower in New York and ¾c lower in Winnipeg.

May corn closed ⅝-½c lower in Chicago and unchanged in Liverpool. May oats closed ⅜c lower in Chicago.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool:

"As a result of the easier American cables yesterday and the bearish Bradstreet export statement, the wheat market opened steady with values unchanged to ½d lower. Offerings were not large but support was lacking and the market dull. Following the opening and during the remainder of the trading, prices reached a higher level, prompted by better support and some nervousness among shorts. There continued a good inquiry for cargoes and the Continent is reported to have taken four out of five cargoes recently arrived. At the close, the market was steady and unchanged to ¼d higher than Friday.

"Corn was steady and values were unchanged. Trading was extremely dull, the market being neglected."

Car receipts at Duluth were 46 against 211 last year, and at Minneapolis 2 2 against 24, last year, making a total for the Northwest of 248 against 458 last year Chicago received 22 against 12 last year, Winnipeg received 176 against 180 last year.

Primary receipts of wheat were 329,000 bus, last year 643,000 bus. Shipments 1,030,000 bus, last year 260,000 bus. Clearances of wheat and flour aggregated 179,000 bus.

Primary receipts of corn were 447,000 bus, last year 685,000 bus. Shipments 371,000 bus, last year 260,000 bus. Clearances of corn were 84,307 bus.

Wheat was extremely dull throughout the short session of the Duluth market. May wheat opened ½c higher at $101 bid, sold at $1.00¾, went as low as $1.00, rallied to $1.00¾ and closed at that price, a loss of ¼c from yesterday. July wheat opened ½c lower at $1.01¾, declined to $1.01½ rallied to $1.02¾, and declined by the close to $1.01¼, a loss of 1c from yesterday.

Durum wheat closed ¼c lower and cash spring wheat was selling on a basis of 2c over May for No. 1 northern.

Flax was quiet and closed easier. May flax opened unchanged at $1.16, declined to $1.15¾ and rallied by the close to $1.15½ bid, a loss of ½c from yesterday. July flax opened 1c lower at $1.15 and closed at $1.14⅞, a loss of 1¼c from yesterday.

Coarse grains were unchanged.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Weak on Selling, Based on Forecast of Rain.

Chicago, April 4.—The local wheat market opened weak today on selling by pit traders, which was based on a forecast of rain in Kansas and Missouri. Trading was very quiet. May opened 1½@1¾c higher at 92⅝@93c and sold off to 92⅛@92⅜c. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 270 cars against 274 cars last week and 464 cars one year ago.

Sentiment was bearish all day. The low point for May was 92¾c. The market closed easy with May a shade lower at 92⅜@92¾c.

There was very little doing in corn and the market was easy at the opening. Favorable weather for the movement and the decline in wheat were the bearish factors. May corn opened ¼c lower at 66c and sold at 65¾c. Local receipts were 211 cars with 65 of contract grade.

The market became strong in the last half hour on buying by shorts. The estimate of receipts for Monday was small, and that helped to create a bearish sentiment. May sold up to 66¾c, the close was firm with May up ⅜@⅝c at 66½@66⅝c.

Oats was very quiet and weak. The feature of trading was profit taking in May. May opened unchanged at 53¾c and sold off to 53c. Local receipts were 155 cars.

The provisions market—was active and inclined to be weak. There was considerable selling in pork by holders. Hogs were up 5c. May pork opened 2½c higher at $13.27½, and sold off to $13.10. Lard was unchanged at $8.30 and declined to $8.27½. Ribs opened 2½@5c higher, at $7.12, and sold off to $7.07½@7.10.

Close: Wheat—May, 92⅝@92¾c; July, 88¾c; September, 86½c. Corn—May, 66½@66⅝c; July, 66¼@66⅜c; September, 63¼c; December, 54⅝c. Oats—May old, 53¼c; May, 51⅞c; July old, 46¾c; July, 44⅝c; September, 37⅝c. Pork—May, $13.30; July, $13.62½@13.65; September, $14. Lard—May, $8.27½; July, $8.52½ to $8.52½@8.55; September, $8.72½. Ribs—May, $7.12½@7.15; July, $7.42½. Rye—Cash, 77c. Barley—Cash, 70@85c. Timothy—April, $4.65. Clover—Cash, $23. Cash wheat—No. 2 red, 94¾@95c; No. 3 red, 92¾@93c; No. 2 hard, 94¾c@$1; No. 3 hard, 90¾@96c; No. 3 spring, 94c@$1.05. Corn—No. 3, 63c.

Duluth Car Inspection.

Wheat: No. 1 northern, 4; No. 2 northern, 2; No. 3 spring, 5; No. 4 spring, 1; No 1 durum, 12; No 2 durum, 15; No. 3 durum, 2; No. 4 durum, 2. Total of durum, 31; mixed, 3. Total of wheat, 46; last year, 211.

Flax: No. 1, 23; No. 2, 2. Total of flax, 25; last year, 78.

Oats, 10; barley, 3.

Total of al cars, 84; cars on track today, 52.

THE MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Selling Heavy From Start and Wheat Takes a Fall.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 4.—Minneapolis wheat went down a cent in the opening hour, while Chicago lost only ¼c. Selling was heavy from the start. There were 202 cars received here against 241, which was better than expected. Duluth got 46 against 211. The weather Northwest was fine again with spring wheat seeding starting in a number of new localities. Minneapolis stock increased 202,204 bushels for the week, which was more than predicted. There is a further increase of 25,000 bushels for one day. The total is 7,307,769. The market, after closing over a cent from yesterday's close, recovered it in part by mid-session, but was weak again at the end. May opened at $1.02¾; high, $1.02⅞; low, $1.01½; close, $1.01⅝; July close, $1.01@$1.01⅛. September closed at 96½c.

Cash demand was fair for good wheat, millers buying some. No. 1 northern sold at 1½c over May; No. 2 northern 1½@1c under. The low grades were slow. Close: No. 1 northern, $103, spot or to arrive; No. 2 northern, $1.01, spot to arrive; No. 3 wheat, 93½@98¼c; No. 3 yellow corn, 61¼@62¼c; No. 3 white oats, 49½@49⅝c.

No. 2 rye, 68¾@71¾c.

Barley showed a little better demand, but not much change. Close, 63@75c.

Flax sold at Duluth May price, principally to crushers. Close, $1.15¾.

Bran in bulk, 25c lower, at $21.00@$21.25.

Flour: One of the small mills reported the sale of a small lot of patent to Europe, the first for a long time. Other mills said they could not sell patent for export. Prices are unchanged, but the tone is weaker. Shipments, 31,458 barrels. First patents, $5.25@5.40; second patents, $5.15@5.30; first clears, $4.15@4.25; second clears, $3.20@3.30.

Copper Gossip.

Boston to Paine, Webber & Co.: The shorts raided the market again this morning, but the Erie financing seems to be arranged for and a covering movement found the market bare of stocks. Trade conditions are not so good bu the money situation is better. Copper Range is steadily being picked up in anticipation of striking the lode in the Globe. Profit-taking in North Butte is keeping that stock down. Buy the good industrial coppers for a long pull and do not be worried by traders' fluctuations.

Boston, Hayden, Stone & Co. to Walter W. Carr: The market in copper shares opened a little more active with prices irregular. The strength of Amalgamated in New York has made a distinctly easier tone throughout the entire copper list. Renewed pressure to sell Boston Consolidated was again in evidence this morning. North Butte and Old Dominion showed declines of ½ and ¾ from last night's close. The week's closing brings practically no change in copper conditions, although the metal exchange is quoting fractionally lower prices. We understand that the large producers are still holding the metal firm at 13½c. We don't believe that any great decline in prices will take place from this level. We should rather expect to see the market continue to discount a better demand for the metal at higher prices.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., April 4.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: Demand was of fair volume but not as brisk as earlier in the week. Receipts were moderate and values continue steady at the recent level. Country orders made up the bulk of the movement. Considerable inquiry developed during the day in the saddle horse and driving classes, and a nice trade in these classes is anticipated during the coming week. H. E. Hubbard, Glencoe, Minn., Charles E. Leshe, Marine Mills, Minn., and E. R. Drew, Tower City, N. D., billed out carloads during the day. Mark & Mark report a broad inquiry for broke Western horses. William Reibolt has a large supply of general purpose horses and made a number of important sales to Dakota dealers

STOCKS ARE IRREGULAR

But Close Firm and Dull With Advances Over Friday.

Persistent Pressure Was Exerted Against the Copper Stocks.

New York, April 4.—Opening prices of stocks today receded before light offerings. Declines were generally small and United States Steel, Pennsylvania, New York Central and Atchison showed some resistance and were lifted a shade over last night. Canadian Pacific declined 1⅛ and Western Union 1.

The direction of prices turned upward for a time, some of the speculative favorites rising above yesterday's closing. Persistent pressure against the copper stocks undermined the market again and prices receded. American Smelting, National Lead, American Sugar, United States Pipe, Northern Pacific and Chesapeake & Ohio yielded 1, and American Locomotive 1¾. Pressed Steel Car preferred rose 1¾ and Federal Sugar preferred 3. Prices rallied again before the end of the hour.

The market closed firm and dull. Prices in the second hour were bid up to above yesterday. Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Reading and Pacific Coast rising 1, Brooklyn Rapid Transit 1⅛, St. Paul, Erie second preferred, Southern Railway preferred and American Car 1¾, Erie 1½, Erie first preferred and Long Island 2 and Consolidated Gas 2¾. Central Leather preferred declined 1 and United States Rubber first preferred and second preferred 2.

Bank Statement.

New York, April 4.—The statement of clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks hold $40,690,300 more than the requirements of the 25 per cent reserve rule. This is an increase of $801,775 in the proportionate cash reserve as compared with last week. The statement follows: Loans $1,189,378,700, increase $15,328,-600; deposits $1,213,364,600, increase $24,620,-100; circulation $50,273,200, decrease $769,100; legal tenders $62,252,700, increase $340,700; specie $351,526,200, increase $6,716,100; reserve $341,778,900, increase $7,056,800; reserve required $303,438,600, increase $6,155,225; surplus $40690,300, increase $901,775; ex United States deposits $51,560,575, increase $639,350.

The percentage of actual reserve of the clearing house banks at the close of business yesterday was 28.52.

The statement of banks and trust companies of Greater New York not members of the clearing house shows that these institutions have aggregate deposits of $810,453,000; total cash on hand, $56,852,400, and loans amounting to $10,715,400.

DIES IN DENVER.

Ephriam Johnson of West End Passes Away in Colorado City.

Ephriam Johnson, aged 27 years, member of the firm of L. M. Johnson & Sons., Twenty-first avenue west and Michigan street, died Thursday night, in Denver, Colo., where he had gone three weeks ago, in the hope of improving his health. The message announcing his death, was received yesterday and a brother, John Johnson, left immediately for Denver, to take charge of the body and accompany it to Duluth.

The young man was born in Meeker county, Minn., and came to Duluth with his family about twelve years ago. For several years past, he had been associated with his father and brother in business in the West end, and many friends mourn his death. He was a single man and lived with his father at 2611 West Fourth street. Besides his father, he is survived by one brother and five sisters. Until the time for the arrival of the remains in Duluth is known, no arrangements can be made for the funeral.

United States Engineer Office, Duluth, Minn., March 6, 1908.—Sealed proposals for dredging and hire of dredging plant at Superior entry, Wis., will be received here until noon Monday, April 6, 1908, and then publicly opened. Information on application.

Major, Engineers.

BUSY IN THE WOOD YARD

Bread-Liners Wielding Saws to Get Meal Tickets.

Sunday Breakfast Will be Free, With Gospel Service.

The Bethel's bread-liners are merrily sawing wood again today.

At the Bethel they say that the total enrollment of bread-liners at the woodyard today will eclipse that of yesterday, which was the first time the plan of making of the unemployed work for their free breakfasts had been tried.

At the Bethel this morning 175 men were fed and all of them were men to whom tickets were issued after their work at the woodyard yesterday. Some twenty-five men, who are said to have just arrived in the city, applied for breakfast this morning, but were turned down, because they had no tickets.

If they care to, however, they may have an opportunity to saw wood under Bethel auspices some time today and secure a ticket for Monday's breakfast. All the men who are sawing today will get tickets for Monday morning's meal, as the breakfast tomorrow morning is free. No tickets will be asked then. The meal will be served at 9 o'clock and will be followed by a gospel service.

The Bethel authorities say that a number of men secured odd jobs this morning and last evening. Not a few paid for their lodging last night and their meals in the Bethel restaurant today.

One or two men have deserted their tasks at the woodyard, but most of them have stuck until it was time to quit and get their meal tickets.

About 180 men worked in the yard yesterday and more than that number will have worked there by tonight.

The attendance at the breakfast yesterday was 230.

MANN SCHOOL TO OPEN MONDAY

The Smallpox Epidemic is About Over Now.

Unless new cases of smallpox develop between now and Monday, the Horace Mann school, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street, can be reopened the first of the week.

There have been no sessions in the building for two weeks. The first week it was closed was the regular spring vacation, but last week it remained shut at the instigation of the health commissioner, who was anxious to stamp out the smallpox epidemic that has been raging there.

He says that the situation in the Horace Mann district is now pretty well under control. To guard against further epidemics, the health officer has urged the board of education to enforce more rigidly its rule that all pupils entering the public schools be vaccinated. The rule has been enforced, except when parents strenuously object to having the arms of their offspring scraped.

LERCH FELT THE EARTH TREMBLE

Duluth Man Had Experience in Earthquake in Mexico.

William G. Lerch, assistant to the president of the Mexican Central Railway company, and a son of Deputy Sheriff Roger S. Lerch of this city, was in the earthquake district in Mexico, when the seismic disturbance occurred in that country last month, resulting in a large number of deaths.

In a letter, written to his father, Mr. Lerch states that he was in his office on the third floor of a five-story building, in the City of Mexico, attending to his duties, when the first shock came. It was of such violence that the building rocked and Mr. Lerch had a sickening sensation.

He glanced across the room at the Chinese cook from the private car, who happened to be present, and the Chinaman appeared to be similarly affected and frightened nearly to death.

Mr. Lerch states that when he attempted to walk across the room, the second shock came, and he was hardly able to keep his feet, the floor had the nature of a boat pitched by waves.

As quickly as he was able he left the building, and found the native crowds gathering in the streets, the natives prostrating themselves and praying for deliverance.

Mr. Lerch reached his home before the third shock, but when it came, and he and Mrs. Lerch made their way to the window, they had to hold to the sills with all their strength to keep from being thrown down.

Mr. Lerch states that the five-story office building he referred to was uninjured by the shock, as it had been erected with a view of resisting just such disturbances. His experience with an earthquake impressed him unfavorably, and he hopes he will never be present in another.

Addition to Dock.

The board of public works, yesterday afternoon, decided to advertise for bids for the construction of an addition to the public dock at Twenty-first avenue west, in accordance with a resolution introduced in the council by Alderman Kennedy, some time ago, and adopted, with the provison that the board was to spend but $1,500 for the work.

The extension is to be forty-nine feet long and built on the west end of the present dock. The bids will also include the dredging of a channel to the new portion of the dock and all necessary repairs to the old structure.

Horse Hospital Contract.

At a meeting of the board of fire commissioners, yesterday afternoon, bids were opened for the horse hospital, to be erected on a space west of headquarters, on West First street. Emil Zauft's bid of $4,494 was the lowest submitted and he was awarded the contract, subject to the approval of the council. The other bidders and the amount of their tenders were: Theodore Naufft, $4,686; J. A. Johnson, $4,881; J. T. Schlennes, $4,848; F. A. Falstad, $4,935; Bergquist Bros., $4,996.

The plumbing contract was granted to J. T. Stack, with a bid of $365. The only other bid was D. B. Black, with $420.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Sioux City, S. D., April 4.—A jury in the state circuit court of Moody county today returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter in the second degree in the case of Henry Hendrickson, a wealthy business man of Trent, charged with murder. Last Hallowe'en night Hendrickson killed P. A. Bradfield, a drug clerk at Trent.

HEFLIN SUED.

Washington, April 4.—Representative Thomas Heflin of Alabama was today made the defendant in a suit for $20,000 damages filed in the district supreme court by Louis Lundy, the negro with whom the representatives had an altercation on a street car on March 27 last.

VISITING WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—H. W. Pearson of Duluth arrived in Washington last night and is a guest at the Metropolitan hotel.

STREET CARS.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

This company operates a street railway line in the city of Duluth between Third avenue east and the end of Rice's Point, and another street railway line in the city of Superior between Twenty-first street and the end of Connor's Point. These lines are separated by the waters of St. Louis bay, and are operated as two distinct and separate lines.

The fare for a continuous ride in one direction between any two points on either one of these lines is 5c.

The public is hereby notified that this company does not, by undertaking to carry any passenger, or by accepting fare for such carriage, assume any responsibility beyond that of carrying such passenger safely between points on the above mentioned lines.

This company is not responsible for close connections, nor safe transportation, between the above mentioned lines by any ferryboat or other means of transportation. While the employes of this company have been instructed to keep themselves posted and give upon request all the information they can as to the probability of connections being made with other transportation lines, the company has no better means of foreseeing unexpected interruptions in the service of such lines, nor of telling how long such interruptions will continue, than the public has, and, therefore, cannot be responsible for notice of such interruptions.

WILL BUILD NEW SCHOOL

The Old Horace Mann Structure Will be Replaced.

Committee From Board Will Inspect Stout Training School.

Realizing that the Horace Mann school, Twenty-third avenue west and Tenth street, is more or less of a "fire trap," members of the board of education at the regular meeting last evening, took ballot after ballot in an effort to select an architect to draw plans for a new building, and the choice finally fell on the firm of Radcliffe & Price.

Five ballots were necessary to designate this firm, which will be asked to get to work immediately upon the plans for the new Horace Mann, and report to the board.

Members of the board are anxious to have work upon the new school under way as soon as possible, in order to have it ready for occupancy by the opening of the fall term. It is not thought desirable to have the old building used any after this term.

The architects will draw the plans along lines suggested by Chief Engineer Larson, who with the aid of some of the members of the board, has outlined a school perfect, with all of the fire dangers eliminated. The boilers will be in a detached building.

It is proposed to make the new Horace Mann a nine-room building and brick and stone will be used in its construction. The site of the present building is ample to provide for the new building.

Trip to Menomonie.

A communication was received from the State Association of Builders' exchanges interesting the board in a trip to the Stout Industrial schools at Menomonie, Wis., Thursday, April 9. The Twin Cities will send large delegations, and the Duluth Builders' exchange will be well represented.

Interest in the proposition of industrial and manual training high schools is becoming very keen, and appreciating that, the board of education decided to send a delegation to inspect the Menomonie school, said to be the most perfect mechanic arts' school in the West. President pro-tem Cobb, Supt. Denfeld and Principal Foster of Duluth's industrial high school in West Duluth were named, and The Herald's representative at the board meeting, was elected to go with the party as a delegate from the press.

Teachers Not Elected.

No report was heard from the committee on schools and teachers last evening. The election of teachers for the ensuing year was to have been disposed of at this time, but many members of the schools committee are out of the city, so it was asked that a special meeting of the board be held later in the month, when the committee will tender its report and the naming of the teachers can be accomplished. When the board adjourned, it did so subject to the call of the president, who will likely designate a time for a special session within a week or so.

The question as to who owns Bethany chapel, on Garfield avenue, used for school purposes for a time, was disposed of last evening, and so was the bill for the use of the structure from the Methodist Episcopal alliance, after it had been shaved down a bit by the members of the board.

Bills for the use of the chapel were received from both the Presbyterians and the Methodists at the last meeting, so the board decided to withhold payment until the church people determined who owend the building. Accordingly, it was brought out last night that the Methodists were the ones to whom the money should be paid. But the members of the board could not see that such a humble cot as the chapel was worth $140 for nineteen years, so the Methodists presented a bill for that amount, which led some of the directors to humorously observe that the board did not want to buy the building. So the clerk was finally instructed to tender the Methodist Episcopal alliance $70 and two stoves, which the board was obliged to install, when it rented the building. The use of the church property was made necessary by the burning of the Madison school, last spring.

Truant Officer Appointed.

The appointment of George V. Fifer as truant officer was confirmed. Mr. Fifer was placed in office by the committee on schools and teachers, and has already investigated some eighty cases. There were several other applicants for the position, but after due consideration, Mr. Fifer was decided to be the best qualified.

• • •

The board approved of the appointment by the superintendent of John Cook as instructor in the Lowell school. This place was vacant in January by the resignation of Mr. Eaton.

• • •

The board decided to expend $100 for commencement purposes. Since the "simple commencement" was inaugurated here, it only costs about "a century" to graduate a high school class. This money is spent for programs, music, flowers for the stage and other little details.

• • •

The superintendent reported that there had been much sickness among pupils and teachers during the past month. Many substitutes were being employed, he said. As to the smallpox epidemic in the Horace Mann district, he said the building would not be opened until the health commissioner assured him that it would be safe to do so.

• • •

The treasurer reported that the apportionment for the month had been large enough to pay everything, including several of the board's checks, which weer outstanding. He said the total amount received by him was $167,000, and that he now had a balance of $14,000.

• • •

Permission was granted the Women's Council to hold a summer cooking school and other industrial classes in the basements of the Adams and Irving schools, when they do not interfere with such improvements as the board might wish to make in those buildings.

• • •

The board decided to pay $60 of a total of $106, which is to pay for some new scenery in the high school assembly hall. The remaining $100 will be raised by an entertainment the high school pupils have in contemplation.

• • •

The board has received the assurance of the courthouse commission that a jail will not be erected in close proximity to the Jackson school, so it was decided to sign a petition for the vacation of Fifth avenue west, a movement which is a part of the plan for the grand group of public buildings there.

• • •

Those present at last evening's session were President pro tem Cobb, Directors Barnes, Le Tourneau, Campbell and Stevens and Supt. Denfeld.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES

The Lakeside society will give a "Punch and Judy" entertainment Friday evening, April 10. A good time is anticipated.

• • •

The calling committee of the First Presbyterian society held a meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of the chairman, Miss Louise Ellis, and decided to meet one evening each week and call on the sick and aged members, who have stopped coming to the prayer meetings. The committee will be divided in two parts, half visiting the West end of the city and the other the East end.

Those who attended the roller skating party given by the Pilgrim Congregational society last evening at the Lincoln Park pavilion enjoyed a very delightful time.

Surprise Party.

A surprise party was given last evening honor of the fourteenth birthday anniversary of Lloyd Case, at his home 320 Lake avenue north. Fourteen of his young friends attended. The evening was passed playing games, the prizes being won by Lawrence Nelson and Isabella Macauley. The guests were: Oltri Hovdi, Mabel Saunders, Jessie McMullen, Mamie Richardson, Isabella Macauley, Margaret Swendby, Olga Swendby, Victor Wiberg, Alfred McMullen, Ray Batley, George Macauley, Edgar Smith and Lawrence Nelson.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm-hearted wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

JUSTICE O'GORMAN FIGHTS BIG NEGRO.

New York, April 4.—Justice James A. O'Gorman of the supreme court engaged in a hand-to-hand fight with a giant negro, who had forced his way into the O'Gorman residence, early today, it is alleged, for purposes of burglary. The negro first gave battle to Justice O'Gorman's butler, when the latter attempted to eject him from the house. Hearing the scuffle, Justice O'Gorman first telephoned for the police and then joined in the fight, using his fists to such advantage that the negro was put to flight. The police summoned by the justice arrived in time to arrest the negro.

MARKET IS WARMING UP IN LOCAL REAL ESTATE

Increased Activity is Noticed All Along the Line in the Demand for Duluth Improved and Unimproved Property—Sale of a Two-Thirds Interest in the Old Temple Building to G. G. Hartley the Principal Transaction of the Week—Several Important Building Enterprises Are Announced.

Increasing activity is noticeable in the local real estate market.

This activity has been noted all along the line with reference to centrally located improved and unimproved properties and outlying unimproved properties which are oeing purchased as the sites for new homes this year. Besides the closing up of a number of large deals and numerous minor transactions this week, there has been a big boost given the building prospects for the year by the announcement of several large building enterprises in the business section of the city. As one real estate broker expressed it the other day, "the real estate market is warming up in great shape," and the indications are stronger than ever that this will be a year of more activity along real estate lines than was last year.

* * *

A transaction of considerable interest this week was the sale of a two-thirds interest in the old Masonic Temple building at the northeast corner of Superior street and Second avenue east from E. Z. Williams and Gen. Sooysmith to G. G. Hartley of this city. The sale was made on the valuation basis of about $50,000 for the whole property. E. P. Alexander, the third owner, retains his one-third interest in the building. Messrs. Alexander, Williams and Sooysmith purchased the building seven years ago for $56,000. The original cost of the whole property, including the Temple opera, which burned some years ago, is said to have been about $250,000. The building was erected by the Masonic fraternity about twenty years ago and passed into the hands of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company, which concern sold it to Mr. Alexander and his associates. The fact that Mr. Hartley is the purchaser of so large an interest in the property is regarded as significant, for the reason that he already owns practically all the remaining property in the block between Second and Third avenues east.

* * *

There are some other Superior street deals in business property that are partly closed, but which for good business reasons the people interested do not care to disclose at the present time. In some cases other deals depend on those mentioned and the parties interested do not care to have premature publicity given their plans.

* * *

Announcement was made by the Herald this week that Henry Folz will erect a modern five-story business block at the southeast corner of Second avenue east and Superior street, across the street from the old Masonic Temple. The improvement will cost in the neighborhood of $45,000, and the contract for the same has been awarded to J. D. Molitor & Brother, who will begin work on the excavation very shortly. The building will have a frontage of 100 feet on Superior street and will run back to Michigan street. It will be one of the most important improvements made in that locality for some time. The first floor will comprise several stores and the upper floors will probably be given over to offices and lodge rooms.

* * *

It is reported on good authority that H. A. Blume of the Peerless Laundry company has taken a long term lease on the 100 foot property at the southwest corner of First street and Third avenue east and will erect thereon a large, modernly equipped, laundry plant. The Peerless laundry has been located on the lower side of Superior street between Fifth and Sixth avenues west for a long time, but the business has long since outgrown the present quarters and negotiations have been on some time looking forward to the acquisition of a favorable site for a larger plant.

* * *

The army of renters in Duluth have, to use a popular expression, "hit the trail." All this week the local rental offices have been flooded with inquiries by people for houses and flats to rent for the coming year, as the majority of leases expire May 1 and the notices sent out by the agents and owners require new leases signed either by the first or middle of the present month. At one rental agency there were thirty-two applications made Friday morning for houses or flats and it is safe to presume that as many and perhaps more inquiries were made at the other offices as the people in search of roofs over their heads usually go from one agency to another to make their inquiries. The movement among the people who rent will be larger this spring than before in many years. This is due the widespread dissatisfaction by reason of the increase in rents. Inquiry among the tenants and among the agents shows that there has been a general tendency toward the stiffening of rents in spite of the times which do not, it is claimed, warrant such a condition. Several instances are known where people have packed their goods and vacated flats immediately on receipt of notice that their rent would be raised $5 per month. Some of these may have succeeded in finding other places, but some are known to have stored their goods and gone to boarding. The tenants are indignant over the action of the landlords, but that feeling does not avail them much. The people who own the properties simply say "either pay or get out, if you don't want to pay the price there are plenty of others who will pay it." In the face of such a proposition the people who must depend on getting a rented house or flat are placed in an unpleasant position. The tenants claim that local real estate prices have not gone up enough to warrant any such increases that have been made in the rents. They claim that the action of the landlords is working a great hardship. Higher rents on top of the higher cost of living is not a very pleasant outlook for the men on salary or the earners who do not own their own homes. Not all the owners or agencies, however, have stiffened their rents. There are some exceptions, but they are very few.

The building inspector's report for March shows eighty-five permits issued last month with the cost of work estimated at about $155,563. In March, 1907, there were ninety-two permits at an estimated cost of $259,790. The largest contract for the month was for the Northern Cold Storage plant, to cost about $40,000. Lundmark & Franson took out a permit to enlarge their store building to include flats, at a cost of about $15,000 and J. C. & R. M. Hunter have taken a permit to build a one-story five store building at the northeast corner of Third avenue east and Superior street, to cost $8,000.

J. D. Campbell has returned from Red Wing, Minn., where he has secured the contract for a large building to be erected for S. B. Foote & Co., at a cost of about $65,000.

* * *

There will be an important meeting of the Duluth Real Estate Exchange next Tuesday noon in the private dining room at the Spalding hotel. Taxes and other matters of special interest to the real estate men will be discussed and some action taken. All members are requested to be present.

* * *

Emil Zauft has been awarded the contract for the new veterinary hospital to be erected at Third street and First avenue east by the board of fire commissioners, subject to the approval of the council. Mr. Zauft's bid was $4,494.

I SAY

Some of these days the investors at the Head of the Lakes will suddenly realize that all the snaps in Acres near the points of extensive development of Duluth and Superior, are all gone. They are very scarce now. It is generally conceded that the day is not very distant, when there will be a great deal of activity in this class of property, and no doubt many are expecting to make investments just before the boom. I claim that now is the right time to invest, especially if you can get such a snap as I am here offering.

It is 156 acres of land within 5½ miles of the city limits of Superior, and but little over 4 miles from the Steel Company's Belt line, at $13.00 per acre. I do not think it will be necessary to repeat this advertisement.

WHITNEY WALL, Palladio Building.
H. J. MULLIN, Mgr. Real Estate Dept.

ST. REGIS APARTMENTS

Cor. Second St. and Second Ave. East. WHITNEY WALL, Agent.

This beautiful new brick and stone building was designed by Messrs. Bray & Nystrom, architects, and the last year has been spent in building same under the personal supervision of the owner, Mr. Thomas Bates. All the work in connection with same has been done by day labor, as Mr. Bates' one desire was to obtain the very best results with the very best of materials, put together by the best of skilled workmen. Therefore, it is needless to say that every little detail relative to the comfort of future tenants has received the most careful attention.

The building contains eighteen apartments, of six rooms each, consisting of a library, living room with mantle and gas fireplace, dining room with beautiful buffet, kitchen, two bedrooms and bath and ample closets and a back porch. All of the wood finish is of hard wood, including the floors. Everything is modern and up-to-date. These apartments will be rented for prices ranging from $45 to $60 per month. For this sum you obtain a six-room apartment with bath, both front and rear entrances, hot water heat, janitor service, hot and cold water at all times, gas range, ice box, a storeroom located in the basement, the removal of garbage and the exclusive use of a private Zenith telephone line connected with the general central office, giving you connection with any other telephone used in the city or surrounding country, also a private house telephone, running from your apartment to the entrance from the street so that you are able to answer your call bell without leaving your apartment. In fact, for the rent asked, you obtain every convenience that could be thought of, except the electricity for lighting and gas for cooking. In each apartment entrance and hall lights are provided for without extra charge. These are the first thoroughly modern apartments that have ever been offered to Duluth people. The location is one just far enough away from the noise and dirt of a busy city to be a pleasant one, and at the same time to save that everlasting expense of "car fare," being within five minutes walk from the main business center. These apartments have not been offered for rent before, will be ready for occupancy on or about May 1st, 1908, and will be leased to responsible parties only on application at the office of Whitney Wall.

If you are looking for a comfortable, new, clean, well built, modern apartment of this sort, it is up to you to get busy.

HOUSES FOR RENT

IN EVERY LOCATION—FOR EVERYBODY.

RANGING FROM $5 TO $70 PER MONTH

$70.00—Per month. This is a thoroughly modern, new, nine-room house, two bathrooms, hardwood floors throughout, hardwood finish main floor, white enamel finish in bedrooms, burlap in reception room and living room, buffet in dining room, two real fire places, clothes chute and gas range, hot water heat and electric lights. A stone's throw from the lake shore in East end, with an absolutely unobstructed lake view.

$45.00—Another home located at 614 East Second street, within easy walking distance of the business district. The monthly rental here includes seven large rooms well provided with closets, one bathroom, cement cellar, hot water heat, hardwood floors, gas or electric lights, everything in the best condition. This house will be open for inspection Sunday afternoon. Possession can be had immediately. Don't fail to mention this advertisement when calling at this house.

$15.00—Per month. This is an entirely new house and one of the best little six-room homes in the western part of the city—between Fortieth and Forty-first avenues west. Electric lights, double felt paper between outside walls thus insuring warmth. You will have to look a long while to find a better house for the money. This house can be bought on monthly payments, for the sum of $1,600. Only three short blocks from the car.

$5.00 and $6.00—Per month, respectively, for two little homes in the eastern part of the city, near the lake shore. These houses also can be secured by monthly payments at a very reasonable figure.

Leases and all other details relative to the above houses will be made and arranged in the office of

WHITNEY WALL, Room "F," Palladio Bldg.

O'DONNELL HAS POLICE RECORD

Ingenious Dope Fiend Turns Up in Court Once More.

The old habitues of the municipal court were aroused from their customary indifference to the morning grist to something approaching interest this morning, when Barney O'Donnell took his place before the court, on a drunk charge.

Barney was the most ingenious dope fiend ever to come before the Duluth police. He had more schemes for securing his elixir of life than for getting his daily bread, and he always managed to get away with them until he was driven out of the city. He was in his most acute stages of the dope habit about three years ago, when the police had the most trouble with him.

One of Barney's favorite schemes was flopping over on the sidewalk, frothing at the mouth and exhibiting every sign of a genuine fit. At the same time, he was watching for his chance, and when the ministrations of pitying souls brought him around, his first cry was for dope, and he usually got it. The police finally got tired of him and he hit it for greener fields.

It is over a year since Barney was in court. In that time, he says he has been out to the Pacific coast and back, living in Superior for the past few months. Though his appearance doesn't bear out the statement, he says he took the cure for his habit twice, spending eight months in the last attempt, and finally conquering his appetite. He wanted to get back to Superior this morning, and the court gave him the chance.

Thomas Casey made a touch on William Simons, while an officer was standing near last night. Both were taken in on drunk charges. They pleaded guilty this morning and drew $1 or three days. Ten common drunks drew similar fines, and John Hammergren, who made a second appearance, after being in court yesterday, went up on the hill for ten days. Albert Anderson pleaded not guilty to vagrancy and will be given a hearing this afternoon.

EAT LUNCH IN SCHOOL.

High School Pupils Not Allowed to Patronize Restaurants at Noon.

If the high school pupils want to eat any luncheon at all, they will either have to take it to school with them, or else patronize the lunch counter established in the basement of the building, according to an order issued by Principal C. A. Smith yesterday. The order, of course, does not include pupils who live near enough to school to go home for luncheon.

About a year ago, the board of education installed a lunch room, with a cook, in the high school building, and the place was pretty well patronized until a lunch counter was established across the street from the school. Then a good many of the students switched their patronage to the new place of business.

MRS. ALFRED VANDERBILT TESTIFIES IN HER SUIT.

New York, April 4.—Mrs. Alfred C. Vanderbilt, who gave testimony, yesterday, before Referee David McClure in her suit for divorce, will continue her story today. It was believed that Mrs. Vanderbilt's ordeal was at an end when she left the referee's office yesterday, but it developed today that her story had not been completed and that she would take the stand again today. Every effort, apparently, is being made to expedite the proceedings, and it seems likely that the referee will be in possession of all evidence in the case in a very short time.

BRYAN THINKS IT UNWISE TO ATTEND.

Washington, April 4.—Representative Sulzer of New York today received the following telegram from W. J. Bryan, relating to the invitation extended to him to attend the Jefferson day dinner in New York:

"Have withdrawn acceptance. The discussion makes it unwise to go.

"W. J. BRYAN."

THE PRIZE WINNERS

During the month of March, I asked for advertisements and offered $5.00 for the one I considered the best, $3.00 for the next best and $2.00 for the third best. I received answers to my advertisement from Los Angeles, Cal., to Millet Alta, Can., which goes to prove that The Herald travels some.

The First Prize

Has been won by Mr. J. S. Bacon of Duluth, his advertisement being as follows:

W hen you want to buy or sell
H ouse or home in which to dwell,
I nsist on seeing one who knows
T he deal that's best for you to close
N o concern 'bout your property
E ver comes if left with me;
Y ou'll do well to try and see.

W hy not see me for a loan,
A lso insurance on your home;
L ongtime study is why I know.
L ook up WALL in the PALLADIO.

The Second Prize

Has been won by Mr. Harry Harrington of Duluth for "RESULTS." Look for my space in the street cars.

The Third Prize

Goes to Mrs. O. B. Olson, who submitted the following:

Is it buy, rent or sell,
Is it houses and lands,
Or loans and insurance on all?
Your troubles will melt
As bubbles in air
If told to WHITNEY WALL.

I want to thank all who were kind enough to interest themselves in "making the try," and I am very sorry that I am not able to provide prizes for all.

Senate Committee Agrees on Bill Concerning Liquor Shipments.

No "Collection Delivery" to be Made in Interstate Commerce.

Washington, April 6.—After extended hearings and exhaustive arguments by the members of the senate committee on the judiciary that committee today agreed upon a bill dealing with the shipments of liquors from one state or territory to another state or territory, the measure will be reported by Senator Knox, who was chairman of the subcommittee which conducted the hearings. It is comparatively simple in form, providing that there shall be no "collection delivery" packages of liquor shipped in interstate commerce where fictitious names are used and that the name of the consignor and consignee shall be stated plainly. The provision is designed to eliminate the practice of railroad and express agents acting as agents for liquor houses.

MEAT PRICES GO UP AGAIN

Retailers in New York Announce Another Advance.

New York, April 6.—Retailers have again put up all meat prices from ½ to 5 cents a pound, and when the housewife goes to the market today she will find the new scale of prices in effect. Porterhouse steaks, that have heretofore been 30 cents a pound, will be 35 cents, and sirloins, that have been 28, will be 30 cents. Round steaks, that could have been bought for 22 cents a pound, last week, will be 23.

Mutton will remain the same, while spring lamb is to be found in the markets in small quantities at 35 cents a pound for the rib chops and 30 cents a pound for the breast, for roasting purposes.

Pork has taken a tremendous jump since the meat prices began to rise, ten days ago, and chops are now bringing 18 cents a pound. There are scarcely any pork tenderloins in the market, while roasting pork is bringing 16 to 18 cents a pound.

Talks with wholesale dealers developed the fact that there is not likely to be any further change in the prices for a month. About the first of May the cattle raisers of the country will be able to ship to the markets some grass-fattened cattle, and this will make the supply somewhat greater. There are no corn-fed cattle on the farms and ranches to speak of, and those that the farmers have are being held back and shipped gradually, so as to get the advantage of the high prices now prevailing.

The export of cattle is practically at a standstill. Where there were heretofore thousands of cattle sent abroad at this season of the year, the ships are going across practically empty of this class of freight.

W. J. BRYAN AT DENVER

Nebraskan is Scheduled for Several Speeches During Day.

Denver, April 6.—Accompanied from Colorado Springs by a reception committee, headed by Former United States Senator T. M. Patterson, William J. Bryan arrived in Denver at 10:30 this morning. He was driven in an automobile to Denver university, of which Governor Henry A. Buchtel is chancellor, and at 11 o'clock made a non-partisan address to the students. Later Mr. Bryan lunched with the directors of the Bryan club at the home of the president, Former Congressman John F. Shafroth.

The program for the afternoon and evening included an address to the Ministerial Alliance at Central Presbyterian church, a reception at the Young Men's Christian association's new building, a reception at the chamber of commerce, inspection of the uncompleted city auditorium, in which the national Democratic convention is to be held and a reception and banquet at El Jebel temple.

Mr. Shafroth will officiate as toastmaster at the banquet. The only speech will be by Mr. Bryan, who will begin delivering his address at 9:30 this evening. The number to be seated at the banquet board is limited to 850 and all the tickets had been taken early today.

TWO BOMBS EXPLODED

In Attempt to Wreck Equipment of Construction Company.

New York, April 6.—Efforts to destroy the pier and equipment used by the McClintic-Marshall Construction company, in constructing a new pier for the White Star line at West Seventeenth street, were made late last night.

Two bombs were exploded with little effect, although the force of the explosion roused thousands from sleep and drew a large crowd to the place.

The bombs were placed at the west side of the pier. A hoisting boiler was exploded and a big locomotive crane which was in use on a temporary track on the pier, were demolished.

There was no one near the place when the explosion occurred and no one was injured. A fire proofing tug was alongside the pier and several men were on board but the tug was not damaged.

FIERCE FLAMES FORCE A WOMAN TO JUMP TO DEATH FROM THE FOURTH STORY

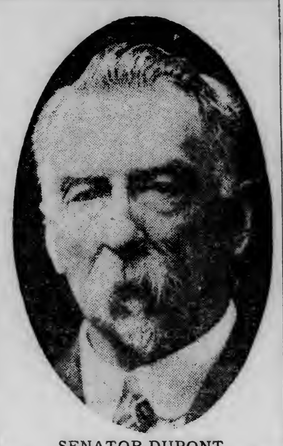

Crushed Into a Shapeless Mass on the Pavement Below.

Ladder Reaches the Window Just After She Leaped.

Many Are Injured in a New York Tenement Fire.

New York, April 6.—One woman lost her life, nearly a score of men and women were injured, and as many more were rescued from death in the flames today, during a fire which destroyed the four-story tenement house at 470 Pearl street. The dead woman was Julia Isola, 22 years of age, who lived with her father, brother and two sisters on the fourth floor of the building. She jumped from a window, after her clothing had taken fire from the flames which swirled around the window where she and her father, brother and sisters were waiting for aid. Almost before her body struck the stone-paved street, and was crushed into a shapeless mass, the firemen had suc-

SENATOR DUPONT
Of Delaware, Whose Organization of Republicans Was Successful at the Primaries in That State.

EVERYTHING HARMONIOUS

Dupont's Organization is Successful in Delaware Primaries.

Delegation to Republican Convention Will Go Uninstructed.

Dover, Del., April 6.—The victory of the organization of the Republican party, headed by United States Senators Dupont and Richardson, at Saturday's primaries was so overwhelming as attested by today's summary of the voting that there is not likely to be any hitch in carrying out the organization program at the Republican state convention, which will be held here tomorrow to elect delegates to the national convention. The leading feature of the program is to permit the state delegation to the national convention to go to Chicago unhampered by instructions and free to vote for any candidate for president. It is now conceded that the organization has elected 120 of the 160 delegates comprising the state convention.

The outcome of the primaries makes it sure that four of the six delegates to the national convention will be as follows:

From Newcastle county—Senator Dupont and Governor Lea.

Kent county—Senator Richardson.

Sussex county—Congressman Burton.

The other two delegates will be selected by the caucus of leaders' preliminary to the convention which will be held here tonight.

To Succeed Addicks.

It is assured that E. Coleman Dupont, chairman of the Republican state committee, will be selected as the Delaware member of the Republican national committee, to succeed J. Edward Addicks.

The preferences of the national delegates for the presidential nomination are a matter of doubt. The organization leaders maintain that they have no hostility to Secretary Taft, but on the contrary may favor him, although they will not consent to instructions. It is understood, however, that the Duponts and Senator Richardson are very friendly to Senator Knox of Pennsylvania.

Not much thought has been given to the platform, nor is it probable that it will contain much in addition to an indorsement of the Roosevelt administration. Another state convention for the nomination of candidates for representatives in congress and governor and other state officers will be held in August or early September, and upon this convention will devolve the work of building a platform which will express in detail the views of the Republicans of Delaware upon national and state issues.

SHE WILL MARRY AGAIN.

Rumor Afloat That Such is Mrs. Vanderbilt's Plan.

New York, April 6.—Alfred Vanderbilt's mother has emphatically sided with her daughter-in-law against her son, and in case of a final breach it is declared she will aid the young woman to the end. In fact, the detectives who have been watching the Lexington avenue home of Mme. Ruiz (or Mme. Flores) are said to be paid by the elder Mrs. Vanderbilt. This is taken to indicate her efforts to have the matter taken out of court.

It has become known, also, that the elder Mrs. Vanderbilt had decided to leave New York city not later than April 20 for Paris, and that she might make the French capital her future home.

Friends of young Mrs. Vanderbilt would not be surprised if she enters upon a new matrimonial venture soon after she obtains her decree of divorce. They say she could have obtained a divorce at any time within the last two years, but did not begin the suit, however, until she made up her mind to be remarried.

BROTHER STABS BROTHER.

Aberdeen, S. D., April 6.—Arthur and Eli Burro, farmers living near the North Dakota line and a short distance from Hecla, S. D., quarreled over money matters Saturday, a fight followed and Arthur fatally stabbed his brother in the abdomen. Arthur fled into North Dakota and was captured at Oakes where he is being held for a requisition. The dying man is married.

RESIGNS PASTORATE.

South Windsor, Conn., April 6.—Rev. Charles A. Jaquith has resigned the pastorate of the First Congregational church, to become principal of Gate's academy, at Neligh, Neb. He will enter upon his academic duties next fall.

MAN KILLS A YOUNG GIRL

Dorothy Bradley of McKees Rocks Shot by Samuel Gardner.

Pittsburg, April 6.—Samuel P. Gardner, a prominent resident of Church avenue, McKees Rocks, a suburb of this city, shot and instantly killed Dorothy Bradley, 16 years old, and then fired a bullet through his head today, probably fatally injuring himself.

Gardner was for several years borough engineer, and with the change of administration he lost his position last month. He is said to have been brooding since that time and had worried greatly. Dorothy Bradley resided next door.

Gardner left his home this morning after breakfast and went up the street. He returned later, and shortly before 9 o'clock the shooting took place. The girl was dead when picked up, while Gardner was hurried to the hospital in an unconscious condition. The police are investigating. Gaddner is 50 years old.

OLD SCALE OF WAGES

Likely to be Agreed Upon by Operators and Miners.

Both Sides Gather to Take Initial Step in Matter.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 6.—Coal operators of the central competitive field consisting of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, gathered here today for a conference with representatives of the United Mine Workers of America to take initial steps to revive the interstate wage movement by issuing a call for a joint convention to fix a wage scale for the four districts on which wage scales in other districts are to be based. A proposition to resume operations of the mines in Illinois, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania and possibly in other districts, pending a settlement of a wage scale will also be taken up.

While several Illinois operators are here it was stated today that they would go into the conference officially with the miners of the four states and the operators of the other three. The miners will be represented by the officers of the four districts. Officials of the miners express confidence that the conference will result in the resumption of mining operations generally and the restoration of the interstate wage movement. It is generally understood that the old wage scale will be agreed upon.

INVESTIGATE DEATH AGAIN.

Officials Not Satisfied With First Report of Steenerson Tragedy.

Washington, April 6.—Officials of the steamboat inspection service have directed a second investigation into the death of Benjamin G. Steenerson, son of Congressman Steenerson, who was drowned at Newport, R. I., about a month ago. This is an independent investigation, instituted under steamboat inspection laws, and is for the purpose of determining whether the master and pilot of the tug on which Steenerson was a passenger, managed their vessel properly after Steenerson fell into the water. The first investigation was not conclusive, as the evidence developed was not such as officials here thought ought to have been brought out.

A request was therefore made on the navy department for a transcript of the record of the investigation made by officers at Newport station of the marine corps, with a view to examining witnesses who appeared at that examination. The captain of the tug has appealed to Congressman Steenerson to intercede with the authorities here, but the congressman refused. If found negligent in the management of his vessel, the master of the tug may lose his license.

TO BECOME FORESTERS.

Chicago, April 6.—Five hundred Chicago women, all in gowns of snowy white, will be initiated, with impressive ceremonies, into the Independent Order of Foresters, at Young Men's Christian association hall, next Thursday evening.

BRITISH CABINET TO BE RECONSTRUCTED OWING TO RESIGNATION OF PREMIER

Ministers Hold an Informal Conference Under Asquith.

Lewis Harcourt May be Included in New Cabinet.

House of Commons Takes a Recess Until April 14.

London, April 6.—An informal conference of ministers under the presidency of Herbert H. Asquith, chancellor of the exchequer, was held prior to the commencement of today's sitting of parliament, and the situation was discussed in a general way, the premier-elect being anxious to hear the views of his colleagues relative to the prospect of cabinet changes now that the necessity of its reconstruction has actually materialized. In view of the lack of success at the recent elections the cabinet will be re-arranged so as to avoid as far as possible the election contests made necessary when members of the house of commons or holders of undersecretaryships are elected to cabinet rank.

HAS SLEPT FOR SIXTY-ONE DAYS

Condition of Los Angeles Woman Baffles Physicans.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 6.—Mrs. Beulah Hawkins has completed the sixty-first day of a sleep that has puzzled and baffled the many physicians who have investigated her case. She shows no sign of awakening, and but little hope for her recovery is entertained. A gradual loss of weight, which first followed her removal to the hospital, has been regained, except for three pounds. It is generally believed that Mrs. Hawkins is at times conscious of what is going on about her and that frequent flutterings of her eyelids indicate a desire to shake off the trance, which has been medically described as cataleptic insanity.

HERBERT H. ASQUITH,
Chancellor of the Exchequer, Has Been Summoned by the King and Will Probably be Made Premier to Succeed Campbell-Bannerman, Who Has Resigned.

NO PREMIER, NO MINISTRY

Great Britain Finds Itself in a Peculiar Position.

Resignation of Campbell-Bannerman Accepted by King.

London, April 6.—Great Britain is in a peculiar position, being without either premier or ministry. The long expected resignation of Premier Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the prime minister, was officially announced. According to the court usages he signed the certificate of his resignation. It rests with the king to choose another head of the government. According to custom, the whole cabinet resigns with the premier. No step to appoint a new ministry can be taken until Herbert H. Asquith, the chancellor of the exchequer, who has been summoned to Biarritz for the purpose, has seen the king.

The position of the country is quite unprecedented, there being no previous example of a change occurring in the premiership while the sovereign was abroad. On this account the course of proceedure to be followed is in some doubt.

Sir Henry's condition remains unchanged, according to the physicians' bulletin. The king, in telegraphing his acceptance of the premier's resignation, conveyed an expression of his regret and esteem with best wishes for Sir Henry's recovery.

Chancellor Asquith, who has been acting premier for some time will leave for Biarritz at once.

PHOTOS WIRELESS MESSAGES.

German Inventor Perfects Big Improvement on Present System.

Berlin, April 6.—What is likely to prove a great improvement in wireless telegraphy has just been invented by Herr Rieder of Steglitz. Hitherto the sending of a wireless message has necessitated somebody being at the receiver the whole time to take down the words as they came along. Herr Rieder has invented a new coherer, which emits light every time it receives a wave. It is prepared with finely powered aluminum instead of silver, as hitherto employed. The result is that each signal sent from the wireless station gives a feeble light in the coherer, hundreds of miles away, and under the latter is fixed a slowly moving photographic plate, which, when developed, gives an exact account of the signals. The reception of a message is thus carried out automatically

DOUGLAS DECLINES

To Have His Name Used for Any Political Office.

Brenton, Mass., April 6.—Former Governor William L. Douglass has given out a signed statement which takes him out of the field as a vice presidential candidate. He says:

"I have been made aware today that my name has been suggested by some of the most eminent leaders and members of the Democratic national committee for the office of vice president and in some quarters by Democratic leaders for the office of president.

"I have to say that while I am truly grately to those who have given me such distinguished consideration and am truly appreciative of the same, yet I have at no time sought these high honors and I would be greatly relieved and obliged if my name were taken out of the list of possible candidates for any political office as I am not a candidate."

MANY LOSE THEIR LIVES

Old Tenement Houses in Oxford, Eng., Collapse.

Eight Bodies Already Taken From the Debris.

London, April 6.—Two old tenement houses in Castle street, Oxford, collapsed early today as the result, it is supposed, of a gas explosion. It is believed that forty people, mostly German waiters are buried in the debris. At 6 o'clock four dead bodies and twenty injured persons had been removed from the ruins.

Up to noon eight bodies had been taken out alive, but none of them is seriously injured. The accident, which was at first thought to be due to an explosion of gas, now turns out to have been caused through the foundations of the structures being weakened by the excavations for a new building adjoining.

AID IN TIME OF CALAMITY

Will be Rendered by the Volunteer Emergency Corps.

New York, April 6.—Gen. James Evelyn Pilcher, the editor of The Military Surgeon, is the new director general of the National Volunteer Emergency corps. The corps was organized in 1900, to render aid in time of national calamity, or in the event of war. The corps is now being reorganized upon the lines of the medical corps of the United States army.

The first of the four corps in the service will consist of the director general and a staff of eight brigadier generals, the honorary members, among whom are President Roosevelt, Cardinal Gibbons, Prince Louis of Battenburg, governors of many states and several cabinet officers.

The second corps will be composed of physicians and druggists, trained for emergency relief work, with ranks of lieutenant colonel and major and captain. The third will consist of volunteer workers, and will be divided into brigadiers in each state, and the regimental and company formation in towns and cities. The fourth corps will be the public health corps, and will be charged with the study of sanitation and drainage. This corps will also publish a magazine, to be known as the Emergency Service.

UNEMPLOYED TO ASK FOR $50,000

To Petition Philadelphia City Council to Relieve Distress.

Philadelphia, April 6.—The city council will be asked this week to appropriate not less than $50,000 to relieve the distress among the unemployed and their families according to action taken yesterday at a meeting of unemployed. A committee was appointed to go before the council finance committee and impress that body with the fact that more than 200,000 persons are out of work, and that at least $50,000 is needed to prevent women and children from starving.

Though Mayor Reyburn has announced that he had issued a call for a meeting of the citizens' permanent relief committee for the day, to consider the problem of relieving distress, delegates at the meeting expressed themselves as being of the opinion that the relief committee would not appropriate sufficient money to help the majority of unemployed.

LATTER DAY SAINTS IN WORLD'S CONFERENCE.

Kansas City, April 6.—The world's conference of the re-organized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints convened at Independence, Mo., near here today. Seven hundred delegates were present. For the first time in many years the complete roster of the twelve, representing the apostles, was in attendance. Joseph Smith, one of the members of the presidency of the re-organized church who resides in Independence will preside.

HOMESICK GIRL CUTS THROAT WITH SCISSORS.

Marquette, Mich., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—While temporarily insane because of homesickness, Ida Waskunkoski, a Finnish girl en route from Westfield, Mass., attempted suicide here with a pair of scissors. She tried to cut open her throat and is in a serious condition.

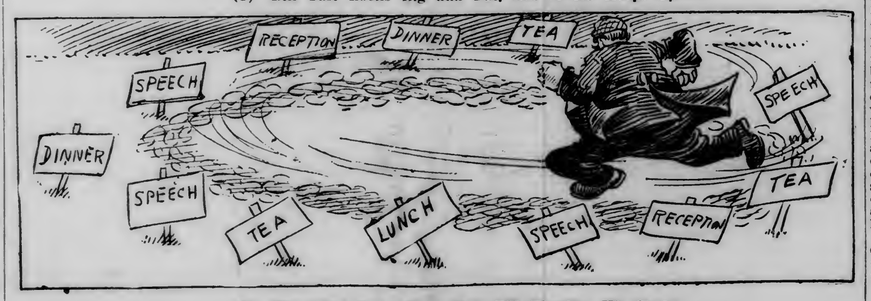

JAPS ATTACK STAFF OF AMERICAN CONSULATE.

Mukden, April 6.—Four Japanese entered the American consulate today and brutally attacked the native staff in revenge for a private spite. Consul General Straight made a requisition on the Chinese police, and the Japanese were arrested and taken to the Japanese consulate. No apology has yet been offered, and it is probable that the matter will be made a subject of diplomatic action.

Water Main on Railroad Street Will be Lengthened.

Harbor Front Will Benefit by Additional Fire Protection.

The board of water and light commissioners have ordered the extension of the city water main on Railroad street, between Eighth and Twelfth avenues west, subject to the confirmation of the council. The matter will come up at the meeting of the council this evening.

For years the insurance companies have been striving hard to get the city to extend its water main along the harbor front for better fire protection to the industries on the harbor front, but this is the first time that the owners of the property along the district to be affected have petitioned for the water main and have guaranteed the department an income commensurate with the expense of installing the extension.

The estimated cost of the extension is $6,750, and the guaranteed receipts of the department for water, including the four hydrants that are petitioned for, will be $560.

The moving to this city from Superior of the Great Lakes Dredge & Dock company's plant is said to be the prime factor in bringing about the extension of the water main. The plant would not locate at the foot of Twelfth avenue west, the site selected, unless it could have city water, so the petions were circulated and presented to the water board. The petitioners are the Great Lakes Dredge & Dock company, Peter Grignon, Duluth Universal Milling company and George Spencer. The guaranteed amounts in water rentals varies from $75 to $125 per year.

The improvement contemplates the laying of 1,864 feet of 12-inch and 700 feet of 5-inch mains. The city has a 6-inch water main from Michigan street down Sixth avenue west and west on Railroad street as far as Eighth avenue west. It is the intention to continue this main with a 6-inch and partly 12-inch pipes. There will be branch extensions down Eleventh avenues west and Twelfth avenue west of about 350 feet each.

The plans for the extension of the water main were made three or four years ago when the idea of better fire protection for the harbor front was agitated. The same plans will now be carried out if the council acts favorably. It is claimed that the cost of the extension will be much less this year than if done last year, as the price of iron pipes is only $26 per ton now as compared to $36 per ton a year ago.

Our Stocks Are Aglow With Easter Beauty.....

Offering you something more than "Ordinary Wearables." We offer you "Specialized Apparel" for women who are critical about the "tale-telling details." At the same time, the prices are no higher than usually asked for far less merit.

The prudent woman will not delay her Easter purchasing longer, for slight alterations may be necessary, and our alteration department is beginning to feel the strain of the Easter rush.

A Few of the Favorites Among Easter Suits:

"Very Stunning" are the suits of Tussah Silks. They come in the "New Blues," Browns, Tans, Champagne and other fashionable colors. They are made in Military, Braided or Semi-Fitting Models, which show a dash of "style" that is quite uncommon. The prices are $49.50 and $55.00.

A Special Line of Cloth Suits at Under-Value Prices—$29.50 for Regular $35 Suits—

For tomorrow's selling we have decided to place on sale about 40 suits in summery stripes, shepherd check, and light English homespuns. This not only includes one model, but several. The cut opposite represents one of the styles offered. The materials are of very fine quality; the coat is lined with peau de cygne and every detail of the whole garment is finished in a strictly first-class manner.

Most Desirable Suits in Many Cloths and Many Colors

At the Nominal Prices of $35.00, $39.50 and $42.50.

Grouped under the above mentioned three prices there is a remarkable range of very desirable suits. There are plain materials, nobby stripes and dainty mixtures, in an endless variety of weaves.

Our Twenty-Five Dollar Dresses in Silks and Lingerie.

The Mikado Style; handsome striped foulards in princess effect, with wide Mikado sleeves. Insert yoke of lace in "V" shape and nattily trimmed with touches of Persian braid. $25.00.

Taffeta Dresses in very pretty stripes. Guimp effect with square cut yoke. Trimmed around yoke and sleeves with Bonaze braid. $25.00.

Dainty Lingerie Dresses in several pretty styles. Made of fine washable materials with Val. laces inset at seams and in design. In some the sleeves are made solely of numerous rows of lace. $25.00.

These dresses are all made with belt and collar attached in the "new mode" that fashion says is "correct." At the same time they are a welcome invention for the woman who wishes to "step out" on a moment's notice, and are very "dressy,"

PAID DOLLAR; HAD NO TICKET

Russian Laborer Claims Fraud in Employment Office Deal.

Philip Furik, a Russian laborer, appealed to the police for aid Saturday afternoon, saying that he had given his last dollar to an employment agent at 50 West Michigan street and that the agent would not ship him.

The story told Capt. Fiskett was that Furik went into the office about 3 o'clock and handed over his dollar for a job. He said the agent told him to come around at 5 o'clock and he would give him his ticket and ship him. He says when he went there at 5 o'clock, the agent said he had given him a ticket and, on his not producing it, refused to do anything for him.

When called upon, the agent claimed he had given Furik the ticket and he did not have it when he returned to the office at 5 o'clock. Furik said there was nobody in the office when the transaction took place and, as his story could not be corroborated, the police could do nothing.

THE LIABILITY BILL PASSES

Sterling's Measure Goes Through House With Little Opposition.

Washington, April 6.—A truce between the Democrats and Republicans was for a time declared today when under suspension of the rules, the house took up the consideration and passed the Sterling employers' liability bill. The Democrats broke out into loud applause and handclapping when the reading of the measure had been concluded.

Mr. Sterling, Illinois, explained the provisions of the bill, the main features of which have been published. Mr. Sterling stated that the bill would be applicable to interurban car lines between states and street railroad lines in the territories and the districts of Columbia. The Democrats applauded Mr. Henry, Texas, when he said the bill was a meritorious and constitutional one, and that not a emocraatic vote would be recorded against it.

In the opinion of Mr. Littlefield the section of the bill, relating to actions at law in cases of contributory negligence, was an innovation on existing laws. He delivered a legal argument in support of his contention and declared that the bill was open to the same objection that was raised against the act declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of the United States.

BERGMAN-KITZ CASE ON TRIAL

Hibbing Action for Damages Comes Up Second Time.

The $5,000 damage case of Mrs. Olga Bergman of Hibbing against Jacob Kitz, a merchant of that place, will be started for trial in Judge Dibell's room this afternoon, before a jury. The case had been continued over the term but on motion of Victor L. Power, attorney for Mrs. Bergman, the court set aside the continuance.

The Bergman-Kitz case has been tried once and Mrs. Bergman recovered a verdict in the full amount of damages asked. The court, however, set the verdict aside and granted a new trial.

Mrs. Bergman bases her suit on the claim that Kitz under the guise of a landlord collecting rent, attempted to take improper liberties with her, that his alleged atempts caused her to become ill and a nervous wreck.

GOOD MEN SCARCE.

Marine Office Finding It Impossible to Enlist Recruits.

Orders have been received by the Duluth marine recruiting office to enlist as many men as possible for that branch of the service. Fifteen hundred men are needed for that branch of the army, but as the enlistment requirements are so high the recruiting officials here are finding it impossible to enlist anywhere like the number of men they would like to secure.

The scouts of the office are vainly scouring the Bowery to find the much needed men, but have met with little success. The percentage of rejectments is very heavy. A man must have citizenship papers before he can joint the marine service, and, as many of the men in the city at the present time have not taken out their papers, the officials of the office are finding it very difficult to enlist men.

The large number of ex-soldiers drawn into the army with the thought that the increased pay bill was going to be passed by congress, are becoming disgusted over the failure to act on the part of that body. It is believed that a large number of desertions will occur if the bill fails to become a law. Army men are hoping that the bill passes, as they realize that the efficiency of the army will be greatly lowered by the failure of congress to enact the hoped for legislation.

SUPERIOR NEWS

CAPTURE SAFE BLOWERS.

Superior Officers Run Down Gang Which Robbed a Saloon.

"Mickey" Dillon, Robert Devine, John Clancy, Will Keenan and Robert McGine were arrested last evening on the charge of dynamiting a safe in George Larsen's saloon on lower Tower avenue and with stealing several bottles of liquor. The safe did not contain anything of value.

The five men were arrested at the instance of a woodsman, who heard the explosion, and followed the accused men from the time they left the saloon building until they entered the apartments of Dillon, where the arrests were made. The woodsman, while following the men, met a policeman, to whom he told his story, and arrangements were immediately made to bag the whole gang.

The liquor, claimed to have been stolen from Larson's, was found in Dillon's room, together with a large quantity of fresh and smoked meats. The police believe that they have the same gang that has been robbing butcher shops in the west end of the city for some time past.

Nearly all the men arrested are claimed to have shady records and some have "done time." The police are much elated over their catch and believe that they will be able to fix on the men arrested a large number of petty robberies that have been committed of late.

APPEAL FOR JUSTICE.

Laborers Claim They Were Victims of a Fraudulent Deal.

A gang of about 100 Greek laborers, who arrived in Superior Friday, created quite a commotion Saturday by appealing to Mayor Linley for justice for alleged wrongs. The men claimed that they had been sent to Superior by a St. Louis employment agency, on the representation that they would be put at work on the Great Northern road. The men claimed they paid the agency a fee, and paid their fare to Superior, only to find that the work would not open until about the first of May. They claim to be without funds, and have been sleeping in boxcars.

The railroad officials deny the statement of the laborers. They claim that the men were hired to work for 13 cents an hour, with the understanding that they could not be set at work until conditions permitted. The officials claim that as soon as the laborers got to Superior they demanded 16 cents an hour, and insisted on immediate employment.

Duluth Alderman Speaks.

Alderman Watson S. Moore of Duluth delivered an address at the East End Methodist church, last evening, on the topic, "The Church in City Politics." Mr. Moore's talk pertained to city politics and city government, and the influence that the churches can and do exert on both. Mr. Moore is one of the ardent supporters of the "lid" in Duluth, and in his address he told something of what has been accomplished along the way of law enforcement in Duluth. The meeting was the last of a series in which laymen have been the principal speakers.

Students Meet Victors at Depot With Brass Band.

The victorious Blaine High School team, which last week won four straight games from the Appleton high school at Appleton, Wis., returned this morning, and was given a royal reception at the station by the students of the school.

Nearly the whole school headed by a brass band marched down to the depot, and cheered their champion team as it left the cars. After their enthusiastic greeting they formed again in line and marched with the band at their head, back to the school, where they filed into the assembly all, and listened to speeches congratulating the team on its record while away.

Campaign Nears End.

Tonight will close the hot city election campaign that has been waged in Superior since the primaries. Both parties are confident, the Konkel men claiming a majority of at least 500 votes and the Republicans claiming at least that large a plurality for their candidate, Alderman Crumpton.

CARBOLITE CASE IS SUBMITTED

Court Held Session Until Midnight to Finish the Hearing.

The hearing in the injunction proceedings instituted by H. L. Hartenstein against the American Carbolite company to prevent the appointment of an assignee was finished at midnight Saturday evening, the court holding a special session in order to finish the case. The matter was submitted to Judge Dibell on the arguments of R. R. Briggs and E. R. Thurman for Hartenstein and Oscar Mitchell for directors of the company.

The hearing was begun Saturday morning and developed some warm brushes between the attorneys before the final adjournment. The passages between opposing counsel became so heated at one time that the court interposed and resorted order. Both sides have made strong charges of misrepresentation of the condition of affairs and the directors claim that Hartenstein is in hiding to prevent them from serving papers on him.

THOSE WHO HAVE PASSED BEYOND

St. Louis, April 6.—Baron Nugent, president of the B. Nugent & Bros., Dry Goods company and a well known business man, died here Saturday at his home in Westmoreland Place of Bright's disease. Mr. Nugent was born in Marysburgh, Prince Edward county, Ont., Can., in 1842. Besides his dry goods business, Mr. Nugent was interested in many other business enterprises in St. Louis.

THE OTHER SIDE OF IT.

Employment Agents Will Tell Their Story to the Council.

A communication setting forth the case of the employment agencies will be presented at the council meeting this evening.

The communication sets forth in detail the obligations on the part of the agencies, giving the bonds that they are under to carry on a legitimate business, and decrying the accusation that all agencies are involved in the general complaint that has been made.

Some of the agents claim that they have not been given a fair hearing in the matter, and further that they are ready to prove honesty and straightforwardness in their dealings with the men.

AN APPEAL TO VOTERS TO DRIVE OUT SALOON.

Bloomington, Ill., April 6.—Women and children, waving flags and banners, paraded the streets of Bloomington today, appealing to the voters to drive out the saloons. The procession was the final demonstration of a spectacular campaign for local option. There were many women and children in faded and ragged garments, said to be the wives and little ones of drunkards. In the long parade of 1,000 women and 3,000 children, Students of the high school and all junior schools were in the ranks of the paraders.

OWNS 32 AUTOMOBILES.

A New York contributor to the American Magazine says: "See how a poor man in the metropolis may stumble upon riches," and then he tells the following story:

"Four of us who live at the northern end of Manhattan Island went out for a walk. One of the four suggested that we take a public road which passes through the estate of Mr. So-and-So. When we had admired the rich man's house from afar, we followed the public highway until we came to Mr. So-and-So's stable. An old man came out and we engaged him in conversation. Visitors were freely admitted, he told us. So we went in.

"First we saw the stalls for the horses, and all the conveniences for keeping the animals clean and comfortable. As I passed through the corridors I noticed that a heating system had been installed in order that the temperature might be kept even. In the harness room I saw silver trappings and an interesting collection of photographs of famous horses. Some of the horses in this very stable, I was told, had wonderful records on the race track.

"So far all was interesting, but nothing impressed me as unnatural.

"But now we passed through a long hall and into a great room which served as Mr. So-and-So's private garage. And as we passed along, our aged guide became more communicative. Here were all sorts of automobiles, including a variety of racing machines. The room must have been 100 feet long. In the ceiling were huge trap doors, twenty feet square, through which hung cables attached to a traveling crane. This appliance was for lifting, moving and testing the various machines. One car, of special make, was the largest automobile I ever saw. As I stood in front of it, and close to it, I was reminded of the first ocean-going tug I ever saw, and of how much bigger it seemed to me than the lake tugs to which, as a boy, I had been accustomed.

"'Are these all automobiles belonging to Mr. So-and-So?' I asked.

"'Yes, but seven of them are not here,' said the old man. 'Seven machines and nine horses are down at the hotel.'

"'Well, how many automobiles does Mr. So-and-So require for his private use?' I asked.

"'He has thirty-two,' said the old man.

"And then it all came out. Mr. So-and-So has thirty-two automobiles. He has seven chauffeurs—one for himself, one for his wife, one for his daughter, one for his son, one for his steward, one for his housekeeper and one for his superintendent. In the basement of the stable is a large repair shop, where three machinists are continually at work repairing these automobiles. At present Mr. So-and-So is not inhabiting the house which my friends and I had been looking at. He is at one of the great hotels in New York, where he pays $46,000 a year for his apartments. But he has been there only a few weeks. And he isn't going to remain but a few weeks longer. Although he pays for his apartment by the year, he is going to Europe in his private yacht for an indefinite stay."

TWIN CITY & LAKE SUPERIOR RAILWAY CO.

Presents an Investment that is Endorsed, Guaranteed, Secured.

FIVE DAYS ONLY AT $44.00

In this second article of our "Plain Truth" series that will appear daily during the week, announcing the close of the sale of Twin City & Lake Superior Railway Company stock at $44, we want to impress on your mind that one of the six days allowed you to take advantage of this opportunity has passed and that only five days remain.

Your opinion formed perhaps a year ago from what you knew or could learn about this enterprise at that time if not such a one as to induce you to invest then should be reconsidered now when you are shown the evidence of accomplished facts.

The location engineering is complete, the right-of-way between the cities is all secured, all bridges have been located and plans drawn, and on July 1, 1907, actual construction began and was continued without interruption until after January 1st. Thirty-two miles of the best standard railroad roadway in Minnesota is complete, including culverts and trestle bridging, ready for the ties and rails. Construction track is being laid and grading operations will begin again on a large scale Monday morning, the 6th, and the entire work will be vigorously pushed during the coming season.

A year is a long time comparatively. It is perhaps not too much to say that it is one-twentieth of the time during which men and women of average opportunities make successes or failures in the business affairs of life. The plan was new a year ago, its managers and advocates had yet to prove its feasibility and their own integrity and ability to successfully carry it out. In a year all this has been changed. The representations as to management have been sustained by competent, unbiased examination and the highest compliment ever given an enterprise in the Northwest has been given publicity by the press of the entire Northwest. Besides, epoch making events in the financial history of this country have occurred in the past year. We doubt if a year ago the conservative Minneapolis Tribune would have expressed the views contained in their editorial of March 13th, 1908, under the head of "Direct Investment of the People's Savings." In the editorial referred to our plan of finance is endorsed from beginning to end and the Tribune goes further and points to the great deposits in the savings banks and the huge cash reserves that must be locked up in vaults to protect these deposits against frantic runs, as a distinct menace to the financial and industrial prosperity of the country. The Tribune looks hopefully forward to the time when the people will invest their own money in honest industrial enterprises, gaining for themselves the just earning power of their money, a greater interest in the country and its laws that enables them to accumulate, and giving to our financial fabric the strength and stability of France, a country that has reached its commanding position by these very methods.

Yesterday we gave in detail five reasons why the Twin City & Lake Superior Railroad would be the most profitable piece of Railway in the Northwest that are worth repeating briefly here.

First: The shortest possible mileage.

Second: The lightest maximum grade.

Third: The lowest capital charge by one-half.

Fourth: The cheapest operating expense by one-third.

Fifth: The overwhelming commanding position this road will have from the first day of its operation in the passenger business between the Twin Cities and the Head of the Lakes, which carries with it mail and express.

All of this has special reference to through business, but do not lose sight of the immense local traffic that the road will have through the rich agricultural section of Minnesota and Wisconsin through which it passes, not served by other lines, and remember that the road is being built double track, standard gauge, fully equipped to handle the heaviest freight traffic and handle it as we have pointed out at 33 1-3 per cent less than the cost to existing steam lines.

We have referred to the endorsement of leading business men. We reproduce in this article a communication received from Mr. W. L. Harris, President and Treasurer of the New England Furniture and Carpet Company of Minneapolis, a gentleman who needs no introduction from us to the people of the Northwest. Weigh this matter carefully as Mr. Harris has done and then act for yourself today.

Watch for Our Announcement in The Herald on page 9 Tomorrow

Minneapolis, Minn., March 17, '08.

Wm. H. Crossland, Esq., V. P.,
Twin City & Lake Superior Railway Co.,
City.

Dear Sir:

In handing you my check for stock subscription, I think it is due you that I should state that said subscription is made after having fully satisfied myself as to the dependableness of the management and their methods, and the integrity of the enterprise being promoted. I know of no reason why any investor interested in the development of Minnesota should refrain from hearty co-operation with you and your associates in the development of your proposed railway.

Yours truly,
W. L. HARRIS.

HEAVEN IS DESCRIBED

Rev. Campbell Coyle Discusses It in Evening Sermon.

He Believes That Friends Will be Recognized There.

"Multitudes can be found, who avow their disbelief in the doctrine of hell, but mankind is practically a unit in its belief of the knowledge," said Dr. Coyle Campbell in his sermon last night on "Heaven" at the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Coyle divided his subject into five parts: "The fact of Heaven," concerning which he said the above; "The Location of Heaven;" "The Nature of Heaven," "Will there be recognition there?" and "The Condition of Entrance Into Heaven."

Concerning the location of Heaven, Dr. Coyle quoted several passages from the Scriptures, all of which indicated that Heaven is above and at no great distance. He said that while he would not dogmatize, he fondly cherished the opinion that Heaven lies all about in the realms of the upper air, and that if only our inner eyes were opened by miracle, we would see the hosts celestial, as the servant of Elisha did, and around about the horses and chariots of fire.

"The nature of Heaven is far beyond the power of our poor languages to describe," said the speaker, "and yet it may help us some to thoughtfully contemplate it. There are many things about Heaven, the knowledge of which is denied us here, but some things are so clearly written in the Bible that we cannot be mistaken. In the first place, Heaven is a place of beauty, and again it is a place of perfect rest for the storm-beaten and weary soul. It is not a rest of idleness, but the rest that comes from the perfect and untrammeled movement of all our God given powers. Furthermore, Heaven is a place of absolute freedom from all sin, which means, of course, absolute freedom from all the consequences of sin.

Will Heaven be a place of recognition? This is a query that profoundly interests all. There are at least two witnesses in the support of the doctrine of future recognition. The first is the universal consciousness of the human race. The doctrine of future recognition is the commonly accepted belief of all peoples, whether pagan or heathen, or christian. And what is universally accepted to be true in the nature of the case, must be true. In creating man, God furnished his mind with certain original ideas, called intuitions, and this belief in the future recognition would seem to be one of these." Here Dr. Coyle gave many illustrations from the old Greek and Roman authors and the Bible, from which he quoted the following from Genesis: "And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and was gathered unto his people."

"The truthfulness of this doctrine," said Dr. Coyle, "we have a right to infer also from our Lord's various delineations of the blessed state. He speaks of it as the Father's house, whose inhabitants will sit down in fellowship with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets.

"Our final word," concluded the speaker, "will be upon the condition of entrance into Heaven. Are all persons going to Heaven when they die, regardless of what sort their lives have been? This seems to be the general belief, for I meet it on every hand. A man dies who is eminent for his badness, and his friends say, 'Well, poor fellow, he is at rest at last.' More than once I have stood beside a casket, which held the dust of a man, who died a hardened sinner, and yet on the lid of the casket, I read these words: 'At Rest.' More than once at a bad man's funeral I have seen among the floral offerings a piece called 'Gates Ajar' with a stainless dove just above the open portals. And more than once I have felt the blood freeze in my veins, and my heart stand still, while some quartet sang, disregarding the fitness of things, 'Asleep in Jesus' over the dust of a man who had not known religion. All of which seems to indicate a general belief that death means Heaven to every one, quite regardless of character. I fully realize that it is not within my power to close the door of Heaven against a single soul, but we must bear in mind the nature of things. A bad man in Heaven would find himself in the fiercest hell. This is not principally true because it is in the Bible, but because it is a part of the nature of things."

SHUMAN SAYS FAREWELL.

Y. M. C. A. Man About to Return to South America.

After a stay of several months in Duluth, B. A. Shuman, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Buenos Ayres, Argentine, said farewell to this city yesterday, to return to his labors in the South American republic.

Mr. Shuman was the guest of honor at the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon, and in the evening he spoke at Pilgrim Congregational church. He told of the progress of some of the better South American republics and the work of the Young Men's Christian association in that part of the Western hemisphere.

For the past seven years, Mr. Shuman has been at the head of the Y. M. C. A. work in Buenos Ayres, and he says the membership of the association there now is 800. During the next seven years he said, he hoped to increase that number to 3,000.

The speaker referred to this as the "brick and mortar age" of the Y. M. C. A. Handsome new homes for the organization were going up everywhere, he said, giving the organization a new dignity and new importance.

Mr. Shuman has been in the United States a year. Tuesday, he will start for New York, to sail from there for Buenos Ayres.

MANY GREAT MEN

Have Probably Been Close to the Abyss, Says Pastor.

"Common Weakness and Common Strength" was the subject of a sermon preached by Rev. George R. Gebauer at the First Unitarian church, yesterday.

He spoke in part, as follows:

"'Lord, is it I?' was the general question of the disciples as they sat in apprehension of what was to happen at that last supper in the upper chamber in Jerusalem. It will seem to me that this question is well fitted for every man and woman. We, too, sit about the Lord's table, close to the ideal, but ever and again the traitor disappears into the outer darkness to do his work. And when he has done it, some will say, 'Let him be damned.' They fell themselves only the stronger for the fall of their friend. But the more sensitive, the more philosophical, the more really human will ask themselves in hearts, 'Lord, is it I?' The unexpected fall of the friend will intimate to them their own weakness. The fellow on the gallows will suggest the rascal in the soul. Yes, our very ability to understand the motives which led to the evil deed, proves that the sinner is akin to us. The bloody crime committed in a fit of anger is ours, if we are able to feel anger and hatred in the breast. Not even our deep aversion to sin proves that we are far away from the miscreant, for he, too after the deed is done may have similar feelings.

"Now such a philosophy of life may not be comforting, but it is wholesome. It will prick the bubble of self-conceit. It will fill our hearts with charity for the weaker brother. No doubt there are men worshipped in history as ideal men and citizens, who yet came very close to the abyss. We do not know many such because the fewest are ready to confess after the way of Rousseau or Augustine or Marie Bashkirtseff, but we can see the truth in those who have fallen from their high estate. The one name most prominent in the history of the revolution next to Washington's is that of Benedict Arnold. He deserver all the glory and praise given to him by the people. But the mean treatment of congress, his ambition, his growing unbelief in the success and the righteousness of the cause of the colonies, combined to make him a traitor. Had Arnold fallen on the battlefield, his name today would be spoken with the same reverence as that of the father of the country. 'The hour when Arnold should have died,' says John Fiske, 'was, when after the glorious battle of Freeman's farm, he shielded and saved that German soldier, who had shot him through the leg.'

"Perhaps you think to show mankind in its innate meanness is depressing. This is true. But to me, it is only the obverse side of the inspiring legend of the nobility of humanity in which we, too, all share. The fact that we all alike are sinners also proclaims that we all alike are saints; that in the lowest of mankind is the possibility of the highest. Beware how you speak of Benedict Arnold, for in spite of his treachery there was loyalty in his soul. When in a hated exile he felt his last hour approaching he wanted to appear as he was in his heart. He put on his American uniform with epaulets and swordknot, which he had received from Washington. 'Let me die,' he said, 'let me die in this old uniform, in which I fought my battles. May God forgive me for ever putting on another.' Arnold, the traitor, died long before Arnold the American patriot. A traitor to the good is in every human breast, but there is also the loyal lover of the good."

FIERCE FLAMES

ceeded in raising an extension ladder to the window, and the other members of the family were taken down in safety. While the rescue of the Isolas was in progress, Michael Conway, a young fireman, who was appointed to the department only a few weeks ago, was making a valiant and, as it proved, successful effort to save his own family. Conway's father, mother and six brothers and sisters lived on the top floor of the burning building. When he reached the house they were standing by open windows, shouting for help, while behind them the flames roured up the stairways and encircled the fire escapes at the rear. Ladders were quickly run up to the windows, and a moment later Conway carried his mother down to the street. In several more trips the young fireman brought his sisters to safety, and then the father and brothers followed.

The fire started in the lower hallway of the building, and swept upward with a rush, that instantly cut off exit by the stairways. From the halls the flames spread quickly to the rear of the house, where the fire escapes are located, and many of the occupants of the house were forced to jump from second and third-story windows before ladders could be erected to save them. Nearly twenty persons were injured in this way, but none of them, with the exception of Miss Isola, was fatally hurt. The building was ruined, resulting in a loss of $15,000.

BRITISH CABINET

for the chancellorship, although Mr. Haldane, who shares the Liberal-Imperialist tendencies of Mr. Asquith, is understood to be a candidate for the same portfolio. There is no hurry, however, about the various assignments, as Mr. Asquith will retain the chancellorship until the budget has been introduced after the Easter recess. Should Mr. Birrell, the chief secretary for Ireland, be slated for a change of office, it is an open secret that John Burns, now president of the local government board, would be quite content to replace Mr. Birrell as head of the Irish office.

May Include Harcourt.

It seems quite likely that Lewis Harcourt, who is considered something of his American because of his American mother and wife, will be included in the new cabinet, and the name of Winston Churchill also figured in most of the new cabinet lists. The elevation of Churchill would involve an election from the Manchester constituency, with considerable possibility of defeat, which would necessitate finding a radical complacent enough to give up a safe seat to which Churchill could be elected.

Apart from forecasting the new cabinet, the discussion in the house of commons lobby today turned chiefly on the probable effect of Campbell-Bannerman's retirement on the ministerial coalition. It is undisputed that the ex-premier's tact and popularity were the moral bond holding together the influential, but somewhat discordant elements, which have been in power up to this time.

The Liberal leaders appear to be quite well satisfied with the situation, but some of them question the power of such an imperialist as Asquith to keep the Laborites and Socialists from breaking away from all allegiance to the government's coalition. On the other hand, Timothy Healy's vitrolic denunciation of Mr. Asquith's attitude, during the recent home rule debate in the house of commons appears to foreshadow a dangerous tension to the rather slender bond which attaches the Irish Nationalists to the existing administration.

Statement by Asquith.

The house of commons was crowded this afternoon when Mr. Asquith rose to make his anticipated statement on the political crisis. The premier-elect was greeted with hearty cheering as he began to speak.

"Since the house rose on Friday," said Mr. Asquith, "the king has been pleased to accept the resignation of the prime minister, and the government now is without a head. This is not the occasion when it would be possible or appropriate to do justice to the great qualities of our revered and trusted chief, or to enlarge upon his long and splendid services to the state. For the moment I will not trust myself to do more than to say that in the annals of our history there is no man who, after long years spent in the thick of public contention, has ever laid down the highest office under the crown more universally and deservedly beloved. There is not a single man in any quarter of this house who does not feel that this is a personal loss."

Mr. Asquith went on to state that it was clear public business could not proceed effectively at this time, and he proposed that the house adjourn until April 14, at which time, after the transaction of formal business it would readjourn for the Easter recess.

Tribute to Premier.

Mr. Balfour and Mr. Redmond joined in feeling tributes to the retiring premier. Mr. Redmond emphasized the special bereavement of Ireland, saying that in Campbell-Bannerman's disappearance Ireland suffered a loss second only to the loss caused by the retirement of Gladstone.

"There is not an Irish Nationalist in any part of the world," said Mr. Redmond, "who will not deeply deplore that this consistent, brave, honorable friend of Ireland has been taken from the arena of public life."

Mr. Asquith's proposal was then adopted and the house adjourned.

Following the adjournment, cabinet discussion was resumed in the lobbies. It appears that Mr. Asquith is awaiting the arrival of the king's messenger from Biarritz with dispatches which are expected to intimate the king's wishes regarding the premier-elect's attendance on his majesty. When the king's wishes become definitely known, Mr. Asquith will make his arrangements for the journey.

Mr. Redmond and other Irish leaders said this afternoon that they thought there was no chance for a change in the Irish secretaryship, and that Mr. Birrell would be left in charge until after the hearing of the Irish university scheme.

Mr. Morley, who naturally had first claim for choice of portfolios and who was thought to have a hankering for the chancellorship of the exchequer, is now said to have indefinitely renounced all claim to that position.

FROM CHICAGO TO NEW YORK

Man Makes Practically a Continuous Trip on Trolley Cars.

New York, April 6.—From Chicago to New York by trolley car in seven and a half days is the record established by Elliott Flower of Chicago, who arrived here yesterday, after traveling 1,300 miles by local and interurban trolley service.

Mr. Flower's object was to discover the extent and value of the enormous development of trolley systems throughout the country. He was able to make a continuous trip for the entire distance, with the exception of three small breaks. While satisfied with the result of the experiment, Mr. Flower is firm in his resolution to return to his home on a fast train.

"I left Chicago early Sunday morning, a week ago," said Mr. Flower, "and arrived at Indianapolis the same day. It was necessary to bridge the gap from Kankakee to La Fayette by train, but from there nearly to Buffalo I used trolleys exclusively. There was a break at Hudson, N. Y., where I was forced to take a train to Tarrytown."

IS BEATEN AND ROBBED

Woodsman is Victim of Bold Assault by Highwaymen.

Two Men Captured and Arraigned on the Charge.

Hammered on the head with a rock and robbed of $61, Andrew Anderson, residing at 324 Garfield avenue, was left insensible on St. Croix avenue early yesterday morning by two highwaymen, who were caught by Patrolman Connors while they were fleeing from their bleeding victim.

The men arrested gave their names as Andrew Peterson and Frank Oja, and they were identified as his assailants later in the day, by Anderson.

Anderson was badly hurt by the blow he got on the head. It was necessary to take several stitches in his forehead and he was dazed for hours after he regained consciousness.

He declares that he was coming uptown along St. Croix avenue when Peterson and Oja jumped out at him, hitting him on the head with a rock. One of the robbers held his throat while he was being beaten with the stone.

Seriously hurt, Anderson tumbled to the ground, and after relieving him of his roll, the bandits started to make their getaway. The noise of the encounter had been heard by Patrolman Connors, however, and he succeeded in arresting the men. They ran to the north end of the viaduct and ascended the stairs. Connors ran up those on the other side and caught them on the bridge.

The policeman had no trouble in getting his captives to the station. After he delivered them there, he set out in search of the victim of the holdup and found him bleeding and unconscious on the sidewalk where he had been attacked.

When searched at the central station, Peterson and Oja had a roll that looked suspiciously like Anderson's. Anderson said that he had seen the pair several times during the evening and that they seemed to be following him.

Both men were arraigned in municipal court this morning, charged with highway robbery. Their hearing was set for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

LYCEUM — Mack-Leone Players in "Thelma."
METROPOLITAN—Burlesque.

Green Room Gossip.

The Mack-Leone players will not abandon "Thelma" as soon as expected. The demand for seats was such that many were unable to witness the play at the four performances given last week, and as a result, it was decided to give two extra performances of the play tonight and tomorrow afternoon. The first performance of "The Galley Slave" will therfore not be given until Tuesday night.

• • •

"Buster Brown" will be at the Lyceum Friday and Saturday with the usual Saturday matinee. The play is a musical comedy with the plot hinging on the hero of the comic supplement pictures.

• • •

Among the good things slated for Duluth during the next two months are "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," "Comin' Through the Rye," Paul Gilmore, McIntyre and Heath, and Field's minstrels.

• • •

The Cherry Blossoms have started in on a week at the Metropolitan. Tomorrow they will give a bargain matinee and there will be others Thursday and Saturday. A chorus girls' contest Thursday and an amateur night Friday are among the Blossoms' plans for their week here. The company is headed by John Perry, who is sing his latest song, "Down in the City of Joy."

POLICE RAID POKER GAME

Arrest Five Participants in "Quiet Little Game."

The police planned a cleanup of the gamblers Saturday night, and had several "quiet little games" in view, but unfortunately the news of the first raid at 203 West First street, spread so rapidly, that the other establishments closed up shop at once, and when the detectives arrived all was quiet.

The game at 203 West First street, was in the rear of a candy store there. Detectives Irving and Schulte walked into the rear room, and caught five men in a poker game. Thomas La Voy, the proprietor, was also arrested. The men were allowed to cash in their chips, and all six were then taken to headquarters. They gave their names as Thomas La Voy, James McAvoy, Olaf Olson, Frank Hall, Fred Hanson, Charles Daly and Archie Smith. La Voy put up $50 bail and the others $15 each, and they all forfeited it this morning in the municipal court.

Officer is Beaten.

Patrolman Robert Smollett was assaulted and badly beaten last evening in front of the saloon owned by I. R. Joyce at 14 First avenue west, and a warrant will be sworn out today for John McKenzie, bartender of the place, who is accused of having committed the assault.

The policeman was told that the saloon was violating the Sunday closing law, and went to investigate. He saw McKenzie outside, and warned him not to open the saloon. The officer claims that McKenzie then assaulted him, knocking him down and badly bruising him about the face and head.

"AMEN CORNER" GONE.

Fifth Avenue Hotel, Resort of Senator Platt, Quits.

New York, April 6.—The Fifth Avenue hotel ended its career Saturday night. Senators Platt and Depew were among the throng of old-timers to bid farewell to the historic hostelry and for the last time sit in their old places in the famous "Amen Corner."

Senator Platt is known as the father of the corner. It is said that when he was absolute leader of the Republican party in the state he used to ensconce himself in the plush cushions in the corner and give orders to his followers, who used to reply by merely saying "Amen!" Thus the corner got its name.

Heartbroken because the hotel in which he had spent forty-six years of his life is to be torn down to make room for an office building, Thomas Gay, the aged head waiter, who has personally served every president from Lincoln to Roosevelt in the hostelry, has left for Steamboat Springs, Colo., where he will go into seclusion for the rest of his life on a little farm.

During the years he spent at the hotel Gay collected many interesting anecdotes of the great men who made it their rendezvous. Among these stories is that of how King Edward, then prince of Wales, eluded the watchful eyes of his suite, and, climbing down a ladder from his room to the street, saw New York after midnight; how Gen. Sheridan was the only man who could get a drink when the bar was closed; how Raymond, the famous actor, used to go about begging every one to match $20 gold pieces with him; how Gen. Sherman attended a ball of the hotel employes and how the hotel was saved by Gen. McClellan from destruction at the hands of a mob during the draft riots.

FATAL CANNED FISH.

Newberry, Mich., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Jennie Allen, aged 10, daughter of Newby Allen, living fifteen miles south of Newberry, in Mackinac county, is dead from ptomaine poisoning, the result, it is said, of eating canned fish. An older sister became ill, but has been pronounced out of danger.

FIGHT OVER TREASURERSHIP

Is About Only Feature of Fargo Municipal Election.

Fargo, N. D., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city election is in progress in Fargo today. Mayor Elliott is unopposed for re-election and the campaign has lacked some of those features for which the municipal changes in Fargo have long been famous.

The chief interest has been in the contest for the office of treasurer. The present incumbent, C. H. Mitchell, has held the office for a decade and is seeking an election for a sixth term. He is opposed by W. C. Laizure. They have made a strenuous campaign. Both are members of the G. A. R. post and each has a large following.

WINNIPEG TROLLEY EMPLOYES MAY STRIKE.

Winnipeg, Man., April 6.—Street railway employes held a session from midnight to 5:30 o'clock this morning considering a schedule which expires Tuesday, which has been in operation three years. The men now demand an eight-hour day, instead of nine, with the same pay, besides other concessions. If this is not granted, they have decided to strike Wednesday. Emma Goldman and other agitators are here encouraging the men to strike. The strike lasted several weeks three years ago when the present schedule was granted by the company.

"Adolph comes to school to me," said the school teacher, "and Adolph is fond of music and is deaf. Adolph is impelled to song by the greatest of known arguments in its favor. He sings because he loves to sing and he sings all tunes on two low notes which boom out with a persistence and clangor that make the shrill high notes of myself and the other forty-nine children in the room sound like the squeaky whisper of the sad wind in the tree tops to the accompaniments of the booming breakers. It makes no difference to Adolph which song we sing. He sings them all alike and with a deep bass struggling from the one note that he knows to the other he has evolved, the the gusto which results makes singing in our room a diversion not all joy.

"The other day Adolph had gone down a few notes lower than usual. 'Sing high, Adolph,' I implored while I playfully mounted the desk and reached my hands high above my head, 'Sing high,' I said hoping that the pantomine and the request might raise his notes a little nearer the tune.

"Here's where Clarence enters the story. Clarence is a monitor proud of his position and his privileges. He is a young person who finds difficulty in keeping his ideas to himself. When he thinks of a remark he must give voice to it. I think Clarence is going to be a politician. He thinks an opinion is only good after it has been voiced aloud. After my playful appeal to Adolph, Clarence had a thought which he communicated to Adolph in a loud whisper. I caught him in the act.

"'Ah ha!' I said. 'You're whispering, are you? Well I guess I can find a monitor for this front seat who won't whisper. You move over here young man and we'll let this nice little girl who never whispers be the monitor.' Woe, black and dreadful descended upon Clarence. He sobbed at this departure of his privileges and glory and honor. 'He punched me,' sobbed Clarence pointing at Adolph.

"'I did,' boomed Adolph, 'but he said I was a bum singer.'

"We discussed the matter no further, but the sobs of Clarence punctuated the atmosphere during the entire afternoon, but discipline or no discipline, Clarence goes back to his monitor's seat again tomorrow. I had no idea he was capable of such acumen and perspicacity. He and I are agreed on one subject for all time—Adolph is a bum singer.

"'And then?" asked the disagreeable person.

"'Nothing,' said the school teacher, in the flat tones with which one answers after one's climax has been ignored. 'Awfully nice weather isn't it?'"

LIVE FOR PRESENT.

Many Pretty Women Forget Day of Reckoning.

The woman who is pretty is far too liable to think that is enough; she will conquer her kingdom by means of it; and when the day of reckoning, the day of fading comes, the kingdom will be hers by right of possession, says a writer in Health Culture. Indeed, she does not consider the day of fading; it is something as difficult for her to realize as death itself is to the young; it is far off, vague, all but impossible; how is she ever going to look other than she does now, and still be herself? And, at any rate, there are always the means to make the repairs of beauty, and sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. And so, in an average of more than half the instances, she goes dancing off about her pleasure like a fly in the sun, as full of the present, as careless of the future; she makes no preparation for the impending fate which is sure to come to her should she live long enough; she relies on her faith, her blushes, her dimples, her radiance, her smiles, her glances, her sweetness. To please, to attract, to marry, to marry well, is the mark she has set before her; and it does not need cultivation of the sterner virtues for that; the sterner virtues are not greatly called into account in this quest, have little opportunity of asserting themselves, or even of being missed.

Nor is the great intellectual cultivation in the scheme of our pretty woman's life; according to her plan of action it is entirely unnecessary. Who cares for syllogisms, lectures, instructions? she unconsciously argues from rosy lips. Who will stop to ask if the bright eyes have dulled themselves over dry pages of scholastic lore? Let who will be learned; it is enough for her to be gay and happy.

What, then, has our pretty creature left for the dim passages of middle age, when beauty has fallen away, but there still is left the desire to hold captive what once was beauty ignored?

The time is coming when there will be deep crescents round the mouth, whose lovely curves have been dragged down by flaccid muscles; when there will be fine spider-web lines about the eyes; when there will be hollows in the cheeks; when the red and white of the skin will have become blurred and mottled or overlaid with yellow sallowness; when, perhaps, there will be present in the vacuous face only that divine smile which has lost the two front teeth."

Let the pretty girl remember that in the darkness of that middle passage the beauty that she had before she entered it will not signify; all faces are in the dark together then, the girl that was plain with the girl that was beautiful; the wreck of beauty signifies then no more than the wreck of what never was beauty. It is the sweet voice, the kindly manner, the burden of what is said, the tender-heartedness of what is done, that tells with effect then. It will not be long before she arrives at this time, which, in comparison to the blaze of youth, neighbors close on the dark; and she will need them all with which she can have filled her intellect and feed her soul, all that wit and virtue and breeding can have given her, in order to retain anything of that kingdom to which in the early days she felt herself born by right divine.

Opinions On Woman.

"Ouida," who died recently amid squalor and sadness, had her own opinion of the modern woman. She expressed that opinion in a passage of "Moths" quite clearly and forcibly. It is as follows:

"Useless as butterflies; corroding as moths; untrue even to lovers and friends, because incapable of understanding and truth; caring only for physical comfort and mental intoxication; kissing like Judas, and denying in danger like Peter; tired of living, yet afraid of dying; believing, some in priests and some in physiologists, but none at all in virtue; sent to sleep by chlorodine and kept awake by raw meats and dry wines; cynical at twenty and exhausted at thirty, yet choosing rather to drop dead in the harness of pleasure than fall out of the chariot-race for an instant; having outworn every form of excitement except the gambler's, which never palls, which they will still pursue when they shall have not a real tooth in their mouths or a real hair on their heads, the women of modern society are perhaps at once the most feverish and the most frivolous, the basest and the feeblest offstring of a false civilization."

Prof. J. B. Bury, the eminent English historian of Cambridge university, declares American women lack in home life. In an interiew he compares American and English women, not altogether to the advantage of either as regards some things. In his criticism he said:

"American women are plain; your western women are unattractive; they lack originality and are uninteresting. They do not compare with western men, who look as if they knew not the meaning of dissipation, yet American women as a race are fascinating—they lead the world in intellectuality.

"Your business woman and professional woman is a woman of tact, but her desire to win wealth and independence is at times almost overwhelming and she sometimes forgets the really more important things of life."

EVENING MUSICALE.

Pupils of Miss Berta Schmied Heard With Pleasure.

Saturday evening an audience which completely filled the Unitarian church was gathered for the first formal recital by the pupils of Miss Berta Schmied, who has been teaching for two years. The students who appeared on the program showed careful training and the evening was one of much pleasure to the friends of the pupils and the young teacher. Those who appeared in the first part of the program were Misses Katherine Abbott, Frances Winton, Frances Nester, Elizabeth Wood, Margaret Hoyt, Marion Dight, Julia Marshall, Irene Keyes, Marjorie Harrison and Harriet Harrison, and Masters Roilin Hawkes, Dwight Sanford and Gordon Hegardt.

The second part of the program was devoted to the playing of the Grieg "Peer Gynt" music by Miss Schmied and Leo Schmied. The eight numbers of the suite were finely played, the characteristic features of the various numbers being rendered with much intelligence and charm. The program concluded with nonsense rhymes read by Miss Schmied with a musical accompaniment played by herself. The idea was charmingly carried out and the number was received with much favor.

The musicale was presented under the auspices of the Women's Alliance of the church.

Church Meetings.

Mrs. John F. Soderblom was the guest of honor at a pleasant surprise party Saturday evening at her home, 819 East Fifth street. An enjoyable evening was passed by twenty guests.

Luncheon.

Mrs. Stephen H. Jones was hostess at luncheon today at the Spalding in compliment to Mrs. Stella Prince Stocker, who will leave this week for a trip abroad. Mrs. Stocker organized the Cecilian society many years ago, and has been most active in the musical life of the city since her return, a few years ago from the East, and the guests at today's affair were the members of the society. The table decorations were in daffodils and pretty place cards, suggesting the musical feature of the affair, marked the covers. A gift from the hostess and a steamer letter from each of the society members was another delightful feature of the charmingly planned affair.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Daughters of Liberty chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Thursday afternoon of this week with Mrs. W. B. Silvey of the Spalding. The reports of the officers will be heard and the election of treasurer, registrar, historian, chaplain and two directors, will take place.

Mrs. Peterson Dies.

Mrs. F. H. Boyer of this city has received word of the death at St. Paul, Saturday, of Mrs. John Peterson, who is well known in Duluth. Mrs. Peterson and her daughter, Miss Agnes Peterson, had often visited in Duluth, and a large number of friends here were grieved to learn of her death. Mr. Peterson was a former state senator from the St. Peter district.

SEWING SCHOOL

Is Established by Twentieth Century Club Members.

A sewing school has been established at the West end, under the direction of the department of Philanthropy and Reform of the Twentieth Century club. The first meeting was held Saturday afternoon in the clubrooms, in the basement of St. Luke's Episcopal church, and the response to the invitation was beyond any expectations of the women interested in the school. At the hour for the first lesson there were between 130 and 140 young girls assembled, and the preparations in the number of teachers and the amount of material were inadequate. The school is in charge of Mrs. A. L. Agatin, and assisting her were Mrs. F. L. Barrows, Miss Amelia Andrews, Miss Ensign and Miss Alice Scott.

The school will be held each Saturday afternoon until the close of school, when some other day will probably be decided upon.

Contributions of material have been received through the courtesy of the Silberstein & Bondy and the Gray-Pallant companies, but already more material and money and workers are in demand. The very evident desire for such instruction in the neighborhood proves the need of the work, and the committee is hoping that assistance will be volunteered by Saturday of this week.

Work Is Begun.

The first of the classes of the Duluth Art school to meet with the regular instructor, C. C. Rasenkranz, met at the school today. Mr. Rosenkranz arrived in the city Saturday, and although many of the students were enrolled last week, the classes will this week begin active work. Mr. Rosenkranz is a finely schooled artist and the outlook for the work is most encouraging.

Personal Mention.

The deaconesses of the First Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Lerch of 1222 East Second street.

The members of the West Side auxiliary of the same church will receive their friends informally tomorrow afternoon in the church parlors from 3 to 5 o'clock.

• • •

• • •

Circle 2 of the Endion Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. A. W. Deetz of 1017 East Second street.

• • •

Mrs. J. B. Cotton returned yesterday from a short trip at Chicago.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Hartley have returned from a few days outing at Cass Lake.

Death Was On His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

STRIKING SECTION MEN BACK AT OLD WAGES.

Iron River, Mich., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Their pay cut from $1.50 to $1.25 a day, the section men employed in maintaining the tracks of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul company across the Chapin mine pit, went on strike at Iron Mountain. Laborers were imported from Chicago to take their places. The new men have been found unsuited to the work, and the old gang is on the payroll again at the former rate of wages.

PROHIBITIONISTS CLAIM VICTORY IN NEBRASKA.

Lincoln, Neb., April 6.—After six weeks of energetic campaigning for prohibition, the United Civic league today claimed victory at the polls tomorrow by a substantial majority. The liquor forces have been making a quiet but determined fight. The voters will pass upon the question of prohibition or daylight saloons. The league workers have prepared to challenge hundreds of voters.

Spring Opening

Duluth's Fashion Show

One of the very attractive features of our spring opening is the beautiful display of Millinery. The extensive showing, including, besides our own exclusive creations, many exquisite imported models, together with the skillful adaptation of our new designers, of extreme ideas to suit the distinctly American type of face. Hats with all the dash and style of the Parisian, but with the added charm of the expert American touch. You will find that in all our hats, graceful and becoming outlines, and artistic color blending have been made a careful study.

Opening Display of Suits and Wraps

The showing of beautiful apparel and accessories is one of rare excellence, and will be greatly appreciated for the originality of styles and the artistic execution of designs. There is hardly a garment the feminine heart could desire that cannot be found in this superb collection.

All visitors visiting this section—no matter how expectant they may be—will be impressed with the excellence of these new spring models.

What Retail Markets Offer.

Green onions, 3 bunches for 10 cents.

Bermuda onions, 3 lbs. for 25 cents.

Spanish onions, 10 cents a lb.
New potatoes, 10 cents a lb.
Blood oranges, 40 cents a dozen.
Mushrooms, 75 cents a lb.
Lamb chops, 35 cents a lb.
Hamburg steak, 15 cents a lb.
Strawberries, 10 cents a pint box.

"What's this we have," inquires the family.

"This," says the other part of the family, "is pie."

"Yes, but what kind of pie?"

"Spring-time pie," says the maker thereof.

"I know, but what's in it," says the curious one, lifting the upper crust curiously with his fork.

"Oh, eat the pie," implores the questioned half of the family, "and don't dissect it so."

"Is it strawberries," persists the questioning one.

"Of course, not. Who ever heard of strawberry pie so early in the season as this. It is rhubard pie," she admits guiltily.

"Oh, woman," inquires the family, "is there no length to which you will not go in order to bamboozle me into eating rhubarb, a thing whose name condemns it long before it has reached the inside of pie covers."

"Don't be silly," advises the woman, "and eat the pie. Because if you don't eat it tonight, you'll have to eat it tomorrow night."

"I'll be hanged if I will," says the family taking a large introductory bite.

WE REPEAT

That if a poor watch is a poor investment, a good watch is a good investment. We have never sold the cheap "bargain counter" watches, not because of any "foolish" reason, but for the very good reason that we know there is no money in them. We have a reputation to sustain, and every one we would sell would be the making one certain enemy, and that would make many more. The result would do us more harm than ten times the profit in the watch. We make a reasonable profit in good, standard watches, and every purchaser is a life-long advertisement. Don't you think we have it figured out about right?

MAYOR WILL BE OPPOSED

Some Recommendations for Garbage Distribution to Meet Disfavor.

Plans Are Not Yet Shaped for Definite Action.

Mayor Haven expects sudden opposition to his plans for garbage collection, which are not yet crystallized, but will come before the council soon. The compulsory maintenance of covered receptacles by all householders for garbage, the separation of ashes, tin cans, bottles and other indestructible substances from other garbage, and the use of airtight covered carts for the transportation of garbage, are due to arouse the most opposition, it is believed, but it is said Mayor Haven's recommendations will touch upon these things.

Duluth has long suffered from an inadequate system of collection of garbage. Mayor Haven, since he has been in office, has been studying conditions here and in other cities, and is now formulating plans for bettering the system here. He will make his recommendations as soon as they are in shape, and will personally foster any ordinances or regulations that may be necessary to carry his ideas into effect.

There is no system of collecting garbage now. People dump their refuse wherever they please, and there is nothing to stop it except the sanitary regulations of the health department. With galvanized iron receptacles in use by every householder, and galvanized iron carts, with airtight covers used for the transporting of garbage, it is believed many of the objectionable features of the present system would be done away with. The transporting of garbage through the streets in open vehicles is really more offensive than its reposing in back yards, and in that one feature much will be accomplished.

In many cities penalties are provided for failure of people to separate garbage from ashes, tin cans and other such substances. The garbage may be destroyed, but the presence of indestructible substances hinders the work. The separation will decrease the cost of removing garbage also, as the inoffensive substances may be used for fillings and deposited in places within the city, whereas the garbage must be transported outside of the city, where it will not be offensive or insanitary.

There is no disposition to establish a system of free collection of garbage. It is contended by the mayor that the citizens in general should not be taxed for the removal of large quantities of garbage for some people, and that each man should pay for his own. Acting on that basis, an effort will be made to provide regulations, and the mayor will probably have some definite plans within a few days.

DISCUSSING WAGE SCALE.

Kansas City, Mo., April 6.—Southwestern coal operators and miners' representatives met here today to discuss a new wage scale, affecting the 35,000 men now out. Leaders of both sides expressed confidence that an amicable settlement would be reached, and the men would soon be at work again, probably within another week's time.

Try This for Constipation.

Constipation prevails in almost every family. Old and young suffer alike. The matron of a great New York hospital confidently states that the following has been used for years with the utmost success, treating thousands, old and young, for acute and chronic constipation: Compound Essence Cardiol, 1 ounce Aromatic Fluid Cascara, 1 ounce, Aromatic Syrup Rhubarb, 2 ounces.

Dose—One-half to one teaspoonful after each meal. Children less, according to age.

Get the ingredients at any well-stocked drug store, mix them and find instant relief, and a permanent cure.

RAILROAD NEWS

SURPLUSES DECREASE

Better Conditions Noted in the General Railroad Situation.

More Cars Being Brought Into Use Right Along.

According to a comparative statement of car surpluses and shortages from October until the end of March, received by some of the local railway offices this morning, there has been an improvement in the general situation, the report showing a decrease of 17,960 in the number of surplus cars.

This decrease is mostly covered in the coal car figures, the only other improvement of any consequence appearing in the flat cars, which decrease is more than offset by the increase in miscellaneous cars. A few groups show decreases in all classes of cars, indicating an actual improvement in all lines of traffic in the particular sections affected.

The southern, middle and southwestern parts of the country show such improvements, especially the North Mississippi valley states, which of course, include Minnesota. In the New England states, and with all the Canadian roads, the car surpluses continue to increase, indicating that general business conditions there are getting worse instead of better, while in this part of the country an improvement is being noted.

Duluth wholesalers and jobbers are using about as many freight cars in their business now as they were a year ago at this time, the only difference with them being that in many instances the individual shipments are not so large. A dealer at an interior point, for example, may order half a carload of goods, where in the spring of 1907 his order called for a carload. There is a hesitancy on the part of the interior dealers in stocking up for the spring and summer trade. They seem to be afraid of getting more goods on hand than they can readily dispose of. This feeling was not manifest last spring, and consequently the railroads were handling more carload shipments. The condition does not necessarily indicate hard times, say the railroad men, but means only precautionary measures on the part of the merchants.

Canadian Pacific Will Build New Line Through Mountains.

Winnipeg, Man., April 6.—The Canadian Pacific railway has decided to build a second railway line through the Rocky Mountains to the Pacific coast. Land on Hardy Bay, in the northern part of Vancouver has been secured as a terminus. The road will connect with the line running from here to Edmonton.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c.

REFERRED TO GOVERNOR.

Plight of Michael Kane is Submitted to Chief Executive.

St. Paul, April 6.—Governor Johnson late Saturday received from V. H. Metcalf, secretary of the navy, a communication calling attention to the plight of Michael H. Kane of the marine corps service, who was recently brought from Mare Island, Cal., to Duluth to answer to the charge of illegal voting. Kane was acquitted, taken in charge by the recruiting officer and sent back to California, but the expense of his transportation, $28.35, was charged to his account. This will take more than two months' salary from Kane. Mr. Metcalf wants to know whether the state cannot reimburse Kane for this amount, as his whole trouble was caused by a Minnesota state charge, of which the man proved to be innocent. The governor has taken the matter under advisement with the attorney general.

BOLOT IS RELEASED

Judge Dibell Dismisses Indictment Charging Him With Murder.

State Has No Evidence to Warrant an Immediate Trial.

The indictment of murder in the second degree against Henry Bolot of West Duluth was dismissed by Judge Dibell this morning and Bolot was discharged from custody.

This action of the court followed a conference with County Attorney J. H. Norton for the state and C. O. Baldwin, attorney for the defendant.

Mr. Baldwin insisted that the case against his client be brought on for trial at the present term of the district court, as Bolot had been confined in jail nearly two months following the shooting of Magloire Charbonneau, his landlord, and he should be entitled to a speedy trial or released.

Mr. Norton stated that the state did not have enough evidence to warrant it going on with the trial at the present time. He stated that the police are still investigating the matter and that they have a clue which may develop something important in connection with the case, but which is in too indefinite a shape at the present time to disclose.

Taking this view of the situation, Judge Dibell said there was nothing else to be done but to dismiss the indictment and release Bolot, which he did.

The dismissal of the indictment does not bar the state from bringing the matter to the attention of some future grand jury and having another indictment returned, providing the grand jury is satisfied there is good reason for a prosecution. It is claimed that the last grand jury had but little to work on in arriving at a conclusion to return an indictment against Bolot.

Mr. Baldwin says that Bolot is anxious to go to work, that his former position with Elliott & Co., is open to him, and the defendant is anxious to begin work.

Mr. Norton said he was satisfied that Bolot would not go away and that it would be easy to get him again if future contingences demand his arrest.

Bolot was arrested about midnight, Feb. 8, on the charge of shooting and killing Magloire Charbonneau, his landlord. He admitted the shooting, but claimed that he did it in self defense, that Charbonneau came into his room with a hatchet and was about to strike him, Bolot, when he seized his revolver and fired. The bullet passed through Charbonneau's heart. Bolot's story of self defense was corroborated by Mrs. Charbonneau, who claims that she attempted to prevent her husband from entering Bolot's room. It is claimed that the noise of the struggle between Mr. and Mrs. Charbonneau awakened Bolot.

Jealousy on the part of Charbonneau is alleged to be the cause for the tragedy.

NO LINES ON COUNCIL ACTION

Mayor's Appointments Rest in Hands of the Democrats.

The probable action of the council tonight in regard to the mayor's appointments is being speculated about in the corridors of the city hall with evidences of everybody being at sea. There is no disposition to make a forecast. Another postponement of action for a week or more would surprise nobody and few would be greatly surprised at either favorable or unfavorable action on them. The Democrats are playing a deep game, saying nothing, but they have undoubtedly made up their mines as to what they will do, and will stick together. Alderman McKnight will be absent on the Republican side, but if the Democrats wish to act his presence would make no difference, as the Democrats have a sufficient number to prevent confirmation if they choose.

It is probable that Alderman Moore's ordinance providing for the removal of screens and curtains on saloons during closing hours will not be reported tonight. Alderman McKnight, chairman of the committee, is out of the city and there may be no report on it. Alderman Foubister's resolution increasing the license fee of employment offices from $100 to $500 will probably be reported and killed, as it is said to be out of line with the state law.

WILSON IS RECOVERING

Suberb Physique of Alleged Murderer Will Pull Him Through.

Some of the Feats of Strength He Performed.

Thanks to his splendid physical development, Henry Wilson, who a week ago Friday morning brutally shot and killed his young wife in a fit of jealous rage, and who is now at St. Luke's hospital, as a result of his attempt to take his own life, is reported to be gradually recovering and in all probability will stand trial for the murder he is claimed to have committed.

The bullet with which Wilson went to end his life tore a hole in his neck, and probably would have proved fatal for most men. But Wilson, though he suffered intensely from the wound, withstood its shock, and in a little over a week is able to walk about, eats heartily, and enjoys his pipe occasionally.

There has been no attempt made to operate for the bullet which is thought to be located somewhere in the region of the shoulders near the spine.

Wilson is a man of remarkable strength, a big brawny, bullnecked fellow, with his six feet of muscle topped by a shock of brick red hair. Last September on Labor day, it is said that he gave an exhibition of his strength at Fairmount Park, where he was advertised to perform as Prof. Wilson, "The Glass Eater." At the exhibition, dressed in tights, he is said to have lifted a 40-gallon barrel, filled with water with his teeth, and ate pieces of glass and chewed tin cans. To his remarkable muscular development, Wilson's rapid steps toward recovery are most likely due.

HENRY BOLOT.

POWER IS WASTED.

Splendid Moral and Physical Energies Misapplied, Says Pastor.

"The world is full of power, wealth and supplies for the whole race," said Rev. J. A. Lumley in a sermon at Plymouth Congregational church last evening. "It is absolutely crowded with good things for the human family. The supply is lavish. The hills, the mines, the seas, the lakes, the air and the sky teem with rich treasures for the sons of men.

"These vast possessions are divinely intended for the common good of the common people. But, alas, this great provision for our human needs is being wasted, or in other words, it is being misapplied, while untold millions are on the verge of starvation. I remark that incalculable power is going to waste because of misapplication or non-control.

"I stood beside the falling waters of the rushing Niagara and beheld the great force pressing on, unused, going to waste. For all the centuries it had been waiting the coming of some one who would harness it down and bring its mighty power under control—to simply apply its great strength to the common welfare of the people.

"I have thought of the splendid energies of our American young manhood, and who can successfully estimate their powers, yet also in too many cases they are but powers misapplied—shamefully wasted talents and ill adjusted energies, so many young men evolving into an unimportant appendix to the wet end of a cigarette. Many of our young women are wasting their time, powers and cash on the superuseless titled degeneracy of the foreign lands, selling all for an empty name, a name with the horrors of a subsequent divorce.

"The power of wealth is often alarmingly misapplied.

"Money is one of the mightiest of forces—the railroads spanning the continent and bringing the ends of the earth in touch with each other. The greatest means of civilization are the evidences of the power of money. The systems naval, military and commercial tell of the power of cash. The schools, hospitals, church and organizations benevolent speak of the forcefulness of the almighty dollar. But sad to relate, this great force is often found going to waste or misapplied. Statistics declare that $2,500,000,000 is annually spent for strong drink, $750,000,000 for tobacco, $11,000,000 for chewing gum, $178,000,000 for confectionery, $700,000,000 for jewelry and plate, $80,000,000 for millinery and $400,000,000 for amusements.

Besides these vast sums, which in a great measure are misapplied, one cannot but think of the gathered and hoarded piles of gold and silver cornered by the modern financiers—the Shylocks of the times. These men may disclaim all relation to the needy social world. They may repudiate the family bond and stubbornly refuse to affiliate, but the ruin of the nation will not be delayed because of the cherished contempt for the existing facts.

"Society, though made up of individuals, is one body having its various members, each member being vitally related to all the others. As the various members of the human body are needful and have their functions to perform, so each member of the social body must needs perform its office work. Injury to any one member of the body means suffering for all of the body. This is a potent and significant fact whether we appreciate it or not. Diseased members of the body will send fatality to the vitals and death will follow. Social conditions which cause starvation will cause crime. Crime will produce ruinous social degeneracy and ultimate death. Thus the whole social body must be kept healthy and strong in order that the complete system may live.

"The church is—or ought to be—the regulating force in the rectification of the social and industrial ills of the times. The church ought to be the mightiest power on the face of the earth, but it is frequently contending for mere ecclesiastical supremacy rather than for the industrial and moral elevation of the whole social family. It frequently anathematizes the systems of science forgetting that science is but a search for truth. There is a vast difference between the teachings of Christ and the doctrines of many a modern church. All the powers of wisdom, talents, gold, state and church must enter into relations of holy co-operativeness. The spirit of Jesus Christ will transform all lives—quickening into divinest manhood all the sons of men, bringing the bondsmen forth to liberty, the burden bearers to kingship, making all life holy—and all labor divine. Thus the social and economic difficulties will vanish before the advancing steps of the kingly man."

The New Silks

A wonderful silk season is on—every woman seems bent on having at least one new silk gown, and bent on getting it here!

We've had to move our Silk Department from the front to the center of the store in the hope of getting more space for our big stock—and more room to accommodate those who wish to buy here!

There are rough silks—there are foulards—there are novelties galore—all with that "tone" and individuality most desired by women who know and want the best! Let us show you the following along with the other sorts at which we've hinted above!

FINE WASH TAFFETAS

See them for that tailored gown or waist—firm weave—dull tailor finish—and splendid wearing—shown in the new spring colors and black and cream—made up most effectively—they're inexpensive, too!

Think of a good dependable silk—27 inches wide, for $1 per yard.

DAINTY FRENCH CHALLIES

New effects in Persian and tiny floral designs. You have had trouble no doubt in finding just the right things for dressing sacques, house gowns or girls' dresses—the patterns are neat and come in beautiful colorings—fine quality—59c and 69c the yard.

These are the imported styles—you know the colorings are so pretty and permanent!

Duluth's Loveliest Laces

They're here—no doubt about that. "Women who know," say so! Do you know? Then enjoy these.

FANCY BLACK SILKS

There's quite a demand for them. To those ladies who always wear black, they offer a change and give a rich, dressy effect in gowns or waists.

Tiny stripes, dots of various sizes—checks and brocaded effects are shown. Why not consider them for that new gown or waist — you'll appreciate them—priced from $1 to $2 a yard.

POPULAR BLACK SUITINGS

We show the kinds that tailor best, and keep their shape when made up—they have that deep rich black that is always admired. The weaves and styles are the newest—among them are checks and stripes of different sizes.

You'll find the kinds here suited for dressy or general wear at prices you'll be glad to pay!

The Gray-Tallant Millinery is Even Finer Than Ever Before.

And prices are just as reasonable as ever! That's why we get the big business now coming here.

TUGS ARE FITTED OUT.

No Orders Have Yet Been Received for Shipping.

Most of the tugs are in readiness to be used when orders come for putting into commission the boats that have wintered at the Head of the Lakes. So far, however, the tug office has received no orders for the use of the tugs. It is expected that some of the tugs will be placed in use by the latter part of this week.

None of the vessel owners at this end of the lake seem to be in any particular hurry to get their boats in readiness for the season. Most of the owners are convinced that there is going to be an unusually late season, and that there remains the settlement of the wage scale with the seamen's union, as well as the firemen and cooks. Until the lake carriers effect a settlement with the vessel employes there is little likelihood that very many of the vessel owners up here will seriously contemplate the opening of general navigation.

DIES FROM WOUND.

New York, April 6.—Mrs. Rose Randall, who was shot in the face by her husband, Everett W. Randall, in their home in Brooklyn a week ago, died in a hospital today of her wounds. Randall and his wife had quarreled and she was telephoning for help when he shot her in the face, breaking her jaw. He then killed himself.

West Duluth Briefs.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Plymouth Congregational church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. C. R. Keyes, 705 North Fifty-seventh avenue west.

Opening Days Continued

Tuesday and Wednesday

These days are devoted to a special showing of

Millinery Garments, Fabrics and Dress Accessories

It's a general throwing open of the various stocks for inspection, and we cordially invite you to come and make free of the store. Our idea is to have you come in and look us over. To get acquainted with the new things, as it were. Come. We'll try and make you feel at home.

FOR EASTER!

Beautiful Easter Millinery

We take quite a pride in our Millinery Department, which is on the third floor, and we believe we have a good reason for that feeling. Everybody says it's the prettiest and best adapted for display purposes, of any room in the city. There's not a dark corner anywhere. Our present showing is a very attractive one. We have made strong efforts to combine the artistic with the practical, and judging by the comments of hundreds of people who visited the department today, we believe we must have succeeded fairly well. All Hats are not all high-priced, however, and we call your special attention to the pretty and stylish models which we are showing at from $5.00 to $10.00.

Stylish Easter Suits

The sales which we make today on the first day of our formal opening, and the flattering remarks which were made on the showing, gives us a renewed feeling of confidence in the lines which we selected. And while we do not claim to have the largest stocks, nor the highest priced costumes to be found, still we wish to impress on you the fact, that we have today the very best values in all of the very latest styles, and in the newest of the new fabrics in suits at a moderate price, and by these, we mean those which run in price from $15 to $50. Now don't take our word for it, come and compare. We're glad to show you.

BUSINESS AND THE GOLDEN RULE.

In the current Saturday Evening Post appears an interesting compendium of the views of about thirty prominent business men in various parts of the country on the relationship of the Golden Rule to business. Each of these men was asked four questions, and the answers are frank and encouraging.

First, "is the Golden Rule practical in the business world?" To this question every one answered in the affirmative. Not one said that it is impractical, and most of them are very emphatic in saying that it is eminently practical; that, indeed, it is essential to real and lasting business success. One says that it is entirely practical, but that it is "seldom associated with the rapid acquirement of a large fortune." Another says that money acquired by its violation is not success. Not one, therefore, opposed the Golden Rule; but it was hardly to be expected that one would. A few cunning, crafty fools seek to profit by reversing it, but they never gain real and abiding success thereby.

Second, "are there any commercial methods sanctioned by trade which do not square with the teachings of Christianity? For example, must a man lie or misrepresent to succeed?" The answers to these questions are also encouragingly vigorous and unanimous. It is admitted by many that there are business practices that are unchristian, but it is denied that they are sanctioned by trade and that they ever yield real success. The concensus is that to lie and to misrepresent are the surest ways to failure. R. Fulton Cutting, philanthropist and corporation official, says that the prevailing rate of wages does not permit a standard of living that Christians believe every man is entitled to.

The third and most practical question is "What are the great evils in the business world?" Five said that there are no more than in other lines of activity, and that the evils are exaggerated. Three said misrepresentation is the worst evil. Four said the worst thing is the pursuit of wealth for wealth's sake and the get-rich-quick fever. One said the chief evil is the lack of better acquaintance between employer and employe. Another said it is lack of high ideals. Another said it is unjust treatment of labor, still another said it is the temptation to speculate, and two said it is graft in employer and employe. The Waltham Watch company said it is "the assumption that the accumulation of money by any means constitutes success." John Wanamaker said the evils are "overtrading, concealment, neglect of business and the drink habit." John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company said the chief evils are "excessive optimism, leading to extravagant undertakings, and excessive pessimism, leading to suspicion of the honesty of others."

The fourth question was whether business standards are higher now than when these men entered business. Sixteen said they are clearly higher; two said there is no change; two said they are lower; three said they are "no lower, and possibly higher;" one couldn't say.

The chief evil in business is the attempt to measure success by money-getting, which is as often a measure of real failure as it is of real success.

THE "GAG RULE."

Saturday the Republican majority in the house, irritated by the presumption of the minority in pursuing obstructive tactics to enforce the adoption of certain measures, adopted a sweeping cloture rule which destroys what little freedom of debate there was remaining, and which is designed to gag and bind the Democratic minority.

This was done by producing a rule to suit the occasion from the speaker's rules committee, and forcing it through by a party vote. This action increases the speaker's powers, already autocratic, and practically eliminates the powers of the minority, which were already slender.

If this harsh action were taken in the interests of legislation for the people it could be forgiven. But it should be remembered that it is not done to facilitate legislation, but to retard it. The minority had been seeking to enforce consideration of certain measures recommended by the president and demanded by the people. The Republican majority, shackled by base serfdom to a power dominated by the large interests, had been working to prevent legislation of any sort. The gag rules that have been adopted are designed, therefore, to block the legislative machine.

The condition in the house points the need of a new deal, which can only be secured by defeating for reelection the men who have sold their constituents and have stultified themselves by a shameful subservience to the speakership autocracy.

A DANGEROUS CONDITION.

Another anarchistic paper, the Nihil, published in New York, has been suppressed. It was right that it should be suppressed, because Nihil preached murder and violence, and the doctrine of a free press was never designed to cover such an abuse of freedom.

Yet the case further accents the lameness of the federal laws in this respect, since Nihil, like La Questione Sociale, had to be suppressed by a distortion of the law.

It is necessary that such papers should be suppressed, but it is establishing a dangerous precedent to suppress them except in compliance with recognized law. If the authority of the postoffice department can be exerted to suppress such papers as these without specific law providing for their suppression, that authority can be extended further to suppress almost any kind of publication preaching ideas that the postmaster general does not approve. And if the precedent is permitted to become fixed, the time will come when it will be abused as viciously as Nihil and La Questione Sociale have abused the privileges of a free press.

As The Herald said in discussing the case of La Questione Sociale, what is needed is a law specifically covering such abuses. The only law in force now covers indecent and immoral publications, and this has had to be stretched to cover dangerously inflammatory publications. If it can be stretched in this manner it can be stretched to cover Socialist papers, Prohibition papers or women's rights papers, if the postmaster general in power happens to be bitterly opposed to the ideas they inculcate.

While a law is needed, the Penrose bill, now pending in the senate, is distinctly not the kind of measure that is needed, and it is distinctly the kind of measure that should never be permitted to become law. It simply leaves it to the discretion of the postoffice department whether a publication should be permitted to go through the mails or not.

This would establish in the postoffice department a press censorship that would involve tremendous power—too much power for any official to have.

Our liberties are founded upon free speech and a free press, and this is no time to undermine either of these foundations. In view of the conflict at hand between rich and powerful special privilege and the rights of the people, it is the worst time in the history of the country to introduce such a dangerous innovation.

The Penrose bill should be killed, and a law should be passed specifying the exact reasons for which publications may be suppressed. This law should, of course, cover newspapers that preach violence, arson and destruction of life and property. But the postoffice department should not have power to suppress newspapers in its discretion, unless we want a press censorship in this country that is certain to be abused in the interests of corporate greed.

Furthermore, any law that is adopted must provide for appeal to the courts from the rulings of the postoffice department.

THE OIL SCANDAL.

The state is not at all proud of the recent revelations concerning the conduct of the office of state oil inspector. Nevertheless the state authorities have a duty to perform which they are undertaking conscientiously, and which they will undoubtedly pursue to its logical outcome, whatever that may be.

It was clearly the intent of the legislature that the state should get all the fees, and that the inspector should content himself with the ample salary provided by law. Yet it was recently divulged that Inspector McDermott had retained fees amounting to something like $6,000, which he had returned when the public examiner probed his accounts and discovered the shortage. McDermott having stated that he followed the example of his predecessor, a further examination disclosed the fact, as reported in The Herald Saturday evening, that Former Inspector Warner had apparently helped himself to fees amounting to twice McDermott's haul, which have not been refunded to the state.

We shall probably hear less of the political aspect of the case than we have been hearing, since while McDermott was a Democratic appointee, Warner was a Republican appointee, and since while Warner went through his term undetected, discovery and restitution came in the Democratic administration.

Warner's action did not justify McDermott in copying it if it was wrong. The matter should and will be thoroughly probed. If the taking of fees was merely an "indiscretion," restitution should be enforced in both cases and a repetition of the scandal made impossible. If it was criminal, both men should be sent to the bar of justice and there properly punished for their betrayal of trust.

DIED FROM SHAME.

Not long ago a New York jury took into the jury room a personal injury case against a corporation. The majority favored the injured man, but an obstinate minority held out. Finally one of the latter suggested that a coin be flipped to settle it, and it was done. The plaintiff lost, and a verdict was returned for the corporation. The judge heard about it, arraigned the jurors severely, fined each of them $50, and ordered a new trial, as a result of which the plaintiff secured a substantial verdict. The Herald told all about this at the time, and in common with most of the other newspapers of the country expressed its contempt of this method of securing "justice."

There is a pathetic aftermath to this story in the case of John W. Casey, one of the jurors in the first trial, who has just died of a broken heart because of the disgrace attached to him by the incident. The New York World thus relates the story:

"Mr. Casey was an iron moulder. He had lived forty-three years in his district and was of social and political consequence there. Never until February had he been drawn for jury service. After sitting through the case he returned home pleased and proud, as he thought, over duty done. Then came the tale of the flipped coin and the arraignment before a wrathful judge. In the fire of scornful censure from the bench Casey withered. The flower of his self-respect was scorched away. 'Soon,' he said, 'if I cannot forget, I shall die.' And he could not forget."

So Casey died, crushed, broken, shamed. His friends are justifying his action because he said, before he died: "They told me cases were often settled that way." And he knew better only when he stood, as he considered, disgraced hopelessly and bringing disgrace upon family and friends.

There is vast pathos in the story of Casey's death. The act of those jurors was a hideous travesty upon justice, and the judge was right in punishing them and in scorching them with indignant upbraiding. Yet Casey has paid with his life for his sin, and the manner of his death shows that he was no conscienceless man such as one would naturally picture doing a thing such as he did in submitting to the arbitrament of chance when his duty required him to give justice according to his judgment.

Yet it is hard to reconcile the conscientiousness of a man who could be crushed by shame, as this man was crushed, with the thoughtlessness of a man who would decide an important issue of justice by the flipping of a coin, as this man did. It is hard to believe that it is possible for a man of mature years to fail to see that it is wrong to decide between a poor hurt man and the company that injured him by the flipping of a coin. If the plaintiff was entitled to a verdict, he should have it; if the company was entitled to a verdict, it should have it. It were quite as unjust to decide for the plaintiff wrongfully as to decide unfairly for the company; the fact that the man is poor and the company rich is not to be considered. Yet Casey mocked justice, and died with the shame of it. It is a curious and tragic freak of human nature.

The wonder still grows how the Republican convention in Speaker Cannon's district dared declare that "the tariff is not sacred."

HOTEL GOSSIP.

A resident of Duluth was telling a hard luck story in the lobby of the St. Louis hotel. The incident occurred while the teller was for the time being a victim of being "broke." A companion and he were hitting the road. The story places the incident as occuring not very far from Erie, Pa.

The two weary, foot sore and hungry men saw an old man approaching in the distance and resolved to strike him for a touch. The nearer he approached the higher grew the hopes of the two men. He had kindly features, while the benevolent expression of his face argued well for the success of the touch.

All possible pathos was thrown into the story. The young man wept as he told the old gentleman of their desperate condition. He pictured aged parents worrying over their boys, their own hunger and desire to eat home. Then the touch was worked in a voice that fairly shook with tremulous sobs. Things looked well.

The old gentleman reached for his pocketbook. Slowly he unwound a string which encircled its obesity. Slowly he felt among the crisp bills. Slowly he drew forth a coin. Hope hung breathlessly.

"Here, my boys," he exclaimed, "is a penny. Send a postal card to your parents letting them know where you are."

Its awfully hard walking in the Erie district.

According to the statement of a furniture man, who was at the Lenox last Saturday, Grand Rapids has not been visibly affected by the money stringency. According to his statement, the banks are receiving deposits, money is easy, and credit not hard to get. He accounts for this condition, opposed to conditions in many cities just at the present time, by heavy business that the furniture mills and factories have been doing all through the year. None of the mills or factories have closed through the condition of the money market, and very few of them have laid off any of their employes. Under these conditions, then, it is not difficult to see why the Michigan town should be enjoying such prosperity in the midst of times when her sister cities have to a more or less degree been affected.

D. H. Wickersham of Seattle, who is at the St. Louis, states that indications pointing to the success of the Yukon exhibition are very promising, and those in charge of the exhibition are very sanguine. The tightening up of the money market, together with the labor troubles conspired against the success of the carrying out of the fair. However, Mr. Wickersham says that the men in charge of the different departments have gone ahead with an energy and wisdom that has defied the difficulties that confronted them. At the present time, he states that the progress is such that every promise made by the managers will be carried out. It is believed by those in charge of the exhibition that the attendance will measure up the quality of the show.

Mr. Wickersham says Seattle business men are taking great pride in the exhibition. They realize that many visitors will be attracted to the coast by the show that is to be composed largely by the products and mineral resources from our Alaskan possession. This will be an opportunity for the Northern people to show what they have in their country besides the yellow metal that all the world has read about. Mr. Wickersham says that the men in charge of the Alaskan exhibit intend to make it as comprehensive as possible, giving attention to every exhibit.

They expect a great crowd, and the business men of Seattle are preparing to entertain it in a truly Western way. Mr. Wickersham says those making the trip to the coast with in the intention of witnessing the Yukon exhibition, will not be disappointed either in the show or the way they are treated by the citizens of Seattle. They are preparing to welcom all visitors with the firm grip of Western hospitality.

W. H. Lavalle of Chicago, at the Lenox, states that the hotel men of the Windy City are expecting the greatest crowd in the history of any Republican national convention to be in attendance at the approaching Chicago convention. The dramatic possibilities of the convention, together with the idea that Theodore Roosevelt will be nominated, will be the means of attracting an unprecedented attendance, says Mr. Lavalle.

Johnson's Creditable Attitude.

Utica, N. Y., Press: That is a very dignified and creditable attitude which Governor Johnson of Minnesota takes with reference to the Democratic nomination for the presidency. When asked outright about it he says, that he will not seek the nomination, will make no campaign, pull no wires, have no organization, and will do nothing affirmatively to obtain what Mr. Bryan is seeking so openly and so assiduously. The governor says on the other hand that if the Democrats at their national convention in Denver should nominate him and thus formally ask him to become their standard-bearer he will do so and feel honored by the request. More than that, he says he is for the nominee of that convention, whoever he is, and pledges him his unqualified support. That is putting it as well as any man can, and makes Mr. Johnson shine conspicuously by comparison with some of the other candidates.

THE WEATHER.

Yesterday and today were ideal spring days. It was clear, the sun shone warmly, and only a playful wind marred the perfection of conditions. Last night a light warm rain fell, and this morning growing things were to be noticed; the tiny pale green cotyledons of the summer's plant life began to show their timid heads. It was a brilliant Sunday, and the homes gave up their humanity to breath its glorious air. Last night's lowest temperature was 34 degs., and yesterday it got up to 62 degs. The weather man says it is likely to be more or less threatening tonight and tomorrow.

A year ago today it was cool and cloudy, with a slight snowfall.

The sun rose this morning at 5:37, and sets tonight at 6:42, making 13 hours and 7 minutes of sunlight.

Says Mr. Richardson of conditions: "Shallow barometric depressions overlie Lake Superior, Alberta, Colorado and Utah, rains resulting Sunday or last night in most districts east of the Mississippi river and in Oregon and Washington. Moderate temperatures are the rule in the Central valleys and most of the Lake region. The barometer is high over Saskatchewan, Manitoba, the lower Ohio valley and Oregon. Somewhat colder weather attends the high barometer overlying the region north of the Dakotas. The distribution of pressure favors more or less cloudiness and perhaps some threatening weather in this locality tonight and Tuesday."

A Newspaper's Greatest Asset.

Editor and Publisher: The greatest asset any newspaper can have is that intangible and yet exceedingly valuable thing known as goodwill. Nothing is harder to get or so easily lost. Some publishers have spent millions of dollars trying to gain it, but have failed utterly. Others have won it practically without the expenditure of a single dollar. The successful newspapers of today were not born yesterday. They were established—the most of them—many years ago and have attained their present position by patient, perserving and intelligent hard work. Goodwill is based on public confidence and confidence comes only after trial.

Hence no newspaper can expect, under ordinary circumstances, to have the loyal support of its public as soon as it is launched. It must be tested in the crucible of experience; it must prove its right to exist. Promises count for nothing; it is their faithful performance that inspires confidence and wins support.

The newspaper that touches the goal line is the one that is honestly conducted in the interests of the community it serves. It stands for political as well as moral righteousness. It protects its public from fraud, graft and evil whenever it has the opportunity to do so. It wears no collar, is no man's organ and doesn't flinch when danger threatens. It does its level best to help the people to think right, to do right and to get the best there is out of life. It supports good men for office and opposes the unworthy even though they may be nominees of its own party.

A newspaper of this kind after awhile wins the confidence and esteem of the public. People believe in it and take it to their hearts. It comes to them every morning or evening as a friend laden with good things. They feel that the news it brings is reliable and that its editorial opinions are honest, even though they do not always agree with them.

Out of this intimate relationship comes goodwill, that most important of all newspaper assets which often represents nine-tenths of its value.

The Next Wave of Prosperity.

Henry B. Mulford in The World Today: "A thing usually lost sight of is that last year the products of the American farms were valued at approximately seven and one-quarter billions of dollars.

Pause a moment to consider how many steel corporations, railroads and cities this amount of wealth would supply for a year. Nor has the country stopped grinding out this wealth. In 1908 this production doubtless will exceed that of 1907. Where is this wealth going if not into general consumption? And what does this consumption mean but transportation, new equipment needs for railroads, new orders for equipment shops and rail mills, and so on around the endless chain of supply and demand?

After one of our previous panics, when practically every element now present in the situation was plainly visible, the president of one of the largest railways operating out of Chicago expressed the petulant wish that he had not an outstanding order for a new car or for a pound of new rails. Within six weeks the whole country had the signal that the onward march had been resumed, and this railroad president came into an advancing market for additional supplies for his road.

We have had a panic, true; but it is an ill wind that blows nobody good, and after having cried for years for cheaper labor and materials, and, at the same time, having iterated and reiterated that the railroads of the country alone can not possibly be financed fast enough to meet the needs of posterity, are the railroad magnates going to overlook present opportunities in the investment, labor and material markets

The signs of the times are so plain that he who runs may read, and they point to another wave of prosperity.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

"JOHNSON OF MINNESOTA."

Fairmont Sentinel: It is amusing to observe how some of the Republican newspapers which for a dozen years have ridiculed and villified Mr. Bryan and every reform he advocated, are now declaring him great and good and expressing great concern because the majority of Democrats favor giving Governor Johnson the Minnesota delegation.

Thief River Falls Press: Bryan for president sounds good to a few vest pocket politicians, but Johnson has a hold on the rank and file as well as most of the leaders in Minnesota, and the delegation is sure to be solidly for the state's favorite Democratic son.

Orionville Herald-Star: Anyway Minnesota is coming nearer to a try at the presidency through a Democrat than she ever did through a Republican.

Crookston Times: While Minnesota Republicans would from party reasons much prefer the nomination of Bryan, they will not feel bad should an honor come to the state by having a presidential candidate, no matter if there is absolutely no hope of his election.

Floodwood Broadaxe (Bryan): W. J. Bryan could no more call off his friends in this state than he could fly. The Bryan Democrats are not of the call-off kind.

Albert Lea Standard: Certain men who are rampageously pretending to champion Bryan in this state, but who make it only a thin disguise for the promotion of their selfish ambition for power and spoils, are waging a campaign of personal detraction and seeking to discredit Governor Johnson, hoping to control the Democratic state convention, prevent his being honored with the indorsement of Minnesota for president and, regardless of consequences, to seize control of the party and satisfy their resentments. Their shameless crusade will ingloriously fail of its purpose so far as Governor Johnson and his administration is concerned, but that Bryan should be thus misrepresented and discredited is as unfortunate as it certainly is offensive to him, but he cannot well squelch the marplots, as he undoubtedly would be glad to do, for we are confident he is entirely willing that Governor Johnson shall have the delegation from this state. And Mr. Bryan should not be blamed in the least for this rank raid against Governor Johnson, and he is not blamed by the latter or his friends who, too, as time will prove, are his more devoted and trustworthy friends and more truly loyal to his cause.

Washington Herald: The John A. Johnson boom is moving along. Already a number of newspapers refer to him as "John Albert Johnson!"

Detroit News: So far as Wall street is concerned the Johnson stock is not in the ascendent. But he has succeeded in saving himself from annihilation politically, by avoiding the beckoning hand of the East, and he is still available as a possible nominee.

New Ulm Review: A man by the name of Dunn is to nominate Bryan in the Denver convention. Anything that savors of Dunn ought to be nuts for Johnson.

Bryan and Johnson.

Cincinnati Enquirer: The Omaha World-Herald has been classified as the personal organ of William J. Bryan. The classification may be wrong. That paper says "If Governor Johnson and the old Parker gang that is backing him should succeed in defeating Bryan's nomination, Johnson's nomination would be the last thing that would come of it. If Bryan should be beaten, his following in the convention would never turn to the man who lent his name to the discredited plotters, who today are directing their fire against the strength and success of the Democratic party."

Mr. Bryan is too well educated in politics to select an organ that plays so out of tune. It is not Mr. Bryan's fault, but he has the misfortune to have attached to him a lot of amateur journalists who think that the way to advance his interests is to denounce and lie about other public men whose Democratic admirers are urging them for leadership. Johnson, Bryan and all of them are entitled to their chances for the leadership of the Democratic party, and it is pressing the matter impertinently to assume that Mr. Bryan is the owner of the Democracy and that every other ambition must grimly lie down before his chariot. What school of common politeness and decency was the Omaha World-Herald raised in? What is its provocation for speaking of "the old Parker gang?" Wouldn't it be just as reasonable to say that the "old Bryan gang" that played treacherously to Parker is now opposed to Johnson?

The devotees of the doctrines which Mr. Bryan promotes should not have a rank quarrel with Governor Johnson on some of the newer questions which are now playing great part in the public consideration. The governor is a sectional candidate in about the same sense that Mr. Bryan is. They are both from the Northwest, which is the birthplace of many "new ideas," some of which work their way into regular codes of principles, and more of which bring Democracy into travail by association.

Don't throw stones. The canvass is at the danger period. The rocks are coming from all directions, and flying viciously. Mr. Bryan is not too sacred to avoid intercepting some of them.

BIDS FOR TEW COURTHOUSE

Will be Advertised Monday and Opened May 11.

Advertising for bids for the general contract for the new St. Louis county courthouse will be begun Monday. The bids will be opened on May 11, and the contract awarded shortly after that time, so that actual construction work should be begun before June 1.

This was decided upon at a meeting of the courthouse commission, held this morning. The board will be in possession of thirty-two sets of the detailed plans and specifications by Saturday of this week. Thirty of these sets will be available for contractors.

MAKES BIG SALE OF MATCH TIMBER

Henry Turrish's Company Will Furnish Much Idaho Pine.

The Potlatch Lumber company, which operates some large mills at Potlatch, Idaho, and in which Henry Turrish of this city is interested, has made a sale of about 40,000,000 feet of pine annually for a period of ten years, to the Diamond Match company of Wisconsin. The pine will be manufactured into matches. It is said that the deal was made on the basis of a sliding scale of prices. It is claimed that the 40,000,000 feet per year is the minimum quantity agreed on and that deliveries are likely to run much over that amount every year.

TEST OF THE WOOD PILE

Should be Given Every Applicant for Food, Says Chief.

Ministers Hear Talk on Bread Line—Rev. Lumley Objects.

"Peaked shoes, badly frayed out and hand-me-down clothes from some second-hand store are the ear-marks of the tramp, while working men are usually dressed as working men, in mackinaws and thick boots, and most of the men in the bread line are working men," said Chief of Police Troyer to the ministers this morning.

When Chief of Police Troyer, in the course of his talk to the members of the Duluth Ministerial association at the library this noon, spoke of "bums, hoboes and mendicants," he aroused the feelings of Rev. J. A. Lumley of West Duluth.

That gentleman arose to his feet after the chief had finished speaking and roundly scored him for his choice of nouns.

"No man has the right to call another man a bum or a mendicant," he shouted dramatically, and then launched forth into a declaration of his ideas on the subject of alms-giving and preaching. He opined that ministers who said "be careful when you give," or tell your flocks to be careful when they give, were getting away from the teachings of their own philosophers.

"Jesus Christ would never have put the people to work with saws and bucks before performing a miracle and relieving their hunger," said the West Duluth clergyman in conclusion.

It was evident that Mr. Troyer and a great majority of those present at the meeting did not agree with Rev. Lumley that the best plan of giving alms was without the proviso of making the applicant do a little toil in return for the meal, the bed, or the money he received.

"I would like to ask the reverend gentleman," said the chief, "what he would call a man who would go from house to house begging for money on the plea of having a broken arm or some other deformity and when as a matter of truth his arms or his legs are just as sound as anyone's and he is merely working a ruse, and imposing upon honest people. I should call him a mendicant."

"The Bread Line" was the general topic under discussion at the ministers' meeting today and the chief gave his views on the subject. He said he was heartily in favor of the plan of making the men work in a wood yard or some other place for their meals, and declared himself of the opinion that the 180 men or so, who received tickets Saturday for their work with the saws, were honest working men, really anxiou to secure steady employment if they could.

"Every spring there are a lot of irresponsible persons in town and this year there have been a great many more than usual on account of the fact that employment is not easy to get," said the chief. "And I think that when the Bethel fed everyone who applied without asking them for any work in return, the institution was being imposed upon.

"I think that many of the tramps and bums have left since the bread-liners were put to work. They have started for Superior and points farther South.

"Detective Schulte went to Carlton the other day, and the sheriff there told him he had sixty-seven hobos in his jail there in one night, and all of them were bound for the South.

"Yesterday the man who runs the Superior ferry, at the foot of Rice's Point, reported that he carried fifty tramps over to Superior. They had no money and wanted to get across. He told them he would take them across for nothing, but he would not bring them back to Duluth again. They had no bread-line in Superior this winter, and twenty-seven is the highest number of men they ever lodged in their police station, and that is since the bread-liners on this side were put to work. They have been arresting men over there for hanging around the coke-ovens, where it is nice and warm.

One minister asked the chief if it was a good plan to feed tramps. The preacher declared that his wife had fed a good many, and they were coming too thick.

"If you have a woodpile you can give him a test and find out whether he is deserving or not. If you haven't a woodpile, be very chary with your giving, or you may get a whole tribe down on you," said the chief.

W. D. Edson, one of the officers of the Bethel, explained that society's aims in the bread line.

Walter Butchart, jailer at the county jail, returned yesterday from Chicago where he has been severtl days buying a stock of furniture and fixteures for the hotel, which he will open next June. While in Chicago, Mr. Butchart attended the Hackenschmidt-Gotch wrestling match last Friday evening and had a ring seat within a few feet of the contestants. Mr. Butchart says it was a great exhibition and that when Hackenschmidt gave up the match he was "all in." From the standpoint of the spectator Mr. Butchart thinks that the game was a rough one for the Russian Lion and that Gotch's tactics bewildered him.

COPPERS DULL; PRICES FIRM

Share Market is Quiet But Closes About Unchanged.

The copper stock market was quiet but firm today. North Butte opened at $53.75, advanced to $54 and closed at $53.75 bid and $54.25 asked. Amalgamated opened at $59, declined to $58.62½, rallied to $59.25 and closed at $58.75 bid.

Greene-Cananea opened at $8.87½, declined to $8.75 and closed at $8.62½ bid and $8.75 asked. Butte Coalition was inactive and closed at $20.75 bid and $21 asked. Calumet & Arizona opened at $101, declined to $100 and closed at $100 bid and $101 asked. Anaconda opened at $38, declined to $37.50 and closed at $38 bid.

Superior & Pittsburg sold at $12.50, declined to $12.37½, rallied to $12.62½ and closed at $12.50 bid and $12.62½ asked. Denn-Arizona sold at $3.35 and closed at $3.12½ bid and $3.25 asked; Globe at $8 and $8.25, and closed at $8 bid and $8.12½ asked; Calumet & Sonora at $6.25 and $6.37½ and closed at $6.25 bid and $6.50 asked; Butte & Superior at $1 and closed at $1 bid and $1.12½ asked.

Copper Queen of Idaho closed at $1.12½ bid and $1.25 asked, and Butte-Ballaklava at $8.62½ bid and $8.87½ asked.

Walker's copper letter in Saturday's Boston Commercial said:

"Copper sold as high as 13¼c for lake and 13¼c for electrolytic this week. Within a few days the market has developed a slightly easier tendency; but quotations remain substantially as given above. The copper market is on a perfectly healthy, natural, legitimate basis. There is almost no manipulation of quotations. Prices are advancing because the surplus supplies which were held by producers until recently have been exhausted. Foreign consuming interests and speculators cleaned up all offerings when the price was down to 13c and fractionally lower. Domestic consumers are buying now, and sales continue to be made for export; but the latter in smaller volume than a while ago.

"More copper was sold to American consuming interests in March than in January and February together. Domestic manufacturers seem satisfied at least that copper prices have touched bottom, as they are now buying for two months' advance deliveries. They are limiting their purchases to their known requirements, however, and show no disposition to stock up for the future, as their foreign competitors do. It is the well-established custom of British and European manufacturers to buy copper heavily on every decline, simply because it is cheap" being their reason. As a result of this policy it is estimated that foreign consumers buy their copper year in and year out at -c per pound lower average than their American competitors.

"The outlook favors a continuance of the 13c to 14c copper market for at least two or three months to come. If the business situation goes on improving, the price of copper will probably be higher in the closing months of the year. On the other hand, political developments may be such as to discourage business extension, and it may be difficult to maintain the price of the metal at as high a level as 13¼c. This is a period of more or less uncertainty. The price of copper is low, however, and a very heavy buying demand is sure to be met every time quotations drop fractionally below 13c."

NO REVIEW OF RAILROAD CASE

Land Office Decision on N. P. Second Indemnity Lands.

The local land office today received a copy of a departmental decision denying the motion filed by the Northern Pacific railway for a review of a decision of Oct. 30, 1902, which affirms the decision of the general land office of Aug. 13, 1901, holding for a rejection of the company's second indemnity selections embraced in list No. 14, for which an invalid basis had been assigned. The lands involved are in what is known as the second indemnity belt of the Northern Pacific land grant created by the joint resolution of May 31, 1870.

ANSWER FILED

To Leman's Suit for Injunction Against Illinois Central.

Chicago, April 6.—J. T. Hanrahan, president of the Illinois Central Railroad company, filed today, in the circuit court, an answer to the bill for an injunction, applied for by Henry W. Leman, to have determined the question whether a foreign corporation can own stock in an Illinois corporation. Mr. Leman seeks to prevent the voting of 281,231 shares of stock of the Illinois Central railroad, owned by New York corporations.

President Hanrahan says that the the notice of the suit was served so late that it was impossible for the directors to meet and consider the notice before the last annual meeting was convened. He denies that Mr. Leman is entitled to any relief.

The case will come up in the regular order of business.

SPRING OPENING

When you awoke yesterday morning and saw that the warm West wind had driven the ice field from the lake shore, when you saw the dark, rippling waters shine again under the bright sunlight, then you knew it spelled "Spring Opening" in capital letters. And as your heart opens to the gladness of the new season the old desire for colors grows strong within your bosom. In this chilly part of the world, for some time to come, colors will be mainly supplied by milliners, clothing and dry goods stores.

Never in all our experience have we been able to put before the men and boys such a bewildering choice of colorings as now, nor so many different styles in the cut of suits and coats.

KNOCKS HIGH TARIFF.

Former Mayor Cullum Gives Talk to Question Club .

Former Mayor M. B. Cullum delivered a rousing address in favor of free trade and the abolition of a high protective tariff at the meeting of the Question club in the library yesterday afternoon.

He said the time had come for a revision of the tariff and deplored the lack of activity in that direction displayed by the country's legislators.

Dr. Cullum was followed by speakers who declared also for free trade and some who defended the protective tariff, while still others with Socialistic tendencies had condemnation for both sides.

"E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen: In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol, and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. C. N. Cornell, Riding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906."

ON THE IRON RANGES

NEW BRIDGE NEAR AURORA.

Recently completed across the St. Louis river by the Continental Bridge company at a cost of $3,395. It is a single steel span, 120 feet in length. The new bridge will be used in connection with the new road, which the town of White will build this year at a cost of $8,000 to furnish farmers a better highway to the Aurora market.

CLOSE TO BLAST, ELKO IS INJURED

Chisholm, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mike Elko, a Finn laborer at the Shenango mine, was fatally hurt while at work in the Shenango mine. He was in a part of the mine unknown to his fellow-laborers. They set a blast, and not knowing that he was near, they fired it. Elko meanwhile started for the entrance, and passing by the blast, was struck down, being frightfully mangled. It is not expected that he will survive.

He is married and has two children. He is 32 years old. The ambulance from the Rood hospital took him to the hospital as soon as they were able to get him out of the mine.

LEGACY FOR MAGNUSON.

Missing Two Harbors Man Falls Heir to Some Property.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—If Daniel Magnuson, a former resident of this city, is still alive it will be to his benefit to consult with his relatives in Varmland, Sweden, as word has been received here asking about him, that he may receive a legacy left by a relative. Magnuson during a residence of several years here made his home with John Soderland on Fifth avenue up to January, 1906, when he was taken ill and left for Duluth in search of medical treatment, never returning nor being heard of again.

His trunk containing all his clothes and other things has never been called for. While here Magnuson was in the habit of writing to his relatives across the sea regularly, but his letters ceased simultaneously with his disappearance. Magnuson, who is a laboring man, is 45 years of age, light in complexion, tall and weighs about 180 pounds.

EASY FOR MURPHY.

No Opposition in Candidacy for Mayor of Ely.

Ely, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mike Murphy has a sure thing on being elected mayor at the municipal election to be held tomorrow, as he is without opposition. John E. Cosgrove is equally lucky in his candidacy for treasurer.

James W. Osborne is the caucus candidate for municipal judge. The independent candidate is S. S. Chillers. Joseph P. Seraphine and Harry A. Stein are the candidates for special municipal judge. The former is the caucus candidate and the latter is running independently. Thomas Jury and Frank Hodge are the candidates for assessor. The former is on the caucus ticket.

Candidates for aldermen from the First ward are: J. A. Graves and J. H. White, caucus; John Gouze, independent. Second ward, Olaf Knutson and John E. Porthan, caucus; Third ward, Leo Kukar and Jacob Butala, caucus; Louis Eisenbach, independent.

AGAINST VIRGINIA TEAM.

Debating League Upholds Protest of Minneapolis Debaters.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Despite the protest of Superintendent Bliss of the Virginia schools and others, the state high school debating leauge has set aside the award made in favor of the Virginia Roosevelt high school debating team after the recent conest with the Minneapolis North high school and decided the two teams must debate again. The Virginians were to have debated April 17 with the Montivedio high school upon the subject the range boys have so ably handled in several discussions, the feasibility of the government subsidizing the Southern states for the education of the negroes. It is claimed that the debating board was in its makeup biased against the Virginia debaters. The North high school team protested against the award being made to the Virginians on these grounds: That certain charts used by Virginia could not be read from the stage by the North high school debaters; that a North high school orator who went into the audience so he could read the charts was called back by the chairman; that a Virginia debater introduced new material into a speech in rebuttal; that Pierce Butler, a judge, consulted with a friend in making his decision in violation of the rules of the debating league.

The Virginia team claims, and justly, according to the judges, that the charts could be read from the platform; that the North high school debater went into the audience in violation of the rules of the league; that Mr. Butler did not consult with any one but had a man connected with his law office add up his figures for him.

TO MOVE OFFICES HERE.

Headquarters of Northern Traction Company to Leave Hibbing.

Hibbing, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The headquarters offices of the Northern Traction company, owner and operator of the electric railway line connecting Hibbing with the outside world, are soon to be removed from Hibbing to Duluth, and that will take from this place the president of the company, Robert F. Berdie.

Mr. Berdie's reason for the change of base, however, is that it will place him in closer touch with the people he wants to meet, and will give him better opportunities to study the business of street railway operation and management.

There will, of course, be a district manager who will reside in Hibbing, but Mr. Berdie has not made the appointment as yet. The Northern people have not been able to carry on construction operations during the past winter, owing to the accumulation of snow on the tracks and other things, but it is promised that as soon as the snow disappears work will be started up, and nothing will stop it until the electric railway line has a length of at least one and one-half miles.

NEW HOTEL ASSURED.

George Markham Has About Closed Deal for Hibbing Inn.

Hibbing, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—George A. Markham is working industriously with his plans for giving Hibbing another hotel building, and confidently expects to close up the deal in a few days. Mr. Markham has encountered some difficulty in getting the lots in just the shape he desires, but says that these difficulties have been overcome, and that he expects that everything will go along smoothly from now on, and that building operations will soon be commenced. Mr. Markham states that he has canvassed the city very thoroughly, both for sentiment and subscriptions, and that he is more than pleased. The people of Hibbing have expressed their sentiment by liberal subscriptions, and there is no question about the necessary funds for erecting a hotel building that will be a credit to the city. The location of the new hotel will be the site formerly occupied by the Miles plock, and it is thought the new building will be in general plan much like the destroyed structure. Mr. Markham expects to have a final meeting today, when all matters will be closed up, and then he will be ready to do business with the building contractor.

HIBBING SCHOOL BOARD RAISES TEACHERS' WAGES.

Hibbing, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the recent regular meeting of the board of education, school district No. 27, the wages of all of the teachers were raised at the rate of $5 a month for next year. According to an established custom, a raise of $2.50 was due, but the board wisely decided that an additional $2.50 would be more in keeping with conditions in Hibbing, and there was no opposition to the action.

COLERAINE MAN UNDERGOES OPERATION AT ASHLAND.

Ashland, Wis., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. F. Young of Coleraine, Minnesota, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital suffering with a severe mastoid disease. The patient was successfully operated upon by Dr. Braun. At last reports he was considerably improved.

HIBBING HEALTHY.

Hibbing, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—For the first time in months the local detention hospital is without an inmate, and the health authorities are feeling jubilant over the outlook. Although there have been few cases of contagious disease in the past six months, the hospital has rarely been without a patient until at present.

TROUBLESOME AUSTRIAN CLUBBED, THEN ARRESTED.

Eveleth, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Saturday night near the More hospital, Nick Rak, an Austrian, and a companion were acting very disorderly and disturbing tthe peace of the neighbors. The former was arrested but as he was being taken to the jail tried to run away from the policeman. After running a short distance he was recaptured after a struggle in which the officer had to club the man to keep him in submission. He was locked up on the charge of indecent exposure.

BIWABIK MAN LUCKY.

Biwabik, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—As Tony Sacco was alighting from a buggy to enter the school building here he slipped under the wheels of the buggy which passed over his body. Bystanders rushed to see if were killed, but in some peculiar manner, he was not injured in the least and was able to proceed as if nothing had happened.

BURGLAR TAKES BACON

After Trying to Steal Something More Valuable.

Eveleth, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the Bailey boarding house, a burglar tried to secure some valuables in the kitchen and dining room, but being unsuccessful there, he took all the available meat supply which amounted to about 100 pounds of ham and bacon. He then made an easy escape, and as yet has not been caught.

Sam Owens, Iron Range yardmaster at the Fayal is on a three weeks' trip in the South, where he will see his sons who are also engaged in the railroad business.

Judge Vivian Prince has recently been honored by the Duluth Elks, as he has been elected to the position of chaplain. He will leave Wednesday for Duluth to be installed.

Frank Hall, manager of the Steam Laundry is ready to put in a $10,000 brick building for laundry purposes.

DRUIDS INITIATE MANY.

Eveleth, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the Vail hall a large number of candidates were initiated into the U. A. O. D. The local lodge is Mesaba Grove No. 53. Through the efforts of Harry Litman a class of forty-six were initiated. There were still some on the chartered list, and these will be initiated at the next meeting of the lodge. Mr. Litman is to remain in Eveleth for two weeks more to secure members for the new lodge. A very large number of outside Druids were present from Hibbing, Two Harbors and Virginia. Hickory Grove of Hibbing brought six candidates for initiation, while the Virginia lodge had three. From the Twin Cities a delegation of grand officers were present, among them were Noble Grand Arch L. R. Shaw, Deputy Grand Arch Ed Oakland, Grand Secretary G. A. Johnson, Grand Treasurer Fred Downs, Financial Committee Joe Pesch and Frank G. Bolig, Past Commanders E. B. Wagner and A. F. Helty.

The local officers were elected as follows: Past arch, George A. Mulligan; noble arch, Hugh Fox; vice arch, J. P. Murphy; secretary, H. W. Frisk; treasurer, Ike Hill; conductor, R. B. Meade; inside guardian, Tony Azzo; outside guardian, Daniel Berg; right and left bards to the noble arch, J. J. Thibaut and J. L. Luce; right and left bards to the vice arch, L. Floyd and Andrew Olson.

GILBERT VOTES TUESDAY

On the Question of Incorporating New Town.

Eveleth, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Tomorrow the citizens of Gilbert will vote on the question of incorporation. It is the general opinion that the question will be carried favorably. It seems that the officials of some of the surrounding mines are objecting a little because the Gilbert mine is not included within the town limits. Things are very much on the boom in the new town and many local merchants are planning on erecting buildings during the coming summer there. Ex-Mayor Jesmore expects to have his hardware store open by May 15. It will be managed by Allister Murray. A clothing store will be opened in the town April 10.

TWO HARBORS EVENTS.

Logging is About Finished---Little Ice Seen on the Lake.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. Wheeler has completed his winter's logging at Mile 60 and has shipped his horses to Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hershey have returned from Tower, where they spent the winter.

The Iron Range now has a gravel train at work hauling gravel from Britton pit to ballast the new tracks to the Oliver Iron company's hill at Brimson.

The smallpox quarantine has been raised from the home of E. R. Fitch, where City Clerk P. J. McApline was confined with the disease.

The heavy northeast and southwest winds of the past few days have about broken up the ice in the lake, there being very little in sight now, and very little if any impediment to navigation.

Pastoret & Lunz have purchased a ditch digging machine and expect it to arrive in a few days. They will use it for ditch work on their sewer contract on which they expect to start in two or three weeks.

Otto F. Olson has purchased the dray business of H. W. Pederson and has taken the agency of the Standard Oil company here, vice Mr. Pederson resigned.

Assistant Supt. A. D. Holliday of the Iron Range has gone to Clinton, Mo., for a few weeks' visit with relatives.

Ab Smith has finished his shipments of pulpwood and logs from Mile 44, and has shipped his horses to Duluth. He still has some logs to ship from Mile 39 to Skibo.

ERIK HALLBERG DEAD.

Two Harbors Man Succumbs to Consumption After Extended Illness.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—E. Hallberg, for the past several years employed in the tailor shop of J. P. Sande, died this morning after an extended illness of consumption, leaving a wife and two children. His relatives live at Minneapolis and at Calumet and Ironwood, Mich. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

RANGE EDITORS MEET.

Virginia, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The meeting of the range editors here Saturday preliminary to a meeting at which an association will be formed was well attended, and it is beyond question that the proposed organization will become a fact. It was decided to meet at Eveleth April 25 to perfect an organization.

RELATIVE IS ILL.

Hibbing, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge T. F. Brady, and his mother, Mrs. P. M. Brady, have been called to St. Paul by the serious illness of Mrs. Frank Mass, sister to the judge and daughter of Mrs. Brady.

BOVEY EAGLES' LAST DANCE.

Bovey, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Eagles will wind up their winter dancing season on Wednesday, April 22 with one of their big dances. The boys are making great preparation for the occasion and working with all their oldtime enthusiasm.

ON INSPECTION TRIP.

Pittsburg, April 6.—William E. Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, and a party of steel officials, arrived here today in a private car from New York. At the union station they were joined by a number of Carnegie Steel company officials and immediately left for Birmingham, Ala., on an inspection trip.

MUCH RAIN IS NEEDED

There May Not be Enough Water for Log Drives.

Some of the Loggers Are Anticipating Serious Trouble.

Unless there is an unusual amount of rain this spring, the loggers probably will have a good deal of trouble with their drives, because of the low stage of water. There isn't enough snow in the woods to bring many of the streams to the required stage for log driving, and even with the assistance of dams and reservoirs, certain shallow creeks and rivers are pretty sure to cause more or less annoyance and delay.

After a winter of heavy snows, there usually is enough water when the spring thaws come to raise the streams high enough for driving even without the assistance of spring rains, but at the end of an ordinary winter, when there is not very much snow on the ground rains are necessary before the drive can be carried on. There have been times in the past when the dry season and consequent low stage water have hung up the drive for months.

Rivers and creeks are not depended upon to such an extent now as formerly for getting timber to the mills. The uncertainty of this method has caused it to be abandoned largely for the more certain railroad. In former years river drives were depended upon entirely for getting logs out of the woods, but now logging roads do most of this work. Even at that, there is a good deal left for the water route for some districts have not yet been reached by the railroad and in other sections a bunch of timber may not be large enough to make it worth while to build a railroad to it.

There will be no trouble about getting enough men for the drive this spring. All woodsmen are not qualified as river men, but there are enough of the latter around looking for work to give assurance that it will be an easy matter to get full crews of men. There is a good deal of pulpwood, posts and poles to be floated out of the woods aside from the logs cut for the purpose of lumber manufacture.

Winter logging is now practically at an end in the forests of Northern Minnesota, and most of the camps have closed or are closing. Evidence of this fact is found along the Bowery and on Michigan street, where hundreds of lumberjacks are wandering aimlessly around all day and half the night.

FLOODWOOD HAPPENINGS.

Coleraine Family Locates in Town ---Freight Man Injured.

Floodwood, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—D. J. Fogarty and family of Coleraine arrived here Friday and will go to housekeepings in their residence on Seventh street. Mr. Fogerty will erect buildings on his farm near town, where they expect to locate permanently.

Johnnie Arnold had the misfortune to smash one of his fingers Saturday morning while handling freight.

Mrs. Frank Chounard and little Gladys left Thursday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. Shilling of Edmunds, N. D. They were accompanied by Mr. Shilling who has been employed here during the winter.

Paul N. Casserly, a graduate of the law department of the University of Minnesota, arrived here Wednesday evening, to locate permanently and practice law.

C. D. Rutherford left Saturday for a few days' visit with friends and relatives at Princeton.

Miss Hilda Hill went to Bovey Wednesday for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. Berthiarl.

NEW GRAVES.

Thirty-Six Will be Added to List in Potter's Field.

Thirty-six new graves will be added to the list in the potters' field.

The bodies are those of thirty-six paupers who have died during the winter months, and which are now lying in the vault at the cemetery. Twelve of the thirty-six died at the county poor farm, and others came from different parts of the county and have been sent to the poor farm for burial at the county's expense.

Dynamite will probably be used to break the frozen ground, as the bodies cannot be kept much longer in the vaults.

Magic Polish

For sale at all dealers. Accept no substitute. is the result of my 20 years' experience in the polishing and refinishing business. During this time, my experiments with "polishes" were entirely unsatisfactory. There was something lacking. This fact caused me to work out a "formula" of my own, resulting seven years ago in my establishing "Magic Polish." Since then I've improved it wonderfully, until today "Magic Polish" has no equal. It will clean and bring out the polish of old furniture without the remotest possibility of damaging the finish, however delicate it may be. If left to dry on the furniture, it forms itself into a dust-like surface, which can be removed with a damp cloth. "Magic Polish" has thousands of friends in Duluth, and is gaining more every day. It's absolutely guaranteed. Every bottle enclosed in a box. Ask Your Dealer for It. Manufactured by

"I find health in the package with the "Red Seal," said a man a few days ago in referring to Postum.

When anyone has learned that coffee has been causing more or less damage to his nervous system, and finds health in drinking Postum, which is made only of wholesome wheat, he has a right to grow enthusiastic and want others to "find health in the package with the Red Seal."

"There's a Reason."

Deal Gently with the Bowels—Don't be Harsh

Some people say, "Cascarets are too gentle. I need a strong physic."

The trouble is this: They have taken harsh physic until their bowels are calloused.

Nature has caused the bowel linings to harden—to resist the attacks of harsh pills.

And the bowels fail in their natural functions while that hardness exists.

In such cases, take Cascarets oftener—one tablet night and morning.

Cascarets won't irritate. They are as gentle and natural as a laxative food.

Soon the bowel lining grows soft again, and begins to resume its functions.

Then one Cascaret a day is enough; and a little later you need none.

For Cascarets cure the bowels. They bring back the natural action. They heal what physics destroy.

No harsher laxative can be used without injury, and none is ever necessary.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The box is marked like this:

The vest-pocket box is 10 cents. The month-treatment box 50 cents. 12,000,000 boxes sold annually. 813

MAY JUMP 1,000 FEET

Plan to Use Aeroplanes on Ski Hill Next Year.

Would Enable Jumper to Soar for Long Distance.

To soar 500, or perhaps 1,000 feet, through the air may be the novel experience of ski jumpers next year, instead of being content with a short jump of 100 feet or so.

Before next winter it is believed that aeroplanes will be perfected, which can be used by ski jumpers. It would take but a small surface wind to support a man for a distance of 1,000 feet, when he has the speed at the start which the long slide would give him, and there is every possibility that next year Duluthians may have all the sensations of flying, with no attendant dangers.

It would be an interesting sight to see a jumper come skimming down the slide, leap into the air with an aeroplane and soar a distance of a quarter of a mile through the air, to alight far across the ravine.

The aeroplane has been used so successfully in the East that there is little doubt but that it could be used for such a purpose, and several members of the local club are known to be contemplating it.

TWO WEEKS WITH DEAD.

Self-Confessed Murderer Lived Half Month With Victim's Body.

St. Paul, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The police made a sensational discovery Sunday morning when they came across the mutilated body of John Smolensky, a Polish rag picker, who was murdered Saturday night, March 21. The body was found in the cellar of the house in which Smolensky lived.

Several hours later, Fred Eschle, an excavator, 47 years old, was arrested and confessed that he had committed the crime. He said that he had lived with the dead man for two weeks.

Eschle said that he was intoxicated when he committed the crime, but admitted that he took $70 from the dead man. The money did him no good, however, for on the Thursday following the murder he was robbed by a pickpocket for whom the police are now searching.

Smolensky and Eschle lived in a shack in the "upper flats," a section of St. Paul which lies along the Mississippi river. Neighbors noticed that Smolensky had not been seen recently and spoke to Eschle about his absence, but the latter said the rag picker had gone to Michigan. Saturday, however, the police were informed that Smolensky was missing, and they made a search of the house.

Tearing up an oil cloth, they found a door leading to the cellar. Opening the door they saw the dead body of Smolensky, which had been cast in head first.

The top of the head had been blown off with a shotgun which Eschle had left behind him in his flight. Search for the murderer at once began and he was captured near Lilydale, a hamlet on an island a short distance above St. Paul.

A brother of Eschle said that when he was a child he was kicked in the head by a horse and that as a result he has at times given evidence of mental unbalance.

S.S.S. PURIFIES THE BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of the ailments of mankind. When from any cause this vital fluid becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, disease in some form is sure to follow. Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Boils, Pimples, etc., while they show on the skin, have an underlying cause which is far deeper—an impure, humor-infected blood supply, and until this is corrected, and the blood purified, the distressing itching and burning symptoms will remain. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Blood Poison and all other blood disorders, are the result of a vitiated, polluted circulation, and will continue to grow worse unless the poison is removed from the blood. In all blood and skin diseases S. S. S. has proved itself a perfect remedy. It goes down into the circulation and removes all waste matter, humors or poisons, and makes the blood pure and health-sustaining. Nothing reaches inherited taints and old chronic troubles like S. S. S.; it cures because it purifies the blood and restores lost properties to the impoverished circulation. Not only is S. S. S. a blood purifier of the highest order, but a tonic and appetizer without an equal. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

NO LEAGUE ENTHUSIAM

Semi-Professionals Will Play Independent Ball This Year.

Many Strong Teams Will Play in Northern Minnesota.

The Northern Minnesota league of semi-professional baseball clubs did not materialize yesterday. In response to a call for a meeting of managers, only Thomas F. Brady of Hibbing, Mr. Hammond of Cloquet, Manager Jacobs of the Fitwells and Manager Ziegler of the Kelleys appeared at the St. Louis and they only talked over independent baseball in general.

Despite the fact that there will be no league, independent baseball will flourish in Northern Minnesota this year. It develops that the managers are all scrambling for men and the teams all over the district will be stronger than in any former years. Hibbing, Virginia, Two Harbors, Eveleth, Coleraine, Cloquet, Grand Rapids, Chisholm and several other towns will be in the field with semi-professional nines and every Sunday during the summer, there will be a dozen big independent games on the range and in Duluth.

Mr. Brady of Hibbing is all enthusiasm. For the past four years, Hibbing has been the king pin in independent baseball and it isn't going to lose its place this season. Every man, who played on last year's strong team, is now in Hibbing and there to stay, with the exception of Jack Glaze, the Dartmouth man, who has a good offer to coach athletic teams at Exeter and may accept. The Hibbing pitching staff will be able to hold up its end very nicely, though, with Gilligan and Booth. "Dode" Carr, who captained the team and played third base, will quit the game.

Virginia will be in the game, but just how strong is not known. The Virginia people made the mistake of importing high-priced men for a short time last fall in an effort to defeat Hibbing, but they will probably not repeat the performance this year. Manager Carey, it is understood, will get some strong semi-pros together and hold them all season. The other towns are adopting the same method and young ball players are in demand.

The Fitwells and Kelleys will both be strong. Wegman, who was thought to have been slated for Coleraine, will not go to the range town, but will remain in Duluth and perform with the Kelleys. Either he or Milner the Cincinnati boy, who will play in the outfield, will captain the squad. Milner, who came to Duluth this winter, has played in the Central league and is under contract with the Duluth White Sox. The Sox cannot use him, but he will remain in Duluth and play with the Kelleys. Frank Schaefer will captain the Fitwells. Each team has about twenty candidates for positions and they will be trotted out soon to show what they can do.

Manager Ziegler of the Kelleys will probably bring the Hibbing team to Duluth for games May 2 and 3, May 23 and 24 the Kelleys will go to Hibbing. The Fitwells will play one game at Hibbing May 17 and will probably bring the range team here during the season. The Fitwells also have a deal on for a series of games with the White Sox before they leave for Brandon to open the season.

Duluth will see more semi-professional ball this year than it has in several seasons. The Duluth team of the Northern league is home but eight Sundays during the season and the Fitwells and Kelleys will take up several of the Sundays, when the big league is not playing here Manager Brady will also make an effort to pull off two games here with the St. Paul Gophers, the great Twin City colored team, July 1 and 2. He has a series with the Gophers at Hibbing, July 3, 4, 5 and 6 and he thinks the colored nine would be a good drawing card with Duluth fans.

POOL STARS GATHER.

Heuston and Pelletier Will Open Big Tournament at Chicago.

Chicago, April 6.—All is in readiness for the opening of the open pool turnament for the championship of America, the first of which will be decided tonight at Recital hall in the Auditorium building. The contestants will be Thomas A. Hueston, champion of the world, and A. Pelletier, holder of the Canadian title. Other of the eight contestants in the tournament are Frank Sherman of Washington, D. C., Alfred de Oro, the Cuban expert, and Benny Allen of Kansas City.

GIANTS ARE ARRESTED.

Muskogee Authorities Opposed to Playing of Sunday Ball.

McAlester Okla., April 6.—At the close of a ball game here yesterday between the New York National league team and th Muskogee team, the sheriff served warrants on all the participants for violating the Sunday law. Bonds were provided and the New York men were allowed to continue its journey.

BIG GAME A DRAW.

English and Scotch Teams Get One Goal Apiece.

Glasgow, April 6.—The football game between England and Scotland, which more than 100,000 people attended Saturday and at which there was considerable rioting, ended in a draw, the score being one goal each.

BASEBALL ON THE LOTS

Spring Weather Brings Out the Amateurs in Swarms.

Owners of Launches Prepare Their Boats for the Season.

The baseball spirit was in the air yesterday. With the warm sun and the balmy spring breezes, the corner-lotters dug their paraphernalia from winter caches and cut loose on the sand lots, while the ardent fans dreamt of bright summer days, with a seat in the bleachers and a chance to use a fog-horn voice in supporting the Sox.

At Twelfth avenue east and London road, Twentieth avenue east and London road, Lakeside, Woodland, Ninth avenue west and Third street, Green's farm and several other vacant lots, the small boy and the large child held forth all day, developing sore arms for today, but enjoying the sport.

If the weather keeps up, it will not be long until the members of the more important teams get going. The Fitwells, Kelleys, Scott-Graffs and others have signed their men and expect to get busy about the middle of this month. It is not expected that any games of importance will be pulled off until after the first of May, for spring storms and chills may be expected for some weeks yet. The annual spring baseball enthusiasm is already rift, however, and every slightly warm day will see plenty of ball playing all over the city.

The warm weather and the wind sent the ice out of the bay yesterday and turned the thoughts of many to summer water sports. Many spent the day in burnishing up their launches and getting ready for the season's sport. The Boat club drew many visitors to look over the launches in store there, and sounds of industry came from many private boathouses along the shore. It will be some weeks yet before it will be safe to trot out the launches for the season, but a few early birds will probably break loose this week.

PROGRAM OF EXHIBITION

Y. M. C. A. Will Give Demonstration of Work at the Lyceum.

Awards of Medals for Gymnastic Tests Will be Made.

The gymnastic exhibition to be given by members of Y. M. C. A. gymnasium classes at the Lyceum the night of April 14 is attracting interest from people interested in Y. M. C. A. work and it is expected the theater will be well crowded for the event. It will serve as a demonstration of the work of the association in athletic lines and will be participated in by members of both the boys' and men's departments. Box parties are being organized, returns for tickets are coming into the association briskly and there will be a representative gathering of both ladies and gentlemen.

The program includes gymnastic work and specialties, calisthenics and apparatus exercises. The best men have been picked from all classes to take part in the events and the novelty of the entertainment will appeal to those who have no conception of the good work being done at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The exhibition is in charge of Physical Director A. J. Frey, who has already arranged his program and is training the men for the events.

Following is the program:

PART I.

1 Overture ..... Orchestra
2 (a) Calisthenic Drill..... (b) Gymnastic Games..... Juniors
3 Parallel Bars..... Seniors
Horses ..... Intermediates
4 Indian Club Drill..... Intermediates
5 Game (Mount Ball)..... Seniors and Intermediates
6 March and Wand Drill..... Seniors
7 Fencing Drill ..... Fencing Class

PART II.

During intermission, Mr. George Proff will "Somersault the Gap" on roller skates.

1 Overture ..... Orchestra
2 Parallel Bars, First Squad Men's Class
3 March and Dumbell Drill, Men's Class
4 Tumbling and Handbalancing ..... Wendlandt and Myers
5 Horizontal Bar, 1st Squad Men's Class
6 Pyramids ..... Men's Class

On the night of the exhibition, the awards will be made for the gymnastic tests conducted at the gymnasium in three meets during the season. Ed Mapp and Pyfer were tied for first place, and they will each receive a gold medal, Mapp for his superiority in advanced work and Pyfer in elementary work. Both men showed up well in all three meets and it is believed the most satisfactory settlement of the tie is a division of honors and awards.

AUTOMOBILE WEEK BEGINS IN NEW YORK.

New York, April 6.—With hundreds of flags gayly waving in the breezes and with practically all of the automobile salesrooms along "Automobile Row," as that section of Upper Broadway has come to be popularly known in the trade, attractively decorated with flags and bunting, in addition to many hotels and other business houses, the big automobile week began today.

Today was general exhibition day in the various automobile headquarters. New York's big, best and most spectacular motor parade will be held tomorrow night and some curious and instructive cars will be seen in the four divisions. From a public standpoint the decorated section will be the most interesting feature. This will be something unique for a parade of decorated automobiles has never been held in the city before. Scores of private owners have entered their cars and the entries already received indicate that fully 1,000 cars of all types will be in line.

COIN HELD IN ST. PAUL

Saintly City Bowlers Retained $865 of Tourment Money.

Duluth Men Received $74 as Their Share of Prizes.

Duluth made away with only $74 at the state bowling tournament at St. Paul this year, drawing down just $1 less than Minneapolis. St. Paul held the neat little sum of $865, winning most of the first places and nearly everything under that. The St. Paul bowlers were brought up on the alleys. They had them the last week when the grooves were pretty well worn, and had little trouble holding the coin in the Saintly City. Stillwater, Winona, Albert Lea, Faribault and New Ulm all got in on the money for small amounts.

The tournament was the most successful in the history of the association. There were fifty-four five-men teams entered and the play extended over two weeks, just double the time ever consumed before in rolling them off. The marks set early in the tournament could not hold against the bowlers following and the constant breaking of records added interest to the events.

Following is a summary of the tournament:

Total number of events rolled	403
Five-men teams	54
Doubles	126
Singles	223
Highest single score, P. Nelson, St. Paul	279
Highest three-game score, Hinderer, St. Paul	673
Highest nine-game score, Hellhake, St. Paul	1,802
Highest score in singles, Campbell, Duluth	622
Highest score in doubles, Moshofsky and Hinderer, St. Paul	1,246
Highest scores in lives, Aanheuser-Busch, St. Paul	2,789
Highest three scores rolled, Hinderer, St. Paul	756
Total number of prizes	126
Total value of prizes	$1,225

Prize money won by cities as follows:

St. Paul	$865
Minneapolis	75
Duluth	74
Stillwater	55
Winona	36
Albert Lea	20
Faribault	15
New Ulm	12
Largest individual winning, Hinderer, St. aPul	43

SERIES OF GAMES TO DECIDE TIE

Basketball League Game Forfeited to Deighton Will Stand.

The Horak and Deighton basket ball teams of the Y. M. C. A. league must play a series of games to decide the possession of the cup donated by the Northern Hardware company to be emblematic of the championship of the league. The basket ball committee met Saturday afternoon, and decided that the game forfeited to Deighton on account of Horak's non-appearance, was properly forfeited, thus leaving the two teams in a tie for first place.

The captains will probably get together this week and decide on the method of settling the tie. It is believed they will decide on a series of three games, the winner of two to take the championship and the cup.

Both teams are strong and have been playing good basket ball all season. Their close race for first place in the league aroused interest in Y. M. C. A. circules and the series for the possession of the cup will be interesting.

BOARD WILL MEET TUESDAY

Commissioners Likely to Take Steps for Wrecking of Buildings.

The next meeting of the county board will be held Tuesday morning, in the new room provided for the county commissioners in the building extension to the southwest corner of the courthouse.

The finishing work on the interior of the addition is going forward rapidly, and the varnish will probably be dry by Tuesday.

The vault under the commissioners' room is completed and in use, while the extension to the auditor's vault is nearing completion.

The county board will probably discuss to some extent the new courthouse plans, and it is expected that some steps will be taken with a view of calling for bids for the wrecking of the buildings on the site that the county is acquiring through condemnation proceedings.

Whether the report of the public examiner relative to the condition of the financial affairs of the town of Buyck is brought before the board is a question. While the commissioners passed a resolution, at their last meeting, asking the state public examiner to investigate the affairs of the town referred to, the law says that the report, when made, shall be filed with the county auditor. There is no provision for its being filed with the board, although the commissioners may call for it and hear it read, or the auditor, as clerk of the board, may present the report for a reading.

Under the law, it is said, the matter of criminal prosecutions for town funds illegally spent, or for recovery under civil action, does not depend on the action of the county board, but with the county attorney.

It is expected that the annual division of the road levy among the various commissioners' districts will take place either at the meeting Tuesday, or at the May meeting of the board. Owing to the fact that the snow has disappeared, and there is every indication that road work will open early this spring, there is a strong probability that the matter of the division of the roads funds will be taken up this week.

BLATZ BEER

—MILWAUKEE—

Always The Same Good Old Blatz

In preparing good beer for the market, much is due to the treatment during the process—the cooling, sterilizing, aging and so on. There is a result, however, attained in the brewing of Blatz Beer—a distinguishing characteristic—that has been uniformly maintained.

Certainly the best of components are used, but it's to the "brewer's knack" that Blatz Beer owes its character—and that's where Blatz bases its claim for supremacy.

There's the delightful satisfaction of honest hops and barley malt and that individual goodness that "touches the spot."

If you are "keen to" beer quality and would enjoy its benefits, cultivate the "Blatz Sign Habit"—watch for the name—ask for any of these brands, whether on draught or bottled—Wiener, Private Stock, Export, Muenchener,

ELECTIONS IN PORTUGAL

Followed by Rioting in Which a Number Were Killed.

Lisbon, April 6.—The elections here yesterday, which were conducted peaceably with the exception of minor disorders in some of the disaffected districts, were followed last night by serious rioting, which was only put down by most vigorous action on the part of the police and the troops. The rioting broke out in different parts of the city as though by a preconcerted plan. Troops which had been patrolling, and others that had been held in reserve, were immediately ordered into action and they repeatedly charged the mobs that in places filled the streets, but without effect. The rioters used clubs, stones and whatever other weapons were at hand and finally the troops were obliged to fire upon them, killing and wounding a number. This determined action on the part of the authorities seemed to have the desired effect and soon the mobs were well dispersed.

In a general way the elections turned out as planned by the parties in control. The Republicans, who had but two seats in the dissolved parliament, increased their representation to possibly twenty. In Lisbon they swept the populous sections of the city, but Gerrymanders including the outside districts, offset in a measuro this advantage. The Republican leaders are raising a cry of "fraud."

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Four business buildings in the wholesale district of New Orleans burned Sunday, with a loss estimated at a quarter of a million dollars.

Walter Clayton, a negro, who was serving time at the stockade of the Hard Lumber company at Mobile, Ala., for manslaughter, late Saturday afternoon criminally assaulted Mrs. Joseph White, aged 20 years, and was lynched by a mob of seventy-five men outside the limits of Bay Minette Sunday night.

J. A. Hossack, a banker of Odell, Ill., jumped from the eighth floor of the Auditorium annex in Chicago Sunday into an open court, and was instantly killed. Hossack had been in ill health of late, and was here on his way West. It is thought he was temporarily insane.

John Burr, a young negro, was lynched near Wesson, Miss., Sunday, by about 500 men, for the murder of a 12-year-old white boy.

Albert R. Spaulding, a banker of Buffalo, N. Y., who spends his winters at a home in Santa Barbara, Cal., was thrown from his buggy while driving Sunday, and sustained a concussion of the brain and other injuries which may result fatally.

Accidents will happen, but the best-regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

KILLED STEALING RIDE.

Monticello, Minn., April 6.—Toby Stevens, aged 30 years, of St. Paul, a blacksmith by trade, was killed here Friday night while stealing a ride on a Great Northern passenger train from St. Paul to Valley City, N. D. The man's chest was badly crushed between the bumpers of two baggage cars, meeting instant death. He had $3 in cash in his pockets, besides a silver watch, and was well dressed.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

A Square-Deal

Is assured you when you buy one of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and attested under oath as being complete and correct. They are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native, medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. While potent to cure they are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children.

Not a drop of alcohol enters into Dr. Pierce's leading medicines. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine of proper strength. This agent possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable anti-septic and anti-ferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, "heartburn," foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

For all diseases of the mucous membranes, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific. Catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs is cured by it. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures even in the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate hang-on, or chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to endeavor to palm off upon you some nostrum of unknown composition in place of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines which are OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. Most dealers recommend Doctor Pierce's medicines because they know what they are made of and that the ingredients employed are among the most valuable that a medicine for like purposes can be made of. The same is true of leading physicians who do not hesitate to recommend them, since they know exactly what they contain and that their ingredients are the very best known to medical science for the cure of the several diseases for which these medicines are recommended.

With tricky dealers it is different.

Something else that pays them a little greater profit will be urged upon you as "just as good," or even better. You can hardly afford to accept a substitute of unknown composition and without any particular record of cures in place of Doctor Pierce's medicines which are OF KNOWN COMPOSITION and have a record of forty years of cures behind them. You know what you want and it is the dealer's business to supply that want. Insist upon it.

JOHNSON BOOM AT WASHINGTON

Letter to Democratic Congressman Urging Claims of Governor.

Washington, April 6.—The presidential boom of Governor Johnson of Minnesota was yesterday launched upon the capitol and congress with true Western originality, when to every Washington correspondent and Democratic congressman was handed a special delivery letter mailed directly from the newly established headquarters of the Minnesota Democratic committee in Chicago. The letter was signed by Frederick B. Lynch, treasurer of the committee, and transmitted a printed pamphlet setting out concisely the points of availability of Governor Johnson. The letter reads:

"The Democracy of the nation has for twelve years been losing ground, and the belief is general that under the old conditions defeat is certain. For months the party has been drifting toward an autocratic convention, where popular choice is to be subordinate to personal will.

"Minnesota Democrats, feeling that party duty transcends individual interest, have had the courage to break away from the drift and offer the party a candidate, who, if nominated, can carry more states than any other living Democrat, and who would be practically certain of election. Rebelling against the doctrine of despair, we take it for granted that there is no necessity for the ravens of defeat to perch on the banners of Democracy in 1908, simply because they did in 1896, 1900 and 1904.

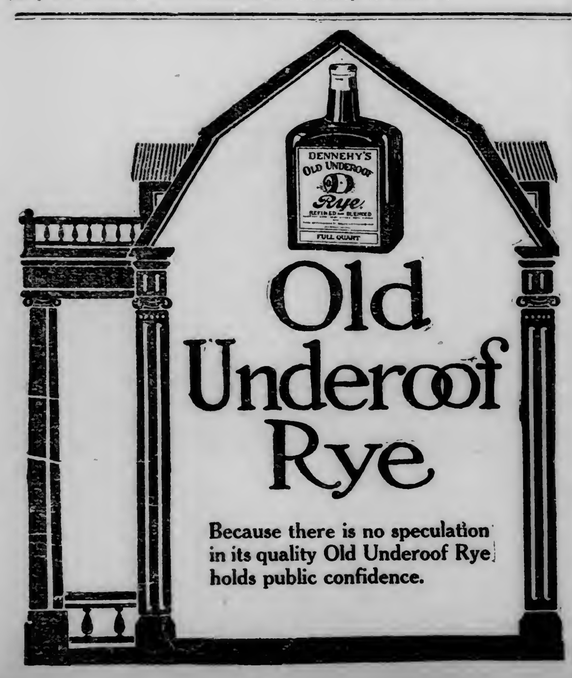

"Conditions industrially, financially and politically are such that we have this year the opportunity of a generation to win the presidency. Why give it up by supinely acquiescing in any nomination which guarantees defeat?

"If you and the other Democratic leaders of the country will but response to the invitation and the opportunity extended to you by the Democrats of Minnesota, we can escape from the blighting traditions of defeat, and rehabilitate the party and the nation by a great political victory next November."

RUSH FOR SALT BEDS.

Contest on at Washington for Utah Lands Worth $400,000,000.

Washington, April 6.—Title to lands in the state of Utah containing salt deposits of an extent and purity hitherto not only unknown but undreamed of, is involved in a sensational contest now being fought in Washington. About 58,000 acres of lands lying along the western border of Utah have been discovered, overtopped with salt, and an attempt made to acquire them by the filing of placer mining claims on the part of the individuals. The value of the lands was today estimated by one of the claimants at $400,000,000. Deposited by nature on the lands over which the contest is being made is a bed of pure salt, which in some places lies to a depth of six feet. This salt is of so fine a quality that it has been found unnecessary to refine it.

SOCIAL HEAD IN THE RING

Philadelphia Society is Shocked by "Go" at Exclusive Club.

Scion of Famous Family in Contest With a Pugilist.

Philadelphia, April 6.—Philadelphia society has been so stagnant this winter in its exclusive main line retreat that Anthony J. Drexel Biddle determined to wake it up and enjoy its bewilderment.

He accompanied the feat Saturday night by entering the prize ring with Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, former middleweight champion of the world, and fighting a three-round contest, while 700 society men and a few professional sports cheered themselves hoarse.

But the wives and sisters of the society men did not cheer. Some of them, in fact, shed bitter tears when they heard of the degradation to which the proud name of Biddle had been subjected. For in this city the word "Biddle" is a cabalistic one which awakens feelings of awe and reverence. The family is regarded as possessing the bluest of blue blood, as being the acme of gentility. That a Biddle should have fought in public has broken the heart of the proudest society clique in the United States.

Friends Too Easy.

As an amateur boxer, Biddle became so proficient that he found his friends too easy, and, like Alexander, longed for something harder. The bout came off at the exclusive Merion Cricket club, and nobody can understand just how such an ultra refined organization which delights in lawn teas on summer afternoons could have been persuaded to lend itself to the "vulgar exhibition."

On the club's notice board the bout was advertised as a "go" between "Tony, the Society Kid," and "Philadelphia Jack O'Brien."

For three rounds the slugging was heavy, with no marked advantage to either of the boxers. At the end of the third round the fight was called off by agreement, as there was no intention to have the contest develop into a real prize fight. No decision was rendered, and the bout therefore is classed as a draw.

S. R. O. Sign Hung Out.

Though Edward S. Sayrs, secretary of the club, had strictly declared that members and members only would be admitted, there was need of a "S. R. O." sign long before even the preliminary bouts began.

The Merion club is probably the most conservative institution of its kind in the vicinity of Philadelphia, and for it to shatter all tradition of promoting a boxing bout sufficed to draw members from far and near.

This strict enforcement of the rule against strangers, it is said, was the result of a hint from the Montgomery county authorities. There is a law against "public boxing matches," but none against "private bouts." So to be on the safe side the board of governors decided to bar all outsiders.

The bout was the feature of an athletic smoker given by the club, and there were a number of other events, including an exhibition billiard match between J. E. Cope Morton and T. M. S. Rools, a wrestling match between "Bob" Folwell and "Pat" Dwyer of the Pennsylvania university football team, and four preliminary boxing bouts.

ICE DRIFTS OUT INTO THE LAKE

Lower Harbor Can Now be Navigated by Steamers.

The disappearance of a large floe of ice yesterday, which was driven out of the bay by a heavy wind, may be said to have opened navigation at the Head of the Lakes. There is still some very firm ice around the slips, while some of the steamers are frozen in very firmly, but the disappearance of the bay ice has made it possible for boats to navigate the bay.

The tug Jeffery got out yesterday and attempted a little ice breaking. She steamed out from her winter quarters at the foot of Garfield avenue, and ran her nose into the firm ice in the slip of Grignon's shipyard. The ice was too firm, however, and the tug gave up after an hour's work.

The Moore will make the first trip of the season Wednesday. The boat has been thoroughly overhauled and will start down to Grand Portage in the best of condition.

Dispatches state that navigation between Detroit and Cleveland has opened, while it is expected that navigation between Cleveland and Buffalo will open by the middle of the month. Reports state that the pack at Sault Ste. Marie is still very firm. In two weeks navigation will probably be possible.

Ice in the St. Louis river is also breaking up.

Following are the appointments of masters and engineers, made for the Hutchinson line of Cleveland:

Steamer John A. McGean, Capt. A. Benham, Engineer P. F. Lyons; steamer J. J. Sullivan, Capt. William P. Benham, Engineer George Blauvelt; steamer D. R. Hanna, Capt. Samuel B. Massey, Engineer W. J. Swain; steamer Joseph G. Butler, Jr., Capt. James Murphy, Engineer Walter G. Thorn; steamer John Stanton, Capt. Charles H. Heaton, Engineer Anton Rud; steamer William A. Paine, Capt. Emil Detlefs, Engineer John Clark; steamer Martin Mullen, Capt. U. S. Cody, Engineer George Oldman; steamer J. T. Hutchinson, Capt. John A. Logan, Engineer Peter Wilson; schooner Abyssinia, Capt. T. K. Woodward.

GOOD ATTENDANCE.

Thirty-Nine Democrats Present at County Committee Meeting.

The Democratic county committee held a meeting at the St. Louis hotel Saturday evening for the purpose of arranging preliminaries, in the way of notices, etc., for the primaries and county convention, which will be held May 6 and May 9, respectively.

Of the forty-one members of the committee, thirty-nine were present Saturday evening. W. E. McEwen, chairman, presided. As the dates for both primaries and county convention had already been set, as announced in The Herald two weeks ago, there wasn't much but regular routine business to be transacted.

CANAL OPENING MEANS NEW ERA

Taft Declares America Must Grasp Oriental Trade Supremacy.

Chicago, April 6.—Secretary of War Taft, after a day of speechmaking, and receptions, in which he was accorded the honors of a presidential incumbent instead of a candidate, on Saturday night addressed the Commercial club on topics of vital intrest to the businessmen of the country. At a banquet at the Auditorium hotel he was introduced in an eulogistic speech, applauded by millionaires, bankers, merchants and representatives of the financial affairs of the town, who rose on his entrance and stood in line to shake hands with him after he spoke.

Carefully avoiding politics, Mr. Taft said, in substance:

"The Panama canal will soon place at our door 400,000,000 new customers. China has all but 60,000,000 of these Orientals; Japan has 40,000,000, Korea 10,000,000, and the Philippines 8,000,000. Our exportations to the Philippines has increased from nothing to $6,000,000 a year. Japan has a rapidly growing trade with us now, about evenly balanced by exports and imports, and China, the future great market, is about to undergo a transition. The dowager empress is 70 years old. When she dies China will want American products for use in her modernization. Chinese business men want capital. They need the methods of modern business and America will be advantageously situated to profit by the demand.

"Work on the canal is progressing finely. When it is completed, our country should export more manufactured articles and less agricultural products. We have no merchant marine and in most countries our consular service is not commensurate with the dignity and importance of our affairs. We should buy land in every country to build consulates and pay salaries which would enable men other than millionaires to represent us. Germany and Japan are now both studying the trade demands of China. Where we have one representative there, they each have thirty or forty. To practically exclude all, save millionaires, from such positions is most unrepublican and plutocratic. A more liberal policy would enable the poor man as well as the rich to properly represent the United States abroad.

"China resents our exclusion laws. By waiving our claim to the Boxer indemnity we have convinced the Chinese of our good will towards them. We should use the Philippines as a fulcrum in our trade with China by a wise revision of the Philippine tariff."

ADMIRAL EVANS GETS HIS FIRST MUD BATH.

Paso Robles, Cal., April 6.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans was strong enough yesterday to take a two hours' carriage ride through the hills surrounding the spring. Yesterday morning the admiral was given his first mud bath in the Kurhaus since his arrival here. This was followed by massage treatment for an hour. As he looked at the hot, black, oozy mass in which he was being packed and the sulphurous steam issuing from it, he remarked jocularly: "This is nearer h— than I ever was before."

He not only enjoyed the novel experience, but declared himself wonderfully benefied by the treatment.

Pain Weakens

Headache, rheumatism, neuralgia, or pains of any nature weaken the system—they are a strain upon the nerves. Almost instant relief can be obtained by taking Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills, and without any bad after-effects. Take one on first indication of an attack—it will ward it off. They are a pleasant little tablet, sold by druggists everywhere, 25 doses 25 cents; never sold in bulk.

"I was subject to constant headaches for a period of four years. At times I was almost unfitted for the work in which I am engaged, that of station agent. Through the advice of a friend I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and the result has been that I have entirely eradicated my system of those continuous headaches that follow a continual mental strain. They have done for me all that is claimed for them."

DEATH TAKES MRS. OSBORN

Well Known Resident of Park Point is Stricken.

Arising from the supper table last evening, Mrs. Amelia Osborn of 827 Lake avenue south, Park Point, started to cross the room, when she fell dead, from apoplexy.

Mrs. Osborn had not complained of ill health and seemed to be feeling well all day yeaterday. During the evening meal, she evinced good spirits. A physician was summoned, but said death had been instantaneous.

Mrs. Osborn was the widow of Capt. William Osborn, who was well known here, and whose death occurred four years ago. Mrs. Osborn had lived in Duluth many years and had many friends. She is survived by two sons, Arthur S. and Robert L. Osborn.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The remains will be taken to Bay City, Mich., for interment, beside those of her husband.

YOUNG DENIES HE WILL RETIRE

From Governorship Race and Blames Board of Trade.

St. Paul, April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Attorney General Young yesterday emphatically denied that he is contemplating pulling out of the gubernatorial race, and stated that any rumors to that effect are absolutely groundless. "There is absolutely no truth in the report," he said, "and the whole thing was started for the sole purpose of injuring me. If I were contemplating any such move, I would not give it out to a paper that has been fighting me with fire brands. The story is a malicious concoction and was probably started by the Duluth board of trade because of my activity in that part of the state."

A. B. Cole of Fergus Falls, former state senator and chairman of the Republican state central committee, has written friends in his district that he will not be a candidate for delegate-at-large to the national convention at Chicago. Cole is at present in Texas. Mr. Cole was mentioned for delegate-at-large by the Free Press of Fergus Falls and by others, but Mr. Cole has written them and has also written Senator A. D. Stephens that he does not want the honor.

This, apparently, leaves a clear field for E. B. Hawkins of Duluth to represent the northern part of the state. F. B. Kellogg and W. W. Heffelfinger of Minneapolis will be two of the big four in this fourth place on the delegation lies among F. E. Putnam of Blue Earth, Frank Hunt of Mankato and W. B. Parsons of Winona.

KANE WANTS REIMBURSEMENT

Asks State to Pay His Expenses Back to California.

Through the secretary of the navy a request has been made of the state to reimburse Michael T. Kane of the United States Marine corps for his expenses in traveling from Duluth to the naval station at Mare Island.

Kane was brought back to stand trial for alleged election frauds, but the jury acquitted him in the second trial, following a disagreement at the first trial. Kane was brought back to Duluth at the county's expense, but after his acquittal it was up to him to pay his own fare to California.

Kane had no money and the fare was advanced by the local recruiting officer for the marine corps, the amount being subtracted from Kane's pay for the next two months.

The government inquires whether under the circumstances the state cannot provide for the reimbursement of Kane.

There is no provision under the law whereby the county can reimburse the man it brought back from California to try on the charge of illegal voting. There have been cases in the past where men brought from the range charged with a crime have been acquitted and who had to depend on their friends to get money enough to pay their fare home after the acquittal.

The matter of Kane's expense will be taken with the attorney general to see if there is some state fund from which Kane can be reimbursed for his expense.

GRAY HEADQUARTERS

Established in Washington to Boom the Delaware Statesman.

Washington, April 6.—Supporters of Judge Gray of Delaware for the Democratic nomination for president have completed arrangements for establishing headquarters in Washington, and will actively enter upon a campaign in behalf of the Delaware statesman. Richard J. Beemish of Philadelphia, who will be in charge of the bureau, states that the movement is being made without the aid or encouragement of Judge Gray, who, it is added, has not said a word or done anything that could be construed as seeking the nomination. The fund that is to finance the headquarters has been subscribed, it is understood, by a few Delawareans and Pennsylvanians.

A league of Gray clubs is in process of formation. The work of this organization, according to Mr. Beemish, will be done largely in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, the New England states and the South.

LITTLE STORES CLOSE.

Chief Troyer's Orders to the Clothiers Are Obeyed.

The order issued by Chief Troyer for the closing of the small clothing stores yesterday had its effect, and so far as is known there were no leaks in this particular lid during the day.

The police were instructed to keep a watch on the stores, and members of the Retail Clerks' union were making investigations. The small merchants were ordered to close on the Sabbath at the request of the clerks' union. Many establishments on the Bowery and in the West end and West Duluth have done quite a business on Sunday in the past.

INDIAN CHIEF SAYS

That Mrs. Grey's Charge is Far From Truth.

Washington, April 6.—There was a touch of wild life, but no nature faking, in the senate committee on Indian affairs Saturday when Chief Plenty Coos of the Crow Indians, with several members of his tribe, appeared in opposition to the opening of the Crow reservation in Montana.

The old chief made a most interesting witness. He was the only one of the Indian delegation unable to speak English and he gave his testimony through the aid of two graduates of the Carlisle school.

Senator Dixon questioned Coos about some of the things which Mrs. Helen Pierce Grey, a newspaper correspondent, has been charging before the committee against the management of the affairs of the Indians.

Mrs. Grey has made a statement to the effect that the Crows were unable to make their own living and that they could not sell the produce of their own farms without the consent of Indian Agent Reynolds, and then only to persons designated by him. Chief Plenty Coos, in answer, said:

"I sell my produce wherever I can get the best price, without interference from the agent or anyone else."

In other particulars he gave contradictory testimony to that of Mrs. Grey and when asked whether Reynolds had been a good agent, he replied:

"He has been a good agent—in fact the best we have ever had."

SMOKER AT 93.

But August Bower is Also a Good Sleeper.

Reading, Pa., April 6.—Always smoking his pipe, never drinking any strong beverage; having no toothache and no earache; with a natural set of excellent teeth, and taking good care of his physical condition, August Bower of this city, lays claim to be the healthiest old man in the city of Reading today.

Mr. Bower is 93 years old and in excellent health, cheerful and lacks only a little in hearing. In 1860 he was sick for the first time with typhoid fever, and since then he has not lost a minute of sleep on account of ill-health, though he attributes this to the fact that sharply at 7 every night he retires, and at 8 the next morning he is up and about.

Mr. Bower was born in Germany in December, 1815, and learned, when young, the trade of a weaver, traveling all over Germany working in woolen mills, where broadcloths were made. In 1845 he came to America, landing at New York. After traveling for eight months in some of the Eastern States, he finally followed his trade at Milford, Chester county, where he remained for thirty years, and for many years was overseer of the woolen mill of Dr. McClure. He has held several similar positions since then.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

HOPE BILL WILL PASS

Volstead's Measure That Will Restore Land to Settlement.

Some Good Homesteads Lying Along Red Lake Indian Reserve.

Thief River Falls, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—A matter of no small moment to this section is the passage of the so-called Volstead bill by congress, whereby large tracts of ceded Red Lake Indian lands, that were withdrawn from homestead entry two years ago, are again made available to settlement.

These lands are practically all rich prairie, dotted here and there with small groves of timber. They are included within and lie adjacent to the thirteen townships of the Red Lake reservation, that were opened to settlement four years ago. The purpose of the government's withdrawal of these extensive areas of agricultural lands two years ago was that an extended system of federal drainage for all Northern Minnesota might be established. The surveys for this drainage have been completed, but congress does not feel disposed at present to appropriate the necessary funds to carry on the work; consequently, all these lands are again open to settlement.

Three cents an acre will be added to the government price of the lands to pay for the cost of the survey. Though some of these homesteads are not available for agricultural purposes just now, by reason of the fact that they are too low in wet seasons, still there are thousands of quarters high enough, even in the wettest seasons, for successful farming operations that can be secured under the provisions of this bill. It is the consensus of opinion that the demand for the re-opening of these lands to homestead settlement is the result of the change of trend of the homeseekers. Some influence has been operating to create a demand for Minnesota lands, where for the last four years it has all, apparently, been for regions either further north or west.

THREE CHILDREN FATALLY BURNED

In Destruction of Homesteader's Home in Kittson County.

Hallock, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The brief story of a horrible catastrophe that occurred near Caribou, this, Kittson county, a few days ago, has reached here. Three lives were lost and the home of Oliver Montville, a homesteader, and all its contents destroyed.

Mrs. Montville had her shoulder broken and was otherwise badly injured in being thrown from an upstairs window to safety, and Mr. Montville was terribly burned about the face and hands while trying to rescue his children from the burning building, but only succeeded in rescuing one, George, 16 years old.

Nothing is known as to the origin of the fire, except that the children had been out to a late hour that night spending the evening with neighbors, and that upon their return home and retiring for the night they might have left the fire in the stove unsafe, or carelessly thrown a burning match in the woodbox or some corner where it smouldered and later ignited into a blaze.

At about 1 o'clock Mrs. Montville was awakened by smoke and the roar of flames downstairs, and although nearly sufficated by smoke she managed to arouse her husband and running to the door of the room to help the children who were occupying a chamber across the hall from where they were sleeping she was met by a rush of flames that completely felled her to the floor in an unconscious condition, her husband barely succeeding in dragging her to the window and hurling her out to safety.

Mr. Montville then directed his efforts in trying to rescue his child, who was occupying a bed in the same room, but each attempt failed and he was finally driven out by the flames, which by this time had completely enveloped the interior of the building, only to see his child cremated within arm's length of safety. Leaping to the ground below, ladders were at once hoisted to the window of the room occupied by two other children, but as soon as the window was broken in, the place resembled a fiery furnace, volumes of flames shot out and cut off all possible help, and two more of the unfortunate little ones perished here.

The victims were John, aged 8; Delphine, aged 10, and Mary, aged 13.

GIRL'S PRESENCE OF MIND SAVES RELATIVES' LIVES.

Menominee, Mich., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—By her rare presence of mind, Libbie Pavlot, 12 years old, daughter of Motorman James Pavlot of this city, saved the lives of several children Saturday, when an explosion in the kitchen stove occurred in the Pavlot home, while Mrs. Pavlot was absent.

A number of children had gathered at the home of the young heroine and hovered around the kitchen stove, where some of the older girls were making candy. In some unaccountable manner an explosion took place in the stove and in a second Eva Adams, 8, and John Pavlot, 4, were wrapped in a mass of flame. Rushing into a closet Libbie secured several blankets which she wrapped about the burning children, extinguishing the flames. She then locked the frightened children into the parlor and opening the faucets of the water works put out the blaze before the arrival of the fire department.

The children are only slightly injured, while Libbie is severely burned about her hands and arms. The damage done by the fire was small.

HE BLAMED MORPHINE.

Former Traveling Man Says Drug Caused His Downfall.

St. Paul, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. W. Townsend, a traveling man 26 years of age, when arraigned before Judge Orr, in the district court to receive sentence for forgery, attributed his downfall to the use of opium and morphine, taken at first, he said, by the advice of a physician. He said he believed he had conquered the habit since he was incarcerated in the county jail two months ago, and would be able to leave the drugs alone in the future.

Townsend was charged with passing a forged check for $5 at the Ryan hotel. While being held for the grand jury he pleaded guilty on information. His counsel asked the court for a straight prison sentence in preference to an indeterminate reformatory sentence and Judge Orr made it fifteen months in state prison.

MURDERER NOAH HELD

To Grand Jury for Killing Gus Johnson Near Kenmare.

Minot, N. D., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rober S. Noah, the self-confessed murderer of Gus Johnson, the Kenmare farmer, waived preliminary examination before Judge Murray and was bound over to the district court.

Patsy Coyle also appeared before the court, but did not wish to enter a plea. He stated that he desired to consult an attorney before he made a plea.

The two men are held on a charge of murder in the first degree. The confession of Noah frees Coyle from any participation in the murder, but the authorities believe that he was an accomplice, either before or after the fact.

The two men are notorious characters, and the outcome of their trial will be watched with interest.

TRAMMER IS KILLED.

Caught Between Rock and Car, Life is Crushed Out.

Calumet, Mich., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—While working in No. 4 shaft of the Mohawk mine, Joe Orsen was caught between a tram car and a large piece of rock which had fallen from the hanging, and so badly injured that he died on the way to the surface. He was 21 years of age and a trammer by occupation.

The rock, after falling, rolled over towards the car and Orsen happened to be in the way. The young fellow's injuries were of a shocking nature and he lived only a few minutes.

While working underground in the North Tamarack, Carl Poulich was injured severely in the foot by falling rock. The injured man was conveyed to the Tamarack hospital, where he is now detained as an inmate. It is not believed amputation will be necessary.

WAS TOO EAGER.

Man With Good Appetite Nearly Chokes to Death.

Pine City, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—While eating his supper Thursday night at the Willow River house, in Willow River, Frank Kars, who lives on the St. Croix road, east of here, choked on a piece of meat and nearly died.

Kars left the table with the meat still lodged in his throat and wandered out doors in a partial stuper. His absence was later noticed and a search found him in the alley unconscious. Dr. Ehmke was caleld and arrived just in time to remove the meat and save the man's life. The size of the morsel he choked on is variously estimated to have weighed from three ounces to a full pound.

CUTTING STATE TIMBER

Is the Charge Against Fourteen Farmers Under Arrest.

Roseau, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fourteen farmers were taken before Justice R. H. Medicraft on Wednesday, charged upon complaint of E. C. Cooke, special agent for the state, with having wrongfully cut and removed from 17, 20 and 21, town 162 range 38, which are state lands, tamarac, spruce and balsam logs. In each case the examination was continued until this week. The charge is one to be considered by the grand jury, in case the defendants are bound over by the justice after examination. If indictments are returned by that body, trial will be had in the district court.

OLD LARIMOREITE DEAD.

Larimore, N. D., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—M. Edison died at a Grand Forks hospital Saturday after an illness of several weeks. The deceased was 81 years of age and had resided on his farm near Larimore for about twenty years. He was born in Eastern Canada and is survived by four sons and three daughters. His funeral will be held here tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. under the auspices of the Grand Forks Elks.

POWDER EXPLOSION

At State University Scares People, Doing Some Damage.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 6.—Hundreds of persons were momentarily panic-stricken, and hundreds of buildings in Southeast Minneapolis were violently shaken Saturday evening by the explosion of a gunpowder magazine on the state university campus. The report of the explosion was clearly heard even in the down-town business district. Houses within a half a mile of the university felt the force of the concussion, which shattered scores of windows.

Moved by a common impulse, hundreds, even thousands of persons rushed from their homes, and the streets were soon alive with hurrying throngs. Several thousand persons congregated on the university campus within a few minutes.

No one was injured by the explosion, but the damage to window glass was heavy.

The largest damage was done to the windows of university buildings, the mining, law, Y. M. C. A, library, mechanic arts, chemistry and pathology buildings. Aaway from the campus, the greatest damage was in the district to the northwest, where hundreds of windows were broken.

WOULD BRIBE OFFICER.

Rather Serious Charge Against Man Arrested in Minot.

Minot, N. D., April 6.—Henry Brown and A. E. Miller have been arrested on the charge of gambling. They were both accused of operating gambling rooms in the city. Miller is also charged with giving Chief of Police Hagen a $150 bribe in money to prevent his arrest for blind pigging and gambling. The last complaint was sworn out by Kruse, Miller's partner. The arrests are supposed to be of political significance, as the election is on today and every effort is being made to defeat Sam Clark by the Civic league.

LIQUOR IN TEAPOTS.

How Swell St. Paul Restaurants Are Beating Lid Law.

St. Paul, Minn., April 6.—The Young People's Law Enforcement league, a federation of Baptist Young People's societies, Christian Endeavor societies and the Epworth leagues of the city, have made public a report of a committee that has been investigating conditions in St. Paul since the police commission ordered the enforcement of the "lid" laws, providing that no liquor shall be sold on Sunday or after 11 p. m.

"It is plain," says the report, "that the police are not enforcing the law as they should and as they can."

The report says that various saloons in St. Paul were closely watched Sunday, March 29, and that frequent violations of the law were discovered. Concerning the 11 o'clock law, it is asserted that "swell" restaurants serve liquor in teapots after 11 p. m. The report adds, however, that this is a practice that it would be difficult for the police to break up.

THREE-FOOT VEIN

Of Paying Copper Ore Said to Have Been Struck.

Hinckley, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Great Northern Copper company struck a three-foot vein of paying copper ore in the new drift in its shaft No. 3, Thursday afternoon. If this vein does not "pinch out" there is already ore enough in sight to assure a paying mine. The ore in this vein has not as yet been assayed, but there can be no doubt of its containing large quantities of copper. Mr. Kibbee says he does not think it as rich as that contained in the cracks or "lenses" leading to it, but it is "rich enough."

Ever since commencing this drift which is at a depth of fifty feet, the miners have felt confident of striking a large vein soon. Their faith now appears to have been justified.

DULUTH FIRM AWARDED

Munising, Mich., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—A contract for the construction of a highway extending from Halston to a point one mile south of Chatham has been awarded by the Alger county road commission to Carl Hall & Co. of Duluth. The contract price is about $35,000. The work will be completed by Sept. 1, it is expected. The construction of three bridges that will be necessary is not included in the contract. The new road will be built in accordance with the state specifications and will earn for the county a bonus of $1,000 a mile.

LAUNDRY MEN TO MEET.

Northwestern Association to Gather in Fargo in May.

Fargo, Dak., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual meeting of the Northwestern Laundrymen's association will be held here May 4 and 5, and the two large halls on the second floor of the Loyal Knights temple have been engaged for the occasion. This association comprises the states of Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota and North and South Dakota. The president is W. O. Webster of St. Paul, and the secretary C. A. Ramsom, Albert Lea.

There will be 150 delegates in attendance and in addition there will be a large number of laundry supply and machinery men and it is expected that there will be several very attractive exhibits.

BLEW OFF HIS HEAD.

Montevideo, Minn., April 6.—Nils Kvien, aged 25, who lived with Andrew Stenson, six miles south of here, committed suicide. While the men were away from the farm he took a shotgun and went to a pasture and blew off the top of his head. He had been ill and could not sleep, and was probably insane.

RETIRES ON PENSION.

Old Northwestern Passenger Man Will Take Life Easy.

Madison, Wis., April 6.—James Gibson, traveling passenger agent for the Northwestern road for the past thirty-five years and for twenty-three years a resident of this city, was retired on a pension by the road on April 1. He reached the age of 70 years last St. Patrick's day. He holds two records, first, for continuous service in one position and second, he is one of the few men who have refused promotion.

"Gib," as he is known from coast to coast, has lost track of the number of times that he ran away from promotion, but he finally succeeded in tiring out the management and for the past few years he has been left alone. He was born in Genessee county, New York, and served through the Civil war with a New York regiment.

TAX COLLECTIONS GOOD.

Work of Ashland's Treasurer Shows Pretty Good Times.

Ashland, Wis., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—When City Treasurer Nohl closed his books and concluded the collection of taxes, Saturday there had been collected the sum of $210,210.18, Only $21,-818.40 was turned over to the county treasurer as delinquent and uncollected. After the books were closed, several amounts were turned in to the county treasurer direct.

It is said that this is the largest tax ever collected in Ashland. For a number of years collections have run from $16,000 to $23,000 below the above figures Mr. Nohl has made these collections during a winter in which money has been tighter than it has been in fourteen years. There is certainly some loose money in Ashland when the phenomenal sum of $210,000 can be collected in times such as these.

IN FINANCIAL STRAITS.

Akeley, Minn., April 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Farmers' Exchange, with local branches in this section, at Long Prairie and Browerville, is reported in a bad way financially. A statement from the secretary asserts that it will require an assessment equal to 25 per cent of the capital stock to pay the liabilities of the company.

HERE I AM AGAIN with your favorite breakfast food "FORCE"

It was always good enough, but it's better than ever now. Get the "happy habit" by eating the food that's full of sunshine and strength. FORCE has all the muscle-making material in the whole wheat combined with barley-malt—the "pre-digested energy" of two great life-giving cereals.

"FORCE" is made of the best white wheat, steam-cooked, rolled into thin flakes, combined with the purest barley-malt and baked. Always "crisp" it before serving it by pouring into a pan and warming it in oven. Then serve in large dish with cream, piling the flakes in one side of the dish and pouring the cream in the other side, dipping the flakes as eaten.

Your Grocer sells it. No other Flaked Food is "Just as Good."

THREE TRAMPS BELIEVED TO HAVE ENDANGERED TOWN.

Eau Claire, Wis., April 6—Fire Sunday in the yards of the Badger State Lumber company, twelve miles west of here threatened the destruction of the village of Elk Mound, adjoining the yards. In response to calls, sent here for help, a special train on the Northwestern conveyed apparatus to the scene and saved the town.

The lumber company's entire plant including office buildings was wiped out together with the merchantile establishment of Brackett, Repine & Weber, three loaded freight cars and the village fire department building and contents. The loss is about $20,000. The authorities are looking for three tramps who are suspected of setting fire to the lumber yards.

Adams will retire in a few weeks in advance of Gen. McKenzie, it was Adams whose report resulted in the decision of the government to construct the locks and dams between Minneapolis and St. Paul.

U. S. OFFICERS ON TRAIL.

Damaging Evidence in Helena Cases Against McLeod and Dallas.

Helena, Mont., April 6.—Damaging evidence was submitted in the federal court Saturday in the trial of J. D. McLeod and O. C. Dallas, former head draftsman and chief clerk respectively, in the office of the United States surveyor general here, who was indicted on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government.

J. M. Bullard, draftsman, testified that signatures to certain field notes were forged, and instead of being those of the surveyors who had done the work, were in the handwriting of Dallas. Thomas Lawson, for ten years stenographer in the office, swore he had prepared field notes and letters of trasmittal for Dallas, and that he had seen him sign the names of deputy mineral surveyors thereto. The government will close its case today.

WHEAT HAS A DECLINE

The Market is Soft During the Entire Session.

Flax is Off More Than a Point in Duluth Market.

Duluth Board of Trade, April 6.—Wheat declined heavily in all of the American markets today. Rains in the Southwest, weaker cables, liberal world's shipments and a small decrease in the visible supply combined to make a weak market.

The bulls tried to point out the rains in Kansas and Nebraska were not in localities which particularly needed moisture, but they could not find anything in the day's news to give strength to the market. It was a selling market from the opening, and the close was at the low level of the day.

Liverpool closed ¼d lower, Budapest 1½c lower and Berlin was ⅜c higher.

The May option closed 1⅝c lower in Duluth and Minneapolis, 2⅛c lower in Chicago, 2⅜c lower in New York and 1⅝c lower in Winnipeg. The July option closed at 1⅜c lower in Duluth, 1⅞-2c lower in Chicago, 1⅛-1¼c lower in Minneapolis, 1⅝c lower in New York and 1⅝c lower in Winnipeg.

May corn closed ⅛c lower in Chicago and was unchanged in Liverpool. May oats closed ⅜c lower in Chicago.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool:

"There was a steady undertone to the speculative wheat market during the early trading, but extremely dull. Values ruled about ¼d to ½d, being influenced by the increase in the local stocks, and the larger Russian shipments than expected, with continued liberal world's exports for the week. The nearby option held at this lower price while the distant month steadied some on the less pressure of La Plata offerings. At mid-day, the market was very dull and from ¼d to ½d lower than Saturday.

"Corn was quiet and unchanged. The market was neglected."

Car receipts at Duluth were 20 against 172 last year, and at Minneapolis 354 against 546 last year, making a total for the Northwest of 374 against 718 last year. Chicago received 27 against 10 last year. Winnipeg received 238 against 366 last year.

Primary receipts of wheat were 576,000 bus, last year 963,000 bus. Shipments 241,000 bus, last year 393,000 bus. Clearances of wheat and flour aggregated 266,000 bus.

The visible supply of wheat increased 711,000 bus, and is now 38,798,000 bus, against 49,659,000 bus last year.

Primary receipts of corn were 576,000 bus, last year 731,000 bus. Shipments 328,000 bus, last year 772,000 bus. Clearances of corn were 7,175 bus.

The visible supply of corn decreased 212,000 bus, and is now 5,777,000 bus.

World's shipments of wheat and corn last week, the week previous and the corresponding week a year ago are shown as follows:

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Rain in the Southwest Causes Weakness in Wheat.

Chicago, April 6.—The wheat market opened weak today because of rain in the Southwest, the official forecast of rain tonight in Nebraska and lower cables. May wheat opened 1⅛@1¼c lower to a shade higher at 92⅛c to 92¾c and sold at 91⅞c. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 401 cars against 431 cars last week and 728 cars one year ago.

Prices continued to decline throughout the remainder of the session, July and September selling 2c more than 1c and May more than 2c from the high point of the day. The low point for May was 90½c. The market closed weak at almost the lowest point, May being 2½@2⅝c off at 90⅝@⅞c.

The corn market was weak in sympathy with wheat and because of local receipts, which were above the estimate. May corn opened ¾@1c lower at 66⅝c and sold at 66½c. Local receipts were 203 cars, with 65 of contract grade.

Buying by shorts caused a rally about the middle of the day, sending May up to 67c. Later the market weakened along with wheat, and May declined to 66¼c. The close was weak, with May off ¼@⅜c at 66¼c.

The oats market was easy because of good weather for the crop in the Southwest, and also in sympathy with wheat and corn. May oats opened ¼@⅜c lower at 52⅝c to 53c and sold at 53⅛c. Local receipts were 165 cars.

The provisions market was dull and prices were firm. May pork opened 2½c to 12½c higher at $13.32½ to $13.37½. Lard was 12½c higher at $8.35. Ribs were 2½@2½c higher at $8.12½.

Close: Wheat—May, 90½@⅞c; July, 89⅜@⅝c; September, 89½c. Corn—May, 66¼c to 66⅜@⅝c; July, 65⅜@66c; September, 65⅝c. Oats—May, old, 52½c; May, 51¼c; July, old, 45¾c; July, 44c; September, 38c. Pork—May, $13.32½; July, $13.07½. Lard—May, $8.27½; July, $8.05@8.02½. Ribs—May, $8.80; July, $8.42½. Rye—Cash, 70@73c. Barley—Cash, 40@53c. Timothy—April, $4.60. Clover—Cash, $12.00. Cash wheat—No. 2 red, 95⅝@97¼c; No. 3 red, 91⅝@93½c; No. 2 hard, 96⅜@$1.00; No. 3 hard, 89⅜@93½c; No. 3 spring, 83@$1.04; others, nothing doing. Corn—No. 2, nothing doing; No. 3, 66@66c.

THE MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Advices of Rain Causes Wheat to Sag Before Noon.

Minneapolis, April 6.—Wheat sagged and was lower in price before noon. The trade sold on the advices of rain Southwest, although there were still enough reports of dry weather to make the situation seem uncertain. The monthly crop report was favorable. On the other hand, some Kansas towns sent very unfavorable news. Minneapolis stocks showed a decrease of 30,000 bushels for two days and receipts today were 354 cars against 546 a year ago, Duluth geeting only 20 cars against 172.

The increase in the visible supply of 711,000 bushels had some weakening effect. There was some resistance at the dollar line, but finally both options went lower, May falling to 99⅜c and July to 95⅝c. May opened at $1.01⅛; nigh, $1.01¾; low, 99⅜c; close, $1. July closed at 95⅝c; September, 89⅝c.

Cash wheat was in fair demand, but only at 1@1½c over May, except a few choice lots which brought 2c over. No. 2 northern sold at ½@1c under. Local and outside millers and elevators all took a little. Close: No. 1 northern, $1.04¾ spot or to arrive; No. 2 northern, 98¾c, spot or to arrive; No. 3 wheat, 91¾@96¾c.

No. 3 yellow corn, 61¾@62¼c.

No. 2 white oats, 48¾@48⅝c. No. 2 rye, 71¾@72¾c.

Barley was steady and for some lots slightly firmer; closed at 60@86c.

Flax in demand at Duluth May price, crushers taking it. Close, $1.14.

Bran in bulk, $21.25@21.50.

Flour: Prices were reduced 10c on all grades. Demand is quiet and there is a lack of shipping instructions for old orders on the books, which makes the outward movement light. Shipments, 30,-565 barrels. First patents, $4.15@4.50; second patents, $5.05@5.20; first clears, $4.05@4.15; second clears, $3.10@3.20.

Grain Gossip.

The export grain firm of Norris & Co., with offices at Chicago, Winnipeg and Montreal, is obtaining considerable free advertising through the claim that their export business, totalling 30,000,000 bushels from March 1, 1906, to March 31, 1908, constituted a record for any firm in the business.

It is true that 30,000,000 bushels is a great deal of grain for one firm to handle in two years, but the Ames-Brooks company of Duluth has beaten that by 6,000,000 bushels, and the Ames-Brooks business consisted of wheat and flax alone.

There is probably no doubt that the Ames-Brookes company, with the head office at Duluth and branches at Winnipeg and New York, is the largest exporting grain firm in the country.

The 36,000,000 bushels exported by them in the two years ending March 1 last, was in addition to the very important domestic grain business.

Midway Horse Market.

Minnesota Transfer, St. Paul, Minn., April 6.—Barrett & Zimmerman report: Market for the day opened very quiet with trade developing and by midday an active market was in progress. Good number of drafters and big brood mares changed hands. The urgent request for farm mares and good chunks continues. Another consignment of second-hand logging horses arrived during the day, many of which found ready takers before the close of the afternoon. The pleasant weather of the past two days has brought many inquiries for well broke saddlers and family drivers. The large number of loggers on the market tends to keep down the values in the other classes. Following uneven values rule:

REMARKS.

Light rains fell during Sunday or last night in the Lake region and Ohio Valley states. Moderate temperatures were the rule except that freezing weather prevailed in the Northwest last night.

H. W. RICHARDSON,
Local Forecaster.

T indicates inappreciable rainfall.
* For yesterday.  For twenty-four hours ending at 8 a. m., 75th meridian time.

NOTE—The average maximum and minimum temperatures and the average rainfall are made up at each center from the actual number of reports received. The state of weather is that prevailing at time of observation.

DECLINES IN STOCKS

Early Gains Were Lost When Profit-Taking Took Place.

Dullness During Most of Session and Close Was Easy.

New York, April 6.—Prices of stocks started higher today than last week's closing, with the exception of Erie, which declined ¼. The convertible "A" bonds of that company sold at an advance of 3¾. Canadian Pacific 1¾. Baltimore & Ohio 1¼. Denver & Rio Grande and Toledo, St. Louis and Western preferred 1. The other gains were fractional and exceeded ½ only in Northern Pacific and Anaconda.

Fractional inroads were made on prices of the general list, and the Erie and United States Steel stocks exhibited weakness. A quiet accumulation began at the lower level, and the market ultimately hardened, but snowed some heaviness in spots and became semi-stagnant Canadian Pacific moved up 2¾. Delaware & Hudson 1½ and Rock Island, Southern Railway preferred, Colorado & Southern first preferred, National Lead and Westinghouse Electric 1. Erie yielded a point and the first preferred 1½ while the convertible "A" bonds jumped 6¾, the "B's" 2½ and the general 4's 3½.

Operations were small but the demand was sufficient to harden prices. Union Pacific, St. Paul, Reading, Chesapeake & Ohio and North American established gains of a point. Northwestern 1¼. Pacific Coast 1½ and American Ice and Mackay Companies preferred 2. Bonds were irregular.

Speculation was pratcleally at a standstill during the mid-day hour. Lackawanna sold at an advance of 7½ and Republic Steel preferred 1. United States Rubber gave way 2¾.

The market during the ensuing hour remained in a torpid condition and offered no feature for notice.

The market closed easy and dull. The few stocks in which the slender operations centered, surrendered their gains when profit was sought by re-sales. Illinois Central showed a loss of 1⅛. Cleveland, C., C. & St. Louis 1⅜, and Consolidated Gas and United States Rubber first preferred 1, while Third Avenue rose 1.

Copper Gossip.

Boston to Gay & Sturgis: The stock markets today were at an almost record condition of stagnation. The dealings were so small and fluctuations so insignificant that comment is impossible. The market is waiting for an initiative and is more likely to derive encouragement than the contrary. News was very scarce. Final prices were practically unchanged.

The Cotton Market.

New York, April 6.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 9 points and during the early session sold off to a net loss of 12@14 points under easy Liverpool cables, good weather in the South and rumors that an important importing house at Barcelona was in financial difficulties. Trading was in financial difficulties. Trading was moderately active during the early session and prices were easy under liquidation by recent buyers and a renewal of bear pressure, notwithstanding reports of steadiness in the interior spot markets.

Cotton, spot, closed quiet, 15 points lower; middling uplands, 10.35; middling gulf, 10.60; sales, none. Futures closed steady. Cosing bids: April, 9.41; May, 9.51; July, 9.57; August, 9.50; October, 9.46; December, 9.46; January, 9.46; March, 9.47.

New York Money.

New York, April 6.—Close: Money on call easy at 1½@2 per cent; ruling rate, 1¾ offered at 2. Time loans, dull and steady; sixty days, 3 to 3¼ per cent; ninety days, 3¼ to 3½ per cent; six months, 3¾ to 4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 4½@5¼ per cent. Sterling exchange, steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.86.45@4.86.50 for demand, and at $4.84.15@4.84.20 for sixty-day bills. Commercial bills, $4.83¾. Bar silver, 55¾c. Mexican dollars, 47c. Government bonds, easy. Railroad bonds, irregular.

Treasury Balances.

Washington, April 6.—Today's treasury statement: Available cash balance, $261,201,494. Gold coin and bullion, $226,224,745. Gold certificates, $26,992,280.

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, April 6.—Cattle: Receipts, about 20,000; market, strong to 10c higher; beeves, $4.65@7.40; cows and heifers, $2.10@6.10; Texans, $4.50@5.50; calves, $4.75@6.75; Westerners, $4.40@5.50; stockers and feeders, $3.25@6.35. Hogs: Receipts, about 40,000; market, steady to a shade lower; light, $6.85@6.20; mixed, $6.80@6.25; heavy, $6.80@6.22½; rough, $6.80@6.95; pigs, $4.75@5.60; bulk of sales, $6.05@6.10. Sheep: Receipts, about 20,000; market, weak to 10c lower; native, $4.75@6.75; Western, $4.80@6.75; yearlings, $6.20@7.30; lambs, $6.00@7.80; Western, $6.25@7.80.

SELECTING JURY

To Try Rebating Case Against the Great Western Railway.

New York, April 6.—The task of selecting a jury to try the case of the government against the Great Northern Railway company, on a charge of violating the Elkins anti-rebating law, began today before Judge Holt in the United States circuit court.

The indictment charges the Great Northern railway with having paid rebates to the American Sugar Refining company on sugar shipments to Sioux City, Iowa, in 1904. The sugar was turned over to the Great Northern at Superior, Wis., having originally been shipped from New York via the New York Central railroad and the latter's connecting lines. The American Sugar Refining company has practically confessed to the acceptance of rebates from the New York Central.

"HARMONY TICKET"

For Directors of Lake Superior Corporation Elected.

New York, April 6.—At the adjourned annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lake Superior corporation, which was held today in Jersey City, a "harmony" ticket for a board of directors was elected by unanimous vote. The ticket was nominated by J. Tainall Lee of Philadelphia, who was the principal defendant in the recent injunction proceedings, and seconded by Charles E. Orvis, one of the complainants, who represented the Canadian Improvement company, which was organized to promote the Lake Superior corporation.

The board elected is as follows:

Francis T. Reeves, James May, Horatio G. Lloyd, Charles S. Hischman and J. Tainall Lee, all of Philadelphia; John T. Perry, Jr., of New York; Leander N. Lovell of New Jersey; Charles D. Warren of Toronto, Can.; Thomas J. Drummond and R. Wilson Smith of Montreal; George Pattison of Breston, Can.; and William J. Sheppard of Toronto.

The directors elected Charles D. Warren as president of the corporation; Francis R. Reeves, first vice president, and Thomas J. Drummond, second vice president; John T. Terry, secretary and treasurer.

NEGOES RIOTING.

Augusta, Ga., April 6.—The police reserves were called out here today to quell a riot among negroes at Twiggs and Charles streets. Mack Fryers, a negro, was fatally shot by the police.

MILLS ON FULL TIME.

Plainfield, Conn., April 6.—The Lawton cotton mills here and cotton mills in other Western Connecticut towns, employing in all about 2,500 persons, were on full time today after a long period of curtailment.

QUARANTINE AGAINST CUBA.

Washington, April 6.—The marine hospital and public health service today issued an order establishing a quarantine beginning today against Cuba with the exception of the Metropolitan district of Habana, which includes Habana, Mariano and Camp Columbia.

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS.

Plymouth—Arrived: Steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II. New York for Bremen.

Burglary on Park Point.

While Mrs. E. O. Ruppe of 3225 Minnesota avenue was attending the funeral of a former friend Saturday afternoon, burglars entered her home and stole her jewelry and what money they could find, amounting to about $15.

GRAVES OF CELEBRITIES.

Exhumation of the Bodies of Charles I and Oliver Cromwell.

Tid-Bits: To many people who have been following the Druce-Portland case may be interesting to recall cases where the last resting places of great men have been disturbed for various reasons.

W. P. Frith, R. A., tells of a relic which was once shown him by an official of St. George's chapel, Windsor—a fragment of the flesh of Charles I enshrined in a locket—and the

CHANGE IN THE FLEET'S PLANS

Slight Modification in Trip of the Battleships Northward.

Washington, April 6.—Some slight modification in the plans of the parade of the Atlantic battleship fleet from Magdalena bay to San Francisco as announced at the navy department Saturday, and which provides for stops at Port Harford and Monterey were made public today. As a result of the changes the fleet will leave Santa Barbara April 29 instead of the 30th, as stated Saturday, and it will go to Port Harford, reaching there the 30th. Only a brief stop will be made at Port Harford, the vessels leaving there on the day of their arrival for Monterey, where they are due May 1. The next day, May 2, they are to leave for Santa Cruz, reaching there the same day, a day later than originally announced, and will sail from that place for San Frncisco on the fifth of May.

The line-up and formation of the vessels to participate in the grand naval review in San Francisco bay was announced formally at the navy department today. Battleships, armored cruisers, gunboats, torpedo boat destroyers and fleet auxiliaries will make up the formidable combination, which will be reviewed by Secretary Metcalf and witnessed by the people of California. Forty-six vessels are scheduled to participate.

TO ATTEND THE TRIAL

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn Jones Returns to Husband in Duluth.

Young Socialist Agitator is Recovered After Recent Breakdown.

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn Jones, the young socialist agitator and wife of P. D. Jones, socialist agitator and organizer for the Western Federation of Miners, arrived in the city this morning to be present at the trial of the damage suit which her husband has instituted against the village of Aurora and Marshal Knutl, for alleged false imprisonment, slander and assault.

Last fall Elizabeth Gurley Flynn made her first appearance in this part of the country and made quite a stir on the range with her socialistic speeches, representing the Industrial Workers of the World. While she was in Duluth she met Jones, who was working along similar lines for the Western Federation of Miners, and the two agreed to join fortune in the bonds of matrimony.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gurley Flynn Jones returned east after her trip on the Mesaba and Gogebic ranges to recuperate from an attack of nervous prostration. It was understood that she was going to Colorado and on out to the coast as soon as she recovered sufficiently to warrant the hardships of the trip.

The trial of Jones against the village of Aurora and its marshal began last Friday.

Jones was arrested on suspicion of being connected with the dynamiting outrage in connection with the home of Capt. Nichols of the Mohawk mine. He was kept a few days in the village jail and released, as there was no evidence to warrant his being bound over. Jones claims that his arrest and imprisonment was the result of malice, that he was kept in a filthy cell, that he was assaulted by the officer and basely slandered. He demands about $3,500 in damages.

Jones is represented at the trial by J. A. Keyes, attorney for the Western Federation of Miners, while the village and its marshal are represented by J. H. Norton and C. O. Baldwin.

Several witnesses were called by the defense this morning to testify concerning conversations they had with Jones and Knutl.

Mrs. Jones, accompanied by an elderly woman, arrived on the morning train from Chicago. She has the appearance of a person who has recently recovered from an illness. Mrs. Jones was modestly dressed in dark colors and wore a red felt hat with a black plume. She remained in the courtroom about twenty minutes and held a whispered conversation with her husband.

TO RESURFACE LONDON ROAD

Estimated Six Blocks May be Improved for $4,000.

The city engineer has completed his estimate of the extent to which London road can be resurfaced from the intersection with Superior street, by an expenditure of $4,000. The estimate, which will be presented to the council tonight, is that six blocks may be covered for that sum, or from about Ninth avenue, where the intersection occurs, to Fifteenth avenue east.

Macadam is the material contemplated in the improvement and the work will be done much as was that on London road near Lester Park. It is a noticeable fact that the work can be done much more cheaply this year than it was when the Lakeside work was taken up, the decrease in the cost of labor and material being responsible.

The plan to pave London road with asphalt this year has fallen through, but the road is in bad condition, and considerable work will be done on it. The consideration of the improvement has not fallen through, however, and it is believed it will be revived next year, and, if conditions are right, will be pushed to consummation.

WILL GO TO SHILOH.

City Engineer McGilvray Will Travel With Governor's Staff.

City Engineer Thomas F. McGilvray, who is an aide-de-camp on Governor Johnson's staff with the rank of colonel, will leave tonight for St. Paul, where he will join the governor's party for a trip to the battlefield of Shiloh. On April 12 the governor will unveil the monument erected by Minnesotans to the Minnesota soldiers, who lost their lives and are buried on the battlefield. The party will visit the Mammoth cave of Kentucky en route and will sail down the Ohio river from Louisville to Fort Glasgow, the nearest point to the battlefield. The trip will consume about two weeks.

THAW SUIT FOR DIVORCE FILED

Evelyn Asks Annulment of Marriage on Ground of Insanity.

New York, April 6.—Counsel for Evelyn Nesbit Thaw today filed in the supreme court the suit for annulment of her marriage with Harry Kendall Thaw. The annulment is asked on the ground that Thaw was insane at the time of the marriage. Papers in the proceedings were served on Thaw several weeks ago.

A. Russell Peabody, counsel for Harry K. Thaw and his mother, Mrs. William Thaw, both of whom are named as defendants in the action, filed a notice with the court today consenting to the appointment of a referee to take testimony.

Daniel O'Rielly said that Evelyn Thaw will sail for Europe Saturday.

OFFICIAL CALL IS OUT

Democrats Getting Ready for St. Louis County Convention.

Primaries May 6 and County Meeting the Following Saturday.

The official call for the Democratic county convention, signed by W. E. McEwen, chairman of the county committee, and T. J. McKeon, secretary, was issued today.

The call states that a Democratic delegate convention for the county of St. Louis will be held Saturday, May 9, at the city hall in Duluth, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of selecting twenty-nine delegates to the Democratic state convention, which will be held in St. Paul on Thursday, May 14. The purpose of the latter convention will be to select twenty-two delegates and twenty-two alternates to the national Democratic convention, to be held at Denver, July 7.

The county convention also will be for the purpose of designating a resident of the county, who shall be recommended to the state convention for election as member of the state central committee. Other business bearing on politics will come before the county convention in addition to that outlined.

The basis of representation to the county convention will be one delegate for each sixty votes or major fraction thereof cast for Governor John A. Johnson at the last general convention, and also one delegate-at-large for each precinct.

The primaries for the election of delegates to the county convention will be held in the usual voting places in the several precincts of the county, on Wednesday, May 6, from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m., in cities and villages, and in townships between 2 and 4 p. m.

SECRETARY TAFT GUEST OF OMAHA

Presidential Candidate to Spend Two Days in the City.

Omaha, Neb., April 6.—Secretary Taft arrived here at 8:30 a. m. today. He was received at the union station by Gen. Gardner, commanding the department of the Missouri and his entire staff in full dress uniform and by a local reception committee. The secretary was taken to the Rome hotel for breakfast. He held an informal reception on the station platform.

The program planned was deviated from partically and the automobile trip to Fort Omaha, Neb., was deferred until Tuesday. The secretary spent three hours during the morning preparing for his night address and going over his mail, which he found voluminous.

The noon luncheon at the Omaha club was the first formal affair indulged in by Secretary Taft. Victor Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee was host, and in addition to the war secretary the guests were United States Senators Brown and Burkett, Governor Sheldon and the members of the Nebraska delegation to the National Republican convention.

LULU COOK GOES FOR 60 DAYS

Colored Woman's Operations Among Woodsmen Are Frowned Upon.

Lulu Cook, a colored lady, who operates among the woodsmen, gathering what change she can by the "frisking" process, it is said, was in court this morning. Lulu's methods have often been frowned upon by the police and the courts, and her plea of guilty to the charge against her drew a fine of $75 and costs or sixty days without delay from the court. She was arrested Saturday night.

• • •

John McPhee, Will Chapman and Dan O'Donnell are said to have created a disturbance Saturday night on the street. They were arrested, and O'Donnell put up $10 bail, which he forfeited this morning. McPhee and Chapman pleaded not guilty to disorderly conduct, and their hearing was set for this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

• • •

Martin Fortunies and Charles Oloculovich, Austrians, were charged with trespassing on private property. They couldn't understand English, and a plea of not guilty was entered for them, their hearing being set for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

• • •

There was a motley array of plain drunks, gathered in during Saturday night's hilarities. They drew the usual light sentences for first offenses.

Paving of Steel.
There is a section of the streets of Paris where steel paving blocks are being laid as an experiment. It is claimed that an advantage will be a uniform surface, of great wearing resistance. New inventions are being perfected every day, but it is a question if anything will ever be manufactured that will equal golden grain belt beer in food value and tonic properties, or supplant it in favor as a home beverage. Order of your nearest dealer, or be supplied by Duluth branch Minneapolis Brewing Co.

HOW THE FIGURE NINE

Has Pursued a Philadelphia Woman Throughout Her Life.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 6.—How much the figure nine can affect the life of a woman was shown the other day when 9-year-old Yetta Weinstein died of convulsions at the Pennsylvania hospital. Her mother, who was Jennie Silverman before her marriage, is one woman who does not believe that the figure nine is lucky, and the story of her life seems to prove her belief.

Her maiden name contained nine letters and she was married to a man, Weinstein, which also contains nine letters.

IF

You had something you wanted to sell, you wouldn't think of walking up and down the street with a placard on your back, with a description of the article and the statement that you wanted to sell it, would you? And you wouldn't think of writing to or telephoning everybody in town and telling them, would you?

Of course, not. You would adopt The Herald "Want" ad way. The quick, sure, effective way—and then you would make a sale.

Try and see. If you cannot come to the office just call
